FIU in the LPGA

Pat Bradley ('75)

LPGA Hall of Fame member Pat Bradley joined the professional tour in 1974 and got her first win at the Girl Talk Classic in 1976. Her breakout year was 1978, when she won three times. Bradley's best years came in the early to mid-1980s. She led the LPGA in wins in 1983 (4) and 1986 (5). Her first major came at the 1980 du Maurier Classic and then she added the 1981 U.S. Women's Open and 1985 du Maurier. But 1986 is the year Bradley will forever be remembered. That year, she won three of the four LPGA majors - the du Maurier, Kraft Nabisco Championship and LPGA Championship. She also finished fifth in the U.S. Women's Open and won the money title and scoring titles that year. Her last big year was 1991, when Bradley won four times, captured her second money and scoring titles and was named Player of the Year for a second time. She played collegiately at FIU in 1973-74 and was the school's first-ever All-America athlete.

Michelle Dobek ('87)

Michelle Dobek turned professional in 1990 after a successful run on the Futures Tour where she was a two-time winner. After a two-year hiatus, she returned to the tour in 1995 and a year later, recorded her first career hole-in-one during the fourth round of the Twelve Bridges LPGA Classic and tied for 10th place at the McDonald's LPGA Championship, her best finish ever in a major. Dobek posted her career-best finish in 1996 with a tie for ninth at the Star Bank LPGA Classic where she recorded a personal-best score of 67 during the final round. Dobek competed at FIU from 1985-87 and placed second at the Florida State Collegiate in 1987. As an amateur in 1984, she was a semifinalist in the Doherty Cup.

Moira Dunn ('94)

Moira Dunn has played professionally since 1989 with 301 tour stops and two LPGA holes-in-one to her credit. In 2001 she earned her career-best winnings while playing in 24 tournaments. That year, her best finish was a second-place showing at the Wendy's Championship for Children at New Albany and the First Union Betsy King Classic. Three years later, she picked up her first tournament win, firing a 12-under par, 204, to capture the Giant Eagle LPGA Classic. Dunn turned professional in August 1994 when she qualified for the Tour at the LPGA Final Qualifying Tournament, where she tied for 20th to earn exempt status for the 1995 season. She was a two-time All-American in 1993 and '94 while a member of the FIU golf team.

Terry-Jo Myers ('84)

Terry-Jo Myers was an 18-year touring professional with three wins to her credit at the 1988 Mayflower Classic and nearly 10 years later at the 1997 Los Angeles Women's Championship and Sara Lee Classic where she beat Laurel Kean with par on the fifth extra playoff hole. She had 16 top-10 career finishes and won of the 1997 Heather Farr Player Award. Myers is a national spokesperson for the Interstitial Cystitis Association (ICA) and has testified before the U.S. Senate in an effort to raise funds for research. She received the 1998 Ben Hogan Award from the Golf Writers Association of America and launched the "On Course for Better Health" program with Dottie Pepper in 2000 and 2001. Myers was also co-winner with Dottie Pepper of the 2001 Daytona Beach (Fla.) Kiwanis Foundation Humanitarian of the Year Award.

Becky Pearson ('78)

A retired LPGA veteran who participated in 363 events over a 16-year professional career, Becky Pearson's top year was in 1986 when she collected a tournament victory at the Chrysler-Plymouth Classic. That year, she also tied for second at the Mazda Japan Classic, tied for third at the Mazda Classic and tied for fourth at the McDonald's Championship. She had a total of 10 top-10 professional finishes including a tie for second place at the 1986 Mazda Japan Classic. Pearson laid the groundwork for her professional career as a Minnesota amateur. She captured the Minnesota State Junior in 1972 and '73 and was a quarter-finalist the following year in the USGA Girls Junior. A 1978 All-American golfer at FIU, Pearson was a semi-finalist in the '78 Doherty Challenge Cup and a runner-up in the 1979 USGA Public Links Championship.

Brenda Rego ('78)

Brenda Rego played in 30 LPGA events from 1975-81 with a top finish of 31st place at the 1977 Bent Tree Ladies Classic. After her playing days, she became the first female Class A member of the Aloha Section PGA. She has been a professional at the Wailea Golf Club in Maui, Hawaii, since 1998, and currently oversees operations at the Wailea Gold and Emerald courses. In 2006, she was named the Assistant Pro of the Year by the Aloha Section PGA. Rego helped FIU to a 1978 state championship and a third-place finish at the AIAW Senior Nationals. That year, she won the prestigious Women's Southern Intercollegiate and the following summer, captured the Hawaii Women's State Amateur Championship.

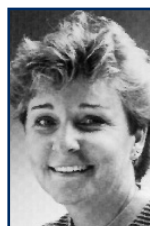

Nancy Rubin-Sharff ('80)

Nancy Rubin-Sharff played on the LPGA Tour from 1980-95 and enjoyed her best campaign in 1990, on the strength of three top-20 finishes while posting her career-low round of 66 on the final day of the 1990 LPGA Corning Classic. Her career-best finish was a third-place showing at the 1983 Inamori Classic. She played in a single-season career-high 28 events in 1982, 1987 and 1990. Rubin-Sharff attended FIU and was a 1980 AIAW All-American, which followed an extensive amateur career that was capped off by winning the 1980 Doherty Challenge Cup a year after claiming runner-up honors in that event. As an amateur in 1976, she won the Pennsylvania State Junior and the PGA National Junior Championship.

Michelle Simpson ('01)

Michelle Simpson played in 12 LPGA tournaments from 2004-06 but before then, played on the Futures Tour where her best finish was a tie for ninth at the Stratton Mountain Futures Classic. She earned non-exempt status for the 2005 LPGA Tour season after a 37th-place tie at the LPGA Final Qualifying Tournament Presented by American Airlines. After turning professional in 2001, she played in 41 events on the Futures Tour and won an event on the 2003 Next Generation Women's Tour. As an amateur, Simpson was the Jacksonville, Fla., Titleist Tour Player of the Year from 1996-97 and competed in the 1997 and 2001 U.S. Women's Amateur Championships. She won 11 collegiate tournaments while attending FIU and was a 2001 NCAA All-American.

Mary Beth Zimmerman ('83)

Twenty-four year LPGA veteran Mary Beth Zimmerman competed in 433 professional events with four tour victories to her credit. She picked up top medalist honors twice in 1986 at the Samaritan Turquoise Classic and at the Uniden LPGA Invitational. She also earned top honors at the Henredon Classic and won on a second playoff hole at the 1995 State Farm Rail Classic. Additionally, she finished among the top-10 in 20 other LPGA events. Zimmerman earned $221,072 in her top year during 1986. A golfer by the age of 11, Zimmerman was the 1980 Broadmoor champion and the 1983 Florida State Collegiate champion. In 1980, she was named an All-American while playing at FIU.

FIU Pat Bradley Invitational

Overview

The 38th Annual FIU Pat Bradley Invitational is held in 2015 at the beautiful Lakewood Ranch Golf and Country Club just outside Sarasota, Fla., October 25-27

Hosted by FIU, the three-round, 54-hole tournament was played on the challenging par-72, 6,288-yard Cypress Links Course. Opened in 2001, the 18-hole, Arnold Palmer-designed course featured wide golf corridors and delivered a more forgiving and rewarding experience for golfers of all skill levels.

The 2015 event features 14 schools: FIU, Bradley, Cincinnati, Daytona State, Florida Atlantic, Florida Gulf Coast, Georgia State, Jacksonville, James Madison, Memphis, North Texas, Texas A&M-Corpus Christi, Toledo and WKU.

History

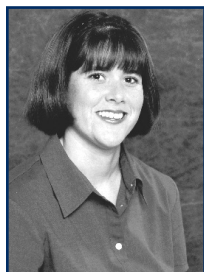

The annual FIU Pat Bradley Invitational remains one of the nation's longest-running collegiate golf events.

Named after the golf icon and FIU's very first All-American, the "Pat Bradley" was initiated by FIU's first golf coach and women's golf pioneer Mary Dagraedt (1973-81), who began the event at the Hollywood Lakes Inn & Country Club in 1977.

In addition to Hollywood Lakes, the FIU Pat Bradley Invitational has been held at such prestigious course locations: The Club at Pelican Preserve in Ft. Myers; Miccosukee Golf & Country Club (former Miami National Golf Club); Doral Golf Resort & Spa - Great White and Blue courses; Wyndham El Conquistador Resort & Spa in Las Croabas, Puerto Rico; Miami International Links at Melreese Country Club; Country Club of Miami; Don Shula's Hotel & Golf Club (former Miami Lakes Resort); Key Biscayne Golf Links (current Crandon Golf at Key Biscayne); Kings Bay Yacht & Country Club (current Deering Bay Yacht & Country Club).

Since its inception over 35 years ago, the FIU Pat Bradley Invitational has consistently drawn top-quality collegiate programs and players.

There have been 16 different team champions since 1977, led by FIU with eight titles, followed by Miami (7), South Florida (4), Florida (3) and Tulsa (2) as schools with multiple team championships.

Michelle Simpson

Tournament medalists have represented 17 different schools, with FIU leading the charge at 12 individual titles, followed by Miami (5), Florida Atlantic (3) and South Florida (2) as schools with multiple winners.

FIU's Michelle Simpson (1997-00) stands as the only four-time winner of the event.

Countless NCAA Division I All-Americans have played in the FIU Pat Bradley Invitational over the years, many of who went on to great success on the LPGA Tour.

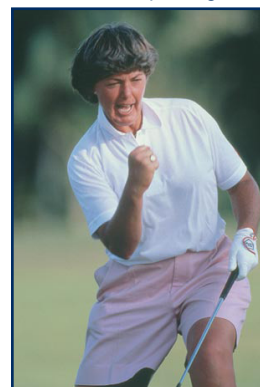

Such notable participants from visiting schools have included: Meg Mallon (Ohio State), Dottie Pepper (Furman), Kelly Robbins (Tulsa) Carin Hjalmarsson-Koch (Tulsa), Donna Andrews (North Carolina), Deb Richard (Florida), Penny Hammel (Miami), Cindy Schreyer (Georgia), Kate Golden (Texas), Jackie Gallagher (LSU) Joan Pitcock (Tulsa), Patti Rizzo (Miami), Cathy Johnston North Carolina), Jean Bartholomew (Duke) and Tracy Kerdyk (Miami).

FIU's LPGA standouts have included Becky Pearson, Brenda Rego, Nancy Rubin-Sharff, Mary Beth Zimmerman, Terry-Jo Myers, Michelle Dobek, Moira Dunn and Simpson.

Pat Bradley

A standout collegiate golfer, who went on to unprecedented success on the LPGA tour, Pat Bradley is known as arguably the most consistent performer and dedicated individual in women's golf.

During her prime, Bradley competed in 627 tournaments, posting 312 top-10 finishes, with 208 of those in the top five. She became the first woman golfer to surpass the $2 million (1986), $3 million (1990) and $4 million (1991) marks in career earnings and was the first woman to win all four of the modern major golf championships. In 1986, she won the Nabisco Championship, the du Maurier and finished fifth at the U.S. Women's Open, three strokes out of the Jane Geddes-Sally Little playoff.

Bradley was one of the greatest players from one of the most competitive eras in LPGA Tour history and in 1991 she became the 12th women's golfer to be inducted into the World Golf Hall of Fame.

Cypress Links at Lakewood Ranch and Country Club

Cypress Links is one of three unique courses at the private Lakewood Ranch and Country Club. The course poses traditional challenges through bunkers, water, forced carries, hazards and length.

The private club opened on November 29, 2001 with the Cypress Links course. The King's Dunes course followed with its opening in March 2005, then Royal Lakes in 2007.

Cypress Links was designed with all skill levels in mind to be more forgiving, yet, it is quite challenging for the most skilled players measuring 6,288 yards.
