FRIDAY KICKOFF

- >> Louisiana Tech is led by head coach Sonny Cumbie, who is 2-5 in his inaugural season at LA Tech and is the 34th head coach in program history.
- >> Saturday's matchup will be the fifth meeting between LA Tech and Florida International. The Bulldogs lead the series 4-0, including a 2-0 record against the Panthers in Miami.
- >> The Bulldogs nine fumble recoveries this season are the sixth most among all FBS programs while their 16 turnovers gained rank ninth nationally. The Bulldogs forced and recovered three fumbles during the loss to Rice, extending the LA Tech streak of games with a turnover forced to 12.
- >> The Bulldogs are coming off a 42-41 loss to Rice. LA Tech was without starters TE Griffin Hebert, DB Jaiden Cole, DB BeeJay Williamson, DL Deshon Hall and DL Rasheed Lyles.
- >> After starting QB Parker McNeil and backup QB Matthew Downing exited the game due to injury, true freshman Landry Lyddy entered the game with 48 seconds and LA Tech trailing by eight. On his first snap, Lyddy threw a 19-yard touchdown pass to Cyrus Allen and then found Tre Harris on a 2-point conversion to send the game into overtime. In overtime, Lyddy connected with Tre Harris for his second touchdown of the day before a failed two-point conversion ended the game. Lyddy finished his day completing three of six passes for 38 yards and two touchdowns.
- >> WR Tre Harris had a team-high eight receptions for 92 yards and three touchdowns. He became the first Bulldog since Carlos Henderson in 2016 to register at least three receiving touchdowns in a single game.
- >> In the loss to Rice, WR Smoke Harris extended his streak of games with a reception to 27 which is the 18th-longest streak nationally and is the only Bulldog to score a touchdown in every season since 2018.
- >> LA Tech currently ranks 11th nationally in defensive touchdowns (2) courtesy of Myles Brooks 44-yard interception return and J'Dan Burnett's 30-yard fumble return, against UTEP and Stephen F. Austin, respectively.
- >> Griffin Hebert's 67.2 receiving yards per game rank this season ranks third among all FBS tight ends. Hebert also ranks 13th nationally in average yards per catch (20.15).
- >> LA Tech ranks sixth nationally in scrimmage plays over 50 yards (8) fourth nationally with six plays from scrimmage over

TUESDAY MEDIA PRESSERS

Head coach Sonny Cumbie and select student-athletes will meet with the media every Tuesday prior to a game. The press conference begins at 12 p.m. with Coach Cumbie and selected players. Video and audio of each presser will be uploaded to Box and YouTube.

PRACTICE COVERAGE

Practices this week will be closed to the media. Interviews are available upon request. All interview requests must be directed to the Louisiana Tech Athletic Communications Office at least 24 hours in advance. Please send all requests via email to hunter@latech.edu.

collegepressbox

CollegePressBox.com is the official media website for Conference USA and Louisiana Tech Football. Access and download weekly game notes, quotes, statistics, media guides, headshots, logos and more for Louisiana Tech, Conference USA and each of its member schools. Login information will be distributed to accredited media or you can apply for a password by sending an email to password@collegepressbox.com.

DAILY MEDIA AVAILABILITY

Above is a general weekly schedule of media availability for the Louisiana Tech football team. Members of the media are expected to adhere to these policies at all times. All interview requests should be made to Louisiana Tech Assistant Director of Athletic Communications Hunter Corneliusen at least 24 hours in advance. All media availability times are subject to change. Please contact Hunter Corneliusen for any changes in the schedule. (Note: First year players are not available to the media unless by special request.)

For games in Ruston, all Louisiana Tech postgame press conferences will be held over Zoom after each game following a 10-minute cooling off period. No interviews will be allowed on the field with players and/or coaches immediately following games. Coach Cumbie and select Louisiana Tech players will be available over Zoom following games.

COACH/PLAYER AVAILABILITY

All members of the Louisiana Tech coaching staff are available during the designated days and times throughout the year. All returning players are available during the designated days and times, but newcomers are not available to the media unless under special request that access is granted.

SOCIAL MEDIA

Louisiana Tech fans can access the most in-depth information regarding all the University's programs through social media opportunities available online.

PARKER CAN PASS

- » Quarterback Parker McNeil threw for a career-high 424 yards and two touchdowns during the loss at North Texas. His 424 yards were the most by a C-USA quarterback in a game this season and 17th most nationally.
- » This season the Austin, Texas product has thrown for 1,623 yards and 15 touchdowns.
- » McNeil threw for 266 yards and four touchdowns during the Dogs' 41-31 win over UTEP last week, becoming the first LA Tech quarterback to throw four touchdowns in a single game since Austin Kendall accomplished the feat on Sept. 18, 2021, against SMU.
- » McNeil threw for 311 yards and a touchdown in his second career start at No. 5 Clemson.

TRE CAN PLAY

- » Sophomore WR Tre Harris leads LA Tech this season with 39 receptions, 595 receiving yards and seven receiving touchdowns.
- » Harris' seven receiving touchdowns rank eighth nationally while his 595 receiving yards rank 34th.
- » Against Rice, Harris had a team-high eight receptions for 92 yards and three touchdowns. He became the first Bulldog since Carlos Henderson in 2016 to register at least three receiving touchdowns in a single game.

MOTE CAN MAUL

- » Redshirt senior Josh Mote anchors the LA Tech offensive line. Mote has started the last 29 games for LA Tech and has made 44 appearances in his career.
- » At Clemson, he was part of the LA Tech offensive line that allowed just one sack and four quarterback pressures.

PLENTY OF TARGETS

- » 14 different Bulldogs have caught a pass this season, including 10 recording multiple grabs while six have caught touchdown passes this season.
- » The Bulldogs returned 59.6 percent of their receiving yards, 65.3 percent of their receptions and 59 percent of their receiving touchdowns from last season.

BRINGIN THE SMOKE

- » Redshirt junior wide receiver Smoke Harris has recorded a reception in 27 consecutive games which is the 18th longest streak nationally.
- » His 415 yards, four receiving touchdowns and 35 receptions rank second on the team.
- » Harris led the Bulldogs in receptions in every single game in 2021, becoming the first Bulldog since Biletnikoff Award Winner Troy Edwards (1998) to accomplish the feat.
- » Harris is the only Bulldog to tally a touchdown reception in each of the past five seasons.
- » Harris has had quite the career in red and blue, ranking among the FBS active career leaders in numerous stat categories.
- » Career Receptions - 10th (194)
- » Punt Return Average - 12th (11.1)
- » Punt Return Yards - 13th (420)
- » Receptions Per Game - 25nd (4.41)

THAT'S 100

- » Both Smoke Harris and Tre Harris eclipsed the century mark at UNT, becoming the first receiver duo to do so in the same game since Alfred Smith and Adrian Hardy did so against WKU on Nov. 14, 2018.

AIRING IT OUT

- » The Bulldogs average 290.4 passing yards a contest which ranks third in the C-USA and 23rd nationally.

SPECIAL TEAMS/STAFF NOTES

BARNES CAN BOOT

- » Kicker Jacob Barnes ranks 16th among the FBS active career leaders in field goal percentage (81.8) and 25th in points per game (6.7). Barnes went 12-17 (.810) in field goal attempts in 2021, which was the second-most accurate mark in the C-USA. Barnes has been nearly perfect in PATs in his three seasons with the Bulldogs, going 93-94.
- » Barnes 93 career extra point makes rank ninth in school history
- » He cracked the LA Tech all-time top ten in field goals made with an 18-yard field goal as time expired in the first half against Stephen F. Austin (Sept. 10).

BUCK BUCANNON

- » Freshman kicker Buck Buchanan scored the first points of his career, courtesy of a 52-yard field goal during the fourth quarter of the 41-31, win over UTEP (Oct. 10). Buchanan handles long range field goal and kickoff duties for the Bulldogs.
- » Buchanan added a 46-yard field goal in the first quarter of the loss at North Texas.
- » In the loss to Rice (Oct. 22) Buchanan connected on a 48-yard attempt in the first quarter.

COMING TO AMERICA

- » Louisiana Tech has two international countries represented on special teams in freshman punter Patrick Rea (Melbourne, Australia) and redshirt freshman deep snapper Griffin Armstrong (Valencia, Spain).

ROAD TO RUSTON

- » Starting Deep Snapper Griffin Armstrong has had the most interesting route to Ruston on the 2022 team. Armstrong's father Curtis is a 33-year member of the United States Army. Armstrong had never lived in the United States mainland until he enrolled at LA Tech in 2020. He was born in Fairbanks, Alaska and has lived in Miliani, Hawaii, Valencia, Spain and Osana, South Korea. Armstrong claims Valencia, Spain as his home town.
- » Armstrong played Rugby from 2015-2018 for Les Abelles Rugby Club in Valencia, Spain.

HOTY HOPEFUL

- » Noah White has served as Jacob Barnes holder for three seasons helping Barnes go 93-94 on PATs and 36-42 (85.7%) on field goal attempts.

BIG RETURNS

- » Smoke Harris had a 65-yard kickoff return in last week's loss to Rice. He also had a 43-yard punt return in the season opener at Mizzou.
- » Solo Lewis set the Dogs up with great field position in the home opener against SFA with kickoff returns of 33 and 29 yards, respectively.

SHARP BRINGS SUCCESS

- » Assistant Head Coach and Special Teams Coordinator Dan Sharp is a seasoned veteran going into his 33rd year at the FBS level.
- » Sharp arrives in Ruston after spending 29 of the previous 32 years at TCU.
- » His return units at TCU were always dangerous, including a streak of six of seven seasons that saw the Horned Frogs record at least one return for a score with multiple seasons of multiple TD returns.
- » As a special teams' coordinator, Sharp coached numerous award-winning kickers, punters and returners at TCU, including the likes of Jaden Oberkrom (2012 Freshman All-American; Lou Groza semifinalist), Ethan Perry (2012 Freshman All-American), Greg McCoy (2011 All-American, Mountain West Special Teams POY), Jeremy Kerley (2010 All-American, Paul Hornung Award finalist), Nick Browne (2002 All-American, Lou Groza Award semifinalist, C-USA Special Teams POY) and Joey Biasatti (Ray Guy Award semifinalist).
- » In 2011, TCU was second in the nation in kickoff return average with a 28.2-yard mark as the Horned Frogs returned three kickoffs for touchdowns. TCU also boasted the Mountain West Conference's first team all-return specialist all seven years it was in the league.

GAINING THE YARDS

- » LA Tech currently ranks 20th nationally in punt return average with 12.80 yards per return.

BRINGING THE POWER

- » Defensive Coordinator Scott Power has been very successful at all of his previous coaching stops. Last season at Stephen F. Austin, Power's defense ranked 15th nationally in total defense (311.14) 17th nationally in scoring defense (19.3) and 19th nationally in rushing defense (113.2).
- » While at Marian (Ind.) in 2015 Power was named the NAIA Coordinator of the Year by FootballScoop. Power's defense allowed just 14.35 points per game on their way to winning the NAIA National Championship. In his coaching career the Fowler Ind. native has had nine All-Americans and 63 all-conference selections.

BIG 12 TIES

- » Sonny Cumbie (13 years; Texas Tech and TCU), Dan Sharp (10 years; TCU), Jake Brown (6 years; TCU and Texas Tech), Scott Parr (6 years; Baylor and Texas Tech) and Marcus Walker (3 years; Oklahoma) have all spent time coaching in the Big 12.

THEY COULD PLAY BACK IN THE DAY

- » The Bulldogs' coaching staff features eight coaches who played collegiately at the FBS level, including three who also played in the NFL.
- » Sonny Cumbie Texas Tech (2000-2004)
- » Dan Sharp, TCU (1981-1984)(Atlanta Falcons, 1987)
- » Paul Turner, Louisiana Tech (2014-15)(Philadelphia Eagles, 2016)
- » Marcus Walker, Oklahoma (2004-2007)
- » Casey Walker, Oklahoma (2009-2012)(Patriots, Ravens, Cowboys, 2014-15)
- » Teddy Veal, Louisiana Tech (2016-18)
- » Ty Barrett, TCU/Sam Houston State (2015-18)
- » Connor Killian, Texas Tech (2016-2020)

PREPPED SOME OF THE BEST

- » Before arriving in the college ranks, Offensive Coordinator Jake Brown coached on the high school level in Texas at Arlington Martin, Lake Travis and Midlothian where he worked with a number of Division I players, including a pair of No. 1 overall draft picks in Myles Garrett and 2017 Heisman Trophy winner Baker Mayfield.

PARR KNOWS POINTS

- » Co-Offensive Coordinator Scott Parr has been synonymous with high octane offenses. As head coach at Navarro JC the past three seasons his team finished among the nation's top eight teams statistically in 11 categories, including first in total offense (5,415), passing yardage (4,037), per-game yardage (492.3) and touchdown passes (34).

TURNER AMONG THE BEST YOUNG COACHES

- » Louisiana Tech Safeties Coach Paul Turner was recently announced to the 247 Sports 30 Under 30 list prior to the season. The list is drafted by 247's contacts across the industry to find college football's best and brightest coaches under the age of 30.

THEY AINT LEAVIN

- » Louisiana Tech Outside Linebackers Coach Anthony Camp was the only full-time staff member retained by Cumbie after the resignation of Skip Holtz a year ago.
- » Paul Turner was elevated to a full-time role after serving as a defensive analyst under Holtz.

SCHOLZ PLAYS CRUCIAL ROLE

- » Director of Football Sports Performance Dave Scholz has made an immediate impact since arriving from Texas Tech.
- » Scholz was instrumental in the physical transformation and development of NFL Draft selections such as Jordyn Brooks, Broderick Washington Jr., and Zech McPhearson using his strength program that combines the use of analytics and nutrition at Texas Tech.
- » Over the summer 35 Bulldogs improved their body fat % while also increasing their bodyweight.

BULLDOG BITES

IN MEMORY

Former Louisiana Tech Bulldog and the NCAA's all-time career sacks leader Jaylon Ferguson passed away at age 26 on June 21, 2022. The St. Francisville, La., native and former prep star at West Feliciana High School spent five years in a Louisiana Tech uniform where he became one of the all-time greats in Bulldog history. "It's a somber day around our athletic department and community," said current Tech VP and Director of Athletics Eric Wood. "Those who were privileged enough to truly know Jaylon have nothing but wonderful things to say about the young man. His records and honors prove he was one of the best to ever wear a Bulldog uniform. Our thoughts and prayers go out to his family as well as the Baltimore Ravens organization."

DECADE OF DOMINANCE

LA Tech is one of only three FBS schools in the nation to have at least 300 baseball wins, 235 men's basketball wins and 70 football wins in the last decade.

NIL IMPACT

LA Tech has thrived when it comes to Group of 5 Schools and Name Image Likeness.

- » 13 of 16 sports with NIL deals

LOUISIANA TECH HEAD COACH

HEAD COACH SONNY CUMBIE

TEXAS TECH, 2004

CAREER RECORD (YEARS): 4-8 (2)

SCHOOL RECORD (YEARS): 2-5 (1)

Sonny Cumbie enters his inaugural season as the head coach at Louisiana Tech after Louisiana Tech President Les Guice and VP and Director of Athletics Eric Wood introduced one of the most innovative offensive minds in college football as Sonny Cumbie was welcomed to Ruston as the 34th head football coach in Bulldog history.

Cumbie has spent the past 12 years as an assistant coach in the Big 12, including two stints at Texas Tech (2009-13, 2021) and one at TCU (2014-2020). He has served as offensive coordinator the past nine years for the Red Raiders and Horned Frogs and worked under some of the top coaches in college football, including Mike Leach, Tommy Tuberville, Kliff Kingsbury and Gary Patterson.

His offensive philosophy should fit in well with the Bulldog faithful. High-octane football is craved at Joe Aillet Stadium on Saturdays in the fall.

"Sonny Cumbie is the perfect fit for our program, our department, our University, and our community," said Wood. "Culture. Class. Competitive Excellence. He exemplifies all of these things. As our student-athletes, staff, and fans get an opportunity to know Sonny, they will see what we saw during the interview process.

"I've heard so much in the last year about the history of high-scoring offenses and hard-hitting defenses. Our fan base wants an exciting brand of football. They want to win conference titles. They want to continue to build upon the success we have had over the past decade. Sonny will bring all of that to Ruston."

Cumbie comes to Tech after serving as the offensive coordinator at Texas Tech in 2021, including serving as the interim head coach over the final four games of the season. This was his second stint in Lubbock, after beginning his college coaching career with the Red Raiders in 2009.

He also served as the quarterbacks coach and the offensive coordinator at TCU during his seven seasons in Ft. Worth. And everywhere he has been, his offenses have been innovative and entertaining.

"Sonny Cumbie is a strong young coach who impressed us all with his depth of understanding and focus on the game," Guice said. "His ability to recruit promising student-athletes and maximize their talents will help us continue to take our football program to a higher level of competitiveness. I look forward to seeing Sonny be the next in line of so many great Louisiana Tech coaches, and I know he and his family will be a great addition to our Tech Family."

During his tenure at TCU, Cumbie oversaw the Horned Frogs' quarterbacks and served as the sole offensive play caller each of the final four years. TCU boasted the Big 12's second-best conference record (38-25) and its third-best overall mark (58-30) over his seven seasons, which coincided with six bowl appearances.

His impact was felt immediately at TCU as the program broke the Big 12 record with a 21.4 points per game improvement, the largest by any team nationally since 1999-2000 (Northwestern). TCU ranked No. 2 in scoring (46.5) and No. 5 in total offense (533.0) on the way to a 12-1 record.

The 2015 Horned Frogs once again lit up the scoreboard, ranking No. 3 in total offense (562.8) and No. 7 in scoring (42.1) on the way to an 11-2 record and a win over Oregon in the Valero Alamo Bowl (rallying from a 31-0 halftime deficit).

Cumbie helped push TCU to the Big 12 Championship game and a top-10 ranking in his first year as sole play caller in 2017 as the Horned Frogs closed the year at 11-3 overall following a 39-37 victory over No. 13 Stanford in the Valero Alamo Bowl.

"My family and I are extremely excited and honored to be the head coach at Louisiana Tech University," Cumbie said. "We look forward to many successful seasons in Ruston with an exciting brand of football. I cannot wait to assemble our staff and get to building relationships with our players and the coaches across this great state."

During his first stint with the Red Raiders, Texas Tech threw for more than 4,000 yards each of the four years while averaging more than 35 points per game.

His 2012 Texas Tech offense boasted a pair of 1,000-yard receivers, making the pair the first teammates to each eclipse 1,000-yard seasons since 2007 when future NFL stars Michael Crabtree and Danny Amendola did so. In 2013, he coached a pair of freshman quarterbacks and still boasted an offense that finished second in the FBS in passing yards per game (392) and eighth in total offense (511).

"I've gotten a chance not only to experience first-hand the tremendous coaching ability of Sonny Cumbie, but also to understand how exceptional a person and leader he is," said Arizona Cardinals Head Coach Kliff Kingsbury. "Coach Cumbie is one of the bright young offensive minds in football. This opportunity is a great one, and I am excited to watch the success he will have at Louisiana Tech. The Bulldogs are getting a good one."

His passion for high-octane offenses comes from his playing days at Texas Tech.

After walking on for the Red Raiders in 2000, he earned the starting role his senior season and led the country in passing yards (4,742 yards) and total offense (4,575 yards) with 32 touchdowns. Texas Tech went 7-4 in the regular season and earned a berth to face Top 5 Cal in the Holiday Bowl, where the Red Raiders were huge underdogs. Cumbie completed 39 of 60 passes for 520 yards (still a Holiday Bowl record) and three TDs in the win over the Bears.

Cumbie twice led the Red Raiders to 70-point games that season on the way to garnering honorable mention All-Big 12 accolades as well as Academic All-Big 12 first team honors.

He spent time playing for the Los Angeles Avengers of the Arena Football League, earning a spot on the AFL All-Rookie Team in 2006 as well as being a finalist for the AFL Rookie of the Year. Upon completion of the 2006 season, Cumbie was signed by the Baltimore Ravens. He was back in the AFL for the 2007 season, leading the Avengers to their first playoff victory in franchise history while throwing for 83 touchdowns.

Following his time in the AFL, he served time as a head coach in the Indoor Football League where he also played some quarterback during the 2009 season. Following the IFL stint, he joined Mike Leach's staff as a graduate assistant at his alma mater.

Cumbie and his wife, Tamra, are both natives of Snyder, Texas, and graduates of Texas Tech. They are parents to two sons, Grey and Hays.

Coach Cumbie is one of the bright young offensive minds in football. This opportunity is a great one, and I am excited to watch the success he will have at Louisiana Tech. The Bulldogs are getting a good one." – Kliff Kingsbury, Arizona Cardinals Head Coach

"Sonny is one of the up-and-coming coaches in our profession. He showed his potential on how he handled the Texas Tech situation." – Gary Patterson, former TCU Head Coach

"I am so happy for Coach Cumbie to be named head coach at Louisiana Tech. I have known for a long time that he was destined to be a successful head coach. Over the past month, I have witnessed Coach Cumbie lead our football team at Texas Tech and inspire and instill a level of confidence within a locker room that has elevated our team. His genuine approach builds trust and his passion motivates young men to be their very best. The Louisiana Tech family has a great man leading their football program." – Kirby Hocutt, Texas Tech Director of Athletics

"Sonny is a fantastic choice for Louisiana Tech. He will connect with both players and recruits. His energy and optimism will be contagious and create excitement within the football program. Also, he's a perfect fit in Ruston and will embrace and serve the community. I have no doubt he will be highly successful." – Sonny Dykes, TCU Head Coach

"Sonny is a rising star. He is well prepared to be a successful head coach. He's an innovative offensive coach. More importantly, he is a great motivator and he connects with players. Sonny is a relationship builder that will build LA Tech into a championship program." – Neal Brown, West Virginia Head Coach

"Sonny is a longtime friend of hundreds of coaches in the state of Texas. He is a great coach and a better man. He will go to great lengths to spend time with every coach he is in contact with, no matter the size of the school or the success they have experienced. Every player's parent will love him coaching their kid." – Glen West, Assistant Executive Director of the Texas High School Coaches Association.

JOE AILLET STADIUM

JOE AILLET IS A TOUGH PLACE TO PLAY

It's always nice to be home and Louisiana Tech has experienced recent success in the confines of Joe Aillet Stadium. LA Tech has posted a 105-42 record at home since joining the ranks of Division I-A/FBS in 1988, a winning percentage of 71.4 percent.

WINNING AT THE JOE

Louisiana Tech won eight straight games inside The Joe between the 2019 and 2020 seasons after defeating Houston Baptist (66-38) and UTEP (21-17) during the 2020 campaign. LA Tech was undefeated at Joe Aillet Stadium in the 2019 season after posting wins over Grambling State (20-14), FIU (43-31), UMass (69-21), Southern Miss (45-30), North Texas (52-17) and UTSA (41-27).

JOE AILLET STADIUM FUN FACT

NFL Hall of Famer and four-time Super Bowl Champion Terry Bradshaw threw the first touchdown pass in the history of Joe Aillet Stadium connecting with Buster Herren from five yards out against East Carolina on Sept. 28, 1968. Tech went on to win the game 35-7.

HOME OPENERS AT THE JOE

Since Joe Aillet Stadium opened in 1968, Louisiana Tech has won 45 home openers at "The Joe" with a record of 45-8-1 over that span. If you go back to 1988 when the Bulldogs made the transition to Division I, LA Tech has dominated when playing on its home turf with a record of 30-4 in home openers.

2022 GAME RECAPS

GAME ONE: MISSOURI 52, LA TECH 24 Memorial Stadium | Columbia, Mo. | September 1, 2022

Columbia, Mo. – Louisiana Tech held the lead through the first 15 minutes, but Missouri tacked on double-digit points in each of the last three quarters to pull away in a 52-24 win on Thursday night at Memorial Stadium.

LA Tech (0-1) had the upper hand in the early going, taking a 3-0 advantage into the second quarter thanks to a 33-yard field goal by Jacob Barnes.

However, Missouri (1-0) broke through on its first play of the second stanza with a 5-yard touchdown run by Cody Schrader and quickly added another touchdown off a 29-yard pick-six.

That ended up being the theme of the night as the Tigers racked up 328 yards on the ground and nabbed three interceptions thrown by the Bulldogs' starting quarterback Matthew Downing.

Downing was able to get a big play in the game, finding Griffin Hebert over the middle who outran everyone for a 75-yard touchdown catch. Sandwiched in between that though was another 5-yard TD run by Missouri and an end-of-half 31-yard field goal to make it, 24-10.

While the Bulldogs could not get the ground game going, the Tigers rushed for four more scores in the second half to put the game out of reach. Parker McNeil came in at quarterback and delivered two touchdown strikes to Cyrus Allen – one for 64 yards and another for 37 yards. The freshman wide receiver ended with five catches for a game-high 126 yards.

GAME TWO: LA TECH 52, STEPHEN F. AUSTIN 17

Joe Aillet Stadium | Ruston, La. | September 10, 2022

RUSTON – Louisiana Tech racked up 300 yards on the ground, anchored by Marquis Crosby who amassed 196 in the first half alone, as the Bulldogs routed Stephen F. Austin by a final score of 52-17 on Saturday night inside Joe Aillet Stadium.

LA Tech (1-1) and SFA (1-2) were tied up at 7-7 in the early going, but the home team proceeded to score 45 unanswered points in route to Sonny Cumbie's first career victory as head coach of the Bulldogs.

While the 'Dogs were putting up points left and right, the defense was keeping the Lumberjacks at bay with forcing three turnovers and allowing just four third-down conversions out of 15.

Smoke Harris gave the Bulldogs their first points of the game, capping off an opening drive with a 7-yard touchdown reception that he snuck into the end zone at the right pylon.

The Lumberjacks evened things up though three minutes later, utilizing special teams and defense to get on the scoreboard. After a 56-yard punt pinned the Bulldogs at their own 4-yard line, SFA picked off Parker McNeil on the very first play. Ja'Terious Evans snagged the INT and returned it 17 yards down to the goal line. Quarterback Trae Self punched it in on the keeper on the very next play.

The tie was short-lived though as the Bulldogs scored on the ensuing drive, needing just two plays to get it done. First, Crosby took the handoff 68 yards down to the 11-yard line. On the next possession, fellow running back Charvis Thornton went the remaining 11 yards off the left side for the touchdown.

After the LA Tech defense forced a three-and-out, the squad tacked on another quick score as McNeil found Tre Harris up the left sideline for a 40-yard touchdown to put the Bulldogs up 21-7 with 5:24 to go in the first quarter.

Crosby continued his running ways in the second quarter, producing back-to-back touchdown runs of three and 42 yards. Capping off the first half was Jacob Barnes who converted a chip shot from 18 yards to give LA Tech a 38-7 advantage at halftime.

The Bulldogs were not done offensively in the third quarter as McNeil hooked up with Griffin Hebert for a 63-yard touchdown. It was the defense's turn to put up points next as Myles Brooks forced a fumble and J'Dan Burnett did a scoop and score for 30 yards to make it a 52-7 lead with 6:46 remaining in the stanza.

GAME THREE: LA TECH 20, No. 5 CLEMSON 48

Memorial Stadium | Clemson, S.C. | September 17, 2022

CLEMSON S.C. – The Louisiana Tech Football team continued to produce explosive plays offensively, but four turnovers was too much to overcome as the Bulldogs fell, 48-20, to the No. 5-ranked Clemson Tigers on Saturday night inside Memorial Stadium.

LA Tech (1-2) had seven plays of 20+ yards, all through the air by Parker McNeil who finished with 311 passing yards. And the Bulldogs found themselves down just one score, 13-6, at halftime, but the game shifted in the third quarter because of turnovers.

The 'Dogs first three possessions of the second half resulted in two interceptions (one in the red zone) and a turnover on downs that was turned into three touchdowns by Clemson (3-0) to quickly make it a 34-6 deficit for the visitors.

LA Tech refused to go away quietly though. After being limited to two made field goals by Jacob Barnes (35 and 36 yards) in the first half, the Bulldogs found the end zone on back-to-back drives to get to within 14 with still 11:05 to play in the game.

The first TD was an 8-play, 79-yard drive that was capped off by a 3-yard rushing touchdown (the first allowed by the Tigers this season) from Marquis Crosby. The second TD took only five plays, set up by a 20-yard reception by Griffin Hebert and then finished off with a 13-yard pass play to Tre Harris for the score.

Clemson put an end to LA Tech's upset hopes though as DJ Uiagalelei connected with Antonio Williams for a touchdown on the following possession. The Tigers tacked on another score late after recovering a fumble, LA Tech's fourth turnover of the game.

The Bulldog wide receivers had a good night with Hebert registering a career-high 122 receiving yards, Julien Lewis having a career game with seven receptions for 76 yards, Tre Harris catching five balls for 56 yards and Smoke Harris cracking into the top 10 in program history for career receptions.

GAME FOUR: LA TECH 14, SOUTH ALABAMA 38

Hancock Whitney Stadium | Mobile, Ala. | September 24, 2022

MOBILE, Ala. – Turnovers proved costly again for Louisiana Tech as they fell 38-14 to South Alabama on Saturday night at Hancock Whitney Stadium.

LA Tech (1-3) coughed the ball up five times (four interceptions and one fumble), including on four straight possessions.

Despite three of those turnovers coming in the first half and USA (3-1) jumping out to a quick 14-0 lead within the first four minutes due to a fast 6-play, 80-yard drive and a punt return for a touchdown, the Bulldogs found themselves down just 17-7 at halftime.

Getting the ball first to start the second half, LA Tech was looking for more big plays to slice into the deficit like the first score of 52 yards in the air from Parker McNeil to Smoke Harris. However, the 'Dogs quickly dug themselves too deep a hole by throwing a pick-six and then losing a fumble that was turned into another touchdown for the Jaguars.

What was a 17-7 deficit turned into a 31-7 deficit just four minutes into the third quarter.

The two teams traded passing touchdowns in the fourth with the one from the Bulldogs being a 4-yard score on fourth down from McNeil to Griffin Hebert.

GAME FIVE: LA TECH 41, UTEP 31 Joe Aillet Stadium | Ruston, La. | October 11, 2022

RUSTON, La. – Louisiana Tech started its "new" season off with a victory on Saturday night as the Bulldogs claimed their Conference USA opener by way of a 41-31 win over the UTEP Miners inside Joe Aillet Stadium.

It was all LA Tech (2-3, 1-0 C-USA) in the first half, building a 30-10 advantage midway through the game. However, UTEP (3-4, 1-1 C-USA) chipped away with a pair of touchdowns to make it a one-possession game at 30-24.

The Bulldog offense had lost all of its rhythm in the second half, going 3-and-out on their first three offensive drives. It was close to being four straight with about nine minutes left in the game as they were facing a 3rd-and-2 on their own 21-yard line.

Arguably the play of the game happened on the next possession as Parker McNeil and Tre Harris hooked up for a 64-yard reception. Then on the very next play, McNeil found Smoke Harris all alone in the end zone for a 15-yard score to put the game out of reach.

LA Tech was cruising early, scoring on four of its first five drives of the game. Tahj Magee was the recipient of an 8-yard touchdown reception to open the contest. That was followed by a 38-yard touchdown by Tre Harris to put the 'Dogs on top, 14-0, just five minutes into the contest.

Smoke Harris caught his first receiving TD of the afternoon with two seconds left in the first quarter to make it 20-3. In the second quarter, UTEP got a 5-yard rushing score from Deion Hankins while LA Tech got a 44-yard pick six by Myles Brooks and a 28-yard field goal from Jacob Barnes to make a 30-10 lead.

The Bulldog defense continued to keep the Miners at bay, recovering a fumble in the end zone and then stopping the visitors on back-to-back 4th-down plays. However, UTEP punched through a pair of touchdowns in the span of three minutes to make it 30-24 with 10:18 still to go.

Then came the 4-play, 87-yard touchdown drive for the Bulldogs, which included the long reception to Tre Harris, to push the lead out to 38-24 after a converted 2-point conversion.

GAME SIX: NORTH TEXAS 47, LA TECH 27 Apogee Stadium | Denton, Texas | October 15, 2022

DENTON, Texas – Louisiana Tech suffered its first conference loss of the season, falling 47-27 to North Texas on Saturday afternoon at Apogee Stadium.

LA Tech (2-4, 1-1 C-USA) got behind 21-3 just 17 minutes into the game. However, behind the arm of Parker McNeil, the Bulldogs managed to claw their way back in by making it a one-possession game at 34-27 with one quarter to go.

However, North Texas (4-3, 2-0 C-USA) continued to pound the ball on the ground in route to outscoring the 'Dogs 17-0 in the fourth quarter to put the game out of reach.

The Mean Green scored early and scored fast, taking just 10 total plays to amass 21 points (included a 51-yard touchdown reception and a 92-yard rush).

While a 46-yard field goal by Buck Buchanan were the only points LA Tech could muster in the first stanza, McNeil started carving up the UNT defense. He found Tahj Magee for a 34-yard grab as well as a 74-yard catch-and-run by Smoke Harris that set up a 1-yard rush up the gut from Greg Garner to make it a 27-17 game at halftime.

Jacob Barnes converted a 23-yard chip shot to make it a seven-point deficit at 27-20. The Bulldogs would get back to within a touchdown again after they converted a fourth-down conversion that resulted in a 58-yard TD by Tre Harris, making it 34-27 with 1:19 to go in the third quarter.

That was all the points LA Tech could register as North Texas tallied four sacks in the fourth quarter while also getting a pair of field goals and another long rushing touchdown.

LA Tech did not turn the ball over and was able to record 504 yards of total offense, 424 of that through the air by McNeil. Smoke Harris (156 yards) and Tre Harris (129) did much of the damage from the skill position.

Meanwhile, UNT racked up 671 total yards of offense with 475 of that coming on the ground. The Mean Green were a perfect 3-for-3 on fourth-down conversions and 5-for-5 in the red zone.

GAME SEVEN: RICE 42, LA TECH 41

Joe Aillet Stadium | Ruston, La. | October 22, 2022

RUSTON, La. – Louisiana Tech suffered a heartbreaking loss on Saturday, falling 42-41 in overtime to Rice inside Joe Aillet Stadium.

LA Tech (2-5, 1-2 C-USA) had as much as a 10-point advantage, leading throughout the first three quarters. However, Rice (4-3, 2-1 C-USA) jumped out on top with back-to-back touchdowns in the fourth to go up 35-27.

With both Bulldog quarterbacks – Parker McNeil and Matthew Downing – having suffered injuries in game, Landry Lyddy came in with 37 seconds left and threw a dime to Cyrus Allen who made the acrobatic catch, getting a foot down for the score. An even better catch was made on the two-point conversion by Tre Harris who brought in the one-handed grab to tie it up 35-all and send it to overtime.

It only took the Owls three plays to drive 25 yards for a touchdown in the first OT period to make it 42-35. With the 'Dogs facing a 4th-and-3, Lyddy found T. Harris in the corner for his third TD reception. The two tried to hookup again, going for the win on another two-point conversion, but the ball was overthrown.

McNeil and the Bulldogs were rolling early on, jumping out to a 10-0 lead thanks to an 8-yard strike to T. Harris and a 48-yard field goal by Buck Buchanan. McNeil suffered an injury on his next offensive play, taking a big hit on a 3-yard scramble, making way for Downing to come in.

After the Owls had three turnovers on their first five offensive possessions – one turnover on downs and two lost fumbles – they finally found the end zone with just 2:06 remaining in the first half.

The score would remain 10-7 in favor of the Bulldogs heading into halftime. In the second half, the scoring ramped up for both teams. Rice scored two touchdowns in the third quarter while LA Tech put up 17 in the stanza to cling to a 27-21 lead.

That was until the Owls took the lead when quarterback TJ McMahon broke off a 64-yard touchdown run. Sticking to the ground game, they extended their lead with a 17-yard rush by Luke McCaffrey who also racked up 171 receiving yards.

LA Tech's three quarterbacks combined for 229 passing yards and five touchdowns, each with at least one. T. Harris tallied a team-high eight catches for 92 yards and three scores and Marquis Crosby picked up 87 yards on the ground.
