OPENING TIPS

- Illinois travels to Madison to face #11 Wisconsin on Tuesday night at Kohl Center (7:30 p.m. CT, FS1).
- The contest vs. the Badgers is the second game of a six-game span to close the regular season in which the Illini face five Quad 1 matchups against top-25 ranked foes.
- Illinois will play three of its next four games away from State Farm Center. After Wisconsin, the Illini step out of Big Ten play for a marquee Saturday night matchup vs. #3 Duke in the SentinelOne Classic at Madison Square Garden. Following the Feb. 25 home game vs. Iowa, the team travels to #12 Michigan for the penultimate game of the regular season schedule.
- Brad Underwood has led the Illini to nine consecutive wins over Wisconsin, a streak that began on Jan. 8, 2020. The teams met earlier this season in Champaign, an 86-80 Illini victory over the #20 Badgers.
- In Illinoi's 86-80 home win over Wisconsin on Dec. 10, the Illini were led by a career-high 24 points from Kasparas Jakucionis, while Trey White poured in 23 and Kylan Boswell added 19. Jakucionis' game marked the fourth of his program-record six consecutive 20-point games between Nov. 25 and Dec. 22.
- Illinois has won four straight at Kohl Center, the first Big Ten team to accomplish that feat. Illinois has not lost at Wisconsin in six years, since a 64-58 setback on Feb. 18, 2019.
- Illinois is aiming to secure double-digit wins in conference play for a sixth straight season, which would be the program's longest streak since doing so for seven years in a row from 2000 through 2006.
- Illinois is one of the nation's top rebounding teams, leading the NCAA in defensive rebounds per game (30.8 rpg), and ranking second in both total rebounds per game (44.3) and rebound margin (+10.7 rpg).

- Eight of Illinois' wins have come by 20+ points, with three of those games coming on the road. The Illini defeated Eastern Illinois, 112-67 (+45); Oakland, 90-58 (+32); UMES, 87-40 (+47); and Little Rock, 92-34 (+58) all within the first month of the season. Illinois then defeated Chicago State, 117-64 (+53); recorded an historic 109-77 (+32) victory at No. 9 Oregon; earned a 91-52 (+39) home win over Penn State; rolled to a 94-69 (+25) victory at Indiana; and posted 95-74 (+21) win at Minnesota. The Illini have led by 25+ points in 10 games this season.
- Illinois ranks second in the Big Ten with a scoring margin of +12.7 points. That is on pace for No. 4 in the Illini record book since 1960 behind 2004-05 (+15.9 ppg), 2022-23 (+13.0) and 1988-89 (+12.8).
- Illinois is second nationally in rebounding at 44.3 boards per game, on pace for the program's best average in 53 seasons, since (48.0 rpg in 1971-72). The Orange and Blue have outrebounded their opponent in 22 of 26 games this season.
- Illinois is 3-4 against Top-25 ranked teams this season with wins over No. 19 Arkansas, No. 20 Wisconsin, and at No. 9 Oregon. The Illini's three ranked wins are tied for 17th most in the nation. The Illini's final five regular-season games feature matchups against four top-25 opponents.
- Brad Underwood has led the Illini program to Top-25 rankings in seven consecutive seasons. The Illini are currently receiving votes in both the AP and coaches polls. Illinois has been ranked for a total of nine weeks this season, including a streak of seven-consecutive weeks, and has reached as high as 13th.
- Illinois has registered 78 wins in league play since the start of the 2019-20 season, one behind Purdue for the most in the conference over the last six seasons. And when including the conference tournament, the Illini's 83 wins during this time span also rank second in the league behind Boilermakers.
- The Illini won the 2024 Big Ten Tournament championship as the #2 seed, captured the regular season championship in 2022, and led the conference in wins while adding a B1G Tournament crown in 2021, and the team's three total championships during that span are tied with Purdue for the most in the Big Ten.

* = at Illinois

- Following the 2024 Elite Eight appearance and Big Ten Tournament Championship, Illinois has a dramatically different roster this season. The program returns just one rotation player – last year's ninth-leading scorer Dra Gibbs-Lawhorn – and returns just 2.9% of its minutes, 2.2% of its points, and 2.0% of its rebounds overall.
- Newcomers to the Illini roster have accounted for 91.7% of the team's scoring so far (2,009 of 2,192 total points), with UI freshmen accounting for 43.9% of those points (882).
- Illinois' top three scorers, and top three rebounders are all in their first year of collegiate basketball. Freshman G Kasparas Jakucionis ranks first in scoring (16.0 ppg) and third in rebounding (5.5 rpg). Sophomore C Tomislav Ivisic nearly averages a double-double at 12.7 points (second on team) and team-leading 8.5 rebounds. Freshman F Will Riley is the Illini's No. 3 scorer at 11.9 points per game. And Freshman F Morez Johnson Jr. ranks second on the team at 6.6 rebounds per game with a team-leading 70 offensive boards (2.7 per game).
- Eight different Illini players have recorded a 20-point game this season, tied for the top mark in the NCAA, and the most by any Big Ten program since at least 2004-05.
- Three Illini scored 20+ points vs. Penn State - Ben Humrichous (21), Morez Johnson Jr. (20) and Tre White (20). It marked just the third time in the last 35 seasons that Illinois had a game featuring a trio of 20-point scorers.
- Illinois' 32-point road win over #9 Oregon was the largest margin of victory ever by a road team over an AP Top-10 opponent, and the largest road win in Illinois program history against any top-25 opponent.
- In their 109-77 win at #9 Oregon, Illinois became the first Big Ten team since Feb. 9, 1989, to record 100+ points in a Top-10 road win (No. 10 Michigan defeated No. 8 Iowa, 108-107).
- Illinois also posted a dominant 94-69 win at Indiana on Jan. 14. The 25-point margin of victory was the second-largest for a Hoosiers' opponent in Assembly Hall history, while Illinois' 94 points marked the most ever scored by a visiting team in a regulation game at Assembly Hall.

ILLINI PLAYER NOTABLES

Kasparas Jakucionis

- Kasparas Jakucionis has been named to the Oscar Robertson Trophy Midseason Watch List, a Top-10 candidate for the Jerry West Award, a unanimous selection to the five-player Freshman All-America Team by The Athletic, a Midseason All-America third team selection by The Sporting News, a John R. Wooden Award Late Midseason Watch List (top 20) selection, and a Naismith Trophy Men's College Player of the Year Midseason Team selection.
- Jakucionis has 10 20-point games this season, setting the Illini all-time record for 20-point games by a freshman previously held by Cory Bradford who had eight 20-point games as a redshirt freshman in 1998-99.
- Jakucionis scored 20+ points in six straight games from Nov. 25-Dec. 22, shattering the Illini freshman record for consecutive 20-point games (previous record was two).
- Jakucionis became the fourth Big Ten freshman since 1996-97 with at least six-straight 20-point games, and the first to do so since Indiana's Eric Gordon had seven in a row in 2007.
- At 16.0 points per game, Jakucionis is on pace to become the third Illini freshman in program history to average more than 15.0 points per game and break the program record for scoring average by a freshman. Kiwane Garris (15.9 in 1993-94), Cory Bradford (15.4 in 1998-99), and Deon Thomas (15.1 in 1990-91) rank 1-3 on that list.
- Jakucionis has posted four game this season with 20+ points, 6+ rebounds and 5+ assists, tied for fifth nationally with Auburn fifth-year senior Johni Broome, Purdue junior Braden Smith, and Michigan junior Danny Wolf.

- Jakucionis has earned two Big Ten Freshman of the Week honors this season.

Tomislav Ivisic

- Tomislav Ivisic is the No. 6 rebounder in the Big Ten at 8.5 rebounds per game and ranks second in the league at 6.6 defensive rebounds per contest.
- Ivisic has led the Illini rebounding effort in 12 of the 23 games in which he has played.
- Ivisic, classified as sophomore in his first season of collegiate competition, has recorded nine double-doubles through 22 games, ranking third in the Big Ten, tied for 30th in the NCAA overall, and first among power conference underclassmen.
- Ivisic, at 7-1, is one of the nation's top 3-point shooting big men, and has connected on 36 3-pointers this season, fourth on the team behind Ben Humrichous (50), Kasparas Jakucionis (41), and Will Riley (37). Nationally, Ivisic ranks as one of just three 7-footers with at least 30+ 3-pointers made this season, trailing only Stanford senior Maxime Raynaud (46), and his brother Zvonimir Ivisic (41) of Arkansas.

Ben Humrichous

- Ben Humrichous leads the fighting Illini with 50 3-pointers on the season and has knocked down at least one 3-pointer in 23 of 26 games this season.
- Humrichous leads the team, averaging 1.9 triples per contest.

Kylan Boswell

- Kylan Boswell recorded the seventh triple-double in Illinois history and fifth of the Underwood era against Chicago State (Dec. 29), tallying 18 points, career-high 10 rebounds, and career-high 10 assists.
- Boswell scored in double-figures in 12 of 14 games for the Illini between the Dec. 10 vs. Wisconsin (19 points) and Feb. 2 vs. Ohio State (14), including a career-high 22 points in the Illini win at Indiana on Jan. 14. During that 14-game stretch, Boswell averaged 13.9 points (195), 6.3 rebounds (88), and 4.2 assists (59).

Morez Johnson Jr.

- Morez Johnson Jr. is also excelling for the Illini. Over his last 16 games, which includes the first starts of his career in each of the Illini's last eight contests, Johnson is averaging 8.9 points (142) and 6.8 rebounds (109).
- During that 16-game run, beginning with the Illini's Braggin' Rights win vs. Mizzou on Dec. 22, Johnson has recorded a 20-point, 11-rebound double-double in the win over Penn State (Jan. 8), a 15-point, nine-rebound effort in his second-career start vs. Northwestern on Jan. 26, and a 14-point, a 15-rebound double-double in the team's come-from-behind win over Ohio State on Feb. 2, and a 17-point, five-rebound effort vs. #11 Michigan State.
- Johnson, at 6.6 rebounds per game, is just short of Deon Thomas (6.8 rpg in 1990-91) for the third-best freshman mark in Illini history. Kofi Cockburn set the record holds the record at 8.8 rpg as a freshman in 2019-20, and Efrem Winters posted an average of 6.9 rpg in 1982-83.
- Through 26 games, Johnson has recorded a team-leading 29 total blocks, tied for fourth in the Illini freshman record book with James Griffin (1978-79). Johnson is on pace to finish his freshman season third among Illini freshmen all-time behind only Deon Thomas (54 in 1990-91) and Kofi Cockburn (44 in 2019-20).

Will Riley

- Will Riley opened his Illini career by breaking the program's scoring record for a freshman debut with 31 points to go with seven rebounds and three assists in the team's season-opening win vs. Eastern Illinois.
- Riley has led the Fighting Illini in scoring seven times, all in a reserve roll, providing a vital scoring threat off the bench. He has scored in double-figures in six straight games heading into Tuesday's matchup at #11 Wisconsin, averaging 18.0 points, 4.8 rebounds, and 3.8 assists per game, during that run.
- Riley posted an historic outing in the team's win at Minnesota (Feb. 8), becoming the only freshman in the nation since at least 1996-97 to record a game with 27+ points, 9+ rebounds, and 7+ assists without a turnover.
- Riley has earned three BIG Freshman of the Week awards this season.

Tre White

- After opening the year averaging 7.1 points and 5.0 rebounds in eight games, Tre White found a rhythm on the court for the Illini. Beginning with a 23-point, 8 rebound effort vs. #20 Wisconsin on Dec. 10, White averaged 12.1 points (157) and 6.2 rebounds (80) the team's next 13 games, scoring in double figures seven times.

Dra Gibbs-Lawhorn

- Dra Gibbs-Lawhorn has continued to make a big impact for the Illini in his sophomore season. Over 13 games between Dec. 22 vs. Missouri and Feb. 5 vs. Rutgers, Gibbs-Lawhorn averaged 10.0 points (130) while shooting 52.2% (48-92) from the field.
- During that run, Gibbs-Lawhorn made the first start two starts of his collegiate career vs. Ohio State (Feb. 2) and at Rutgers (Feb. 5). Against Ohio State, he was key to the Illini's 87-79 come-from-behind victory, posting 10 points highlighted by a momentum-shifting steal and run-out dunk that capped a 12-2 run to pull the Illini to within one possession after OSU's lead had reached 11 points.
- Gibbs-Lawhorn has posted eight double-digit scoring games this season, seven of which came during that key stretch of games for the Illini: 16 vs. Chicago State, 11 at Oregon, 11 vs. USC, 12 at Indiana, 15 vs. Maryland, 15 at Nebraska, and 10 vs. Ohio State.

Jake Davis

- Jake Davis has made an impact for the Illini off the bench since just before the New Year. After totaling just eight points and seven rebounds in his first his nine games as an Illini, Davis has averaged 4.9 points (72) and 2.1 rebounds (31) over his last 15 games since Dec. 29 vs. Chicago State.
- Davis was vital to the Illini's big win at then-No. 9 Oregon on Jan. 2, posting a season-high 12 points and with three rebounds in the road win in Eugene.

RILEY'S PERFORMANCE AT MINNESOTA STANDS ALONE

- Freshman Will Riley posted a stat line of 27 points, nine rebounds, and seven assists while committing no turnovers in 31 minutes of action to help lead the Fighting Illini to a 95-74 road win at Minnesota on Feb. 8.
- Riley became the ninth NCAA Div. I player overall, and one of just three in a power-conference matchup, to record a line of 27+ points, 9+ rebounds, and 7+ assists without a turnover in the last 29 seasons dating back to 1996-97.

- Among that group, Riley is the only player to accomplish those thresholds in a game during his freshman season.

RANKED OPPONENTS ON THE ILLINI SCHEDULE

- Based on the most recent AP Top 25 poll released Feb. 10, the Illini are slated to close the season with games against ranked opponents in five of their last six contests.
- The Illini are 3-4 in games against ranked opponents, falling to #8 Alabama, 100-87, on Nov. 20 in Birmingham, Ala., before a 90-77 victory over #19 Arkansas in Kansas City on Thanksgiving Day, and an 86-80 home win over #20 Wisconsin on Dec. 10. Illinois lost a home game to #1 Tennessee, 64-62, on Dec. 14, posted a dominant 109-77 road win over #9 Oregon on Jan. 2, and dropped games at #12 Michigan State (70-68) on Jan. 19, and vs. the #11-ranked Spartans at home (79-65).
- Illinois is 199-302 all-time against ranked opponents, including a 97-86 mark at home (84-78 at State Farm Center), 43-149 on the road, and 59-67 at neutral sites.
- In addition to the ranked matchups vs. Alabama and Arkansas, the Illini are also scheduled to play a neutral-site nonconference game vs. #3 Duke, Feb. 22 in the SentinelOne Classic at Madison Square Garden in New York.
- In conference play, the Illini are 2-2 in matchups vs. Big Ten ranked opponents following the wins over #20 Wisconsin on Dec. 10 and at #Oregon on Jan. 2 before the team's two losses to ranked Michigan State.
- Based on the current AP Top 25, the Illini's remaining schedule includes ranked conference games vs. at #11 Wisconsin (Feb. 18), at #12 Michigan (March 2), and vs. #13 Purdue (March 7).

THE B1G'S BEST

- Illinois ranks second in the Big Ten in conference wins since the start of the 2019-20 season with a 78-38 (.672) league record (through games played 2/12/25).

Big Ten Wins (Since 2019-20)

1.	Purdue	79
2.	Illinois	78
3.	Wisconsin	69
4.	Michigan State	66
5.	Iowa	63

- The Illini won the 2024 Big Ten Tournament championship as the #2 seed, captured the regular season championship in 2022, and led the conference in wins while adding a B1G Tournament crown in 2021. Illinois' three conference championships since 2020-21 are the tied for first in the league over the last four seasons.

B1G Titles Since 2020-21

1.	Illinois	3 total* (1 regular season, 2 tournament)
	Purdue	3 total (2 regular season, 1 tournament)
3.	Wisconsin	1 total (1 regular season)
	Iowa	1 total (1 tournament)
	Michigan	1 total (1 regular season*)

* Illinois (16-4) played the full B1G schedule during the 2021 season, winning two more games than Michigan (14-3), but U-M was given the league's regular-season championship by virtue of an edge in win percentage of 24 thousandths of a point.

- Illinois' 33 Big Ten road wins since 2019-20 lead the conference:

Big Ten Road Wins (Since 2019-20)

1.	Illinois	33
2.	Purdue	30
3.	Wisconsin	29
4.	Michigan State	25
	Michigan	25

- Including the Big Ten Tournament, Illinois has also recorded the second-most overall wins against B1G opponents since 2019-20.

Big Ten Regulars Season + Tournament Wins (Since 2019-20)

1.	Purdue	85
2.	Illinois	84
3.	Wisconsin	73
4.	Michigan State	69
	Iowa	68

WINNING B1G

- Illinois' performance in conference play during the Brad Underwood era has reached historic levels of success. The Illini recorded 69 Big Ten wins the previous five years, a mark that not only leads the league, but also is the most in school history over any five-year stretch, six more than the next best run:

Illinois' Most Big Ten Conference Wins in a Five-Year Period

- 1. 69 – 2020 (13), 2021 (16), 2022 (15), 2023 (11), 2024 (14) – Brad Underwood
- 2. 63 – 2001 (13), 2002 (11), 2003 (11), 2004 (13), 2005 (15) – Bill Self (3) & Bruce Weber (2)

2024-25 ROSTER AT A GLANCE

- Illinois has a dramatically different roster for the 2024-25 season.
- With Ty Rodgers choosing to redshirt, Dra Gibbs-Lawhorn is the only returning scholarship player that is expected to contribute for the Illini. Gibbs-Lawhorn is now one of only three contributors from last year's roster returning, along with a walk-ons in AJ Redd, who appeared in 10 games, and Keaton Kutcher, who did not play as a redshirt last season.
- Overall, Illinois returns just 2.9% of its minutes, 2.2% of its points, and 2.0% of its rebounds from last season.
- The coaching staff acquired talent from all areas to reload the roster with five Division I transfers, three from high-major conferences, and signed five newcomers, which includes three international recruits, for a total of 10 new players on its 14-man roster.
- After featuring six seniors in its rotation last season, Illinois has just one senior on this year's roster in graduate student Ben Humrichous.

2023-24 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

- Illinois had another strong campaign under head coach Brad Underwood, compiling a 29-9 record to mark the third-winningest season in program history.
- Illinois won the 2024 Big Ten Tournament championship, the team's third conference title in the last four seasons after also claiming the 2021 Big Ten Tournament championship and the 2022 regular-season title.

- The Illini advanced to the NCAA East Regional Final, marking the UI's first Elite Eight appearance since 2005.
- The Illini ended the year No. 6 in the AP poll, its second top-10 finish in the last four years.

ILLINI ADD LEE, WAGLER DURING EARLY SIGNING PERIOD

- Illinois announced the signings of two four-star recruits - Brandon Lee, 6-foot-4, 180-pound guard from Hillside, New Jersey, and Keaton Wagler, a 6-foot-6, 180-pound guard from Shawnee, Kansas - during the November Early Signing Period.
- Lee joins the Illini from The Patrick Schools where he is ranked No. 89 overall by Rivals, No. 101 by 247Sports and No. 121 by On3. He is the top-ranked player in the state of New Jersey, and the No. 18 shooting guard in the 2025 class by 247Sports.
- Lee also plays for the New York Rens AAU program. He was the third-leading scorer in the EYBL, averaging 23 points, and was named Breakout MVP of the 17U division by The Circuit. At Peach Jam, he averaged 18.8 points and 3.4 rebounds.
- Lee has international experience as well, starring for Puerto Rico at the FIBA U18 AmeriCup in June. He led Puerto Rico in scoring at 13.3 points per game and registered 22 points in the quarterfinals vs. Team USA.
- Wagler is rated No. 150 overall (#28 shooting guard) by 247Sports in the 2025 class.
- Wagler attends Shawnee Mission Northwest High School. He averaged 12.5 points, 5.9 rebounds, and 3.5 assists as a junior, shooting 52% from the field, 50% from 3-point range, and 80% from the free throw line.
- Wagler led SM Northwest to a perfect 25-0 season and the 2024 Kansas Class 6A championship, the first state title in school history. He earned first-team all-state honors in Class 6A by the Kansas Basketball Coaches Association and second-five distinction in the all-state top 15 covering all classes by the Kansas State High School Activities Association.

PRESEASON ACCOLADES FOR RILEY

- Illini freshman Will Riley is one of 20 watch list candidates for the 2025 Karl Malone Award, named after the Class of 2010 Hall of Famer and two-time NBA Most Valuable Player, which recognizes the top power forwards in Division I men's college basketball.
- Riley is one of two freshmen among the 20 candidates, with Syracuse's Donnie Freeman.
- He was listed in the top-10 rankings for the 2025 class before re-classifying to 2024 and joining the Fighting Illini as a freshman this season.
- Riley is the highest ranked recruit signed by Illinois in the internet era, surpassing Dee Brown from the Class of 2002 (No. 19).

JAKUCIONIS STARS FOR LITHUANIA AT U18 EUROBASKET

- Freshman G Kasparas Jakucionis starred for his native Lithuania at the FIBA U18 Eurobasket Championship, July 27-Aug. 4 in Tampere, Finland.
- Jakucionis averaged 19.4 points, 4.3 rebounds, and 5.3 assists, helping Lithuania to a sixth-place finish.
- In the team's matchup vs. France on Aug. 4, Jakucionis poured in a game-high 37 points and dished out a team-leading seven assists.

JOHNSON CAPTURES GOLD WITH USA BASKETBALL

- Fighting Illini incoming freshman Morez Johnson Jr. helped the USA Basketball Men's U18 National Team to its seventh consecutive gold medal at the 2024 FIBA AmeriCup in June.
- Johnson and Team USA capped a dominant 6-0 record on June 9 with a 110-70 victory over host Argentina in the final.
- Johnson finished as the top rebounder in the tournament, at 9.0 boards per contest including 2.7 per game on the offensive glass. He also averaged 8.0 points on 62.1% shooting and swatted 1.2 blocks per game, all in 13.6 minutes per contest.

- Johnson's 54 total rebounds ranked as the third-most on the all-time list for the USA U18 team in a single tournament. In USA's 150-54 victory over Belize in the group phase, Johnson recorded only the second 15-point, 15-rebound game for the USA U18 team since 2006. Two games later, in the squad's 99-66 victory over Puerto Rico in the quarterfinals, Johnson recorded 17 boards to tie the USA U18 record and added 10 points for his second double-double of the tournament. He poured in 10 points vs. Canada in the semifinals to help Team USA advance to the championship game and closed out his week with seven points and seven rebounds vs. Argentina in the gold medal contest.

ANTIGUA REJOINS ILLINI STAFF

- Head coach Brad Underwood made a big splash this offseason, bringing Orlando Antigua back to the program as the Fighting Illini's Associate Head Coach.
- A 21-year coaching veteran, Antigua is widely regarded as the nation's preeminent recruiter and one of the top frontcourt player development mentors in the country.
- It is Antigua's second stint at Illinois, after first coming to Champaign on Underwood's original staff from 2017-21.
- Antigua spent the last three seasons at Kentucky where he helped the Wildcats to a 71-30 record from 2021-24, recording at least 22 wins in each of the three years and making three NCAA Tournament appearances.

JONES ELEVATED TO ASSISTANT COACH

- Brad Underwood has elevated Kwa Jones to assistant coach, filling that role on a temporary basis.
- Jones returned to the Illini staff in July 2023 as director of recruiting and scouting.
- He began his coaching career at Illinois as a graduate manager before serving one year as video coaching associate with the Sacramento Kings followed by two years as director of operations at Stephen F. Austin.

SHANNON & DOSUNMU REPPING IN NBA, STATE FARM CENTER RAFTERS

- For the second time in four seasons, a Fighting Illini All-American guard from Chicago was drafted into the NBA and will be immortalized by having his jersey raised to the State Farm Center rafters.
- Following one of the greatest single seasons in program history in 2023-24, Terrence Shannon Jr. was selected by the Minnesota Timberwolves with the No. 27 overall pick in the first round of the 2024 NBA Draft in June.
- Shannon became the second player of Head Coach Brad Underwood's tenure to be drafted, meanwhile, following Ayo Dosunmu's selection by the Chicago Bulls in the second round (No. 38 overall) of the 2021 draft.
- Shannon joins Dosunmu and Kofi Cockburn as the third player of the Underwood era, and 36th player in Illini men's basketball history, to be recognized as part of the Illinois Basketball Honored Jerseys program. He will return to Champaign on Feb. 15 for the Michigan State game, participating in the raising of his jersey during a halftime ceremony.
- Shannon was named an All-American by four media outlets after helping lead Illinois to 29 wins, the third-winningest season in school history, and No. 6 ranking in final AP poll. He earned NCAA All-Region Team honors, leading Illinois to its first Elite Eight since 2005, and was named the B1G Tournament Most Outstanding Player, starring as Illinois won its third conference title in four years. A first-team All-B1G selection by the coaches, media, and AP, Shannon shattered the Illinois all-time single season scoring record, totaling 736 points (first Illini ever to top 700 points), ranked third in the NCAA in scoring at 23.0 ppg, the highest scoring average by an Illini player in 51 years, set the Big Ten Tournament's three-game scoring record with an astounding 34.0 points-per-game average (102 total), and set Illinois single-season records for 20-point games (21) and made free throws (221).

- Dosunmu, now in his fifth season with the Bulls, averaged 20.1 points, 6.3 rebounds and 5.3 assists during his final season at Illinois, becoming the first NCAA player since 2010 and just the second Big Ten player since 1993 to average at least 20 points, six rebounds and five assists. He accumulated the most impressive single-season list of accolades ever by an Illini player, highlighted by USA Today National Player of the Year, Bob Cousy Point Guard of the Year, and consensus first-team All-American.

HEAD COACH BRAD UNDERWOOD

8TH YEAR AT ILLINOIS // 12TH YEAR AS DIV. I HEAD COACH // 37TH YEAR IN COACHING

Brad Underwood has reinvigorated Illinois Basketball, bringing the Fighting Illini back to the national stage and building a championship program during his tenure in Champaign.

Underwood is the 18th head coach in Illinois history, hired in March 2017 as the Richmond Family Endowed Men's Head Basketball Coach. He has won nearly 69 percent of his games during his 11 years as a Division I head coach, recording nine 20-win seasons. Underwood has made eight appearances in the NCAA Tournament, with a ninth precluded by the cancellation of the 2020 postseason due to COVID-19.

Illinois hoisted a conference trophy for the third time in four years in 2024, winning the Big Ten Tournament Championship in Minneapolis. Underwood became the first Illinois coach to win multiple Big Ten Tournaments, claiming two in a span of just four years. That followed a runner-up finish during the regular season where the Illini went 14-6 in conference play.

The Illini were 29-9 overall in Underwood's seventh year at the helm, with the 29 victories ranking as the third-winningest season in the 118-year history of the program. Illinois earned a No. 3 seed in the NCAA Tournament and won three games to advance to the East Regional Final, marking the program's first Elite Eight appearance since 2005. Upon making his first trip to the NCAA second weekend, Underwood led the Orange and Blue to a victory over No. 2 seed Iowa State in the Sweet 16 as Illinois recorded just its second NCAA Tournament win ever over a top-two seed.

Illinois ended the year at No. 6 in the Associated Press poll, marking its second top-10 final ranking in four years and fourth top-25 finish over the last five years. The 2023-24 offense was Illinois' most efficient in the kenpom era, placing third nationally at 1.255 points per possession. The Illini averaged 83.4 points per game, its highest scoring average in the last 30 years.

The Big Ten has been the nation's preeminent conference in recent years. It was ranked No. 1 by kenpom in 2020 and 2021, received a league-record nine NCAA Tournament bids in 2021 and 2022, led all conferences once again with eight tournament bids in 2023, and sent six teams to the NAAs in 2024. Yet no team has fared better during this stretch than the Fighting Illini, who are 69-31 (.690) in Big Ten play the last five years of the Underwood era. Illinois owns the most wins in league play over the last five seasons (69), as well as the most regular season and conference tournament wins combined (75).

The 69 victories in conference play marks the winningest five-year run in school history, with Underwood claiming Illinois' two all-time winningest Big Ten seasons (16 in 2021, 15 in 2022), three of the top five (14 in 2024), and four of the top eight (13 in 2020) during this stretch.

Illinois has now recorded at least 20 wins and a winning record in B1G play in five straight seasons for the first time since doing so eight years in a row from 1999-2000 through 2006-07. The Illini are also part of an elite group nationally, standing as one of just five schools to post 20-win regular seasons in each of the last five years.

Illinois had another successful season in Underwood's sixth year in Champaign. Despite replacing all five regular starters, its top five leading scorers, and a total of 10 players from the previous year's Big Ten championship squad, Illinois went 20-13 overall and finished fifth in the Big Ten (11-9) in 2023, securing a third straight NCAA Tournament bid and fourth straight 20-win season.

Illinois ranked in the bottom 25 nationally in minutes continuity from last year. Of those last 25 teams, Illinois was the only one to earn a bid in the 2023 NCAA tournament. The Illini were one of just two teams with multiple kenpom top-10 non-conference wins away from home, posting dramatic comeback wins over UCLA in Las Vegas and Texas at Madison Square Garden.

Underwood led Illinois to the 2022 Big Ten championship in year five, navigating a challenging schedule with a frequently depleted roster to post a 15-5 league record and earn the school's first regular season conference title in 17 years. Illinois went 23-10 overall as Underwood recorded his third-straight 20-plus win season. Illinois ended the year at No. 19 in the AP poll to register a third-straight Top 25 finish, the program's longest streak since 2000-06.

Illinois was a No. 4 seed in the 2022 NCAA Tournament, becoming one of just six programs to receive top-4 seeds over the two-year stretch after earning a No. 1 seed in 2021. Illinois was one of just 12 schools to advance to the Round of 32 in both the 2021 and 2022 NCAA Tournaments, which marked Illinois' first time advancing in consecutive NCAA Tournaments in 16 years.

Underwood's fourth Illini team in 2021 put together one of the best seasons in school history, ending the year ranked No. 2 in the final AP poll, winning the Big Ten Tournament championship, and earning a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament.

Illinois went 16-4 in conference play to mark its winningest Big Ten season ever. Illinois led the Big Ten in victories while playing the full conference schedule, but missed out on the regular season title due to an unequal number of games played creating a win percentage differential of .024. The Illini went on to win the Big Ten Tournament, earning the program's first conference tournament title since 2005.

Illinois earned the fourth NCAA Tournament No. 1 seed in school history after winning 14 of 15 games over a two-month stretch leading into NCAA March Madness. The remarkable run included seven wins over ranked teams, with five coming against top-10 foes.

Illinois defeated No. 2 Michigan, 76-53, in Ann Arbor on March 2, recording its highest ranked road win in program history. The 23-point margin was the largest victory in the NCAA on the road over a top-2 team since 1995. Four days later, the Illini won at No. 7 Ohio State to notch its first back-to-back wins over top-10 teams since 2005.

Not finished with that accomplishment, Illinois again defeated back-to-back top-10 opponents the following week at the Big Ten Tournament, beating No. 5 Iowa in the semifinal and No. 9 Ohio State in the championship to win the title.

Brad and his wife, Susan, have a son, Tyler, and two daughters, Katie and Ashley. Tyler, who played four seasons for the Illini while earning three degrees, is an assistant coach on the Illinois staff. Katie also is a U of I graduate, and Ashley graduated from Miami-Ohio.

Game 1 Recap — Illinois 112, Eastern Illinois 67

Five Fighting Illini scorers finished in double figures, including a team-leading 31-point performance from freshman Will Riley, as Illinois cruised to a season-opening 112-67 win over Eastern Illinois at State Farm Center.

Riley set the Illinois record for points in a freshman debut, going 10-for-13 from the field, including 5-for-6 from 3-point range. He was joined in double-figures scoring by sophomore Dra Gibbs-Lawhorn who poured in a career-high 21 points with a career-best four three-pointers and a 7-for-8 mark from the free-throw line.

Behind Riley and Gibbs-Lawhorn, Tomislav Ivisic registered a double-double of 14 points and 14 rebounds in his collegiate debut, Ben Humrichous finished with 14 points in his debut with the Orange and Blue, and Kasparas Jakucionis totaled 11 points and a team-high seven assists.

Jakucionis seven assists also marked an Illinois record for a freshman debut, and Morez Johnson Jr. tied the Illini's freshman record for blocks in a single game with six.

Illinois' 112 points were the program's most in a game since Nov. 25, 2020 vs. North Carolina A&T (122), and the 45-point victory marked the ninth time in the Underwood era that the team has eclipsed the century mark.

The Illini enjoyed a 58-28 rebounding advantage that led to a 26-4 edge in second-chance points. The Orange and Blue also knocked down 16 3-pointers, and went 34-for-46 from the free-throw line, the team's most makes at the charity stripe since also recording 34 free-throws in 2017 vs. Southern.

Led by Riley and Gibbs-Lawhorn, the Illini bench outscored the EIU reserves, 63-19.

The Illini improved to 8-0 in openers in under Underwood, and have won 28 straight games when opening the season at State Farm Center dating back to 1993.

Game 2 Recap — Illinois 90, SIUE 58

Illinois improve to 2-0 with a 90-58 home win over SIUE at State Farm Center behind a balanced scoring attack and several standout performances.

For the second straight game, five Illini scorers finished in double figures, while Kasparas Jakucionis recorded a double-double with 12 points and 13 assists, becoming the first freshman to register a double-double since 2021, and the first Illinois rookie with a points-assists double-double since 2008.

Jakucionis' 13 assists tied the program's freshman single-game record, and he came two rebounds shy of a triple-double. He also made one steal and went 9-for-10 from the free-throw line.

Tomislav Ivisic reached double figures for the second straight game, tallying a team-high 18 points and corralling seven rebounds. Starting 4-for-4 from the field, Ivisic also dished out one assist and went 4-for-5 from the free-throw line.

Ben Humrichous tied his career-high with five 3-pointers to post 15 points, two rebound and two assists. Tre White also registered a career-high with three 3-pointers while finishing with 13 points, five rebounds, one assist, one steal, and one block.

Will Riley, coming off his Illinois freshman debut recor of 31 points vs. EIU, continued his strong start with 14 points and seven rebounds.

Morez Johnson added five points, and tied Jakucionis for the team lead with eight rebounds, while adding another block to his team-leading total of seven through two games.

As a team, the Illini recorded assists on 23 of 28 field goals and knocked down 15-of-38 attempts from 3-point range. The Orange and Blue also posted a 30-19 advantage in bench scoring to seal the 32-point victory over the Cougars.

Game 3 Recap – Illinois 66, Oakland 54

Illinois improved to 3-0 with a gritty 66-54 home win over Oakland.

Tomislav Ivisic led the Illini in scoring for the second-consecutive contest, tallying a career-high 20 points on 9-for-14 shooting. Ivisic recorded a career-best four steals, and corralled six rebounds to tie Ben Humrichous and Kasparas Jakucionis for the team lead.

Humrichous added 10 points, including a pair of 3-pointers, to go with his six boards and one block. It marked his third straight game in double-figures scoring to begin his Illini career.

Kylan Boswell scored a season-high eight points, including two 3-pointers, and Will Riley and Dra Gibbs-Lawhorn totaled eight points and seven points, respectively, off the bench.

The Illini built a 22-9 lead midway through the first half. A 10-0 Oakland run cut the Orange and Blue advantage to just 22-19 at the 7:47 mark of the first, and the Illini went into the locker room leading 36-29.

Oakland cut its deficit to just two points early in the second half, but the Illini's lead was not in singles digits for long. An 11-0 run gave Illinois a 53-38 lead with just over 12 minutes remaining. Five different scorers accounted for points during that stretch, which saw the Illini hold the Golden Grizzlies scoreless for over four minutes.

A late 7-0 run for the Illini helped the hosts take their largest lead of the game, 66-49, and the Orange and Blue closed out the victory to improve to 3-0.

Game 5 Recap — #25 Illinois 87, Maryland Eastern Shore 40

No. 25 Illinois remained undefeated at State Farm Center this season with an 87-40 win over Maryland Eastern Shore.

Will Riley led the Illini in scoring with a team-high 19 points, going 7-for-11 from the field after going scoreless in the first half. Riley also tallied three rebounds, one assist, and one block.

Morez Johnson Jr. posted the first double-double of his collegiate career, finishing with career-high marks in both points and rebounds. Johnson's 10-point, 13-rebound performance also saw him total eight offensive boards and one block.

Kylan Boswell ended the afternoon with 13 points, four rebounds, and two assists. Tre White added six points and season-high 11 rebounds.

The Illini opened the game with a 6-0 run, holding the Hawks scoreless for over three minutes to start the game. UMES tied the game with 12:21 remaining in the first half, but Illinois did not let that last very long. A 17-0 run ensued over the next seven-and-a-half minutes, which featured points from five different scorers and saw the Orange and Blue take a 25-8 edge.

After the Hawks cut their deficit to 13 with two minutes left in the first half, the Illini closed the opening frame with a 7-0 run, which sent the home side into halftime with a 35-15 advantage.

A 13-2 run to open the second half extended the Illini's lead to 48-17 with 14:25 to play. The hosts' defense was a big factor in that stretch, which saw the Orange and Blue hold the Hawks without a field goal for over eight minutes between the first and second halves.

Just over two minutes later, the Illini strung together an 18-0 run to push their advantage up to 46 with just over eight minutes left to play. The Illini's lead climbed as high as 52, and they closed out the win to move to 4-0 at home this season.

Game 6 Recap — Illinois 92, Little Rock 34

Illinois cruised to a 92-34 victory over Little Rock at State Farm Center on Monday night as head coach Brad Underwood moved into a tie for fifth place on the program's all-time coaching wins list.

The Fighting Illini's 34 points allowed tied the program record for the fewest points by an opponent at State Farm Center.

Kasparas Jakucionis recorded a career-high 21 points, including a career-best three 3-pointers on four attempts and an 8-for-8 performance at the free-throw line. He also tacked on six rebounds, five assists, and three steals.

Tomislav Ivisic secured his third double-double, totaling 16 points and matching Morez Johnson Jr. with a game-high 11 rebounds. Ivisic went 7-for-10 from the field, dished out three assists, and added a pair of steals.

Tre White recorded double-digit points for the second time this year, finishing with a season-high 16. White went 4-for-4 from the free-throw line, and also totaled eight rebounds and two steals.

Will Riley added 13 points with three 3-pointers off the bench for his third consecutive outing in double-figures scoring.

Kylan Boswell registered a team-most seven assists.

Illinois dominated the glass, winning the rebounding margin, 56-26. The Illini used a 23-0 run over an eight-minute stretch in the first half to pull away and never looked back en route to the 58-point home victory.

Game 7 Recap – Illinois 90, #19 Arkansas 77

Illinois earned its first ranked win of the season with a 90-77 victory over No. 19 Arkansas at the Thanksgiving Hoops Classic on Thursday evening. The Illini never trailed in the team's 13-point victory over the ranked Razorbacks at T-Mobile Center in Kansas City, Mo.

Tomislav Ivisic - playing against his twin brother, Arkansas' Zvonimir Ivisic, for the first time - posted his fourth double-double of the season, finishing with 21 points and 10 rebounds. Ivisic made a career-high six 3-pointers, to go with three blocks, two steals, and two assists.

Kasparas Jakucionis registered a career-best 23 points, including 15 in the second half. Jakucionis went 7-for-13 from the field and 7-for-8 from the free-throw line, and he totaled six rebounds and four assists.

Kylan Boswell poured in a season-high 18 points while shooting an efficient 6-for-10 from the field. Boswell dished out a team-high six assists, grabbed five rebounds, and made one block and one steal.

The Fighting Illini never trailed in the contest, opening the game on an 11-0 run - fueled by a pair of early Ivisic 3-pointers - and never looked back.

After Kylan Boswell knocked down a triple, Morez Johnson Jr. accounted for the Orange and Blue's next four points before Humrichous hit his second 3-pointer of the evening to extend the team's lead to 21-6.

The Razorbacks cut the Illini lead to nine points four times in the first half and twice more in the second frame, but Illinois responded each time to push the lead back to double digits, never allowing Arkansas to fully challenge hold on the outcome.

Illinois outrebounded Arkansas 34-31, and the 13-point victory marked the largest margin of victory for an unranked Illinois team vs. a top-25 foe under head coach Brad Underwood.

Game 9 Recap — Illinois 86, #20 Wisconsin 80

Illinois fended off a late Badgers rally to secure its first Big Ten win of the season with an 86-80 victory over No. 20 Wisconsin at State Farm Center on Tuesday night. The win was the second of the year over a ranked opponent for the Illini, who moved to 6-0 at State Farm Center on the year.

Illinois received big games from its trio of starting guards - Kasparas Jakucionis, Kylan Boswell, and Tre White - and a near double-double from Tomislav Ivisic.

Jakucionis registered a game-high and career-most 24 points, his fourth-consecutive outing with at least 20 points. Shooting 8-for-15 from the field and 4-for-8 from beyond the arc, Jakucionis also totaled six rebounds, five assists, and one steal.

White scored a season-best 23 point, going 6-for-8 from the field, 2-3 from 3-point range, and 9-for-10 from the free-throw line, White finished with eight rebounds, including four on the offensive glass, and a block.

Boswell posted a season-most 19 points, and he accumulated six assists, four rebounds, and two steals.

Ivisic recorded nine points and grabbed 11 rebounds, his fourth-straight game with double-digit boards.

The game was a back-and-forth affair for throughout most of the contest, resulting in five ties and a season-high five lead changes.

Illinois used a 13-2 run between 16:22 and the 12:51 mark of the second half to turn a tied game into a 59-49 advantage. Wisconsin climbed back to within four points four times over the last 10 minutes of action, including in the final 20 seconds, but the Illini answered the call each time, aided by a 17-for-20 showing from the free-throw line in the second half.

Game 10 Recap — #1 Tennessee 66, Illinois 64

The Fighting Illini battled No. 1 Tennessee at sold-out State Farm Center, falling, 66-64, on a last-second Volunteers bucket as time expired.

After a back-and-forth contest that featured 13 lead changes, freshman guard Kasparas Jakucionis tied the game for the 14th time, 64-64, at the free-throw line with five seconds remaining. Jakucionis finished 10-for-14 from the free-throw line.

Tennessee inbounding the ball off the made free throw, and senior guard Jordan Gainey raced up the court for to convert the game-winning layup as time expired.

Jakucionis surpassed the 20-point mark for the fifth-straight game, finishing with a team-high 22 points, while adding three rebounds, two assists, and one steal.

Tre White recorded 11 points, his fourth outing of the season in double figures, while Kylan Boswell and Will Riley each added 10 points. Boswell also grabbed seven rebounds, while Riley corralled five boards.

Tomislav Ivisic led the Illini with 12 rebounds, his fifth consecutive game (seventh overall), with double-figures boards.

Game 11 Recap — Illinois 80, Missouri 77

The Fighting Illini brought Braggin' Rights back to Champaign for the second straight year with a thrilling 80-77 victory over rival Missouri at Enterprise Center in St. Louis.

Kasparas Jakucionis made the game-winning basket with 28 seconds remaining to clinch the Illini victory. Jakucionis posted his sixth-consecutive 20-point effort, finishing with a game-high 21 points. He also made three 3-pointers, dished out four assists, and went 8-for-8 from the free-throw line.

In addition to Jakucionis, three other Illini scored in double-figures. Kylan Boswell posted 16 points while going 11-for-12 from the charity stripe and adding nine rebounds and a game-high five assists. Tomislav Ivisic secured his sixth double-double of the season with 11 points and 10 rebounds, while adding two blocks. Tre White ended the afternoon with 13 points and eight rebounds. Morez Johnson Jr. added six points and eight rebounds (five offensive). His eight rebounds tied for the most by a freshman in a Braggin' Rights game.

The Fighting Illini went 22-for-23 from the free-throw line, and they took advantage of their dominance on the glass by scoring 13 second-chance points on 12 offensive boards. The Orange and Blue won the overall rebounding battle, 42-30.

Illinois overcame an early 7-2 deficit to open the game, and led by as many as six points, 22-16, just more than midway through the opening period. Mizzou regained the lead, 28-24, at the 4:48 mark, but the Orange and Blue closed the half on a 13-4 run to lead 37-32 at the break.

Illinois' lead reached as many as 10 points, 67-57, at the 6:33 mark of the second half. But Mizzou used an 11-0 run to retake the lead, 68-67, with four minutes to play. A pair of Boswell free-throws gave the Illini a 77-75 lead with 56 seconds to play, and Jakucionis' turnaround jumper at the 28-second mark gave the Illini their final lead, 79-77, before Boswell's final free-throw closed the scoring with eight seconds left.

Game 12 Recap — #24 Illinois 117, Chicago State 64

No. 24 Illinois closed the calendar year with a dominant 117-64 win over Chicago State at State Farm Center. Never trailing in the contest, the Fighting Illini surpassed the 100-point mark for the second time this season in the team's final home nonconference game of the campaign.

Kylan Boswell secured the seventh triple-double in program history, filling the box score with 18 points, 10 rebounds, and 10 assists. Setting new career-best marks in rebounds and assists, Boswell posted the first triple-double of his career after scoring in double figures for the fourth-consecutive game.

Tomislav Ivisic scored a career-high 23 points while shooting 9-for-12 from the field. Connecting on three 3-pointers, Ivisic equaled his season-best output with five assists, and he grabbed four rebounds and made two blocks.

Morez Johnson Jr. also set a new career-best scoring mark, finishing with 11 points while going 4-for-5 from the field. He also corralled eight rebounds and made two blocks and a career-high three steals.

Scoring in double figures for the seventh-straight game, Kasparas Jakucionis totaled 14 points on an efficient 6-for-8 clip. He also accumulated four assists, four rebounds, and a steal.

Dra Gibbs-Lawhorn also finished in double figures, accumulating 16 points while shooting 7-for-9 and 2-for-4 from 3-point range. Gibbs-Lawhorn tallied two of his three rebounds on the offensive glass and made two steals.

Will Riley posted his eighth outing with double-digit points, adding 13 points and four rebounds off the bench.

The win marked No. 152 at Illinois for head coach Brad Underwood, moving him into sole possession of fourth on the program's all-time head coaching wins list.

Game 13 Recap – #22 Illinois 109, #9 Oregon 77

No. 22 Illinois used balanced scoring and an efficient offensive performance to fly past No. 9 Oregon, 109-77, at Matthew Knight Arena on Thursday night.

The victory marked the Fighting Illini's first road win over a top-10 team since 2021, while the Orange and Blue surpassed the 100-point scoring mark away from home for the first time since 2016.

Shooting 57.5% from the field and 55.2% from 3-point range, the Illini had six scorers finish in double figures in the emphatic 32-point road triumph, the largest by a road team in a win vs. a top-10 ranked team in NCAA history.

Tre White secured his first double-double of the season with 20 points and 11 rebounds. White also ended his night with career-high marks in assists (4) and blocks (2).

Ben Humrichouse added 18 points, including four 3-pointers, while Kyran Boswell poured in 15 points on 4-for-5 shooting from 3-point range.

Kasparas Jakucionis 16 points, six rebounds, six assists, and a steal. After dealing with foul trouble in the first half, Jakucionis went 6-for-8 from the field and registering all 16 of his points across the final 20 minutes of play.

Jake Davis poured in a season-high 12 points. Going 5-for-6 from the field, Davis made two 3-pointers and registered all of his scoring in the first half while grabbing two of his three rebounds on the offensive glass.

Dra Gibbs-Lawhorn (11 points) reached double-figures for the second straight game, all coming in the first half, and Tomislav Ivisic logged eight points and eight rebounds, including three offensive boards.

As a team, the Illini knocked down 16 3-pointers, matching a season-high mark, while shooting a season-best 55.2% from long distance.

Game 14 Recap – #22 Illinois 81, Washington 77

No. 22 Illinois completed its West Coast road trip with a hard-fought 81-77 win over Washington at Alaska Airlines Arena on Sunday afternoon.

After the Huskies battled back to tie the game at 75 with under one minute left in the game, Kaspars Jakucionis made a driving layup with just over 30 seconds remaining to help the Fighting Illini improve to 3-1 in Big Ten action this season.

Jakucionis finished with a team-high 18 points, including four in the final minute. He shot 6-for-11 from the field and 4-for-4 from the free throw line, with six assists, five rebounds, and a steal.

Tre White tallied 11 of his 17 points in the first half. White also corralled seven rebounds and made a key steal late in the game. Kylan Boswell added 14 points, all in the second half with four total rebounds (three offensive) and one assist.

The Illini set the tone early, opening the game with a 10-2 run, and the Orange and Blue led by as many as 17 in the first half, before Washington began to chip away at the deficit led by DJ Davis.

Davis tallied 31 points in the contest, the most by an Illinois opponent this season, with 17 coming in the second frame. His triple at the 8:26 mark cut the Illini lead to single digits for the final time, and his layup with 61 seconds remaining tied the game, 75-75, for the first time since it was knotted at 2-2 in the opening minute.

But Jakucionis' driving layup with 32.7 seconds remaining sent the Illini right back in front. Tre White stripped the ball loose on a driving layup attempt, and after a battle for the loose ball, a tie-up saw the Illini take possession with under 15 seconds to go.

Jakucionis' two free throws with 12.6 seconds left pushed Illinois' edge up to 79-75. Though the Huskies made a layup with 6.7 seconds to go to cut that advantage in half. Boswell's two free throws re-established Illinois' four-point lead, 81-77, and sealed the Illini's second road win of the week.

Game 15 Recap — #13 Illinois 91, Penn State 52

No. 13 Illinois earned its fifth-consecutive victory and its fourth-straight Big Ten triumph with a 91-52 win over Penn State on Wednesday night at State Farm Center. Three Fighting Illini scorers finished with at least 20 points in the commanding 39-point home win.

Ben Humrichous registered a season-high 21 points after connecting on five 3-pointers in the first half. In addition to his first 20-point effort of the campaign, Humrichous also added nine rebounds, a block, and a steal.

Morez Johnson Jr. secured his second double-double of the season, posting a career-best 20 points along with 11 rebounds. Shooting an efficient 9-for-11 from the field, Johnson also tallied a block while grabbing four offensive boards.

Tre White logged 20 points, including 12 points in the first half, to go with seven rebounds, two assists and a steal. White has scored 20 points in two of the last three games.

Will Riley, in his first-career start, recorded seven points, six rebounds, a career-high six assists, one block, and one steal. Kylan Boswell accumulated five points, five rebounds, six assists, and three steals, while Dra Gibbs-Lawhorn added nine points off the bench.

Penn State jumped out to an early six-point lead, but the Orange and Blue responded with a 15-0 run over the next five minutes to go in front for the first time, and never looked back.

Leading by as many as 26 through the first half, the Illini went into halftime with a 45-21 edge. Humrichous recorded 19 points and White also reached double figures in scoring with 12 points in the first half.

In the second half, the Illini continued to add to their advantage pushing the lead to 39 points with just under a minute to play before closing out the team's second 30-point Big Ten win of the season.

Game 16 Recap — Penn State 82, #13 Illinois 72

No. 13 Illinois men's basketball dropped an 82-72 home game to Big Ten newcomer USC on Saturday, snapping the Fighting Illini's five-game win streak.

Four players scored in double-figures for the Illini (12-4, 4-2) who were playing without starting point guard Kasparas Jakucionis for the second straight game. Ben Humrichous led the way with 15 points including three of the team's seven three-pointers. USC was led by a game-high 31 points from Desmond Claude.

Dra Gibbs-Lawhorn and Tre White added 11 points each for the Illini and Kylan Boswell narrowly missed a double-double with 10 points and eight rebounds to go along with a game-high six assists and a career-high-tying five steals.

The Illini worked to battle back from a slow start throughout most of the first half. USC (10-6, 2-3) led 19-10 at the 11:21 mark of the opening stanza, with the Illini shooting 0-4 from 3-point range to open the game. Out of a timeout, Humrichous knocked down the team's first triple to jump start the Illini.

The Orange and Blue hit their stride late in the half, closing on a 10-2 run to take a 38-35 lead into the break. Another Humrichous three-pointer gave the Illini their first lead since 2-0 with 51 seconds to go. Gibbs-Lawhorn recorded a steal on the ensuing USC possession, then hit White for on the fast break for a buzzer-beating layup to end the half with the Illini leading.

Early in the second half, USC regained the lead, 53-47, on the heels of an early 14-4 run. The Illini responded with a 6-0 spurt of their own, capped by a Gibbs-Lawhorn 3-pointer to knot the game at 53 with 12:31 to play.

The Trojans surrounded Humrichous' third triple with a 6-0 run and a 7-0 stretch, pushing their lead to double digits, 72-62, with 4 minutes remaining. The Illini answered with four straight — a pair of White free-throws and a Humrichous jumper in the lane — but were unable to pull any closer than six points in the final 3 minutes.

Game 17 Recap — #19 Illinois 94, Indiana 69

No. 19 Illinois cruised to a dominant 94-69 road win over Indiana at Simon Skjott Assembly Hall, leading by as many as 31 points en route to their largest road win against the Hoosiers in program history.

Despite missing the last two games, Kasparas Jakucionis did not miss a beat in his return, finishing with 21 points while making three 3-pointers and going 7-for-13 from the field. The Lithuania native also accumulated five assists and three rebounds.

Tomislav Ivisic posted his seventh double-double of the year with 17 points and 11 rebounds, and Kylan Boswell tallied a career-high and game-high 22 points, including 13 points in the second half.

Dra Gibbs-Lawhorn scored 12 off the bench and corralled two offensive rebounds. Ben Humrichous tacked on seven points and five rebounds, Tre White collected five points and six boards, and Morez Johnson Jr. logged five points and 10 rebounds.

Five lead changes in the first 3 minutes encapsulated the back-and-forth of the early few possessions, but the Orange and Blue soon settled in on both ends of the floor. Jakucionis accounted for eight of the Illini's first 10 points, and a 15-2 Illinois run gave the Hoosiers a double-digit advantage less than 7 minutes into the contest.

Jakucionis reached double figures 2 minutes later and was just getting started. A 10-2 Illini run — which featured 3-pointers from Boswell, Ivisic, and Jakucionis — pushed the lead above 20 with 8:13 left in the first half, and the Illini built 60-32 edge by halftime.

The Hoosiers began the second half with a 10-0 run, and pulled within 16 points, 64-48, with 13:30 to play. But a 17-3 Illini run pushed the lead back to 30 points, 81-51, all but putting the game out of reach with more than 7 minutes remaining.

The Illini's lead eventually climbed as high as 31 late in the contest as the Orange and Blue picked up their third Big Ten road win of the campaign, and handed the Hoosiers the second-worst loss in the history of Assembly Hall.

Game 18 Recap — #12 Michigan State 80, #19 Illinois 78

No. 19 Illinois fell to No. 12 Michigan State, 80-78, at Breslin Center on Sunday.

Will Riley scored a game-high 19 points, his ninth-career outing in double figures. Totalling 16 first-half points to help the Illini build an early lead, Riley also registered six rebounds, two assists, and a block.

Tomislav Ivisic amassed 13 points and four rebounds, and tied a career high with five assists, while Morez Johnson Jr. posted with 11 points and six rebounds.

Kylan Boswell narrowly missed a double-double, logging 13 points, and a game-high nine rebounds, along with four assists, and a steal. 9Dra Gibbs-Lawhorn added seven points and tied a career high with four rebounds, all coming on the offensive glass.

With top scorer Kasparas Jakucionis limited due to foul trouble, Riley's effort the Illini's offensive attack and helped the Orange and Blue build a lead that reach as many as 10 points just seven minutes into the game.

With the Illini leading, 28-19, at the 7:36 mark in the first, Michigan State scored 17 of the final 25 points of the half and the teams headed into the locker room knotted at 36.

Out of half, the Illini battled to a 52-47 lead at the 13:49 mark of the second. MSU tied the game less than a minute later, and then used a 9-1 run to stake to a 66-59 edge.

A Jakucionis and-one, followed by an Ivisic bucket cut the Illini deficit to 66-64, but MSU answered to push the lead back to seven, 74-67, with 3:53 to play.

The Illini pulled within one point twice in the final 90 seconds, and trailed by three with 3 seconds to play. Boswell headed to the free-throw line and knocked down the first before intentionally missing the second. He corralled the rebound, but his would-be attempt to tie the game was waived off for arching over the backboard, and MSU escaped with the two-point win.

Game 19 Recap — Maryland 91, #17 Illinois 70

No. 17 Illinois fell to Maryland, 91-70, at State Farm Center on Thursday night.

The Fighting Illini took the floor without starting center Tomislav Ivicic, the team's top rebounder and second-leading scorer, who was ruled out due to illness.

Kasparas Jakucionis scored a team-high 21 points, while adding seven rebounds, and seven assists. Jakucionis' eight 20-point game of the season tied the Illinois freshman record set by Cory Bradford as a redshirt freshman in 1998-99. Jakucionis went 11-for-12 from the free-throw line to tie the Illini's single-game season-high for makes at the charity stripe.

Dra Gibbs-Lawhorn recorded his sixth scoring effort in double figures, logging 15 points off the bench after posting a team-high nine points in the first half. Gibbs-Lawhorn also accumulated four rebounds, an assist, and a steal.

Kylan Boswell marked his fourth-consecutive double-digit scoring output with 14 points. He also grabbed nine rebounds and dished out an assist. Tre White added nine points and six rebounds.

Morez Johnson Jr. made the first start of his collegiate career in place of Ivicic, tallying five points and two rebounds.

The Illini, however, were unable to answer the inside presence of Maryland's starting frontcourt of Julian Reese and Derik Queen. Reese posted 27 points and 17 rebounds, while Queen posted 25 points and six boards.

The Illini were outrebounded, 40-36, for just the third time this season, and were out-scored by a 62-34 margin in the paint.

The loss snaps a streak of 58 games for the Illini without consecutive losses dating back to the end of the 2022-23 season.

Game 20 Recap — #17 Illinois 83, Northwestern 74

No. 17 Illinois used a complete team effort to take down Northwestern, 83-74, at sold-out State Farm Center on Sunday afternoon.

The Illini lead for nearly 38 minutes of play, with the advantage reaching as high as 25 points, and snapped a two-game skid while winning their ninth-consecutive home game against the Wildcats.

Five Illini scored in double-figures, led by 17 points from Kylan Boswell. Morez Johnson Jr. posted 15 points and nine rebounds, and Ben Humrichous knocked down 4-of-9 attempts from 3-point range to finish with 14 points.

Kasparas Jakucionis posted his third double-double of the season with 11 points and 10 rebounds, and added a game-high seven assists.

Jake Davis added 11 points off the bench while connecting on a season-high three 3-pointers, reaching double-digits scoring for the second time this season.

Illinois dominated on the glass, holding a 50-27 edge in total rebounds while collecting a season-most 21 offensive boards. Johnson had a game-high five offensive rebounds, while five Illini had multiple boards on the offensive end.

Both sides got off to a slow start offensively before the Illini pieced together a 15-0 run to take a 20-5 lead midway through the first half. After the Wildcats ended their scoreless drought with a 3-pointer, the Orange and Blue scored 12 of the game's next 5 to expand the lead to 32-11, and cruised to a 43-21 halftime lead.

Illinois led 50-25 after a 3-pointer on the break from Jakucionis at the 17:36 mark, and the Illini maintained a 20-point margin with less than 5 minutes to play. And despite a late offensive burst from Northwestern that cut the lead to single-digits, the Illini rolled to victory to secure a split of the regular-season series with the Wildcats.

Game 21 Recap — Nebraska 80, #18 Illinois 74 (OT)

No. 18 Illinois dropped an overtime battle at Nebraska, 80-74, on Thursday night at Pinnacle Bank Arena.

Kasparas Jakucionis posted his second-consecutive double-double with a team-high 18 points and a career-most 13 rebounds, while he connected on three 3-pointers, dished out four assists, and made one steal.

Will Riley scored 13 of his 16 points in the second half, including a six-minute stretch during which he accounted for 13 straight points for the Illini. Tallying four 3-pointers, he also secured four rebounds, including two on the offensive glass, and a steal.

Dra Gibbs-Lawhorn made the game-tying 3-pointer to force overtime before finishing with 15 points and two makes from beyond the arc. He also totaled four rebounds.

Tre White grabbed 13 rebounds, his third game this season with double-digit boards, and he poured in eight points and logged two blocks.

Morez Johnson Jr. recorded five points, five rebounds, a team-most three blocks, and a steal. Kylan Boswell closed the night with eight points, four rebounds, an assist, and a steal.

The Huskers led from wire-to-wire, with the Illini tying the game on six occasions, including a late three-pointer by Gibbs-Lawhorn to send the game to overtime.

Despite outrebounding Nebraska by a 58-42 margin, the Illini were unable to overcome 17 turnovers, and a 1-for-15 start from 3-point range in the first half. Overall, the team tied a season high with 42 3-point attempts, climbing back into the game by hitting nine of the team's final 19 shots from distance in regularion, before missing all eight attempts in the overtime period.

The loss snaps a nine-game win streak for the Illini over the Huskers, and ends the Orange and Blue's three-game win streak at Pinnacle Bank Arena.

Game 22 Recap — #18 Illinois 87, Ohio State 79

No. 18 Illinois used a late 15-0 run to catapult past Ohio State, 87-79, at a sold-out State Farm Center on Sunday afternoon.

Illinois trailed by as many as 11 points five minutes into the second half but outscored the Buckeyes 46-27 over the final 15 minutes to secure the win. Will Riley and Kylan Boswell combined for 13 points in the team's late in which the Illini held the Buckeyes scoreless for over five minutes coming out of the under-8 media timeout.

Riley led the Illinois scorers with 24 points on 7-of-9 shooting from the floor and 9-of-12 from the line. He hit his only 3-pointer of the game and grabbed three rebounds.

Morez Johnson Jr. grabbed a game-high 15 rebounds with 14 points on 6-for-8 shooting for his third double-double. His 15 boards tied Kofi Cockburn's 15 rebound performance against Purdue (1/21/20) for the sixth-most in Illinois history for a freshman.

Tomislav Ivisic returned to the lineup after missing the previous three games and tallied 12 points and 10 boards for his team-leading eighth double-double of the season.

Dra Gibbs-Lawhorn, making the first start of his collegiate career, added 10 points, including a momentum-shifting steal and run-out dunk that brought the Illini to within 54-53 with just over 12 minutes to play.

Boswell poured in 14 points on an efficient 5-for-8 from the field, while Kasparas Jakucionis dished out a game-high seven assists, his sixth game of the year with at least seven helpers, to go with eight points.

Ohio State led 42-36 at halftime, pushed their lead to 11 points, 52-41 in the early moments of the second period. But Illinois outscored the Buckeyes 51-37 in the second half to complete the come-from-behind win - behind 20 points in the final 20 minutes from Riley. The win marked the Illini's first of the season when trailing at the break.

Game 23 Recap — Rutgers 82, #23 Illinois 73

No. 23 Illinois fell to Rutgers on the road, 82-73, on Wednesday night at Jersey Mike's Arena, coming up short in a come-from-behind effort that saw the Fighting Illini erase a 17-point deficit.

Will Riley finished with a team-high 18 points, including 11 points on 2-for-3 shooting from beyond the arc in the second half. Leading the Illini in scoring for the third straight game, Riley also tallied six assists, matching his career high, and grabbed three rebounds.

Morez Johnson Jr. posted his seventh scoring outing in double figures with 11 points in addition to securing five rebounds and an assist.

Ben Humrichous added 14 points and three 3-pointers off the bench while going 4-for-7 from the field in the second half and corralling five rebounds.

Kylan Boswell logged six points, 10 rebounds, and four steals. Tomislav Ivisic collected nine points, seven rebounds, three assists, three blocks, and a steal.

Illinois trailed by as many as 17 points (23-6) at the 9:43 mark in the first half before fighting back to regain the lead at the 13:06 mark in the second half, 48-47.

The Orange and Blue held a 62-60 at the 7:54 mark of the second half, but a 7-0 Rutgers run gave the Scarlet Knights a lead that they would not relinquish en route to the nine-point win.

Game 25 Recap — Illinois 83, UCLA 78

Illinois never trailed and fended off a late UCLA rally to secure an 83-78 win over the Bruins at State Farm Center on Tuesday night. Four Fighting Illini finished in double figures as the Orange and Blue snapped the Bruins' seven-game win streak.

Kasparas Jakucionis led the way offensively with 24 points after going 6-for-9 with 17 points in the second half. With his team-leading 10th 20-point effort of the season, Jakucionis knocked down three 3-pointers, came down with eight rebounds, dished out four assists, and made one block.

Tomislav Ivisic connected on four 3-pointers, going 4-for-6 from deep, before finishing with 16 points. Scoring in double figures for the third straight game, Ivisic also posted seven rebounds, three assists, and a steal.

Kylan Boswell logged all of his scoring in the second half, recording 11 points while going 8-for-8 from the free throw line. He also corralled four rebounds and tallied two assists.

Will Riley added 10 points, three rebounds, two assists, and a block off the bench, while Morez Johnson Jr. amassed eight points, six rebounds, and a steal.

Holding the Bruins without a field goal for over five minutes to start the game, the Illini eventually opened up a 10-2 lead. The Illini lead reached 15 in the first half on the heels of a 9-0 run that ended at the 5:20 mark. But pulled to within six points, 31-25 by closing the half on a 13-3 run over the final 5:03.

In the second haf, the Illini steadily built their lead back to double-digits and held a 16-point edge, 76-60, with just under 5 minutes to play. UCLA answered with a 13-0 run of their own 3:43 to pull within one possession over the final minute of play.

The Illini closed the door however, capping a 90% night from the free-throw line by hitting three of four attempts in the final seven seconds, and grabbing a key offensive rebound off the miss, to close out the 83-78 win.

Game 26 Recap — #11 Michigan State 79, Illinois 65

Illinois fell to No. 11 Michigan State, 79-65, on Saturday night in the State Farm Center.

The Illini led by as many as 16 points in the contest, and held a 14-point lead, 35-21, at the 6:17 mark of the first half. But Michigan State closed the first half on a 16-6 run to pull to within four points at halftime.

Neither team led by more than four in a back-and-forth battle throughout the first 13 minutes of the second half. After a Ben Humrichous jumper gave the Illini a 65-64 edge with 8:29 to play, the Illini missed their final 19 shots, and Michigan State closed the game on a 15-0 run to seal the win.

Morez Johnson Jr. and Kasparis Jakucionis led Illinois in scoring with 17 points each. They also grabbed five rebounds each.

Will Riley added 13 points and led the Illini with seven rebounds and six assists. Tomislav Ivisic also grabbed a team-high seven rebounds.

Jake Davis scored eight points off the bench for the Illini on 3-for-6 shooting from the floor.
