SETTING THE STAGE

PANTHERS HOST MAINE FOR 2023 HOME OPENER ON SATURDAY

FIU will kick off both the home and non-conference portion of the schedule when it hosts Maine on Saturday, Sept. 2 under the lights at FIU Stadium in Miami beginning at 6:30 p.m. ET.

The Panthers will be opening at home against an FCS opponent from New England for the second consecutive season after hosting Bryant (Rhode Island) in 2022.

Maine will mark the first of two non-conference opponents that the Panthers will face that hail from the New England region - with a trip to East Hartford, Conn., on Sept. 16 also on the non-league slate.

Saturday's game will be aired on ESPN+ with AJ Ricketts (pxp) and Patrick Murray (analyst) behind the mic.

The game can also be heard on Miami's WQBA 1140 AM with Corey Brooks (pxp) on the call. The pregame show on WQBA 1140 AM will start 30 minutes prior to kickoff and a postgame show will follow the conclusion of the contest.

SPORTS ILLUSTRATED TABS FIU VICE UNIS BEST IN CFB

FIU Football's Vice themed uniforms were ranked as the top look in all of college football for the 2023 season by Sports Illustrated.

The publication touted the "Miami Vice old-school look" - that features black jerseys with fuchsia accents - which will be worn by the Panthers when they take on UTEP at home on Wednesday, Oct. 11, before a nationally-televised audience on ESPN2 beginning at 7:30 p.m. ET.

SHOMARI LAWRENCE SHOWS OUT IN DEBUT

FIU sophomore running back Shomari Lawrence, a product of Pompano Beach's Ely High School and a transfer from South Dakota State wasted no time in flashing his skill in the Panthers' season opener on Aug. 26 at Louisiana Tech.

Lawrence blitzed the Bulldogs for a career-long 67-yard TD run on his second touch as a Panther and third play overall from scrimmage to give FIU an early edge.

He finished with 139 yards on 15 carries for an average of 9.3 yards per touch.

The 67-yard touchdown run marked the longest scoring rush for the Panthers since D'vonte Price scored on a 68-yard run vs. Long Island on Sept. 2, 2021.

GAME NOTES

BEST RUSHING OUTPUT IN HALF SINCE 2021 OPENER

The Panthers rushed for a total of 158 yards in the first half of the August 26 season-opener at Louisiana Tech.

The total marked the Panthers' best in a half since equaling that 158 yards total in the opening half against Long Island University on Sept. 2, 2021.

POTTS AND DANIEL TURN UP TURNOVERS IN RUSTON

FIU got off to a fast start against Louisiana Tech and the defense helped get things rolling in the right direction with a pair of turnovers in the season opener.

Senior D'verik Daniel recorded the interception of his FIU career at the 7:14 mark of the opening quarter which the offense capitalized on for the Panthers' second touchdown of the game.

Later in the second half, junior Jamal Potts forced a pair of fumbles, one of which was recovered by teammate Keegan Davis at the 12:36 mark of the third quarter.

The forced fumbles were the second and third of Potts' career.

MANUEL POSTS CAREER-HIGH STOPS IN SEASON OPENER

Senior linebacker Donovan Manuel lead a trio of Panthers who recorded double-digit tackles in the season-opener at Louisiana Tech on Aug. 26.

Manuel posted a career-best 15 stops - eclipsing his previous high of 14 at Texas State last season.

He was joined in double-figures by Reggie Peterson, who matched his career-best total with 11 and junior Jamal Potts who tabbed 10.

GAME NOTES

ANTONIO PATTERSON TABS FIRST CAREER TD AT LA TECH

Freshman Antonio Patterson scored the first touchdown of his collegiate career on a six-yard rush with 4:42 left in the first quarter of the Panthers' season opener at Louisiana Tech on Aug. 26.

The redshirt freshman entered the season with nine previous attempts and 40 yards.

EARLIEST START TO SEASON IN PROGRAM HISTORY

The 2023 season opener on August 26 in Ruston marked the earliest date that FIU has opened a regular season in program history.

In addition, Saturday's clash with Louisiana Tech marked the first time that the Panthers have played a conference game in the first game of a season since 2011 - when it battled North Texas in the Sun Belt opener.

MINIMUM OF SIX NATIONALLY TELEVISED GAMES

The Panthers' game at Louisiana Tech was aired nationally on CBS Sports Network, the first of a minimum of six nationally televised games that will feature FIU in 2023.

The Panthers' television schedule features five games televised on CBS Sports Network (CBSSN) and their first home national broadcast on ESPN2 since 2011, when they host UTEP on Wednesday, Oct. 11 in Miami.

The five CBS Sports Network national telecasts mark the most in a single season for the FIU football program, eclipsing the three appearances it made in 2019.

BROADCAST LINEUP ON 1140 AM WQBA & ESPN+ ANNOUNCED

1140 AM Univision WQBA is set to once again be the flagship radio station of FIU Football for the upcoming 2023 campaign.

AJ Ricketts returns as the Voice of the Panthers, his seventh season on the mic with FIU.

Ricketts will be joined on the radio as well as FIU's ESPN+ broadcasts by an exciting lineup of analysts.

Former NFL safety and FIU alum Jonathan Cyprien will join on a number of ESPN+ broadcasts throughout the season. Cyprien, a former four-year starter for FIU who earned All Sun-Belt honors with the Panthers, called the senior night finale against MTSU alongside Ricketts last season. A second-round draft pick, Cyprien played in the NFL from 2013-2020.

On the radio, FIU alum and member of the Dan Le Batard Show with Stugotz Billy Gil will join for a number of broadcasts this season. Gil, who also competed in the pole vault for the FIU track and field program, is a 2012 graduate and part of the nationally successful show based in Miami, now affiliated with Meadowlark Media and Draftkings Network.

Ricketts will also be joined this year by Patrick Murray, who has seen time in the booth with Stadium and ESPN+, and is a former Emmy nominated sports anchor in Knoxville, Tennessee, as well as Corey Brooks, who has covered FIU Athletics extensively on ESPN+ and CUSA.tv over the past three years.

FIU FINALIZES SERIES WITH USF

The Panthers have finalized a two-game non-conference series beginning in 2026.

The Panthers and Bulls will begin the two-game series during the 2026 campaign (at USF), before following with a second contest in 2029 (at FIU).

"We are excited to be able to add another in-state opponent to our future football schedules," FIU Director of Athletics Scott Carr said. "We look forward to continuing to build these rivalries against in-state programs and I would like to thank USF Director of Athletics Michael Kelly for his help making this series happen."

FIU and South Florida have met a total of two times previously – with the most recent match up coming during the 2008 season.

USF SERIES DATES

at USF - Sept. 5, 2026
at FIU - Sept. 22, 2029

COACHING STAFF UPDATES

The FIU coaching staff had a number of changes during the offseason.

Zac Roper was hired after previously serving at Duke as the Panthers' special teams coordinator and tight ends coach.

In addition, Joshua Eargle, who was previously the Panthers' tight end coach, has been elevated to Deputy Head Coach and will now supervise the offensive line.

Former graduate assistant Anthony Gaitor has also been promoted to assistant coach where he will mentor the outside linebackers.

The Panthers also added DeMarcus Van Dyke as cornerbacks coach.

Van Dyke joins the Panthers after spending the past five seasons in various roles on the coaching staff at the University of Miami.

He joined the Hurricanes' staff in 2018 as a defensive quality control analyst before being shifted to the role of assistant director of recruiting in 2019. He was promoted to cornerbacks coach for Miami in 2021.

MIKE MACINTYRE NAMED SIXTH HEAD COACH OF FIU FOOTBALL

Mike MacIntyre was officially announced as the sixth coach in the history of the FIU football program on Dec. 9, 2021.

The consensus 2016 national coach of the year, MacIntyre was born in the Magic City and resided in the area while his father was an assistant coach for the University of Miami.

"Throughout this process, Coach MacIntyre rose to the top," Carr said. "He has a passion for student-athletes and building genuine relationships with them. He's a builder, with proven success taking two struggling programs and elevating them to national relevance. He is a two-time national coach of the year. He's a brand builder who will promote FIU throughout the South Florida community and the state of Florida. We could not be more excited to bring his energy and passion to campus."

NATIONAL AWARDS

- 2016 CONSENSUS NATIONAL COACH OF THE YEAR
- 2012 GRANT TEAFF NATIONAL COACH OF THE YEAR
- 2009 AFCA FBS ASSISTANT COACH OF THE YEAR

Mike MacIntyre is entering his second season with the Panthers after being named head coach of the FIU football program on Dec. 9, 2021.

MacIntyre wasted no time upon arrival in changing the culture of the FIU program as the 2022 Panthers posted a 400 percent increase in victories from the previous season and recorded the most wins since 2019.

A total of eight Panthers earned All-Conference USA status in 2022 - with another four honored with mention to the Conference USA All-Freshman squad, highlighted by defensive back Demetrius Hill, who became the first FIU player since 2018 to be named to the FWAA Freshman All-America Team.

Always with an eye on the future, MacIntyre has elevated the recruiting aspect of the program as the Panthers were recognized as having the top recruiting class among all returning Conference USA programs during the 2023 early cycle.

A Miami native, MacIntyre was born in the Magic City and resided in the area while his father was an assistant coach for the University of Miami.

MacIntyre is a 33-year veteran of collegiate coaching and has previously served as the head coach at the University of Colorado (2013-18) and San Jose State University (2010-12) – where he led both programs to nationally recognized turnarounds in wins during his tenure. MacIntyre also has experience coaching in the NFL under legendary coach, Bill Parcells.

He was the consensus national coach of the year in 2016 after guiding Colorado to a 10-4 finish and the Pac-12 South Division Title. While with San Jose State, MacIntyre led the Spartans to the program's first ranking in the final BCS standings (No. 24) following a 10-2 mark in 2012.

MacIntyre arrived at FIU after holding the position of defensive coordinator at Memphis for two seasons (2020-21).

The 2021 season saw MacIntyre's defense lead the American Athletic Conference in defensive touchdowns and ranked 23rd nationally.

During the 2020 campaign under MacIntyre, the Tigers ranked 13th in the nation in turnovers gained (20), 17th in the country in interceptions (12) and 19th in red zone defense (.744).

Under his guidance, Memphis defensive lineman O'Bryan Goodson was named First-Team All-American Athletic Conference and defensive back Quindell Johnson earned second-team all-conference accolades. Defensive lineman Morris Joseph earned honorable-mention all-league.

MacIntyre spent the 2019 season as Ole Miss' defensive coordinator and did a tremendous job in turning around the defense in his lone campaign in Oxford, Miss. It was MacIntyre's second stint at Ole Miss, as he also coached there from 1999-02.

Ole Miss made impressive jumps in several defensive statistical categories. The Rebels held opponents to nearly 10 fewer points in 2019 than in 2018 and also held foes to nearly 100 fewer rushing yards per game over those same two seasons.

Ole Miss' total defense under MacIntyre jumped nearly 40 spots in the NCAA rankings. The Rebels limited opponents to just under 70 fewer total yards per game.

MacIntyre has made turnarounds a trademark of his career, which was evident in his six seasons as the head coach at Colorado. In 2013, he took over a Colorado team that was coming off a 1-11 season. Four years later he directed the Buffs to a 10-4 mark and their first appearance in the Pac-12 Championship Game.

In 2016, Colorado was tied with five other programs for the most improved overall nationally and the most improved all-time in Pac-12 league games. The Buffaloes became just the ninth team among Power-5 schools since 1972 to win 10 or more games after finishing the previous season with four or fewer wins.

For his efforts in 2016, MacIntyre earned consensus National Coach of the Year honors after leading the Buffaloes to their first 10-win season in 15 years.

In 2015, the Buffs defense improved by as many as 50 spots nationally in many major defensive areas. The biggest jump came in points allowed per game, slicing off 11.5 from the previous year, the fifth-best improvement in all of FBS.

The turnaround at Colorado came just a few years after MacIntyre similarly resuscitated a San Jose State team from a 1-12 record in 2010 to one that finished 10-2 in 2012 and was nationally ranked. MacIntyre garnered Grant Teaff National Coach of the Year recognition that season. His San Jose State teams won 12 of his final 14 games there.

In recording their first 10-win season since 1987, the Spartans did it with a defense that ranked among the national leaders in numerous statistical categories. The opportunistic Spartans were the co-national leaders with 20 fumble recoveries and were tied for fourth in turnovers gained (33).

MacIntyre arrived at San Jose State after two years as the defensive coordinator at Duke, where he was reunited with David Cutcliffe, who was the Rebels' coach during MacIntyre's first stint in Oxford.

In his first season in Durham (2008), the Blue Devils allowed 67.4 fewer yards and 9.8 fewer points per game than the previous season. The AFCA named MacIntyre its 2009 FBS Assistant Coach of the Year as his defenses were among Duke's best statistically over a 20-year span.

Prior to returning to college ball, MacIntyre spent five seasons in the National Football League with the New York Jets (2007) and Dallas Cowboys (2003-06), where he coached defensive backs.

Working for legendary coach Bill Parcells, the Cowboys returned to the NFL playoffs in 2003 and again in 2006 after missing out on postseason competition during the 2000 through 2002 seasons.

MacIntyre served as Ole Miss' secondary coach during the 2001 and 2002 seasons after spending his first two years in Oxford as the wide receivers coach. The Rebels posted a 29-19 record in that time with bowl appearances in the 1999 and 2002 Independence Bowls and the 2000 Music City Bowl. The 2001 Rebels ranked fifth nationally in pass defense, allowing just 161.3 yards per game.

At Ole Miss, among his recruits were two high-profile student-athletes, quarterback Eli Manning and linebacker Patrick Willis. He has mentored many current and former NFL players, including recently retired former Dallas and Cincinnati safety Roy Williams, a five-time Pro Bowl player.

He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Georgia, working two years (1990-91) in that capacity. He then coached one year as the defensive coordinator at Davidson (1992), four years at UT Martin (1993-96) and an assistant coach two seasons at Temple (1997-98).

A 1989 Georgia Tech graduate, he lettered twice (1987-88) at free safety and punt returner for legendary head coach Bobby Ross. Prior to becoming a Yellow Jacket, MacIntyre played two seasons (1984-85) at Vanderbilt for his father, George, the head coach of the Commodores from 1979-85.

COACH MIKE MACINTYRE BIO

MacIntyre earned a bachelor's degree in business management from Georgia Tech and his master's in education with an emphasis on sports management from Georgia in 1991.
