UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS

The University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign is the state's classic land grant university, dedicated to building on its tradition of excellence in education, research and public engagement, and driven to innovate in each of these missions. True to its commitment to provide access to top quality higher education to all of Illinois, the Urbana campus regularly ranks among the "best buys" among American universities.

Nearly 3,000 faculty members lead more than 44,000 undergraduate, graduate and professional students in a process of discovery and learning in 17 colleges and schools and more than 150 research centers and institutes.

Illinois provides a diverse learning environment with students and faculty members from more than 120 nations, and a choice of 150 undergraduate majors. Students have opportunities ranging from participating in research or studying abroad, to leading one of more than 1,000 student organizations.

Illinois faculty members win the most prestigious national and international awards, including Nobel and Pulitzer prizes, Guggenheim Fellowships, Tony Awards, and National Medals of Science and Technology. Illinois alumni are similarly recognized; 11 have won Nobel Prizes.

Campus resources include one of the world's largest public university libraries, with its online resources and precious rare book collections, including the earliest specimen of printing in the world, the oldest book printed in moveable type, and the first folio of Shakespeare (1623).

World-class research facilities include the National

MIKE POETA

HEAD COACH // 4TH SEASON

Mike Poeta, who established himself as one of Illinois's all-time greatest wrestlers and top assistant coaches in the nation as a member of the Fighting Illini staff, was named head wrestling coach in April 2021.

During the 2023-24 season he coached Edmond Ruth to All-American status and a Big Ten Champion at 174 pounds. Ruth's the fifth All-American and first ever Big Ten Champion in school history at the weight class (all previous champions were 175 pounds). He led two more wrestlers to their first NCAA Championships in Danny Pucino and Chris Moore. Moore became the first true freshman to qualify to the national meet since Travis Piotrowski in 2017.

In Poeta's sophomore campaign at the helm (2022-23) he coached five wrestlers to the NCAA Championships: Lucas Byrd, Danny Braunagel, Edmond Ruth, Dylan Connell and Zac Braunagel. Raising his total to nine NCAA Championships qualifiers across his first two seasons.

His rookie season as the head coach was highlighted by Lucas Byrd becoming an All-American at 133 pounds. He became the 40th wrestler in program history to claim multiple All-America honors and extended Illinois' All-American streak to 30 straight seasons. Poeta's initial NCAA Championships qualifying class was rounded out by Justin Cardani, Zac Braunagel and Luke Luffman.

Poeta was an Illinois assistant coach for five years prior to being named head coach. Previously he spent five years as the owner and head coach of the Poeta Training Center in Lake Forest, Illinois. Poeta was a member of Illinois' 2005 Big Ten title team and earned three All-America honors and two Big Ten titles.

During its inaugural year, Team Poeta grew from 40 wrestlers to 200 wrestlers. Since then, the training center has produced 19 high school and junior high state champions.

As the former owner of the team and training center, Mike Poeta brings both administrative and coaching experience to the Illinois staff. Financially, Poeta managed the clubs' budget and the payroll for its 10 assistant coaches, while also directing fundraising events for non-profit organizations that benefit young wrestlers in the Chicago area. Additionally, Poeta has built strong connections with some of the top high school athletes and coaches in the state of the Illinois through various recruiting combines and clinics.

Prior to creating the Poeta Training Center, Mike Poeta spent three years wrestling professionally. In 2010, Poeta represented the United States at the 2010 World Cup in Moscow, Russia. Two years later, Poeta competed at 2012 Olympic Trials.

A 157-pounder from 2004-2008 for the Illini, Poeta became one of the most successful wrestlers in Fighting Illini history and was a member of Illinois' 2005 Big Ten championship team. Individually, Poeta was a three-time All-American, two-time NCAA finalist and two-time Big Ten champion. Poeta left Illinois ranked second all-time in win percentage and 15th in career wins, and currently ranks third and 22nd in those categories. Poeta graduated from the College of Applied Health Sciences with a bachelor's degree in community health in 2009.

A native of Highwood, Illinois, Poeta was rated the No. 1 pound-for-pound high school recruit in 2004 after winning three High School National Championships and two IHSA state championships.

He also coached the Cadet Wrestling Team at the world championships in Istanbul, Turkey, in 1992, and the USA World Espoir Team in 1989.

Heffernan graduated from national wrestling powerhouse St. Edward High School (Cleveland, Ohio), where he finished as a two-time high school state champion.

Heffernan and his wife, Rebecca, live in Champaign with their son, Sean, and daughter, Ally.

JEREMY HUNTER

ASSISTANT COACH // 23RD SEASON

The 2000 NCAA Champion at 125 pounds, Jeremy Hunter begins his 20th season on the Illinois coaching staff and 12th as an assistant coach. Hunter wrestled post-collegiately for four years (2000-04), competing in two World Team Trials and the 2004 Olympic Trials, where he finished fourth at 55 kg.

Hunter has shown great versatility in his coaching, as he was a big factor in the success of NCAA Champion Jesse Delgado (125), often drilling with him in workouts. Hunter has also guided All-Americans Jimmy Kennedy (133), Mike Poeta (157) and John Wise (HWT). In 2017, Travis Piotrowski (125) became the first Illini to qualify for NCAA Championships in his true freshman season since Jackson Morse in 2011.

A three-time All-American at Penn State University, Hunter ended his career ranked third all-time with 62 dual meet wins and 29 career pins. His 123 career victories are tied for fifth and his 14-5 NCAA Tournament record ranks ninth in the Nittany Lion record books. He placed fifth in 1998 and was the NCAA runner-up in 1999.

Hunter won a Big Ten title in 1999 and placed among the top three on four occasions during his Penn State career. He earned Big Ten Wrestler of the Year honors in 2000 after his second-straight 33-1 season and was the conference's Rookie of the Year in 1997. A four-year dual-meet starter, he led the Nittany Lions in scoring for three straight seasons and posted a string of 41-straight dual-meet wins.

Hunter is married to his wife, Leslie, and they have one son, Landan.

ISAIAH MARTINEZ

ASSISTANT COACH // 3RD SEASON

Isaiah Martinez enters his first season on head coach Mike Poeta's coaching staff in 2022. Martinez, a Lemoore, Calif. native, rejoins his alma matter where he graduated from in 2018.

Martinez wrestled for Illinois from 2013-2018. He redshirted his first year in the program. Martinez was the 2015 Big Ten Freshman of the Year, and the 2016 and 2018 Wrestler of the Big Ten Championship. He was named the Illinois Big Ten Medal of Honor winner in 2018 for excellence in both academics and athletics, and twice was named the Dike Eddleman Male Athlete of the Year.

He is a two-time NCAA Champion, four-time NCAA finalists, and four-time Big Ten Champion. He is the most accomplished wrestler in Fighting Illini history. He holds the school record for best win percentage as his record at Illinois is 116-3 (.975). The 116 victories by Martinez is tied for 10th all-time in Illinois history, and had a 54-match winning streak that stretched over two seasons.

After Illinois Martinez still wrestled internationally representing the United States. In 2018 and 2019 he claimed gold at the US National Championships. He also won gold at the 2019 World Cup, helping the US team place third overall. In 2021, after the COVID-19 pandemic halted competitions in 2020, he earned silver in the US National Championships. The last match he wrestled in and now starts his coaching career.

AUSTIN O'CONNOR

ASSISTANT COACH // 2ND SEASON

O'Connor, a Lockport, Ill. native, enters his first year of coaching after he finished his collegiate wrestling career for the University of North Carolina (UNC) in 2023. He became the second Tar Heel in school history to win multiple NCAA Championships and he's the program's first five-time All-America honoree.

He finished his final campaign in the 2022-23 season a perfect 23-0 at 157-pounds. In his wins he secured his third ACC Championship and was named ACC Wrestler of the Year. He's the second wrestler in UNC history to win this honor multiple times. He was awarded the top seed at the 2023 NCAA Championships where he outscored his opponents 30-9 enroute to his second national title.

A year prior in the 2021-22 season he went 21-3 overall and passed the century mark in career wins at the Appalachian Open. This was his first year wrestling at 157-pounds; he earned All-American honors and was a runner-up at the ACC Championships.

In his last year at 149-pounds he went a perfect 13-0 for the 2020-21 season. He earned his first ACC Wrestler of the Year award and earned All-ACC honors. He won his first NCAA Championship as the two seed when he knocked off No. 1 seed Sammy Sasso of Ohio State.

O'Connor still saw success during the shortened 2019-20 season due to the COVID-19 crisis. He went 25-1 with a perfect 13-0 dual record and won his first ACC Championship at 149-pounds. The National Wrestling Coaches Association (NWCA) named him to First-Team All-American honors after the pandemic canceled the 2020 NCAA Championships.

He broke through as the starter at 149-pounds in his redshirt freshman year during the 2018-19 season. He compiled a record of 34-6 and placed third at the NCAA Championships. This made him the seventh freshman All-American in UNC history and it's the highest a freshman has ever placed in school history.

BRYAN MEDLIN

DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS
FIFTH SEASON

Medlin joined Illinois following a 10-year stint at Washington Community High School in Illinois. Inheriting a program that had never won a regional title as of 2007, Medlin coached Washington to seven regional titles in 10 years and has won each of the last two Illinois High School Association (IHSA) Class 2A dual state championships. Individually, 40 individuals have medaled at IHSA State Championships in the last eight seasons under Medlin.

A native of Washington, Illinois, Medlin has been lauded for his efforts at his alma mater throughout his time on the Washington High School bench. In 2015, Medlin was honored by the IHSA as its High School Coach of the Year and also earned the 2015 Greater Peoria Sports Hall of Fame Coach of the Year. Medlin has also been named the Central Illinois Coach of the Year ten times in his career.

In addition to his coaching at Washington, Medlin has been a vital part of Team Illinois' recent Freestyle and Greco success, twice being named the National Greco-Roman Coach of the Year. In 2017, Medlin helped Team Illinois sweep the team title in both styles at Fargo Nationals. In total, Medlin boasts 10 national dual team championships, 19 Fargo Nationals team titles and more than 50 individual national champions.

CHRISITAN KANZLER

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT FIRST SEASON

Kanzler returns to his alma mater in his first season as the director of player development for the 2024-25 season. He spent the last two seasons (2022-24) as a volunteer assistant coach.

Prior to his time as a coach Kanzler wrestled for the Fighting Illini from 2018-22 at 149 pounds. In his final season he compiled a 12-11 record as the full time starter. He won his first match in the Orange and Blue against Michigan State's Jaden Enriquez.

Before coming to Illinois he spent the 2017 and 2018 seasons at Lincoln College where he was the 2018 JUCO 141 pound runner-up. He was named to 2018 NJCAA Second-Team All-America honors and 2017 NJCAA honorable mention All-American.

THE HISTORY OF WRESTLING IN THE BIG TEN CONFERENCE

A meeting of seven university presidents in 1895, at the Palmer House Hotel in Chicago, was the first development of what would become one of organized sports' most successful undertakings.

Those seven men established the principles for which the Intercollegiate Conference of Faculty Representatives, more popularly known as the Big Ten Conference, was founded. Football and baseball were the most popular sports prior to 1900. Since then, many different athletic events have become popular on Big Ten campuses. Today, the Big Ten sponsors 12 championships for men and 11 for women.

The Big Ten began sponsoring wrestling in 1913, with Illinois and Minnesota tying for the first conference championship. Since then, the Big Ten has developed into the premier wrestling conference in the country. Big Ten teams have won 27 NCAA team championships and over 272 individual championships since the NCAA started sponsoring a national wrestling championship in 1928, including Iowa's three consecutive team titles from 2008-10. At the 2017 NCAA Championships, the Big Ten swept the top two spots with Penn State winning the title and Ohio State placing runner-up.

The 2018 Big Ten Championships will be held at Michigan State University, while the 2017 NCAA Championships will be held in Cleveland, Ohio at Quicken Loans Arena.

INDIVIDUAL AWARDS

SAPORA BROTHERS // MOST VALUABLE WRESTLER

The Illini's most valuable wrestler receives the Sapora Brothers Most Valuable Wrestler Award, in honor of the national championship-winning brothers.

Joe Sapora earned three letters for the Illini from 1928-30. He also won two Big Ten titles and became Illinois' first national wrestling champion when he won the NCAA 115-pound title in 1929. He went on to win a second title at the same weight in 1930. Al Sapora earned three letters, from 1936-38, was a Big Ten champion and won the 1938 126-pound NCAA title.

KEN GERDES // TEAM CAPTAINS AWARD

Beginning in 1998, the Fighting Illini team captains were named in honor of former Illinois letterwinner Ken Gerdes, who passed away in 1995. Gerdes, a native of Orland Park, Ill., was a junior during Mark Johnson's first year as head coach in 1992-93. He placed at the Big Ten Championships in 1991 and 1993 at 134 pounds.

INDIVIDUAL AWARDS

BIG TEN MEDAL OF HONOR

John Lockhart, an NCAA champion and three-time Academic All-American, was Illinois' Big Ten Medal of Honor winner in 2002.

In 1914, the Big Ten Conference endowed a Medal of Honor, to be awarded annually at each institution to the student demonstrating proficiency in scholarship and academics. The award takes into consideration academic excellence, athletic awards and contribution to the community.

In the 86-year history of the award, nine Fighting Illini wrestlers have earned the award, including national champions Al Sabora, Steve Marianetti, Eric Siebert and John Lockhart. Since the arrival of Mark Johnson and Jim Heffernan, the squad has produced four winners.

Lockhart was the most recent recipient of the award for the wrestling squad. He was a three-time All-American for the Illini whose national title at heavyweight in 2001 helped lead the team to a fifth-place finish at the NCAA Championships. Lockhart placed third in 2002 and seventh in 2000 and completed his career with a 123-26 record. He also was a two-time Academic All-American, posting a 3.43 GPA in kinesiology. Currently, he is a resident at the Cleveland Clinic in Cleveland, Ohio.

Beginning in 1982, a woman athlete from each institution has also been awarded the Conference

Medal of Honor. There has been one father-son UI Medal of Honor duo, Lee Sentman (track) in 1931 and his son, Lee Sentman III (fencing) in 1958. Gymnast Howard Beck (1974 and 1975) is the only two-time recipient of the award.

ILLINOIS DIKE EDDLEMAN ATHLETE OF THE YEAR

The University of Illinois Athlete of the Year was first given in 1940 to Bill Hapac, who played basketball and baseball. The award was given annually until it was discontinued in 1973. There were no awards given until 1982, when the Big Ten began a Conference Athlete of the Year, in which each school nominated a male and female athlete.

Since 1982, the University of Illinois has recognized a Male and Female Athlete of the Year. In 1993, the awards were renamed the Dike Eddleman Athlete of the Year awards in honor of the 11-time UI letterman and former Olympian. The awards are announced each June and presented at the annual Varsity "I" banquet in the fall.
