COVERING THE PANTHERS

The FIU Athletic Department appreciates your interest in FIU Intercollegiate Athletics and would like to welcome you to Miami. Please let us know if we can facilitate your coverage in any way.

MEDIA RELATIONS DEPARTMENT

The FIU Athletic Media Relations office is located in the Room 211 in the southeast corner of the U.S. Century Bank Arena on the Modesto A. Maidique Campus. Media Relations Coordinator Greg Kincaid will serve as the primary contact for the FIU men's soccer team and can be reached in the office at (305) 348-1496 or via email at grkincai@fiu.edu.

INTERVIEWS

All interviews with student-athletes and coaches must be coordinated through the FIU Athletic Media Relations office. For men's soccer interview requests, contact Greg Kincaid at least 24 hours in advance to ensure availability. Please note that interview requests will not be granted on the day before an event, or on the day of an event. Post-match interviews will take place on the field following a team meeting and an NCAA mandated five minute cooling off period. Contact Greg Kincaid with all post-match requests for student-athletes and coaches.

GAMEDAY SERVICES

Limited media seating is available for FIU men's soccer matches. Please inform Greg Kincaid at least two days prior to the match if you will be attending -- this includes photographers -- and check in with Kincaid upon arrival. The FIU Soccer Stadium is not presently equipped for radio broadcasts. Statistics will be distributed at every home match. Wireless internet is available at the FIU Soccer Stadium, free of charge.

MATCH NOTES

Updated statistics and notes will be available before every match.

CREDENTIALS/PARKING

At this time, credentials are not necessary for covering the FIU men's soccer team at FIU Soccer Stadium. There is no designated media parking for FIU soccer matches, however, parking is available in the Panther Parking Garage or across the street from the west side of U.S. Century Bank Arena.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Photographers are asked to use good judgement and to exercise caution when photographing soccer matches at FIU Soccer Stadium. Please keep out of the bench areas and stay clear of the the playing surface.

PANTHERS ON THE WEB

The FIU men's soccer homepage is where the media and general public can find the latest information on the Panthers, including biographical information, updated statistics, box scores, and more. Live stats will be provided via www.FIUSports.com for all home matches.

SOCIAL MEDIA

Keep up with the Panthers all year long by following FIU men's soccer on Twitter (@FIUMensSoccer) and by "Liking" FIU soccer on Facebook (Facebook.com/FIUMensSoccer). Follow all of FIU's 18 athletic teams on Google+ (FIU Athletics), Twitter (@FIUAthletics), Facebook (Facebook.com/FIUSports), YouTube (FIUPanthers), Pinterest (FIUAthletics), and Instagram (FIUAthletics).

Conference USA

Jeremiah Ingram, will serve as the C-USA men's soccer contact for the 2013 season. Ingram can be contacted via phone at (214) 774-1360, or via email at jingram@C-USA.org. For more information on C-USA, visit www.conferenceusa.com.

FIU DEPARTMENT OF ATHLETICS MISSION STATEMENT

www.FIUSports.com

The FIU Department of Intercollegiate Athletics adheres to the belief that intercollegiate athletics is an integral part of the educational framework of the institution and the program exists to support and compliment the mission and goals of the University. The mission of the FIU Department of Intercollegiate Athletics is to initiate, stimulate and continually improve the athletic and recreation programs for students by (1) promoting academic excellence and educational leadership, (2) striving to obtain athletic distinction at the Division 1 level, (3) assuring gender equity and cultivating diversity, (4) fostering and promoting personal integrity among its participants, (5) encouraging activities and experiences which instill the value of lifelong participation and total well-being, and (6) providing an avenue for the social development of the student through participatory interaction within and outside athletic and campus community.

In addition to augmenting the academic, athletic and personal development of students, events sponsored by the Department are conducted to facilitate unity, promote camaraderie and further social bonding within the community, foster and maintain institutional support from FIU alumni, University affiliates and external constituents positively increase the visibility of the University and Conference USA and enhance international and cultural understanding.

The Department and University fulfill these functions through the enforcement of developed and adopted eligibility rules that comply with the standards of scholarship, sportsmanship, personal conduct and amateurism. The Department strives to operate programs at the highest level of competition within budgetary constraints while respecting NCAA legislation, conference mandates, state and institutional regulations.

Participation in FIU Athletics will provide student-athletes with the opportunity to pursue a quality education in one of America's leading urban universities and develop a value system which encourages discipline, teamwork, self-confidence, leadership skills and sporting behavior in an equitable and diverse environment. Ultimately, the goal is to assure the experience that the students have in the FIU Department of Intercollegiate Athletics is profound and meaningful and serves to form a lasting bond with Florida International University.

Ken Arena

Head Coach

Second Season Virginia

On March 2, 2012, Kenny Arena became the fifth head coach in the history of FIU men's soccer. In just one season, Arena has already made strides in rebuilding the storied Panther soccer program. After leading FIU to its most wins since 2005 in his first season at the helm, he brings in a 2013 recruiting class that's featured on TopDrawerSoccer.com as one of five classes in the country with tremendous potential.

Arena led the Panthers to an 8-8-2 mark during the 2012 campaign, the most wins since FIU also posted eight during the 2005 season. The Panthers, who outscored their opponents 28-26 in 2012, return their top two goal scorers in Quentin Albrecht and Colby Burdette. As sophomores last season, the tandem combined for 17 goals and seven assists. Albrecht was a Third Team All-South Region selection and was also named to the All-C-USA Second team.

"We are excited to hire a coach of Kenny Arena's caliber," FIU Executive Director of Sports and Entertainment Pete Garcia said. "He has experience in the collegiate, professional and international ranks and will raise the level of success here at FIU. We look forward to seeing him return our men's soccer program to national prominence. We expect nothing but great things for the team's future."

Arena, a former Major League Soccer player and University of Virginia standout, spent four seasons as an assistant coach for the UCLA Bruins from 2008-11. During his time at UCLA, he helped lead the Bruins to three Pac-12 titles, three NCAA quarterfinal appearances and a 2011 College Cup appearance. With the Bruins, he was responsible for player development and recruiting. Under Arena, the Bruins produced 35 All-Pac 12 selections, two Player of the Year honorees and two Freshmen of the Year, as well as, 11 MLS draft picks. Prior to his time at UCLA, Arena was an assistant coach at George Mason in 2007 and a volunteer coach for the University of Virginia in 2006.

"Kenny is a very, very good young coach," University of Virginia Head Coach George Gelnovatch said. "I think it's a fantastic hire for FIU. He's one of the hardest-working guys in terms of recruiting. I see him everywhere. He has also done a very good job coaching with the LA Galaxy Academy U16 Team."

As head coach of the U16 LA Galaxy Academy Team, Arena led his squad to the 2010-11 USSDA National and SoCal Division championships, as well as the 2011 U-17 MLS Generation Adidas Cup. Those three championships were the first in club history. One of Arena's academy players became just the second homegrown player ever to sign with the LA Galaxy.

"Kenny Arena is one of the finest young coaches in the United States," Former U.S. National Team Head Coach and Current Egyptian National Team Head Coach Bob Bradley said. "He possesses tremendous soccer knowledge and has a real passion to teach the game. Kenny will provide great leadership for FIU soccer."

Arena was responsible for player development, recruiting and scheduling at George Mason in 2007. At Virginia in 2006, he helped the Cavaliers advance to the NCAA Semifinals, where they lost to UCLA. In addition, Arena had been training and coaching club teams in the Virginia area since 1998.

Arena played three seasons in Major League Soccer, spending 2003 and 2004 with the NY/NJ MetroStars and the 2005 season with DC United. In 2002, Arena was a member of the U.S. U-23 National Team and was also a member of the U.S. U-20 National Team from 2000-2001. He played in the 2001 World Youth Championships in Argentina, scoring a goal against the Ukraine.

At the University of Virginia, Arena started in 65-of-78 games at midfield from 1999-2002, totaling 24 career points off seven goals (including three game-winners) and 10 assists. He earned all-conference honors as a senior and was twice named to the VaSID All-Virginia team.

Arena's father, Bruce, is currently the general manager/head coach of the 2011 MLS Champion Los Angeles Galaxy and was the head coach of the U.S. men's national team from 1998-2006. He coached championship teams with DC United and at the University of Virginia.

"FIU has hired one of the outstanding young coaches in college soccer," Bruce Arena said. "I think he's going to do an outstanding job building a program at FIU and I see nothing but great things ahead for the program and Kenny as well."

Kevin Nylen

Assistant Coach

Second Season St. Anselm

Kevin Nylen enters his second season as an assistant coach at FIU after spending the previous two years as an assistant at Boston College.

"We are very fortunate that Kevin has decided to join our program," said Ken Arena. "Kevin is one of the best young coaches and recruiters in the country. Our players will immediately benefit from his experience and knowledge of the game."

Nylen was a first-team All-America selection at Saint Anselm College and the 2002 Northeast-10 Defensive Player of the Year. Before beginning his coaching career in August of 2009 at Amherst College, Nylen enjoyed a six-year professional playing career.

A 2003 Saint Anselm graduate, Nylen earned the school's Male Athlete of the Year honor, awarded annually to one student-athlete who best exemplifies the Saint Anselm spirit in leadership, scholarship and athletic achievements. Nylen played four seasons for the Hawks (1999-02), serving as team captain in 2002.

Upon graduating, Nylen began his professional career, spending three seasons with the Wilmington Hammerheads of the United Soccer League Second Division (2003-06), before joining the Charleston Battery of the USL First Division for three seasons.

A native of Ipswich, Mass., Nylen holds a United States Soccer Federation "A" coaching license as well as an NSCAA Advanced National diploma.

Coaching
Staff

Jean Camere

Assistant Coach

Second Season FIU

Jean Camere is in his second year as an assistant coach at FIU.

Before joining the FIU staff, Camere played for St. John's University in New York during the 2002-03 seasons where he competed in the NCAA Division I Final against Indiana. The following year he transferred to FIU and played during the 2004-05 seasons. After starting 14 of 16 games for FIU, Camere earned First-Team All-Atlantic Soccer Conference honors while leading the Panthers to the ASC Championship. Locally, Camere is an alumnus of Gulliver Prep in Miami, Fla.

After graduating from FIU, Camere took on the position of head coach of Boys' Varsity Soccer at Immaculata La Salle High School in Miami. During his tenure at La Salle, the Boys' Varsity Soccer Team tallied an overall record of 43-12-8 while reaching the district finals in each of his three seasons. After leaving La Salle, Camere took over the head coaching position for Weston FC where he prepared players for academy level competition.

Joe Massi

Assistant Coach (Goalkeepers)

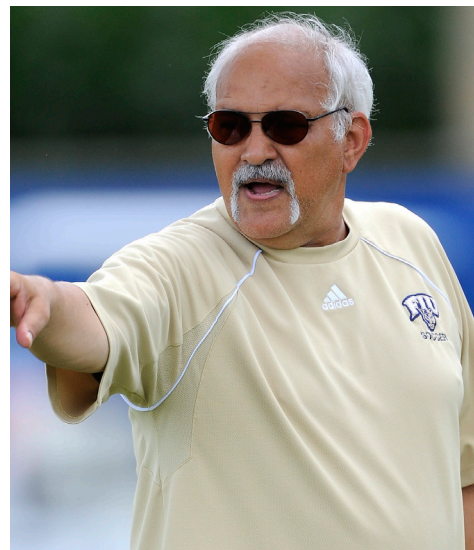

First Season FIU

With nearly three decades of coaching experience, goalkeepers coach Joe Massi has been associated with the FIU men's soccer program since he played on its very first soccer team in 1972.

The native of Cleveland, Ohio, lettered on both the 1972 and '73 teams, and competed as a member of the soccer team at Miami-Dade College prior to his stint with the Golden Panthers.

Massi has an "A" coaching license and has worked at all levels of the sport, from the youth leagues up through the professional ranks. Some of his previous coaching assignments include: serving as assistant to current Chivas USA sporting director Thomas Rongen with the Ft. Lauderdale Strikers (ASL), helping that organization to the 1989 league championship; assistant to Herb Dunning with the 1983 Miami-Dade junior college national champions; head coach of the 1980 state championship squad at Coral Gables Senior High School; and working with FIU alumnus Jeff Cassar as the goalkeeper coach with the MLS' Miami Fusion in 1998.

Not only has Massi traveled to Europe for many clinics and coaching sessions – including spending time in Malmö, Göteborg, Helsingborg, ÖIS of Sweden, Ajax of Holland and FC Köln of Germany, he has also been responsible for bringing top instructional clinics into South Florida.

Retired MLS Great Robin Fraser

Robin Fraser was named Chivas USA's sixth head coach on January 4, 2011, taking the role after a distinguished 10-year MLS playing career and four successful seasons as an assistant coach with Real Salt Lake. A standout for several MLS clubs and a veteran of the United States National Team, Fraser brings a wealth of experience as both a player and a coach to his new role at Chivas USA.

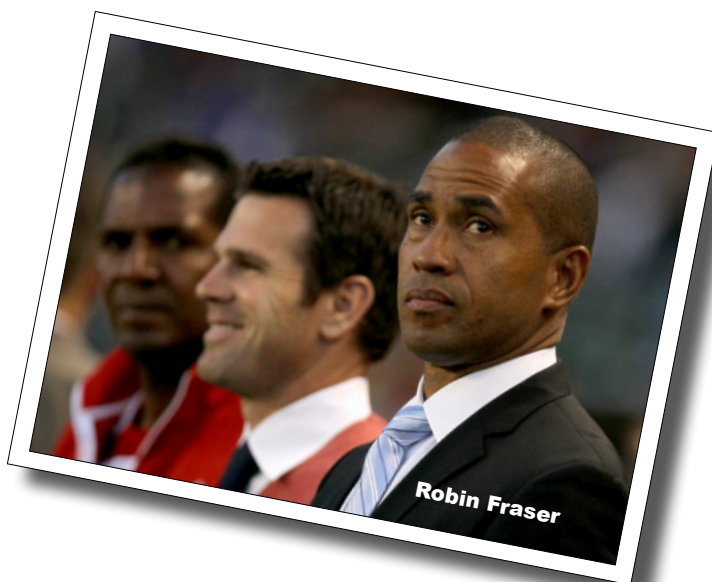

Most recently, Fraser has become one of the most widely respected Assistant Coaches in Major League Soccer due to his work in four seasons with Real Salt Lake under Head Coach Jason Kreis. Since he joined RSL in 2007, the club won an MLS Cup (in 2009) and has set a record for most consecutive home matches without a loss, currently at 25 league games and 33 matches in all competitions. Fraser, who earned his USSF 'A' Coaching License in 1993, also served as the Director of Coaching for youth club Arizona Futbol Club for two years and the head coach of the RSL Arizona Under-17 team following his retirement from Major League Soccer.

In 10 MLS seasons as a player, Fraser established himself as one of the league's top defenders, earning two MLS Defender of the Year awards in 1999 and 2004, as well as earning five appearances on the MLS All-Star Team and MLS Best XI (1996, 1998, 1999, 2000, 2004). The LA Galaxy's first-ever pick in the 1996 MLS Inaugural Player Draft (fourth overall), Fraser played in 260 games (256 starts) with three teams, the Galaxy (1996-2000), Colorado Rapids (2001-2003), and Columbus Crew (2004-2005).

Born in Kingston, Jamaica, Fraser attended high school in Miami, Florida, before attending FIU. After receiving his United States citizenship in 1986, the central defender made 27 appearances for the U.S. National Team, making his debut on June 1, 1988 and playing his final game for the U.S. on July 6, 2001. Fraser, and his wife Ashley, have two daughters, Danielle and Nicola.

At FIU: FIU defender (1984-88)... Two-time All-American (1987-88)... State Player of the Year (1988)... Three-time regional and all-state pick (1986-88)... 1988 Hermann Award finalist... 2005 FIU Men's Soccer Honor Award.

In a game matching two teams looking for their first NCAA championship soccer title, the host Panthers defeated Southern Connecticut State, 2-1.

For FIU, the game was a chance to make amends for a 1-0 double-overtime loss to Lock Haven in the 1980 final. Southern Connecticut, meanwhile, was hoping the fifth time would be the charm. The Owls had made four straight semifinal appearances before finally reaching the championship match.

The Golden Panthers, playing before a partisan crowd of 1,300 on a warm and windy afternoon, dominated much of the game, but still had to survive a furious Southern Connecticut rally in the final 10 minutes.

FIU's leading scorer Hermann-Josef Engels got the Golden Panthers off on the right foot with his 15th goal of the season at the 36:21 mark. A goalmouth scramble produced a short head pass from midfielder Greg Anderson back to Engels, who slotted it home from short range.

Anderson triggered FIU's second goal when he fed Max Rodriguez on a quick break just after halftime. Rodriguez's eight-yard shot beat Southern Connecticut goalkeeper Jim O'Brien to give the Golden Panthers a 2-0 lead.

Southern Connecticut State pulled back into the game when Hans Bogren converted a Sammi Joseph pass at the 79:54 mark. The Owls created several more opportunities in the final minutes, but FIU goalkeeper Everton Edwards preserved the win.

The victory was the first national championship in any sport for FIU.

Rallying around the call "You gotta believe," FIU won its second NCAA national soccer championship in three years with a 1-0 victory over Seattle Pacific University in Seattle, Washington.

Playing on a foreign, narrow, artificial-turfed field in front of 4,500 hostile fans and against the defending national champion, FIU still managed to pull out a victory, despite being outshot 29-5.

Troy Edwards headed in a corner kick by Orlando Barrios at 5:03 of the first overtime to give FIU the win. It was FIU's first and only corner kick of the game.

"We got killed in every statistic, but we won, and that's what counts," recalled Head Coach Karl Kremser. "It was so gratifying because this was a real team of character. We never lost faith. As sparse as our opportunities were, the one really good chance we had, we snatched it. And we did it under the most severe conditions."

A defensive misplay gave FIU the kick from the right corner. Barrios took the corner and arced the ball to the far side of the Seattle Pacific net, beyond goalkeeper Bill Glandon. There was no defender at the left post, and Edwards, a defender himself, made his fifth goal of the season with a header that angled down and just inside the left post.

Karl Kremser must have thought he and his Golden Panther men's soccer team had just finished filming the opening scene of television's "Wide World of Sports."

The team had made it all the way to the NCAA Division I National Championship Final Four in Richmond, Virginia, and during one weekend, experienced both the "joy of victory and the agony of defeat."

In the semifinal match against Charlotte, FIU started slowly and then came back to defeat the 49ers, 4-0, in the most lopsided semifinal victory in more than a dozen years. Tyrone Marshall, who sealed the win with a flying bicycle kick goal that was the talk of the tournament, punctuated the team effort. "Worth the price of admission," quipped Charlotte Coach John Tart.

Despite the win, a major setback occurred when team leader and star defender Kevin Birusingh was carried off the field after a sliding tackle and collision with a Charlotte player. Birusingh fractured his leg and spent the night in a Richmond hospital instead of celebrating with teammates.

For Sunday's nationally televised championship match against St. John's, the sun appeared for the first time all weekend, but for the most part, it shone only on the Red Storm's side of the field. St. John's took advantage of Birusingh's absence and scored a pair of first-half goals for a 2-0 lead at the intermission.

FIU closed to within 2-1 when All-American Ignace Moleka scored, but that was as close as it would get. St. John's added two insurance goals, the last one while playing shorthanded following an ejection, and won its first NCAA national championship crown.

The Golden Panthers battled adversity all season long. Kremser told anyone who would listen that he had a talented-enough team, but injuries and defections chipped away at the team's base. In the end, he was left with a shell of the team he had started out with in August.

Despite it all, FIU was selected as the second-seeded team in the NCAA field of 32. The Golden Panthers thumped the University of South Florida,

6-1, in the tourney's opening round at University Park, and then defeated Rutgers, 2-0, in a second-round game played during a driving rain storm and near-freezing temperatures in Piscataway, New Jersey.

FIU qualified for the Final Four with a 1-0 thriller over three-time national champ Indiana. The dream of winning a Division I national title was within reach.

After the season-ending loss, Kremser tried to console his team in a closed-door meeting. "Don't let this one loss detract from the kind of season you had," said the coach. "It was a great year and I'm proud of you all."

Regardless of the final outcome, it was a weekend that 21 players and three coaches will never forget. From the time they arrived at Richmond International Airport, banners were welcoming them, and soccer fans from across the country were trying to get close to them.

Everywhere there were small children with soccer balls looking to meet the student-athletes and coaches. On Saturday, at a special NCAA clinic for at-risk children, more than 500 youngsters got a chance to mingle with the players and get autographs.

Meanwhile back home, the team's accomplishments were making headlines. Tournament results were the lead sports stories on the local television newscasts and color art appeared along front-page stories in the The Miami Herald and Sun-Sentinel.

"It took us a while to get over it. There was a real sense of disappointment after the loss in the finals, but it was a great run," said Kremser. "I believe we represented ourselves and our university to our utmost capabilities."
