PICK SIX

Wednesday night's meeting with FIU marks the first time in program history that the Aggies will play on a Wednesday.

182.6

Diego Pavia enters Wednesday ranked 11th in the nation in passing efficiency. This number is also good for best among quarterbacks in CUSA

17.8

By posting an average of 17.8 yards per completion, the NM State offense ranks third in the nation among FBS teams in this category.

At 435.8 yards gained per game, the NM State offense ranks second in Conference USA.

13

After playing limited time in the Aggies' first three games, No. 13 Myles Rowser has recorded 13 total tackles and forced a fumble across the last two games.

With eight games remaining on the schedule, the Aggies are in need of five wins to become bowl eligible for the second straight season.

KINGS OF NEW MEXICO

For the first time since 2017, NM State tallied a win in Albuquerque as they defeated the Lobos 27-17 in its last outing. This also marked the second consecutive win over the Lobos and makes Jerry Kill the first Aggie coach since Dewayne Walker to begin his career with a perfect 2-0 record against the Aggies' in-state rival.

In the win, the Aggies were led offensively by Albuquerque native Diego Pavia who finished the night with 203 passing yards, two throwing touchdowns and 99 rushing yards. The 99-yard rushing total marked the most by any Aggie at that point in the season.

BRADY BOOM

In year two with the program, sophomore wide receiver Jonathan Brady has emerged as one of Aggies' go-to targets in the passing game. With five games in the books, the Las Vegas native paces all Aggie receivers with 252 total receiving yards.

His 109-yard receiving game against New Mexico marked the second time that Brady has eclipsed the century mark this season. With the performance against UNM, Brady also becomes the first Aggie receiver with multiple 100-yard receiving games since Jared Wyatt did so in 2021.

Brady's hot start puts him in elite company as he is the first NM State wideout to have two 100-yard games in the first four outings since Teldrick Morgan did so in 2014 when he had receiving totals of 202 yards in the third game of the season before posting 122 yards in game four.

Brady's three touchdowns on the season also ties him for 38th most in the country. He is also side-by-side on that list with fellow Aggie wideout Trent Hudson who also has three touchdown catches this year.

SPECIAL TALENT

Since his arrival in 2019, Ethan Albertson has established himself among the top kickers in the country. Last week, Albertson received recognition for his performance against New Mexico as he was named the Conference USA Special Teams Player of the Week.

The award came on the heels of a Saturday performance in which he made a pair of field goals and went a perfect 3-for-3 on PAT attempts.

Amid his senior season, the San Diego, Calif., native ranks inside the top-ten in NM State history for field goals made (4th, 34), field goals attempted (7th, 44), field goal percentage (1st, 77.3%), extra points made (7th, 80), extra points attempted (7th, 84) and extra point percentage (1st, 95.2%).

DUAL THREAT

After an impressive first season in the Crimson and White, quarterback Diego Pavia already finds himself among the Aggie greats. He currently ranks 21st all-time in program history in career passing yards (2,523) and third in career rushing yards by a quarterback (679).

AIR IT OUT

Between Offensive Coordinator Tim Beck and Wide Receivers Coach Tony Sanchez, the Aggies have formed an offensive attack that produces big play after big play in the passing game. Currently, the Aggies rank third in the nation in passing yards per completion - averaging nearly 18 yards per reception (17.8). Thus far, the Aggies have compiled 13 passing plays of 25 yards or more.

BLOCK THAT KICK!

On Sept. 9, the hand of Gabe Peterson helped NM State's special teams unit come up with a blocked point after attempt for the first time since Dion Henrique did so at Florida on September 5, 2015.

TWO FOR TWO

Jordin Parker made his presence felt once again in the win over WIU as he caught his second touchdown pass of the season. With the touchdown, Parker now has two touchdowns on just two receptions to make him the only FBS player with touchdown catches on 100% of his receptions and multiple catches this season.

SATURDAYS ARE FOR COLLEGE FOOTBALL... JUST NOT IN LAS CRUCES

NM State is in the midst of a stretch of 63 days in which it will not play a home game on a Saturday. For seven consecutive weeks, the Aggies will either be on the road or hosting a midweek contest.

During this period, the Aggies will welcome FIU on Wednesday, Oct. 4, and Sam Houston on Wednesday, Oct. 11.

NO LIMITS ON THE AGGIES

As the Aggies enter the heart of their conference season, some of NM State's numbers stack up against the best of the best in the new league.

Currently, the Aggies have three individuals who rank inside the top five in the conference in a total of five major statistical categories.

- Diego Pavia - Pass Efficiency, 1st, 182.61
- Star Thomas - TDs, T-4, 4
- Diego Pavia - Total Offense, 3rd, 1,341 yards
- Diego Pavia - Pass yd/g, 5th, 214.6 yards
- Ethan Albertson - Scoring, 4th, 35 pts

CUSA PRESEASON HONORS

Individually, the Aggies garnered five preseason awards from the new conference as quarterback Diego Pavia, left tackle Shiyazh Pete, defensive tackle Dion Wilson Jr., defensive back Andre Seldon and wide receiver Jonathan Brady each were touted as players to watch this season.

Pavia and Pete led an up-tempo offense in 2022 and found themselves on the Offensive Watch List. Meanwhile, Seldon and Wilson Jr. represented the Aggies on the defensive side of the ball and Brady was one of just two kick returners to receive CUSA laurels.

NATIONAL RECOGNITION

In addition to the CUSA awards, the Aggies have drawn several preseason award honors on a national scale.

From his center position, Canaan Yarro received HERO Sports Preseason Third Team All-American honors - a list that honors student-athletes competing for a Group of Five program. Yarro also found himself on the 2023 Wuerffel Award Watch List for his ability on the field and his contributions to the Las Cruces community.

Junior quarterback Diego Pavia earned a spot on the Maxwell Award Watch List after turning himself into a household name last December. The Maxwell Award honors the most outstanding player in collegiate football.

Electric Aggie return man and wideout Jonathan Brady also received national recognition as he was named to the Paul Hornung Award Watch List. With the listing, Brady is recognized as one of the most versatile players in all of college football.

Aggie left guard AJ Vaipulu was touted as one of 85 athletes to land on the watch list for 2023 Polynesian College Football Player of the Year.

Lastly, wide receiver Kordell David was selected to the Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award Watch List following a breakout campaign in 2022.

ATTENDANCE BOOM

Few schools across FBS football saw a larger attendance growth last season than NM State. The Aggies concluded the season averaging 14,993 fans per home game, up 27% from the 2021 season.

The Aggie faithful continued this trend into the season opener as 15,356 fans were in attendance to watch NM State battle with UMass on Saturday, Aug. 26. Aggie Nation then upped that number to 17,943 for the Week 1 matchup against Western Illinois.

CONSISTENCY ON THE FRONT LINE

NM State returns four starting offensive linemen from 2022 - Shiyazh Pete (LT), AJ Vaipulu (LG), Canaan Yarro (C), and Isaiah Mursalat (RG). The four Aggies have put together 68 games played on the offensive line in the Crimson and White.

A WINNING TRADITION

With eight wins under his belt at NM State, Jerry Kill is the tenth winningest active coach in FBS football.

Of note, three of the top 10 coaches on the active wins list lead CUSA programs as K.C. Keeler (ranked 4th) and Rich Rodriguez (ranked 9th) lead Sam Houston and Jacksonville State, respectively.

Aside from Keeler and Rodriguez, Kill trails just Nick Saban (Alabama), Mack Brown (North Carolina), Brian Kelly (LSU), Kirk Ferentz (Iowa), Willie Fritz (Tulane), Chris Crieghton (Eastern Michigan), and Terry Bowden (Louisiana - Monroe).

REPRESENTING A COUNTRY

With the return of Nikhil Webb Walker, NM State fields the only player in FBS football with a hometown located in Jamaica. The linebacker hailing from Trelawny, Jamaica, joined the NM State roster as a walk-on ahead of the 2022 season.

IF IT AIN'T BROKE, DON'T FIX IT

When HC Jerry Kill replaced Doug Martin, the Aggies cleaned house for the remainder of the coaching staff as well. In fact, just one staff member was retained from the 2021 team - Defensive Graduate Assistant Quinn Thomas.

However, from 2022 to 2023, all 10 assistant coaches will make the return. This makes Kill's staff one of just seven schools in the country to bring back its entire staff - joined by Colorado State, Louisiana, Kansas, USC, Iowa and Pitt.

WOMEN BELONG IN SPORTS

In her second season as the NM State equipment manager, Paulina Mihelich becomes one of just four lead equipment managers across the FBS level.

Under Mihelich, the Aggies join Nevada, New Mexico, and Temple as the lone schools to be powered by women.

With Rachel Phillips also serving as the Aggies' Director of Football Operations, NM State and Temple are the only two programs that feature women at both the head equipment manager and DFO positions.

Phillips is one of just eight female DFOs around the country, joining women at Temple, Notre Dame, TCU, Kansas State, Maryland, Bowling Green, and FAU.

Also returning is Associate Athletic Trainer Sam Graff. With Graff leading the way for the Aggies, NM State is one of 12 schools at the FBS level with a female lead athletic trainer for football - Rice, Georgia Southern, Bowling Green, Troy, Kansas State, Western Kentucky, Western Michigan, Iowa, Virginia, BYU, and UCF are the other 11.

The Aggies also added Kaylee Nilsson to the staff as a Graduate Assistant Nutritionist. In her role, Nilsson keeps NM State at optimal nutrition levels for training, competition, recovery, hydration, immunity, travel, and more.

AGGIE FOOTBALL AND ESPN+

With the offseason shift to Conference USA, the Aggies were also recipients of a change in their media rights deal.

This season, all Aggie home football games that are not produced by ESPN or CBS Sports Network will be produced in-house by AggieVision on ESPN+ with Saturday's contest versus the Leathernecks being the first of this nature.

BEHIND ENEMY LINES (FIU)

The Aggies will make their home CUSA debut on Wednesday night when they welcome FIU who enters the game with a 3-2 record and its only two losses this season coming at the hands of CUSA opponents.

FIU will be led by Head Coach Mike MacIntyre who is in his second season at the helm of the Panthers. Prior to landing in Miami, MacIntyre was the head ball coach at Colorado and San Jose St. While Deion Sanders currently has Colorado in the spotlight, the last time the Buffaloes received any sort of national attention was under MacIntyre when he led CU to 10 wins in 2016 when it also finished ranked 10th in the final College Football Playoff poll.

Wednesday's meeting between the Aggies and Panthers will mark just the third all-time meeting between the now-conference foes. Thus far, both teams have won one game in the series to make Wednesday the tiebreaker. This will also be the third time the Aggies host FIU as NM State has yet to make the trip down to South Beach.

Offensively, the Panthers are led at the quarterback position by dual threat homegrown freshman Keyone Jenkins who leads the team in passing with exactly 1,000 yards on the season and five passing touchdowns. Jenkins also ranks third on the team in rushing, however, most of the yards on the ground will come from running back Shomari Lawrence who paces the Panthers with 312 rushing yards through four games. On the outside, FIU will be led by Kris Mitchell who, with 459 receiving yards, enters Wednesday with nearly 300 more yards than the next-closest FIU receiver. Mitchell's impressive play on the perimeter has the Jacksonville, Fla., native ranked seventh in the nation in total receiving yards as of Friday night.

Defensively, the Aggie offense will be looking to find openings away from linebacker Donovan Manuel who leads the Panthers in tackles with 54 on the season. Manuel is also one of the best in the country at creating turnover opportunities as he has already forced four fumbles through the first five games of the year. This mark ranks tied for first in the nation at the FBS level.

LAST TIME VERSUS THE PANTHERS (10/1/22)

The Aggies' and Panthers' most recent meeting came almost exactly one year before Wednesday when FIU visited Las Cruces on Oct. 1, 2022.

In the second all-time meeting, FIU knocked off the Aggies 21-7 in a contest in which all scoring came in the opening two quarters of play. Last year, the Panthers outgained the Aggies 344-221 as FIU quarterback Grayson James threw for three touchdowns and completed 14 of his 20 pass attempts.

THE VARSITY NETWORK

Last season, NM State Sports Properties and its parent company LEARFIELD, announced the creation of "THE VARSITY NETWORK" an interactive application that features free live gameday broadcasts, original content, and national college programming such as College Sports Now, College Football Blitz and the new College Football Saturday Night.

Fans can download the app for iPhone or android and will gain instant access to free gameday audio streams, including NM State football brought to you by Adam Young and Danny Knee, and receive push notifications to remind them of games starting or upcoming audio broadcasts.

THE VOICE(S) OF THE AGGIES

NM State broadcaster Jack Nixon returns for his 44th year of broadcasting Aggie athletics for the NM State radio network. A legend on the Aggie airwaves, Nixon has broadcast over 400 Aggie football contests and over 1,000 Aggie men's basketball games. An NM State Hall of Fame selection, Nixon will handle of the radio duties with former Aggie Cory Lucas, who joined the broadcaster ahead of the 2017 season.

LOOKING INTO THE FUTURE

Here's a look at the future schedules for the New Mexico State football team with all announced games until 2029.

The Aggies and UTSA have canceled a four-game series that was set to take place in Las Cruces in 2025 and 2029 while also playing at the Alamodome in San Antonio in 2024 and 2026.

NM State and Wyoming have also announced that the back end of a home-and-home series will now be pushed to September 18, 2032. The Aggies and Cowboys opened the series in Las Cruces on August 25, 2018.

JERRY KILL

FIRST SEASON

One of college football's most well-respected program rebuilders has been selected as the new leader of NM State football.

Monday, Nov. 29, 2021, NM State Director of Athletics Mario Moccia introduced Jerry Kill as the 35th head coach of the NM State football program.

"As the Director of Athletics and an alumni of New Mexico State University, I couldn't be more pleased to announce Jerry Kill as our new head football coach," Moccia remarked. "For our program to attract not only a proven winner at multiple levels of football, but also someone who has consistently turned programs around, makes this a very exciting day for Aggie Nation."

Over the course of his 23-year career as a head coach at the NCAA Division II, FCS and FBS levels, Kill has generated a 154-101 record while making six bowl game appearances.

Webb City High School

Following a playing career at Southwestern College, Kill signed on at Webb City High School in the mid-1980s. Before serving as its head coach for a period in the late 1980s and early 1990s, Kill was on staff at the institution and helped mentor quarterback Mike Gundy who is currently serving as the head coach at Oklahoma State.

Pittsburg State | 1985-87 (DC), 1991-93 (OC)

Three years after finishing his playing career as a linebacker at the NAIA level for Southwestern College in Winfield, Kan., Kill remained in his home state and took the position of defensive coordinator at NAIA program Pittsburg State in 1985.

A three-year run as the Gorillas' defensive play caller was followed by a three-year run as the head coach at Webb City High School in Missouri before Pittsburg State came calling again. After making the transition to the NCAA Division II ranks during the 1989 campaign, head coach Chuck Broyles tabbed Kill for the offensive coordinator position, a job he held from 1991-93. In Kill's first season in the offensive coordinator role, the Gorillas went 13-1-1 and claimed the NCAA Division II National Championship. During Kill's three-year run as the program's offensive coordinator, the Gorillas took part in a pair of NCAA Division II title bouts.

Saginaw Valley State | 1994-98

Kill earned his first head coaching job when Saginaw Valley State in University Center, Mich., tabbed the then-33-year-old as its head coach prior to the start of the 1994 season.

During his half-decade in charge of the Cardinals, Kill directed his squad to five consecutive winning seasons which included successive 9-2 campaigns in 1997 and 1998. Through his final season in charge, Saginaw Valley State topped the NCAA Division II charts in scoring (42.5 points per game) while ranking second in total offense (498.3 yards per game). Under Kill, the ground game was a major strength of the Cardinals who led all NCAA Division II clubs in rushing in both 1997 and 1998.

Emporia State | 1999-00

After his father's untimely passing, Kill made a return to his home state in order to be closer to his family. He remained in the NCAA Division II ranks by taking over the reins of Emporia State University. Over the course of his two-year stint in charge of the program, the Hornets compiled an 11-11 record.

Southern Illinois | 2001-07

Kill's rise began in earnest when he was plucked from the NCAA Division II ranks by Southern Illinois ahead of the 2001 season. Tasked with turning around a program which had produced just two winning seasons out of the 17 that had occurred after capturing the NCAA I-AA national championship in 1983, Kill slowly but surely transformed the Salukis back into a national power at the FCS level.

Following a 1-10 mark in his debut season in Carbondale, Ill., Kill's team hit the double-digit win mark for the first time in 20 years by going 10-2 in 2003. That season coincided with the Saluki's return to the FCS Playoffs and set off a five-year run of greatness for Kill's program.

One of Kill's best teams was the 2004 edition of Southern Illinois who constructed a perfect 9-0 mark against FCS competition. That year, the Salukis generated a 7-0 mark in Gateway Conference action and held the number-one spot in the FCS national rankings for the final 10 weeks of the season. Kill's squad possessed one of the nation's best offenses, too, pounding opponents by an average of 30 points per game. His efforts that year resulted in Kill collecting the Eddie Robinson Award - a laurel handed out on an annual basis to the best head coach across all of FCS.

During 2007, Kill's final season in charge, the Salukis amassed the second-highest single-season win total in program history by going 12-2. Southern Illinois defeated a quartet of ranked teams that season and moved on to the semifinal round of the FCS Playoffs - the program's deepest postseason run since 1983. That season, Kill also became the first FCS coach in the history of the sport to be named the Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year. That laurel honors coaches who succeed on and off the field, displaying sportsmanship, integrity, responsibility and excellence.

Northern Illinois | 2008-10

Following his highly-successful run at the FCS level, an FBS program - Northern Illinois - came calling for Kill. Installed as the Huskies' head coach in December of 2007, Kill again wasted no time in bringing another program back to national relevance.

In the 12 years prior to Kill's arrival, Northern Illinois had reached a bowl game on just one occasion and were coming off a 2-10 campaign in 2007. Through his three seasons at the helm, though, the Huskies made their way to a trio of bowl games. That three-year bowl game run was capped by the team's appearance in the 2010 Humanitarian Bowl in which the Huskies hammered Fresno State, 40-17, in order to secure the program's first 10-win season since 2003.

All told, Kill compiled a 23-16 mark for the Huskies. During his final season as the program's leader, Northern Illinois constructed an 11-3 record which represented the highest win total in a single season in the history of the program. Kill's success with the Huskies set the stage for multiple memorable moments for the program, including an appearance in the 2013 Orange Bowl. By making the cut for that bowl game, the Huskies became the first MAC squad in the history of the league to appear in a BCS bowl.

Minnesota | 2011-15

Taking notice of Kill's reputation for resurrecting programs around the region, Minnesota decided to see if Kill could do the same for its Big Ten squad. Before Kill's arrival, the Golden Gophers had failed to reach the .500 mark in four of the last five seasons.

Named the Golden Gophers' head coach in December of 2010, Kill proved he could rebuild teams in the highest echelon of the sport by leading Minnesota to three-consecutive bowl game appearances (2012, 2013 and 2014) through his five-year run in The Land of 10,000 Lakes.

The 2013 and 2014 campaigns saw Minnesota produce identical 8-5 records after putting forth respective 4-1 and 5-1 starts. Kill's efforts in the 2014 season resulted in him being named the Big Ten Coach of the Year while also leading the program to its first New Year's Day bowl game in 53 years. A number of notable victories also came Minnesota's way in 2014 including its first against Michigan since 2005. Kill's triumph over Nebraska in 2014 marked back-to-back wins for Minnesota over the Huskers since the 1950s while his victory over Nebraska in 2013 was Minnesota's first since 1960.

Kansas State | 2016 | Associate Athletics Director for Administration

A series of health issues caused Kill to retire from the position as Minnesota's head coach midway through the 2015 season and signaled the start of a year-long hiatus from coaching for Kill. In May of 2016, Kill made the move to athletic administration by accepting the position of Associate Athletics Director for Administration at Kansas State

As a member of Athletics Director John Currie's senior staff, Kill served as the chief administrator for K-State's football program.

Rutgers | 2017 | OC/Quarterbacks

Kill's first stint as a college athletics administrator lasted less than a year as he returned to the ranks of college football's coaches in December of 2016 when he accepted the position of offensive coordinator at Rutgers.

The Scarlet Knights operated with a run-heavy offense under Kill, which resulted in 147 rushing yards per game and played a major role in their 18 points per game average.

Southern Illinois | 2018-19 | University/Athletic Administration

Kill returned to Carbondale, Ill., in 2018 as a special assistant to the chancellor. Kill then moved back into college athletics when he accepted the role of the Salukis' Director of Athletics in February of 2019.

Virginia Tech | 2019 | Assistant to the Head Coach

Three games into the Hokies' 2019 campaign, head coach Justin Fuente tabbed Kill to join his staff as a special assistant. Virginia Tech went 8-5 that year and made a trip to the Belk Bowl.

TCU | 2020-21 | Assistant to the Head Coach/Interim Head Coach

Longtime friend Gary Patterson convinced Kill to join his staff in Fort Worth in January of 2020 in a role similar to the one he was in at Virginia Tech.

After Patterson was dismissed as the Horned Frogs' head coach on Oct. 31, 2021, Kill stepped in as the interim head coach and has since directed TCU to a 2-2 record. The first of those victories was a 30-28 home win over 12th-ranked Baylor - TCU's first victory over a nationally-ranked opponent since 2019.

NM State | 2022-Pres. | Head Coach

Kill's first season in Las Cruces led to the Aggies first bowl win since 2017. After a six-win regular season, Kill led NM State to the Quick Lane Bowl in Detroit where the Aggies won 24-19.

Throughout the season, the Aggies saw a number of length streaks snapped under Kill's leadership. On October 29, NM State snapped a 1,498 day road losing streak with a 23-13 win at UMass. The Aggies first-year head ball coach also snapped a three-year skid to in-state rival New Mexico two weeks prior, winning 21-9 at Aggie Memorial Stadium.

Entering a late November road game at Liberty as 24-point underdogs, Kill and company went and completely flipped the script for a 49-14 victory, backed by six touchdowns from Diego Pavia.

With Kill at the helm, a flurry of upgrades are being made to Aggie Memorial Stadium and the surrounding football facilities. Ahead of the 2023 season, the turf inside Aggie Memorial Stadium and on the practice field were both replaced. NM State has also announced upgrades to the locker room.

PERSONAL LIFE

Much more than a football coach, Kill's civic honors are many as are his efforts as an advocate for epilepsy - a condition he has lived with for the majority of his adult life. Beginning with the formation of the Coach Kill Fund during his days at Southern Illinois, Kill also created the Chasing Dreams Coach Kill Epilepsy Fund during his time as Minnesota's head coach.

The National Football Foundation awarded Kill its Courage Award in 2009. In three successive years, Kill also secured the Cal Stoll Courage Award (2014), Bob McNamara Memorial Legends Award (2015) and the FCA Power of Influence Award (2016).

To this day, Kill continues to assist in fundraising monies for research for the National Foundation of Epilepsy. Kill's experiences as a head coach while living with epilepsy were chronicled in his 2016 book, "Chasing Dreams: Living My Life One Yard at a Time."

Four institutions, which include Southern Illinois (2014), Southwestern College (2004) and Kansas Sports (2016), have inducted Kill into their respective Halls of Fame. Hailing from Cheney, Kan., Kill is the father of two daughters, Krystal and Tasha. A grandfather, too, Kill has one granddaughter, Emery.
