In its rankings for 2025, U.S. News & World Report's America's Best Colleges rated Illinois as the No. 9 public university and the No. 33 national university.

STATE FARM CENTER

Illinois has an outstanding home in State Farm Center. Known as Assembly Hall from its construction in 1963 to 2013, the iconic arena was renamed State Farm Center on April 29, 2013, with the announcement of a 30-year, $60 million naming rights agreement. State Farm Center underwent a complete renovation from 2014-16, dubbed the Illinois Renaissance. The $169.5-million project included a renovated seating bowl; the addition of four levels of premium seating; improved restrooms and concessions; a team hall of fame; air conditioning and many other amenities. Construction occurred around each Fighting Illini basketball season, with the project completed in the fall of 2016.

The historic building opened on March 2, 1963, and continues to attract attention for its design and construction. Four hundred feet across, it at one time was one of only two edge-supported domes in the world. The roof is supported by 614 miles of one-quarter inch steel wire wrapped at the base of the dome under intensive pressure. The architect was Max Abramovitz, a distinguished University of Illinois alumnus.

Illinois opened play at State Farm Center on March 4, 1963, with a 79-73 victory over Northwestern. Since that first game, the Illini have accumulated a 688-194 (.780) record. Illinois has sold out a total of 296 games at State Farm Center. UI has ranked in the top 25 nationally in home attendance 43 of the last 45 years, including 12th during the 2023-24 season. Fans help turn State Farm Center into a sea of orange for every Illini home game, with practically every person in attendance proudly wearing orange. That, combined with the Orange Krush student cheering section surrounding the court, gives the Illini one of the best home court advantages in the country.

Seating capacity for Fighting Illini basketball following State Farm Center renovations is 15,544.

MEDIA POLICIES

The University of Illinois record book is your source for information on the Fighting Illini men's basketball program. The Athletics Communication staff is here to help you in your coverage of Illinois Basketball. Don't hesitate to call any member of our staff if you need assistance during the course of the year.

To ensure you are receiving the latest information, confirm with Illinois SID Derrick Burson that you are on the primary basketball media distribution list (email: burson@illinois.edu).

HOME GAME CREDENTIALS

Media and photo credential and parking requests for Illinois home games should be made online at fightingillini.com/media. Media season credential requests should be made by Nov. 1. Single-game requests should be made at least one week prior to the date of the game. Single-game credentials must be picked up prior to the game at media will-call.

Illinois associate athletics director Derrick Burson will review each application and individuals will receive an email notification following that review. No credential requests will be accepted over the phone.

Due to limitations in seating numbers, all requests will be prioritized according to published circulation numbers. Be specific when requesting the type of credential needed, either media or photo. Any non-working people in possession of a media credential will be asked to turn over the credential and leave the press area. Spouses, dates, non-workers and children are not permitted in the press seating areas. Media agencies that violate this policy may not be issued credentials for future games.

ROAD/NEUTRAL SITE CREDENTIALS

Illinois media will be informed of the specific policies for credentials at each road/neutral site game by Illinois SID Derrick Burson. The process at each site varies between media making their own requests through an online system or via email, or with Burson collecting traveling media credential requests and submitting to the host school.

The specific number of credentials to be issued to Illinois media will vary for each game, and due to limited space will be prioritized in the same fashion as a home game.

CREDENTIAL USE

Working credentials are subject in all respects to the Media Credential Criteria and Policies set forth by the Big Ten Conference and University of Illinois as in effect from time to time. Working credentials are issued for the sole purpose of providing facility access to an accredited agency's employee who has a legitimate working function (media or game service) in conjunction with this game or games. It is non-transferable and non-assignable and any duplication or alteration of this document is prohibited. Any unauthorized use of the credential subjects the bearer to ejection from the facility and prosecution for criminal trespass.

Any secondary use of any picture, photograph, audio description, video, film/tape, drawing or other description of a game taken or made by the accredited organization or individual to whom this credential has been issued (including, but not limited to use in delayed editorial or non-editorial advertising, sales promotion or merchandising) is prohibited without prior specific written approval of the University of Illinois or the Big Ten Conference. Nothing in these terms and conditions authorizes or allows bearer to violate any of the trademarks, copyright and other proprietary rights of the University of Illinois or the Big Ten Conference. A maximum of two minutes (2:00) of game video footage (without audio) may be utilized during the one-week period following the conclusion of the game solely within regularly scheduled bona fide news programming distributed via television, and may not be distributed via the internet, wireless or other forms of media.

LIVE IN-GAME BLOGGING AND ELECTRONIC TRANSMISSION

Media Agencies and Representatives shall not transmit or display any real-time video or audio, while the Event or live network presentation of the Event is in progress. Photographs or any text-based accounts or descriptions of the Event (including without limitation, any web log, blog, online journal or other web-based publication) during the event is only allowed with the advance written permission of the University of Illinois Division of Intercollegiate Athletics.

WEBSITES

Media credentials are issued for individuals who are affiliated with websites for national or regional television and news media organizations, for institutions that are conference members and non-conference opponents, for the Big Ten Conference. The University of Illinois reserves the right to deny media credentials to any individual whose website is not affiliated with an official news-gathering organization.

STATE FARM CENTER

State Farm Center will open to the media two hours before each game. The Northeast Entrance is the entry point for all media. After you enter the concourse, turn left and at your first left take the stairs or elevator down one flight to the media room (located on Mezzanine Level). Wireless internet access is available in the media room where all press can work pregame and postgame.

PARKING

A limited number of media parking passes are available for men's basketball games at State Farm Center. Media parking passes will be issued for either the Northeast Lot, located on Fourth Street, or Lot E-14, located between First and Oak streets.

The issuance of passes will be done on a priority basis with media who cover the University of Illinois basketball team on a regular basis holding the highest priority. Requests will then be prioritized according to circulation for newspapers/websites and coverage area for radio and television. To avoid game traffic, media are encouraged to arrive at least 45 minutes prior to tip-off.

WI-FI

IllinoisNet_Guest is the wireless internet network all media will use. Access to this network is available throughout State Farm Center, including the media work room and all press seating areas inside the arena.

All devices must connect using the 5GHz band, as 2.4GHz frequency is not available in the arena. Some older laptops will not have the ability to connect to 5GHz. Media should confirm with their organization's IT department in advance that they can connect to Wi-Fi using 5GHz. If a device does not have 5GHz capability, media will need to bring a cellular hotspot.

Media having trouble connecting to the IllinoisNet_Guest network should refer to the step-by-step instructional sheet available at the arena. Please contact a UI Athletics Communication representative if wireless assistance is still needed.

PHOTOGRAPHY

All photographers must work from within the designated areas behind the baselines of the playing court. The University of Illinois follows NCAA and Big Ten guidelines regarding event photography. Photo locations for participating teams and primary media outlets are assigned by the UI Athletics Communication Office, with remaining spots available on a first-come, first-served, basis until all positions are taken.

All photographs are to be used in coverage of Illinois basketball and cannot be sold for any commercial enterprise benefiting the photographer. Should photos be sold commercially, credential privileges could be terminated.

Strobes—Photographers wishing to use strobe equipment at Illinois home games must notify the Illinois Athletics Communication staff at least one week in advance of the game for which they are requesting. There is a charge for installation and/or use of such equipment. A maximum of two strobe units may be used for any individual game.

TELEPHONES

With wireless internet serving as the preferred method of media communication, phone lines are no longer provided in the media workroom. Any individual wishing to order phone lines for the season or for a single game should direct the request to AT&T (800) 321-8152 during regular business hours. Street address for State Farm Center is 1800 South First Street, Champaign, IL 61820.

MEDIA POLICIES

POSTGAME PRESS CONFERENCES

The University of Illinois will utilize the media room, located on the Mezzanine Level on the Northeast side of State Farm Center, for postgame press conferences.

Following the game and a brief cooling off period, press conference order will typically begin with the visiting head coach, followed by select Illinois student-athletes, and concluding with Illinois head coach Brad Underwood.

If no media who cover the visiting team are in attendance, the visiting coach will typically not participate in the press conference.

Interviews with student-athletes from the visiting team – and the visiting coach when not participating in the press conference – must be arranged through the visiting team SID. Those interviews will be conducted in the north tunnel outside the visiting team locker room.

Illinois' postgame for road/neutral site games will begin with an Underwood press conference and follow with selected players outside the visiting team locker room.

POSTGAME INFORMATION

Media are strongly encouraged to use the official University of Illinois athletics website, fightingillini.com to access the box score after home games. Updated Illinois season statistics also will be available online following each game.

Media can access the direct livestats feed of all home games at illinois.statbroadcast.com.

All persons wishing to receive releases, stats, or box scores should retrieve the information off the official UI athletics website at fightingillini.com. To receive releases via email, contact Derrick Burson (burson@illinois.edu).

INTERVIEW POLICIES

All interview requests for Illinois players, head coach Brad Underwood and members of the coaching staff must be cleared in advance through Derrick Burson in the Illinois Athletics Communication Office. Please give at least 24 hours advance notice for interview requests. Student-athletes are not available on the day of scheduled competition until after the event is completed. Players have been instructed not to talk to media who have not coordinated their requests through Athletics Communication.

COACH UNDERWOOD INTERVIEWS

The media will have an opportunity to interview Brad Underwood prior to every game, typically the day before the game, although the travel schedule could impact that in rare occasions.

Prior to the majority of home games, Underwood will hold a press conference in the media room at State Farm Center.

Prior to road/neutral site games – and home games when the team is not able to practice at State Farm Center due to arena scheduling conflicts – Underwood will hold media availability at the Ubben Basketball Practice Complex.

Media will be alerted to the specific time for each pregame availability via email from Burson.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS

Select players will be available to the media prior to every game on one designated day, either before or after practice, at a time and location to be dictated by the practice and travel schedule.

Prior to each home game, select players will be available on the court at State Farm Center, or in the tunnel area if the court is not available.

Prior to road/neutral site games, select players will be available at the Ubben Basketball Practice Complex.

Media will be alerted to the day, time and location of player interviews via email from Derrick Burson.

BASKETBALL PRACTICE

Most practices will be held at the Ubben Basketball Practice Complex, except for days when the team will practice at State Farm Center. Practices are generally closed, although media could be allowed the opportunity to watch portions of practice periodically throughout the season at the discretion of the head coach.

No video or photos of practice are permitted. Please note that ALL team areas at both State Farm Center and Ubben – including locker room, film room, weight room and training room – are off limits to members of the media.

Illinois' game day shootarounds are closed to the media and only available to the television announcers broadcasting the game.

FIGHTINGILLINI.COM

Illinois releases, statistics, audio and video of press conferences and live radio coverage of Fighting Illini games are available on the official University of Illinois athletics website, fightingillini.com. In addition to men's basketball, live audio and video is available for football, women's basketball, volleyball and baseball, and the coaches' radio show broadcasts.

The show originates from Papa Del's Pizza Factory in Champaign and is hosted by Illini play-by-play announcer Brian Barnhart. BUSEY BANK ILLINI SPORTS NETWORK

(L-R): Brian Barnhart and former Illini greats Deon Thomas and Doug Altenberger will broadcast all the action this season on the Fighting Illini Sports Network.

The 56-station Busey Bank Illini Sports Network brings Illinois basketball to fans across the state and Midwest with Brian Barnhart, Deon Thomas and Doug Altenberger calling the action from courtside.

Barnhart is in his 23rd season as the “Voice of the Illini” after a long stint in professional baseball, including two years as the play-by-play voice of the Anaheim Angels. Barnhart serves as the voice of the Busey Bank Illini Sports Network, providing play-by-play coverage of football and men’s basketball and as the host of the statewide coaches call-in programs held weekly during the season.

A native of nearby Tolono, Barnhart graduated from Unity High School and Liberty University before beginning a 15-year career in professional baseball in 1986. He served as the play-by-play voice of the Lynchburg Mets and Salem Buccaneers before moving up to the Oklahoma City 89ers, the Class AAA affiliate of the Texas Rangers, from 1988-94. Barnhart did high school football and other sport play-by-play for 11 years and was also the voice for Oklahoma Baptist basketball from 1992-94 and Oklahoma City Blazers minor league hockey in 1993. From 1996-98, he handled news, sports and play-by-play at WWLS in Oklahoma City.

In 1998, Barnhart was named the play-by-play announcer for the Angels and spent two full seasons with the American League club before returning to the Champaign-Urbana area in 2000. He currently is a news and sports announcer at WDWS-AM 1400 in Champaign.

During the 2007 season, Barnhart was honored by the Illinois Broadcasters Association with the Silver Dome Award for Best Sports Play-by-Play for his call of Illinois’ football upset of No. 1 Ohio State. He received the Silver Dome again in 2008 for his call of the Illini’s ninth straight Braggin’ Rights win over Missouri, and earned a third-straight Silver Dome in 2009 for his play-by-play description of Illinois’ school-record come-from-behind win at Clemson. Barnhart was named the 2008 Illinois Sportscaster of the Year by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association, becoming just the second downstate sportscaster to win the award since 1959.

Former UI standouts Thomas and Altenberger are in their eighth season with the Busey Bank Illini Sports Network, splitting the season schedule to handle expert analyst duties.

The all-time leading scorer in Illinois history, Thomas registered 2,129 points during his four-year tenure from 1991-94. He also finished his career ranking second on the UI all-time rebounds list with 846 (now fourth) and as Illinois’ leader in blocked shots with 177 (now second). The Chicago native was a three-time team MVP and four-time All-Big Ten selection, and was a 2019 inductee into the Illinois Athletics Hall of Fame.

Altenberger starred for the Fighting Illini from 1983-87, amassing 1,271 points to currently rank 28th on the career scoring list. He was named team MVP as a junior in 1985 and was the Illini’s second-leading scorer as a senior in 1987, averaging 13.6 points while shooting 47.5 percent from 3-point range.

The statewide Busey Bank Illini Sports Network is managed by Fighting Illini Sports Properties and encompasses all sponsorship and operational elements. Busey Bank Illini Sports Network programming includes pregame and postgame shows around live football and men’s basketball games, plus coverage of women’s basketball, volleyball and baseball, along with the “Illini Today” daily report.

The “Brad Underwood Show” can be heard in-season, statewide on the Busey Bank Illini Sports Network on Mondays at 7 p.m.

"I dream big. And I dream bigger. Winning a national championship is something that can happen here, and I want to be part of that. I want to help lead this program to that."

— Brad Underwood at his introductory press conference (March 20, 2017)

Brad Underwood has reinvigorated Illinois Basketball, bringing the Fighting Illini back to the national stage and building a championship program during his tenure in Champaign.

Underwood is the 18th head coach in Illinois history, hired in March 2017 as the Richmond Family Endowed Men's Head Basketball Coach. He has won nearly 69 percent of his games during his 11 years as a Division I head coach, recording nine 20-win seasons. Underwood has made eight appearances in the NCAA Tournament, with a ninth precluded by the cancellation of the 2020 postseason due to COVID-19.

Illinois hoisted a conference trophy for the third time in four years in 2024, winning the Big Ten Tournament Championship in Minneapolis. Underwood became the first Illinois coach to win multiple Big Ten Tournaments, claiming two in a span of just four years. That followed a runner-up finish during the regular season where the Illini went 14-6 in conference play.

The Illini were 29-9 overall in Underwood's seventh year at the helm, with the 29 victories ranking as the third-winningest season in the 118-year history of the program. Illinois earned a No. 3 seed in the NCAA Tournament and won three games to advance to the East Regional Final, marking the program's first Elite Eight appearance since 2005. Upon making his first trip to the NCAA second weekend, Underwood led the Orange and Blue to a victory over No. 2 seed Iowa State in the Sweet 16 as Illinois recorded just its second NCAA Tournament win ever over a top-two seed.

Illinois ended the year at No. 6 in the Associated Press poll, marking its second top-10 final ranking in four years and fourth top-25 finish over the last five years. The 2023-24 offense was Illinois' most efficient in the kenpom era, placing third nationally at 1.255 points per possession. The Illini averaged 83.4 points per game, its highest scoring average in the last 30 years. Illinois had two first-team All-Big Ten selections for the second time in the Underwood era in seniors Terrence Shannon Jr. and Marcus Domask. Shannon was the nation's third-leading scoring at 23.0 ppg — the highest average by an Illini player in 51 years — while Domask averaged 15.9 points, 5.0 rebounds and 3.9 assists.

The Big Ten has been the nation's preeminent conference in recent years. It was ranked No. 1 by kenpom in 2020 and 2021, received a league-record nine NCAA Tournament bids in 2021 and 2022, led all conferences once again with eight tournament bids in 2023, and sent six teams to the NAAs in 2024. Yet no team has fared better during this stretch than the Fighting Illini, who are 69-31 (.690) in Big Ten play the last five years of the Underwood era. Illinois owns the most wins in league play over the last five seasons (69), as well as the most regular season and conference tournament wins combined (75).

The 69 victories in conference play marks the winningest five-year run in school history, with Underwood claiming Illinois' two all-time winningest Big Ten seasons (16 in 2021, 15 in 2022), three of the top five (14 in 2024), and four of the top eight (13 in 2020) during this stretch.

Illinois has now recorded at least 20 wins and a winning record in Big Ten play in five straight seasons for the first time since doing so eight years in a row from 1999-2000 through 2006-07. The Illini are also part of an elite group nationally, standing as one of just five schools to post 20-win regular seasons in each of the last five years.

Illinois had another successful season in Underwood's sixth year in Champaign. Despite replacing all five regular starters, its top five leading scorers, and a total of 10 players from the previous year's Big Ten championship squad, Illinois went 20-13 overall and finished fifth in the Big Ten (11-9) in 2023, securing a third straight NCAA Tournament bid and fourth straight 20-win season.

Illinois ranked in the bottom 25 nationally in minutes continuity from last year. Of those last 25 teams, Illinois was the only one to earn a bid in the 2023 NCAA tournament. The Illini were one of just two teams with multiple kenpom top-10 non-conference wins away from home, posting dramatic comeback wins over UCLA in Las Vegas and Texas at Madison Square Garden. Illinois also protected its homecourt, going 15-2 at State Farm Center and ending the season on a six-game home winning streak. It marked the Illini's best home winning percentage in the last 17 years.

Underwood led Illinois to the 2022 Big Ten championship in year five, navigating a challenging schedule with a frequently depleted roster to post a 15-5 league record and earn the school's first regular season conference title in 17 years. Illinois went 23-10 overall as Underwood recorded his third-straight 20-plus win season. Illinois ended the year at No. 19 in the AP poll to register a third-straight Top 25 finish, the program's longest streak since 2000-06.

Illinois was a No. 4 seed in the 2022 NCAA Tournament, becoming one of just six programs to receive top-4 seeds over the two-year stretch after earning a No. 1 seed in 2021. Illinois was one of just 12 schools to advance to the Round of 32 in both the 2021 and 2022 NCAA Tournaments, which marked Illinois' first time advancing in consecutive NCAA Tournaments in 16 years.

Underwood coached junior Kofi Cockburn, the most dominant player in college basketball, to consensus first-team All-America honors in 2022. Cockburn was the only player in the country to average

RICHMOND FAMILY ENDOWED MEN'S HEAD BASKETBALL COACH BRAD UNDERWOOD

20+ points and 10+ rebounds, becoming the first Illini in 50 years to do so. Cockburn joined Ayo Dosunmu as the only AP first-team All-Americans in school history, players mentored by Underwood in back-to-back seasons.

Underwood's fourth Illini team in 2021 put together one of the best seasons in school history, ending the year ranked No. 2 in the final AP poll, winning the Big Ten Tournament championship, and earning a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament.

Illinois went 16-4 in conference play to mark its winningest Big Ten season ever. Illinois led the Big Ten in victories while playing the full conference schedule, but missed out on the regular season title due to an unequal number of games played creating a win percentage differential of .024. The Illini went on to win the Big Ten Tournament, earning the program's first conference tournament title since 2005.

In all, Illinois totaled 19 wins against conference foes in 2021, setting a school record and tying the second-most wins ever by a Big Ten school against league competition in a single season.

Illinois earned the fourth NCAA Tournament No. 1 seed in school history after winning 14 of 15 games over a two-month stretch leading into NCAA March Madness. The remarkable run included seven wins over ranked teams, with five coming against top-10 foes.

Illinois defeated No. 2 Michigan, 76-53, in Ann Arbor on March 2, recording its highest ranked road win in program history. The 23-point margin was the largest victory in the NCAA on the road over a top-2 team since 1995. Four days later, the Illini won at No. 7 Ohio State to notch its first back-to-back wins over top-10 teams since 2005.

Not finished with that accomplishment, Illinois again defeated back-to-back top-10 opponents the following week at the Big Ten Tournament, beating No. 5 Iowa in the semifinal and No. 9 Ohio State in the championship to win the title.

Illinois finished the season with a total of six victories over top-10 teams, breaking the previous school record of five set by the 1989 Flyin' Illini. Illinois led the country with 12 Quad 1 wins and a combined 17 wins in Quads 1 and 2. The Illini also won nine road games, leading all high-major conference teams.

Illinois made its first appearance in the NCAA Tournament in eight years, advancing to the Round of 32 to finish with a record of 24-7. Illinois ended the season at No. 4 in kenpom's team adjusted efficiency margin, the second-highest rating ever for the program. The Illini excelled on both sides of the ball, finishing the year as one of only three teams ranked in the top 10 nationally in both offensive (8th) and defensive (7th) efficiency.

Illinois had a pair of consensus All-Americans leading the way in 2021. Junior Ayo Dosunmu was a first-team All-America selection by every organization and finalist for every player of the year award. The USA Today National Player of the Year and Bob Cousy Point Guard of the Year, Dosunmu became the first NCAA player since 2010 to average at least 20 points, six rebounds and five assists. Sophomore Kofi Cockburn was a second-team All-America pick by every outlet, totaling 16 double-doubles and standing as the only player in the country to average at least 15 points and nine rebounds on 60+ percent shooting.

Underwood directed Illinois to the largest turnaround among schools from the six major conferences in 2020 (+10.0), which was seventh across all of Div. I for most improved teams. Illinois was ranked for eight weeks, checking in at No. 21 in the final Associated Poll to finish a season ranked in the Top 25 for the first time since 2006.

The Illini recorded 21 victories during the regular season and won 13 Big Ten games – its most league wins since 2005 – to finish just one game back of the conference title. The Illini's .650 winning percentage in league play was its best since 2006 and the program earned a bye to the Big Ten Tournament Quarterfinal round for the first time since 2011.

Underwood installed a new defense prior to year three and retooled the offense during the season, schematic changes that led to Illinois ranking in the top 40 nationally in both offensive and defensive efficiency (kenpom) for the first time in nine years. Those changes complemented the trademark of Underwood-led teams that excel in transition and on the glass. The Illini averaged more than 20 points per game in possessions under seven seconds and ranked 11th in the nation in both offensive rebound rate (35.6) and rebound margin (+7.5).

Illinois notched six Quad 1 wins on the season and was one of only two teams in the country to earn four road wins over teams in the top 35 of the NET. The Illini's five Big

RICHMOND FAMILY ENDOWED MEN'S HEAD BASKETBALL COACH BRAD UNDERWOOD

Ten road victories were its most in 10 years, highlighted by its first win at Purdue since the 2009 season and its first wins at Wisconsin and at Michigan since 2010.

The UI's top two performers were once again underclassmen. Sophomore Ayo Dosunmu led the team in scoring (16.6 ppg) and assists (3.3 apg), becoming the first Illini player in 10 years to earn first-team All-Big Ten accolades. Kofi Cockburn was the team's second-leading scorer (13.3 ppg) and leading rebounder (8.8 rpg) en route to being named 2020 Big Ten Freshman of the Year.

Illinois was one of the most inexperienced teams in the country in 2019, with Underwood meshing seven newcomers into his 11-player rotation during his second season. Despite that youth, and facing the No. 3-ranked regular season schedule by kenpom, the Illini doubled their win total against conference foes, winning eight games against Big Ten competitors.

The Illini recorded nine wins against teams rated in the top-80 (kenpom), with four victories coming against eventual NCAA Tournament teams. The improvement was highlighted by marquee wins over two top-15 ranked opponents. Illinois defeated No. 13 Maryland at Madison Square Garden and knocked off No. 9-ranked and eventual Big Ten champion and Final Four participant Michigan State at home, leading to a court rush celebration by Orange Krush students at the buzzer.

Illinois had 58 percent of its scoring come from newcomers, which was the most of any team in the Big Ten. For the first time in school history, a true-freshman led Illinois in scoring on the season as Ayo Dosunmu averaged 13.8 points. And in conference play, Illinois had true-freshmen as its top two leading scorers for the first time ever in Dosunmu (14.8 ppg) and Giorgi Bezhanishvili (13.5 ppg).

Year one saw Underwood lay the foundation for the Illini program. Playing at the second-fastest tempo in the Big Ten, Illinois topped 80 points in 12 games and averaged 75.8 points on the season. That marked the UI's highest scoring average in 13 years, since the 2005 national runner-up season. The offense was aggressive in all phases, recording the team's best offensive rebounding rate (.340) and highest free throw rate (.331) since 2008 and making the most free throws (478) since 2002.

Defensively, Illinois ranked fourth nationally in turnover rate, forcing turnovers on 23.2 percent of opponent possessions. The UI defense created its most turnovers (17.5 avg.) since 2000 while collecting its most steals (6.3 spg) since 1999.

Fans have come out to State Farm Center in big numbers to watch Underwood's teams since his hiring. Illinois' improvement in average home attendance from 2017 to 2018 ranked 13th nationally. The average increase of 1,231 fans, meanwhile, marked the largest jump for the program in nearly 40 years (1979). Illinois' attendance average increased by an additional 321 fans in 2019, and by 106 more fans in 2020 with Illinois playing in front of sellout crowds in five of its final six home games during his third season.

Following a season without fans under COVID-19 restrictions, Illini Nation poured back into State Farm Center in 2022. Student season tickets sold out in less than three hours, and the Illini played in front of eight sellout crowds on the season. On the heels of the 2022 Big Ten title, State Farm Center was rocking again during the 2022-23 season. The allotment of 3,000 student tickets sold out in just 36 minutes this time around. Illinois played in front of 12 sellout crowds – the most since 2008 – including all 10 conference home games. Illinois' home attendance average of 15,091 was its highest in the last nine years, topping 15,000 for the first time since the renovation of State Farm Center.

Illinois set a revenue record for the third consecutive year in 2023-24, exceeding $7.1 million in ticket sales. The Illini played in front of 11 sellout crowds, and the home attendance average of 14,990 ranked 12th nationally.

Underwood and his staff have also made waves on the recruiting trail during their time in Champaign. In year one on the job the Illini inked Ayo Dosunmu, the program's highest-rated guard recruit since 2002. Year two was highlighted by the signing of Kofi Cockburn, the program's highest-rated center recruit since 2010. In year three the UI landed a top 15-ranked class, and has followed with top-25 classes in each of the last four recruiting cycles.

Underwood came to Illinois from Oklahoma State, where he led OSU to a 20-win season and 2017 NCAA Tournament appearance. The Cowboys had one of the most exciting and prolific offenses in the country, ranking eighth in the NCAA in scoring (85.7 ppg) and leading the nation in adjusted offensive efficiency. The Cowboys ranked eighth nationally in 3-point field goal percentage (.402) and fourth in the country in offensive rebounding percentage (.383).

Oklahoma State finished fifth in the Big 12 with a 9-9 conference record in a season where the Big 12 was rated as the top conference in the nation. That was a dramatic improvement for the Cowboys, who went 3-15 in league play the year prior. Oklahoma State came on strong during the second half of the season, winning 10 of 11 games from Jan. 21-Feb. 25, 2017, which included a pair of five-game winning streaks.

Following that successful turnaround at OSU, he accepted the Illinois job owning a total of 109 wins, third-most ever by a NCAA Div. I head coach through four seasons.

Underwood arrived in Stillwater following a dominant run at Stephen F. Austin where he led the Lumberjacks to Southland Conference regular season and tournament titles in each of his three seasons. Underwood compiled an 89-14 record at SFA, tied with Brad Stevens (Butler, 2008-10) for the most wins ever by a head coach in his first three seasons at an NCAA school.

He led SFA to a 28-6 overall record and NCAA Round of 32 appearance in 2016. The Lumberjacks rolled past No. 3 West Virginia in the first round, 70-56, before narrowly missing a trip to the Sweet 16 with a 76-75 defeat to No. 6 Notre Dame in the second round.

That Stephen F. Austin squad was efficient on both sides of the ball, ranking 57th nationally on offense and 38th on defense. The Lumberjacks averaged 80.2 points accompanied by high-pressure defense that forced the highest turnover rate in the country (.259).

Underwood's second SFA team went 29-5 in 2015, also advancing to the NCAA Tournament. The Lumberjacks ranked seventh in the nation in field goal percentage (.487) and led the NCAA in assists (18.7 apg).

His debut season in Nacogdoches in 2014 included a 29-game winning streak and culminated in a 32-3 record and NCAA Round of 32 appearance after a victory over No. 5 seed VCU in the opening round. Underwood earned the Joe B. Hall award, given to the nation's top first-year coach.

Prior to taking over at Stephen F. Austin, Underwood spent the 2013 season as associate head coach at South Carolina under former head coach Frank Martin. He went to Columbia with Martin after serving on his bench for five seasons as an assistant at Kansas State, with his final season elevated to associate head coach. Underwood's first year at K-State was in the role of director of operations for then-head coach Bob Huggins.

Underwood had two head coaching stints in the junior college ranks, compiling a 70-24 record in three seasons at Daytona Beach (2004-06) and a 57-63 mark in four years at Dodge City (1990-93). In between those opportunities, Underwood was entrenched in the state of Illinois for 10 seasons, as an assistant coach for Jim Kerwin at Western Illinois from 1994-2003.

Underwood is a December 1986 graduate of Kansas State. He played in Manhattan for the legendary Jack Hartman, K-State's all-time winningest coach. Former Illinois head coach Lon Kruger also played and coached for Hartman at Kansas State.

Underwood began his college career at Hardin-Simmons, where he later worked as a graduate assistant. Hardin-Simmons was the first college job for Lou Henson, the Fighting Illini's all-time winningest coach whose name permanently adorns the court at State Farm Center.

Brad and his wife, Susan, have a son, Tyler, and two daughters, Katie and Ashley. Tyler, who played four seasons for the Illini while earning three degrees, is an assistant coach on the Illinois staff. Katie also is a U of I graduate, while Ashley graduated from Miami-Ohio.

ORLANDO ANTIGUA

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH

A 21-year veteran of the coaching profession – widely regarded as the nation's preeminent recruiter and one of the top frontcourt player development mentors in the country – Orlando Antigua has reunited with head coach Brad Underwood and the Illinois program as Associate Head Coach.

Antigua is in his second stint at Illinois following three successful seasons at Kentucky, which marked his second stop in Lexington. Kentucky compiled a 71-30 record from 2021-24, recording at least 22 wins in each of the three years and making three NCAA Tournament appearances.

Antigua managed the development of Oscar Tshiebewe, the unanimous National Player of the Year in 2022. Tshiebewe led the NCAA in rebounding and became the first Div. I player to average at least 15 points and 15 rebounds in 42 years. Antigua also helped the Wildcats land three-straight top-5 recruiting classes, including the No. 1 class in the country in 2023.

Prior to Antigua's second run in Lexington, he spent four years at Illinois from 2017-21. Antigua was Underwood's first hire in Champaign during the spring of 2017, and he played an instrumental role in the turnaround of Illinois Basketball into a national contender.

Antigua's final two seasons in Champaign rank among the best in school history. Illinois won 21 games during the regular season, went 13-7 in the Big Ten, and finished ranked No. 21 in the AP poll in a 2020 season that had no postseason due to COVID-19. The Illini then went 24-7 in 2021, including a 16-4 mark in conference play to set the school record for most wins in Big Ten play. Illinois went on to win the Big Ten Tournament and earned an NCAA Tournament No. 1 seed. The 2021 Illini set a school mark by defeating six top-10 teams and ended the year at No. 2 in the final AP poll and No. 4 in kenpom, the second-highest rating in program history.

Antigua helped the Illini land several top-100 recruits and highly ranked recruiting classes and directed the development of three frontcourt players who earned All-Big Ten honors, including one who shined on the national stage.

Kofi Cockburn dominated in the post as a sophomore during the 2021 season, earning NCAA Consensus Second-Team All-America accolades and First-Team All-Big Ten. Cockburn was the only player in the country to average 15+ points and 9+ rebounds while shooting at least 60% from the field. He led the nation with 78 dunks, was third nationally with 16 double-doubles, and ranked fourth in the NCAA in field goal percentage (.654).

The 2020 season saw Cockburn emerge as the Big Ten's top newcomer. He earned seven league freshman of the week accolades en route to being named Big Ten Freshman of the Year. Cockburn shattered the Illini freshman double-doubles record with 12 while averaging 13.3 points, 8.8 rebounds and 1.4 blocks on the season.

In 2019, Giorgi Bezhanishvili arrived as an under-the-radar recruit but went on to start every game in the post, leading the team in rebounding and ranking among NCAA leaders in field goal percentage while breaking the Illini school single-game scoring record by a freshman (35 points).

In 2018, Leron Black earned honorable mention All-Big Ten accolades after leading Illinois in both scoring and rebounding.

Antigua arrived at Illinois following two and a half seasons as head coach at South Florida. He also served as head coach of the Dominican Republic men's national team from 2013-15. During that stint in 2014, the Dominican Republic advanced to the bracket round of the FIBA World Cup for the first time in the country's history.

Antigua earned the head position at South Florida after serving as an assistant for John Calipari for six seasons. He spent the 2008-09 season at Memphis before joining Calipari at Kentucky for five years from 2009-14. Named the top assistant coach in the country under 40 by ESPN.com in 2012, Antigua helped assemble five straight No. 1-ranked recruiting classes during his time at UK. The Wildcats compiled a 152-37 record during his tenure, highlighted by three Final Four appearances and culminating in the 2012 NCAA Championship.

Prior to joining Calipari at Memphis, Antigua spent five seasons at his alma mater, Pittsburgh. He was part of then-head coach Jamie Dixon's staff, three as director of basketball operations (2003-06) and two as assistant coach (2006-08) while Pitt compiled a 132-40 record.

Antigua played at Pittsburgh from 1991-95, serving as two-time team captain. He won the USBWA's Most Courageous Athlete in 1994, an honor that is presented annually to a player who displays courage on and off the court.

After graduating from Pittsburgh in 1995 with a bachelor's degree in social science, Antigua became the first player of Latin American descent to play for the famed Harlem Globetrotters, touring the world for seven years until 2002. The Globetrotters at that time were owned by Illinois alumnus and 2017 Naismith Basketball Hall of Famer Mannie Jackson.

Born in the Dominican Republic but raised in The Bronx borough of New York City, Antigua attended St. Raymond's High School. As a senior, he earned McDonald's All-America and Parade magazine All-America second-team honors and was also named All-New York City.

Fluent in Spanish, Antigua and his wife, Dana, have a daughter, Olivia, and a son, Orlando Anthony.

Alexander came to Illinois in 2017 after spending five seasons as an assistant coach at Evansville. During his time serving under then-head coach Marty Simmons, the Purple Aces recorded three 20-plus win seasons. Included in that run was a 25-win campaign in 2016 that equaled the most wins for Evansville in its Division I history and culminated in a Missouri Valley Conference Tournament title-game appearance. The 2015 Evansville squad, meanwhile, won 24 games, highlighted by the CollegeInsider.com Tournament championship.

Prior to his tenure at Evansville, Alexander spent one year as an assistant coach at Eastern Illinois in 2012. That followed five years as an assistant at Idaho State from 2007-11, where he also served as the Bengals' recruiting coordinator.

The Falcons compiled a 70-24 record, including a 25-5 mark in 2006, and won three consecutive Mid-Florida Conference Championships. He began in the junior college ranks as an assistant at Jacksonville (Texas) College during the 2003 season.

Alexander's coaching career started as a two-year graduate assistant at his alma mater, Western Illinois, from 2001-02. He competed for the Leathernecks for two seasons from 1999-2000 while Underwood was a WIU assistant, following two seasons of play at Southeastern (Iowa) Community College.

Alexander had a stellar playing career at Lincoln High School. Geoff played for his father, Neil, the legendary Illinois prep coach who now ranks second on the IHSA all-time coaching wins list. Geoff graduated from Lincoln in 1995 and still ranks in the program's top-10 for career points, rebounds and assists. He was inducted into the Illinois Basketball Coaches Association Hall of Fame in 2012, along with his younger brother, Gregg. They joined their father, who was a 2004 IBCA Hall of Fame inductee.

Alexander earned two degrees from Western Illinois, a bachelor's in 2000 and a master's in 2002.

He is married to the former Kiersten Coleman. The Alexanders have two daughters, Braelyn and Kinley, and a son, Jax.

He then helped Illinois to one of the best seasons in school history in 2021 that featured a Big Ten Tournament championship, NCAA Tournament No. 1 seed, and No. 2 ranking in the final AP poll.

Underwood's last two seasons on the roster aligned with the second-winningest two-year Big Ten run in school history, as the Illini combined for 29 conference wins from 2020 to 2021.

Underwood was part of three NCAA Tournament teams during his career: 2016 at Stephen F. Austin, 2017 at Oklahoma State, and 2021 at Illinois. A fourth NCAA appearance in 2020 was precluded by the cancellation of the postseason due to COVID-19.

Biggs came to Illinois after spending 15 years at Oklahoma State. He served 11 years there as assistant athletic director for basketball, overseeing travel, budget, scheduling, special events, alumni relations and operational functions.

Prior to working with the Cowboys men's basketball program, Biggs oversaw all marketing efforts of the Oklahoma State athletic department from 2002-06. DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS JOSH WHITMAN

Illinois alumnus Josh Whitman was hired as the University's 14th permanent director of athletics on February 17, 2016. Now in his ninth year, Whitman owns the third-longest tenure among current Big Ten athletic directors and 11th-longest among the Autonomy 4. He has led an impressive effort to establish Fighting Illini Athletics among the nation's elite in both the competitive arena and the classroom.

Whitman has become a prominent voice in college athletics, highlighted by leadership roles in Big Ten and NCAA governance. In 2023, Whitman was appointed to a four-year term as the Big Ten representative to the NCAA Division I Council. In April 2024, Whitman was elected chair of the Council, a position he will hold until June 30, 2026. As Council chair, Whitman also is a voting member of the NCAA Division I Board of Directors, comprised primarily of presidents and chancellors from Division I institutions, and an ex officio member of the NCAA Board of Governors, the highest governing body of the NCAA.

From 2021-23 Whitman co-chaired the Big Ten's Administrators' Council and served on the Conference's Joint Group Executive Committee. In addition, he represented the Big Ten on the Rose Bowl Management Committee through 2023.

Illinois is coming off perhaps the most successful season of Whitman's tenure in 2023-24, exhibited by a No. 37 final ranking in the Learfield Directors Cup while recording the program's highest point total (599.75) under his leadership. The Fighting Illini won a total of four Big Ten championships on the season in baseball (regular season), men's basketball (tournament), women's indoor track & field, and men's gymnastics (regular season), the most for Illinois Athletics since 2015. Additionally, the men's golf program won the NCAA Regional title en route to yet another top-5 NCAA finish, women's basketball claimed the crown in the inaugural Women's Basketball Invitation Tournament (WBIT), and two Illini student-athletes brought home individual NCAA championships.

The 2023-24 season continued momentum from the year prior, 2022-23, when Illinois finished as one of just 14 schools to have its football team play in a bowl game and both its men's and women's basketball teams participate in the NCAA Tournament. Of those 14 schools, Whitman is one of only two current athletic directors to have hired all three of the involved head coaches. The Fighting Illini also captured Big Ten championships in both men's and women's golf and had three student-athletes win NCAA individual titles in 2023.

Whitman has prompted a national resurgence in men's basketball that began with his 2017 hiring of head coach Brad Underwood, widely considered one of college basketball's best hires over the last decade. During the last five seasons, Underwood's Illini have posted the best record in the Big Ten while winning conference titles in three of the last four years. At the same time, State Farm Center has become one of the most feared home courts in college basketball, with average attendance in the top 12 nationally and more than 20 sellouts the last two seasons. The men's basketball program has set Illinois revenue records in three consecutive seasons en route to becoming the Big Ten's most profitable program.

Men's Basketball had a banner year in 2023-24, appearing in the NCAA Tournament for its fourth consecutive year and advancing to the Elite Eight for the first time since 2005. The team captured its second Big Ten Tournament title in four years and totaled 29 victories to mark the third-winningest season in school history. Illinois ended the year at No. 6 in the AP poll, its second top-10 final ranking of the Underwood era.

In 2021-22, the Illini won 15 Big Ten games and earned a share of the Big Ten regular-season championship, the 18th in program history and its first in 17 years. For the second consecutive year, the team earned a Top 4 seed to the NCAA Tournament and won its opening round game.

The basketball program's remarkable ascent was highlighted by the 2020-21 campaign, which, by many measures, was one of the most successful in Illinois history. The Illini topped the Big Ten standings in wins, setting a school record with 16 league victories. Illinois then captured its first Big Ten Tournament Championship in 16 years and earned a No. 1 seed in the 2021 NCAA Tournament. Illinois ended the season at No. 2 in the AP poll.

Whitman's influence also has been notable on the gridiron. An Illini letterman himself, Whitman has helped engineer the football team's return to national competitiveness, highlighted by hiring three-time Big Ten champion head coach Bret Bielema in December of 2020. In Bielema's first season, the Illini won their most conference games in 14 years, including back-to-back road victories at No. 7 Penn State and No. 20 Minnesota.

That set the stage for 2022, the second year of Bielema's tenure, which became Illinois Football's best season since 2007. Illinois started the regular season 7-1 en route to winning eight regular season games and narrowly missing a place in the Big Ten Championship Game. The Illini were ranked in the Top 25 for five straight weeks, reaching a high of 14th, while also appearing in the College Football Playoff rankings for the first time in program history. Led by its defense, which led the nation in scoring defense for the first time in school history, the Fighting Illini participated in a January bowl game for the first time since the 2008 Rose Bowl.

Illinois narrowly missed a return bowl trip in 2023, going 5-7 with a staggering eight games decided by one score. As he continues to gain momentum and improve every facet of the program, Bielema has already won 12 Big Ten games, the most by an Illini coach through his first three seasons in 30 years. Illinois also continues to make waves in the NFL, with a total of eight draft picks over the last two years. Fans have showed enthusiasm for the surging program, with average attendance in 2023 at its highest since 2010 and up more than 15% from the year prior.

Back to the hardwood, Whitman's hiring of Shauna Green in women's basketball has ignited another turnaround in Fighting Illini Athletics. In 2022-23, Green's first year at the helm, she led the team to a historic 15-win improvement, the best year-over-year change ever at Illinois and the third-largest in Big Ten history. Illinois won 22 games, the third-most victories in program history, and made the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2003. Green then led Illinois to its first postseason title in school history during her second season, 2023-24, as Illinois roared to the title of the NCAA's first-ever WBIT while setting school revenue records for women's basketball.

In total during Whitman's tenure, Illinois teams have made 94 NCAA postseason appearances, highlighted by 26 teams finishing in the top 16 nationally and seven finishing in the nation's top four. In addition, eight Illinois student-athletes have captured 10 individual national championships (wrestler Isaiah Martinez, 2016; men's gymnast Brandon Ngai, 2016; men's gymnast Alex Diab, 2018 and 2019; men's gymnast Ian Skirkey, 2021; Skirkey, fellow men's gymnast Ashton Anaya, and women's track and field athlete Olivia Howell, 2023; and men's gymnast Tate Costa and women's track and field athlete Rose Yeboah, 2024).

Illinois has captured a total of 16 Big Ten titles under Whitman: men's golf (2016-19, 21-23), women's golf (2023), men's basketball (2022 regular season, 2021 & 2024 tournaments), men's tennis (2021 tournament), men's gymnastics (2024 regular season, 2018 tournament), baseball (2024 regular season), and women's track and field (2024 indoor).

Whitman has executed an aggressive facilities agenda since his hiring. The marquee building is the $79.2 million, 110,000-square-foot Henry Dale and Betty Smith Football Center, which was formally dedicated in October 2019. A multi-year renovation and expansion of the Ubben Basketball Complex was a $40 million project that finished in the fall of 2022 and was officially dedicated in February of 2023. Other completed projects include the $21 million Demirjian Park, home for the Illinois soccer and track and field programs that opened in the spring of 2021, and the $8 million Susan and Clint Atkins Baseball Training Center and $6 million Rex and Alice A. Martin Softball Training Center, both dedicated in October 2022.

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS JOSH WHITMAN

To assist Illinois' nationally ranked men's and women's golf programs, Whitman orchestrated the acquisition of the former Stone Creek Golf Club as part of a $15 million, multi-faceted gift of real estate to the University from long-time friends of Illinois Athletics, the Atkins family. The course, now rebranded the Atkins Golf Club at the University of Illinois, underwent extensive renovations using funds from a $5 million anonymous gift to provide Illinois Golf with a championship-caliber home.

To support this facility plan and various other strategic initiatives, Whitman has teamed with DIA's Office of Athletic Development to achieve unprecedented success on the fundraising trail. Whitman's arrival synchronized with the public launch and execution of the campus-wide With Illinois fundraising campaign. As part of the With Illinois campaign, DIA secured more than $321 million in fundraising production, easily surpassing its fundraising goal of $300 million. The campaign featured several of the largest single gifts in program history, including a $20 million donation from the H.D. Smith Foundation, led by brothers Dale and Chris Smith, to name Smith Football Center.

Under Whitman's leadership, Illinois is amid seven consecutive fiscal years of recording more than $30 million in new gift commitments (FY18 through FY24), with three consecutive years (FY18 through FY20) exceeding $40 million. In FY20, Illinois secured more than $45 million in new gifts, the second-highest single-year total in Illinois Athletics history. In FY24, I FUND giving totaled $8.27 million, marking the annual fund's most successful year in the last decade.

In 2016, Whitman announced the creation of the University's Athletics Hall of Fame, which will induct its eighth class in the fall of 2024. In the winter of 2022, following an extensive community effort, the Illinois High School Association returned its Boys State Basketball Championship series back to State Farm Center after an absence of more than 25 years. In 2021, he created the first full-time executive leadership position tasked with daily leadership of DIA's diversity and inclusion efforts. During Whitman's tenure, DIA has hosted a Diversity Summit (spring of 2018) and a Title IX Summit (fall of 2022), the latter intended to celebrate the 50th anniversary of Title IX's passage.

Whitman has also been a regular presence in Springfield, testifying in committee and working with state lawmakers on a variety of issues impacting college athletics, including name-image-likeness and sports gambling. In the summer of 2020, Whitman joined Governor J.B. Pritzker in State Farm Center while the Governor signed into law the Student-Athlete Endorsement Rights Act, the state's inaugural NIL bill.

Whitman, a former Academic All-American at Illinois, emphasizes strong performance by Fighting Illini student-athletes in the classroom as well. In each year of his tenure, student-athletes have posted a combined GPA of above 3.12. Under Whitman's leadership, the student-athlete population as a whole and individual teams have set school records for GPA, APR scores and GSR scores. Illini student-athletes enter the 2024-25 academic year with a school-record streak of 28-consecutive semesters with a combined GPA above 3.0.

At the time of his hiring in early 2016, Whitman, then at age 37, was the youngest athletics director in the Autonomy 5. Prior to returning to Illinois, Whitman, now 46 years old, spent nearly six years as an athletics director at two universities. He came to Champaign-Urbana following almost two years as director of athletics at Washington University in St. Louis, a nationally recognized NCAA Division III program with 19 varsity sports and approximately 500 student-athletes. Before joining Washington University, Whitman served four years as the director of athletics at the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse, another of the nation's leading Division III programs. Combined at those two institutions, Whitman's teams earned four national titles, 24 NCAA top-five team finishes and 34 conference championships.

Whitman has two Illinois degrees. He graduated with Bronze Tablet honors in 2001 while earning a bachelor's degree in finance. In 2008, he graduated summa cum laude from the Illinois College of Law before serving as a judicial law clerk for Judge Michael Kanne on the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit. From 2005 to 2008, he worked for DIA and former Illini athletics director Ron Guenther in various administrative capacities.

On the gridiron for the Fighting Illini, Whitman played in 45 games from 1997-2000, catching 52 career passes and seven touchdowns. He was a two-time First Team Academic All-American and earned Honorable Mention All-Big Ten honors his senior season. He then spent parts of four seasons as a player in the National Football League, including stints with the San Diego Chargers, Miami Dolphins, Seattle Seahawks, and Buffalo Bills. In 2024, Whitman, a native of West Lafayette, Ind., was selected for induction in the Indiana Football Hall of Fame.

Prior to embarking on his career in athletics administration, Whitman practiced law in Washington, D.C., with Covington & Burling LLP, a firm with a preeminent sports practice that represents, among other clients, the National Football League. Whitman remains a licensed attorney and is a member of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics and LEAD1 Association. He also served on the national board of directors for the Sports Lawyers Association from 2019-23.

Whitman's leadership has earned national attention, highlighted in early 2018 when Sports Business Journal named him to its prestigious Forty Under 40 list. In July 2017, Whitman was selected Central Illinois Business Magazine's Forty Under 40 Man of the Year.

Whitman is married to Hope Whitman. They have two children: a daughter Tate, who is eight, and a six-year-old son, Will. The Whitmans have become engaged in several Champaign-Urbana community organizations, including United Way, Champaign County Court Appointed Special Advocate (CASA) for Children, Courage Connection, Coaches vs. Cancer, and the Tom Jones Challenger League. Whitman has been recognized as a Paul Harris Fellow by the Champaign Rotary and was selected as the 2023 Distinguished Citizen by the Prairieland Council of the Boy Scouts of America. He and Hope are members of the I FUND's Loyalty Circle and made a significant gift to the Smith Football Center to honor football alumni inside the facility.

UNIVERSITY ADMINISTRATION

TIMOTHY L. KILLEEN PRESIDENT

Timothy L. Killeen is the 20th president of the University of Illinois System, which includes universities in Urbana-Champaign, Chicago and Springfield. He took office in May 2015 and received a new contract in 2020 that extends his term through June 2024.

Since taking office, Killeen has helped lead a surge of growth across the state's flagship university system. Enrollment is at record highs, including increases among in-state and underrepresented students. Student costs have been held in check by affordability initiatives that include a tuition freeze for new Illinois students six of the last eight years and substantial increases in institutional financial aid. Retention and graduation rates top national norms, while student debt rates are lower than U.S. averages. The system plans to add 300 faculty members in three years on top of those hired to fill vacancies. A capital program will build or upgrade nearly 350 facilities over the next decade to ensure classroom and research space matches the system's academic excellence, and the system's largest fundraising campaign ever exceeded its $3.1 billion goal.

A leading researcher in geophysics and space sciences, Killeen champions efforts to expand research discovery that drives progress and job creation. That includes helping lead the creation of two pioneering initiatives to drive innovation and workforce development – Discovery Partners Institute, a world-class research, technology talent development and business-building center in downtown Chicago, and Illinois Innovation Network, a system of satellite hubs that combine research, public-private partnerships, entrepreneurship and workforce training to spur inclusive economic development across the state.

In alignment with its mission, The University of Illinois System contributes $19 billion annually to the state's economy through research, hospital and entrepreneurial activities, along with the universities' students, visitors and alumni. A 2022 study showed the system's impact on the state grew by 8.6 percent – roughly $1.5 billion – since 2018.

In addition, Killeen reaffirmed the system's commitment to the arts and humanities, launching a program that pumped nearly $3.5 million into faculty initiatives that underscore their importance to a well-rounded education.

The ongoing growth is rooted in the Strategic Framework that Killeen helped develop early in his presidency to guide the U of I System for the next decade. The roadmap set high-aspiration goals to make the U of I System a model for higher education in the 21st century, and build on its more than 150-year legacy of service to students, innovation and the public good.

In 2021, Killeen launched the annual U of I System leadership state tour with the goal of connecting with businesses, communities, schools, lawmakers, alumni and more to strengthen existing partnerships and forge new ones that improve the lives of Illinois residents.

When he joined the U of I System, Killeen brought more than three decades of experience as an educator, researcher and administrator in public higher education and in leadership positions with national scientific research agencies.

Earlier, he served as vice chancellor for research and president of the Research Foundation at the State University of New York, one of the nation's largest higher education systems. He also served as assistant director for geosciences at the National Science Foundation (NSF), as the Lyall Research Professor at the University of Colorado, and as director and senior scientist for the National Center for Atmospheric Research. Additionally, Killeen spent more than 20 years as a faculty member and researcher at the University of Michigan, where he also served as associate vice president for research.

He was elected to the National Academy of Engineering in 2007, and is a member and past president of the American Geophysical Union and a fellow of the American Meteorological Society and the American Association for the Advancement of Science. Killeen has authored more than 150 publications in peer-reviewed journals, along with more than 300 other publications and papers.

A native of Wales and a U.S. citizen, Killeen received his bachelor's degree in physics and astronomy at University College London, where he also earned his doctoral degree in atomic and molecular physics and was later awarded an honorary doctorate degree for his significant contribution to research.

Killeen's wife, Roberta M. Johnson, holds B.S., M.S., and Ph.D. degrees in geophysics and space physics from the University of California, Los Angeles. She has published more than 60 peer-reviewed papers, review articles, abstracts and non-referred reports and articles in the area of upper mesosphere and lower thermosphere research, as well as on educational programs.

The Killeens have three children and two grandsons.

ROBERT JONES CHANCELLOR

Robert J. Jones became chancellor of the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign on September 26, 2016. He previously served as president of the University at Albany, State University of New York (SUNY) and is an experienced and accomplished scientist and research university leader.

At the University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign, Jones serves as chancellor of the state's flagship, land-grant university. At Urbana, Jones' tenured faculty home is in the Department of Crop Sciences, College of Agricultural, Consumer and Environmental Sciences (ACES). Jones is the first African American scholar appointed as Urbana chancellor since the office was created in 1967. He is the current Chair of the Board of Directors for the Association of Public and Land-grant Universities (APLU), Chair of the Big Ten Council of Presidents and Chancellors, and is a member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences.

At Illinois, he launched a year-long celebration of the university's Sesquicentennial that honored its history while establishing a new vision of the land-grant university for the 21st century. Under his leadership that future is taking shape quickly and visibly. The university recently completed a $2.7 billion philanthropic campaign that was the largest in the university's history and included two of the largest private gifts ever made to Illinois. He has implemented the vision of creating the Carle Illinois College of Medicine, the first engineering-based medical school in the world. The hiring of an inaugural vice chancellor for diversity, education and inclusion was a major step in fostering an even more open and collaborative community of students and faculty. And with the Illinois Commitment, a program that guarantees four years free tuition to state residents with family incomes less than $67,100, Jones has continued to deliver on the university's founding promise of making a world-class college education affordable and accessible.

A Georgia native, Jones, earned a bachelor's degree in agronomy from Fort Valley State College, a master's degree in crop physiology from the University of Georgia, and a doctorate in crop physiology from the University of Missouri, Columbia. He is a member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences and is a fellow of the American Society of Agronomy and the Crop Science Society of America. He began his academic career as a faculty member at Minnesota in 1978 and became an internationally respected authority on plant physiology.

Throughout his distinguished, 34-year career at the University of Minnesota Twin Cities campus, Jones held several progressively responsible positions at the Big Ten institution. While senior vice president for system academic administration, Jones had administrative and budgetary responsibilities for the four constituent campuses in Duluth, Crookston, Morris and Rochester and the offices for public engagement, equity and diversity, Extension Service, Minnesota Agricultural Experiment Stations, information technology and human resources.

From Minnesota, Jones became the President of the University at Albany, one of SUNY system's leading research universities. During his tenure there, Jones launched that university's largest and most strategic academic expansion in 50 years.

Throughout his career, Jones has worked to make education available to promising young scholars around the world. From 1984-1994, he worked with Archbishop Desmond Tutu's South African Education Program (as an academic and scientific consultant) which educated more than 3,000 black South Africans in American Universities.

Jones is married to Dr. Lynn Hassan Jones, MD, a muscular skeletal diagnostic radiologist. Together they have five children and a growing number of grandchildren.

RICHMOND ENDOWMENT

RICHMONDS ENDOW BASKETBALL COACH'S POSITION

The legacy of Jack Richmond abounds at his alma mater, the University of Illinois.

The Champaign resident, retired businessman, and U of I graduate and benefactor died April 17, 2011. But his love of his university lives. One of the more recent gifts from the lifelong Fighting Illini fan and his wife, Marge, endowed the salary of the men's basketball head coach position. This $2 million gift significantly increased their previous seven-figure commitment to the Division of Intercollegiate Athletics.

Their generosity extends across the U-C campus. In 2004, Mr. Richmond made a six-figure gift creating the Jack C. Richmond Scholarships for members of the men's varsity gymnastics team. In 2003, the Richmonds made a $1.5 million gift resulting in Richmond Family Gallery, the first floor reception area in the Alice Campbell Alumni Center. The Richmonds also provided a $2 million gift to the College of Communications in 1998 that created the Richmond Journalism Teaching Studio, a broadcast facility for journalism students in Campbell Hall for Public Telecommunication. The Richmond Studio and the Richmond Family Gallery honor Jack and Marge as well as the memory of Jack's parents, Arthur Dean and Mildred Hummel Richmond.

"The Richmond Family Endowed Men's Head Basketball Coach" is another example of the generations-long benevolence of the Richmond family. Jack's ancestors helped settle Champaign County, and his parents contributed to the U of I for the construction of Memorial Stadium. Seven-year-old Jack was on hand for the dedication of Memorial Stadium on Oct. 18, 1924, a day forever highlighted by Red Grange's five touchdowns during an Illinois romp over top-ranked Michigan. Jack Richmond was hooked on Fighting Illini sports for the rest of his life.

But before he could attend the U of I, he learned a few lessons in life. The Richmonds were devastated by the Great Depression, losing their significant holdings of farmland and other assets. The dramatic change in lifestyle had a profound effect on young Jack.

It also made him further appreciate the University of Illinois.

His years at the U of I were greatly satisfying. He was a member of Phi Gamma Delta social fraternity and was active in sports. As a freshman gymnast who earned his numerals with the U of I team, Jack broke his sternum following a dismount from the flying rings. No longer able to compete as a gymnast, he focused his attention on weight training. At that point, weights weren't popular and were nonexistent at the U of I.

Still, he convinced Seward Staley, director of the U of I School of Physical Education, to purchase a set of Olympic weights. A small but dedicated weight lifting team was formed, and the sport spread to first to the intramural level and then was adopted by the physical education department as a P.E. course.

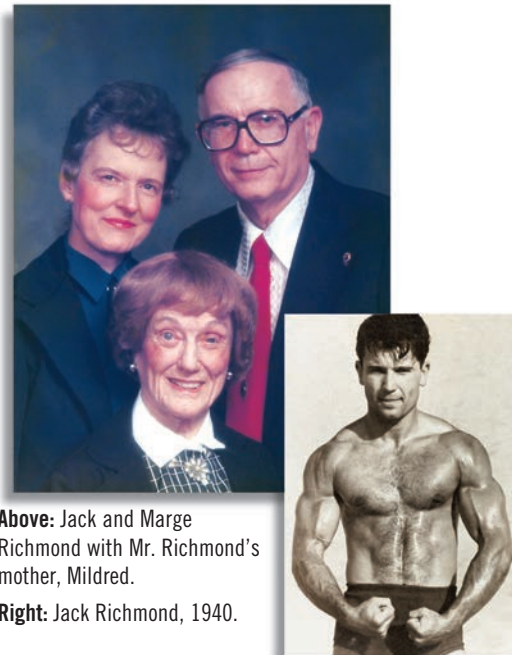

Today, the benefits of weight training are widely recognized and top-notch equipment is available across campus.

Those muscles paid off for Jack, who was a railroad worker, wrecking crew member, meat truck driver, corn detassler, lifeguard, bouncer and even a model for the U of I art school to pay for his education. He graduated in 1943 with a bachelor's degree in agriculture.

He followed up his four years of ROTC at the U of I with a tour in the Army. Then he put his degree to work when he joined the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Soil Conservation Service as a county farm planner, opening district offices in Macon County and Clark County.

Later, Mr. Richmond was recruited by a former member of the U of I gymnastics team as a salesman for Marchant Calculators. His capacity to sell was exceptional, and he soon had clients from area grain elevator operators to the U of I. He remained with Marchant, which was acquired by Smith Corona and became known as SCM Corp., until 1972. Then he was ready to embark on a new course — the stock market.

He had dabbled in the market since 1955, but by the early 1970s he had the time and resources to become more active in the stock market. He enjoyed success in this realm as well, and was more than willing to share. A donor since 1965, his generosity to the U of I increased significantly over the years. Jack and his mother became members of the Presidents Council in 1976 and Marge became a member in 1990.

Always interested in athletics at the U of I, Jack and Mildred Richmond had made a $1 million commitment to the Athletic Department in 1981. He became an honorary member of the I Man's Association and had been a member and former president of the Illini Quarterback Club since 1955. He also joined the Rebounders Club shortly after former head coach Lou Henson founded it and had been a life member of the Fighting Illini Scholarship Fund.

The Richmond name will be forever associated with athletics at the U of I through the endowment of the men's basketball head coach position. For lifelong Fighting Illini fan Jack Richmond, that always seemed most appropriate.

Game 1 Recap – #25 Illinois 80, Eastern Illinois 52

No. 25 Illinois used multiple big scoring runs to secure an 80-52 win over Eastern Illinois to open the 2023-24 season at State Farm Center. A 30-6 run over an 11-minute stretch between the first and second halves saw the Illini erase a five-point deficit, en route to the 28-point victory.

True freshman Dra Gibbs-Lawhorn gave the Illini a spark off the bench, recording a game-high 18 points in his college debut. Gibbs-Lawhorn also finished with three rebounds, three assists, one block, and one steal while shooting 70% from the field.

Head coach Brad Underwood used 13 different players in the game, 12 of whom scored at least one point, including fifth-year transfers Marcus Domask and Quincy Guerrier who started in their Illini debuts.

Terrence Shannon Jr. scored 16 points, including three 3-pointers for his 11th consecutive contest in double figures. Shannon also five boards and a team-high two steals.

Amani Hansberry totaled seven points and a team-high eight rebounds in his first college game, while Dain Dainja posted eight points, six boards, and one block.

Luke Goode, the first man in off the bench, hit three 3-pointers and grabbed six boards, both career-best marks. Playing a team-high 28 minutes, Domask amassed six points, four rebounds, and three assists.

The Illini shot 50% from the field while hitting 10 3-pointers. The Orange and Blue won the rebounding margin, 50-40, and they accumulated 47 bench points and 36 points in the paint.

Game 2 Recap – #25 Illinois 64, Oakland 53

No. 25 Illinois used a late 22-3 run to take down Oakland, 64-53, at State Farm Center. After holding a one-point lead at halftime, the Fighting Illini held the Golden Grizzlies without a point for nearly seven minutes late in the game to secure the win.

Quincy Guerrier recorded the 14th double-double of his career – and his first as an Illini – with 13 points and a team-high 10 rebounds. Guerrier took over in the second half, recording nine points and six boards in his 18 minutes of second-half action.

Terrence Shannon Jr. tallied a team-high 15 points, and he knocked down two 3-pointers, dished out five assists, and grabbed three steals.

Ty Rodgers registered 10 points, the third outing in double figures in his career. He accounted for four pivotal points during the Illini's 22-3 run over a nine-minute stretch in the second half.

Dain Dainja scored 10 points and was a big factor in the Illini's 44-28 edge in points in the paint. He also grabbed seven rebounds, and he notched eight of his 10 points in the first half.

Coleman Hawkins did a little bit of everything on Friday, finishing his 28 minutes of action with eight points, eight rebounds, and five assists.

With the visitors leading by three halfway through the period, the Illini started to take control. A Shannon steal and fast-break dunk cut the deficit to a point before layups from Dainja and Rodgers saw the Orange and Blue take a three-point lead with under eight minutes to play.

After the Golden Grizzlies hit a trey to tie the game at 48, Illinois closed the door. A 16-0 Illini run over a six-minute stretch, which included two Shannon triples and five points from Guerrier, put the Orange and Blue ahead by double digits with one minute to play.

The Fighting Illini defense played a big role in the 18-point road victory, holding the Scarlet Knights to 33% shooting. Illinois established an early defensive intensity, holding Rutgers without a field goal for nearly six-and-a-half minutes to begin the game.

Rutgers began to battle back late in the first half, though Shannon took over down the stretch on the offensive end, registering eight of Illinois' final nine points as the Illini went into the locker room with a 41-36 advantage.

An 18-2 run, which included three triples from Shannon, pushed Illinois' lead to 23 points with eight minutes to play. The Illini defense was a significant factor during that stretch, as they held the Scarlet Knights without a field goal for over six minutes.

Illinois then held the Scarlet Knights without a field goal for the final two minutes of regulation to close out the win.

The Owls retook the lead, momentarily, 57-56, with an 8-0 run of their own. But after Domask converted an and-1 layup, Harmon hit his second 3-pointer of the night and Shannon's driving layup capped off an 8-0 run for the Orange and Blue to restore the Illini's seven-point lead, 64-57.

Game 10 Recap — #16 Illinois 74, Colgate 57

No. 16-ranked Illinois never trailed Sunday in a 74-57 win over Colgate at State Farm Center.

Illinois (8-2) led off with a 14-0 run and never looked back. Terrence Shannon Jr. started the scoring with a triple on the Illini's first possession, setting the tone in a 14-point, 5-block performance.

Illinois' balanced effort featured four double-digit scorers with Coleman Hawkins leading the way with 16 points, followed by Quincy Guerrier (15), Shannon (14), and Marcus Domask (11).

The Illini shot 42% from the field, 35% from three, and 91% from the line, plus had another dominant day on the glass, outrebounding Colgate, 43-25. Illinois, which entered the day fourth in the nation in rebounding, grabbed 13 offensive boards and featured four players with at least seven rebounds in Ty Rogers (8), Dain Dania (8), Guerrier (7), and Hawkins (7).

Colgate (6-5), the reigning Patriot League champions, used a late second-half spurt to get within nine points, but Illinois held off the Raiders. The Illini forced Colgate to just 3-of-15 shooting from behind the arc, the Illini's best three-point defense of the season.

Illinois got to the 17-point win despite Colgate making three more field goals than the Illini. Illinois made up the difference by hitting eight three-pointers to Colgate's three and knocking down 20-of-22 free throws to Colgate's 2-for-6 day from the line.

The game was Illinois' first at State Farm Center since a win over Western Illinois on Nov. 24, a stretch of 23 straight days away from their home base for the Fighting Illini.

Game 17 Recap – #14 Illinois 88, Michigan 73

No. 14 Illinois used five scorers in double figures and a strong defensive performance to take down Michigan, 88-73, at Crisler Center on Thursday night.

Quincy Guerrier and Coleman Hawkins both registered a double-double in the win, the first Illini duo with double-doubles in a Big Ten road game since 2020. The victory marked Illinois' seventh consecutive over U-M.

Hawkins made plays on both ends of the court, recording his first double-double of the season with a game-high 21 points and 10 rebounds, plus six steals, four assists, one block, and zero turnovers. Guerrier's double-double of 16 points and 14 boards marked his sixth of the season. His also tied the team season high with six offensive rebounds.

Ty Rodgers tied his career-best with 15 points to go along with five rebounds, three assists and a career-high two blocks. Marcus Domask added 15 points, three rebounds, three assists, one block, and one steal, and Justin Harmon scored 11 points off the bench, while two rebounds and matching his season high with two steals.

The Illini totaled a season-high nine steals, and Illinois' 39-29 rebounding edge led to 16 second-chance points off 13 offensive boards. With a season-low six turnovers, the Illini trailed for only 23 seconds en route to their second Big Ten road win of the season.

Michigan scored the game's first points, but an 11-0 Illini run quickly put the Orange and Blue in control. The tightly contested first half ended with the Illini holding a 37-36 lead. But Illinois outscored Michigan 51-37 after the break to run away with the win.

Michigan briefly evened game at 38 early in the second before a 7-0 Illinois run put the Illini back in front for good. U-M later pulled within one point but the Illini responded with a 10-0 run to push the lead to 58-47 with 11:30 left. Following a pair of Michigan free-throws, the Orange and Blue rattled off another 7-0 run to extend their lead to 65-49 at the 8:19 mark of the second half.

Michigan would draw no closer than nine points for the remainder of the game before Domask, Harmon, and Hawkins combined to close out the win by knocking down all six of their free-throw attempts in the final 84 seconds.

Game 18 Recap – #14 Illinois 86, Rutgers 63

No. 14 Illinois defeated Rutgers, 86-63, at State Farm Center behind double-figures scoring games from five Illini. The Orange and Blue used a 31-12 run over the final 10 minutes to complete the regular-season sweep of the Scarlet Knights.

Justin Harmon led the way with a team-high 18 points while also tallying eight rebounds and Quincy Guerrier tallied 15 points and 11 rebounds (five offensive) for his seventh double-double of the season. Coleman Hawkins finished one rebound shy of a double-double with 12 points and nine boards, while recording four assists, and five steals. Hawkins has 11 steals in his last two games after recording six at Michigan.

Terrence Shannon Jr. and Marcus Domask added 16 points and 12 points, respectively, to continue their runs of consecutive double-digit games. Shannon's streak now sits at 22 games, while Domask has tallied 10-plus points in nine straight. Domask also added a team-high five assists and tied his season-best mark with two blocks.

Illinois led by as many as 14 points in the first half, which included an 8-2 run near the end of the period, to take a 40-28 lead into the break. Rutgers cut its deficit to eight after scoring the first four points of the second half, but a 7-0 Illini run pushed the lead up to 15 points less than four minutes in the second half.

With Illinois' advantage down to four points, the Orange and Blue used back-to-back Shannon layups to take a 60-51 lead with nine minutes left. The buckets helped start a 14-3 run for the Illini the lead back to 15 points.

Another 8-0 Illinois run pushed the advantage to 21 points, 77-56, with 4:39 to play. The Illini then held the Scarlet Knights to only one field goal over the final four minutes of action to close out the game and seal the home victory.

No. 14 Illinois secured an 85-80 road win over Maryland at XFINITY Center on Saturday, marking the Illini's first away victory over the Terrapins since 2011 behind double-digit scoring efforts from four players.

The Illini's 85 points marked the team's most ever in College Park, and the Illini moved to 10-4 in Big Ten play to reach double-digit regular-season conference wins for the fifth consecutive season.

Terrence Shannon Jr. took over down the stretch, registering Illinois' final eight points of the game to finish with a team-high 27. Shannon shot a career-high 14-for-16 from the free-throw line, and added two assists, one rebound, one steal, and four blocks, his most in conference play this season and one shy of his career high.

Marcus Domask secured his third double-double of the season, tallying 19 points and a season-high 12 rebounds. Domask surpassed the 2,000-point career scoring mark with a jumper in the second half. He also dished out a team-most three assists.

Coleman Hawkins added 14 points and seven rebounds and was pivotal on the defensive end late in the game. He also grabbed the 500th rebound of his career early in the first half. Justin Harmon was the first off the bench, and he made the most of his 26 minutes by pouring in 10 points and three rebounds.

In a battle between two very physical teams, Illinois went 32-for-36 (89%) from the free-throw line, the team's most makes and attempts from the charity stripe this season.

Illinois led by as many as seven at several points in the contest, but after staking to a 43-38 halftime lead, the Illini never trailed throughout the tightly contested second half. Maryland briefly tied the game 68-68 with 5:39 to play, but a Domask layup started an 11-5 run that pushed the lead back to two possessions with 1:53 to play. The Illini sealed the win at the line as Shannon scored the team's final seven points from the free-throw line to hold off the Terrapins.

Game 29 Recap – #13 Illinois 91, Wisconsin 83

Marcus Domask scored 31 in his return to his home state, leading No. 13 Illinois' 91-83 victory over Wisconsin at Kohl Center.

The victory marked the Fighting Illini's fourth consecutive road win over the Badgers, making the Orange and Blue the first program to ever achieve that feat. The eight-point road win also secured a double-bye for the Fighting Illini in the 2024 Big Ten Tournament.

Over the final 5:44 of play, the Illini outscored the Badgers, 23-15, while the team's 91 points were their most against Wisconsin in 35 years.

Playing in the same arena in which he won a state title in high school, Domask finished his afternoon with a team-high 31 points, his third outing this season with 30+ points. He knocked down a season-high four 3-pointers, and he made six of his final seven field-goal attempts, while also recording eight rebounds and three assists, both of which were team-best marks.

Terrence Shannon Jr. added 23 point, including three 3-pointers and 8-for-9 from the free-throw line, while Coleman Hawkins totaled 13 points with seven rebounds and two blocks. Justin Harmon also reached double-figures with 10 points off the bench for the Illini.

Illinois led 68-61 at the 7:29 mark of the second half before a 7-0 Wisconsin pulled the game even, 68-68, for the seventh time in the second half alone. But a 13-3 Illini run, that included six points from Domask and five from Shannon, came at a crucial time to push the Illini advantage to 10 points, 81-71, with 2:11 to play.

Wisconsin was unable to pull any closer than seven the remainder of the contest as Domask, Hawkins and Harmon combined to go 8-for-8 from the free-throw line over the final 68 seconds to close out the road win for the Illini.

Game 30 Recap – #3 Purdue 77, #12 Illinois 71

No. 12 Illinois led by as many as 10 in the first half, but it was not enough in the Fighting Illini's 77-71 loss to No. 3 Purdue at State Farm Center on Tuesday night.

Marcus Domask scored a team-high 20 points, his third consecutive outing with at least 20 points and ninth overall this season. He also tallied four rebounds, four assists, and one steal.

Coleman Hawkins came up one rebound short of his four double-double of the season, finishing with 13 points and a team-most nine boards. Making three steals for the fifth time this season, he also dished out one assist.

Terrence Shannon Jr. recorded double-digit points for the 34th game in a row, rounding out his final appearance at State Farm Center with 11 points. Both of his rebounds came on the offensive glass, while he made one assist.

Quincy Guerrier knocked down three 3-pointers, all of which came in the first half, and he finished with 12 points. He also totaled two boards and one steal.

Ty Rodgers poured in six of his eight points in the second half, while three of his four rebounds were on the offensive end of the floor.

Illinois led throughout the entire first half and pushed its lead to as many as 10 points, 32-22 at the 5:18 mark of the period before staking to a 40-34 advantage at halftime.

But after Illinois held Purdue to just 1-for-6 shooting from 3-point range in the first half, the Boilermakers when 8-for-10 from beyond the arc in the second period, slowly cutting into the Illini advantage before gaining their first lead, 56-54, midway through the second.

With Purdue leading 64-58 with 6:59 to play, the Illini answered with an 8-0 run to regain a 66-64 edge with at the 3:25 mark. Purdue would score 13 of the game's final 18 over the last 3:08 to close out the six-point decision.

Shannon finished with career-high 40 points, the most scored by any player in Big Ten Tournament history. Shooting 50% from the field while making five 3-pointers, Shannon also tied the No. 5 single-game scoring mark in program history, and added two rebounds, two steals, and one assist while going 13-for-16 from the free-throw line.

Luke Goode notched double-digit points for the sixth time this season, connecting from beyond the arc four times in his 12-point effort. Goode's 3-pointer with eight-and-a-half minutes to play put the Illini ahead for good, while four of his six boards came on the offensive end of the floor.

Coleman Hawkins added nine points, seven rebounds, two assists, and two blocks.

Nebraska led at halftime, 51-40, and pushed their lead to 55-40 shortly after the break, but the Illini began to battle back. A 13-2 run cut Illinois' deficit down to 57-53, with 13:27 to play.

A Goode triple at the 9:19 mark tied the game at 68. Nebraska briefly moved back in front from the free-throw line before Goode made his fourth trey to give Illinois its first advantage since the opening four minutes of the game, 71-70. The Illini would never trail the rest of the way to secure their spot in the Big Ten Tournament title game for the first time since 2021.

Game 34 Recap — #13 Illinois 93, Wisconsin 87

Champions. Closing on an 8-2 run over the final two minutes, Illinois secured its fourth Big Ten Tournament Championship in program history - and second in four seasons - with a 93-87 come-from-behind victory over Wisconsin at Target Center in Minneapolis.

Terrence Shannon Jr., who was named the tournament's Most Outstanding Player, put the exclamation point on his dominant week with a 3-pointer with 1:28 to play to put Illinois ahead for good before finishing with a game-high 34 points. Shannon brought his weekend scoring total up to 102 points, the second-most by a player in Big Ten Tournament history.

Marcus Domask totaled 26 points, his 10th 20-point game of the season. He went 8-for-11 from the field and 9-for-10 from the free-throw line, while dishing out eight assists for the second straight game. Dain Dainja added nine points on 4-for-4 shooting off the bench, while he also hauled in seven rebounds.

Despite battling foul trouble, Ty Rodgers amassed seven points and five rebounds (three offensive) with one assist, one block, and one steal. Coleman Hawkins posted seven points, six rebounds, and two blocks, with his two swats, and Quincy Guerrier tallied two 3-pointers, which accounted for all six of his points.

After a back-and-forth first half that saw seven ties and seven lead changes, Illinois held a slim lead, 41-40, at the break. Wisconsin opened the second half on a 21-10 run to stake to a 61-51 lead with 14:38 to play, but the Illini responded quickly, turning the 10-point deficit into a 70-65 lead just five minutes later.

A 5-0 Wisconsin run knotted the game at 77 with 5:42 to play. The Badgers briefly took an 82-81 lead, before two Domask free-throws and a Shannon jumper put Illinois back in front, 85-82. UW's ensuing three tied the game at 85 before Shannon knocked down in his third 3-pointer of the day, putting the Illini back ahead, 88-85, for the final time.

Shannon and Domask combined to hit five free-throws over the final 62 seconds, to close the game on an 8-2 run and close out the Illini's title run.

Game 35 Recap — #10 Illinois 85, Morehead State 69

Third-seeded Illinois pulled away in the second half for 85-69 victory over No. 14 seed Morehead State in the first round of the NCAA Tournament on Thursday afternoon at CHI Health Center Omaha. The Fighting Illini shot 60.7% in the second half, outscoring the Eagles 46-31, to secure their first NCAA Tournament win since 2022.

Marcus Domask recorded his first triple-double, registering 12 points, 11 rebounds, and 10 assists. It marks the sixth triple-double in Illinois' program history, the first by an Illini in the NCAA Tournament, and only the 10th overall in NCAA Tournament history.

Dain Dainja shot a season-best 9-for-9 and scoring 17 of his 21 points in the second half. Dainja also tied season bests with eight rebounds and two blocks.

Terrence Shannon Jr. continued where he left off as the MOP at the Big Ten Tournament. He finished with a team-high 26 points, his fifth consecutive game with at least 20. He kept the Illini in the contest in the first half, totaling 19 points before intermission. Shannon's performance gives him 669 points for the season, breaking the Illinois program single-season scoring record by one point.

Coleman Hawkins scored 10 points, and he went 2-for-3 from 3-point range. He also tacked on five assists, four rebounds, two steals, and one block. Luke Goode tallied nine points on three 3-pointers, while adding four rebounds, and Dra Gibbs-Lawhorn added six points off the bench, knocking down a pair of 3-pointers late in the first half.

Morehead State opened the game 9-0 before Illinois settled in. Dainja and Shannon combined for the Illini's first 13 points. Following a Goode 3-point to cut Illinois' deficit to 19-16, Morehead State never led by more than four the rest of the game.

Hawkins' triple at 6:31 started an 11-2 run for the Illini. Shannon's and-1 layup less than one minute later put Illinois in front for the first time and the Illini headed into the break with a 39-38 lead.

Another hot start to the second half saw the Eagles retake a 45-43 lead with 16:44 to play. That's when Dainja took over, scoring 15 points as part of an extended 32-9 Illinois run to take a 75-54 lead with 7:05 to play. A Shannon triple and two by Domask pushed the lead to 24, 84-60, before the Illini closed out the 16-point win.

YEAR-BY-YEAR SCHEDULE AND RESULTS

HEAD COACH ELWOOD BROWN

(1 YEAR, 6-8, .429)

Leo Hana was put in charge of building the basketball program at Illinois after a women's program had existed for years. A team, led by its playing captain Roy Riley, beat Champaign High School Jan. 6, two weeks before Hana was able to replace Riley with a "professional" coach. Elwood Brown became Illinois' first basketball coach Jan. 20, 1906, and proceeded to turn in a commendable coaching job, especially since the squad lost two of its mainstays during the season. "The results of the season were on the whole satisfactory. In the future, there will not be such a lack of material as hampered the coach (Brown) this season," wrote the 1907 Illio.

HEAD COACH F.L. PINCKNEY

(1 YEAR, 1-10, .091)

Pinckney took over the coaching reins for a year in 1907. There was promise for a good season after the solid start the program had made in 1906. More than 100 men tried out for the team. Pinckney found at least three freshmen he thought would help the team and placed them on the varsity squad. However, the Western Conference Committee declared the three ineligible, leaving Pinckney with a much depleted team and Illinois with its worst record ever. The decision to make the freshmen ineligible gave Pinckney the same problem Brown faced the year before - turning out a winning team with limited talent.

HEAD COACH FLETCHER LANE

(1 YEAR, 20-6, .769)

Fletcher Lane was Illinois' third coach, but lasted just one season. His 20-6 team of 1908 benefited from a long Southern trip in which the team beat several YMCA and club teams from Tennessee, Texas, Alabama, and Georgia. The club was billed as a closely-knit group, due in part to the long trip. The players, however, did not appear to appreciate Lane's coaching style. M.G. Dadant, the 1908 captain wrote, "Handicapped as they were by the lack of any competent coaching, the players went through the season in perfect harmony, each one relinquishing any personal feelings that the team might be better as a whole."

HEAD COACH H. V. JUUL

(2 YEARS, 12-10, .545)

H. V. Juul became the first Illinois basketball coach to stay for more than one year. He also became the first former Fighting Illini player to head the Illinois basketball program and was captain of the 1907 squad. After leading Illinois to a 12-10 record over two years, he departed to become a professional baseball player, enjoying stints with the Chicago Cubs and Cincinnati Reds. Juul was the son of a former Illinois Congressman and, prior to his death in 1928, was a committeeman in the 35th Ward in Chicago as well as campaign director for the Republican Party headquarters at the Morrisson Hotel in Chicago.

HEAD COACH T.E. THOMPSON

(2 YEARS, 14-14, .500)

T. E. Thompson also had a two-year career as head basketball coach at Illinois, compiling a 14-14 record. Thompson claimed, at the time, to be the only player in Western Conference history to have played five years of collegiate basketball. He was at Northwestern for one year before playing at Illinois for four additional seasons. In addition to his duties as basketball coach at Illinois in 1911-12, he also served as Athletic Director George Huff's only assistant in the athletic department, doubling as the school's general manager of athletics and as ticket manager. After leaving the university, he founded The Thomas Thompson Company in Highland Park, Ill., a manufacturer of enamel products.

After arriving at Illinois from Purdue, Ralph Jones left an impressive legacy behind in Champaign. Besides coaching freshman football and baseball during his tenure at Illinois, he was credited by some with originating the fast break in basketball. After leading the Fighting Illini to one outright crown and the sharing of one other conference championship, Jones left to coach at Lake Forest Academy. In addition, Jones was head coach of the Chicago Bears from 1930-33, where, among other achievements, he was credited with the revival of the T-formation and the use of a man in motion to throw off the defense.

HEAD COACH FRANK WINTERS

(2 YEARS, 25-12, .676)

While in his two-year stint as coach of the Illinois basketball team, Frank Winters was faced with having only a handful of veteran players available and was forced into installing an entirely new system of play. His 25-12 record in two years was a testament to the way Winters made negatives into positives. Upon arriving as head coach in the fall of 1920, he inherited a team whose best player, Chuck Carney, had just severely injured his knee in the last football game. Nonetheless, the team went on to an 11-7 record and improved to 14-5 in the 1922 campaign.

HEAD COACH J. CRAIG RUBY

(14 YEARS, 148-95, .609)

J. Craig Ruby was known as one of the great basketball tacticians of his time. He and legendary Kansas coach Phog Allen actively campaigned together for higher baskets to offset the advantage of tall centers. Ruby alone advocated the elimination of the dribble to do away with stalling, and wanted the hoop enlarged to 20 inches in diameter rather than the standard 18. Ruby's second season at Illinois produced a tie for the Big Ten Championship in 1924, but it was not until 1935 that he could lead his team to tie for top conference honors again.

HEAD COACH DOUG MILLS

(11 YEARS, 151-66, .696)

Doug Mills was not only an extremely successful basketball coach at Illinois, but one of the University's most prolific and long-standing administrators. He began his association with Fighting Illini athletics as a standout in both football and basketball in the late 1920s. Mills became the first Illinois head basketball coach to lead his squad to three Big Ten crowns. Also included in his 11-year coaching tenure was the formation of the legendary "Whiz Kids" team of 1942 and '43. That team won back-to-back Big Ten crowns. After retiring from the coaching ranks in 1947, Mills retained his position as athletic director until 1966.

HEAD COACH HARRY COMBES

Harry Combes only had to move across town after accepting the job as head coach at Illinois.

Prior to joining the Illini, he had been head coach at Champaign High School where he posted an astounding 254-46 record, including winning the state title in 1946. Once at Illinois, he won three Big Ten titles in his first five seasons ('49, '51 and '52). It was also Combes who led the Fighting Illini to three third-place finishes in the NCAA Tournament in the four-year period from 1949-52. The squad won 79 of the 100 games during those four years. Illinois' 1952 Final Four appearance was the first officially recognized Final Four. Until Lou Henson broke the record in 1990, Combes' 316 wins were the most wins ever by an Illinois head basketball coach.

HEAD COACH HARV SCHMIDT (7 YEARS, 89-77, .536)

Harv Schmidt, a former all-time great player at Illinois, returned to his alma mater in 1968 after serving as an assistant at New Mexico for three years. Within three years of his arrival, he had brought Illinois back to among the elite programs in the Big Ten. The beginning of his tenure marked one of the high-water mark in fan enthusiasm. Illinois led the nation in attendance in 1970, averaging 16,128 per home contest, as students routinely camped out for tickets outside the newly opened, state-of-the-art Assembly Hall.

HEAD COACH GENE BARTOW

(1 YEAR, 8-18, .308)

Brought to Illinois to continue the magical rebuilding jobs he had undertaken at Valparaiso and Memphis State, Gene Bartow was counted on by Athletic Director Cecil Coleman to restore the successful level of play fans had become accustomed to in the past. However, Bartow's stay in Champaign was short-lived, lasting only one year and producing an 8-18 record. The lure away from Illinois was a strong one for Bartow; he was hired away by UCLA to replace legendary Bruin coach John Wooden.

HEAD COACH LOU HENSON

Lou Henson, the all-time winningest coach in Illinois basketball history, came to Champaign-Urbana after successful head coaching stints at Hardin-Simmons and New Mexico State Universities. He finished his Illinois career No. 12 on the NCAA all-time victory list with 663 wins. Illinois became a national power under Henson, being selected to the NCAA tournament 12 times. The highlight of the postseason competition came in 1989 when the spectacular Flying Illini team won 31 contests and advanced to the Final Four. Henson's Illini were also seeded among the top four in their regional for six consecutive years (1984-89) for the second-longest such streak (next to North Carolina) ever. Illinois finished in the upper division in the Big Ten nine consecutive seasons (1983-91), and had 11 straight years of producing a plus-500 Big Ten record from 1981 to 1991, the fifth-longest streak of that kind in Big Ten history. Henson led the Illini to a 1984 Big Ten co-championship and No. 1 national ranking in 1989. He coached Illinois to nine straight 20-win seasons from 1983 to 1991 and finished his UI career as the third-winningest coach in Big Ten history with 214 victories.

HEAD COACH LON KRUGER

in 1997, 1998 and 2000. Kruger left Illinois to become the head coach of the NBA's Atlanta Hawks.

Lon Kruger was hired at Illinois on March 21, 1996, succeeding Lou Henson, who retired after 21 seasons. Kruger came to Champaign-Urbana after six seasons at Florida, where he led the Gators to their first Final Four in 1994. His previous head coaching experience included a four-year stint at his alma mater, Kansas State (1987-90), and at Pan American (1983-86). In 1998, Kruger led the Illini to a share of the Big Ten championship, the school's first since 1984. He guided Illinois to NCAA Tournament appearances

HEAD COACH BILL SELF

(3 YEARS, 78-24, .765)

Bill Self was hired at Illinois on June 9, 2000, succeeding Lon Kruger, who left to become head coach of the NBA's Atlanta Hawks. Self came to Champaign-Urbana after three seasons at Tulsa, where he led the Golden Hurricane to an NCAA Elite Eight appearance in 2000. His previous head coaching experience included a four-year stint at Oral Roberts (1994-97). Self became the first Big Ten coach since 1912 to win Big Ten titles in each of his first two seasons. In his first season, Self led the Illini to a 27-8 record and a share of the Big Ten championship. Illinois earned a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament, advancing to the Elite Eight. His second team saw the Illini again share the Big Ten title and advance to the NCAA Sweet 16 with a 26-9 record. In his third season, Illinois won its first Big Ten Tournament title in 2003 and advanced to the Second Round of the NCAA Tournament. He left Illinois to become the head coach at Kansas in April 2003.

HEAD COACH BRUCE WEBER (9 YEARS, 210-101, .675)

Bruce Weber was hired at Illinois on April 30, 2003, succeeding Bill Self, who had left to become head coach at Kansas. Weber arrived in Champaign after five seasons as head coach at Southern Illinois, where he led the Salukis to Missouri Valley Conference titles in 2002 and 2003, and to the NCAA Sweet 16 in 2002. In his first season, Weber led the Illini to an outright Big Ten championship, NCAA Sweet 16 appearance, and final record of 26-7. Weber earned consensus National Coach of the Year honors in his second season in 2005, directing Illinois to its first-ever appearance in the national championship game and to the Final Four for the first time since 1989. The Illini went 37-2, tying the NCAA record for wins a season (since broken). Illinois won a second consecutive outright Big Ten title, also won the Big Ten Tournament, and received the overall No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament. Illinois won its first 29 games of the season, stood atop the national polls for 15 straight weeks, and was ranked No. 1 in the final 2005 Associated Press poll. The Illini also made NCAA Tournament appearances under Weber in 2006, 2007, 2009 and 2011. Following his Illinois tenure, Weber spent 10 years as head coach at Kansas State.

(6 YEARS, 114-79)

Brad Underwood was hired as Fighting Illini head basketball coach on March 18, 2017. He came to Illinois from Oklahoma State, where he led the Cowboys to a 20-win season and the NCAA Tournament. That followed a dominant run at Stephen F. Austin where Underwood led the Lumberjacks to Southland Conference regular season and tournament titles in each of his three seasons. He compiled an 89-14 record at SFA, tied for the most wins by a head coach in his first three seasons at an NCAA school. It took just three seasons for Underwood to return the Illini to the Top 25, as his 2020 squad won 21 games and 13 during league play to finish one game back of the Big Ten title. Underwood's fourth Illini team in 2021 put together one of the best seasons in school history, leading the Big Ten in wins with a school-record 16 conference victories, winning the Big Ten Tournament championship, earning a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament and ending the year ranked No. 2 in the final AP poll, the second-highest final ranking in school history. Underwood had another banner year in season five, leading Illinois to the 2022 Big Ten championship, the program's first regular-season title in 17 years. Illinois went 15-5 in league play and finished the year ranked No. 16 in the AP poll with a 23-10 record. Illinois again won 20 regular season games, highlighted by a pair of top-10 wins, and made its third straight NCAA Tournament appearance in 2023.

ORANGE KRUSH

“The Orange Krush are super, scintillating and sensational! They are a fantastic sixth man for the Fighting Illini. However, what makes them so unique is their willingness to help people in need and helping out with various charities, such as the V Foundation. Yes, they are special. To put it in ‘Vitalese’ they are awesome, baby, with a capital A!”

— ESPN Analyst Dick Vitale

Orange Krush is a student-run cheering section of dedicated Illini students who love basketball, with more than 900 students standing court-side to cheer on the Illinois men's basketball team.

Not only is the Orange Krush considered one of the nation's premier basketball student sections, it also is a charity foundation as well. Founded in 1998, the Orange Krush Foundation is a University of Illinois student-run foundation intent on improving the quality of life for the youth and young adults of the Champaign-Urbana and campus community by providing financial support and contributing community service to area not-for-profit organizations.

Since the inception of the Orange Krush Foundation, Krush members have raised and donated more than $2.8 million to charity. The Orange Krush Foundation is almost entirely student-run and has donated funds to worthy causes including The V Foundation for Cancer Research, The Leukemia and Lymphoma Society, Make-A-Wish Foundation, Coaches vs. Cancer and the Developmental Services Center. In addition, the Orange Krush Foundation also funds scholarship.

Krush began its scholarship endeavors by creating the Matthew Heldman Memorial Fund, which honors Matthew Heldman, a point guard for the Illini's 1998 Big Ten Championship Team, who was tragically killed in a car accident in 1999. The fund, in his name, endows a scholarship for a future Illini basketball player. After five years, the Orange Krush fulfilled the $250,000 commitment, and the fund is fully endowed.

During the 2003 season, the Orange Krush Foundation announced the formation of the Rod Cardinal Sports Medicine Fund. This fund pays tribute to Rod Cardinal, who was the University of Illinois men's basketball athletic trainer for 30 years. The endowment benefits all student trainers at the University of Illinois, which in turn benefits all varsity athletic teams. Krush completed fundraising for this fund in 2006.

At the conclusion of the 2005 season, Orange Krush created the Louis and Dawn M. Weber Student Manager Enhancement Fund. Named in memory of former coach Bruce Weber's parents, the fund benefits Illinois' men's basketball managers.

Orange Krush began its newest endeavor in 2009, announcing the Lou Henson Coaching Development Endowment Fund. Named in honor of former Illinois head coach Lou Henson, this $500,000 pledge will be used as a fund to promote the basketball coaching profession within the younger generation, supporting people entering the coaching profession in positions such as graduate assistant, director of basketball operations and video coordinator.

Visit illinipride.com to view a list of all charities that have benefited from the Orange Krush Foundation and how each group has utilized their donation.

LOU HENSON COURT

The University of Illinois Division of Intercollegiate Athletics announced on Aug. 24, 2015 the naming of the basketball court at State Farm Center as Lou Henson Court. The court was officially dedicated at halftime of Illinois' first home game in the renovated State Farm Center, on Dec. 2, 2015 versus Notre Dame in the Big Ten/ACC Challenge. The Lou Henson Court logo includes Henson's signature accented by his patented orange blazer.

Henson was hired at Illinois on April 5, 1975. What followed was a legendary 21-year career in charge of the Orange and Blue. He amassed a 423-224 record, highlighted by 12 NCAA Tournament appearances, a total of 15 postseason bids, and eleven 20-win seasons. Illinois basketball was one of the nation's most dominant programs during Henson's tenure, earning a top-5 seed in the NCAA Tournament seven straight years from 1984 through 1990.

Henson's Illini won the 1984 Big Ten Championship and advanced to the Elite Eight. His most successful season came with the Flyin' Illini, who won a then-school record 31 games and advanced to the 1989 NCAA Final Four. Henson still ranks fifth all-time among Big Ten coaches in both total wins (423) and conference wins (214). He was inducted into the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame on Nov. 20, 2015 in Kansas City and part of the Illinois Athletics Hall of Fame Class of 2018.

Henson passed away on July 25, 2020 at the age of 88.

BIG TEN MEDAL OF HONOR

In 1914, the Big Ten Conference endowed a Medal of Honor, to be awarded annually at each institution to the student demonstrating proficiency in scholarship and academics. Since 1982, a female athlete from each institution has also been awarded the Conference Medal of Honor. A total of 18 Fighting Illini basketball players have earned the accolade in the history of the award, including Edward A. Williford, the University of Illinois' first recipient of the award. There has been one father-son UI Medal of Honor duo, Lee Sentman (track) in 1931 and his son Lee Sentman III (fencing) in 1958. The following is the list of Illinois basketball players who have won the Big Ten Medal of Honor:

There were no awards given until 1982, when the Big Ten began a Conference Athlete of the Year, in which each school nominated a male and female athlete. Since 1982, Illinois has recognized a male and female Athlete of the Year. In 1993, the awards were renamed the Dike Eddleman Athlete of the Year awards in honor of the 11-time UI letterwinner and Olympian. Over the years, 20 basketball players have earned the distinction of Illinois Athlete of the Year.
