ILLINOIS SOCCER AND TRACK STADIUM

The Fighting Illini will begin the season at Illinois Soccer and Track Stadium for the 21st year. The Orange and Blue competed at the First and Stadium Multiplex during the 1997 and 1998 seasons before moving to the renovated stadium - which includes the outdoor track and field facilities - in 1999.

The Illini have been dominant at home since moving into the Illinois Soccer and Track Stadium, compiling an overall record of 133-48-8. Since its opening, the stadium has featured one undefeated record (2004), six one-loss seasons (2005-08, 2010-11) and three two-loss years (2012-13-15). In 2007, the Orange and Blue shut out a school-record seven consecutive opponents at the Illinois Soccer Stadium from Sept. 2 through Oct. 19, compiling 674 consecutive shutout minutes.

In 2011, the Illini emerged victorious over nine teams at home, the second most in the program's history. The Orange and Blue outscored their opponents 25-10. Their home wins over Indiana and Purdue at the beginning of October jumpstarted the Illini to a program best 12-game undefeated stretch, which culminated with a 1-0 win over Notre Dame in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament at the Illinois Soccer and Track Stadium. Head coach Janet Rayfield has now established a .775 winning percentage at home in her career as a Fighting Illini.

The 2006 season saw the Illini put together a 7-1-0 home record with five shutouts and a new season attendance record of 7,261 fans. On Oct. 1, No. 15 Illinois took down No. 9 Penn State, 3-2, in front of a school-record 2,667 fans, boosted by the joining of the match with the Illinois Homecoming Kickoff celebration.

In 2004, the Illini completed their first undefeated season at home with a record of 8-0-1. In the final match at Illinois Soccer Stadium, the Illini posted a thrilling 2-1 victory over Nebraska in the third round of the NCAA Tournament, sending the Orange and Blue on to the Elite Eight. In addition, the victory also occurred in front of a then-record 1,046 fans.

In 2000, the Illinois Soccer and Track Stadium was the site of the Big Ten Women's Soccer Tournament in addition to the Illini hosting the Xavier Muskateers in the NCAA Tournament First Round. In 2001, the Illini welcomed Evansville, Syracuse and eventual National Champion Santa Clara in the first two rounds of the NCAA Tournament and in 2003, the Illini hosted Western Michigan, Purdue and DePaul in first and second round NCAA Tournament action.

When Illinois decided to add soccer, the athletic department, led by former Athletic Director Ron Guenther, Associate Athletic Director Dana Brenner, coaches and student-athletes, conducted a feasibility study. The first two years included the use and improvement of the campus recreational fields along Stadium Drive, followed by the construction and renovation of the new Illini Stadium. The field includes Kentucky Bluegrass with a sand base for quick drainage and is noted for its playing surface and built-in irrigation.

The Illini upgraded the facility prior to the 2017 season, adding new graphics to add to the stadium's aesthetic as well as temporary locker room facilities at field level.

DEMIRJIAN PARK

On December 6, 2017, University of Illinois Director of Athletics Josh Whitman announced plans for the construction of new soccer and track and field facilities on the UI campus. The new complex will be named Demirjian Park, in honor of a lead gift from the Demirjian family of Decatur, Ill. The project, which will be executed in phases with full completion scheduled for the spring of 2021, remains subject to approval by the UI Board of Trustees.

Demirjian Park will feature two new soccer fields, one for competition and one for practice, located directly east of the existing track and field complex, which will itself be renovated. The project's centerpiece will be Demirjian Park Stadium, located between the new soccer fields and the renovated track. The stadium will directly benefit more than 25 percent of the Fighting Illini student-athlete population by housing team facilities for women's soccer, men's track and field, and women's track and field. State-of-the-art amenities will include locker rooms, video and meeting rooms, lounge and study spaces, sports medicine and nutrition facilities, and coaches' offices. It will also contain spaces for visiting teams and officials.

In addition, Demirjian Park will reshape the fan experience for spectators attending events in soccer and track and field. The stadium's innovative design will feature dual grandstands that provide excellent sightlines onto both the soccer and track venues. Fans will enjoy permanent restroom and concessions facilities; high connectivity and advanced use of technology, including LED lighting, a new video board and new sound system; and new parking, concourses and entry plazas.

Demirjian Park will allow Illinois to host Big Ten and NCAA championship competition in both soccer and track and field. It is expected to become a destination location for training and competition by elite and youth athletes from across the state and the Midwest, drawing participants, their families, and fans into the Champaign-Urbana communities.

To support the project, the Demirjian family, led by UI alumni Richard Demirjian (LAS, '88) and Kara Demirjian-Huss (ACES, '92), has provided a lead gift of $7 million. This is one of the largest single gifts in the history of Illinois Athletics and continues the Demirjian family's longstanding history of generous involvement with the Fighting Illini. Previously, the family has endowed scholarships and been active in premium seating at both Memorial Stadium and State Farm Center. Most notably, the Demirjians provided the lead gift for construction of the Demirjian Indoor Golf Practice Facility, which opened in 2007. The two facilities bearing the Demirjian name will be located directly across from each other on St. Mary's Road.

"We would like to thank Richard, Kara, and the entire Demirjian family for their ongoing support of Illinois Athletics," Whitman said. "Ten years ago, their family's generosity altered the course of Illinois golf with the creation of the Demirjian Golf Practice Facility, which has allowed our men's and women's golf programs to reach new heights. Now, through this most recent gift, their generosity will have similar impact on our soccer and track and field programs by delivering a first-in-class facility that meets the evolving needs and competitive expectations of the more than 120 student-athletes participating on these teams. For the first time, these sports will have a true home, where, in one location, they can pursue their full potential as students, athletes, and people, all while growing together as a team.

"In addition, spectators will enjoy an unparalleled fan experience, highlighted by the stadium's progressive design that will feature excellent sightlines, attractive walkways and greenspaces, convenient restrooms and concessions areas, extensive use of technology, and full accessibility. We are excited for athletes, families, and fans from across the state to experience Demirjian Park, which will be a wonderful example of the collaboration and innovation that are competitive strengths of the University of Illinois."

The Demirjian family includes Richard and Anne Demirjian, Kara Demirjian-Huss and Mark Huss, Simone Demirjian, and J. Gerald Demirjian. The Demirjians have long been leaders in business and local philanthropy. Richard is a member of DIA's campaign steering committee, and Kara serves on the University-wide campaign steering committee.

"We believe in Josh Whitman's vision, recognize the opportunity and realize that the time is now to make a difference," Richard Demirjian said. "For us, this investment is about a holistic approach to student athletics—providing training, practice and study centers in one state-of-the-art, multi-purpose facility. It's also about providing functional, efficient resources to create an interconnected environment and shared home that delivers success in Division I athletics and academics."

"This investment links two of our family's philanthropic pillars: education and economic development," said Kara Demirjian-Huss. "Not only will it have clear-cut benefits for these University soccer and track and field programs, but it also will provide facilities that can attract national events and regional training. We are excited to collaborate with the University on Demirjian Park to create a legacy and deliver the ideal experience to attract student-athletes and wow spectators. We foresee a strong economic impact for our region and applaud the University for their widespread vision and strong sense of University and community pride."

"On behalf of our student-athletes, I'd like to extend my gratitude to the Demirjian family," Illini track and field coach Mike Turk said. "Their vision for the future of Illini track and field will inspire generations of Illini athletes, and have an immediate impact on our recruiting efforts with this cutting-edge facility. The objective of our program is to shape a positive, all-inclusive experience for our student athletes. This experience balances their academic and athletic goals along with their personal development and, ultimately, shapes individuals who will become positive contributors to society and leaders in the world. Demirjian Park is a key piece to the puzzle that we've been missing for decades. This gift will have a huge impact on our program and the student-athlete experience and serves as a shining example of service to others. It is so special for our program to finally have a home, and I cannot fully express my undying gratitude to the Demirjian family."

"The Illinois Soccer family—our staff, our alumni, our current and future student athletes—are incredibly and infinitely grateful, not just for the tremendous generosity of the Demirjian family, but for their belief, partnership and vision for the future of this program," said soccer coach Janet Rayfield. "This project will give us a place to tell our history, to pursue our present goals, to engage the regional community and to shape our program's future. The Demirjian family stands for, and has exemplified, the pursuit of excellence, setting high standards and holding strong family values, and we are excited to have those principles guiding this project and helping us build a facility that sets the standard not just in the Big Ten, but across the country. Our gratitude is immeasurable."

"For our athletic program to reach its full potential, we need people to share in our vision and to invest in the experience of our student-athletes," concluded Whitman. "Through their generosity, the Demirjian family has done exactly that. They have demonstrated an unparalleled commitment to Illinois Athletics, and we could not be more grateful for their incredible support."

Construction of the new soccer fields will be completed in 2019. Demirjian Park Stadium will be open for the 2021 track and field season, which will allow Illinois to host the 2021 Big Ten Outdoor Track & Field Championships. Renovations to the track and accompanying field event venues will be performed as a separate project.

The Demirjian's gift contributes toward the $300 million fundraising goal for the Division of Intercollegiate Athletics, which is part of "With Illinois," the $2.25 billion University-wide fundraising campaign.

JANET RAYFIELD

HEAD COACH // 19TH SEASON

Now in her 18th season as head coach of the Fighting Illini, Janet Rayfield has established the University of Illinois women's soccer team as one of the premier programs in the nation. Year after year, her Illinois teams break school records and set new benchmarks for conference and national levels of success.

Illinois' winningest head soccer coach, Rayfield has guided Illinois to 193 overall victories and 90 wins in conference play. Her teams have earned 10 victories in NCAA Tournament play. Rayfield has coached six players to seven Big Ten Player of the Year honors, and her student-athletes have garnered 50 All-Big Ten nods. Five individuals have been recognized with the Big Ten Medal of Honor under Rayfield's guidance, and seven of her players earned nine NSCAA All-America laurels. Rayfield has seen six of her players chosen in the NWSL draft, and Emily Zurrer went on to represent Canada in both the 2008 and 2012 Olympic Games.

Rayfield has led Illinois to the NCAA Tournament in 10 of her years at the helm of the program, highlighted by the Orange and Blue's fourth Sweet Sixteen appearance in 2013. The Orange and Blue scored the most goals under Rayfield with 54 in 2013, just three goals shy of the school record, and finished the year ranked No. 25 by the NSCAA. She coached two-time Big Ten Forward of the Year Janelle Flaws to a school-record 23 goals in 2013, which was tied for the most in the NCAA, and Flaws graduated as Illinois' career goals leader with 54. Under Rayfield, Vanessa DiBernardo, who became Illinois' highest drafted player in school history, completed her decorated career No. 3 on the all-time list with 43 goals along with being named a Capital One second-team Academic All-American and an NSCAA third team Scholar All-American.

Rayfield not only has a wealth of soccer experience but also a fierce determination to succeed and an immense amount of respect from her peers. Rayfield served as President of the NSCAA, an organization that includes over 16,000 members, in 2003-04. In addition, she continues to assist at the youth national team level whenever possible. Rayfield received the National Soccer Coaches Association of America Award of Excellence in 2015.

A United States Soccer Federation 'A' Licensed Coach, Rayfield was an assistant for Illinois in 1999 under former head coach Tricia Taliaferro and helped the Illini to a 12-8-1 record and the school's first-ever trip to the Big Ten Tournament semifinals. That season, the Illini entered the NSCAA poll for the first time and climbed as high as No. 15.

Rayfield returned to Illinois in 2002 after serving two years as a United States National Staff Coach for Region II. Her duties consisted of player identification, player development and coaching education within the region. During that time, she also served as a U-19 and U-16 National Team Assistant Coach.

"Janet will be able to provide the kind of leadership and stability this team needs," Director of Athletics Ron Guenther said when Rayfield was hired in 2002. "She has exceptional contacts as both a player and a coach at the national and international level that will allow us to continue to develop this young program."

In her playing days, Rayfield was one of the best. She played collegiately at the University of North Carolina from 1979-82 and helped build the program from the ground up. She led the Tar Heels to the 1981 AIAW National Championship and a 23-0 record in only their third year. That season, Rayfield took home the Nike Player of the Year award, All-America honors and was named one of the top 10 soccer players in America (male or female).

2In 1982, she led the Tar Heels to the first-ever NCAA women's soccer championship.

Advice to young soccer players: Play because you love the game, work hard because you love getting better, compete because you love the challenge regardless of whether you win or lose!

What is the "ideal" Illinois soccer player? She is disciplined, hard working, and self-motivated. She has a great desire to improve and a willingness to learn. She has a passion for the game that makes the hard work not a sacrifice but a choice. She smiles and sweats at the same time because she loves what she does. She always competes with everything she has because she expects everyone to do the same. She is a champion – not because she has won titles but because she strives to do her best in every facet of her life.

That championship would be the first of 18 NCAA national titles in the storied history of the North Carolina program.

During her career at North Carolina, Rayfield was a captain all four years and led the Tar Heels to an overall record of 73-9 in that span. She also left her mark all over the Carolina record books. Today she still ranks in the top three in seven different offensive categories, including holding the school records for most goals in a game (6) and most points in a game (12), both set against the Chapel Hill Club in 1979. She also currently ranks second to Mia Hamm in career goals with 93, third in career points with 223, third in single-season points with 74 in 1981 and tied for third in single-season goals with 30 in both 1979 and 1981.

After earning a Bachelor of Science degree in Mathematical Sciences from North Carolina in 1983, Rayfield worked as a Senior Software Engineer for E-Systems in Garland, Texas, where she wrote numerous computer programs and worked her way up to management level.

When she wasn't working, Rayfield was still heavily involved with the game she loves. She played seven seasons with the Ladies' Football Club in Dallas and was the captain on six of those squads, leading them to three National Titles in 1985, '87 and '89. During that same time, she was head coach of the Texas Spirit

Soccer Club that won several Washington (D.C.) area and Dallas Cup titles.

In 1990, Rayfield returned to the collegiate ranks to coach at the University of Arkansas. After three years as an assistant, she was named head coach at Arkansas in January of 1993. In six seasons at the helm of the Razorback program, she coached the 1996 SEC West Champions, two SEC tournament finalists, four All-Region players, six All-SEC players, and 27 Academic All-SEC performers while compiling an overall record of 45-64-7.

At Arkansas, Rayfield earned a Master of Science in Exercise Science/Biomechanics and also served as a USYSA Olympic Development staff coach and as a scout for both the U.S. Women's World Cup and Olympic teams. While doing all of this, she was still able to continue her playing career, as she led the Dallas Sting Soccer Club to the Over-30 National Championship in 1993.

ILLINOIS YEAR-BY-YEAR HIGHLIGHTS

2019: The Illini regressed slightly in the wins and loss column, but added a freshman class that became impact players for the 2019 Illini squad. After going 6-1 in nonconference play, including a 3-2 win at #22 Pepperdine early in the season, the Illini proceeded to finish the season 3-7-1 to finish with an overall record of 9-8-1. Kelly Maday was the lone All-BIG selection for the Illini, but the program named a record 20 student-athletes to the Academic All-BIG list in the 2019 season. The Illini played their first game at the new Demirjian Park on Sept. 15, a 2-0 win over Colorado College.

2018: Rayfield's 2018 squad let nothing stand in its way throughout the season, as she guided the program to an 11-8-1 record and a return to the Big Ten Tournament. Rayfield's Illini advanced to the quarterfinal round after defeating Wisconsin on penalty kicks (3-0). Five Illini were honored by the league following the season in Katie Murray, Alicia Barker and Jaelyn Cunningham (Second Team) as well as Makena Silber and Ashley Cathro (All-Freshman Team). The honors continued to roll in for Murray and Barker as the two were recognized by the United Soccer Coaches Association as All-North Region Second Team honorees.

2017: Despite taking a step back in wins and losses, Rayfield's Illini squad continued to make progress both on and off the field during the 2017 campaign. The squad took a service trip to Nicaragua prior to preseason training, partnering with the Soccer Without Borders organization. Operating under the mantra of "Kaizen," or continuous improvement, the 2017 campaign saw several Illini freshmen contribute to the team's success almost immediately. Seven freshmen earned playing time throughout the year, and three made appearances in the starting lineup. Sophomore goalkeeper Jaelyn Cunningham anchored a strong Illini defense, as she closed the year with 106 saves, a number that ranked second all-time at Illinois.

2016: Rayfield's 2016 squad came out to a strong start, shutting out three consecutive opponents to open the campaign. Rayfield coached the Illini to three more shutouts throughout the year, including an upset victory over the 19th-ranked Michigan Wolverines. A major asset to the Illini defense, senior Hope D'Addario earned All-Big Ten recognition at the conclusion of the season, and 15 Illini were honored for their work in the classroom as they were named Academic All-Big Ten honorees.

2015: Janelle Flaws continued to impress in Rayfield's 14th season as she reset Illinois' all-time goals record. The record-breaking goal was scored in style as she tallied the second-fastest hat trick in school history. With Rayfield's coaching, Flaws graduated as one of Illinois' most prolific players, holding the school records for career goals, points, shots and shots on goal. Rayfield guided the Illini to several significant wins in the 2015 season, upsetting No. 11-ranked and previously undefeated Rutgers in the Big Ten home opener. Junior Allison Stucky was credited with the first goal against the Scarlet Knights all season in the victory. Rayfield's squad qualified for its fifth-consecutive Big Ten Tournament with a 3-1 victory over Minnesota in the regular season finale.

2014: In her 13th season with the Illini, Rayfield guided veteran Illini all-star Janelle Flaws to her second consecutive Big Ten Forward of the Year honor, and also saw her receive NSCAA Third Team All-American recognition. Rayfield guided the Illini to their 11th Big Ten tournament appearance and the team finished with 10 wins on the season.

2013: Rayfield guided Illinois to its fourth Sweet Sixteen appearance in 2013, as her squad closed the season with an 11-9-3 record. After an early exit from the Big Ten Tournament, Rayfield's Illini took on No. 21 Washington State in the first round of NCAA Tournament play. The Orange and Blue advanced to face Portland in the second round of the tournament after defeating the Cougars 3-1 in penalty kicks. A 4-3, come-from-behind victory over Portland in the second round of play advanced Illinois to the Sweet Sixteen. In regular season play, Illinois earned a statement victory over No. 20 Wisconsin, led by Janelle Flaws who tallied two goals in the contest. Illinois finished the year with 54 goals scored, the most in a season under Rayfield, and many of those goals were contributed by Flaws, who finished the season tied for first in the nation with a school-record 23 goals. Flaws also set a school record with her 126 shots on the year. Illinois finished the year ranked No. 25 by the NSCAA. Vanessa DiBernardo, who became Illinois' highest drafted player in school history following the season, completed her decorated career No. 3 on the all-time list with 43 goals along with being named a Capital One second-team Academic All-American and an NSCAA third team Scholar All-American.

2012: Rayfield's 11th season saw the Illini finish 10-9-4 and reach the Big Ten Tournament Championship game along with the second round of the NCAA Tournament. The year was full of highlights as Rayfield's squad earned the program's first ever win in Ann Arbor vs. No. 24 Michigan. Rayfield also guided her team past Minnesota despite trailing by two goals and a player 15 minutes into the match. Rayfield's Illini also knocked off No. 3 Penn State, 1-0, to earn the program's first-ever win against a Top-3 opponent. 2012 also marked the year Rayfield's stint as Assistant Coach for the U-20 U.S. Women's National Team was rewarded with a gold medal at the U-20 World Cup in Japan. Rayfield then became the first woman to win the NSCAA Honor Award.

2011: Rayfield's first decade of leadership at Illinois culminated in one of the most successful seasons in program history - with the Illini earning a 17-5-2 record, the 2011 Big Ten Tournament Title and another NCAA Tournament appearance. During the 24-game schedule, the Orange and Blue earned a program-best eight-game winning streak and 12-game undefeated mark, while the 17 victories rank as a school record. Though Illinois fell in the NCAA Tournament Second Round at Elite Eight-bound and No. 4-nationally ranked Oklahoma State, 1-0, to end the remarkable year despite outshooting the Cowgirls, Rayfield left an indelible mark on the 2011 college soccer season, one during which Illinois experienced tremendous success in tandem with adapting a new formation strategy and employing five first-time starters on the field.

The NSCAA recognized sophomore Vanessa DiBernardo with All-America honors while the Big Ten named DiBernardo the Midfielder of the Year and Soccer America named the Naperville, Ill., native a second team All-American as well. DiBernardo continued to grow throughout the season under Rayfield's tutelage - finishing with the second-most single-season goals (17) and points (39) in program history while accumulating the third-most game-winning tallies (eight) in the NCAA over the course of the season. On defense, converted midfielder Jenna Carosio also benefited from Rayfield's guidance throughout her senior season and first as a starter. Carosio filled the void in the center of Illinois' defense left by the graduation of Danielle Kot and Krystin Miller, earning Big Ten Defender of the Year and First Team All-Big Ten honors with DiBernardo. Illinois was equally impressive in the classroom, with Carosio tallying NSCAA Academic All-America honors in addition to totaling CoSIDA Academic All-District with DiBernardo and Megan Pawloski, while 12 players were named Academic All-Big Ten award recipients. In total, more than 70 individual and team awards were handed out to the Orange and Blue during the 2011 season.

The Orange and Blue opened the fall with the dynamic offensive firepower expected, outscoring Gonzaga, eventual MAC Champion Toledo and Ball State, 15-2, to race out to a 3-0 mark to start the season. The schedule-opening firepower became the 26th highest scoring offense in the country of 330 ranked teams by seasons-end, with the Orange and Blue going on to net 142 points on 53 goals and 36 assists - the most in Rayfield's tenure. However, as the season progressed into the all-important conference slate, the true dynamic nature of Rayfield's program blossomed as the defense evolved into the lock-down unit needed to propel Illinois to the No. 2 seeding in the Big Ten Tournament.

After blowing out Indiana, 4-1, the Illini produced five consecutive shutouts, including four straight by one-goal margins as Illinois downed Purdue, Michigan State, Minnesota, Wisconsin and Northwestern in succession. Though the Illini finally allowed a goal at Nebraska to end the 554-minute shutout streak - only 77 minutes shy of the program record - Illinois continued to reel off victories with triumphs over the Cornhuskers and Michigan capping the regular season and establishing the program record for consecutive victories.

Entering the 2011 Big Ten Tournament as a predicted favorite to win it all, the Orange and Blue did not disappoint. After using penalty kicks to fight past Ohio State in the quarterfinals after tying through double overtime, Illinois downed Michigan State, 1-0, in overtime during the semifinals and again used extra minutes to beat No. 11-nationally ranked Penn State in dramatic fashion in the final round, 2-1, as Rayfield secured the second conference championship of her tenure.

With the automatic bid for the conference secure, Illinois put its 11-game unbeaten streak on the line against the defending National Champions, Notre Dame, in the NCAA Tournament First Round. In a season of firsts, the Orange and Blue continued their record-setting ways with a 1-0 win over the Fighting Irish - becoming the first team to beat the defending champs in the first round in the tournament's 30-year history. The 17th and final victory of the year for Illinois simultaneously marked the program-high for single-season victories as the Illini had previously finished with 16 wins on three occasions - all under Rayfield.

2010: The 2010 season saw Rayfield guide the Illini to their seventh NCAA tournament appearance since assuming head coaching duties before the 2002 season. Throughout the regular season, Illinois exhibited the dominance against non-conference opponents and visiting foes that has made the Orange and Blue successful throughout the program's history. Illinois rolled through its out-of-conference slate, accumulating a 7-1-0 record with six shutout victories while holding opponents to only six goals in nine home games, earning an 8-1-0 mark in the process. In 2010, Rayfield created a dynamic offense while maintaining the shutdown defense that has highlighted her tenure with Illinois, earning a 13-5-1 overall record, 6-3-1 Big Ten mark and national rankings throughout much of the non-conference slate and the entire Big Ten schedule. The 32 goals produced by the Illinois offense marked the second-highest seasonal total in program history as the defense stifled opponents, holding the Illini's foes to only 16 goals in 19 games, the third-fewest ever for an Illinois team.

2009: Throughout the 2009 season, different Illini stepped forward to secure victories against one of the most difficult schedules in the country. The Illini faced 12 eventual NCAA Tournament participants, including five Big Ten teams. With her experience facing high-caliber opponents, Rayfield was able to guide Illinois to victories over 2009 NCAA Tournament-bound Illinois State, UC Santa Barbara, Milwaukee and Michigan State by a combined score of 15-1. Illinois also saw the emergence of young talent on the field throughout 2009 under Rayfield's guidance as Niki Read earned Big Ten Freshman of the Week honors and Shayla Mutz was named to the Big Ten All-Freshman Team. Rayfield also successfully guided her fourth player into the Women's Professional Soccer league (WPS) as midfielder Jackie Santacaterina was drafted with the 60th pick by the Chicago Red Stars.

Three Illini earned All-Big Ten honors, including first-team defender Emily Zurrer and second team honorees midfielder Jackie Santacaterina and defender Danielle Kot. Zurrer also became the first Illini to earn All-America honors three years in a row. Additionally, goalkeeper Alexandra Kapicka was named a National Player of the Year finalist by Soccer News Net. Additionally, with the development of the WPS league, three Illini that played under Rayfield's tutelage were drafted including: Ella Masar, Mary Therese McDonnell and Christen Karniski. Rayfield also gained valuable coaching experience in the summer of 2008 as an assistant with the U.S. Women's National Team for two of its matches against Canada.

2007: Rayfield led Illinois to its fifth-straight NCAA Tournament appearance, advancing to the second round for the fourth year in a row. The squad featured seven All-Big Ten selections, including three named to the all-freshman team, both of which were the most in school history. The Illini also had two representatives named National Soccer Coaches Association of America Scholar All-Americans in McDonnell and Kara Gostisha. In addition, McDonnell also earned the school's prestigious Big Ten Medal of Honor while her sister, Shannon, was honored with the school's Fighting Illini Spirit Award.

2006: Rayfield guided the 2006 squad to a then-school record-tying 16 wins, a top-10 ranking, a No. 3 seed in the NCAA Tournament and a berth in the Round of 16. That Illini team also became the first in the history of the Big Ten to boast the conference Offensive and Defensive Players of the Year and the Freshman of the Year in Ella Masar (offensive), Zurrer (co-defensive) and Chichi Nweke (freshman). In addition, Masar was named a second-team All-America selection by the NSCAA, while Zurrer was a third-team selection by the NSCAA.

2005: The Illini wasted no time in the 2005 season, defeating No. 17 Nebraska 1-0 early on. The Orange and Blue proceeded to extend its streak of first-round Big Ten Tournament wins to seven and qualify for its third-straight NCAA Tournament and fifth in the last six years. Illinois defeated No. 20 Florida in the first round on the Gators' home field, advancing to the second round of the NCAA Tournament for the second-straight year. After the season, senior defender Christen Karniski became the most decorated Illini in school history, earning recognition as the Big Ten co-Defensive Player of the Year, second team All-American by the NSCAA and Soccer Buzz, and first team Scholar All-America by NSCAA among her 10 postseason awards.

2004: The Illini were just as successful in 2004 as Rayfield led her team to their best postseason record in school history, advancing to the Elite Eight of the NCAA Tournament. The Illini finished the season with a record of 4-0 against the always-powerful Big 12 conference, which included a 2-1 come-from-behind upset over ninth-seeded Texas A&M in the second round of the NCAA tournament. The squad also set a school record for consecutive wins (7), with Tara Hurless earning All-America status for the second-straight year.

2003: Rayfield led the Illini to the best season in the program's history with a 16-4-2 record, a top-10 national ranking, the program's first Big Ten Tournament title and a top-16 seed in the NCAA Tournament. In addition, the 2003 Illini featured two All-Americans in goalkeeper Leisha Alcia and forward Tara Hurless, a first for Illinois. For her efforts, Rayfield was named Great Lakes Region Coach of the Year by Soccer Buzz.

JEFF FREEMAN

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH - 10TH SEASON

Jeff Freeman enters his 10th season overall with the Fighting Illini and fifth as the soccer program's associate head coach in 2019. Freeman has helped to guide Illinois to at least the second round of the NCAA Tournament three times during his time with Illinois, highlighted by a Sweet Sixteen appearance in 2013. Freeman helped to coach standout Vanessa DiBernardo to a pair of All-America honors and saw Jannelle Flaws lead the nation and break the school record for goals scored.

The Illini have turned in two of the top four single-season goal totals in school history during Freeman's tenure in Champaign. The Orange and Blue netted 54 goals in 2013 and 53 goals in 2011, which rank third and fourth, respectively, on the all-time list. UI boasts an overall record of 77-34-11 over the past seven seasons with four NCAA Tournament appearances, a Big Ten Tournament title in 2011 and a Big Ten Tournament runner-up finish in 2012.

Freeman brought a wealth of experience and tactical expertise to Champaign, Illinois, after serving as a member of the University of Miami (Fla.) women's soccer staff from 2004-10, including the final three years as the associate head coach. He played a prominent role in Miami earning conference and national recognition with top-25 rankings and back-to-back appearances in the 2007-08 NCAA Tournaments as he assisted in all aspects of recruiting and team administration. As the recruiting coordinator, Freeman was responsible for the Hurricanes' 2007 top-25 recruiting class, which included ACC Freshman of the Year Brittney Steinbruch, and fellow U-20 National Team member Brittney Macdonald.

Freeman joined the Hurricanes' staff after serving as an assistant coach at his alma mater, Missouri State, for four years. The Bears' goalkeeping units earned Missouri Valley Conference (MVC) Defensive Player of the Year and conference tournament MVP honors in addition to weekly MVC defensive accolades under Freeman's tutelage, while Missouri State won the MVC crown and earned its first NCAA Tournament appearance with Freeman's guidance.

As a student-athlete at Missouri State, Freeman earned academic all-conference recognition as a goalkeeper with the Bears and was a member of the 1997 squad that made the program's first NCAA Tournament appearance after earning a top-10 national ranking and the MVC regular season title.

Freeman and his wife, Jamie, have two daughters, Ellie (10) and Rylie (8). Jamie was also a soccer standout at Missouri State. A four-year letterwinner, she was the team captain for three seasons. Jamie was a three-time MVC All-Conference First Team selection and was named to the 2006 MVC Centennial Team.

Freeman, who earned a bachelor's and master's in education from Missouri State, is accredited as a United States Soccer Federation (USSF) 'A' Licensed Coach and holds a NSCAA Advanced National Diploma. He has served as a clinician at 2014, 2015, 2016 and 2017 NSCAA Conventions.

YEAR-BY-YEAR ILLINOIS HIGHLIGHTS

2019: The Illini regressed slightly in the wins and loss column, but added a freshman class that became impact players for the 2019 Illini squad. After going 6-1 in nonconference play, including a 3-2 win at #22 Pepperdine early in the season, the Illini proceeded to finish the season 3-7-1 to finish with an overall record of 9-8-1. Kelly Maday was the lone All-BIG selection for the Illini, but the program named a record 20 student-athletes to the Academic All-BIG list in the 2019 season. The Illini played their first game at the new Demirjian Park on Sept. 15, a 2-0 win over Colorado College.

2018: The 2018 Illini squad let nothing stand in its way throughout the season, as Freeman helped to guide the program to an 11-8-1 record and a return to the Big Ten Tournament. The Orange and Blue advanced to the quarterfinal round after defeating Wisconsin on penalty kicks (3-0). Five Illini were honored by the league following the season in Katie Murray, Alicia Barker and Jaelyn Cunningham (Second Team) as well as Makena Silber and Ashley Cathro (All-Freshman Team). The honors continued to roll in for Murray and Barker as the two were recognized by the United Soccer Coaches Association as All-North Region Second Team honorees.

2017: With Freeman's coaching, the 2017 campaign saw seven different Illini players score goals throughout the season, and sophomore goalkeeper Jaelyn Cunningham moved into second all-time for her 106 saves on the year. The Illini faced a slate of tough nationally ranked opponents throughout the season, and held No. 8-ranked Penn State scoreless for more than 109 minutes on their home field. Freeman once again helped to bring in a talented signing class as the Orange and Blue announced 11 newcomers for the 2018 campaign including several players with national team experience.

2016: The 2016 campaign was a whirlwind for the Illini as Freeman and the squad welcomed a large, yet talented, freshman class while also graduating 11 seniors. With Freeman's assistance, the Illini shut out three consecutive opponents to start the season, while receiving votes in the first NSCAA Women's Rankings. Freeman helped coach the Orange and Blue to six total shutouts, including a victory over the 19th-ranked Michigan Wolverines. A major asset to the Illini defense, senior Hope D'Addario earned All-Big Ten recognition at the conclusion of the season, and 15 Illini were honored for their work in the classroom as they were named Academic All-Big Ten honorees.

2015: With Freeman's coaching, redshirt senior Jannelle Flaws made the 2015 season memorable for the Illini as she reset the school's all-time career goals record in style. She recorded the second-fastest hat trick in school history against Saint Louis to score the record-breaking goal. The 2015 season saw the Orange and Blue upset No. 11-ranked and previously undefeated Rutgers in their Big Ten home opener, as junior Allison Stucky scored the first goal against the Scarlet Knights all season. Freeman helped the Illini secure their fifth consecutive Big Ten Tournament appearance in a 3-1 regular season finale victory over Minnesota as well.

2014: The 2014 slate saw the Illini close the year with a 10-8-2 record. With Freeman's assistance, Illini redshirt senior Jannelle Flaws was named Disney Soccer/NSCAA National Player of the Week, the first Illini to ever earn the recognition. Flaws continued on to be named the unanimous Big Ten Forward of the Year for the second-straight season. She led the Big Ten and tied for 12th in the NCAA with 17 goals, also being tabbed a third-team NSCAA All-American.

2013: Freeman helped guide the Illini to their fourth trip to the NCAA Tournament Sweet Sixteen in school history in 2013, as they finished 11-9-3 overall. He coached Big Ten Forward of the Year Jannelle Flaws to a school-record 23 goals, which was tied for the most in the NCAA. Vanessa DiBernardo, who became Illinois' highest drafted player in school history following the season, completed her decorated career No. 3 on the all-time list with 43 goals, with Freeman coaching her during three of four seasons.

2012: In 2012, Freeman served as the interim head coach for the non-conference portion of the schedule while Rayfield was coaching with U.S. Soccer's U-20 National Team at the World Cup. Freeman helped coach the Illini to the NCAA Tournament where they advanced to the second round after knocking off neighbor-state rival Missouri. Freeman also helped guide the Illini to their fifth Big Ten Tournament title game. In addition, Freeman took the reins of the Illini program for the first seven games of the season against one of the toughest non-conference schedules in the country. Illinois finished 10-9-4 on the year.

2011: In 2011, Freeman was integral in the process of implementing the formation changes that led the Orange and Blue to a 17-5-2 overall record, the most wins in a single season in school history and a Big Ten Tournament title victory over No. 11 Penn State. Freeman worked with both the offensive and defensive units throughout the season, also serving as a key contributor to the Illini's recruiting efforts while performing additional administrative and travel-related duties.

RETURNING #ILLINI TO WATCH

#3 Alicia Barker // Senior

The Illini senior started in all 20 of Illinois' games last season and in all 18 Illini games this year. She carries on the tradition of Illinois' flip throw-in and anchors a strong Illini defense.

#10 Hope Breslin // Junior

Breslin appeared in 12 games for the Illini during her freshman season, tallying 15 shots on the year. In her sophomore season she expanded her game, scoring five goals for Illinois. Three of her goals have come on penalty kicks, and she put more than 40-percent of her shots on frame. Breslin tied for the team lead with six goals and added four assists during the 2019 campaign.

#15 Kelly Maday // Senior

Maday helped to bring depth to the Illini offense. She scored two goals and tallied one assist last season while also sitting among team leaders for her 22 shots on the year. Maday also netted Illinois' first goal of the 2018 season against No. 6 North Carolina and racked up four goals total last year. She led the Illini with 18 points, tying for the team lead with six goals and tallying a team-high six assists.

#20 Makena Silber // Sophomore

A 2018 All-Big Ten Freshman Team honoree, Silber is an energetic component to Illinois' offense, as she netted her first-career goal against third-ranked Duke in 2018, while also scoring the game-winning goal against SIUE 33 seconds into the match. Silber led Illinois with her 46 shots on the year and was among team leaders with five goals. She fired a team-leading 61 shots this year and added a team-high six goals, ranking among conference leaders as well.

#23 Arianna Veland // Senior

A strong presence in the midfield, Veland netted two goals at Minnesota in 2018 to give Illinois its first Big Ten win of the season. She scored both goals against the Gophers off of headers. She's scored three of her nine career goals in the air. She converted two penalty kicks for the Illini this year.

#30 Jaelyn Cunningham // Senior

Cunningham earned the start in 18 of Illinois' games in her sophomore season and became a staple in goal for the Orange and Blue last season. Her 106 saves in 2017 season rank third all-time at Illinois and her 242 career saves rank third. She was honored by the Big Ten Conference as an All-Big Ten Second Team honoree in 2018 and she denied all three of Wisconsin's penalty kick attempts in Illinois' Big Ten Tournament Quarterfinal shootout.

NEWCOMERS TO WATCH

#4 Eileen Murphy // Freshman

Look for Murphy to add depth to Illinois' midfield and defensive lines. She is a two-time United Soccer Coaches First-Team All-Midwest honoree and a two-time IHSA First Team All-State honoree. Murphy earned the start in 10 of her 15 matches played in 2019 and scored her first career goal against Dayton.

#11 Aleah Treiterer // Freshman

A versatile addition to Illinois' lineup, Aleah has the capabilities to contribute to both the Illini offense and defense. She is a 2018 Marine Corps Distinguished Athlete Award Recipient and a three-year member of the ODP Region IV team. She saw action in 14 contests in 2019.

DEMIRJIAN PARK

University of Illinois Director of Athletics Josh Whitman announced plans on Dec. 6, 2017 for the construction of new soccer and track and field facilities on the UI campus. The new complex will be named Demirjian Park, in honor of a lead gift from the Demirjian family of Decatur, Ill. The project will be executed in phases with full completion scheduled for the spring of 2021. Demirjian Park will feature two new soccer fields, one for competition and one for practice, located directly east of the existing track and field complex, which will itself be renovated. The project's centerpiece will be Demirjian Park Stadium, located between the new soccer fields and the renovated track. The stadium will directly benefit more than 25-percent of the Fighting Illini student-athlete population by housing team facilities for women's soccer, men's track and field, and women's track and field. State-of-the-art amenities will include locker rooms, video and meeting rooms, lounge and study spaces, sports medicine and nutrition facilities, and coaches' offices. It will also contain spaces for visiting teams and officials. Construction of the new soccer fields will be completed during the 2019 season. Demirjian Park will be fully complete and open for the 2020 soccer season, which will allow Illinois to host the 2021 Big Ten Outdoor Track & Field Championships. Renovations to the track and accompanying field event venues will be performed as a separate project.

JEREMY L. DALY AWARD

This award is given for outstanding character and commitment to excellence. It is selected by the coaches and is awarded to the individual who exemplifies excellence as a player, teammate and student-athlete at the University of Illinois.

The award honors a young man who was an inspiration to those who knew him and a constant source of happiness to those who loved him. Jeremy embraced life; he was never without a big grin on his face and was always quick to offer a hug. He loved all sports and was an excellent swimmer and diligent student.

Jeremy and his family were close friends of Jillian Ellis, who was the women's soccer head coach at Illinois in 1997 and '98. He was born with Retinitis Pigmentosa, a rare disease which gradually takes both hearing and eyesight. Yet despite such adversity, Jeremy always remained happy and positive.

MEDIA INFORMATION

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

All requests for media/photo credentials should be made at least three days in advance of the event to Matthew Haufe at the University of Illinois Athletic Communications Office. Requests may also be made through email to mhaufe22@illinois.edu. Space in the soccer press area is limited and intended for working media and event staff personnel only. Media credential requests for away games should be made through the host SID office.

INTERVIEW POLICY

All media requests of coaches, student-athletes and administrators must be made through the Athletic Communications Office. Media personnel are asked not to call the student-athlete at her residence or on her cell phone. Student-athletes have been instructed not to talk to media who have not coordinated their requests with the Illinois Athletic Communications Office. This season, all media requests will be facilitated via Zoom or phone call. No in-person interviews will be permitted this season due to COVID-19.

WEEKLY RELEASE AND RESULTS

A weekly release – usually available two days in advance of the first game of the week – and match results will be made available to the media and opponent SIDs by email and online at FightingIllini.

com. If you wish to have your media agency added to the email list, please contact Jenny Dewar in the Athletic Communications Office.

POST-GAME INTERVIEWS

Coach Rayfield and select student-athletes will be available for comments after games following a short cool-down period. Please make all requests for post-game interviews to Matt Haufe in the press area.

PRACTICE TIMES

The Illini practice weekday afternoons at Illinois Soccer Stadium, which is just north of St. Mary's Road and just south of the Illinois Baseball Field. In the event of inclement weather, practice times may be changed and/or moved indoor to the Irwin Indoor Facility located on the corner of Fourth St. and Peabody Dr. in Champaign. Media availability will be held in conjunction with practice times. Please contact Jenny Dewar if you wish to attend.

ILLINOIS SOCCER ONLINE

Media are encouraged to access FightingIllini.com, the official website of University of Illinois athletics, for up-to-date information covering the Illinois soccer team. Game summaries, box scores, season statistics and much more are updated on the website following each game. Illinois soccer is also found on twitter.com/IlliniSoccer, facebook.com/IlliniSoccer and instagram.com/illinisoccer.

FIGHTINGILLINI.COM

FIGHTINGILLINI.com, the official website of the University of Illinois Athletic Department, is the fastest and easiest way for fans, alumni, students and parents to follow Illinois athletics. The website is intended to make the search for information about Fighting Illini athletics easier.

Maintained by the UI Athletic Communications Office, FIGHTINGILLINI.com provides viewers with not only the latest scores, game stories, photos and statistics from all Illinois varsity sports, but also feature stories on student-athletes and coaches who shape the headlines. Live radio broadcasts of volleyball, football, men's and women's basketball, softball and baseball, as well as selected audio interviews, video highlight clips and video features all are available online.

In addition, live in-game statistics are available for nearly all 21 varsity sports, including soccer.
