HEAD COACH - SECOND SEASON

Evan Clark was named the head coach of Illinois women's tennis on June 10, 2016, following a year as the interim head coach.

Illinois posted a 14-13 mark during the 2016-17 season, including a 7-4 record in Big Ten play. Louise Kwong garnered All-Big Ten honors, and was one of five Fighting Illini to be named Academic All-Big Ten.

In his first year at the helm of the Illinois women's tennis program, Clark led the Illini to a 15-9 record, including an 8-3 mark in Big Ten play, for the team's first 15-win season since 2012. Illinois advanced to the Big Ten Tournament Semifinals, eventually falling to Ohio State. The Illini finished the season at No. 49 in the final Oracle/ITA Collegiate Women's Tennis Rankings.

Clark was named interim head coach of Illinois women's tennis during the summer of 2015. Clark joined the Illini program on December 1, 2014 as an assistant under Michelle Dasso after a two-year stretch as the head coach at the University of North Carolina Wilmington. In his first season with the Fighting Illini women's tennis team, Clark helped the unit to a 14-10 record, including a seven-match winning streak to close out the regular season.

During the 2013-14 season at UNC Wilmington, Clark led the Seahawks to the program's first women's Colonial Athletic Association conference championship. Clark was named the CAA's Coach of the Year and had players named as both the CAA "Player of the Year" and "Freshman of the Year".

The University of Missouri-Kansas City graduate coached the team to a 31-11 record during his time at the helm of the program.

Prior to his time at UNC Wilmington, Clark served as the assistant coach for the University of Maryland's men's team from 2010-12. At Maryland Clark helped the Terrapins to their first NCAA tournament berth in program history. He also assisted the program to its highest ITA national ranking in the program's history (No. 38).

Clark also served as the Penn State University assistant women's coach prior to his time at Maryland. The Liberty, Missouri native also served as the assistant coach for the women's varsity team at his alma mater.

With a perfect 31-0 record, Clark took home the 2002 Missouri High School 4A State Singles Championship and was voted the Kansas City Star Tennis Male Athlete of the Year. He was also named first-team All-Mid-Continent Conference during the 2002-03 campaign. Clark served as captain of the UM-Kansas City men's tennis team from 2002-04. During the 2004-05 season, Clark wrapped up his collegiate career as a member of the Arkansas men's tennis program.

Clark and his wife, Katelynn, have a son, Tripp, and daughter, Harper.

KELLY CAMERON

ASSISTANT COACH - SECOND SEASON

Kelly Cameron enters her third season as the assistant women's tennis coach at the University of Illinois after being hired on Sept. 8, 2015.

Illinois wrapped up the 2016-17 campaign with a 14-13 record, and a 7-4 mark in the Big Ten. Louise Kwong was named to the All-Big Ten team, and was one of five Illini to garner Academic All-Big Ten honors.

The Illinois women's tennis team went 15-9 in Cameron's first season, the first 15-win season for the program since 2012. Louise Kwong was named All-Big Ten, and Academic All-Big Ten, and three other Illini were named Academic All-Big Ten as well.

Cameron, a 2014 graduate of the University of North Carolina Wilmington (UNCW), played under Clark during his two seasons at the helm of the Seahawks program.

"Kelly is a tremendous addition to the staff and I could not be more excited to have her here at the University of Illinois," shared Clark. "She has played under me as a head coach, and therefore knows my expectations for the program, which will help immensely as we transition and beyond. She is one of the hardest working, and most successful, players I have ever worked with, so I'm confident she will have an extremely positive impact on our program."

Following her graduation from UNCW, Cameron served as a graduate assistant tennis coach with both the men's and women's programs at the University of North Georgia (UNG). With the UNG Nighthawks, Cameron assisted in the development of practice plans in addition to providing individualized coaching during matches. The Hilton Head Island, South Carolina, native also helped with the evaluation and recruitment process of prospective athletes.

As a student-athlete at UNCW, Cameron earned a B.A. in health and physical education while also compiling a 52-21 overall singles record. As a senior in 2014, she worked to a 10-4 singles record in dual play in addition to an impressive 13-2 mark when working in tandem. Additionally, during her junior year of action, Cameron was named to the Colonial Athletic Association Conference's second team for her success in both singles and doubles competition.

2016 FALL SEASON

2016 Fall Preview

“We’ve done a lot of conditioning, and a lot of individual stuff,” head coach Evan Clark said. “We are really trying to get in good shape for the court, so when we do start competing, we are ready to go. We waited a little bit longer this year before going into our tournament schedule. October and early November is our tournament segment, and we are really focusing on our four events, and really going after those four events.”

Clark and assistant coach Kelly Cameron will begin their second season at the helm for the Illini. Senior Emily Barretta departed, but everyone else returns from the Orange and Blue squad last year that posted a 15-9 overall record, including an 8-3 mark in Big Ten play.

“We are just a more experienced group in general,” Clark said. “Everyone came back from last year’s team, so everyone knows what to expect in the fall and spring. Last fall we didn’t have the results we wanted, and I think we have prepared ourselves to have better results this fall. Our goal is to win some flights in singles and doubles.”

First up on the schedule is the Riviera ITA Women’s All-American Championships in Pacific Palisades, California. Senior Louise Kwong, will take her No. 85 ranking into the prequalifying starting on Oct. 1. In doubles, the No. 25-ranked pair of sophomore Ines Vias and Kwong will be in the main qualifying, beginning on Oct. 4.

“Lou and Ines are going to have a great opportunity in California to show what they have on a national level,” Clark said. “I told Lou and Ines the other day that I wouldn’t be sending them if I didn’t think they could win the tournament.”

Next on the slate for the Illini is the Purdue Invite in West Lafayette, Indiana, on Oct. 7-9. It will be Illinois’ third consecutive appearance in the tournament.

The Illini will then head to East Lansing, Michigan, for the ITA Midwest Regional from Oct. 20-24. The ITA Midwest Regional was also in Michigan last year, when the University of Michigan hosted the event.

Last on the fall schedule is Notre Dame Invitational on Nov. 4-6 in South Bend, Indiana. It will be the second time in the last three years Illinois has competed in the tournament.

“We’ve got to stay focused on the progress that we make, and that’s the biggest thing,” Clark said. “I want to see progress over those two months, October and November, and we’ve seen progress already in practice. I think all of our kids understand that when they step on the court their goal is to win. Everybody on the team knows the expectations. They have put a lot of hard work, and they are ready to go and start competing.”

2016 Fall Recap

The Fighting Illini women’s tennis team has wrapped up the fall campaign and will be starting their regular season in January.

“The fall went well,” head coach Evan Clark said. “We made progress from the beginning to the end, and that was our biggest goal.”

The season kicked off with trips to Pacific Palisades in California for Louise Kwong and Ines Vias for the Riviera ITA All-American Championships, while the rest of the squad went to the Purdue Invitational.

The Illini won three flights at Purdue, with Jaclyn Switkes winning the singles Boiler Up draw, and the Gold Doubles draw with partner Madie Baillon, while Alexis Casati and Daniela Pedraza Novak won the Black Doubles draw.

Following their strong performance at the Purdue Invitational, the Illini traveled to East Lansing, Michigan, for the ITA Midwest Regional Championships. Kwong and Vias become the third Illinois doubles pair to advance to the semifinals in the last six years, while the tandems of Baillon and Switkes and Casati and Pedraza Novak advanced to the Round of 16.

In singles, Kwong and Vias both advanced to the Round of 16, and Pedraza Novak reeled off four-straight wins as she rolled from the qualifying draw to the Round of 32.

“Everyone progressed and got better as we went through the fall,” Clark said. “I was really pleased with the progress that we made overall.”

After ending their season at the Notre Dame Invitational, the Illini are looking forward to the dual match season.

“They’ve put a lot of hard work in off the court, I think that’s probably what I’m proudest of. They have a really good base, physically, right now,” Clark said. “Mentally, they are ready to do big things. I think they are anxious to get into the spring season.”

2017 Spring Preview

Head coach Evan Clark is in his second year at the helm, after leading the team last year as the interim head coach, with assistant Kelly Cameron back for her second year as well.

“The team is fantastic right now,” Clark said. “I couldn’t be more pleased with the way they’ve come back in great shape and ready to attack the year. We are excited.”

Nearly the entire team returns from last year’s 15-9 (8-3) squad, with senior Emily Barretta graduating. Sophomore Ines Vias (18-12), and seniors Louise Kwong (16-12) and Madie Baillon (15-7) each recorded at least 15 wins in singles last year. Baillon also earned 15 wins in doubles play.

Seniors Alexis Casati (16-6) and Jerricka Boone (15-12) also won at least 15 doubles matches last year, and juniors Jade Hilton (7-2 doubles record) and Grace Tapak (4-3 singles record) will provide additional veteran leadership.

As freshmen during the 2015-16 season, sophomores Jaclyn Switkes (10-4 in singles play) and Daniela Pedraza Novak (20-8 in doubles play overall) will look to build on their strong rookie campaigns.

“We’ve got four great seniors who contribute so much to this program,” Clark said. “First of all, they are looking forward to ending their career on a good note. They’ve done special things for us with Louise Kwong, Madie Baillon, Alexis Casati and Jerricka Boone. Those four have been in the trenches, they’ve played a ton and have a ton of experience. That combined with our great juniors we have, Jade Hilton and Grace Tapak, I look for big things from them this year. We have three sophomores, Daniella Novak, Jaclyn Switkes and Ines Vias that were freshmen last year and got a lot of playing time and they are coming back this year with a lot of experience so everyone on our team has experience at this point.”

Illinois will have a challenging slate, with home matches against four teams in the top 15 of last year’s final ITA poll including Ohio State (No. 6), Michigan (No. 11), Auburn (No. 12) and Texas Tech (No. 15).

“We have a team that’s excited to play and they put a lot of juice into it, they’re competitive, they’re loud and it’s a lot of fun to watch,” Clark said. “They really care about the University of Illinois. It’s a group that wants to do well, wants to represent the university in the right way. But more, this is the most competitive team we’ve had since I’ve been here and they’re ready to make a splash. We’d love to get as many fans out here as we can and we are really excited and we think we’ve got a lot of potential this year and getting people in the stands increases that potential.”

Away from the confines of home in Urbana, the Illini will play road matches against five teams in the top 60 of the final ITA poll of the 2015-16 season, including Northwestern (No. 28), Arkansas (No. 36), Georgia State (No. 49), Washington (No. 51) and Alabama (No. 54).

The Orange and Blue will be in Athens, Georgia, for the ITA Kickoff Weekend during Jan. 28-29, and will play Georgia State initially, with the potential to play host Georgia after.

“We play a really competitive schedule and I don’t think there’s really any other way to do it, that’s my philosophy,” Clark said. “We’ll play Alabama, we play Washington, which is another really great, great team and then follow it up with going down to Georgia and play Georgia State, which is a top program, and then hopefully having the chance to play Georgia, which is a top-five program. Ten Auburn comes to us, which is another top program. So our first five matches are really important. They are really competitive teams and we’ve got a lot of matches circled this year and we’re excited. There’s no easy matches and the girls are ready for it.”

Clark and the Illini have their sights set on the final week of April, though. The road to the Big Ten Championship will go through Urbana this year, and the Atkins Tennis Center will host the 2017 Big Ten Championship, scheduled for April 27-30.

“It’s huge to be able to play on your home courts at that time of year, not travel, and just be comfortable sleeping in your bed, things like that, we are excited,” Clark said. “Especially this year we feel like we have a team to make a run and win the Big Ten. Especially the seniors have talked about how special it would be to win the Big Ten Championship at home in your final year. It’s something that doesn’t happen very often and we are looking forward to having it and not traveling. It’s going to be really, really special.”
