ILLINOIS SOFTBALL SEASON BY SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

2023

• Against Fordham, Sydney Sickels broke the career strikeouts record and the single game record when she fanned 21 batters in the 6-4 victory over the Rams in extra innings.

• A series bigger than softball, the Fighting Illini's weekend clash with Michigan State from April 21-23 marked the first meeting between two Black female head coaches in the Big Ten and is believed to be the first at the Power-5 level.

• The Fighting Illini hosted the Big Ten Tournament and became the first-ever 12-seed to take down a 5-seed at the event, topping Wisconsin, 8-4.

• Kelly Ryono and Kailee Powell were named to the All-Big Ten Second Team while Delaney Rummell was an All-Defensive Team selection. Miranda Gallardo was the team;'s Sportsmanship honoree.

• Additionally, Ryono received NFCA All-Midwest Second Team accolades

• Sickels was named to the All-Midwest second team and Steiner was named to the All-Midwest third team.

• The Illinois softball team completed the season with a 24-20 record in the Big Ten conference-only schedule.

• Illinois started the season with two weekends in Leesburg, Fla., posting a 10-2 record with series victories over Rutgers, Michigan State, Penn State, and a doubleheader sweep over #17 Michigan.

• The Illini earned seven series wins in 2021, including two wins over ranked opponents, and were the only team to ngo undefeated against the eventual Big Ten champions Michigan).

• Junior Avrey Steiner was named to the NFCA Midwest All-Region First Team.

• The Illinois softball team finished off a shortened 2020 season with an 11-11 record and already had three top-25 wins before the COVID-19 pandemic stopped the season.

• The Big Ten Conference announced on March 12 that it would be canceling all conference and non-conference competitions through the end of the academic year, including spring sports that compete beyond the academic year, and participation in all NCAA tournaments and competitions.

• For the first time since 2017 and for the sixth time in program history, Illinois opened its season with four-straight wins as the Illini went undefeated at the NFCA Leadoff Classic Presented by Rawlings - including wins #No. 21 Ole Miss and No. 23 Auburn.

• In what would then become the final sporting event for Illinois athletics, the Illini earned Braggin' Rights with a 2-1 win over No. 23 Missouri on March 11.

• Junior catcher Bella Loya started 20 of 21 games either behind the plate or as the designated hitter for the Illini, posting a .302 batting average and pacing the team with 12 doubles, 111 total bases and a .476 slugging percentage. She was also recognized as an Illinois Athletics Dike Eddleman Female Athlete of the Year Finalist for the second-consecutive year.

• After breaking the Illinois single-season record for saves in her rookie season, sophomore Sydney Sickels again totaled five saves in the shortened 2020 season. With 10 saves in her career, Sickels became the program's saves leader.

• The Illini wrapped up the fourth season under head coach Tyra Perry with a 33-25 overall record - earning a trip to their third NCAA Regional in the last four seasons - and finished in a tie for eighth place in the Big Ten Conference standings with a 9-14 mark.

• The Illini reached at least 32 wins in each of head coach Tyra Perry's first four seasons, while it marks just the second time in program history that the Illini have registered a four-year span with at least 32 wins in each season after notching wins of 49, 34, 39 and 45, respectively, from 2001-04.

• The 2019 season marked the 20th season for the Illinois softball program, with the Illini earning the landmark 600th win in the first game of the 2019 season - a 7-4 win over No. 22 Oklahoma State.

• Redshirt-seniors Annie Fleming and Carly Thomas were named to the Google Cloud Academic All-District First Team, the College Sports Information Directors of America. Fleming became the first-ever three-time Academic All-District honoree for the Illini.

• A quartet of Illini collected National Fastpitch Coaches Assocation (NFCA) All-Midwest Region honors, with Thomas, Loya and senior Kiana Sherlund each named to the First-Team, while Fleming was selected to the Third-Team. Loya and Sherlund also nabbed All-Big Ten First-Team plaudits, while Thomas garnered All-Big Ten Second-Team and All-Defensive Team honors. Senior Veronica Ruelius was named Illinois' Big Ten Sportsmanship Award recipient.

• Freshman Sydney Sickels broke the Illinois single-season record for saves with five in 2019, previously held by Amanda Fortune (2004), Claire DeVreese (2005) and Breanna Wonderly (2017).

• Thomas became the career doubles leader at Illinois with 68, passing Erin Montgomery's (2011-14) total of 52 two-baggers, while also breaking the single season record with 24 doubles in 2019.

• The Illinois softball team wrapped up the third season under head coach Tyra Perry with a 37-18 overall record in 2018 and a sixth-place finish with a 13-8 mark in the Big Ten Conference. It was the first time in program history the Illini have registered 36 wins or more for three-straight seasons after notching 36 wins in 2016 and 39 victories in 2017.

• It was just the second time in program history that the Illini posted 30+ wins per season in a three-year span after notching wins of 49, 34, 39 and 45, respectively, from 2001-04.

• The Illini tallied one of their best home seasons in program history with a 15-2 record at Eichelberger Field in 2018, including posting the second-highest win percentage and most victories in program history.

• Junior Kiana Sherlund broke the single-season hits record and finished the season with 81 knocks on the season and also set a new season record with eight triples on the season.

• The 2018 Illini offense was one of the best in program history, setting a new record with 493 hits during the year and totaling the second-most runs scored (350), triples (16) and RBIs (312) in a season in program history. The Illini also recorded the third-highest batting average (.318), on-base percentage (.388), doubles (83) and hit-by-pitches (42).

• The Illini finished the year with a 39-20 overall record, tying for the fourth-most wins in program history and making their second-straight NCAA Regional appearance. The Illini registered a top-four finish in the Big Ten Conference with a 14-8 mark, while also advancing to the conference tournament semifinals for the first time since 2004.

• The Illini finished the 2017 season with their third-highest RPI ranking in program history at #27.

• For the first time since the 2011 season the Illini made an appearance or received votes in the top 25 polls, appearing in both the USA Today/National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) and the ESPN.com/USA Softball top-25 polls 10 out of the 16 weeks throughout the season, including the final nine weeks of the 2017 campaign. The Illini finished the season with appearances in both the USA Today/National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) and the ESPN.com/USA Softball top-25 polls, finishing at No. 24 in the ESPN.com/USA Softball poll and in the receiving four votes section of the USA Today/NFCA poll.

• Senior Nicole Evans earned National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) All-American Third Team accolades, marking just the fifth time in program history an Illini softball player has received All-America honors.

• Evans was also named to the prestigious 2017 CoSIDA Academic All-America First-Team, as selected by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA), becoming just the second Illini to garner CoSIDA Academic All-America honors.

• For the first time in program history, Illinois had a quintet of student-athletes named to the National Fastpitch Coaches Assocation (NFCA) All-Midwest Region honors with seniors Nicole Evans and Breanna Wonderly, along with sophomore Stephanie Abello being named to the First-Team - just the second time in program history that the Illini have had three players named to the first team. Also joining the trio with Third-Team accolades were senior Alyssa Gunther and junior Annie Fleming.

• A quartet of Fighting Illini softball student-athletes garnered postseason accolades when the Big Ten Conference announced its All-Big Ten honors. Senior Nicole Evans was a unanimous First-Team selection and was also named to the Big Ten All-Defensive Team, while fellow senior Breanna Wonderly joined her as a First-Team All-Big Ten honoree. Junior Leigh Farina received second-team accolades and junior Annie Fleming were selected as UI's Big Ten Sportsmanship Award recipient.

• On April 1, Illinois defeated then-ranked #6 Minnesota, 4-3, for just the eighth top-10 win in program history and tied for the third-highest ranked opponent that UI has defeated. The victory also marked the lone win over a ranked opponent of the season and the first top-10 win since defeating #10 Florida State a season ago.

• The Illinois softball team wrapped the first season under head coach Tyra Perry in historic fashion, earning a berth into the 2016 NCAA Tournament for the fifth time in program history and the first time since 2010. The Illini finished the year with the fifth-most wins in program history with a 36-23 overall record and registered a seventh place finish in the Big Ten Conference with a 12-11 record in the standings.

• The Illini's 36 wins were the most wins the team had notched since posting 45 victories during the 2010 campaign and the 36-23 mark was also the best start ever by any first year Illinois softball or baseball head coach.

• A trio of Illini earned National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) All-Midwest Region honors, with junior Nicole Evans being named to the First-Team, Bauch earning Second-Team accolades and junior Breanna Wonderly collecting Third-Team honors.

• A quartet of Illini were also selected for Big Ten postseason honors as Bauch and Evans were each named Second-Team All-Big Ten honors, Thomas and Bauch garnered spots on the All-Defensive Team and sophomore Jill Nicklas was selected as the Illini's Big Ten Sportsmanship Award Recipient.

• In the Illini's season-opening tournament in Miami, Fla., UI registered a 5-1 win over then-ranked #10 Florida State on Feb. 13, with the victory over the Seminoles marking the first win over a ranked opponent since defeating #4 Michigan on April 25, 2014 at Eichelberger Field.

• The Fighting Illini went 18-6 over the final 24 games of the regular season to finish fifth in the Big Ten standings.

• Illinois captured the No. 5 seed for the Big Ten Tournament, marking the Illini's highest seed since 2004.

• Bauch became the first Illini softball player in program history to earn Academic All-America First-Team honors.

• Thomas notched 71 total bases in Big Ten play to set a new all-time conference record.

• The Illini hit 68 home runs on the season, ranking fifth in the Big Ten and 26th in the nation, as well as third among single-season totals in Illinois history.

• The Illini posted a program-high .324 batting average and .536 slugging percentage, while ranking second all-time with

WORLD'S LARGEST SOFTBALL TAILGATE

What started out as an idea to give fans a chance to fire up their grills, pull out their coolers and enjoy their tailgating rituals during the spring has become one of the most popular and beloved spring traditions in the Champaign-Urbana community. The World's Largest Softball Tailgate originated when University of Illinois Division of Intercollegiate Athletics representatives developed a plan to provide fans with an electric atmosphere full of live music, interactive games, face-painting and of course, tons of tailgating food. It also gave the Division of Intercollegiate Athletics a chance to put on a premier event in conjunction with one of its emerging sports - softball. The World's Largest Softball Tailgate began on April 24, 2004, as a then-record crowd of 756 fans came out to Eichelberger Field to watch the Illini top Big Ten foe Ohio State, 1-0. The results were a rousing success and the idea spawned the development of the annual event.

Since then, the tailgate has continued to grow each season, shattering the attendance record year after year. In fact, over a four-game span from 2004 to 2007, the crowd nearly doubled, setting a new single-game record with 1,445 fans at the fourth annual tailgate.

Several members of the Illini community have joined in tailgate festivities throughout the years. Former Illini men's basketball coach Bruce Weber threw out the first pitch of the 2005 tailgate game, while former football coach Ron Zook opened the game in 2009. Alice Martin, an important part of the Illini softball family, threw out the first pitch in 2006; she and her husband Rex used their foundation to make a million dollar contribution for the construction of a new press box, locker room, concession stand and restrooms at Eichelberger Field. The On-Deck Circle, Illinois Softball's booster club, has also played a key role in the event's success since its inception with constant support.

TAILGATE HIGHLIGHTS

Tailgate XVII - May 7, 2022 // Illinois 0, Penn State 2// Attendance: 1,530
After a two-year hiatus due to the COVID-19 panademic, the World's Largest Tailgate was back at Eichelberger Field. A record crowd of 1,530 witnessed a the game where Illinois was shutout by Penn State, 2-0.

Tailgate XVI - May 4, 2019 // Illinois 11, Purdue 9 // Attendance: 782
Behind a nine-run fifth inning that was highlighted by three-straight home runs, the Illinois softball team put together a 11-9 come-from-behind win over Purdue on WLST and Senior Day Saturday (May 4) at Eichelberger Field

Tailgate XV - May 5, 2018 // Illinois 6, Nebraska 2 // Attendance: 1,071
In front of the sixth-largest crowd in Eichelberger Field history, the Illini celebrated the 15th annual WLST and their 2018 seniors with a 6-2 victory over Nebraska. Senior Leigh Farina paced the Illini at the plate with a 3-for-3 effort to go along with a run and an RBI, while junior Kiana Sherlund added a hit and two RBI and freshman Bella Loya went 2-for-3 with a run on the day.

Tailgate XIV - May 6, 2017 // Illinois 11, Ohio State 6 // Attendance: 702
The Illini celebrated WLST as well as its 2017 Senior Day as senior Nicole Evans set the all-time program record with her 52nd home run. Evans led the Illini with a 3-for-3 performance at the plate with a run and an RBI, while junior Annie Fleming went 3-for-4 with two RBI and a run and sophomore Kiana Sherlund also added a 3-for-4 effort with two runs on the day. Senior Breanna Wonderly earned the win with five strikeouts in a complete game effort.

Tailgate XIII - April 29, 2016 // Illinois 5, Iowa 1 // Illinois 5, Iowa 1 // Attendance: 522
Originally scheduled for Saturday, April 30, the 2016 WLST was moved to Friday night due to weather. The Illini did not let this dampen their spirits as they celebrated WLST and Senior Night with back-to-back wins over Iowa for their third-straight B1G series win. Kylie Johnson led the Illini offensively on the night with a 3-for-6 effort between the two games, while Allie Bauch contributed two hits and two RBI. Breanna Wonderly earned both wins in the circle, allowing just one run in each contest.

Tailgate XII - April 18, 2015 // Illinois 5, Wisconsin 3 // Illinois 12, Wisconsin 8 // Attendance: 976
In front of the season's highest crowd, the 12th-annual World's Largest Softball Tailgate saw a day spent in the sun followed by the Illini capturing their fourth-straight Big Ten series victory with a sweep of Wisconsin, 5-3 and 12-8. Jade Vecvanags provided both wins on the day, while Carly Thomas posted four hits and six RBI on the day. In an offensive battle in game two, Alyssa Gunther and Jess Perkins each had three hits, two RBI and two runs, and Allie Bauch was 2-for-4 with three RBIs and a two-run homer.

Tailgate XI - April 5, 2014 // Illinois 11, No. 20 Nebraska 4 // Nebraska 9, Illinois 4 // Attendance: 1,289
The 11th-annual World's Largest Softball Tailgate was a tremendous success, as a near-sellout crowd packed Eichelberger Field to watch an Illini slugfest, with Illinois trouncing No. 20 Nebraska, 11-4, in the first game of the day. Kylie Johnson, Alex Booker, Jenna Mychko and Nicole Evans all had two hits in the game, including home runs by Booker and Evans. Shelese Arnold recorded the save, tossing two shutout innings before the Illini broke the game wide open with four runs in the bottom of the sixth. The Huskers got revenge in the nightcap, putting up nine runs to split the doubleheader.

Tailgate IX - May 5, 2012 // Illinois 4, Penn State 2; Illinois 6, Penn State 3 // Attendance: 1,259
The Illini swept Penn State in a Saturday doubleheader, putting up big numbers early in both games. The Orange and Blue exploded for four runs in the first inning in game one, due to sloppy defense by the Nittany Lions and a pair of singles by Brittany Sanchez and Stephanie Cuevas. Pepper Gay maintained the Illini lead, allowing just two runs in the complete game. Illinois jumped out on top again in the second game, scoring six runs in the first two innings fueled by a first-inning grand slam by Kelley Wedel. Jackie Guy allowed just three hits through the first four innings, and Gay walked three with no hits allowed in her three-inning save, as the Illini won 6-3.

Tailgate VIII - May 7, 2011 // Illinois 3, Western Illinois 2; Illinois 2, Western Illinois 0 // Attendance: 1,105
The Illini scored three unanswered runs in the first contest before shutting out the Leathernecks to earn a doubleheader sweep of Western Illinois. Pepper Gay tossed 11 and 2/3 innings of scoreless softball to earn both victories, only allowing two hits while striking out 13. Meredith Hackett provided a run-scoring single to create the difference in the first contest, while Jessica Davis drilled a solo homer to left-center field and hit a sacrifice fly out to right field to tally both runs in the finale.

Tailgate VII - April 24, 2010 // #21 Illinois 6, Wisconsin 0 // Attendance: 623
Meredith Hackett led the Illini at the plate, going 2-for-4 with two home runs and four RBIs in the game as the Illini faced rainy weather and the Badgers. Hackett put Illinois ahead in the first inning with a two-run home run after Danielle Zymkowitz doubled to lead off the game. Hackett followed with her second two-run homer of the day in the next frame to cap scoring and reach the final line of 6-0.

Tailgate II - April 30, 2005 // Illinois 7, Minnesota 6; Illinois 6, Minnesota 5 // Attendance: 906
The Orange and Blue used two late rallies to sweep a double header against the Golden Gophers. Molly Lawhead drove home the game-winner with a single, scoring Jenna Hall after Rachelle Coriddi scored the game-tying run on Julie Balicki's sacrifice fly in game one. Shanna Diller drove in the game-winning run in the seventh inning of game two.

Tailgate I - April 24, 2004 // Illinois 1, Ohio State 0 // Attendance: 756
Sherri Taylor delivered a solid performance in the circle, giving up no runs and just four hits in her four innings of work. Jenna Hall had the game-winning RBI for the Orange and Blue.

EICHELBERGER FIELD

Eichelberger Field is one of the premier softball facilities in the NCAA. Built into the side of a hill overlooking Florida Avenue in Urbana, the stadium provides great sight lines and seating for 1,500 fans.

Thanks to the generosity of Lila Jeanne "Shorty" and the late Paul Eichelberger, the Illinois softball stadium became a reality in 2001.

Eichelberger Field groundbreaking took place on April 15, 2000. Former Associate Athletic Director Karol Kahrs introduced Mrs. Eichelberger and spoke of the couple's long-time support of the university. Shorty's interest in the advancement of women's athletics and Paul's association with the game of softball made the Eichelberger Field project a natural fit.

The nearly $2 million project included a sand-based field, irrigation, lighting, batting cages/bullpens, a scoreboard, in-ground dugouts and a temporary press box.

The Eichelberger Field fence measures 200 feet from home plate to the corner foul lines and is 210 feet from home to the center field fence. An inning-by-inning scoreboard overlooks the left-center field fence.

A number of improvements were added prior to the 2016 season, highlighted by a new state-of-the-art Daktronics video board (measuring 36' wide by 33' tall, video portion measuring 36' wide by 17' tall), including "Home of the Fighting Illini" branding that is illuminated on the back at night. Along with the board, the grass portion of the field was sodded with Kentucky Bluegrass late in the fall of 2015.

The Eichelberger Field dedication took place on March 27, 2001, in conjunction with the Illini's home opener against Valparaiso University. As was fitting, "Shorty" Eichelberger threw out the first pitch, a strike to catcher Janna Sartini. That day, Sarah Baumgartner nailed the first home run in stadium history and Kathryn Nevard tossed a no-hitter, as the Illini posted two shutouts.

The Illini marketing department has several promotions and contests that make coming to Eichelberger Field a fun experience for the family, including the annual World's Largest Softball Tailgate.

THE MARTIN SOFTBALL COMPLEX

The University of Illinois received a $1 million gift from the Rex & Alice A. Martin Foundation to complete the final phase of its softball complex. The Martin Softball Complex - including a permanent press box, restrooms, a permanent concession stand and a clubhouse for the Illini softball team -opened for the 2008 season. The clubhouse includes a locker room and restrooms for the team, as well as a training room and a coaches' locker room. In 2022, the Indoor facility was finished.

The Rex & Alice A. Martin Foundation is a private charitable foundation that funds major projects for young people. "The University of Illinois changed my life," said Alice Martin, co-founder and president of the foundation, who received her MBA from Illinois. "Most of my success I owe to the university and its wonderful MBA program. It's a great honor to be able to assist the university with the new softball stadium. I am looking forward to working with my alma mater on many educational enrichment projects in the future."

"The impact of the Martins' gift to our softball program is immeasurable," former Illinois head coach Terri Sullivan said. "Thanks to their meaningful donation, Illinois now has state-of-the-art facilities for our players and fans. The additional facilities provide first-class amenities, giving Illinois a tremendous recruiting tool and the ability to compete for national championships. Everyone who is involved with our program – players, alumni, support staff, coaches and administration – is honored to have been so generously thought of by the Martins. Alice and Rex are outstanding people who are a special part of the Illinois softball family. The Illinois softball program looks forward to a long relationship with them."

Lila Jeanne "Shorty" Eichelberger is continuing a career-long commitment to education, athletics, and Champaign-Urbana. Through a major deferred gift, in addition to ongoing annual gifts, Eichelberger honored the memory of her husband, Paul, a fast-pitch softball player known throughout Illinois, with the construction of Eichelberger Field. Today, the field stands as a tribute to Paul and has allowed his passion for softball to become a reality for student-athletes at the University of Illinois.

Eichelberger served as a public school educator for 40 years in the Fisher and Champaign school systems. She earned a bachelor's degree in home economics with a minor in physical education from the University of Illinois in 1949, and a master's degree in 1952. She earned an advanced certificate in educational administration from the University of Illinois in 1968.

Eichelberger has been an advocate of women's athletics at Illinois since her collegiate days. She was a member of the Women's Athletic Association Board and participated in intramural basketball, volleyball, fencing, archery and soccer. She is a charter member of four Illinois booster clubs -- the On-Deck Circle (softball), the Dugout Club (baseball), the Courtsiders (women's basketball) and the Upper 90 (women's soccer), as well as a member of the Networkers (volleyball), Illini Quarterback Club (football) and the Rebounders Club (men's basketball).

Eichelberger was named the Illinois Home Economics Teacher of the Year in 1973 and served as a state advisor to the Illinois Future Homemakers of America.

Eichelberger earned Champaign's Outstanding Volunteer Fund-Raiser of the Year award in 1998. She is also a major supporter of the Champaign County Extension Education Foundation. In 1999, she was named a Friend of 4-H by the Illinois 4-H program and in 2001 was awarded the Panhellenic Council's Fred H. Turner Outstanding Alumni Award and the U of I Association Loyalty Award.

Paul Eichelberger was a member of the University of Illinois Foundation and served under Dike Eddleman for over 20 years. He served on Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie's Illinois Commission on Urban Area Government and in the U.S. Army from 1952-54 during the Korean War. Paul worked for Country Companies for 35 years, including several years as a senior claimsman. He was very active in Champaign civic groups and was a charter member of Lincolnshire Fields Country Club.

COACHING STAFF

HEAD COACH TYRA PERRY // NINTH SEASON

"IT IS A GREAT HONOR TO BE NAMED THE HEAD SOFTBALL COACH AT THE UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS. I AM PASSIONATE ABOUT THE WONDERFUL GAME OF SOFTBALL AND WILL WORK TIRELESSLY TO HELP LEAD OUR PROGRAM TO PROMINENCE IN THE BIG TEN CONFERENCE AND ON THE NATIONAL STAGE." – Tyra Perry

Tyra Perry was hired as the University of Illinois' second-ever head coach in June, 2015. Entering her 23rd season as a NCAA Division I softball head coach and ninth at the helm of the Illini, Perry has totaled over 600 career victories as the head coach at Illinois, Ball State, Western Kentucky and Birmingham Southern.

Perry has made an immediate impact in her time at the helm of Illini softball, leading the program to its first back-to-back NCAA Regional appearances since 2010 after advancing to postseason play in 2016 and 2017 and guided the Illini to 36 wins or more in three-straight seasons for the first time in program history from 2016-18. She guided the Illini to another NCAA Regional in 2019 after a 33-25 season and already had three top-25 wins in 2020 before the COVID-19 pandemic stopped the season.

Perry's 2022 squad finished third in the Big Ten and qualified for the NCAA Tournament, her fourth appearance in seven years with the Illini. She is one-of-three current head coaches to lead three different programs to the NCAA Tournament and is the only woman to do so. In 2023, Illinois hosted the Big Ten Softball Tournament for the first time in program history. The Illini pulled off the upset in the opening round, topping Wisconsin, 8-4, to become the first-ever 12-seed to defeat a five-seed in the current tournament format.

In Perry's third campaign in Champaign, the 2018 Illini posted a 37-18 overall record and a sixth-place finish with a 13-8 mark in the Big Ten Conference, with the 37 total victories ranking as the fourth-most wins in the conference. The Illini also tallied one of their best home seasons in program history with a 15-2 record at Eichelberger Field in 2018, including posting the second-highest win percentage and most victories in program history.

Perry led the 2017 squad to a 39-20 record, tying for the fourth-most wins in program history and a top-four finish in the Big Ten Conference with a 14-8 mark, while also advancing to the conference tournament semifinals for the first time since 2004. The Illini ended the 2017 season with their third-highest RPI ranking in program history at No. 27 and made an appearance or received votes in both the USA Today/National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) and the ESPN.com/USA Softball top-25 polls 10 out of the 16 weeks throughout the season, including the final nine weeks of the 2017 campaign. The Illini finished the season with appearances in both the USA Today/National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) and the ESPN.com/USA Softball top-25 polls, finishing at No. 24 in the ESPN.com/USA Softball poll and in the receiving four votes section of the USA Today/NFCA poll.

In her first season in Champaign-Urbana, Perry took the Illini back to NCAA Regionals for the first time since 2010 and fifth overall in program history. UI wrapped Perry's first year with the fifth-most wins in program history with a 36-23 overall record and registered a seventh place finish in the Big Ten Conference with a 12-11 record in the standings. The Illini's 36 wins were the most wins the team has notched since posting 45 victories during the 2010 campaign, while the 36-23 mark wa also the best start ever by any first year Illinois softball or baseball head coach.

Under Perry's guidance, the Illini have notched 15 National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) honors as Nicole Evans (First-Team), Allie Bauch (Second-Team) and Breanna Wonderly (Third-Team) were recognized in 2016 and Stephanie Abello joined Evans and Wonderly as first-team honorees in 2017, while Alyssa Gunther and Annie Fleming also garnered second-team accolades in 2017. The Illini had a quartet of student-athletes earn NFCA with Carly Thomas, Kiana Sherlund and Abello all collecting First-Team accolades and Bella Loya receiving Second-Team honors in 2019. Avrey Steiner came away with the honor in 2021 and, along with Sydney Sickels, received the distinction from the organization in 2022. Kelly Ryono added to the list of accolades, being named to the second team in 2023.

The Perry era in Champaign-Urbana started with a bang as UI registered a 5-1 win over then-No. 10 Florida State in the team's season-opening tournament in Miami, Fla., with the victory over the Seminoles marking the first win over a ranked opponent since the Illini defeated No. 4 Michigan on April 25, 2014 at Eichelberger Field. It was also just the seventh win against a top-10 foe and just the fourth win against a top-10 team not named Michigan.

During her two seasons at Ball State, Perry directed the Cardinals to 67 wins with a combined nine All-MAC selections and 13 Academic All-MAC honorees. The 2015 team went 34-25 and won the Mid-American Conference West Division before claiming the 2015 MAC Tournament Championship, earning the Cardinals an automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament. Ball State defeated 16th-seeded Notre Dame in postseason action to record its first-ever NCAA Regional victory.

Perry was named 2014 MAC Coach of the Year during her first season at Ball State after guiding the program to a 33-19 mark and overall conference title during the regular season. The Cardinals had a program-record five first-team All-MAC selections, led by Player of the Year Jennifer Gilbert, who also earned All-America honors.

Prior to Ball State, Perry spent six seasons as head coach at Western Kentucky, guiding the Lady Toppers to 196 victories to become the winningest coach in program history. In 2013, WKU earned its first-ever NCAA Regional appearance, advancing to the championship game of the Tuscaloosa Regional. Western Kentucky finished the year ranked No. 26 in the NCAA Ratings Percentage Index (RPI), the highest final ranking in program history.

Perry also guided the Lady Toppers to several other firsts during the 2013 campaign. The program posted its first 40-plus-win season (43-18) and earned its first Sun Belt Conference regular-season title with a 20-3 league record.

The two-time Sun Belt Coach of the Year (2009 and 2013), Perry helped Emily Rousseau earn the program's first SBC Pitcher of the Year honor in 2013. In her six seasons with the Lady Toppers, Perry helped her players garner 14 All-SBC honors and eight SBC All-Tournament Team selections.

In the classroom, Perry's Western Kentucky student-athletes earned five CoSIDA Academic All-District selections, 22 recognitions on the Sun Belt Commissioner's List and 34 Sun Belt Academic Honor Roll awards.

Perry guided Birmingham-Southern to 146 victories in seven years as head coach (six seasons of competition), despite the Panthers being a provisional NCAA Division I member during the 2002 and 2003 seasons. In 2006, she led Birmingham-Southern to its first winning season in program history with a 28-21 record.

Her Panthers squads posted at least 25 wins in each of her final five seasons with the program. In addition, 15 Birmingham-Southern student-athletes received postseason honors from the Big South Conference during Perry's tenure.

In 2006, Perry added the title of Assistant Athletic Director/Senior Woman Administrator to her duties and served as the school's compliance director. Perry also was the head coach for a Southeastern All-Star team that played the United States Olympic squad prior to the 2004 games in Athens.

A 1997 and 1998 graduate of Louisiana State University, Perry earned a bachelor's degree in kinesiology in 1997 and added a master's degree in sports administration in 1998. After two seasons at Nicholls State, Perry followed her head coach to LSU as the second signee in the first signing class of the newly created Tiger softball program. After sitting out in 1996, she became a two-year letterwinner for the Tigers (1997-98), helping the program post a combined 102-28 record over her career, including a 58-14 mark in Southeastern Conference play. She also helped the Tigers pick up a pair of SEC West Division titles and make the program's first-ever NCAA Regional Tournament appearance, where it finished second.

In her first season at LSU, Perry led the Tigers with a .345 batting average, 11 home runs, 40 runs scored, .416 on-base percentage and .612 slugging percentage. Those numbers helped her earn recognition on the National Fastpitch Coaches Association All-South Region Second Team, as well as First-Team All-Louisiana honors and a slot on the SEC's All-Tournament Team. Perry led the team with five homers in 1998 while posting a .324 average with 29 runs scored and 38 RBI. Off the field, she was twice named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll.

Prior to entering the coaching profession, Perry served a two-year internship in the compliance department at LSU.

Perry was inducted into the Zachary High School Hall of Fame in her hometown of Zachary, Louisiana, in 2007.

Perry's sister, Brittney Williams, played under Perry at Western Kentucky and currently serves as the head coach for the D1 Southern University Jaguars softball team

LAURA TROUT
ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH // NINTH SEASON

Laura Trout served as an assistant coach for the Illini for six years prior to being named associate head coach in August 2021. She serves as the hitting coach and works primarily with the infielders.

During her time at Illinois, Trout has guided Illinois to four NCAA Tournaments. After leading the program to its first back-to-back NCAA Regional appearances since 2010 during the 2016-17 campaigns, Trout helped the Illini tally one of their best home seasons in program history with a 15-2 record at Eichelberger Field in 2018. Another NCAA Regional appearance was in the cards in 2019 with Illinois logging a 33-25 season. Trout coached Illinois to three victories over top-25 opponents before the COVID canceled the 2020 campaign.

Illinois' fourth NCAA Tournament appearance under Trouts tutelage came in 2022 when the Orange and Blue squad finished third in the Big Ten and qualified for the NCAA Tournament, her fourth appearance in seven years with the Illini. In 2023, Illinois hosted the Big Ten Softball Tournament for the first time since the program's inception. During the postseason event, the Illini pulled off the upset in the opening round, topping Wisconsin, 8-4, to become the first-ever 12-seed to defeat a five-seed in the current tournament format.

Under Trout's guidance, 15 Illini players have earned recognition from the National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA).

A former SEC shortstop, Trout cames to Champaign-Urbana from George Washington University, where she spent the 2015 season as an assistant coach. In charge of hitting and infield defense, she helped the Colonials to rank in the top 10 in the nation in double plays turned while showing marked improvement in batting average and home runs in her first season on staff.

Prior to arrival in D.C., Trout served as a volunteer assistant for the University of South Carolina for two seasons, helping the Gamecocks to their first NCAA Tournament appearance in six years in 2013.

Trout began her college career at Spartanburg Methodist College, where she was a Junior College All-American, participated in two Junior College World Series, and was the Region X Most Valuable Player in 2009. Trout then transferred to the University of Georgia, where she helped lead the Bulldogs to the 2010 Women's College World Series and a final rank of #3 in the nation while receiving the award of Best Defensive Player. The Bulldogs' starting shortstop, Trout had a breakout season as a senior, hitting .348 to help the Dawgs return to the Super Regionals.

The Summerville, South Carolina, native guided Georgia back to the Super Regionals once again in 2012 as a student assistant coach, while completing her bachelor's degree in journalism.

In 2012, Trout served as the head coach of the Southern Force 18U Gold travel organization, where she led her team to a seventh-place finish at Premier Nationals. During her season at the helm, she coached seven student athletes who would go on to play Division I softball, four of whom competed in the 2015 Women's College World Series. Additionally, she mentored a pair of Georgia Gatorade Players of the Year, including the National Player of the Year, as well as a Big Ten Pitcher of the Year and SEC Freshman of the Year.

Trout graduated Magna Cum Laude from Spartanburg Methodist College with an associates degree in 2009. She then completed her bachelor's degree in journalism in 2012 at the University of Georgia, where she was twice named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll.

KIRSTEN VERDUN

ASSISTANT COACH // FIRST SEASON

Illinois softball head coach Tyra Perry announced the addition of Kirsten Verdun to her coaching staff on June 10, 2023. Verdun serves as an assistant coach working primarily with the Illinois pitching staff.

Verdun comes to Champaign-Urbana following eight seasons at Wisconsin where she was the Associate Head Coach for the B,adger softball program. Under her guidance, Wisconsin appeared in four NCAA Tournaments. Verdun's pitchers earned All-Big Ten honors six times and NFCA All-Region accolades on seven occasions. Most recently, the Badgers', ace Maddie Schwartz, was named to the All-Big Ten First Team and the NFCA Great Lakes All-Region Second Team in 2023.

While in Madison, Verdun also served as the Badger's recruiting coordinator. There, she organized recruiting trips and visits and served as a liaison between the program and the top clubs and teams in the country.

Prior to her time at Wisconsin, Verdun served as a graduate assistant with Louisville in 2014-15. She assisted the coaches with office duties, practice drills, youth camps and gameday operations.

Before joining the collegiate coaching ranks, Verdun played professionally for two years with the Chicago Bandits. She signed with the Bandits via open tryouts in May 2014 and made her National Pro Fastpitch league debut in the circle against the Akron Racers on May 30, 2014. She pitched the Bandits to her first win against the Pennsylvania Rebellion in a complete game outing on July 26, 2014.

Verdun posted a 1-0 record with one save and 13 strikeouts in her first season with the Bandits. In her 2015 campaign in Chicago, Verdun tossed a complete-game shutout in the Bandits' NPF opener against the Rebellion. During her second season with the team, she helped the squad to a Cowles Cup championship.

A standout for DePaul softball, Verdun was a two-time All-American (2012 and 2014) and helped DePaul to two NCAA regional final appearances and earned the 2014 Big East Conference regular season and tournament title. Verdun was named the 2014 Big East Pitcher of the Year in addition to being named the Most Outstanding Player of the Big East Championship.

The star-studded pitcher became the first person in program history to accumulate 900 innings with more than 900 strikeouts and 100 or more wins. She currently holds the Blue Demons' school record for career starts, strikeouts looking and batters faced, while finishing second in the record books in wins, strikeouts, innings pitched, appearances and complete games.

The four-time all-conference and all-Great Lakes Region selection was a double threat in the circle and at the plate. Verdun, who held a .347 career batting average, knocked out 37 home runs and ranks second in DePaul's record books. She holds the record for most career walks with 156.

Verdun was just as successful in the classroom as she was in the circle. The Big East Conference Female Scholar Athlete of the Year in 2014, Verdun was named to the DePaul University Dean's List eight consecutive quarters, the DePaul University Athletic Director's honor roll every quarter and landed a spot on the Big East All-Academic team from 2011-2014.

Verdun graduated from DePaul in 2014 with a Bachelor of Arts in Communication and Media with a minor in applied psychology.

SYDNEY SICKELS

ASSISTANT COACH // FIRST SEASON

With the NCAA's coaching limit increase going into effect on July 1, former Fighting Illini softball ace Sydney Sickels has been named the newest assistant coach to the Illinois softball coaching staff, head coach Tyra Perry announced.

"Sydney Sickels has been the heart and soul of Illini softball for the past five years. She was a leader in the circle and as captain, she supported each of our student-athletes both on and off the field," shared Perry. "With the recent increase in softball roster sizes, having someone with Sydney's skill set and perspective on staff will make an immediate impact in our program."

Sickels joins the Orange and Blue coaching staff following a stellar five-year career at Illinois. The Indianola, Iowa, native rewrote the Illinois softball history book during her time in Champaign-Urbana. Sickels closed out her stint in 2023 as the program's leader in career strikeouts (714), strikeouts looking (204) and saves (19). She owns the single-game strikeout record, fanning 21 batters in an extra-inning thriller against Fordham in 2023. The NFCA All-Region selection also tossed the 14th and 15th no-hitters in program history.

"I'm beyond thankful to Coach Perry and the Division of Intercollegiate Athletics for the opportunity to continue to be a part of a university, program and sport that has shaped me into who I am," said Sickels. "I'm excited to get to work!"

RACHEL HOUCK

DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS // SECOND SEASON

Rachel Houck (how-k) joined the Fighting Illini Softball staff in August 2022 as the director of operations.

She heads to Illinois following four years - two as a graduate assistant and two as an assistant coach - at Eastern Illinois.

Across Houck's four seasons at EIU, the Panthers racked up 78 wins as she worked primarily with the hitters and outfielders. EIU improved in nearly every offensive category under Houck's guidance. During the 2021 season, EIU ranked 20th in the nation with 1.27 home runs per game in addition to ranking 41st in NCAA Softball with a .480 collective slugging percentage – both were program records. The Panthers also ranked 29th across the nation averaging 1.75 stolen bases per game.

Most recently in 2022, EIU broke the school record in doubles, walks, on-base percentage, runs scored and RBI on the way to a 25-win season.

With Houck on staff, Panther student-athletes collected seven all-conference accolades, three NFCA All-Region honors, an OVC Player of the Year and All-Newcomer Team recognition.

Prior to her time at Eastern Illinois, Houck was a volunteer coach at Ball State in 2017 and helped the team to a 37-19 record and MAC West division title.

The Greenfield, Indiana native began her collegiate career at Louisville during the 2014 campaign. Houck went on to graduate from Ball State after playing the 2015-17 seasons with the Cardinals and plastered her name all over the single-season and career lists in the record book. She earned second team NFCA All-Region as a senior along with MAC Distinguished Scholar Athlete honors. Additionally, Houck was a three-time Academic All-MAC honoree.

During the 2015 campaign at Ball State, Houck and Perry overlapped and helped the Cardinals to a 34-25 record including a MAC Tournament championship. Their squad was sent to the 2015 NCAA Regional in South Bend, Indiana, and earned the first NCAA win in program history – a 6-3 win over Notre Dame.

Houck earned her bachelor's degree in accounting from Ball State in 2017 and her master's degree in business administration from Eastern Illinois in 2020.

JOSH WHITMAN

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

ILLINOIS, 2001

Illinois alumnus Josh Whitman was hired as the University's 14th permanent director of athletics on February 17, 2016. Now in his eighth year, Whitman has infused the Fighting Illini program with energy, strategic direction, and a fierce drive to see the Illini succeed in the competitive arena and in the classroom.

Illinois is coming off a successful 2022-23 athletics campaign under Whitman's leadership. During the last year, it was one of just 14 schools to have its football team play in a bowl game and both its men's and women's basketball teams participate in the NCAA Tournament. Of those 14 schools, Whitman is one of only two current athletic directors to have hired all three of the involved head coaches. The Fighting Illini also captured Big Ten championships in both men's and women's golf and had three student-athletes win NCAA individual titles.

Nowhere has Whitman's influence been more notable than on the gridiron. A former Illini letterman himself, Whitman has helped engineer the football team's return to the national spotlight, highlighted by hiring three-time Big Ten champion head coach Bret Bielema in December of 2020. In Bielema's first season, the Illini won their most conference games in 14 years, including back-to-back road victories at No. 7 Penn State and No. 20 Minnesota.

That set the stage for 2022, the second year of Bielema's tenure, which became Illinois Football's best season since 2007. Illinois started the regular season 7-1 en route to winning eight regular season games and narrowly missing a place in the Big Ten Championship Game. The Illini were ranked in the Top 25 for five straight weeks, reaching a high of 14th, while also appearing in the College Football Playoff rankings for the first time in program history. Led by its defense, which led the nation in scoring defense for the first time in school history, the Fighting Illini participated in a January bowl game for the first time since the 2008 Rose Bowl.

Another season of note from Whitman's tenure was 2019, which saw the Illini post two of the biggest wins in program history: an upset victory over sixth-ranked Wisconsin and an incredible come-from-behind win at Michigan State. The victory over the Spartans made Illinois bowl eligible for the first time since 2014 and resulted in the Fighting Illini playing California in the Redbox Bowl.

On the basketball court, Whitman has prompted a national resurgence that began with his hiring of head coach Brad Underwood in 2017. During the last four seasons, the men's basketball team has posted the best record in the Big Ten.

In 2019-20, the Illini accomplished one of the nation's largest turnarounds, improving by nine total wins from the previous season and finishing only one game out of first place in the Big Ten standings. The team concluded the season ranked in the Associated Press Top 25 for the first time since 2006 and was poised for a deep postseason run until games were cancelled because of the COVID-19 pandemic.

The basketball program's remarkable ascent was highlighted by the 2020-21 campaign, which, by many measures, was one of the most successful in Illinois history. The Illini topped the Big Ten standings in wins, setting a school record with 16 league victories. Illinois then captured its first Big Ten Tournament Championship in 17 years and earned a No. 1 seed in the 2021 NCAA Tournament. Illinois ended the season at No. 2 in the AP poll, the second-highest final ranking in school history.

In 2021-22, the team won 15 Big Ten games and captured a share of the Big Ten regular-season championship, the 18th in program history and its first since 2005. For the second consecutive year, the team earned a Top 4 seed to the NCAA Tournament and won its opening round game.

Last season, Illinois recorded its fourth straight 20-win regular season and made its third straight NCAA Tournament, extending the program's longest tournament streak in 16 years.

Staying on the hardwood, Whitman's hiring of Shauna Green in women's basketball has ignited another turnaround in Fighting Illini Athletics. In 2022-23, Green's first year at the helm, she led the team to a historic 15-win improvement, the best year-over-year change ever at Illinois and the third-largest in Big Ten history. Illinois won 22 games, the third-most victories in program history, and made the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2003.

In total during Whitman's tenure, Illinois teams have made 82 NCAA postseason appearances, highlighted by 22 teams finishing in the top 16 nationally and seven finishing in the nation's top four. In addition, six Illinois student-athletes have captured eight individual national championships (wrestler Isaiah Martinez, 2016; men's gymnast Brandon Ngai, 2016; men's gymnast Alex Diab, 2018 and 2019; men's gymnast Ian Skirkey, 2021; and Skirkey, fellow men's gymnast Ashton Anaya, and women's track athlete Olivia Howell, 2023).

In Big Ten competition, the men's golf program has won the Big Ten crown every year of Whitman's tenure and eight consecutive titles overall, women's golf won its first title in program history in 2023, men's basketball won the regular season championship in 2022 after taking the tournament title in 2021, men's tennis captured the championship in 2021, and men's

During his first year on the job, Whitman launched the Illinois Athletics Hall of Fame and celebrated the 28-person inaugural class with a black-tie Gala in Chicago in June 2017.

Whitman's leadership was never more on display than during the COVID-19 pandemic, when care, concern and communication were staples of Illinois Athletics. Illinois was the only athletic program in the Big Ten, and one of the only programs in the country, not to miss a single competition in any sport during the 2020-21 seasons due to COVID-19 disruption in its own program. Financially, Whitman led a department-wide cost containment effort that resulted in more than $15 million in spending reductions and a final COVID-19-related budget shortfall that was among the lowest in college athletics.

Whitman has executed an aggressive facilities agenda since his hiring. The marquee building is the $79.2 million, 110,000-square-foot Henry Dale and Betty Smith Football Center, which was formally dedicated in October 2019. A multi-year renovation and expansion of the Ubben Basketball Complex was a $40 million project that finished in the fall of 2022 and was officially dedicated in February of 2023. Other completed projects include the $21 million Demirjian Park, home for the Illinois soccer and track and field programs that opened in the spring of 2021, and the $8 million Susan and Clint Atkins Baseball Training Center and $6 million Rex and Alice A. Martin Softball Training Center, both dedicated in October of 2022.

To assist Illinois' nationally ranked men's and women's golf programs, Whitman orchestrated the acquisition of the former Stone Creek Golf Club as part of a $15 million, multi-faceted gift of real estate to the University from long-time friends of Illinois Athletics, the Atkins family. The course, now rebranded the Atkins Golf Club at the University of Illinois, underwent extensive renovations using funds from a $5 million anonymous gift to provide Illinois Golf with a championship-caliber home.

To support this facility plan and various other strategic initiatives, Whitman has teamed with DIA's Office of Athletic Development to achieve unprecedented success on the fundraising trail. Whitman's arrival synchronized with the public launch and execution of the campus-wide With Illinois fundraising campaign. As part of the With Illinois campaign, DIA secured more than $321 million in fundraising production, easily surpassing its fundraising goal of $300 million. The campaign featured several of the largest single gifts in program history, including a $20 million donation from the H.D. Smith Foundation, led by brothers Dale and Chris Smith, to name Smith Football Center.

Under Whitman's leadership, Illinois is amid six consecutive fiscal years of recording more than $30 million in new gift commitments (FY18 through FY23), with three consecutive years (FY18 through FY20) exceeding $40 million. In FY20, Illinois secured more than $45 million in new gifts, the second-highest single-year total in Illinois Athletics history. In total, DIA has received 45 gifts of $1 million or more during Whitman's tenure.

Whitman has become a strong advocate and leader in the areas of diversity and inclusion. Shortly after his arrival in 2016, Whitman reorganized the department's leadership structure and charged DIA's first Committee on Diversity and Inclusion. In 2021, he created the first full-time executive leadership position tasked with daily leadership of DIA's diversity and inclusion efforts. During Whitman's tenure, DIA has hosted a Diversity Summit (spring of 2018) and a Title IX Summit (fall of 2022), the latter intended to celebrate the 50th anniversary of Title IX's passage.

In 2016, Whitman announced the creation of the University's Athletics Hall of Fame, which will induct its seventh class in the fall of 2023. In the winter of 2022, following an extensive community effort, the Illinois High School Association returned its Boys State Basketball Championship series back to State Farm Center, after an absence of more than 25 years.

Whitman has also been a regular presence in Springfield, testifying in committee and working with state lawmakers on a variety of issues impacting college athletics, including name-image-likeness and sports gambling. In the summer of 2020, Whitman joined Governor J.B. Pritzker in State Farm Center while the Governor signed into law the Student-Athlete Endorsement Rights Act, the state's inaugural NIL bill.

Whitman, a former Academic All-American at Illinois, emphasizes strong performance by Fighting Illini student-athletes in the classroom as well. In each year of his tenure, student-athletes have posted a combined GPA of above 3.12. Under Whitman's leadership, the student-athlete population as a whole and individual teams have set school records for GPA, APR scores and GSR scores. Illini student-athletes enter the 2023-24 academic year with a school-record streak of 26-consecutive semesters with a combined GPA above 3.0.

During his tenure, Whitman has become increasingly involved in Big Ten and NCAA governance. From 2021-23 he co-chaired the Big Ten's Administrators' Council and served on the Conference's Joint Group Executive Committee. In addition, he represented the Big Ten on the Rose Bowl Management Committee through 2023. Whitman has recently been appointed to two national panels, serving on the NCAA Division I Council and the NCAA Division I Strategic Vision and Planning Committee through 2027. He previously served on two iterations of NCAA working groups that studied and proposed dramatic changes to longstanding transfer policies.

At the time of his hiring in early 2016, Whitman, then at age 37, was the youngest athletics director in the Autonomy 5. Prior to returning to Illinois, Whitman, now 45 years old, spent nearly six years as an athletics director at two universities. He came to Champaign-Urbana following almost two years as director of athletics at Washington University in St. Louis, a nationally recognized NCAA Division III program with 19 varsity sports and approximately 500 student-athletes. Before joining Washington University, Whitman served four years as the director of athletics at the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse, another of the nation's leading Division III programs. Combined at those two institutions, Whitman's teams earned four national titles and 24 NCAA top-five team finishes, plus 34 conference championships.

Whitman has two Illinois degrees. He graduated with Bronze Tablet honors in 2001 while earning a bachelor's degree in finance. In 2008, he graduated summa cum laude from the Illinois College of Law before serving as a judicial law clerk for Judge Michael Kanne on the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit. From 2005 to 2008, he worked for DIA and former Illini athletics director Ron Guenther in various administrative capacities.

On the gridiron for the Fighting Illini, Whitman played in 45 games from 1997-2000, catching 52 career passes and seven touchdowns. He was a two-time First Team Academic All-American and earned Honorable Mention All-Big Ten honors his senior season. He then spent parts of four seasons as a player in the National Football League, including stints with the San Diego Chargers, Miami Dolphins, Seattle Seahawks, and Buffalo Bills.

Prior to embarking on his career in athletics administration, Whitman practiced law in Washington, D.C., with Covington & Burling LLP, a firm with a preeminent sports practice that represents, among other clients, the National Football League. Whitman remains a licensed attorney and is a member of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics and LEAD1 Association. He also served on the national board of directors for the Sports Lawyers Association from 2019-23.

Whitman's leadership has earned national attention, highlighted in early 2018 when Sports Business Journal named him to its prestigious Forty Under 40 list. In July 2017, Whitman was selected Central Illinois Business Magazine's Forty Under 40 Man of the Year.

Whitman grew up in West Lafayette, Ind., and is married to Hope Whitman. They have two children: a daughter Tate, who is seven, and a five-year-old son, Will. The Whitmans have become engaged in several Champaign-Urbana community organizations, including United Way, Champaign County Court Appointed Special Advocate (CASA) for Children, Courage Connection, Coaches vs. Cancer, and the Tom Jones Challenger League. Whitman has been recognized as a Paul Harris Fellow by the Champaign Rotary and was recently selected as the 2023 Distinguished Citizen by the Prairieland Council of the Boy Scouts of America. He and Hope are members of the I FUND's Loyalty Circle and made a significant gift to the Smith Football Center to honor football alumni inside the facility.
