Covering the Panthers

The FIU Athletic Department appreciates your interest in FIU Intercollegiate Athletics and would like to welcome you to Miami. Please let us know if we can facilitate your coverage in any way.

Media Relations Department

The FIU Athletic Media Relations office is located in the Room 211 in the southeast corner of the FIU Arena on the Modesto A. Maidique Campus. Media Relations Coordinator Greg Kincaid will serve as the primary contact for the FIU men's soccer team and can be reached in the office at (305) 348-1496 or via email at gkincai@fiu.edu.

Interviews

All interviews with student-athletes and coaches must be coordinated through the FIU Athletic Media Relations office. For men's soccer interview requests, contact Greg Kincaid at least 24 hours in advance to ensure availability. Please note that interview requests will not be granted on the day before an event, or on the day of an event. Post-match interviews will take place on the field following a team meeting and an NCAA mandated five minute cooling off period. Contact Greg Kincaid with all post-match requests for student-athletes and coaches.

The FIU Athletic Media Relations Department has the right to refuse any interview request. Contacting players, coaches and staff without permission from the FIU Athletic Media Relations Department will not be tolerated.

THE FIU DORMITORIES, WEIGHT ROOM, LOCKER ROOM AND ATHLETIC TRAINING ROOM ARE OFF LIMITS TO ALL MEDIA.

Covering Practice

All practices are closed to the media unless special accommodations are made. Head Coach Scott Calabrese and players will be made available before and after practice. Media members must contact the FIU Athletic Media Relations Department to set up interviews. No interview will be granted without the permission of the FIU Athletic Media Relations Office.

Gameday Services

Limited media seating is available for FIU men's soccer matches. Please inform Greg Kincaid at least two days prior to the match if you will be attending -- this includes photographers -- and check in with Kincaid upon arrival. The FIU Soccer Stadium is not presently equipped for radio broadcasts. Statistics will be distributed at every home match. Wireless internet is available at the FIU Soccer Stadium, free of charge.

Match Notes

All requests for press, broadcast and photo credentials for FIU baseball should be directed to the FIU Media Relations Department.

Credentials/Parking

At this time, credentials are not necessary for covering the FIU men's soccer team at FIU Soccer Stadium. There is no designated media parking for FIU soccer matches, however, parking is available in the Panther Parking Garage or across the street from the west side of FIU Arena.

Photography

Photographers are asked to use good judgement and to exercise caution when photographing soccer matches at FIU Soccer Stadium. Please keep out of the bench areas and stay clear of the playing surface.

Panthers on the Web

The FIU men's soccer homepage is where the media and general public can find the latest information on the Panthers, including biographical information, updated statistics, box scores, and more. Live stats will be provided via www.FIUSports.com for all home matches.

Social Media

Keep up with the Panthers all year long by following FIU men's soccer on Twitter (@FIUMensSoccer) and by "Liking" FIU soccer on Facebook (Facebook.com/FIUMensSoccer). Follow all of FIU's 18 athletic teams on Google+ (FIU Athletics), Twitter (@FIUathletics), Facebook (Facebook.com/FIUSports), YouTube (FIUPanthers), Pinterest (FIUathletics), and Instagram (FIUathletics).

Conference USA

Olivia Kiespert, will serve as the C-USA men's soccer contact for the 2014 season. Ingram can be contacted via phone at (214) 774-1300, or via email at okiespert@C-USA.org. For more information on C-USA, visit www.conferenceusa.com.

Scott Calabrese

Head Coach - Second Season

Scott Calabrese enters his second season in 2015 as head coach of the FIU men's soccer program. Calabrese came to FIU after a successful six-year stint as head coach at East Tennessee State.

During his first year at the helm of the FIU program, Calabrese led a young team to six victories, which included two wins over ranked foes in Michigan and San Diego State. Calabrese and his staff oversaw four players who garnered Conference USA All-Conference recognition. Highlighted by Quentin Albrecht representing FIU on the C-USA First Team, Marvin Hezel and Daniel Gonzalez captured spots on the C-USA Third Team squad, while Donald Tomlinson rounded out the group with All-Freshman team honors. Albrecht was also named an NSCAA All-

Southeast Region selection.

Before coaching a game at FIU, Calabrese had already become active in the South Florida community. During the 2014 FIFA World Cup, Calabrese was a continuous guest analyst on WPLG Channel 10's "Quest for the Cup." Calabrese joined Sports Director Will Manso, along with longtime professional soccer coach Thomas Rongen on a weekly basis, as they previewed upcoming World Cup contests for the week. Deeper into the tournament, Calabrese made multiple appearances each week, serving as a postgame analyst.

"Scott Calabrese brings a championship pedigree to FIU," FIU Director of Sports and Entertainment Pete Garcia said at the time of the hire. "The success he has had at East Tennessee State both on the field (NCAA Tournament in 2010 and 2013) and in the classroom (Three-straight NSCAA Team Academic Award winner - 2011, 2012, 2013), along with the coaching experience he possesses are what will guide our men's program to new heights. We are thrilled to have him as our head coach and expect great things for the future of FIU men's soccer."

A program that began play in 2008, Calabrese led ETSU to two Atlantic Sun Tournament Championships (2010 and 2013), a pair of NCAA Tournament appearances, and four consecutive seasons of 10 or more wins (2010-13). This past season, the Buccaneers were crowned 2013 Atlantic Sun Champions after earning a 3-1 victory over North Florida in the A-Sun Tournament Championship.

Under Calabrese's tutelage, ETSU recorded an A-Sun record 10 shutouts en route to advancing to the 2013 NCAA Tournament. Overall, the Buccaneers have earned four victories over Top 25 opponents, including a 1-0 road win over No. 8 UAB, the nation's top scoring offense, Sept. 15, 2013. ETSU has not lost to a Top 25 opponent dating back to Sept. 11, 2011, as the Buccaneers have carried a 3-0-3 record over that time span.

Calabrese and the Buccaneers earned the program's first ever national ranking in 2011, soaring to No. 19 in the Soccer America Poll and No. 24 in the NSCAA rankings. ETSU entered the 2011 A-Sun Tournament as a No. 6 seed, blew by Jacksonville in the quarterfinals and edged Stetson in the semis to become the first such seed to advance to the final.

He led the Bucs to their most successful season in program history in 2010. Improving upon a six-win season in 2009, the Bucs won a program-record 15 games en route to winning the Atlantic Sun Championship and advancing to the program's first ever NCAA Tournament. Calabrese was awarded the A-Sun Coach of the Year for the team's vast improvement, along with earning NSCAA South Region Coach of the Year honors. ETSU rose to No. 38 in the RPI rankings that year, which marked the largest single-season improvement of any Division I program.

Prior to his time at ETSU, Calabrese spent four seasons as an assistant coach at Clemson. During his time with the Tigers, Clemson made a trip to the College Cup in 2005 and No. 1 national ranking midway through that season. Calabrese was also responsible for directing the Clemson Soccer Academy, which plays host to over 1,800 children each year.

Calabrese previously was an assistant coach at North Carolina from 2000-01, as he helped lead the Tar Heels to a National Championship in 2001 and an ACC championship and Elite Eight appearance in 2000. He also was an assistant coach in the A-Sun Conference with the Stetson Hatters from 1998-99.

A native of Newton, Conn., Calabrese brings some professional experience to FIU as well. He served as an assistant coach for the Carolina Courage of the WUSA, as he helped lead them to the 2002 WUSA title. He also played professionally for the Rhode Island Sting Rays from 1995-97, as well as the South Carolina Shamrocks in 1998.

Calabrese was a member of the 2006 Olympic Development Program Region III coaching staff as well as the goalkeepers coach for the U.S. Women's National Team. Calabrese has an "A" coaching license, and is a Level I and II certified goalkeeping instructor with the NSCAA.

Calabrese is a 1995 graduate of Bryant College where he earned a B.S. in business administration.

Kevin Nylan

Assistant Coach - Fourth Season

Kevin Nylan enters his fourth season in 2015 as an assistant coach at FIU, his second season alongside Head Coach Scott Calabrese. Nylan came to FIU in 2012 after spending the previous two years as an assistant at Boston College.

During the 2014 campaign, Nylan helped Calabrese lead a young team to six victories, which included two wins over ranked foes in Michigan and San Diego State. The staff oversaw four players who garnered Conference USA All-Conference recognition. Highlighted by Quentin Albrecht representing FIU on the C-USA First Team, Marvin Hezel and Daniel Gonzalez captured spots on the C-USA Third Team squad, while Donald Tomlinson rounded out the group with All-Freshman team honors. Albrecht was also named an NSCAA All-Southeast Region selection.

In his first year at FIU alongside then-Head Coach Ken Arena, Nylan helped lead the Panthers to an 8-8-2 overall mark during the 2012 season, the most wins since FIU also posted eight during the 2005 season. The Panthers, who outscored their opponents 28-26 in 2012, were led by Quentin Albrecht who was a Third Team All-South Region selection and was also named to the Conference USA All-Conference Second Team.

The 2013 campaign brought even more improvement to the program, as FIU had its best points finish in the C-USA standings since 2005. Additionally, Albrecht and Gonzalo Frechilla were named Second Team All-Conference, while freshman Marvin Hezel earned All-Freshman Team Honors. Nylan helped showcase a very talented 2013 freshman class consisting of 15 players, which was rated Top 25 nationally for incoming classes.

During his first season at Boston College in 2010, the Eagles advanced to the semifinals of the Atlantic Coast Conference Tournament and earned one of the 27 at-large berths to the NCAA Championship. Three Eagles earned 2010 All-ACC honors, including an All-ACC First Team player in forward Charlie Rugg, who became the fifth player in program history to earn first team honors.

Nylan's 2011 season at BC was even more of a success, as the Eagles advanced to the finals of the ACC Tournament marking the fifth-straight time that the squad made it to at least the semifinal stage. BC earned a berth into the NCAA Championship for the fifth-straight year. Four players earned 2011 All-ACC honors. Rugg was named to the First Team for the second consecutive season, while Kyle Bekker made his first appearance on the First Team.

Nylan began his coaching career in August of 2009 at Amherst College. He was a first-team All-America selection at Saint Anselm College and the 2002 Northeast-10 Defensive Player of the Year. Before beginning his coaching career in August of 2009 at Amherst College, Nylan enjoyed a six-year professional playing career.

A 2003 Saint Anselm graduate, Nylan earned the school's Male Athlete of the Year honor, awarded annually to one student-athlete who best exemplifies the Saint Anselm spirit in leadership, scholarship and athletic achievements. Nylan played four seasons for the Hawks (1999-02), serving as team captain in 2002.

Upon graduating, Nylan began his professional career, spending three seasons with the Wilmington Hammerheads of the United Soccer League Second Division (2003-06), before joining the Charleston Battery of the USL First Division for three seasons.

A native of Ipswich, Mass., Nylan holds a United States Soccer Federation "A" coaching license as well as an NSCAA Advanced National diploma.

Jean Camere

Assistant Coach - Fourth Season

Jean Camere enters his fourth year in 2015 as an assistant coach at FIU. Camere joined the Panthers in 2012 and is in his second season as a member of Head Coach Scott Calabrese's staff.

During the 2014 campaign, Camere helped the staff lead a young team to six victories, which included two wins over ranked foes in Michigan and San Diego State. FIU had four players who garnered Conference USA All-Conference recognition, highlighted by Quentin Albrecht representing FIU on the C-USA First Team and earning an NSCAA All-Southeast Region selection.

Camere's first two seasons alongside then-Head Coach Ken Arena were footsteps in the right direction for the FIU men's soccer program. In 2012, the Panthers finished with an 8-8-2 overall mark, the most wins since FIU also posted eight during the 2005 season. As a sophomore, Quentin Albrecht was a Third Team All-South Region selection and was also named to the Conference USA All-Conference Second Team.

FIU saw even more improvement in 2013, as the Panthers had their best points finish in the C-USA standings since 2005. Albrecht and Gonzalo Frechilla were named Second Team All-Conference, while freshman Marvin Hezel earned All-Freshman Team Honors.

Camere played for St. John's University during the 2002-03 seasons, where he competed in the Division I National Championship against Indiana in 2003. That season, the Red Storm captured the BIG EAST regular season title and finished 17-6-3 overall. The following year he transferred to FIU and played during the 2004-05 seasons. After starting 14-of-16 games for FIU, Camere earned First-Team All-Atlantic Soccer Conference honors while leading the Panthers to the ASC Championship.

After graduating from FIU, Camere took on the position of head coach of boys' varsity

Sebastian Frings

Assistant Coach - Third Season

Former FIU standout Sebastian Frings enters his second stint as a volunteer assistant coach for the FIU men's soccer program. Frings previously was an assistant coach for the program on Kenny Arena's staff from August 2012 to December 2013.

Frings brings a wealth of playing and coaching experience to the program. During his time on Arena's staff, he also worked the Arena Soccer Academy in 2013. Frings has spent time with the Real Madrid Soccer Academy as well, as he served as an assistant coach for the Under 18 team from January 2013 to December 2013 before being elevated to the current head coach of that squad in September 2014.

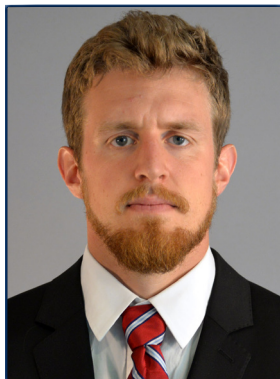

Frings has also spent some time volunteering at youth camps and clinics. For two years (2010-11) he was a coach at the Soccer Camp for Children with Down Syndrome. A native of Germany, Frings was a camp instructor in his home country as he worked the Fortuna Duesseldorf U-18 Summer Camp.

During his time as a player at FIU, Frings was a four-year letter winner, was named a 2009 All-Conference USA selection and the 2010 FIU offensive MVP. He has also played professional soccer in Spain for Sporting Deportivo Noja. Frings was part of three German League Champion teams in his youth (2000, 2001, 2005).

Spencer Phillips

Strength Coach - Second Season

Spencer Phillips is in his second season with FIU as a Graduate Assistant Strength & Conditioning Coach. He assists with the Panther's football team in all aspects of strength & conditioning. He is also in charge of complete design and implementation of strength programs for men and women's soccer and swimming and diving.

Phillips comes to FIU from Indiana University where he was an intern then Graduate assistant intern coach from January 2011-March 2014 before accepting the position with FIU. While at Indiana, Phillips worked with 20 of Indiana's athletic teams including a National Championship and Big Ten Champion men's soccer team, Big Ten Champion and College World series men's baseball team and CWPA Champion Women's water polo team. Phillips also worked with a multitude of Big Ten and national champions in swimming & diving and track & field. Phillips has former athletes currently playing in the MLB, MLS and NASL.

Phillips received his Bachelor of Science in kinesiology from Indiana University with a concentration in fitness specialty and coaching in 2013. He is currently pursuing his master's degree in physical education: sport & fitness.

Retired MLS Great Robin Fraser

Robin Fraser is current an assistant coach for the New York Red Bulls of the MLS. A standout for several MLS clubs and a veteran of the United States National Team, Fraser brings a wealth of experience as both a player and a coach to the MLS.

Fraser was named Chivas USA's sixth head coach on January 4, 2011, taking the role after a distinguished 10-year MLS playing career and four successful seasons as an assistant coach with Real Salt Lake.

Prior to being hired by Chivas USA, Fraser was one of the most widely respected Assistant Coaches in Major League Soccer due to his work in four seasons with Real Salt Lake under Head Coach Jason Kreis. Since he joined RSL in 2007, the club won an MLS Cup (in 2009) and has set a record for most consecutive home matches without a loss, currently at 25 league games and 33 matches in all competitions. Fraser, who earned his USSF 'A' Coaching License in 1993, also served as the Director of Coaching for youth club Arizona Futbol Club for two years and the head coach of the RSL Arizona Under-17 team following his retirement from Major League Soccer.

In 10 MLS seasons as a player, Fraser established himself as one of the league's top defenders, earning two MLS Defender of the Year awards in 1999 and 2004, as well as earning five appearances on the MLS All-Star Team and MLS Best XI (1996, 1998, 1999, 2000, 2004). The LA Galaxy's first-ever pick in the 1996 MLS Inaugural Player Draft (fourth overall), Fraser played in 260 games (256 starts) with three teams, the Galaxy (1996-2000), Colorado Rapids (2001-2003), and Columbus Crew (2004-2005).

Born in Kingston, Jamaica, Fraser attended high school in Miami, Florida, before attending FIU. After receiving his United States citizenship in 1986, the central defender made 27 appearances for the U.S. National Team, making his debut on June 1, 1988 and playing his final game for the U.S. on July 6, 2001. Fraser, and his wife Ashley, have two daughters, Danielle and Nicola.

At FIU: FIU defender (1984-88)...Two-time All-American (1987-88)... State Player of the Year (1988)...Three-time regional and all-state pick (1986-88)... 1988 Hermann Award finalist...2005 FIU Men's Soccer Honor Award.

In a game matching two teams looking for their first NCAA championship soccer title, the host Panthers defeated Southern Connecticut State, 2-1.

For FIU, the game was a chance to make amends for a 1-0 double-overtime loss to Lock Haven in the 1980 final. Southern Connecticut, meanwhile, was hoping the fifth time would be the charm. The Owls had made four straight semifinal appearances before finally reaching the championship match.

The Golden Panthers, playing before a partisan crowd of 1,300 on a warm and windy afternoon, dominated much of the game, but still had to survive a furious Southern Connecticut rally in the final 10 minutes.

FIU's leading scorer Hermann-Josef Engels got the Golden Panthers off on the right foot with his 15th goal of the season at the 36:21 mark. A goalmouth scramble produced a short head pass from midfielder Greg Anderson back to Engels, who slotted it home from short range.

Anderson triggered FIU's second goal when he fed Max Rodriguez on a quick break just after halftime. Rodriguez's eight-yard shot beat Southern Connecticut goalkeeper Jim O'Brien to give the Golden Panthers a 2-0 lead.

Southern Connecticut State pulled back into the game when Hans Bogren converted a Sammi Joseph pass at the 79:54 mark. The Owls created several more opportunities in the final minutes, but FIU goalkeeper Everton Edwards preserved the win.

The victory was the first national championship in any sport for FIU.

Rallying around the call "You gotta believe," FIU won its second NCAA national soccer championship in three years with a 1-0 victory over Seattle Pacific University in Seattle, Washington.

Playing on a foreign, narrow, artificial-turfed field in front of 4,500 hostile fans and against the defending national champion, FIU still managed to pull out a victory, despite being outshot 29-5.

Troy Edwards headed in a corner kick by Orlando Barrios at 5:03 of the first overtime to give FIU the win. It was FIU's first and only corner kick of the game.

"We got killed in every statistic, but we won, and that's what counts," recalled Head Coach Karl Kremser. "It was so gratifying because this was a real team of character. We never lost faith. As sparse as our opportunities were, the one really good chance we had, we snatched it. And we did it under the most severe conditions."

A defensive misplay gave FIU the kick from the right corner. Barrios took the corner and arced the ball to the far side of the Seattle Pacific net, beyond goalkeeper Bill Glandon. There was no defender at the left post, and Edwards, a defender himself, made his fifth goal of the season with a header that angled down and just inside the left post.

Karl Kremser must have thought he and his Golden Panther men's soccer team had just finished filming the opening scene of television's "Wide World of Sports."

The team had made it all the way to the NCAA Division I National Championship Final Four in Richmond, Virginia, and during one weekend, experienced both the "joy of victory and the agony of defeat."

In the semifinal match against Charlotte, FIU started slowly and then came back to defeat the 49ers, 4-0, in the most lopsided semifinal victory in more than a dozen years. Tyrone Marshall, who sealed the win with a flying bicycle kick goal that was the talk of the tournament, punctuated the team effort. "Worth the price of admission," quipped Charlotte Coach John Tart.

Despite the win, a major setback occurred when team leader and star defender Kevin Birusingh was carried off the field after a sliding tackle and collision with a Charlotte player. Birusingh fractured his leg and spent the night in a Richmond hospital instead of celebrating with teammates.

For Sunday's nationally televised championship match against St. John's, the sun appeared for the first time all weekend, but for the most part, it shone only on the Red Storm's side of the field. St. John's took advantage of Birusingh's absence and scored a pair of first-half goals for a 2-0 lead at the intermission.

FIU closed to within 2-1 when All-American Ignace Moleka scored, but that was as close as it would get. St. John's added two insurance goals, the last one while playing shorthanded following an ejection, and won its first NCAA national championship crown.

The Golden Panthers battled adversity all season long. Kremser told anyone who would listen that he had a talented-enough team, but injuries and defections chipped away at the team's base. In the end, he was left with a shell of the team he had started out with in August.

Despite it all, FIU was selected as the second-seeded team in the NCAA field of 32. The Golden Panthers thumped the University of South Florida,

6-1, in the tourney's opening round at University Park, and then defeated Rutgers, 2-0, in a second-round game played during a driving rain storm and near-freezing temperatures in Piscataway, New Jersey.

FIU qualified for the Final Four with a 1-0 thriller over three-time national champ Indiana. The dream of winning a Division I national title was within reach.

After the season-ending loss, Kremser tried to console his team in a closed-door meeting. "Don't let this one loss detract from the kind of season you had," said the coach. "It was a great year and I'm proud of you all."

Regardless of the final outcome, it was a weekend that 21 players and three coaches will never forget. From the time they arrived at Richmond International Airport, banners were welcoming them, and soccer fans from across the country were trying to get close to them.

Everywhere there were small children with soccer balls looking to meet the student-athletes and coaches. On Saturday, at a special NCAA clinic for at-risk children, more than 500 youngsters got a chance to mingle with the players and get autographs.

Meanwhile back home, the team's accomplishments were making headlines. Tournament results were the lead sports stories on the local television newscasts and color art appeared along front-page stories in the The Miami Herald and Sun-Sentinel.

"It took us a while to get over it. There was a real sense of disappointment after the loss in the finals, but it was a great run," said Kremser. "I believe we represented ourselves and our university to our utmost capabilities."
