McGough's top target is Smith, who leads all Panthers with 49 receptions, including five touchdowns for 555 yards. The Ocala, Fla., native has made at least one catch in 22-straight games and has led the team in receptions in 16 of his 22 career games at FIU. A Quick Look at Middle Tennessee

Middle Tennessee is coming off its first home loss of the season, following a 27-7 loss to BYU on Saturday, Nov. 1.

BYU limited the Blue Raiders to 228 yards total offense. Middle Tennessee managed just 119 yards through the air and 109 on the ground. Quarterback Austin Grammer completed 16-of-32 passes for 119 yards and one touchdown. He threw two interceptions.

Shane Tucker led the ground attack with 49 yards on 10 carries, while Jordan Parker added 32 yards on seven carries and Reggie Whatley finished with 24 yards on six rushes.

Cavellis Luckett led Middle Tennessee's defense with nine tackles, including eight solo stops, one tackle for loss, one sack, two pass break-ups and one quarterback hurry. Kevin Byard and Xavier Walker added seven tackles each.

The Ground Game

During last week's game at Old Dominion, the Panthers rushed 55 times for 256 yards. The 55 rushing attempts were the second-most in school history and marked the second time in the last three games in which the team had rushed 50-or-more times in a game (53 versus Marshall – Oct. 18). FIU averaged 4.7 yards-per-carry for 256 yards on the ground. The rushing total versus the Monarchs was the seventh-highest, single-game total in FIU history. The outing was the first one since the 2010 season (448 at Troy – Nov. 13) in which the Panthers rushed for 250 yards or more.

Senior Day

FIU will recognize 12 seniors prior, who will be playing in their final home game as a member of the Panthers football program.

- Giovanni Francois - DE
- Glenn Coleman – WR
- Demarkus Perkins – S
- Randy Harvey – CB
- Justin Halley – S
- Caleb Vincent – LB
- Byron Pinkston – OG
- Donald Senat – C
- Delmar Taylor – OG
- Yousif Khoury – OT
- Jordan White – OT
- Cory White - TE

Fumble Recoveries

Redshirt junior Richard Leonard recovered the team's 17th fumble during the Panthers' last outing at Old Dominion (Nov. 8). The 17 fumble recoveries by the Panthers rank No. 1 in the nation and are the second-most by an FIU squad in school history (21 fumble recoveries by the 2002 team). Leonard has recovered four of those fumbles and ranks No. 1 in the nation in that category, while tying the FIU record for fumble recoveries in a season (Lionell Singleton – 2007).

Big Play Glenn

During FIU's contest versus Rice (Nov. 1, 2014), redshirt senior Glenn Coleman registered two catches for 101 yards. His catches consisted of a 52-yard TD and a 49-yarder. On the year, Coleman has been a part of 10 big plays of 20-or-more yards; three resulting in touchdowns.

Mr. 100

On Saturday, Nov. 1, Glenn Coleman recorded his second 100-yard game of the 2014 season and the third of his career with a 101-yard performance versus Rice. The three 100-yard receiving games for Coleman puts him in a tie with Willis Wright (2010-12) and Greg Ellingson (2007-10) for fourth all-time at FIU in 100-yard receiving games.

Leonard Continues to Creep up in the FIU Record Books

Redshirt junior cornerback Richard Leonard recorded his fifth interception of the season in the second quarter against Marshall. Leonard's five interceptions ties the single-season record at FIU. Other players at FIU with five interceptions in a single season are Nick Turnbull (twice; 2002, 2004), Lionell Singleton (2006) and Anthony Gaitor (2008). Leonard's fifth interception gives him eight for his career, tying him with Singleton (2004-07) for third in program history.

Gardner Gaining on the Ground

True freshman running Alex Gardner has been a key contributor to FIU's offense this season. The Jacksonville, Fla., native tallied his third career 100-yard rushing game vs. Marshall on Oct. 18, running for 104 yards. His three 100-yard rushing games is a true freshman record at FIU. Gardner has now gained 582 net rushing yards this season, which is a single season record at FIU for a true- or redshirt-freshman. His 582 yards on the ground currently ranks eighth in a single season at FIU for any ball carrier.

Forcing the Issue

Through 10 games this season, FIU has forced 26 total turnovers, averaging 2.60 takeaways-per-game. In five of the nine games this season, the Panthers have forced at least three turnovers. In the program's 13-year history, the Panthers have forced a school-record six turnovers in three games. Leonard C-USA Defensive POW in Back-to-Back Weeks

Redshirt junior Richard Leonard was named the Conference USA Defensive Player of the Week for the week of Oct. 5, the league announced on Monday, Oct. 6.

Having won the honor the previous week, Leonard becomes the first player to be named a conference Defensive Player of the Week in back-to-back weeks since 2000.

Leonard continues to be an impact player for the FIU Panthers. The Miami native was a key factor in the Panthers' 38-10 Shula Bowl victory over Florida Atlantic on Thursday, Oct. 2. Leonard finished the night, tying a school-record with four pass breakups, while registering his fourth interception of the season. Leonard picked off FAU's Jaquez Johnson in the third quarter to halt a potential Owls scoring chance. The interception moved Leonard in a tie for the second-most picks by a Panther in a season and gave the redshirt junior seven for his career (tied for No. 4 all-time at FIU).

Leonard also tied and set a school record with a 100-yard fumble return for a touchdown. The play tied the longest return in FIU history (100-yard kickoff return by Leonard on Nov. 16, 2012) and set the school record for longest fumble recovery (previously 89 yards by Venson Jones Jr. vs. Florida A&M on Nov. 27, 2004). Leonard's return marked just the fourth time in NCAA history (since 1992) a fumble has been returned for 100 yards. Leonard's scoop and score from two-yards deep in the endzone

Big Plays in Birmingham

It wasn't just the defense making its mark in Birmingham, Ala., on Sept 27. The FIU offense had its share of big plays, including a pair of touchdown passes equaling 75 and 85 yards. Freshman quarterback Alex McGough found sophomore Jonnu Smith barreled down the sideline for 75 yards and the school's sixth-longest reception in school history. It was a then-career-high for McGough. That changed in the third quarter when the Tampa native hit redshirt senior Glenn Coleman for an 85-yard touchdown pass to break the game wide open. ► His 148 yards combined with teammate Clinton Taylor's 14 yards in the punt-return game, set the school record for punt return yards in a game with 162 (previous was 105 vs. Florida Atlantic – 11/12/11).

► Leonard's performance gave FIU an average

► For his career, Leonard has recorded 20 punt returns for 313 yards with one touchdown and 49 kick returns for 1,327 yards and one score.

Ocean Bank Field at FIU Stadium

FIU Executive Director of Sports and Entertainment Pete Garcia announced on Aug. 6 a three-year partnership with Ocean Bank, resulting in the naming of the Panther football team's home field, which will now be called "Ocean Bank Field at FIU Stadium."

Among its many contributions, Ocean Bank committed $1 million to the university's College of Business, which was used to build Ocean Bank Auditorium at FIU.

Ocean Bank Field at FIU Stadium has hosted many events such as the 2009 and 2011 CONCACAF Gold Cup, the annual Belen-Columbus football game, concerts, non-intercollegiate sporting events and other community activities.

In addition, Ocean Bank board members and executives are active supporters of the university. Ocean Bank Chairman A. Alfonso Macedo serves on the Dean's Council of the FIU College of Business, and the FIU President's Council includes board member and former Federal Reserve Bank Miami Regional Executive Juan del Busto, and Ralph Gonzalez-Jacobo, Ocean Bank's executive vice president and head of branch administration. Both are FIU alumni.

Head Coach Ron Turner (Second Season)

Ron Turner was named FIU's head football coach on January 4, 2013, bringing with him an outstanding resume from coaching at the collegiate and professional levels.

Entering his second season with the Panthers, Turner's 37 years in coaching have included nine as a head coach with Illinois and San Jose State. During his 24 previous seasons in college football, Turner's career was highlighted with participation in eight bowl games: Rose, Fiesta, Sugar, Aloha, Citrus and Micron PC.

After he led an impressive turnaround at the University of Illinois, which resulted in the school's 2001 Big Ten championship, the league unanimously voted him that season's Big Ten Coach of the Year.

In 12 seasons coaching in the National Football League, Turner spent the majority of those seasons with the Chicago Bears, in addition to the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and Indianapolis Colts.

His NFL resume includes being named the 1995 Pro Football Weekly Assistant Coach of the Year; four playoff appearances; Offensive Coordinator during the Bears' 2006 NFC Championship and Super Bowl season; an assistant with the Colts' 2010 AFC South title team; quarterbacks coach with a 2012 Tampa Bay squad that netted team records for total yards, passing yards and passing touchdowns.

Prior to becoming FIU's third all-time head football coach last January, Turner the previous season with the Buccaneers where he coached quarterback Josh Freeman to franchise records in passing yards (4,065) and passing touchdowns (27). In just one season with the Bucs, Turner helped Tampa Bay amass team records in total yards (5,820) and total points scored (389).

Turner spent the two previous seasons with the Colts coaching quarterbacks in 2011 and wide receivers in 2010.

Overall, Turner coached for nine seasons in Chicago. For five years, 2005-09, he was Lovie Smith's offensive coordinator. From 1993-96, four seasons, Turner was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach under Dave Wannstedt.

In between his time with the Bears, Turner spent eight seasons as head coach at the University of Illinois (1997-2004), where he is the fourth-winningest coach in school history. Turner guided the Illini to two bowl bids, the Big Ten Championship in 2001 and a BCS Bowl bid to the Nokia Sugar Bowl.

In 2001, Turner was the unanimous selection for Big Ten Coach of the Year. He would preside over three of the top-six offenses in Illini history in terms of total yards, while four of his eight squads ranked in the school's top-11 for scoring. The 2001 unit had a school-record 390 points. Three of the top-six all-time leading rushers at Illinois and three of the school's top-10 all-time leading receivers played under Turner, as he helped place more than 20 players on NFL rosters.

The championship run in 2001 marked many firsts for the Illini. It was the first outright Big Ten title for Illinois in 18 years and the teams' first-ever berth in the Bowl Championship Series. The 10-win season was only the fourth for an Illini squad in its storied history.

For his efforts, Turner was unanimously named the 2001 Big Ten Coach of the Year. He also was a finalist for the Eddie Robinson, Bear Bryant and the AFCA Coach of the Year awards. Illinois' No. 7 ranking in both the Associated Press and coaches' poll at the end of the regular season was the highest for an Illini squad since 1990. The team finished No. 12 in both final polls.

Aside from mentoring several notable quarterbacks at the NFL level, Turner is also known for his development of college quarterbacks.

At Illinois, Turner tutored Kurt Kittner, who was a Johnny Unitas Award finalist and a Davey O'Brien Award semifinalist.

Kittner became one in a long line of successful Turner-coached quarterbacks at the college level including: John Congemi (Pittsburgh), Jeff Garcia (San Jose State), Rodney Peete (Southern California), Bucky Richardson (Texas A&M), Sean Salisbury (Southern California), Sandy Schwab (Northwestern) and Steve Stenstrom (Stanford).

Prior to the Bears, Turner coached for one season at San Jose State in 1992. In just one season at San Jose State, Turner led a remarkable turnaround, leading the Spartans to a 7-4 record and a second-place finish in the Big West Conference. Turner guided San Jose State to its best record in six years and directed a potent offense that churned out 400 yards per game while averaging 30 points per contest, good for 15th in the nation.

Bethune-Cookman 14, FIU 12

Ocean Bank Field at FIU Stadium - Miami, Fla.

August 30, 2014 - 7:00 p.m. - ASN

FIU 0-1; Bethune-Cookman 1-0

MIAMI (Aug. 30, 2014) – The FIU football team (0-1) opened the 2014 season with a tough, 14-12, loss to the Bethune-Cookman Wildcats on Saturday night. Senior Richard Leonard broke the school's single-game punt return yards record in the effort.

The Panthers' explosive cornerback collected 148 yards on five punt returns, while his 71-yard punt return late in the fourth quarter also stands as the fifth longest in school history. It's also the longest non-scoring return in FIU history. The Miami native shattered the previous record of 97 punt return yards, which was set in 2011 against Florida Atlantic by now-NFL standout, T.Y. Hilton. Leonard also had a 54-yard kick return in the second quarter.

On the defensive side of the ball, junior Denzell Perine set career highs in sacks (3) and tackles for loss (3/9.0). In all, the Panthers backline was able to accumulate 40 yards on 10 tackles for loss.

Senior safety Justin Halley's pass breakup on B-CU's opening drive moved the Boca Raton, Fla., native three pass break-ups shy of No. 2 all-time in program history. On the Wildcats' opening drive, Halley got in front of the B-CU receiver, slicing through the center of the field, forcing a fourth down. Junior Lars Koht collected FIU's first sack of the season on the following play.

B-CU broke a scoreless game with 11:26 to go in the second quarter. A one-yard touchdown run by the Wildcats' Michael Jones on first and goal gave the Wildcats' the an early 7-0 lead.

FIU responded with six points on back-to-back drives that resulted in a field goal. In his first drive under center for the Panthers, true freshman Alex McGough guided FIU 36 yards on six plays, setting sophomore Austin Taylor up for a 25-yard field goal.

Taylor's second 25-yarder came on the Panthers following drive. In a series that saw McGough connect 28 yards with junior tight end Ya'Keem Griner, FIU covered 53 yards on 10 plays and cut the deficit to one point. B-CU entered halftime with a 7-6 edge.

The Wildcats pulled ahead, 14-6, 3:34 into the fourth quarter, as the team converted a deep pass on third and nine. FIU responded with a four-play, seven-yard drive, resulting in a touchdown, following a 71-yard punt return from Leonard. The five-yard pass from McGough to junior T.J. Lowder was the first of the Tampa, Fla., native's career.

The score stood, 14-12, with 5:16 to go in the game. A failed last-second field goal attempt by the Panthers ended the contest.

Sophomore Jonnu Smith's two catches in the game moved the Ocala, Fla., native into second place in school history for catches by a tight end with 41.

McGough finished his first game with the Panthers 13-of-27 for 117 yards and one touchdown. His connection with Griner for 28 yards stands as a benchmark career-long for the rookie. In all, five true freshmen saw action in tonight's game (Shermarke Spence, Alex McGough, Anthony Wint, Alex Gardner, Dennis Turner)

FIU 34, Wagner 3

Ocean Bank Field at FIU Stadium - Miami, Fla.

September 6, 2014 - 6:00 p.m.

FIU 1-1; Wagner 1-1

MIAMI (Sept. 6, 2014) – Capped off by 377 total yards of offense and six forced turnovers on the defensive side of the ball, the FIU football team (1-1) handed the Wagner Seahawks a 34-3 loss on Saturday evening.

Freshman Alex Gardner set a freshman single-game record for yards by a running back, as the Jacksonville, Fla., native finished with 138 yards on the ground. He's the fourth true freshman in Panther football history to rush for over 100 yards in a game.

Also etching his name in the FIU record book was sophomore Jonnu Smith, whose 127 receiving yards tonight moved him to second all-time for receiving yards by a tight end. A 20-yard catch from junior E.J. Hilliard in the third quarter gave the Ocala, Fla., native his first 100-plus yard game.

After junior Denzell Perine forced the Seahawks to go three-and-out on their opening driving, collecting his third and a half sack of the season, freshman quarterback Alex McGough led the Panthers down the field for a touchdown in 1:08. Covering 52 yards, McGough connected with sophomore Jonnu Smith for 41 yards, the longest reception of the tight end's career.

On Wagner's ensuing drive, reigning Conference USA Special Teams Player of the Week Richard Leonard ran back an interception untouched, putting the Panthers ahead, 14-0, with 9:58 to play. The 60-yard return is the sixth longest interception for a score in FIU history.

After the Seahawks responded with a 21-yard field goal, cutting their deficit to 14-3, a fumble recovery from junior Michael Wakefield set up sophomore Austin Taylor for a 34-yard field goal.

A 61-yard rush from freshman Alex Gardner then placed the Panthers at the 1-yard line. Redshirt senior Cory White grabbed his first career touchdown pass on McGough's second touchdown pass of the night. Entering halftime, FIU held a commanding, 27-3, lead.

Following a scoreless third stanza, Wakefield picked up his second fumble recovery of the night midway through the fourth quarter. Two drives later, the Panthers' defense forced a key turnover deep in its own zone. In all, Wagner committed six turnovers during the game, tying the FIU record for turnovers by an opponent (6, Florida A&M, 2004).

One final Panther scoring drive took FIU 57 yards on eight plays. A four-yard rush by redshirt junior Anthon Samuel capped of a series lasting just under three and a half minutes.

Splitting time under center, McGough finished the night 9-of-18 and threw for 60 yards. Hilliard went an impressive 14-of-15 for 169 yards in the win. Both quarterbacks had longs of 35-plus yards.

Pittsburgh 42, FIU 25

Ocean Bank Field at FIU Stadium - Miami, Fla.

September 13, 2014 - 12:00 p.m. - FOX Sports1

FIU 1-3; Pittsburgh 3-0

MIAMI (Sept. 13, 2014) – The FIU football team (1-2) fell to the Pittsburgh Panthers, 42-25, Saturday afternoon. The Panthers started the game with 16-straight points, while holding Pittsburgh scoreless for the first quarter.

Freshman quarterback Alex McGough threw for 224 yards (15-of-30), with two touchdowns and an additional rushing touchdown. Redshirt senior Glenn Coleman (76 yards) and junior T.J. Lowder (73 yards) paced the Panthers' offense, while sophomore Jonnu Smith added 62 yards in the effort.

Building off its success from its first two games, the FIU defense gave Pittsburgh a challenge in the first half. On the game's opening play, junior Michael Wakefield sacked Pittsburgh's Chad Voytik for a loss of seven yards. The Panthers were able to force Pittsburgh to go three-and-out twice in the first 15 minutes.

With Pittsburgh slowly chipping away yardage on its second drive, redshirt freshman Jordan Guest came up with a big-time stop, stripping Pittsburgh's James Conner of the ball on FIU's 9-yard line.

On the ensuing drive, freshman running back Alex Gardner nearly broke free on a 15-yard rush before being taken down.

FIU broke a scoreless game with 3:56 to go in the first quarter, tacking on 16 unanswered points. On Pittsburgh's opening play from its 8-yard line, the Panthers' defense called a blitz, with Jeremiah McKinnon taking down Voytik for two points.

The Panthers went on to score two touchdowns on back-to-back drives to close the first quarter. McGough, who got the start under center, connected with Lowder for 33 yards, pinning FIU at Pittsburgh's 3-yard line. A three-yard quarterback draw by McGough gave the Panthers a 9-0 lead. It's the first career rushing touchdown for the Tampa, Fla., native.

The FIU defense forced Pittsburgh to go three-and-out a second time with 1:40 to go, before McGough threw a deep ball to Coleman for 57-yards for an untouched touchdown. It also stands as the longest pass of McGough's career. With Pittsburgh within FIU's 10-yard line, redshirt junior Richard Leonard forced and recovered a fumble.

Pittsburgh was able to respond with 14 points and was heading towards the end zone with one minute on the clock before sophomore Wilkerson Myrtill picked off Voytik to stop a key drive. FIU entered halftime with a 16-14 edge over Pittsburgh.

Pittsburgh opened the second half with 12-straight points, giving the Panthers a 26-16 edge over FIU to start the fourth quarter. Junior quarterback E.J. Hilliard drove the Panthers 43 yards on nine plays to open the fourth quarter. The Miami native rushed for 19 yards during the series, including a 16-yard run. Sophomore Austin Taylor converted a 43-yard field goal, cutting the Pittsburgh lead to 26-19. It's a season long for the kicker out of Punta Gorda, Fla.

Senior Giovanni Francois came up with a key sack on third down, forcing a Pittsburgh punt with under 10 minutes remaining in the game. It's the first sack of the season for the defensive end.

McGough carried the Panthers 71 yards with the fourth quarter approaching three minutes. A 12-yard route to Smith resulted in the Panthers' third touchdown of the day. After a failed two-point conversion, Pittsburgh led, 35-25.

FIU's defense sacked Voytik three times, while three Panthers finished with at least five solo tackles (Leonard, 8; McKinnon 6; Lars Koht, 5).

Louisville 34, FIU 3

Ocean Bank Field at FIU Stadium - Miami, Fla.

September 20, 2014 - 4:39 p.m. - FOX Sports1

FIU 1-3; Louisville 3-1

MIAMI (Sept. 20, 2014) – After an hour-plus weather delay, the FIU football team (1-3) fell to the Louisville Cardinals, 34-3, Saturday evening. Junior Michael Wakefield set a career-high for sacks and tackles for loss in the effort, while FIU's defense was able to stabilize the Cardinals' rushing offense, allowing just 12 rushing yards, which is the third-fewest in FIU history.

Louisville scored a quick seven points on its opening drive before the Panthers' defense settled down, limiting Cardinals quarterback Will Gardner to throwing just three-of-eight for the remainder of the first quarter. On second and six on the Cardinals' second drive, senior Giovani Francois sacked Gardner for a loss of 12 yards.

The Panthers defense was able to force its 10th turnover this season, with Louisville approaching the goal line. On third and goal, Wakefield sacked Gardner for a seven-yard loss while forcing a fumble. Junior Denzell Perine recovered the loose ball.

The Cardinals scored three times in the second quarter and led 28-0 going into the final seconds of the half. Freshman Alex McGough took the Panthers 54 yards on six plays on a drive lasting just over 1:20. On second and 11, McGough carried the ball 26 yards to the Cardinals' 40-yard line, before rushing for an additional 18 yards on the following play. An 11-yard route to sophomore Jonnu Smith set up sophomore Austin Taylor for a 28-yard field goal.

Wakefield came up with his second sack of the game on the Cardinals first drive of the second half, after their defense forced an FIU turnover on the Panthers' nine-yard line to start the half. On third down, Perine took down Gardner for a loss of 11 yards. FIU would only surrender a field goal on the drive, as the Cardinals took a commanding, 31-3 lead. Louisville tacked on one final field goal midway through the fourth quarter.

Junior E.J. Hilliard came in under center for FIU after the Panthers' first series of the second half, after McGough took a hard hit on a third down. He finished the night 8-of-12 for 70 yards, with a game-long 25-yard pass to redshirt senior Glenn Coleman.

Legion Field - Birmingham, Ala.

September 27, 2014 - 3:30 p.m. - ASN

FIU 2-3, 1-0 C-USA; UAB 2-2, 0-1 C-USA

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (Sept. 27, 2014) – FIU football (2-3, 1-0 C-USA) used a strong defensive effort and big plays on offense to earn a 34-20 victory at UAB on Saturday in the squad's Conference USA opener. FIU tied a school record by forcing six turnovers, while also scoring touchdowns of 85 and 75 yards in the victory.

The school record of six turnovers in a game has happened twice in the history of the FIU Football program. FIU also forced six turnovers vs. Florida A&M on Nov. 27, 2004. Of the six turnovers on Saturday, four came on interceptions. The four interceptions by the FIU defense are tied for second in school history. FIU also had four interceptions at Texas A&M on Sept. 28, 2010 and at Gardner Webb on Nov. 15, 2003. Junior Richard Leonard had two of those interceptions, returning one for a score, while Demarkus Perkins also took one back all the way.

Offensively, the Panthers used two big plays that helped set the tone in the game, tallying the second and sixth longest pass plays in school history. Freshman quarterback Alex McGough recorded his second career 200-yard passing game in the victory. McGough threw for 204 yards and two scores, while the FIU offense did not turn the ball over in the win. Sophomore Jonnu Smith (75 yards) and redshirt senior Glenn Coleman (85 yards) were responsible for the big scores.

UAB got on the board first with a two-yard touchdown run by D.J. Vinson with 13:36 left in the first half. The score capped off a five-play, 74-yard drive which took 1:24.

Leonard tied the game in the second quarter with a 25-yard interception return for a touchdown with 8:44 left in the half. The return for a touchdown was the second of the season for Leonard and fourth of his career. The Miami native is now tied for second all-time at FIU in return touchdowns (Nick Turnbull – 2002-05 and Lionell Singleton – 2004-07).

UAB responded on the ensuing drive, going 52 yards on eight plays, capped off by a 29-yard touchdown pass from Cody Clements to Gerald Everett with 5:38 left in the second half. The extra point attempt was blocked by Wakefield to put the score at 13-7.

With 3:37 left in the half, McGough connected with Smith for a 75-yard touchdown pass to give FIU a 14-13 lead. The reception was a career best for Smith, who has caught at least one pass in 17-straight games. The TD pass was the fifth-longest in school history.

FIU extended its lead in the second half to 21-13, following an 85-yard touchdown pass from McGough to Coleman with 9:30 left in the 3rd quarter. The connection was a career-best for McGough who bested his previous high set earlier in the game. The reception for Coleman set a personal best for the redshirt senior and was the second-longest reception in school history. The one-play drive took just 19 seconds.

The Panthers added three more points to make the score 24-13 after sophomore Austin Taylor converted a 35-yard field goal with 8:00 left in the third. Taylor made the score 27-13 with a 25-yard field goal with 14:17 left in the game, capping off a four-play drive that lasted 1:47. It marked the second-straight score by the Panthers set up after FIU forced a turnover.

Perkins recorded the team's fifth turnover of the game, returning an interception 31 yards for a touchdown. The score gave FIU a 34-13 lead with 13:40 left in the game.

The school-record tying sixth turnover came on an interception by sophomore cornerback Wilkenson Myrtill with 5:21 to go in the contest, as he kept a foot down in FIU's own end zone to bring UAB's potential scoring drive to a halt.

UAB cut the FIU lead to 34-20 when Cody Clements scrambled for a 15-yard touchdown run with 1:21 to go in regulation.

FIU 38, Florida Atlantic 10

Ocean Bank Field at FIU Stadium - Miami, Fla.

October 2, 2014 - 7:16 p.m. - FSN

FIU 3-3, 2-0 C-USA; Florida Atlantic 2-4, 1-1 C-USA

MIAMI (Oct. 2, 2014) – After nearly a two hour weather delay at half time, the FIU football team (3-3, 2-0 C-USA) handed the Florida Atlantic Owls a convincing, 38-10, loss, putting the Shula Bowl Trophy back in the Panthers' possession for the first time since 2012. Redshirt junior Richard Leonard and Florida Atlantic's Lucky Whitehead were named the MVP's of the game.

Leonard had a career game, finishing with a 100-yard run-back and an interception in the end zone, along with four pass break-ups. The defensive unit ended the game with four turnovers (three fumbles and one interception), totaling 21 which currently leads the nation heading into Saturday's match-ups.

Freshman quarterback Alex McGough finished the night 18-of-29 for 160 yards. Freshman running back Alex Gardner rushed for 100 yards, with a long of 24 yards in the first quarter. Redshirt junior Anthon Samuel had two scores in the game.

The Owls converted a 26-yard field goal with 10:28 to play in the first quarter for the night's first score. On third and seven from the Panthers' nine-yard line, pressure from sophomore Treyvon Williams on the Owls' quarterback, Jaquez Johnson, forced a bad throw that Leonard nearly picked off in the end zone.

McGough responded with a seven play, 70-yard drive, which resulted in a touchdown. Rolling to his right on first and 10, he connected with sophomore Jonnu Smith for 13 yards. Gardner found a hole on the following play and broke loose for a 24-yard rush. It's the first rushing touchdown of his career.

On the first drive of the second quarter, junior Denzell Perine sacked Johnson for a loss of five yards. Junior Lars Koht recovered the fumble, as FIU took over on the Owls' 18-yard line. A 12-yard pass from McGough to Gardner on third and six placed the Panthers at Florida Atlantic's two-yard line. On fourth and goal from the one-yard line, redshirt junior Anthon Samuel punched it in, as FIU took a 14-3 lead.

After the Owls made it 14-10, junior Michael Wakefield forced a fumble in the red zone, marking the 12th fumble the Panthers' defense has forced this season. Following a one hour and fifty minute weather delay, sophomore Austin Taylor converted a 37-yard field goal. A 23-yard rush from Gardner took the Panthers to the Owls' 26. McGough then completed a six-yard pass to junior Fred Porter to set up Taylor.

The Panthers followed with their second red zone stop of the game on Florida Atlantic's ensuing drive. With the Owls driving at the Panthers' 14-yard line, Leonard had a 100-yard run-back on a fumble forced by sophomore Jordan Davis. It's the second 100-yard return for Leonard versus the Owls in his career.

McGough capped off a 10-play, 80-yard drive with a one-yard rush in the fourth quarter. Big gains by Gardner (12 yards) and Smith (18 yards) helped set the Panthers up on the Owls' one-yard line for the touchdown. One final score for the Panthers resulted in the 38-10 final. Starting at Florida Atlantic's 41-yard line, a nine-yard rush by Samuel completed a 41-drive, which spanned seven plays. Samuel also had an 11-yard rush during the drive.

UTSA 16, FIU 13

The Alamodome - San Antonio, Texas

Oct. 18, 2014 - 6:06 p.m. - FOX College Sports

FIU 3-4, 2-1 C-USA; UTSA 2-4, 1-1 C-USA

SAN ANTONIO, Texas (Oct. 11, 2014) – The FIU football team (3-4, 2-1 C-USA) dropped a heartbreaker to the UTSA Roadrunners on Saturday in the Alamodome. With the game knotted up at 13, the Roadrunners connected on a 39-yard field goal with 50 seconds to go to secure the 16-13 victory.

Offensively, the Panthers turned the ball over a season-high four times in the loss. FIU forced three turnovers and allowed 317 total yards of total offense to the Roadrunners. Additionally, FIU held UTSA to just three of 14 on third downs.

After a scoreless first quarter, FIU took a 3-0 lead following a 42-yard field goal by sophomore Austin Taylor with 14:11 left in the half. The score was set up after senior Giovani Francois sacked quarterback Austin Robinson, forcing a fumble, which was returned 14 yards to the UTSA 21-yard line by junior Denzell Perine. The forced fumble was the team's nation-leading 14th of the year.

The Panthers extended their lead to 10-0 when freshman quarterback Alex McGough connected with sophomore Jonnu Smith for a 15-yard touchdown with 3:24 left in the first half. The score capped a four-play, 28-yard drive which took 1:33 and started from the Roadrunners' 28-yard line. The good field position was set up after FIU recovered a muffed punt for the Panthers' second turnover forced in the game.

UTSA pulled within three points with a two-yard touchdown run by Jarveon Williams with 39 seconds left in the half. The scored finished a nine-play, 74-yard drive that lasted 2:45.

Following a pair of empty drives by both teams to open the second half, UTSA pieced together an eight-play, 46-yard drive resulting in a 42-yard field goal by Sean Ianno to tie the game up at 10-all.

FIU put together a nice drive with over six minutes remaining in the third quarter, which included a 43-yard connection from McGough to senior Glenn Coleman. With the ball inside the UTSA five, FIU turned it over, costing the Panthers a scoring opportunity. The Roadrunners were driving after the turnover, but FIU returned the favor, as junior Richard Leonard recovered a fumble to give FIU possession.

On the ensuing drive for the Panthers, Taylor converted a 24-yard field goal to give FIU a 13-10 lead with 11:03 left in the game. FIU drove 60 yards in 14 plays, which took five minutes off the game clock.

With 1:54 to go in the contest, the Roadrunners tied it up on a 27-yard field goal. On the ensuing kick-off, FIU fumbled on the return which set up for the eventual game-winning kick for UTSA.

FIU had the ball at the UTSA 45 with 10 seconds to. The hail mary pass was picked off in front of the endzone to end the game.

Ocean Bank Field at FIU Stadium - Miami, Fla.

October 18, 2014 - 6:04 p.m. - ASN

FIU 3-5, 2-2 C-USA; Marshall 7-0, 3-0 C-USA

MIAMI (Oct. 18, 2014) – Despite an early lead, the FIU football team (3-5, 2-2) fell to the 25th-ranked Marshall Thundering Herd, 45-13, Saturday evening from Ocean Bank Field at FIU Stadium.

Freshman running back Alex Gardner finished the night with 104 yards on the ground, marking his third career 100-yard game. Freshman quarterback Alex McGough threw for 176 yards on 14 completions with a long of 46 yards to redshirt senior Cory White in the first quarter. The reception is also the longest catch of White's career. McGough also ran for a touchdown in the effort. Sophomore Jonnu Smith paced the receiving corps with a team-high 74 yards, highlighted by a 24-yard route on the Panthers' first scoring drive.

The Herd's Rakeem Cato moved Marshall to mid-field with a 12-yard route after both teams were forced to punt on its opening series. After a deep pass 10 yards beyond the receiver on second down, junior Jeremiah McKinnon came up with a key pass break-up on the following play to force a Marshall punt.

The Panthers answered with the game's first score on the ensuing drive. Gardner ran for 46 yards during the 13-play 80-yard drive. His 11-yard carry was part of back-to-back 10-yard-plus rushes along with junior De'Andre Jasper. On third and 14, McGough connected deep down field with Smith for 24 yards, moving the Panthers to the Herd's 26-yard line. Gardner's second big rush moved FIU to the Herd's six-yard line on third and four. A one-yard quarterback sneak by McGough capped off the 80-yard drive.

The Herd evened the game with a four-play 74-yard drive of its own with five seconds remaining in the first quarter. The go-ahead score for Marshall came on its next drive. Cato's 13-yard pass to Angelo Jean-Louis completed a four-play, 63-yard drive.

The Panthers' defense came up with its 25th forced turnover of the season with the Herd driving deep in FIU's zone during the final two minutes of the half. Redshirt junior Richard Leonard picked up his team-leading fifth interception on third and six from FIU's 16-yard line, giving him eight for his career, which ties him for No. 3 all-time.

The game went into half time with Marshall up by one touchdown, 14-7. The Panthers' dominated time of possession by nearly 11 minutes, 20:33 to 9:27 through two quarters.

After a 35-yard Herd field goal on its first drive of the third quarter, McGough hit Smith for seven yards on third and six. The Tampa, Fla., native then found junior Akil Dan-Fodio for 10 yards on third and 10, moving the Panthers towards midfield. Two incomplete passes forced the Panthers to punt.

Marshall went up 24-7 after Cato's nine-yard pass granted the Herd a fresh set of downs at FIU's 45. A 46-yard route on the following play sealed the 69-yard drive.

Rice 31, FIU 17

Ocean Bank Field at FIU Stadium - Miami, Fla.

Nov. 1, 2014 - 12:04 p.m. - ASN

FIU 3-6, 2-3 C-USA; Rice 5-3, 3-1 C-USA

MIAMI (Nov. 1, 2014) – Coming off the bye, FIU (3-6, 2-3) fell to the Rice Owls (5-3, 3-1) on Saturday afternoon at Ocean Bank Field at FIU Stadium, 31-17. The Panthers trailed by one touchdown at halftime, but were outscored 7-0 in the second half.

Redshirt junior Glenn Coleman recorded his third career 100-yard receiving game and his second this season, tallying two receptions for 101 yards. True freshman running back Napoleon Maxwell gained a career-best 88 yards on the ground and scored his first collegiate touchdown, as he averaged 5.5 yards per carry.

The Owls took a quick 7-0 lead after forcing a fumble during FIU's first possession of the game. On third and 10, Zach Patt broke past the line to get to freshman quarterback Alex McGough and forced a fumble. Rice ran it in for a 19-yard score. The Panthers' defense settled in and held the Owls to just three points on its following drive. Following a key pass break-up by sophomore Wilkenson Myrtill on second down, Rice couldn't convert on third and 10. Jame Farrimond hit a 40-yard field goal to cap the 39-yard drive, as Rice pulled ahead, 10-0 midway through the first quarter.

Following a 63-yard pass by Driphus Jackson to Jordan Taylor for an Owls' touchdown, McGough kept the ball on the Panthers' first play of the ensuing drive and rushed for 13 yards. On third and long, McGough found Coleman down field for the team's first score. A 52-yard pass down the right hash, Coleman was alone in man coverage and caught the 52-yarder off his defender in highlight-reel fashion.

The Owls were forced to go three-and-out on its next drive. Senior Demarkus Perkins sacked Jackson for a loss of six yards on second and eight. FIU took over at its own 27, as Maxwell carried for 15 yards over three plays, with a long of 11 on second down. McGough connected with Coleman again on third and six for 49 yards, setting up a first and goal from the nine. After a two-yard setback on second and goal, Maxwell rushed for 11 yards for his first career touchdown, making it a three-point game, 17-14.

Both teams traded empty first-series drives to open the second half. With Rice driving down the field on its second possession of the third quarter, sophomore Imarjaye Albury and redshirt freshman Jordan Guest combined for a key tackle on fourth and one from the Panthers own 22-yard line. Both Rice and FIU were held scoreless for the entirety of the third. The Owls pulled ahead 31-17 on a one-yard punch in by Luke Turner with 11:25 to play in the game.
