Records: FIU comes into Saturday's game with a 6-3 record overall and a 4-2 mark in Conference USA. The Panthers are coming off a 37-30 loss to Old Dominion on Nov. 11, in Miami. The Panthers, who continue their best start in program history, sit in second place in the East Division. FAU comes into the meeting with FIU with a 7-3 record and 6-0 mark in the C-USA. The Owls lead the C-USA East Division following a 48-23 win over Louisiana Tech last Saturday.

FIU Head Coach Butch Davis: Butch Davis (Arkansas, 1974) returned to the sidelines for his first season as a head coach since 2010. He boasts an 85-46 collegiate head coaching record in 11 years at Miami (1995-2000), North Carolina (2007-10) and at FIU (2017). Davis is 6-3 with the Panthers.

FAU Head Coach Lane Kiffin: Kiffin (Fresno State, 1998) is in his first season as a head coach at FAU. He is 42-24 all-time as a head coach. Kiffin is 7-3 at FAU this season.

Series History: Saturday's game is the 16th meeting between FIU and FAU in Shula Bowl XVI with the Owls holding a 10-4 advantage. The 2005 FIU win was vacated due to NCAA sanctions.

Gameday

- Live statistics available on FIUSports.com (<http://www.sidearmstats.com/fiu/football/media>).
- Stat monitors featuring StatBroadcast will be made available.
- Butch Davis and requested players will be made available for post-game interviews. A member of the Athletic Media Relations Staff will escort media to the press conference.

Credentials

Credentials for FIU home football games are for working media only. Requests for media credentials should be made by contacting Michael Hogan, director of sports information, for the SportsSystems credential link. Requests from media covering visiting teams will be confirmed first with each opponent's sports information contact.

Spouses, dates, children under 18 and other non-workers are not permitted in working media areas in compliance with the working code of the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA). All media services (statistics, telephones, game information, etc.) will be readily available for your convenience.

All credentials that cannot be mailed will be left at Media Will Call, which is located Gate 11 (just north of the Field House). Will call will open two (2) hours prior to kickoff. Members of the media picking up credentials at Will Call must provide photo identification and the name must match the name on the credential.

Photographers

Photo credentials are issued on a game-by-game basis. FIU will adhere to all NCAA guidelines regarding sideline photography that limit shooting to outside the restraining line enclosing the playing field and outside the 25-yard lines.

Parking

Preferred parking at Riccardo Silva Stadium is extremely limited. Media requesting parking should contact Athletic Media Relations well in advance. Media Parking is located in Lot 7 (west of the stadium).

Directions to Riccardo Silva Stadium can be accessed via the following link:
http://www.fiusports.com/sports/2014/6/18/GEN_0618143537.aspx

A campus map can be accessed via the following link:
<http://campusmaps.fiu.edu/index.html#/campus/MMC>

Press Policies

Working space in the press box is limited and assigned on a first-come, first-served basis. Credentials will be issued according to the following criteria:

- 1.) Local and state newspapers by circulation, wire services, national publications, newspapers from opponents' area and student newspapers from FIU and opponents' schools.
- 2.) Other daily newspapers with preference to those that regularly cover FIU.
- 3.) Radio and television personnel not broadcasting but considered reporting.
- 4.) Non-daily newspapers, with preference to those that regularly cover FIU.
- 5.) Scouts.

Freelance bloggers and/or non-daily writers may be asked to produce copies of actual publications in which their work has appeared. In some cases, these materials will be requested as verification of writers' status.

Telephones

A limited number of telephone lines are available in Riccardo Silva Stadium's press box for working media.

FIU provides an ISDN, and Ethernet connection and one business telephone line free of charge to the primary visiting radio outlet.

Wireless Internet

The Riccardo Silva Stadium press box offers free wireless Internet service to media members. Instructions will be provided in the press box on game day.

E-Mail/Fax Services

Following each FIU home game, the Athletic Media Relations office will e-mail and/or fax whatever information media members need to their respective agencies. Please ask any member of the FIU athletic media relations staff for assistance on this matter.

Post-Game Interviews

After a cooling off period, FIU Head Coach Butch Davis will be brought to a designated interview room, along with requested players. THE FIU LOCKER ROOM IS CLOSED TO THE MEDIA.

Each visiting team will set its own post-game interview policy.

Practice Policies

During the season practices are normally conducted at Riccardo Silva Stadium. The first 30 minutes of practice and the last 15 minutes of practice are open to the media. Photographers and videographers should contact the FIU Athletic Media Relations Department for days and times to shoot practice.

Student-Athlete Interviews

Selected FIU players will be made available following practices throughout the season. FIU quarterbacks will not be available after Wednesday, with the rest of the roster not available after Thursday.

Telephone interviews can also be arranged through the FIU Athletic Media Relations office. No players' phone numbers will be given out.

Butch Davis Interviews

Head Coach Butch Davis is available for on-field interviews at the end of practices. For out-of-town interviews with Coach Davis, please contact the FIU Media Relations office.

Conference USA Media Services

Conference USA produces a weekly football release on Mondays throughout the season, which includes updated standings, statistics, results and previews. The conference also selects Offensive, Defensive and Special Teams Players of the Week each Monday during the season. This weekly football release is available via direct e-mail delivery, as well as on the conference web site at www.conferenceusa.com.

For more information regarding Conference USA football, please contact Assistant Commissioner for Football and Baseball Operations Russ Anderson at (214) 774-1351 or rdanderson@c-usa.org.

The 2017 FIU football game notes are designed to assist members of the media in its coverage of the Panthers football program. Additional information, including releases and photographs may be obtained by contacting the FIU Athletic Media Relations Office at (305) 348-1496. Please take a moment to review the following policies and services that are intended to assist you in your coverage of FIU football this season.

SHULA BOWL XVI: FIU HEADS NORTH FOR DIVISIONAL SHOWDOWN WITH FAU

FIU travels north to Florida Atlantic for the 16th edition of the annual Shula Bowl in the Conference USA East Division showdown. Kickoff is set for 7 p.m. The game will be broadcast on Stadium with Ron Thulin (play-by-play), Maxx Starks (color analyst) and Madi Morris (sideline) calling the action. Fans can also listen to the game on 790 the Ticket, the Panthers' official radio broadcast home for the 2017 season, or by logging onto either www.FIUSports.com or www.theticketmiami.com. A.J. Ricketts (play-by-play) and Hurlie Brown (color analyst) will be in the booth all season long.

The Panthers (6-3, 4-2 Conference USA) dropped a heart-breaker to Old Dominion at home, 37-30, last week. The Panthers and Owls meet for the 16th time in their series history. FAU leads the series with FIU 10-4. The Panthers defeated the Owls 33-31 last October in Miami.

A victory against FAU would make it just the second time in FIU history that a Panthers team has won seven games in a regular season. The 2011 FIU team holds the program record for wins in a season with eight.

FAU is 7-3 overall and 6-0 in C-USA. The Owls can clinch the C-USA East Division and a spot in the C-USA Championship game with a win. The Owls are coming off a 48-23 win over Louisiana Tech.

The Panthers had their three-game win streak snapped by the Monarchs last week despite outgaining ODU, 487-439. FIU senior quarterback Alex McGough completed a career-high 35 passes in 50 attempts for a season-high 323 yards and two touchdowns against the Monarchs.

Defensive backs Richard Dames and Niko Gonzalez led the FIU defense with six tackles a piece. Anthony Johnson had two of FIU's four sacks against ODU. The Panthers limited ODU to 120 yards in the second half.

Game Notables

- The Panthers look to extend the best start in school history to 7-3 which would put them one win away from tying a program-best eight wins, which the 2011 team accomplished.
- FIU looks to move to 5-2 in conference play which would be its best league mark since 2010. The 2010 Panthers started Sun Belt play 6-1 and went on to win the league finishing 6-2.
- Saturday is the 10th game for Butch Davis at FIU (6-3), and 131st of his collegiate head coaching career. Saturday will mark the 188th game in FIU history.
- FIU receiver Thomas Owens looks for his fifth 100-yard receiving game in the last seven games. In the last six games, Owens has gone for 87 yards against ODU, 72 yards against UTSA, 114 yards at Marshall, 152 yards against Tulane, 162 yards against Middle Tennessee and 101 yards against Charlotte.
- FIU's trio of linebackers look to add to their totals. Treyvon Williams (63), Anthony Wint (57) and Sage Lewis (46) have each racked up over 40 tackles.
- Senior wide receiver Thomas Owens leads C-USA in receiving yards (887) and receiving yards per game (100.0).
- FIU is 25-of-26 (96%) when it gets inside its opponents red-zone, which ranks fourth nationally.

Shula Bowl XVI

Saturday will mark the 16th edition of the annual Shula Bowl between FIU and Florida Atlantic. FIU has won four of the last six Shula Bowls which includes last season's 33-31 win at home.

The Last 4

FIU's three-game win streak was snapped by Old Dominion, but the Panthers' have still been rolling in the last four games. FIU has outscored opponents 108-84 and out-gained them in yards 1681-1444 during the stretch. Here's a look at some key numbers during the win streak.

- ▶ FIU is averaging 27.0 points per game and limiting opponents to 21.0 points per game.
- ▶ FIU averaged 186.5 rushing yards and 233.8 yards through the air while holding opponents to 175.0 on the ground and 186.0 through the air. Overall, FIU is averaging 420.2 yards per game while holding teams to 361.0 yards per game.
- ▶ FIU has forced seven turnovers – four fumbles and three interceptions.
- ▶ The defense has recorded 10 sacks while the offensive line has only given up three sacks.
- ▶ Teams have been held to one touchdown in the first quarter while the Panthers have outscored opponents, 28-7, in the quarter to get off to a fast start.
- ▶ FIU forced a season-high three turnovers against Marshall –two interceptions and one fumble.
- ▶ Senior quarterback Alex McGough has completed 84-of-124 passes for 935 yards with seven touchdowns and three INT's. McGough's completion percentage sits at 67.7 percent with a 144.87 passing efficiency.
- ▶ Three running backs have gone over 100 yards with Alex Gardner leading the way with 64 carries for 273 yards and two touchdowns. Napoleon Maxwell (30 carries, 141 yards, 2 TDs) and Shawndarius Phillips (35 carries, 156 yards, 1 TD have added to the ground game.
- ▶ WR Thomas Owens has 32 catches for 425 yards and three touchdowns, while averaging 13.3 yards per catch and 106.2 receiving yards per game.
- ▶ Linebackers Treyvon Williams (24), Anthony Wint (21) and Sage Lewis (20) have combined for 65 tackles.
- ▶ Defensive lineman, Newton Salisbury and Fermin Silva have combined for 6.5 tackles for loss and 4.0 sacks while Anthony Johnson has 3.5 tackles for loss and 2.5 sacks.
- ▶ Senior cornerback Brad Muhammad has all three interceptions and three pass breakups.
- ▶ Kicker Jose Borregales is 5-of-6 in field goals and 13-of-13 in PAT's.

Bowlin'

▶ FIU became bowl-eligible for the third time in school history with the 14-7 win over UTSA. The Panthers joined FAU, Marshall, North Texas and UAB as bowl eligible teams from Conference USA.

Davis Among First Year Success Stories

▶ There were 22 new head coaches hired for the 2017 season in the FBS. Nine are currently bowl-eligible and only two have produced better records than Florida Atlantic's Lane Kiffin and five have been better than FIU's Butch Davis:

2017 First-Year FBS Head Coaches

|-----|-------------------------------|
| 9-1 | Lincoln Riley, Oklahoma |
| 8-1 | Charlie Strong, South Florida |
| 7-3 | Lane Kiffin, Florida Atlantic |
| 7-3 | Jeff Tedford, Fresno State |
| 7-3 | Ed Orgeron, LSU |
| 6-3 | Butch Davis, FIU |
| 6-3 | Major Applewhite, Houston |
| 6-3 | Shawn Elliott, Georgia State |
| 6-3 | Tim Lester, Western Michigan |

Quick Score

FIU's knack to score quick on offense continued against ODU. The Panthers added another score in under two minutes with a seven-play, 61-yard drive that lasted 1:12 in the fourth quarter. The Panthers have now scored in under two minutes nine times this season and 18 times under three minutes out of 34 scoring drives. FIU has had four scoring drives last less than a minute this season.

TO Again

Senior wide receiver Thomas Owens, a Biletnikoff Award candidate, was at it again for the sixth straight game. Owens caught 11 passes for 87 yards and against ODU. He had seven catches and 114 yards with two TD's at Marshall. After four straight 100-yard receiving games, Owens caught at least six passes for the sixth straight game and 10 or more passes for the second time this season. He has eight 100-yard receiving games in his career. The touchdown catch gave him 21 for his career, which ranks third all-time in school history. He's now just one shy of second place all-time held by Cory McKinney (22).

More Season Highs

- ▶ FIU's 28 first-half points against Marshall were the most the Panthers had scored in a half this season. The 28 points ties for the seventh most points in a half. The last time, FIU scored 28 points was Nov. 3, 2012 at South Alabama.
- ▶ FIU's 41 points at Marshall were a season-high and the most since the Panthers put up 48 points in a 48-31 win against Charlotte on Nov. 7, 2015. It's also the most points in a road win since FIU won at UAB, 34-20, on Sept. 27, 2014.
- ▶ FIU forced a season-high three turnovers against Marshall –two interceptions and one fumble.
- ▶ FIU's defense held UTSA to 83 yards on 25 plays, which was a season-low by the defense this season. UTSA finished with a season-low 261 yards of total offense.
- ▶ FIU's four sacks in the first half against UTSA is a season high.

Red-Zone Success

FIU continued its success in the red zone this season against ODU. The Panthers were 4-for-4 in red zone attempts against the Monarchs. On the season, the Panthers are now 25-of-26 (96%) in the red zone, which ranks fourth nationally. The Panthers have 19 touchdowns and six field goals.

Muhammad Joins C-USA Panther Player of the Week Award Club

Senior cornerback Brad Muhammad was named the Conference USA Football Defensive Player of the Week after his performance against Marshall. The honor was the third weekly C-USA honor for the Panthers this season. Punter Stone Wilson earned the C-USA Special Teams Player of the Week honor for the week ending Sept. 30. Defensive End Fermin Silva earned the C-USA Defensive Player of the Week honor for the week ending Oct. 14.

Muhammad set a career-high with 10 tackles and recorded two interceptions in the 41-30 road win at Marshall. He intercepted a third quarter pass and returned it 12 yards for a touchdown, FIU's first pick-six since Isaiah Brown at Old Dominion on Nov. 26, 2016. Muhammad picked off his second pass of the game in the fourth quarter. It was the first time that a Panther had two interceptions in a game since Richard Leonard at UAB on Sept. 27, 2014. Muhammad's six first-half tackles were key in helping FIU hold Marshall to a season-low seven points in the opening half. Muhammad's two INT's accounted for two of the season-high three turnovers for the Panthers, the first time all season FIU won the turnover battle in a game.

Silva had eight solo tackles and three unassisted tackles in FIU's 23-10 win over Tulane on Saturday. In addition, Silva recorded two sacks, three tackles for a loss (-13) and four quarterback hurries. His second of the two sacks came on fourth-and-eight on the FIU 17-yard line with 2:24 left in the game, forcing the Green Wave to turn the ball over on downs. His two sacks also equaled a single-game career-high.

Wilson punted five times for 229 yards, and an average of 45.8 yards-per-punt, in FIU's 30-29 come-from-behind win over Charlotte on Sept. 30, including a long of 56 yards and placed two inside the 20-yard line. That 56-yard punt couldn't have come at a better time, pinning the 49ers at their own two-yard line with 4:52 left in the game. His 56-yard punt is second only to his 67-yard boot against UCF in the season opener on Aug. 31.

Chasing Records

► CB Brad Muhammad recorded two interceptions against Marshall to give him four interceptions on the season which is one shy of the program's single season record shared by former Panthers Richard Leonard, Anthony Gattor, Lionell Singleton and Nick Turnbull.

► WR Thomas Owens' performance against ODU continued to move him up the record books. Thus far in 2017, Owens has 59 receptions, 887 receiving yards and six TD receptions. The 887 receiving yards are fourth-best in a single-season which is 151 yards away from T.Y. Hilton's single-season record (1,038 yards). He needs three yards for third place and 13 yards to become just the second receiver to reach 1,000 yards in a single-season.

► Thomas Owens' 2,177 career receiving yards ranks fourth all-time. He became the sixth Panther with 2,000 receiving yards in his career with 72 receiving yards against UTSA.

► LB Anthony Wint's 57 tackles in 2017 pushed his career total to 301 tackles, which now ranks third all-time. With four tackles against ODU, Wint became the third Panther with 300 career tackles. His 167 career solo tackles ranks him third all-time - just 46 shy of the career record of 213 held by Johnathan Cyprien.

► LB Treyvon Williams' 63 tackles in 2017 pushed his career total to 270 tackles, which now ranks sixth all-time. With 30 more tackles, Williams could join Wint as one of four Panthers with 300 career tackles. His 172 career solo tackles moved him into second place all-time - just 41 shy of the career record of 213 held by Johnathan Cyprien.

Playing One More

The Tulane game was supposed to be the final non-conference game of the season for the Panthers, however due to the Indiana game being canceled and deferred to a future year, FIU added UMass to the schedule on Dec. 2 (unless FIU plays in the Conference USA Championship game).

Road Warriors

The Panthers have racked up the travel miles through the first 12 weeks of the college football season. FIU's road game at Florida Atlantic will be the team's final road game but inside the state of Florida. FIU is 3-2 away from Riccardo Silva Stadium this season. The 41-30 road win at Marshall was the fifth game played outside Miami. The Oct. 7 game at Middle Tennessee - a 37-17 loss - was the fourth game that FIU played away from Miami this year. The Panthers played their season-opener on Aug. 31 at UCF (L, 61-17) and were scheduled to play their home-opener on Sept. 9, at Riccardo Silva Stadium, against Alcorn. That game, however, was moved to Legion Field in Birmingham, Alabama, due to Hurricane Irma. FIU defeated the Braves, 17-10. The Panthers were scheduled to face Indiana in Bloomington on Sept. 16, but that game was also canceled and deferred to a future year due to Hurricane Irma.

In addition to the football team, football coaching staff and their families, better than 100 student-athletes from eight sports (swimming and diving, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's soccer, women's golf and tennis) at FIU were relocated to Birmingham to escape from Hurricane Irma. The football team left on Sept. 7 via charter flight, while the rest of the student-athletes - along with coaches - left at 7 a.m. on Sept. 7 arriving in Birmingham on Sept. 8 at 5 a.m., normally just an 11-hour drive.

Making Their Debut

PRESEASON NOTES

New to the Staff

With the arrival of Butch Davis as head coach, he also brought in an impressive assistant coaching staff. Of the nine assistants, eight are in their first year at FIU and include: Allen Mogridge (Asst. Head Coach/Offensive Line), Brent Guy (Defensive Coordinator/Linebackers), Rich Skrosky (Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks), Jeff Copp (Defensive Backs), Aubrey Hill (Wide Receivers), Kenny Holmes (Defensive Line), Eric Thatcher (Defensive Backs), James Vulliamy (Special Teams Coordinator). The lone hold over from the previous coaching regime is Tim Harris, Jr. (Running Backs). Two of Davis's assistants, Guy and Skrosky, boast collegiate head coaching experience on their resumes. Following two years at Boise State as defensive coordinator, helping the Broncos to national prominence, Guy spent three years as head coach at Utah State. Skrosky arrives in Miami after spending three seasons as the head man at Elon.

Wint Named to Preseason All-C-USA Team

On July 17 senior Anthony Wint was named to this year's 2016 preseason All-Conference USA Football Team, as chosen by the league's 13 head coaches.

Seven Players Named by Athlon All-C-USA

Athlon Sports' 2017 Preseason All-Conference USA Teams were announced on May 25 and FIU football had seven players recognized. Seniors Thomas Owens and Anthony Wint were named second-team selections, while junior Fermin Silva and senior Treyvon Williams earned third-team recognition. Senior Alex Gardner and junior Kai Absheer along with sophomore Isaiah Brown received fourth-team honors. Owens also earned third-team honors on special teams.

Gardner Nominated for Wuerffel Award

Senior Alex Gardner was nominated for the 2017 Wuerffel Trophy. Gardner is one of 114 student-athletes considered for the award honoring college football's top community servant. Gardner, FIU's all-time leading rusher, is extremely active in the community, representing the FIU football program. The four-year starter at running back has assisted in teaching a fundamental skills camp as part of the Orange Bowl Football Alliance Clinics. These camps featured offensive, defensive and agility drills, while also stressing the importance of character development and good sportsmanship. Gardner has also been a mentor for students at Earlington Heights Elementary where he spoke to the students about the importance of good grades and how hard work and dedication leads to success. The Jacksonville, Florida, native has also worked with the Miami-Dade Police Athletic League (PAL), giving presentations to kids that focused on education, hard work, and perseverance.

The Wuerffel Trophy, known as "College Football's Premier Award for Community Service," is presented annually by the All Sports Association in Fort Walton Beach Florida. Named after 1996 Heisman Trophy winning quarterback Danny Wuerffel from the University of Florida, the Wuerffel Trophy is awarded to the FBS player that best combines exemplary community service with athletic and academic achievement.

QUARTERBACKS

Mr. McGough Getting Hot Down the Stretch

QB Alex McGough continues to settle in down the stretch for the Panthers. McGough completed 35-of-50 passes for 323 yards against ODU. His 35 completions were a career-high and his 323 passing yards were a season-high and his fourth 300-yard passing game of his career. In his last three games, McGough has completed 67-of-93 passes for a 72% completion percentage.

Efficient McGough

Senior quarterback Alex McGough completed 14-of-18 passes in the win at Marshall. The 77.8 completion percentage and 197.04 passing efficiency was the best of the season for McGough. In his last three games, he's completed 70 percent of his passes and has compiled a 155.76 pass efficiency. McGough missed the final three games of 2016 against WKU, Marshall and Old Dominion with a hand injury. Despite a junior campaign cut short, McGough has returned to regular form in his final season as he continues his climb among the program's all-time leaders.

Mr. McGough ... Hits 300

Alex McGough eclipsed the 300-yard passing mark again this season throwing for 323 yards against ODU. He had a career-high 35 completions. McGough had a solid outing in the Panthers' game against Alcorn. McGough threw for 328 yards on 21-of-33 passing with no interceptions. His 323 yards against ODU marked his fifth-career 300-plus yard game, and the third best of his career behind the 390 yards he threw for against Old Dominion (Oct. 24, 2015).

McGough Spearheads Second Half Surge

McGough was a major factor in FIU winning its third-straight game on Sept. 30 – a 30-29 come-from-behind victory over Charlotte – and improving to 3-1 on the year and 2-0 in Conference USA. McGough had a hand in three of the Panthers' four touchdowns against the 49ers, while helping to spearhead FIU's 19-point comeback (trailing 26-7 with one minute left in the first half). He threw for 206 yards on 14-of-26 passing, including one touchdown (a six-yard strike to Thomas Owens) and one interception, and also rushed for 46 yards on six carries and two touchdowns. He put the team on his back in the second half after trailing 26-14 at the intermission. McGough scored his two rushing touchdowns in the second stanza, with 5:40 left in the third quarter on an eight-yard run to make the score 29-21, and a 14-yard scamper with 12:43 left in the game, cutting the 49ers lead to 29-27.

McGough in the FIU Record Books

Currently, Alex McGough finds himself in the school's top three in career completions (748 – 2nd), attempts (1,251 – 2nd), passing yards (8,344 – 3rd) and is the school's all-time leader in passing touchdowns (59 – 1st).

RUNNING BACKS

A1 Picking Up Steam

Running back Alex Gardner seems to be picking up some steam heading into the last three games of the season. Gardner rushed for 95 yards on 15 carries and a TD against ODU. Against Marshall, he finished with 71 yards on 19 carries and a TD. Against Tulane, he ran for 79 yards on 20 carries. Gardner recorded his 10th career 100-yard game against Alcorn, rushing for 102 yards and one touchdown on 20 carries, but had rushed for only 80, 62 and 42 yards in the following three games against Rice, Charlotte and Middle Tennessee. He now has 579 yards on 136 carries and three touchdowns heading into the game against Florida Atlantic.

Napoleon Has Felt Dynamite

Junior running back Napoleon Maxwell made his return to the gridiron in the season-opener at UCF on Aug. 31 after missing the last two seasons with an injured knee. Maxwell led the team in rushing against the Knights with 61 yards on four carries and a touchdown. His touchdown came on a 51-yard scamper in the fourth quarter, marking the first time since Nov. 13, 2010 that a Panther scored a rushing touchdown on a run of 50-or-more yards (T.Y. Hilton, 61 yards at Troy). Maxwell rushed for a career-high 93 yards on 11 carries against Marshall. Maxwell's previous career-high was 88 yards against Rice on Nov. 1, 2014. Maxwell led the ground attack against Charlotte for the Panthers with 76 yards on five carries (15.2 ypg). So far this season, Maxwell is leading the team in yards-per-carry, recording 6.1 per rush. He has run for 315 yards on 52 carries.

Gardner in the FIU Record Books

Alex Gardner is currently ranked at the top of the list in career rushing yards (2,851 – 1st), rushing attempts (640 – 1st), and rushing touchdowns (19 – 3rd).

WIDE RECEIVERS

100 & Counting for TO

Senior wide receiver Thomas Owens has gotten off on the right foot so far in 2017. Owens leads C-USA in receiving yards (887) and receiving yards per game (98.6) after having four straight 100-yard receiving games. He had 87 yards on 11 catches against ODU. He added 72 yards on eight catches against UTSA, which was the fifth straight game he had six or more catches. Owens had 114 yards on seven catches against Marshall. It was the eighth 100-yard receiving game of his career.

Owens put up the seventh-most receiving yards (152) in a single game in school history in the win against Tulane. Owens had a season-best performance at Middle Tennessee on Oct. 7. He caught 11 passes for 162 yards and a touchdown against the Blue Raiders. His 162 yards were the sixth-most in a game by a Panther and fell just four yards shy of equaling his single-game career-high of 166 yards set at Indiana on Sept. 12, 2015. Owens recorded 101 yards on seven receptions and one touchdown against Charlotte.

In the season opener at UCF, Owens caught four passes for 99 yards and one touchdown against the Knights, one yard shy of another 100-yard receiving game. His touchdown reception against the Knights, a 75-yard catch from Alex McGough, is tied for his career-long TD reception, and the seventh-longest in school history.

Not a One Trick Pony

Not only did Thomas Owens catch a pass for a touchdown in the Panthers' come-back win over Charlotte on Sept. 30, he was also responsible for FIU's first touchdown of the game. Owens found fellow wide receiver Julian Williams with 6:11 left in the first quarter on a 35-yard pass for a TD. It was Owens' first career touchdown pass and the second-longest pass for a touchdown this season, second only to Alex McGough's 75-yard bomb to Owens at UCF in the season-opener on Aug. 31.

Catching T.Y.

Thomas Owens's 887 receiving yards in 2017 are fourth-best in a single-season which is 151 yards away from T.Y. Hilton's single-season record (1,038 yards). Owens' TD catch against UTSA and two TD catches against Marshall moved him into sole possession of third place in career receiving touchdowns passing FIU standout and current Tennessee Titans tight end Jonnu Smith. Owens is now three TD catches away from the school record in career receiving touchdowns.

He Sliced, Diced and Julian

Julian Williams had a career night against Alcorn on Sept. 8. Williams recorded a career-high 129 yards receiving on five catches to lead the Panthers. His long reception of the night was a 41-yard catch on the FIU's final drive of the game that led to the Panthers' game-winning touchdown.

Williams is second on the team in receiving yards-per-game, averaging 53.2 per contest on 19 catches for 266 yards (14.0 ypc) and one touchdown.

My Dear Pharoah

Tight End Pharoah McKeever continues to find his groove with the FIU offense. McKeever, a graduate transfer from NC State, had a career-long 27 yard reception against UTSA in the second quarter. Pharoah set career highs in catches (4) and yards (43) at Marshall. In the last four games, McKeever has 15 catches for 156 yards.

More on the New Elder Statesman

Certainly replacing one of the top tight ends in program history is a tall task, however, the Panthers have welcomed graduate transfer Pharoah McKeever (NC State).

At an athletic 6-foot-6, 242 pounds, McKeever has become a big dangerous target for quarterback Alex McGough. McKeever caught his first touchdown pass in an FIU uniform at Rice. The imposing tight end caught an eight-yard pass from Alex McGough in the second quarter for the games only touchdown. On the year, McKeever has caught 15 passes for 147 yards (9.8 ypc) in eight games.

McKeever played his first full season at tight end for the Wolfpack in 2016 after moving to the position prior to practice for the Belk Bowl in 2015. McKeever proceeded to catch an 82-yard touchdown reception in the game - the 11th-longest in school history. He also made an impact on special teams blocking a fourth quarter punt vs. Notre Dame that was recovered and returned for the winning touchdown. One of the more versatile players in college football, McKeever also played wide receiver and defensive end at NC State, and played quarterback and safety at South Burlington High School.

Goodbye Mr. Smith; Off to Nashville

FIU took a big hit with the graduation of Jonnu Smith, one of the premier tight ends in college football over the past few years. Smith was drafted in the third round, 100th overall, in the NFL Draft in April, the third-highest in FIU history behind Johnathan Cyprien (No. 33 in 2013) and T.Y. Hilton (No. 92 in 2012). During 2016 Smith caught 42 passes for 506 yards and four touchdowns. He became the fifth player in FIU history to register over 2,000 yards receiving during a career (2,001 yards). Smith averaged 12.0 yards-per-catch and 46.0 yards-per-game in 2016. He finished his career registering at least one reception in every game he played (43-straight – second-most in school history).

LINEBACKERS
Leaders on the Defense

FIU's leaders on the defense are its talented linebacker corps which has set the tone for the defense this year so far. The Panthers returned two of the three starting linebackers from the start of the 2016 season this year. Anthony Wint and Treyvon Williams are back, while Sage Lewis - who played in all but one game last season - fills the third spot. Through nine games in 2017, all three have more than 40 tackles and are three of the top four tacklers - Williams (63), Wint (57) and Lewis (46).

Wint: A Tackling Machine

Anthony Wint returned for his final season with the Panthers having registered 244 career tackles, including a team-leading, and career-high, 109 during the 2016 season. Wint, increased his total by 60 tackles from his freshman to junior campaigns. He moved into the schools top 10 (9th) in career tackles last season.

After missing the Tulane game, Wint returned for Marshall game and tallied five tackles in the win. Since his return, he has 21 tackles in the last three games including a season-high 12 tackles against UTSA. He became the third Panther to record 300 career tackles with four tackles against ODU. This season, Wint has 57 tackles which is good enough for second on the team, including 41 solo stops and five tackles for a loss (-12).

The Homestead, Florida native recorded 10 tackles, including nine solo, in the Panthers' win over Rice. He followed that up with a season-high 11 stops - including nine solo and two tackles for a loss against Charlotte.

Treyvon Has Been Tremendous

Treyvon Williams is the team's leader in total tackles on the year with 63, including 47 solo. He has also posted eight tackles for a loss (-35) and three sacks for a loss of 21 yards. After missing the Tulane game, he returned to make seven tackles against Marshall. Williams fell one tackle shy of a season-high in tackles as he recorded 13 tackles in helping hold UTSA to a season-low 261 yards of total offense. He tallied a career-high with four tackles for loss and matched a career-high with two sacks against UTSA. He has posted 10 or more tackles three times with a season-high 14 tackles at UCF in the season opener.

SECONDARY
Muhammad's Career Day

Cornerback Brad Muhammad set a career-high with 10 tackles and had two interceptions in the road win at Marshall. Muhammad also intercepted a third quarter pass and returned it 12 yards for touchdown. It was FIU's first pick-six since Isaiah Brown at Old Dominion on Nov. 26, 2016 – a 45-yard return. Muhammad picked off his second pass of the game in the fourth quarter. It was the first time since Richard Leonard had two interceptions at UAB on Sept. 27, 2014. On the year, Muhammad is eighth on the team in tackles with 34 (24 solo) and leads the team with four interceptions. He also has four pass breakups. Muhammad is tied for the C-USA lead in interceptions now with four and ranks fourth in passes defended (8).

Canady Nominated for Burlsworth Trophy

Senior defensive back Bryce Canady has been nominated for the 2017 Burlsworth Trophy sponsored by the Springdale, Arkansas Rotary Club. The Burlsworth Trophy is given to the most outstanding football player who began his career as a Walk-On and has shown outstanding performance on the field. Each nominee must have begun his first season of participation with FBS (D1) football program without financial aid of any kind from his university's athletic department.

Canady leads the FIU secondary and ranks third on the defense with 49 tackles (41 solo). He has two tackles for loss and one sack while tying for the team-lead with five pass break-ups.

In the award's eighth year, the Trophy is named in honor of Brandon Burlsworth, former University of Arkansas Walk-On and All-American offensive lineman. Burlworth's life is also the subject of a major motion picture, "GREATER", which was released last year. The 2016 winner was quarterback Baker Mayfield from the University of Oklahoma. Mayfield is believed to be the only true freshman Walk-On QB in FBS history to start a season opener. He also led his Sooners to the college football playoffs in 2016.

What Can Isaiah Brown Do For You!

Tampa native Isaiah Brown made a big impression at cornerback during his freshman year for the Panthers. Brown led the team in interceptions with three (for 43 yards) of FIU's six total picks. In addition, he registered a team-high seven passes broken up. This season, Brown is tied for the team in pass break ups with five, which is also good enough for a share of third in Conference USA.

Niko's Back

Niko Gonzalez returned at safety for FIU looking for a big senior campaign. He is currently fifth on the team in tackles with 43, including 37 solo. In 2016, Gonzalez was third on the team in tackles with 55, including 36 solo. He also led the team - and Conference USA - in fumbles recovered with two, was second in passes broken up with four and had one interception.

DEFENSIVE LINE
Silva Shining

Defensive end Fermin Silva continued to wreck havoc in the backfield in the win at Marshall. Silva totaled six tackles and a tackle for loss against the Thundering Herd, added two tackles against UTSA and three tackles against ODU giving him 17 tackles, 5.0 tackles for loss and 2.5 sacks in his last three games. Silva had a career-high eight tackles, three tackles for loss and two sacks in the win over Tulane. He leads the team with 11 tackles for loss and ties for second in sacks (3.5).

Holding their Own

FIU's front four of Newton Salisbury, Fermin Silva, Milford Juste and Jermaine Sheriff have held their own so far in 2017. The D-Line has accounted for 25.5 tackles for loss and 13.5 sacks through nine games. Behind Silva's 11 tackles for loss, Juste has posted 4.5 tackles for loss while Salisbury has added 5.5 tackles for loss.

Solid Salisbury

Defensive end Newton Salisbury continued his solid season in the win against UTSA. Salisbury spearheaded the shutout first half by the defense against UTSA racking up five tackles and 1.5 sacks. He went on to post career highs in tackles (9), sacks (2.5) and tackles for loss (2.0). On the season, Salisbury leads all defensive linemen with 35 tackles (25 solo), which ranks sixth on the team. He ties for the team-lead in sacks (3.5) and ranks third in tackles for loss (5.5).

Hip-Hip-Jose

Redshirt freshman kicker Jose Borregales has been quite impressive in his first season on the field for the Panthers. The Miami native leads the Panthers in scoring with 56 points on the year. Borregales accounted for 11 points including a 38-yard field goal in the final 26 seconds to make it a two-score game and seal the 41-30 road win at Marshall. He also connected on a 30-yard field goal earlier in the fourth quarter and was 5-of-5 on PAT's. The redshirt freshman had a streak of 10 consecutive field goals which was second all-time in FIU history snapped against ODU. Former FIU kickers Jack Griffin and Adam Moss each hit 11 straight field goals during their playing careers. Griffin hit 11 in a row twice. Borregales leads FIU in scoring with 56 points having connected on 11-of-13 field goals and 23-of-23 extra point attempts. In the win against Tulane, he accounted for 11 of the Panthers 23 points. He connected on all three of his field goal attempts including a 42-yarder in the third quarter. He made a career-long 44-yard field goal in the win over Rice. Borregales ranks sixth in field goals (11) made and eighth in points per game (6.2).

Head Coach Butch Davis (First Season)

On Nov. 15, 2016, Butch Davis was named the fourth head coach of the FIU football program, returning to South Florida where he made a name for himself as one of the premier minds in football.

Davis came to FIU after serving as a college football studio analyst, while also contributing to coverage on College Football Live, ESPN Radio, ESPN.com and SportsCenter since 2014. Before joining ESPN, Davis served as a consultant to former Tampa Bay Buccaneers Head Coach Greg Schiano during the 2012 and 2013 seasons.

Davis last walked the sidelines as head coach at the University of North Carolina (2007-10) where he not only backed up his reputation of rebuilding programs but made just as big of an impact off the field as well. Davis quickly rejuvenated the fan base in Chapel Hill and brought excitement to every Saturday at Kenan Stadium. Beginning with his first Carolina recruiting class in 2007, which many analysts ranked among the top 10 in the country, Davis connected with student-athletes and fans alike with his brand of fast, hard-nosed, disciplined football.

Over his first two seasons, Carolina sold out 12-of-13 contests, increased average attendance by nearly 18 percent and sold a school-record 36,250 season tickets in 2008.

Carolina improved from 4-8 in 2007 to 8-5 in 2008, the sixth-best turnaround in the country. The Tar Heels won games over bowl teams Rutgers, Miami, Connecticut, Notre Dame, Boston College and Georgia Tech and were in the hunt for the 2008 ACC championship until the final week of the season. Carolina's eight wins were its most since 2001. The Tar Heels earned an invitation to the Meineke Car Care Bowl in Charlotte, their first postseason game since 2004. UNC sold more than 22,000 tickets (10,000 more than its allotment) in just one week of sales and had an estimated 40,000 fans in attendance.

Davis led the 2009 Tar Heels to another 8-4 regular season record and a second-straight bowl appearance, the first time since the 1997-1998 seasons that UNC had made consecutive bowl appearances. A loss to North Carolina State in the final game of the season sent them back to the Meineke Car Care Bowl. UNC faced Pittsburgh and lost for the second-straight year, giving UNC another 8-5 final record. Additionally, Davis led Carolina football to its sixth-consecutive year of graduating more than 75 percent of its football players.

North Carolina posted a third-consecutive 8-5 season in 2010 and its third-straight trip to a bowl game, capping the season with a thrilling 30-27 double-overtime win over Tennessee in the Franklin American Mortgage Music City Bowl. It was the Tar Heels' first bowl victory in nine years. During the year, Carolina posted wins over Clemson and at Florida State.

Davis was head coach for six seasons at Miami (1995-2000) and led the Hurricanes to a 51-20 record, three Big East Conference championships and four postseason bowl wins in as many appearances. He took over a Miami program faced with NCAA sanctions that restricted the number of scholarships in his first three seasons. However, his Hurricane teams finished ranked in the Associated Press Top 25 on four occasions, including No. 2 in the nation in 2000, when the Canes went 11-1 and beat Florida, 37-20, in the Sugar Bowl.

In his first year in Coral Gables, Davis helped the Canes earn a share of the Big East Conference Championship by winning seven straight games to close the 2005 season. The team would have received an invitation to a BCS bowl game, however, Miami declined the invitation due to NCAA sanctions previously approved by university officials for violations prior to Davis' arrival.

Davis again led Miami to a share of the Big East title in 1996 and catapulted the Hurricanes to a top 20 ranking and their first bowl victory in five years with a 31-21 win over Virginia in the Carquest Bowl. The following season he led Miami to a 46-23 win over North Carolina State in the 1998 Micron PC Bowl.

Davis' 1999 squad began the year with a 23-12 victory over Ohio State in the Kickoff Classic and capped the season with a 28-13 victory over Georgia Tech in the Toyota Gator Bowl, the Hurricanes' first New Year's Day bowl game under Davis. In his final year at Miami (2000), the Hurricanes posted an 11-1 mark, including a 37-20 victory over Florida in the Nokia Sugar Bowl. That team was second in the nation in scoring, fifth in total offense, fifth in scoring defense and eighth in pass defense. Davis also emphasizes the importance of academics, and his Hurricanes earned recognition from the American Football Coaches Association for outstanding graduation rates in each of his six seasons.

Davis left Coral Gables following the 2000 season to join the Cleveland Browns. In his first season in Cleveland in 2001, Davis led his young team to an impressive 7-9 record, exceeding by two the expansion club's combined victories from 1999 and 2000 (5-27). Cleveland led the NFL in takeaways with 42, including a league-high and team-record 33 interceptions. The Browns defense also scored 32 points (four interception returns, one fumble return, one safety). His second season as head coach resulted in the Browns earning their first playoff appearance and best regular season mark since 1994, despite 34 of the 53 players on the team's final active roster having four years of NFL experience or less. Cleveland finished the season with a 7-3 mark over its final 10 games, including victories in four of its final six outings, the best record over the final six games of the season for the franchise since 1988.

Cleveland was Davis' second stint in the NFL. He was a defensive assistant with the Dallas Cowboys from 1989-94 and was defensive coordinator in 1993 and 1994. The Cowboys won consecutive Super Bowls in 1992 and 1993 and played in one other NFC championship game. Davis helped Dallas post one of the most spectacular turnarounds in sports history as the Cowboys went from a lowly 1-15 squad in 1989 to one of the most dominant NFL teams in the 1990s. He was the defensive line coach in the Cowboys' 52-17 win over Buffalo in Super Bowl XXVII and served as defensive coordinator in the Cowboys' 30-13 win over Buffalo in Super Bowl XXVIII. As defensive line coach in 1992, Davis helped the Cowboys lead the NFL in rushing defense. As coordinator a year later, the Cowboys set a team record by allowing just 21 touchdowns in 16 regular-season games and allowed one offensive touchdown or less in 12 of 16 games.

Davis was also defensive coordinator during Barry Switzer's first season as head coach in 1994 and helped Dallas reach the NFC Championship Game, where eventual Super Bowl champion San Francisco denied its bid for a three-peat. Davis's defense was No. 1 in the league in total defense (269.6 yards per game) and pass defense (172.0 yards per game), and third in scoring defense (15.5 points per game). He coached three Pro Bowl starters - end Charles Haley, tackle Leon Lett and safety Darren Woodson. The three defensive starters were the most for the Cowboys since 1983.

Davis was defensive line coach at Miami from 1984-88 under head coach Jimmy Johnson, whom he also coached under for five years in Dallas and five years at Oklahoma State. The Hurricanes went 52-9 in those five years and won the national championship after beating Oklahoma in the Orange Bowl to cap a perfect 12-0 record in 1987. He coached 15 linemen who went on to play in the NFL, including All-Americans Bill Hawkins, Cortez Kennedy, Russell Maryland, Daniel Stubbs and the late Jerome Brown. Davis's line was a key part of the Miami defense that finished second in the nation in both scoring defense (9.7 points per game) and total defense (242.0 yards per game) in 1988. The 1986 Hurricanes set a school record with 49 sacks, broke the mark with 50 in 1988 and held opposing rushers to fewer than 2.3 yards per carry in 1987 and 1988.

Davis entered the collegiate coaching ranks on the offensive side of the ball as an assistant on Johnson's Oklahoma State University teams from 1979-83. At Oklahoma State, Davis coached receivers and tight ends while also serving as recruiting coordinator.

Davis played college football at the University of Arkansas for Coach Frank Broyles, but his career was cut short due to a knee injury. He earned a bachelor's degree in biology and life science in 1974. His coaching career began as a volunteer assistant in 1973 at Fayetteville High School in Arkansas. He had stints in Oklahoma at Pawhuska High School (1974-75) and Sand Springs High School (1976-77) as an assistant coach and at Tulsa Rogers High School (1978) in his first head coaching assignment before joining Johnson's staff at Oklahoma State.

Paul Hilton (Butch) Davis is a native of Tahlequah, Oklahoma. Davis and his wife, Tammy, have a son, Drew, who is serving as a graduate assistant on the Panthers' coaching staff.
