BRAD DANCER

HEAD COACH | 20TH SEASON

Brad Dancer enters his 21st season on staff and 20th as head coach of the Illinois men's tennis program heading into the 2024-25 campaign. Dancer became Illinois' 19th head men's tennis coach on June 28, 2005, after serving his first year on the staff as an associate head coach under Illini legend Craig Tiley.

Under Dancer, the Illini have won three Big Ten Tournament titles (2012, 2015, 2021) and two regular-season conference championships (2015, 2021), while Illinois has advanced to the NCAA tournament in 17 of Dancer's 19 seasons at the helm. Dancer was named the ITA Midwest Coach of the Year in 2021 after the Illini earned a share of the Big Ten regular-season title and secured their third Big Ten Tournament championship during Dancer's tenure.

Illinois reached the finals of the 2007 NCAA Championships, finishing as runner-up for the second-highest finish in program history. That year, reigning NCAA doubles champions Kevin Anderson and Ryan Rowe finished runners-up, becoming the first Illinois doubles team in almost 40 years to advance to the finals with the same partner in back-to-back seasons. In all, Dancer has led the Illini to two quarterfinals (2007, 2015) and 11 Sweet 16 appearances. In 2023, doubles duo Hunter Heck and Karlis Ozolins went to the Elite Eight in the NCAA Doubles Tournament, the farthest any Illini duo had gone since Anderson and Rowe made the finals at the event in 2007.

At Illinois, many of Dancer's student-athletes have found individual success on the collegiate circuit, as he has coached 27 All-Americans, 42 All-Big Ten honorees, four Big Ten Players of the Year, and two Big Ten Freshmen of the Year.

Dancer also garnered his own honors by being selected as the ITA Regional Coach of the Year during the 2014-15 season. In the record books, Dancer ranks as the program's all-time winningest coach, entering his 20th season with 374 victories, while also ranking second behind Illini legend Craig Tiley in Big Ten victories and career winning percentage.

Dancer has coached his squads to many victories over ranked and NCAA Championship teams. In his first year as head coach in 2006, he led the Fighting Illini to victories over two of the nation's top teams to open the season, defeating No. 1 Virginia and dismantling No. 8 Duke on the road in consecutive duals. With a 19-8 overall record, the 2011-12 squad captured its first Big Ten Tournament title in seven years with a dramatic comeback win over six-time reigning champion Ohio State.

The 2012-13 season provided two major thrills at home, with Illinois knocking off both No. 5 Duke and No. 7 Kentucky in consecutive weeks. The 2015-16 squad posted victories over 2016 NCAA champion Virginia, Duke, and South Florida. In 2017-18, the Illini had wins over seven ranked teams, including No. 9 TCU, No. 10 Florida, and No. 14 Michigan. In 2023, the Illini conquered two ranked teams: No. 9 Wake Forest and No. 13 Georgia. During the 2024 season, the Illini defeated No. 8 Duke, No. 14 Baylor, and top-25 North Carolina twice, once when the Tar Heels were ranked No. 16 and again when they were ranked No. 17.

The Illini have had winning records in all but one normal (non-COVID impacted) seasons with Dancer at the helm. With a 22-9 overall record, the 2006-07 team had a memorable season, including Dancer's 100th career victory. The 2007-08 season was highlighted by the play of seniors Ryan Rowe and Ruben Gonzales, who helped lead the squad to an 8-2 finish in conference play.

The 2009-10 squad secured their 13th-straight 20-win season with a 20-11 overall mark. 2013-14 was a great season for the Orange and Blue, as they finished second in the conference (10-2) and went 24-9 overall, the most wins since the 2006 season. The Illini also went undefeated at home (13-0) for the first time since 2004. The 2014-15 Illinois squad went 15-1 at home and produced a 27-5 record, the most wins since the 2003 season. Juniors Aron Hiltzik and Aleks Vukic led the 2016-17 team to an 18-12 overall record and an 8-3 mark in Big Ten play. In 2017-18, the squad had an overall record of 24-8, along with a 10-1 tally in conference play and 11-1 mark at home. In 2020-21, the Illini went 23-3 overall, 15-1 against conference competition, 7-2 at home, and 7-0 away.

Whether as a team or individually, the Orange and Blue have consistently ranked in the top 20 nationally since Dancer took over for Craig Tiley. During Dancer's first season as head coach, he propelled Illinois to No. 2 in the nation, a spot the Orange and Blue held for a large portion of the season. Individually, the Illini garnered their first singles No. 1-ranked preseason player in Ryler DeHeart, who also claimed the top spot during the regular season. In 2008-09, Illinois finished No. 12 in the final Campbell's/ITA rankings after posting an overall record of 23-9. The 2013-14 squad ranked as high as sixth in the nation, while also qualifying to the National Indoor Championships. As one of the most successful teams in program history, the 2014-15 squad rose as high as No. 2 in the ITA national rankings, the highest they had achieved since 2006. The 2017-18 team achieved a No. 8 ranking in the final ITA national rankings, the highest since 2015.

Dancer started off his coaching career in 1996, when he held an ongoing role as an assistant to Billie Jean King for the U.S. Fed Cup Team. Dancer cites the experience with King as having a profound impact on him, as she led by her incredible example and helped him mold his coaching ideology.

Dancer received his first head coaching position with the Delaware Smash of World Team Tennis. From 1998 to 2004, he had the privilege to coach athletes such as Patrick McEnroe and Serena Williams. In 2003, he guided Smash to the World Team Tennis Championship en route to being named Coach of the Year. The Illini head coach has also traveled to more than 20 different countries, working with elite junior development programs and various touring professionals, such as Martina Navratilova and Mariaan de Swardt.

Dancer's collegiate coaching career started at his alma mater, Michigan State, where he served as the assistant men's tennis coach from 1993-98. In 1999, Dancer served in his first head coaching capacity for the women's tennis team at the University of Arizona.

Before coming to Illinois, Dancer compiled a 38-35 overall record in three seasons as the head coach at Fresno State University. He led his teams to two NCAA tournament appearances, including in 2003, when his squad advanced to the second round, marking the deepest postseason run during his tenure.

As an associate head coach in 2004-05, Dancer helped lead the Orange and Blue to a 25-4 record and a trip to the Sweet 16 before taking over for Illinois Athletics Hall of Fame inductee Tiley, who is the only coach to lead the program to a national championship (2003).

Dancer has had several former Illini move on to successful professional careers, most notably Kevin Anderson. Anderson reached a career-high No. 10 world ranking in October 2015 while advancing to the third round or better at 11 straight Grand Slams in 2016. The former All-American reached his first-career Grand Slam Final at the 2017 US Open, becoming the first Illini to reach a singles final in a Grand Slam event and the first player with college ties to reach a Grand Slam singles final since Northwestern's Todd Martin at the 1999 US Open.

At Illinois, Dancer also coached Aleks Vukic and Aleks Kovacevic, who are both currently playing on the ATP Tour and have ranked among the top-100 men's singles players in the world.

Dancer earned his bachelor's degree in business administration from Michigan State in 1993 and also competed on the men's tennis team, earning All-Big Ten honors, serving as a team captain, and reaching the NCAA Doubles Championships his senior year.

Dancer and wife Haylie reside in Mahomet with their four boys, Jackson, Hudson, Camden, and Griffin.

TIM KOPINSKI

ASSISTANT COACH | 3RD SEASON

Tim Kopinski heads into his third season as an assistant coach for the Fighting Illini men's tennis program going into the 2024-25 season. Kopinski's hire was announced by head coach Brad Dancer on June 22, 2022.

In his first season, during the 2022-23 campaign, Kopinski helped the Illini to two upset wins over ranked opponents: No. 9 Wake Forest and No. 13 Georgia. He also helped the Illini to a season-high No. 16 in the ITA National Rankings.

In his second season on staff, Kopinski helped lead Illinois to four ranked wins: No. 8 Duke, No. 14 Baylor, and North Carolina twice, once when the Tar Heels were ranked No. 16 and again when they were ranked No. 17.

COACHING EXPERIENCE

2022-present: Assistant Head Coach, University of Illinois
2021-22: Assistant Coach, Charlotte
2015-16: Volunteer Coach, University of Illinois

Kopinski spent the 2021-22 season at Charlotte, where he served as the men's tennis team's assistant coach. The 49ers went 17-7 in Kopinski's lone season in Charlotte, and he helped the team record a 17-7 record. Kopinski also coached Conference USA Newcomer of the Year and C-USA First Team selection Thomas Brown and Outstanding Singles Player of the Championship Stefanos Savva.

Before his time at Charlotte, Kopinski had numerous coaching stints at the collegiate and professional levels, including a volunteer coach position at Illinois in 2015-16, and two years traveling on the ATP Tour coaching Aussie pro Aleks Vukic.

As a freshman for the Fighting Illini, Kopinski led the team with 22 doubles wins, tied for second with 25 singles wins, and helped the team to a Big Ten championship.

In his sophomore year, Kopinski had the second-most wins and a 22-18 overall record. He was named Big Ten Athlete of the Week and earned Academic All-Big Ten and ITA Scholar Athlete honors.

The following season, Kopinski went 8-1 in singles play, finished the year ranked sixth nationally in doubles with his partner Ross Guignon, and posted the second-most singles wins on the team with a 33-12 record. He also was awarded All-American, First-Team All-Big Ten, and Big Ten Tennis Athlete of the Week honors, and he was named the Most Outstanding Player at the OFCC Invitational.

In his final year, Kopinski and doubles partner Ross Guignon ranked as high as No. 2 nationally and were the 2015 ITA National Indoor Championships doubles runner-ups. He also went undefeated in conference singles play and tied for most conference wins on the team while also collecting a 15-2 overall record. He finished his college career ranked 59th nationally in singles.

Kopinski also reached the Round of 16 in the singles draw at the ITA All-American Championships, was awarded Midwest ITA Senior Player of the Year, was a Midwest ITA/Arthur Ashe, Jr. Sportsmanship & Leadership Award winner, and was named First Team All-Big Ten.

ZEKE CLARK

ASSISTANT COACH | 2ND SEASON

Clark is entering his second season with the Illini going into the 2024-25 campaign. Illinois men's tennis head coach Brad Dancer added Clark to the coaching staff as a full-time assistant coach on Sept. 26, 2023.

In his first season on staff, Clark helped lead Illinois to four ranked wins. The Illini defeated No. 8 Duke, No. 14 Baylor, and top-25 North Carolina twice, once when the Tar Heels were ranked No. 16 and again when they were ranked No. 17.

Before stepping into a coaching role, Clark competed on the pro circuit from 2021-2023, reaching a doubles ranking as high as No. 209 and a singles ranking as high as No. 469.

COACHING EXPERIENCE

2023-present: Assistant Head Coach, University of Illinois

During his five-year playing career for the Fighting Illini, the Tulsa, Okla., native totaled 104 singles wins, a mark that ranks 14th in program history.

In his first year at Illinois, Clark had a 17-12 singles record and helped the Illini to wins over a pair of ranked opponents: No. 14 Michigan and No. 16 Northwestern. He also helped the Illini to a season-high No. 17 in the ITA National Rankings.

In his sophomore year, Clark had a 21-7 overall singles record, ending the season with a 13-match winning streak. He qualified for the ITA Midwest Regional Singles tournament and earned Academic All-Big Ten and ITA Scholar-Athlete honors.

The following season, Clark had the second-most wins on the team with a 28-13 record in singles. Clark clinched four matches for the Illini and had a ranked win over No. 28 Jackie Tang of Columbia, 6-7, 6-4, 6-1. He also was awarded 2019 First Team All-Big Ten honors.

Before the COVID-19 pandemic hit in March 2020, Clark notched a 17-10 record in singles play and a 5-3 mark in doubles.

Clark made the most of his fifth year, ranking as high as No. 28 in the singles rankings and No. 14 in doubles with his partner, Alex Brown. Clark started the season on a 15-match win streak and went 10-0 at No. 3 singles during the season.

He clinched multiple big victories for the Illini, including upsets over No. 1 USC and No. 7 Virginia during the ITA Indoor Championships and against No. 17 Ohio State in the 2021 Big Ten Championship. He was also named Big Ten Men's Tennis Athlete of the Week and All-Big Ten and advanced to the round of 32 in the NCAA Singles Tournament.

Clark became the 16th Illini to win 100 career singles matches after defeating Nebraska's Albert Sprlak-Puk, 6-2, 6-0, on April 11, 2021.

Clark also was a three-time winner of the team's Fighting Illini Spirit Award (2017, '18, '19) and the winner of the team's Strength and Conditioning Award and Most Improved Player in 2018. He was voted recipient of Illinois Athletics' Fighting Illini Spirit Award in 2021.

ATKINS TENNIS CENTER

In addition to being the home of Illinois Tennis, Atkins Tennis Center is open to all members of the Champaign-Urbana community and visitors to the area. Atkins does not charge a membership fee. When the facility is not being used by the varsity teams, tennis players may reserve a court or receive instruction in a private lesson or group clinic. Atkins staff is dedicated to growing the game and offering quality instructional programs and leagues for players of all ages and abilities.

During the summer months, the center is also host to the Fighting Illini Tennis Camps and Nike Tennis Camps. Adults and juniors from around the country travel to central Illinois to learn from Illinois head tennis coaches Evan Clark and Brad Dancer. Campers experience a thorough training regimen that covers stroke technique, match strategy, and conditioning and fitness training. Junior campers receive approximately 35 hours of on-court training over five days, while adult campers receive 20 hours of instruction over a weekend.

In 2013 and 2022, the University of Illinois and the Atkins Tennis Center hosted the NCAA Division I Women's and Men's Tennis Championships. In 2013, it was the first time a Midwest school hosted the NCAA Tournament since the women's and men's championships were combined in 2005. Atkins also hosts a number of elite junior tournaments and one of the longest running professional tournaments on the USTA Pro Circuit: the Champaign Challenger.

Whether you are new to the game and looking to learn, an advanced player looking for competition, or a fan of collegiate sports, Atkins has something to offer for everyone. The state-of-the-art facilities and expert staff provide a superior experience for players and spectators.

Note: 1992-93 was the first season college tennis went to the seven-point scoring format, meaning each singles match is worth one team point and the doubles competition (as a whole) is worth one point. In previous years, each doubles match was worth a point, so there were a total of nine possible team points that could be scored.

Note: In 1992-93, former head coach Craig Tiley served as interim head coach for the Fighting Illini. He took the head coaching position in 1993.

MEN'S TENNIS IN THE ILLINOIS ATHLETICS HALL OF FAME

CRAIG TILEY - CLASS OF 2017

Craig Tiley led the Fighting Illini to the NCAA men's tennis national title in 2003 with a perfect 32-0 record and ITA National Team Indoor Championships in 2003 and 2004.

The tennis national championship was the first by a school not from the south or either coast. Tiley left Illinois following the 2005 season to serve as Tennis Australia's Director of Player Development. In 2006, he was named Director of the Australian Open in addition to his other duties. After Tennis Australia's CEO stepped down in 2013, Tiley was selected as the successor of the governing body that oversees tennis in Australia.

As head coach of the Illini, he built a head coaching record of 274-76 (.783) while leading the Illini to nine Big Ten regular-season titles and six Big Ten Tournament championships. Tiley was a two-time Wilson/ITA Division I National Coach of the Year (1999 and 2003) and seven-time Big Ten Coach of the Year. He led Illinois to an NCAA-record 64 consecutive wins during the 2003 and 2004 seasons. Tiley served as captain of the South Africa Davis Cup team from 1998-2001. Tiley is a member of the ITA Men's Collegiate Tennis Hall of Fame.

KEVIN ANDERSON - CLASS OF 2018

Kevin Anderson won the 2006 NCAA doubles title (with Ryan Rowe) and earned All-America honors each of his three seasons at Illinois. In addition to winning a national doubles title, Anderson reached the NCAA singles semifinals and doubles final in 2007 while leading the Illini team to a national runner-up finish. He was a three-time First-Team All-Big Ten selection and the 2007 Big Ten Tennis Athlete of the Year. Anderson also was named the Fighting Illini Dike Eddleman Male Athlete of the Year in 2007. A native of South Africa, Anderson climbed to a professional world ranking of No. 11, and he is the only Fighting Illini alum to win a singles spot in a Grand Slam final, which he earned at the U.S. Open in 2017. Anderson spent several years on the ATP World Tour before announcing his retirement from professional tennis in 2022.

AMER DELIC - CLASS OF 2019

Amer Delic is the only Fighting Illini tennis player to win an NCAA title in singles, and he posted a 36-5 singles record and helped Illinois to a perfect 32-0 mark during its 2003 NCAA Championship run. He earned All-America honors three times (2001, 2002, and 2003) while also being named All-Big Ten in 2002 and 2003. Delic twice reached the national semifinals in doubles. In 2003, Delic was named the Jesse Owens Big Ten Male Athlete of the Year and Dike Eddleman Illinois Male Athlete of the Year. Born in what is now Bosnia and Herzegovina, he was also captain (2013) and a member of the Bosnia and Herzegovina Davis Cup team after his collegiate career. Delic climbed as high as No. 60 in the world in singles during his professional career, reaching the third round of the Australian Open three times in singles, and the third round of the U.S. Open three times in doubles. Delic works in private wealth management while living with his wife, Anna, in Austin, Texas.

TIM O'DONNELL - CLASS OF 2021

Tim O'Connell was a three-time Big Ten singles champion from 1926-28 while winning the doubles championship twice. He helped Illinois to Big Ten team titles all three years. O'Connell ranks second all-time in Big Ten history with five individual titles and tied for first all-time with three singles titles; individual singles and doubles championships were discontinued in 1986. O'Connell continued his tennis pursuits after graduating from Illinois, earning amateur titles as both a singles and doubles player. He died in 1987 at the age of 82.
