WEEKLY WARRIOR

Osasumwen Osaghae was named the Conference USA Player of the Week the league announced Monday afternoon.

Osaghae helped FIU to a 2-1 record at the Battle for the Capital Tournament last week. The senior earned all-tournament recognition, averaging 9.3 rebounds while going 15-18 from the field during the week. Osaghae recorded his first collegiate three-pointer, helping FIU to score a program-record 19 shots from behind the arc against Cleveland State. In just 15 minutes played at CSU, he recorded his first double-double this season, logging 10 rebounds and 13 points. He followed the performance with a career-best 22 points in 25 minutes played against ECU. Osaghae dominated at the rim, recording 11 blocked shots for the week.

BEHIND THE ARC

FIU recorded its first road victory of the season when the team topped Cleveland State 107-61. The Panthers made an impressive 19 shots from behind the arc, breaking a record set in 1995.

Individually, Eric Lovett and Cameron Corcoran recorded four three-pointers each while Osasumwen Osaghae and James Ametepete logged their first three-point baskets this season.

2018-19 RECAP

The 2018-19 season was one of the most successful in school history for the FIU men's basketball program, as head coach Ballard led the squad to a 20-win season in just his first year with the Panthers. FIU advanced to its second postseason appearance in program history and its first since taking part in the 1995 NCAA Tournament against UCLA, as the Panthers earned the program's first postseason win after downing Texas State in the CollegeInsider.com Tournament.

As a team last season, the Panthers ranked first in the nation for forced turnovers (19.6) and steals per game (5.6).

ANDREWS NAMED TO C-USA PRESEASON TEAM

Andrews is FIU's leading returning scorer after averaging 15.3 points per contest in his first season with the Panthers. Andrews transferred to FIU after playing at Pratt Community College in 2016-17. In addition to ranking second on the team in scoring, the Lorain, Ohio native also ranked second on the squad for rebounding after grabbing 5.1 boards per outing. Andrews is FIU's first preseason team honoree since Adrian Diaz in 2015-16.

In addition to the preseason team announcement, WKU was tabbed to win the league by the conference's head coaches. The Hilltoppers have earned back-to-back C-USA title game appearances under head coach Rick Stansbury and are returning four starters who each averaged double-figures a year ago. FIU was selected to finish 10th overall.

SIGNED, SEALED DELIVERED

Following a stellar career with the FIU men's basketball team, Elhadji Dieng signed a professional contract with the Leuven Bears of the EuroMillions Basketball League in Belgium. In just two seasons at FIU, Dieng saw action in 55 games with 34 career starts. The 6-11 center averaged 1.7 points and 2.4 rebounds a game before breaking out for a career-high 11 points in the season finale against Green Bay during the CIT.

GONE BUT NOT FORGOTTEN

Despite returning 4-of-5 starters from last season's squad, the Panthers have big shoes to fill with the departure of Brian Beard Jr. Beard, Jr. closed out his two-year FIU career sixth on the school's all-time scoring list (1,096), and second on the Panthers' all-time assist (381) and steals (190) ledger.

During the 2018-19 campaign, Beard, Jr. helped guide FIU to one of its most successful seasons in program history. He led the Panthers in scoring (17.3 ppg), assists (6.0 apg) and steals-per-game (2.9 spg), while also finishing the season first in C-USA and 21st in the nation in assists-per-game, and tops in the league and second in the nation in steals-per-outing.

JEREMY BALLARD

SECOND SEASON
COLGATE '03

JEREMY BALLARD

COLGATE '03 ■ 2ND SEASON AT FIU (25-17)

FIU NOTABLES ON COACH BALLARD

- FIU won its first-ever postseason game under Coach Ballard in 2018-19
- The Panthers won 20 or more games for just the third time in program history
- The 10 C-USA wins for FIU were the most since joining the league
- Finalist for both the Joe B. Hall National Coach of the Year Award and Ben Jobe Award
- FIU ranked first in the nation for forced turnovers (19.6) and steals per game (5.6)

Jeremy Ballard was officially introduced as the ninth head coach in the history of the FIU men's basketball program on April 23, 2018, at a press conference in the Ocean Bank Convocation Center, and in his one short season at the helm of the Panthers', Ballard has established a new culture of winning while also starting to re-write the program's record books.

During his first year on the sidelines at FIU, Ballard guided the Panthers to a 20-14 record and a 10-8 mark in Conference USA (C-USA) play. The team's 20 wins marked just the third time in school history that FIU logged 20-or-more victories and were tied for the second most in a single season, while the 10 C-USA wins was the most since joining the conference. In addition, the Panthers advanced to only their second postseason tournament in program history taking part in the College-insider.com Tournament (CIT) and advancing to the second round. During the first round of the CIT, the Blue and Gold won their first-ever postseason tournament game with an 87-81 victory at Texas State.

Under Ballard's tutelage, several student-athletes had breakout seasons, including Brian Beard, Jr. and Osasumwen Osaghae who found themselves among the nation's elite statistically. Beard, Jr. finished his senior season setting new single-season school records for assists (203) and steals (100), while also leading C-USA in steals-per-game (3.0) and finishing second in assists-per-contest (6.0). Beard, Jr. was also ranked second nationally in steals-per-game and 21st in assists-per-outing. Osaghae proved to be one of the top shot blockers in the country, rejecting a C-USA best 3.1 shots-per-contest, an average that was fourth in the nation. Both Beard, Jr. and Osaghae were named to the C-USA All-Defensive Team while Beard, Jr. earned Second Team All-C-USA honors.

As a team, the Panthers set several single-season school records, including points (2,798), rebounds (1,218), assists (491) and steals (359), led the nation in steals-per-game (10.6), turnover margin (5.6) and turnovers forced (19.6), and was second in total steals.

Because of the Panthers' efforts, Ballard was named a finalist for the Joe B. Hall National Coach of the Year Award, given to America's top first year head coach in Division I, and the Ben Jobe Award, presented to the top minority coach in Division I.

Ballard arrived at FIU after serving as associate head coach at VCU in 2017-18. He has spent 14 seasons as an assistant coach at the Division I level with coaching stints at Pitt, Illinois State, VCU, Tulsa and his alma mater Colgate.

As associate head coach at VCU, Ballard was reunited with current VCU head coach Mike Rhoades, who he coached with prior on the staff of former VCU head coach and current Texas head coach Shaka Smart. Ballard's main focus was VCU's defense. The Rams finished 18-15 this past season and advanced to the Atlantic 10 Conference Quarterfinals. Forward Justin Tillman was named All-Atlantic 10 Conference First Team, as well as to the All-Defensive Team.

His most successful stretch came with the Rams from 2012-15. Ballard helped lead VCU to a 79-28 mark and three straight NCAA Tournament appearances during his initial tenure in Richmond from 2012-15. During that time, VCU won at least 26 games each season and finished each season ranked in the Associated Press Top-25. In all, Ballard coached three eventual NBA players at VCU, including Troy Daniels, Briante Weber and Treveon Graham.

At the time of his hiring at FIU, Ballard was the sixth former Smart assistant to become a head coach. Rhoades, Will Wade (LSU), Mike Jones (Radford), Jamion Christian (Mount St. Mary's) and Mike Morrell (UNC Asheville) are the others.

Ballard served as an assistant on Kevin Stallings' Pitt staff during the 2016-17 season, where he coached All-ACC Third Team and USBWA All-District II forward Michael Young and All-ACC Honorable Mention selection Jamel Artis. Young led the ACC in scoring averaging 19.6 points per game. Young went on to sign with the Washington Wizards while Artis signed with the Orlando Magic.

In 2015-16, Ballard helped guide Illinois State to an 18-14 overall record and a 12-6 Missouri Valley Conference mark, which tied for second place and signified ISU's highest league finish and most conference wins since 2007-08. Working primarily with Illinois State's forwards, Ballard helped MiKyle McIntosh earn MVC Most-Improved Team accolades. McIntosh was also a 2016 All-MVC Honorable Mention Team selection.

In 2014-15, Ballard helped VCU to its first Atlantic 10 Conference Tournament title. VCU was ranked as high as No. 10 in the Associated Press Top-25 Poll during that period, and on his watch, the Rams earned five all-conference accolades, including two first-team honors.

During his first year as an assistant with the Rams, Ballard worked closely with shooting guard Troy Daniels, who would set a VCU single-season school record with 124 3-pointers. Daniels has since played for four NBA franchises. He signed a multi-year contract extension with the Memphis Grizzlies in 2016 and currently is with the Phoenix Suns.

Ballard's three seasons on Smart's staff at VCU (2012-15) were preceded by five seasons at Tulsa (2007-12) where he helped guide the Golden Hurricane to 109 victories, including three 20-plus win seasons. Tulsa had nine all-conference honorees, including a first-team selection in each of his final four seasons with the Golden Hurricane. Ballard either recruited or coached three NBA players – Jordan Clarkson, Jerome Jordan and Ben Uzoh – during his time at Tulsa.

In his first season, Tulsa piled up 25 wins and a berth in the Conference USA championship game. The Golden Hurricane eventually won the inaugural College Basketball Invitational Championship and that postseason appearance was followed by back-to-back National Invitation Tournament showings.

Prior to his time with the Golden Hurricane, Ballard was an assistant at his alma mater Colgate University (2004-07). During his time as a student-athlete at Colgate, Ballard won the prestigious ECAC Merit Medal Award twice, becoming only the third player in Colgate history to do so. He twice earned Patriot League Academic Honor Roll recognition and was given the title of the team's best defensive player by the coaching staff during his senior season. Ballard also served as a captain during his senior season.

An Atlanta native, Ballard graduated from Colgate in 2003 with a bachelor's degree in English and a minor in religion. He has a son, Khalif Jamal.
