Quick Hitters

The biggest news out of Durham prior to UNH's first game of the season was the announcement that 21st-year head coach Sean McDonnell took an indefinite leave of absence for health-related reasons on Aug. 26.

Ricky Santos, who rejoined the UNH staff in March as associate head coach and quarterbacks coach, was named interim head coach Aug. 26. Santos spent the past three seasons (2016-18) as the QB coach at Columbia University. From 2013-15, Santos coached UNH's wide receivers.

Saturday's game is the first matchup between the New Hampshire and Florida International football programs.

UNH has a 1-8 record the past nine matchups against FBS teams. The Wildcats lost 45-14 at Colorado last year. In 2017, UNH prevailed 22-12 against Georgia Southern at Legion Field (Birmingham, Alabama).

Prior to 2017, the 'Cats lost seven consecutive matchups against FBS opponents. New Hampshire won five straight games against FBS competition spanning the 2004-09 seasons.

The Wildcats are 0-1 this season following a 13-10 loss at College of the Holy Cross in the Sept. 7 season opener. UNH erased a pair of three-point deficits (3-0 and 6-3) on a 19-yard rushing TD by Carlos Washington, Jr.; the score gave the 'Cats a 10-6 lead at 6:52 of the fourth quarter.

New Hampshire's defense made a defensive stand when Pop Bush tackled Jack Jewell at the UNH 2 on 4th-and-8 from the UNH 9 with 2:02 remaining. The Holy Cross defense forced a fumble and recovered it in the end zone for a TD on the next play, however, to give the home team a 13-10 lead.

Max Brosmer, who played the second half in UNH's Sept. 7 season-opener at College of the Holy Cross, has been named the Wildcats' starting quarterback against Florida International. He is the first true freshman starting QB in program history.

UNH's top three tacklers at Holy Cross all recorded career highs in tackles. Sophomore safety Pop Bush led all players with nine tackles (all solo stops). Senior cornerback Prince Smith, Jr. followed with eight total tackles, also all of the solo variety. And senior linebacker Cameron Brusko made seven tackles, including his first career sack as part of three tackles for loss.

Dating back to last year, Washington, Jr. has eclipsed 100 rushing yards three consecutive games and 4 of 5.

A total of six Wildcats made their first career start in the 2019 season opener at Holy Cross.

SANTOS NAMED INTERIM HEAD COACH IN McDONNELL'S ABSENCE: On August 26, UNH head coach Sean McDonnell announced he was taking an indefinite leave of absence because of health-related issues. On that day, it was also announced that Ricky Santos was named interim head coach.

The 35-year old Santos, who is a 2016 UNH Hall of Fame inductee, returned to his alma mater in March 2019 as associate head coach and quarterbacks coach.

Santos spent three seasons (2016-18) as the QB coach at Columbia University. From 2013-15, Santos coached UNH's wide receivers.

Santos, whose uniform No. 2 is one of four jerseys ever retired by the UNH football program, was a four-year starter at quarterback (2004-07) led the Wildcats to a career 37-14 record and four NCAA Division I-AA/FCS playoff appearances.

Santos passed for 13,212 passing yards and 123 touchdown passes while accumulating 14,615 yards of total offense. In 2006, Santos won the Walter Payton Award as the most outstanding offensive player in FCS football. The then-junior, who finished a mere five points away from garnering the honor the previous season, threw for 3,125 yards and 29 touchdowns.

Santos possesses the University's career records in pass attempts (1,498), completions (1,024) and passing yards (12,189). He holds the top two and four of the top six single-season records in completions, headlined by 301 in 2005. His '05 season included a school-high 3,797 passing yards.

Following his graduation, Santos played football professionally for five years. He signed as an undrafted free agent with the Kansas City Chiefs for a brief stint in 2008 before moving north to play in the Canadian Football League from 2009-12.

McDonnell has a career record of 154-95 (.681 winning percentage), which includes a 98-65 conference mark, in 20 years as UNH head coach (1999-2018). He guided the Wildcats to 14 consecutive winning seasons – with six double-digit win totals – spanning 2004-17. UNH advanced to the NCAA Division I FCS tournament each of those 14 years, including back-to-back semifinal appearances in 2013 and 2014. Coach Mac has led the 'Cats to three conference titles: 2005, 2012, 2014.

McDonnell's collegiate accolades include Eddie Robinson National Coach of the Year (2005, 2014), AFCA National Coach of the Year (2014), AFCA District Coach of the Year (2004-05-12-14), CAA Coach of the Year ('04 & '14), New England Football Writers Coach of the Year (2005-08-10-12-14) and Gridiron Club of Greater Boston Head Coach of the Year (2000-04-09-12).

TRUE FRESHMAN QB: Max Brosmer, who played the second half in UNH's Sept. 7 season-opener at College of the Holy Cross, has been named the Wildcats' starting quarterback against Florida International. He is the first true freshman starting QB in program history.

Last week against the Crusaders, Brosmer entered the game on UNH's first possession of the third quarter. The Wildcats responded with a 15-play, 79-yard drive that culminated in a 21-yard field goal to tie the score at 3.

Brosmer finished with eight completions on 16 passes for 106 yards; he was not sacked. With UNH trailing 13-10, he was intercepted on a 3rd-and-10 play from the Holy Cross 47 at the HC 25 with 1:04 remaining in the game.

REDSHIRT FRESHMAN QB: Redshirt freshman Bret Edwards was named UNH's starting quarterback out of preseason and took New Hampshire's first snap in the opener at College of the Holy Cross. Edwards completed 7 of 18 passes for 97 yards, and his interception ended a UNH scoring threat on 1st-and-10 from the HC 15 with 51 seconds remaining in the first half (and UNH trailing 3-0). Edwards, who was not sacked, did not play in the second half.

Edwards became the first redshirt freshman QB to start a Wildcats' season opener since Sean Goldrich in 2012. Goldrich had six starts in nine games played that year.

Prior to 2012, redshirt quarterback R.J. Toman had two starts in the absence of injured All-American Ricky Santos in 2007.

UNH VS. THE FBS: New Hampshire was upended 45-14 by the University of Colorado in Boulder last September (it was UNH's third game of the season). Colorado led just 7-0 at the end of the first quarter, but the Buffaloes put up 21 in the second quarter to break the game open.

The Wildcats upended FBS opponent Georgia Southern, 22-12, last year at Legion Field (Birmingham, Alabama); the game was relocated because of Hurricane Irma. The Wildcats led 15-0 at the end of the first quarter and took a 22-0 lead into halftime. GSU trimmed the deficit to 22-12 at 6:18 of the fourth quarter but would get no closer.

Prior to 2017, UNH lost seven consecutive matchups against FBS opponents. The Wildcats won five straight games against that competition spanning the 2004-09 seasons.

The five consecutive wins were against Rutgers (35-24; 2004), Northwestern (34-17; 2006), Marshall (48-35; 2007), Army (28-10; 2008) and Ball State (23-16; 2009).

Since then, the Wildcats have been defeated by FBS teams Pittsburgh (2010), Toledo (2011 & 2014), Minnesota (2012), Central Michigan (2013), San Jose State (2015), San Diego State (2016) and Colorado (2018).

UNH DEFENSE LIMITS HOLY CROSS TO A PAIR OF FIELD GOALS: New Hampshire's defense did not allow a touchdown in the Sept. 7 season opener at Holy Cross. The Crusaders' lone TD was scored by its defense when they recovered a UNH fumble in the end zone.

The Wildcats halted the Holy Cross ground game, which had 35 rushes for 62 yards; that calculates to 1.8 yards per carry.

UNH's D recorded 11 tackles behind the line of scrimmage for a loss of 28 yards, and that included a pair of 5-yard sacks. Dating back to last year, the Wildcats have tallied double-digit tackles for loss three consecutive games; they had 10 in the 2018 regular-season finale at Rhode Island and 11 against the University at Albany.

CAREER-HIGH EFFORTS: UNH's top three tacklers at Holy Cross all recorded career highs in tackles. Sophomore safety Pop Bush led all players with nine tackles (all solo stops). Senior cornerback Prince Smith, Jr. followed with eight total tackles, also all of the solo variety. And senior linebacker Cameron Brusko made seven tackles, including his first career sack as part of three tackles for loss.

PROTECTING THE QB: New Hampshire's offensive line did not allow a sack in the season opener at Holy Cross. The last time the 'Cats did not yield a sack was... the 2018 matchup against Holy Cross.

WASHINGTON FOR A CENTURY: Sophomore running back Carlos Washington, Jr. carried the ball a career-high 18 times for 107 yards (5.9 yards per carry) and a TD in the Sept. 7 season opener at Holy Cross. His 19-yard scoring scamper gave the Wildcats a 10-6 lead at 6:52 of the fourth quarter. He also had four catches for 22 yards.

Dating back to last year, Washington, Jr. has eclipsed 100 rushing yards three consecutive games and 4 of 5. In the 2018 regular-season finale, he had 14 carries for 109 yards and three TDs at Rhode Island; one week earlier, he had 142 yards on 11 rushes vs. UAlbany; the century stretch began at Villanova (Oct. 27, 2018) with 179 yards on 17 carries.

WASHINGTON FOR A THOUSAND: Carlos Washington, Jr. eclipsed 1,000 all-purpose yards with his 129 at Holy Cross. He enters Saturday's game at FIU with 689 rushing yards, 186 receiving yards and 158 kickoff return yards for a total of 1,034 all-purpose yards.

That total ranks third among active Wildcats; senior wide receiver Malik Love leads the way with 1,336 and is followed by senior running back Evan Gray at 1,247.

TOP TARGETS: Redshirt freshman wide receiver Charles Briscoe III led UNH with 71 receiving yards on four catches at Holy Cross. Malik Love pulled in four catches for 38 yards and Carlos Washington, Jr. had four receptions for 22 yards.

ALL-PURPOSE BACKS: Carlos Washington, Jr. is not the only all-purpose back in the UNH backfield. Redshirt freshman Dylan Laube amassed 112 all-purpose yards against the Holy Cross Crusaders. He rushed the ball three times for 11 yards and had one catch for 42 yards – the Wildcats' longest pass play of the season; Laube also had three kickoff returns for 59 yards, including a long of 22.

KICKING THE BALL AROUND: Junior kicker Jason Hughes had a perfect season opener; he made his only field goal attempt (from 21 yards) and also converted his lone PAT attempt.

Senior Drew Sanborn punted seven times with an average of 42.0 yards, a long of 51 and one inside the 20.

LOSING THE TURNOVER BATTLE: UNH had a minus-3 turnover ratio in the 13-10 loss at Holy Cross. The Wildcats' offense lost a fumble (that was recovered in the end zone for a HC touchdown) and threw two interceptions, both in Crusaders' territory.

UNH lost the turnover battle in 6 of 11 games last year and also lost all six of those games.

FIRST CAREER STARTS IN OPENER: A total of six Wildcats made their first career start in the 2019 season opener at Holy Cross. On offense, it was QB Bret Edwards, wide receivers Brian Espanet and Charles Briscoe III, and tight end Carson Leary. Defensive tackle Niko Kvietkus and safety Pop Bush also made their first career starts.

THE CAPTAINS: Three of the four senior captains are on the defensive side of the ball; they are cornerback Isiah Perkins, safety Pop Lacey and linebacker Michael Balsamo. On offense, running back Evan Gray is also a captain.

Lacey played as a true freshman and enters the weekend with 209 total tackles and five interceptions. He tied for the team lead in tackles with 79 and that included a team-high 50 solo stops to garner All-CAA Second Team recognition in '18. Lacey was voted to the 2019 CAA Football Preseason All-Conference Team.

Perkins has started all of UNH's 26 games since the start of the '17 season and played all 38 games the past 3+ years. Two seasons ago, Perkins led the team with five interceptions and was named a Hero Sports Sophomore All-American. He has tallied 104 career tackles and six INTs.

Balsamo has played 25 games with five starts in 2+ years as a linebacker. He made 35 stops, including five behind the line of scrimmage, in 11 games last season.

Gray was slowed by injuries last season and has rushed for 1,036 yards and 10 touchdowns in his career. Gray led the team with 650 yards rushing yards and eight TDs as a sophomore in 2017. He also caught 20 passes for 135 yards and a score that season.

RETURNING STARTERS: UNH returns 12 starters with an even split of six on offense and six on defense. On special teams, the starting placekicker and punter also return.

TACKLING THE CENTURY MARK: Five UNH Wildcats enter Saturday's game with 100+ tackles. Pop Lacey leads all active 'Cats with 209 total stops. He is followed by Prince Smith, Jr. (137), Michael Balsamo (114), Isiah Perkins (104) and Evan Horn (107).

BLUE-WHITE SCRIMMAGE HIGHLIGHTS: The UNH football team completed the 2019 preseason with its Blue-White scrimmage on Sunday, Aug. 25, at Wildcat Stadium.

Redshirt freshman quarterback Bret Edwards completed his first 10 pass attempts and 18 of 19 overall for 176 yards and two touchdowns.

Sophomore wide receiver Brian Espanet caught 11 passes for 169 yards and three TDs, including scoring plays of 26 and 4 yards from Edwards. The other was a 13-yard TD connection with freshman quarterback Max Brosmer.

Brosmer completed 6 of 9 passes for 99 yards and one touchdown.

The defensive effort was highlighted by senior cornerback Isiah Perkins' 40-yard interception return for a touchdown.

Junior defensive tackle Jacob Bradshaw forced a fumble at the goal line and recovered the loose ball to deny a score.

SAFETIES: Senior Pop Lacey and junior Evan Horn – both of whom have been making big plays in the backfield the last couple of seasons – lead the pack at safety and will be joined by sophomore Pop Bush, among others.

Lacey played as a true freshman and has 209 total tackles and five interceptions. He tied for the team lead in tackles with 79 and that included a team-high 50 solo stops to garner All-CAA Second Team recognition in '18. Lacey was voted to the 2019 CAA Football Preseason All-Conference Team.

Horn was named a Hero Sports FCS sophomore All-American last season. He returned two of his four interceptions for touchdowns a year ago, and as a redshirt freshman he had a 56-yard pick-six in the FCS playoffs against Central Arkansas among his three interceptions. Horn is UNH's second-leading returning tackler with 57, and he's compiled 107 career tackles following a seven-tackle effort in this year's season opener.

Bush played in seven games last year as a redshirt freshman and was credited with 10 tackles, including 2.5 tackles for loss. In his first career start at Holy Cross last week, he led all players with nine tackles.

CORNERING: The cornerbacks are among the big-play guys. Seniors Isiah Perkins and Prince Smith, Jr. are the Wildcat veterans who cover the two cornerback spots on defense, making the position one of the strong points on defense and the team overall. Both have more than 100 career tackles, and last year the duo ranked 1-2 in pass breakups.

Smith earned his first start three games into his true freshman season and started 10 games that year. He was the CAA Defensive Rookie of the Year and returned two of his five interceptions that year for touchdowns. He took one of his two picks last season 22 yards for a TD against Stony Brook. Smith's career stats include 137 total tackles and eight interceptions, which leads all active Wildcats.

Perkins started all of UNH's 25 games the last two years and played all 38 games the past three years. Two seasons ago, Perkins led the team with five interceptions and was named a Hero Sports sophomore All American. He has tallied 104 career tackles and six INTs.

Redshirt freshman Derek Thompson is pressing for playing time at cornerback.

THE D-LINE: UNH's late-season surge last year was fueled by several aspects, including the defensive line's play over the final several games.

The defensive tackles and defensive ends helped the group clamp down on opponents by amping up their work against the run for starters.

Here's one way to look at it: the Wildcats gave up 186 rushing yards per game through the first six games of the season; aided by an improved pass rush and an increased number of quarterback sacks, they sliced that number to 60 rushing yards per game in the last five. And only once in the final five contests did the opposing team run for more than 100 yards.

Defensive ends Jae'Wuan Horton and Kyle Reisert and defensive tackle Ryan Sosnak have graduated, but the defense returns experienced players at both positions.

Senior Josh Kania and junior Brian Carter lead the way at defensive end. Kania, 6-foot-3 and 244 pounds, has 56 solo tackles and 26 tackles for a total of 82 career tackles, including 4.5 sacks.

Carter (6-2, 231) started six games as a redshirt freshman in 2016 and all eight he played last year. He was second on the team with 5.5 sacks last season, including two at Colorado, and for his career has 34 unassisted and 17 assisted tackles for a total of 51.

Also at defensive end, senior Robbie Schumacher (6-0, 253) had a couple of sacks last season and the defensive coaches are excited to have sophomore Gunner Gibson (6-3, 230), who was listed as a tight end on last year's roster, back on their side of the ball. He made four tackles in the opener at Holy Cross.

On the inside of the defensive line, juniors Elijah Lewis and Jacob Bradshaw and sophomore Niko Kvietkus are among those back. Lewis (6-1, 277) played as a true freshman in 2016, missed 2017 with an injury and started all 11 games in 2018, when he ranked second among defensive linemen in tackles with 34, including five tackles for loss. Lewis made six tackles (5-1-6) Sept. 7 at Holy Cross.

Kvietkus (6-3, 279) enrolled at UNH in January 2018, played in nine games last year as a true freshman and had eight tackles. He made four tackles, including his first career sack, at Holy Cross.

Bradshaw is the big guy of the group at 6-1, 300 pounds. He saw action in 10 of 11 games a year ago and had five tackles.

THE LINEBACKING UNIT: The linebacking crew is anchored by senior Michael Balsamo, who was a starter at safety as a redshirt freshman before moving inside. Balsamo (6-0, 230) played 24 games with four starts the previous two years as a linebacker. He made 35 stops, including five behind the line of scrimmage, in 11 games last season.

Senior Cameron Brusko (6-1, 201) had a strong spring. In three previous years, he saw some time at linebacker, but the majority of his plays were on special teams. Brusko made a career-high seven tackles (all solo) at Holy Cross.

Junior Nelson Thomas (5-10, 208), who has switched from safety, had a breakout spring season and redshirt freshman J.J. Jerome (5-11, 208) will push for playing time as well.

THE BALL CARRIERS: The run game looks to pick up where it left off in 2018. Carlos Washington, Jr. took a handoff on the first play of UNH's game at Villanova University late last October, broke through the line and raced his way to a 75-yard touchdown.

The touchdown set off a run of good times for the Wildcats.

Washington carried the ball 17 times that day for 179 yards, including a 16-yard score in the second quarter, to lift the 'Cats to a decisive and tone-changing 34-0 victory.

In the last four games of the 2018 season, the 'Cats churned out 185.2 yards per game and 10 touchdowns; the Wildcats rushed the ball 151 times for 741 yards (4.9 yards per carry).

Featuring a three-point attack at running back with Washington, now a sophomore, senior Evan Gray and redshirt freshman Dylan Laube, the Wildcats look to ride the momentum from that finish into the 2019 season.

Washington (5-11, 201) rushed 99 times for 582 yards – an average of 5.9 yards per carry and 52.9 rushing yards per game – and six touchdowns to lead UNH in every rushing statistic. He also had 17 catches for 164 yards and a score.

Gray (5-10, 233) was slowed by injuries last season and has rushed for over 1,000 yards and 10 touchdowns in his career. Gray led the team with 650 yards rushing yards and eight TDs as a sophomore in 2017. He also caught 20 passes for 135 yards and a score that season.

Laube (5-10, 195) starred at Westhampton (N.Y.) High School on Long Island and has drawn comparisons to former Wildcat standout Dalton Crossan, who also came out of Long Island. He saw action in three games last year as a true freshman – he did not record any stats – and is coming off a productive spring.

BLOCKERS LEADING THE WAY: The silver lining to having a rash of injuries during a season is that the situation opens up playing opportunities for multiple people. Nine players had at least one start on the offensive line in 2018, and seven of them are back this year.

Two of the senior leaders in the group – 6-4, 285-pound tackle Jeff Carter and 6-2, 281-pound guard Matt Matulis – have come a long way the past year. Neither was considered a frontrunner for a starting job heading into the 2018 season, and both have taken an interesting journey to his role.

Matulis, slowed by injuries that threatened to end his career prematurely, started the last six games of the '18 season – all at left guard.

Carter worked his way into the starting lineup last season with three consecutive starts at left tackle, was hurt and came back to start the last two games at left tackle, then right tackle.

Nick Velte (6-3, 289) and Noah Robison (6-6, 286) are seniors who have starting experience. Robison started the first nine games of the 2018 season at right tackle before being sidelined by injury. Velte, who had five starts in '16 and two more in '17, was limited to four games – all off the bench – a year ago.

Juniors Matt Mascia (6-2, 278) and Jack Carroll (6-2, 285) have started as well. Mascia has started more than 20 games the past two seasons and that includes 10 last year at right guard. Carroll was UNH's starting left guard the first two games a year ago, then was sidelined until the final three games, including a start at right guard in the finale.

Patrick Flynn (6-3, 277) and Riley Burns (6-3, 295) both earned starts last year as redshirt freshmen. Burns has experience at guard and played tackle this past spring. Flynn started every game at center, but will likely move to tackle this season.

Sophomore Cam Rush (6-4, 299) played in a couple of games last season. Osho Omoyeni (6-3, 299) is a redshirt freshman who had an impressive spring '19 at center.

Junior Curtis Linton, Jr. (6-3, 275; 3 GP), as well as redshirt freshmen David Perry, Jr. (6-5, 313; 1 GP), Matt O'Neill (6-4, 301) and Andrew Carter (6-6, 245), are also in the mix.

This week's projected lineup is Flynn, Carroll, Omoyeni, Mascia and Carter; Velte, last week's starting center, is not on this week's 2-deep and Omoyeni is listed as the starter.

THE TARGETS: Gone is Neil O'Connor, one of the most productive pass catchers in UNH football history. Open is the opportunity for a new crop of receivers to step up and fill the void left by O'Connor and Kieran Presley, who last year between them caught 104 passes for 1,251 yards. (Note: the Wildcats had 183 catches for 1,923 yards.)

The 'Cats do have some players with experience catching the ball, particularly in senior wide receiver Malik Love and tight end Justin Malone-Woods.

Love (5-10, 183) had impressive seasons his first two years, but missed almost all of last season with a hamstring issue. Love's 59 catches led the team his first year and his 70 for as a sophomore were second to O'Connor's 99.

In his career, Love has 135 catches for 1,306 yards and four TDs.

Malone-Woods (6-2, 241) has caught 27 passes for 355 yards and three touchdowns in his career. Those numbers include last year's nine catches for 80 yards and one score.

Sophomores Brian Espanet and Benyeal Hill, Jr., are among the receivers vying for starting jobs and playing time. Espanet (6-3, 199) had three catches for 19 yards in 10 games played. Hill (6-0, 187) got banged up early in fall camp last year and played in a couple of games.

Sophomore C.J. Turner (5-7, 172) had four catches as a true freshman in 2017 and also saw time returning kickoffs, but missed last year with injuries.

It was Charles Briscoe III, however, who got the season-opening start and had a team-high 71 receiving yards on four catches.

Carson Leary (6-2, 243), who made the transition from defensive end to tight end, has earned the backup spot on the depth chart. Freshman Thomas Splagounias (6-2, 224) and sophomore Ryan Finney (6-6, 260) are the other tight ends on the roster.

THE SIGNAL CALLERS: The search for the 2019 season's starting quarterback started when the 2018 season ended. The Wildcats are in the market for a starting quarterback with the graduation of Trevor Knight, who's been calling the shots the last few years.

Redshirt freshman Bret Edwards, freshman Max Brosmer, sophomores Tommy Herion and Stephen Hedberg, and senior Ivan Niyomugabo are all in the running for the starting job.

Edwards, effective last year running the scout team, was slowed the first part of spring by an injury and came on strong and continued to excel in the fall preseason, capped by an impressive performance in the Blue-White scrimmage to earn the title of starting QB.

Brosmer is a true freshman who enrolled at UNH in January and participated in winter workouts and spring football. He wrapped up the spring by completing 12 of 19 passes for 151 yards and two touchdowns in the Blue/White scrimmage. He also had a solid fall preseason and was named the backup.

Herion is the only one in the group who has taken a snap at quarterback in college. He had at least one pass attempt in seven games and completed 25 of 53 passes for 284 yards last season.

Niyomugabo starred at Merrimack Valley High School in Penacook and Hedberg at St. Thomas Aquinas in Dover before completing a post-graduate year at Phillips Academy (Andover, Mass.).

SPECIAL TEAMS: UNH has experience in both the kicking and return games, and that includes senior punter Drew Sanborn, who was an All-CAA Third Team honoree in 2018. In his first year as the first-string punter, Sanborn ranked third in the CAA conference with an average of 40.2 yards per punt. He recorded seven punts of 50+ yards, including a long of 60 yards at Colorado, and pinned the opponent inside the 20-yard line 27 times.

Junior Jason Hughes was the Wildcats' starting placekicker in 2018 and also handled kickoff duties the last four games of the season. Hughes was a perfect 22-for-22 on point-after-touchdown attempts and made 5 of 8 field goal attempts, including a long of 41 yards at Elon. He ranked second on the team in scoring with 37 points.

Redshirt freshman Jordan Conn is slotted as the backup for kickoffs, punting and the place kicker.

Senior safety Pop Lacey is No. 1 on the depth chart at punt return. He claimed that position midway through last season and returned 10 punts for 59 yards (5.9 yards/return); that included a long of 23 vs. UAlbany.

Junior Evan Horn, another safety, was UNH's primary punt returner in

HEAD COACH SEAN McDONNELL

Sean McDonnell '78 enters his 21st season as head coach of his alma mater in 2019. The native of Saratoga Springs, N.Y., has a career record of 154-95 (.618 winning percentage) that includes a 98-65 conference mark (.601). McDonnell's 98 league wins ranks first among active coaches and third all-time.

McDonnell took an indefinite leave of absence for health-related reasons on Aug. 26, 2019.

He guided the Wildcats to 14 consecutive winning seasons – with six double-digit win totals – spanning 2004-17. UNH advanced to the NCAA Division I FCS tournament each of those 14 years, including back-to-back semifinal appearances in 2013 and 2014. Coach Mac has led the 'Cats to three conference titles: 2005, 2012, 2014.

McDonnell's collegiate accolades include Eddie Robinson National Coach of the Year (2005, 2014), AFCA National Coach of the Year (2014), AFCA District Coach of the Year (2004-05-12-14), CAA Coach of the Year ('04 & '14), New England Football Writers Coach of the Year (2005-08-10-12-14) and Gridiron Club of Greater Boston Head Coach of the Year (2000-04-09-12).

In his 20-year tenure as head coach, UNH has received a total of 50 All-America awards, four CAA Offensive Player of the Year awards, three CAA Rookie of the Year awards, two CAA Chuck Boone Leadership Award honors and 46 CAA All-Conference First Team selections.

New Hampshire won three of its last four games to end the 2017 season with a 4-7 overall record that included 3-5 in the CAA. The Wildcats' late resurgence began with a dominant 34-0 victory at Villanova University and continued with a 35-24 win against third-ranked James Madison at Wildcat Stadium. UNH then upended UAlbany, 24-10, on Senior Day to push its win streak to three games. In that three-game span, the 'Cats outscored the opposition 93-34.

UNH extended its nation-leading active streak of consecutive playoff appearances to 14 years in the 2017 season. After recording their first shutout in postseason history with a 14-0 win against Central Connecticut State University in the first round, the Wildcats traveled to third-ranked Central Arkansas and prevailed 21-15 to advance out of the second round and give McDonnell his 150th career victory. The 'Cats traveled even farther west to play fifth-ranked South Dakota State in the quarterfinals, and New Hampshire's season came to an end with a 9-5 record.

The 2017 season began with a 24-23 victory against Maine in the inaugural Thursday Night Throwdown to keep the Brice-Cowell Musket in Durham for the seventh consecutive year. The Wildcats improved to 2-0 by defeating FBS school Georgia Southern at the historic Iron Bowl (Birmingham, Ala.), and the 'Cats recorded another signature victory with a 16-6 win against top-10 team Elon in mid-November.

UNH football christened Wildcat Stadium against Holy Cross on Sept. 10, 2016 and fireworks lit up the Durham sky following a 39-28 victory. New Hampshire went 6-2 the last eight games of the regular season with victories against William & Mary and Stony Brook, both of whom were nationally ranked. UNH went on to defeat Lehigh, 64-21, in an NCAA first round game and ended the year with an 8-5 overall record that included 6-2 in the CAA.

The 2015 Wildcats rallied to win their final four regular-season games. The winning streak included an upset of No. 5 Richmond (30-25) and a convincing 22-6 defeat of rival Maine in the final regular-season home game in the 79-year history of Cowell Stadium. The 'Cats recorded victories in their final 15 regular season games in Cowell Stadium.

UNH put together a staggering streak of 162 straight weeks ranked in the STATS FCS Top 25, a streak that spanned Sept. 6, 2004 through Oct. 12, 2015.

Coach Mac guided the 2014 Wildcats to their second consecutive national semifinal appearance with a 12-2 record that included school records for most wins in a season and consecutive wins (12), as well as five wins against nationally-ranked teams, including four in the Top 10. The Wildcats posted a perfect 8-0 record in the CAA to claim their third league championship under McDonnell and first outright title since 1994.

In 2013, McDonnell was honored by the Joe Yukica-New Hampshire Chapter of the National Football Foundation with the Andy Mooradian Award for his contributions to amateur football. UNH won multiple playoff games (three) in a single season for the first time in program history en route to the Wildcats' first appearance in the FCS semifinals. The 'Cats recorded five wins against nationally-ranked foes, including three vs. the Top 10, to finish with a 10-5 overall record as well as a 6-2 CAA mark. New Hampshire recorded a six-game win streak for the second consecutive season and went a perfect 6-0 at home.

After a 1-3 start, the 2013 season turned when Coach Mac's Wildcats went for – and converted – a 2-point PAT with 14 seconds remaining in the fourth quarter to defeat 12th-ranked Villanova, 29-28. UNH closed the regular season with a convincing 24-3 win at Cowell Stadium against fourth-ranked Maine to retain the Brice-Cowell Musket before recording playoff wins against Lafayette (45-7 at home), eighth-ranked Maine (41-27) and seventh-ranked Southeastern Louisiana (20-17).

HEAD COACH SEAN McDONNELL

The 2012 Wildcats earned a share of the CAA championship with a 6-2 league mark. The 'Cats compiled an 8-4 overall record that included an NCAA second-round game at Wofford. McDonnell reached coaching milestone victory No. 100 with a 44-21 win against Georgia State at the Georgia Dome on Oct. 6, 2012.

The 2011 Wildcats matched a school record for the second straight year by knocking off five ranked opponents en route to an 8-4 mark, including 6-2 in the CAA. The 'Cats put a bow on their rivalry with Massachusetts by knocking off the Minutemen, 27-21, in the second Colonial Clash at Gillette Stadium. UNH reclaimed the Brice-Cowell Musket with a 30-27 defeat of Maine in the regular-season finale and came within a blocked PAT of forcing overtime in a playoff loss at Montana State. Junior linebacker Matt Evans became the first Wildcat to ever be named the nation's top defensive player when he won the Buck Buchanan Award, and senior quarterback Kevin Decker was crowned the CAA Offensive Player of the Year.

In 2010, McDonnell's Wildcats collected victories against five ranked opponents en route to an 8-5 campaign. UNH advanced to the quarterfinal round of the NCAA postseason for the sixth time in seven years after dispatching Bethune-Cookman, 45-20, in the second round. UNH made history by topping No. 12 UMass, 39-13, in the inaugural Colonial Clash at Gillette Stadium. The game was witnessed by 32,848 fans, the largest football crowd in CAA history.

UNH finished 10-3 in 2009 and won its second straight CAA North Division championship. The Wildcats continued to be giant killers by knocking off an FBS opponent for the fifth straight time, securing a hard-fought 23-16 triumph at Ball State. Previous FBS opponents to feel the wrath of the Wildcats during the amazing upset run were Army (2008), Marshall ('07), Northwestern ('06) and Rutgers ('04). UNH was the only team to defeat eventual FCS national champion Villanova (28-24) on Homecoming. The Wildcats also posted an impressive win on the road at McNeese State, defeating the Cowboys, 49-13, in the first round of the NCAA playoffs.

New Hampshire notched a 10-3 record in 2008, including a defeat of Southern Illinois in the first round of the NAAs. UNH finished the season ranked No. 7 in most national polls. In 2007, the Wildcats were 7-5 overall and just narrowly missed upsetting No. 1 Northern Iowa in the first round of the NAAs, losing on a last-minute TD, 38-35, at the UNI Dome.

The Wildcats were ranked as high as No. 1 in the nation in 2006 and finished the season ranked sixth after defeating Hampton in the first round (41-38) of the NAAs. Among the regular-season highlights was senior All-America wide receiver David Ball surpassing legendary Jerry Rice with 58 career TD receptions and junior quarterback Ricky Santos claiming the Walter Payton Award as the FCS football national player of the year.

In 2005, McDonnell was honored as the Eddie Robinson National Coach of the Year by The Sports Network after leading his Wildcats to a record-breaking 11-2 season, an Atlantic 10 Championship, a second straight NCAA appearance in the I-AA quarterfinals and the country's No. 1 ranking at the end of the regular season.

McDonnell's hard work rebuilding the program paid off in 2004 with a 10-3 overall record and a 6-2 mark in the Atlantic 10, which earned the team the Northern Division championship and a bid to the NCAA I-AA Championships for the first time since 1994. The 'Cats advanced to the quarterfinals for the first time in program history by winning its first-ever NCAA contest under McDonnell, a 27-23 upset at Georgia Southern.

In 2003, UNH began turning the corner by winning three of its last four contests, including an upset victory over nationally-ranked Maine. In 2002, McDonnell's offense was one of the most prolific in I-AA football and averaged 449.2 yards per contest and 36.7 ppg. UNH finished with a 4-7 overall record in 2001.

In 2000, the Wildcats were ranked as high as 23rd in the nation and knocked off three top-25 opponents. Injuries squashed UNH's chances for a playoff berth down the stretch.

In his rookie season, McDonnell led the Wildcats to a 5-6 overall record and oversaw a wide-open offensive attack that led the Atlantic 10 with an average of 457.3 yards per game.

McDonnell was named the 19th head coach of the UNH football program April 22, 1999. McDonnell replaced legendary head coach Bill Bowes, who retired after 27 years as the mentor of the Wildcats.

McDonnell served eight seasons as a Wildcat assistant and completed his fifth year as the team's offensive coordinator in 1998. McDonnell rejoined the Wildcats as an assistant coach before the 1991 spring camp and worked with the quarterbacks and receivers for his first three seasons. In 1997, McDonnell was named the recipient of "The College Assistant Coach Award" by the Gridiron Club of Greater Boston in recognition of his quality of performance, loyalty and longevity.

McDonnell was a standout defensive back for UNH. He started for the 1975 and 1976 Yankee Conference championship teams and came back to start for the 1978 squad. After his graduation from UNH, he spent one year as an assistant coach at Manchester (N.H.) Memorial High School and followed that up with a three-year stint at Manchester West (1980-82). McDonnell worked as the defensive coordinator at Hamilton College for two seasons (1983-84) and subsequently spent three years (1985-87) coaching the receivers and tight ends at former conference-rival Boston University. During the 1988 campaign, McDonnell served as a graduate assistant coach at Boston College. He spent two seasons as an assistant at Columbia (1989-90) prior to his coaching debut in Durham.

COACHING STAFF

RICKY SANTOS

INTERIM HEAD COACH / QUARTERBACKS

In March 2019, Ricky Santos '08 was hired as the Wildcats' associate head coach/quarterbacks coach, which returned the 2016 UNH Hall of Fame inductee to his alma mater in a coaching capacity for the second time. With head coach Sean McDonnell stepping aside indefinitely for health reasons on Aug. 26, 2019, Santos was promoted to interim head coach. Santos spent the previous three seasons (2016-18) as the QB coach at Columbia University. From 2013-15, Santos coached UNH's wide receivers. In 2014, he mentored R.J. Harris to the single greatest statistical season in program history. Harris tallied a school-record 100 catches and led the nation with 1,551 receiving yards, which tied UNH's all-time single-season benchmark. Santos, whose uniform No. 2 is one of four jerseys ever retired by the UNH football program, was a four-year starter at quarterback (2004-07), led the Wildcats to a career 37-14 record and four NCAA Division I-AA/FCS playoff appearances. Santos passed for 13,212 passing yards and 123 touchdown passes while accumulating 14,615 yards of total offense. In 2006, Santos won the Walter Payton Award as the most outstanding offensive player in FCS football. The then-junior, who finished a mere five points away from garnering the honor the previous season, threw for 3,125 yards and 29 touchdowns. Santos possesses the University's career records in pass attempts (1,498), completions (1,024) and passing yards (12,189). He holds the top two and four of the top six single-season records in completions, headlined by 301 in 2005. His '05 season included a school-high 3,797 passing yards.

MICHAEL FERZOCO

CO-OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/WIDE RECEIVERS

Michael Ferzoco is in his 12th season on the UNH coaching staff in 2019; in addition to coaching the wide receivers, he is the co-offensive coordinator. He was previously elevated to the role of wide receivers coach/special teams coordinator in 2016. Ferzoco spent six seasons (2010-15) as the running backs coach after serving as linebackers coach his first two seasons (2008-09). Under the tutelage of Ferzoco, Neil O'Connor finished his Wildcat career (2015-18) with 235 catches for 3,117 yards, both of which rank third on the program's leaderboard. In the 2017 season, O'Connor was named to a total of five All-America Teams and was a Walter Payton Award finalist. He had 97 receptions for 1,396 receiving yards and 10 TDs; with those numbers, he was No. 3 in the nation in receiving yards, and on UNH's list of single-season superlatives he ranked second in receptions and fourth in receiving yards. The 2015 Wildcats' backfield was led by junior Dalton Crossan, who rumbled for 885 yards on 172 carries and 13 of UNH's 19 rushing TDs. In 2014, the Wildcats' running game finished top three in the CAA in rushing offense for the third straight year. Senior Nico Steriti, who gained All-CAA honors for the third straight year, ranked first in the CAA with 14 rushing TDs. In 2013, the Wildcats featured a running game led by Steriti, who became the first UNH back since 2002 to eclipse 1,000 rushing yards.

ALEX MILLER

CO-OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/OFFENSIVE LINE

In 2019, Alex Miller is in his ninth season as an assistant coach at UNH, eighth year in charge of the entire offensive line and is also the co-offensive coordinator. New Hampshire's run game was dominant the last four games of the 2018 season as the 'Cats churned out 185.2 yards per game and 10 touchdowns; the Wildcats rushed the ball 151 times for 741 yards (4.9 yards per carry). In 2017, Jake Kennedy centered the offensive line and was named to the All-CAA Second Team. Miller's O-line and run game scheme paved the way for senior running back Dalton Crossan, who had a year for the record books with 233 carries for 1,281 yards in '16. Senior center Tad McNeely was named to the All-CAA Football First Team and classmate Andrew Lauderdale was a Third Team selection. The 2016 Wildcats averaged 379.2 yards and 28.5 points per game, both of which ranked third in the CAA. In 2015, Miller mentored a unit that did not use the same starting lineup more than two games in a row the entire season; Austin Heter earned All-CAA First Team and All-New England Team accolades. In 2014, the offensive line helped UNH rank second in the CAA in scoring and third in both rushing offense and pass offense. Led by All-CAA First Team Mike Coccia and Second Team Tad McNeely, the Wildcat offensive line ranked third in the CAA in sacks against. Prior to joining the Wildcats, Miller served a three-year tenure at the University of Oregon. As a student-athlete, Miller starred as a center at UMass, where he was feted as an All-America in his senior campaign.

JORDAN D'ONOFRIO

TIGHT ENDS

Jordan D'Onofrio enters his second year as UNH tight ends coach in 2019. He previously worked as an offensive intern at UNH in 2016-17 before rejoining the program in 2018. D'Onofrio served as a graduate assistant coach and worked specifically with fullbacks at Springfield College during the 2017-18 academic year, while studying for his master's degree in athletic administration. A four-year member of the Springfield College football team, D'Onofrio graduated in Spring 2015 with a bachelor's degree in Biology. He was a defensive line coach at Manchester High School (Manchester, N.H.) prior to his first stint at UNH.

CHRIS SETIAN

RUNNING BACKS

Chris Setian '13 returns for his second stint as UNH running backs coach in 2019. He previously served in this capacity from 2016-17. In 2016, Setian mentored senior running back Dalton Crossan to a year for the record books as he recorded 233 carries for 1,281 yards. In 2018, he was the running backs coach at Brown University. Setian was a four-year letterwinner (2010-13) for the Wildcats who served as a co-captain during his senior season, when he ranked second on the team with 458 rushing yards (on 90 carries) and tied for the team lead with eight rushing TDs to earn the coveted Bill Bowes Coaches Award. In 38 career games, the hard-nosed running back compiled 1,286 yards and 16 touchdowns while averaging 5.1 yards/carry. The multi-purpose back tackled on 54 catches for 444 yards and six TDs and also excelled on special teams, where he racked up 29 tackles on kickoff coverage and returned seven kicks for 87 yards.

JOHN LYONS

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR/DEFENSIVE BACKS

The 2019 season represents John Lyons' ninth year as UNH defensive coordinator/DB coach. Last season, the Wildcats' defense led the CAA in both first downs allowed (185) and pass defense (181.3 yards allowed per game); UNH also ranked second in total defense (310.0 ypg) and sacks (36), as well as third in third-down conversion (28.8%) and fourth in scoring (22.8 points per game). In 2017, he oversaw a UNH defense that ranked No. 1 in the CAA in red zone as well as second in sacks and third in pass defense efficiency. In the 2016 CAA rankings, the Wildcats' defense was second in the red zone as well as fumble recoveries and interceptions, tied for second in sacks, and third in takeaways. Under Lyons' tutelage, senior cornerback Casey DeAndrade was named to a total of five All-America teams. Also of note, Prince Smith, Jr. was honored as the CAA Defensive Rookie of the Year. Lyons, the second-winningest head football coach in Dartmouth College history, was inducted into the Northwest Catholic (Conn.) High School Hall of Fame on April 27, 2013. In 2015, Lyons oversaw an opportunistic defensive unit that recovered 11 fumbles and tallied 12 interceptions to help the 'Cats to a +6 turnover margin (No. 3 in CAA). The stout defense racked up 31 sacks (No. 3 in CAA). In the 2014 national statistics, UNH ranked 22nd in scoring defense, 15th in sacks and 17th in turnovers gained, which included 15th in fumbles recovered. UNH's secondary was led by All-America honoree Casey DeAndrade, a sophomore who was one of six 'Cats to receive All-Conference recognition. In 2011, LB Matt Evans won the Buck Buchanan Award as the nation's top defensive player – the first Wildcat to ever accomplish that feat. As head coach at Dartmouth (1992-2004), Lyons earned 60 career wins and two Ivy League titles ('92, '96). He was named the 1996 Division I N.E. Coach of the Year by the Gridiron Club of Boston. Lyons worked at Kimball Union Academy as football coach (2005-10) and A.D. (2008-10). He spent three years (2005-07) in NFL Europe with the Cologne Centurions. He served as defensive coordinator at Boston U. (1985-87) and at his alma mater, Penn ('84). He played three years for the Quakers and was an All-Ivy League Second Team selection.

JOHN BOWES

SAFETIES

John Bowes enters his second year as the UNH safeties coach in 2019. Under his tutelage last season, junior Pop Lacey tied for the team lead in total tackles and garnered All-CAA Second Team recognition; sophomore Evan Horn had a team-high four interceptions – scored on two of them – and ranked fourth in tackles. The corps of safeties helped UNH rank first in the CAA in pass defense, second in total defense and fourth in scoring defense. Bowes spent the 2017 season as the defensive coordinator/safeties coach at Fordham University. The previous three years (2013-16) were at Bucknell as the secondary coach/special teams coordinator. In 2015, he coached the Patriot League Defensive Player of the Year and a Third-Team All-American. Prior to Bucknell, Bowes spent five years (2008-13) as an assistant coach at William & Mary. A 2006 graduate of The Catholic University of America with a degree in finance, he was a three-year starter at cornerback and safety.

GARRETT GILLICK

LINEBACKERS

Garrett Gillick is in his sixth year as the linebackers coach at UNH in 2019. Last year, the two starting linebackers were the top two Wildcats in tackles for loss; they also ranked first and third in sacks as well as first and fifth in total tackles, and they were credited with five of the team's 11 forced fumbles. The LBs helped New Hampshire's defense to CAA conference rankings of first in pass defense, second in total defense, tied for second in sacks, fourth in scoring defense, and fifth in rushing defense. In 2016, his proteges ranked 3-4-5 on the team in tackles and those three combined for 23 of the team's 76 tackles for loss. Senior DeVaughn Chollette earned a spot on the All-CAA Football Third Team. In 2015, Gillick's understudy Akil Anderson earned All-CAA Third Team and Wildcat team defensive MVP. Under Gillick's tutelage in the 2014 season, both Anderson and Shane McNeely earned CAA All-Conference honors as they ranked 1-2 on the team in tackles. The linebacking corps helped UNH rank second in the CAA in scoring defense (21.2 points/game). Prior to coming to Durham, Gillick had a three-season stint (2011-13) at Bentley University, including two years as defensive line coach and one year (2013) as secondary coach.

PETER McCARTY

DEFENSIVE LINE

Peter McCarty, who has been coaching for over 30 years, is in his sixth season as defensive line coach in 2019. Last year, senior DE Jae'Wuan Horton was named to the CAA Second Team and UNH's defense tied for second in the league in sacks (36). The pressure generated by the Wildcats' D-line helped the 'Cats rank first in pass defense and second in total defense. In 2017, the duo of senior DT Rick Holt and Horton combined for 17.5 sacks to help UNH rank second in the CAA in that stat for the second straight year (with 35 sacks). Holt led the team and tied for first in the league in sacks, and was second on the team in total tackles en route to garnering CAA All-Conference Second Team recognition. In 2016, on the strength of the pass rush generated by the D-line, UNH tied for second in the CAA with 24 sacks. Senior DE Cam Shorey earned a spot on the All-CAA Football First Team. In 2014, McCarty helped guide the UNH defense to a CAA-best 39 sacks. Led by All-CAA Second Team selection Cody Muller and All-CAA Third Team Matt Kaplan, the defense ranked second in the CAA and 22nd nationally in scoring defense (21.2 points/game). McCarty's extensive coaching experience at the college level includes stops at Stanford, Georgia Tech, Maryland, Illinois, Syracuse, Cornell, Western Michigan, Central Florida and Holy Cross.

KENDALL REYES

DEFENSIVE TACKLES

Kendall Reyes, who hails from Nashua, N.H., and played collegiately at the University of Connecticut from 2007-11, enters his first year as UNH defensive tackles coach in 2019. Reyes was drafted as a defensive end by the San Diego Chargers in 2012 (second round, pick 17, No. 49 overall) and spent five seasons (2012-16) in the NFL with the Chargers, Washington Redskins and Kansas City Chiefs.
