Press Conference

On Mondays at 10:30 AM, in the Kennon Sports Hall of Fame building, selected players and Coach Stockstill meet with the media individually for a press conference. The weekly conferences will be held every Monday before a game. Media can park in the area located between the practice field and the weight room on campus. The Athletic Communications Office will transcribe quotes that will be put on GoBlueRaiders.com and also emailed to the Blue Raiders' primary and football lists. A video feed of Stockstill, along with the players, will be available on Youtube.com/GoBlueRaiders.tv. The Press Conference will be shown live on Facebook Live.

Practice

Members of the media can interview coaches and players on Tuesday and Wednesday of game-week after practice. All practices are closed. Following Wednesday's practice, student-athletes will not be available for interviews until the conclusion of the game on Saturday.

Postgame Interviews

Middle Tennessee's locker room is closed. Media will be asked to submit a list of player requests to Mark Owens at the start of the 4th quarter. During home games, players will be available to the media first in the Murphy Center Green Room (lower level) followed by Head Coach Rick Stockstill.

Photographer Room

A photographer work area is setup prior to each game in the southeast corner of Murphy Center. Tables and internet access will be setup just outside the Green Room for use by all photographers.

A LOOK AT THE SERIES

► This will be 13th meeting in a series that began in 2005. The Blue Raiders own an 8-4 advantage and have won two straight over the Panthers. The Blue Raiders are 5-1 all-time against FIU in Murfreesboro with the only loss coming in 2011.

RAIDERS AT FLOYD STADIUM

► Since Floyd Stadium opened in 1933, the Blue Raiders have compiled an overall mark of 287-119-13 (.700), including a record 31-game win streak from 1987-94.

► Under Rick Stockstill, the Blue Raiders are 39-22 overall at Floyd Stadium and 26-14 in conference games (13-3 vs C-USA). MT has a 20-6 record at home in its last 26 games.

► Since 2007, MT has had home games against Virginia, Maryland, Mississippi State, Minnesota, Georgia Tech, BYU and Vandy. MT hosts Vandy in 2017, Duke in 2019 and Missouri in 2022.

MT ON HOMECOMING

► Middle Tennessee has an overall mark of 51-24-2 on Homecoming and has won 22 of the past 29. The Blue Raiders fell to WKU, 44-43 (OT), in last year's Homecoming game. The seven losses during this stretch came against Troy in 1999, Louisiana-Lafayette in 2005 and 2007, ULM in 2012, ECU in 2013, VU in 2015 and WKU last year. The Blue Raiders are 6-5 on Homecoming under Rick Stockstill.

GOOD AND BAD

► QB John Urzua has made tremendous strides since being thrown into the fire last year as a freshman. In back-to-back games he has set his personal-best in passing yards, including a 359-yard effort at FAU that saw him set career-highs in completions (31) and attempts (51).

The down side was his three interceptions to give him 14 for his career in eight games played. Urzua's 359-yard effort was the sixth highest under Rick Stockstill and he became just the 15th signal-caller in school history to reach the 300-yard plateau.

DEFENDERS SET PERSONAL MARKS

► For the first time in the Rick Stockstill era, three players hit double digit tackles in the same game and all three set career highs. At FAU, Jovante Moffatt had 15 stops, DJ Sanders also had 15 tackles and freshman Reed Blankenship added 13 tackles.

NUMBER 3 FOR LEE

► Sophomore Ty Lee turned in his third career 100-yard receiving game last week at FAU. Lee hauled in eight passes for a personal-best 136 yards to better his previous best of 100 yards even set last year vs FIU and Hawaii.

GIANT KILLERS

► Under Rick Stockstill the Blue Raiders have a knack of knocking off Power 5 opponents. With the win at Syracuse earlier this season,

MT now has five wins over Power 5 foes in the Stockstill era. MT has wins over Maryland (2008, 2009), Georgia Tech (2012), Missouri (2016) and Syracuse (2017) with six others being decided by a touchdown or less. The Raiders will have plenty of more chances in the future with games against Georgia and Kentucky in 2018, Michigan, Duke and Iowa in 2019 and Ole Miss in 2020.

JAMES HAS NEWSON IN SIGHT

► Junior Richie James is well on his way to owning every MT receiving record and another could fall against FIU. James needs just 6 more catches to tie the all-time mark of 238 set by Kendall Newson (1998-01). At Syracuse he tied Newson for the all-time TD receptions mark with his 22nd and with 112 yards against Vanderbilt he broke Newson's career yardage mark.

CAPTAINS

► Head coach Rick Stockstill announced early in camp the players who will serve as permanent team captains in 2017. In the past, Stockstill named captains in December, but for the first time he named them before the season. Captains include redshirt senior Shane Tucker, redshirt junior wide receiver Richie James, redshirt junior quarterback Brent Stockstill, senior linebacker D.J. Sanders and junior Chandler Brewer. All five wear a specially designed patch.

8 TIMES IN 11 YEARS

► In 11 years under Rick Stockstill, Middle Tennessee has reached bowl eligibility eight times and seven times in the last eight years. The Blue Raiders have been bowl eligible under Rick Stockstill in 2006, 2009, 2010, 2012, 2013, 2014, 2015 and 2016. The eight bowl eligible years during the 11-year span is more than any FBS team in Tennessee and equals the most of any program in C-USA.

MR. SENIORITY

► Middle Tennessee Head Coach Rick Stockstill is in his 12th season at the helm of the Blue Raiders. His 12 seasons make him the longest tenured head coach in Conference USA while ranking 6th nationally.

Coch, School	Year
Kirk Ferentz, Iowa	19th season
Gary Patterson TCU	17th season
Kyle Whittingham, Utah	13th season
Frank Solich, Ohio	13th season
Mike Gundy, OSU	13th season
Rick Stockstill, MT	12th season
Pat Fitzgerald, NW	12th season

WINNING TURNOVER BATTLE

► Winning the turnover battle is critical in collecting victories in football. Under Rick Stockstill, MT has a mark of 48-13 when winning the turnover battle and is 40-5 during bowl eligible years (2006, 2009, 2010, 2012, 2013, 2014, 2015, 2016). Over the last 67 games (since 2012), MT is 23-2 when winning the turnover battle.

LOOKING FOR 100

► During its history, Middle Tennessee owns an impressive 167-55-1 (.750) record when a back gains 100 or more yards rushing. Under Rick Stockstill, a Blue Raider has reached the 100-yard mark 53 times and the team has a 45-8 mark in those games.

30 IS MAGIC

► Under Rick Stockstill, the Blue Raiders are 57-6 when scoring 30 points or more. The six losses came at Louisville in 2007 when the Raiders fell, 58-42, at Troy in 2011, 38-35, at home against WKU in 2011, 36-33 (2OT), against Western Michigan in the Popeyes Bahamas Bowl in 2015 (45-31), at home against WKU in 2016 (44-43) and against Hawai'i in the Hawai'i Bowl (52-35).

RICK STOCKSTILL

Head Coach

12th Year - Florida State '82

2-Time Coach of the Year

Winning on the field, off the field and having a first-class football program from top to bottom is the goal of any University at the highest level of intercollegiate athletics. That is exactly what Middle Tennessee has as a result of the leadership of Head Coach Rick Stockstill.

In his 12th season at the helm of the Blue Raiders and the sixth longest tenured coach in the country, Stockstill has captured a league title, won the 2009 New Orleans Bowl, made six bowl appearances, been bowl eligible eight times, earned two public recognition awards from the NCAA for APR success, produced six of the top eight crowds in Floyd Stadium history, and had back-to-back eight-win seasons for the first time in 21 years.

Under his watch, the Blue Raiders have also produced eight all-American's, including one academic all-American, three defensive players of the year, and two bowl game MVP's. Middle Tennessee also became the first Sun Belt team to win 10 games in a season, and set the Floyd Stadium single-game attendance record under his leadership. He also has five NFL Draft picks with Erik Walden in 2008, Chris McCoy in 2010, Rod Issac in 2011, Jimmy Staten in 2014 and Kevin Byard in 2016. Byard became the second highest draft pick in school history (3rd round, 64th pick to Titans).

The veteran leader put the Blue Raiders in the 2016 Hawaii Bowl in a year his team overcame a ton of adversity. Prior to the season he lost nearly all his starting receivers to injury, saw his record-setting quarterback go down, along with other key contributors. Through it all he led them to an eight-win season for the third time in five years to go with five first team all-conference picks.

Stockstill, who owns upsets over Maryland (2008 and 2009), Georgia Tech (2012), Missouri (2016) and Syracuse (2017), has also shown a commitment to academics during his tenure. The Blue

Raiders have gone from an APR score of 892 to a very impressive 992, the biggest increase of any program in the country. The Blue Raiders were also crowned with the Sun Belt Conference Academic Award on two occasions (2006-07, 2007-08) and earned two public recognition awards from the NCAA for APR success (2011, 2012).

After 24 years as an assistant, Stockstill was given the chance to run his own program, and all he did was lead the Blue Raiders to a 2006 Sun Belt Conference championship, help set a new single-season attendance record, and take the program to its first postseason bowl game in the I-A era. Taking a Middle Tennessee team predicted to finish sixth in the Sun Belt during the preseason to a league title, Stockstill ended up as the 2006 Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year and the Tennessee Sports Writers Association Coach of the Year while also garnering that honor from ESPN.com.

Born Dec. 23, 1957 in Sidney, Ohio, Stockstill grew up in Georgetown, Ky., and then moved to Fernandina Beach, Fla., where he was inducted into the Fernandina Beach Hall of Fame in 2006. He was a three-year letterman at Florida State as a quarterback, where he was team captain and earned Honorable Mention All-America honors in 1981 under Coach Bobby Bowden. During his career at FSU, the Seminoles had two top-10 final Associated Press rankings and had wins over powers Notre Dame, Pittsburgh, Ohio State, and Nebraska. Stockstill, who received his bachelor's degree from FSU in 1982, made three bowl trips with the Seminoles.

Stockstill and his wife, the former Sara Fleischman, have a son, Brent, and a daughter, Emily.

RAIDERS FALL TO 'DORES IN SEASON OPENER

MURFREESBORO - Middle Tennessee's season-opening matchup with in-state foe Vanderbilt didn't go quite as planned for the Blue Raiders inside Floyd Stadium.

The Commodores (1-0) struck early and took the crowd of 26,717 out of the game, then hung on with solid defense to beat the Raiders (0-1) 28-6.

"I'm just disappointed in how we played," MT Head Coach Rick Stockstill said.

"There are some things that we saw that we might be able to expand on a little bit with some personnel ... but there's not a whole lot of positive about this game.

"We've got enough things to get corrected before we play again."

Vanderbilt was effective offensively from its first possession, though it wasn't All-Southeastern Conference running back Ralph Webb who led the way.

Junior quarterback Kyle Shurmur, who threw for just 113 yards against Middle Tennessee in 2016, was the driving force behind the Dores' 14-0 lead at the end of the first quarter that seemed to grab all of the momentum for the visiting team.

He completed 6-of-7 passes in the first quarter for 124 yards and a touchdown, and finished the game with 296 yards on 20-of-28 passing with three scores.

Webb, on the other hand, managed just 21 yards rushing in the first quarter and finished with 49 on 24 attempts. It was a far cry from the 183 yards Vandy's all-time leading rusher averaged on the ground against MT the past two seasons, though he also added 104 receiving yards.

"They knew we would try to load the box, so we expected the pass but more run," senior linebacker D.J. Sanders said. "We have to fix the missing assignments we had, be more consistent, stop the run, fly to the ball and get more takeaways."

While the Blue Raider defense had its hands full with the Commodore passing attack, its offense struggled to find much momentum. And when it finally got moving, miscues led to missed opportunities.

Middle Tennessee's first two possessions ended with an interception and turnover on downs, both on Vanderbilt's side of the field, eliminating good scoring chances that could have swung the early momentum. It was the same problem the Blue Raiders had a year prior in Nashville when they scored just four times while entering Commodore territory on 11 possessions.

The line of scrimmage was where Vanderbilt was most effective in slowing down Middle Tennessee's attack. The Commodores came up with five sacks of quarterback Brent Stockstill, who had defenders in his face seemingly every time he dropped back to pass.

"They're a good defense, and they make life hard on you," the redshirt junior QB said. "Our defense played extremely well ... we just have to score points. I think we'll fix it - we just have to find the right pieces and play hard, play a little tougher with more energy and enthusiasm."

Despite the offensive woes, it was still a night to remember for redshirt junior Richie James. The All-Conference USA wide receiver caught 10 passes for 112 yards and a touchdown, and set a new MT career record for receiving yards (3,083) with a 19-yard catch in the fourth quarter.

James, the NCAA's active leader in receptions and receiving yards per game, was also the recipient of the only score of the game, a 22-yard TD pass just over the goal line to make the score 28-6 with about 12 minutes left in the ballgame.

Brent Stockstill completed 18-of-31 passes for 166 yards, one TD and an interception.

Defensively, junior safety Wesley Bush led the way in the tackle department with eight in his first game as a Blue Raider. Redshirt junior defensive end Walter Brady, also playing in his first game at Middle Tennessee, added five tackles, a sack, one tackle for loss and a pass breakup.

ORANGE CRUSH: RAIDERS UPSET SYRACUSE

SYRACUSE - Middle Tennessee outscored Syracuse 21-10 during a dominant second half to secure a 30-23 road upset inside the Carrier Dome, giving the Blue Raiders their fifth win against a Power-5 team under Head Coach Rick Stockstill.

The Blue Raiders (1-1) scored the game-winner when quarterback Brent Stockstill connected with Shane Tucker for a 10-yard touchdown pass to stake Middle Tennessee to a 30-23 lead with 6:46 remaining. It was the third touchdown of the game for Stockstill, who finished the game 22-of-36 for 269 yards. He also rushed for 41 yards.

The big story was the play of the Middle Tennessee defense under first-year coordinator Scott Shafer. The Blue Raiders allowed just two touchdowns – one in each half – and slowed the high-octane Syracuse offense. Middle Tennessee held Syracuse (1-1) to 308 yards total offense, with 182 coming through the air and 126 on the ground.

The defense also came up with two turnovers, collecting a fumble and an interception. Linebacker Khalil Brooks had a huge game with a career-high eight tackles, one for loss and he assisted on three tackles for loss. Safety Jovante Moffatt also had eight tackles, including one for loss. Corner Darryl Randolph added seven tackles, including one for loss.

The Blue-clad stop squad was in the Syracuse offensive backfield throughout the game and totaled six sacks. Brooks, DJ Sanders, Walter Brady and Malik Mancel all had solo sacks. Brooks assisted on another. Freshman Reed Blankenship earned his first career start and responded with a fourth-quarter interception.

Richie James had another strong all-around game with eight catches for 96 yards, including a 28-yard touchdown, and Ty Lee also was a multi-purpose performer with seven receptions for 76 yards, including a 48-yard touchdown grab. He added a team-high 50 yards on the ground, including a 14-yard scoring jaunt.

BANGED UP BLUE RAIDERS FALL AT MINNESOTA

MINNEAPOLIS - Middle Tennessee was overcome by a tough Minnesota defense and injuries to its two main offensive weapons Saturday, leading to a 34-3 loss in Minneapolis.

The Blue Raiders (1-2) fought well early, and found themselves tied 3-3 with the Gophers (3-0) after a 45-yard Canon Rooker field goal with 10:53 left in the second quarter.

From there, it was all Minnesota. The home team rattled off 31 straight points thanks to a stingy defense and unrelenting rushing attack.

The Gophers, who average 211 yards per game rushing to rank 42nd in the nation, finished with 221 yards on 47 carries for a 4.7-yard average.

Middle Tennessee tried to make things interesting in the second quarter behind its defense before a turnover all but put things out of reach.

The Blue Raider defenders forced three three-and-outs in a row to end the first quarter and begin the second, but the offense couldn't find rhythm.

After the first of three rushing touchdowns for Minnesota's Kobe McCrary, the Raiders trailed 13-3 with six minutes left in the second quarter and put together a four-minute drive and entered Gopher territory. The score threat was wiped out, though, when redshirt sophomore quarterback John Urzua's pass was intercepted for a 67-yard TD, bringin' the halftime score to 20-3.

Urzua finished 19-of-34 passing for 135 yards and two INTs. He was thrust in the starting lineup for the injured Brent Stockstill, who was forced out due to an ailment from Week 2 against Syracuse.

Not only was the Blue Raider offense missing its starting quarterback, but redshirt junior wide receiver Richie James, the school's all-time leader in receiving yards and co-leader in TDs, also was limited.

Redshirt junior wideout Patrick Smith led the way in the receiving corps, hauling in six catches for 46 yards.

Middle Tennessee's defense was led by 13 total tackles by safety Jovante Moffatt and Darrius Harris, who had 10 tackles, one tackle for loss and a sack.

YOUNG GUNS LEAD RAIDERS TO WIN OVER BGSU

MURFREESBORO - Middle Tennessee needed someone to step up offensively with several key players sidelined due to injuries, and plenty of young reinforcements arrived just in time to deliver a 24-13 win.

"I'm really happy, pleased and proud of our team," MT Head Coach Rick Stockstill said. "We played a lot of young guys ... a lot of guys who had really never played college football before. I'm really proud of their effort and how we played."

The Blue Raiders (2-2) had a heyday against the Bowling Green defense. They racked up a season-high 533 total yards (243 rushing, 290 passing) against the Falcons (0-4).

The offensive explosion was precisely what Middle Tennessee had been searching for. In its first three games, it averaged just 269.3 total yards per game and 63 yards on the ground.

"It's definitely a momentum swing for our team," freshman running back Brad Anderson said. "We felt like we had to get back to the basics of our running game because we couldn't get stuff established and get stuff going. For us tonight to be able to have a running game like that, it means a lot for us."

MT's offensive success came without several key weapons. Quarterback Brent Stockstill, who missed Week 3's contest at Minnesota with a sternum injury, missed his second straight game. He was joined on the sidelines by ailing wide receivers Richie James and Patrick Smith and guard Chandler Brewer, the Raiders' most experienced lineman.

With their leaders out, a host of young Blue Raiders picked up the baton. Every player who recorded a pass, rush or reception was either a freshman or sophomore.

Redshirt sophomore quarterback John Urzua connected on 24-of-32 passes for 290 yards, two touchdowns and an interception. Anderson ended with 104 yards rushing, 98 yards receiving and TD, and redshirt sophomore Jockey Bruce added 115 yards rushing and a TD on 16 carries. Sophomore Ty Lee also had seven catches for 80 yards and a score.

"We have depth," Urzua said. "We have good players, players who've stepped up tremendously not only in the offseason but in these past few weeks. The ability to have the kind of confidence we do in [the young guys] is huge, and we can take that throughout the rest of the season."

Middle Tennessee came out of the gates hot offensively.

Urzua completed his first eight passes, while Anderson, Bruce and Lee did damage both out of the backfield and flanked out wide.

A 64-yard strike from Urzua to Anderson with just over 5 minutes left in the second quarter, Urzua's second TD pass of the first half, put MT up 21-10 at halftime.

From there, it was all up to the Blue Raider defense to hold tough.

Holding onto the 11-point halftime advantage, Middle Tennessee came out in the second half a little sluggish offensively, but its stoppers stepped up. The Falcons managed just 20 yards and three points in the last two frames, and were forced to punt on four of five possessions.

In total, Bowling Green gained 284 total yards, and only 1 yard came via the run on 29 attempts.

The Blue Raiders were led in the tackle department by junior safety Jovante Mofatt (eight). Redshirt junior linebacker Darius Harris added six tackles, two tackles for loss and a pass breakup, while redshirt sophomore Khalil Brooks had five tackles, two tackles for loss and a sack. Charvarius Ward and Chris Melton both had a sack.

DB Mike Minter saw his team-high streak of 29 straight starts come to an end after suffering an injury during Friday's practice ... WR Patrick Smith hauled in a career long 51-yard pass in the first quarter ... LB Tavares Thomas had his first career rush when he ran the ball for a first down on a fake punt ... MT lost its C-USA opener for the first time and saw its 9-game winning streak over FAU come to an end.

RAIDERS DROP C-USA OPENER AT FAU

BOCA RATON - Middle Tennessee put up a strong effort but in the end injuries and turnovers continued to plague the Blue Raiders in a 38-20 setback at FAU in the C-USA opener for both teams.

The Blue Raiders (2-3, 0-1) went into the game without the services of two key offensive starters as quarterback Brent Stockstill and receiver Richie James did not dress. Compounding matters, linebacker Walter Brady and defensive back Mike Minter Jr., also were unable to play due to injuries.

Those injuries, combined with three Middle Tennessee turnovers, proved detrimental in the setback as the Owls ended a nine-game losing streak to the Blue Raiders.

Florida Atlantic struck early, jumping out to a 14-6 lead after the first quarter and parlaying it into a 24-6 halftime advantage. The Blue Raiders would challenge with drives deep into Florida Atlantic territory throughout, but quarterback John Urzua was guilty of three interceptions to stall those possessions.

Urzua had a career game for Middle Tennessee, otherwise, completing 31-of-51 passes for 359 yards and two touchdowns. Ty Lee led a trio of active receivers, grabbing eight catches for 136 yards and a touchdown. CJ Windham had 74 yards on five catches and Patrick Smith turned four receptions into 76 yards.

Brad Anderson led the ground attack with 44 yards on 13 carries.

Jovante Moffatt continued his outstanding work with a career-high 15 tackles, six solo. DJ Sanders (15) and Reed Blankenship (13) also had career highs for tackles.

Canon Rooker connected on his first two field goal tries of 46-, and 35-yards in the first quarter to push his streak of consecutive makes to eight before misfiring in the second quarter. The Blue Raiders also received a 26-yard scoring pass from Urzua to Lee in the third quarter. Jocquez Bruce hauled in a 4-yard pass for a fourth-quarter touchdown.
