FIU VS. THE BIG TEN

The Panthers will be facing an opponent from the Big Ten Conference for the 13th time when they meet the Hoosiers on Saturday afternoon.

FIU is currently 0-12 against Big Ten foes - with its most recent matchup also coming against the Hoosiers - a 38-28 loss in Miami in 2018.

SIGNAL CALLER JENKINS BACK FOR SECOND SEASON

FIU sophomore quarterback Keyone Jenkins returns under center for his sophomore season following a rookie campaign that marked one of the best performances by a FIU freshman quarterback.

Jenkins finished with 2,414 passing yards - the most by a true freshman at FIU and the fifth-highest total by any freshman last year nationally in FBS.

Jenkins one-yard rushing touchdown in the first quarter at Arkansas on Nov. 16, 2023, marked his sixth of the season and broke the FIU program record for most rushing scores by a signal caller – surpassing Alex McGough's total of five in 2017.

In addition, Jenkins has scored a rushing touchdown in a stretch of five consecutive games (Sept. 16-Oct. 18) – the program record for most consecutive games with a rushing touchdown by any player is six (6) – set by Darriet Perry in 2009.

Jenkins finished the 2023 season with 11 passing touchdowns.

In addition, Jenkins had a knack for the big play with an average of 12.44 yards per completion - 40th best total among all FBS quarterbacks.

Jenkins has known little but winning as a prep as a starting signal caller dating back to his prep career at Miami Central.

Jenkins won each of his last 26 starts at Miami Central while also guiding the Rockets to three consecutive state titles from 2020-22.

He opened 3-0 as a starter for FIU prior to a loss against Liberty on Sept. 23.

REGGIE PETERSON BACK AFTER HISTORIC 2023

Senior linebacker Reggie Peterson returns after posting one of the top tackling performances by a defensive player after registering 104 tackles - the 10th-highest total in FIU annals.

Peterson, who is a former walk-on and candidate for the The Burlsworth Trophy, notched double-digit stops in five games last season - including the four the the final

FIU ANNOUNCES FRESH BROADCASTING TEAM

FIU football broadcasts will have a new look in the booth and audio streams will air on the newly formed Panther Online Network, which will make its debut for the 2024 season opener, when FIU travels to battle Big Ten member Indiana on Saturday, August 31.

FIU football audio broadcasts will be moving exclusively to the new Panther Online Network, a free service free which can be accessed by phone, laptop, tablet or any device with internet access. All audio streams will begin 15 minutes prior to kick off with a pregame show and concluded with a 15-minute postgame wrap up.

The Panther Online Network can be accessed by visiting fiusports.com/listen.

All audio broadcasts will be archived and available on demand shortly after the completion of each contest.

FIU football telecasts will also have a new look this season as a new rotation of play-by-play announcers and analysts familiar with south Florida sports fans will take to the air to call Panthers' games in 2024.

Joining the broadcast team for select games will be Steve Goldstein, the veteran play-by-play voice for the reigning Stanley Cup champion Florida Panthers and voice of the Miami Dolphins preseason telecasts. Former Miami Dolphins' stand-out and current analyst for the Dolphins' preseason games, Kim Bokamper, will also be a part of select FIU football television and audio telecasts this fall.

Other new additions include Zach Letson, who has served as a commentator for FIU Athletics over the past year for numerous sports and previously served as a broadcaster for the Division I Junior College World Series and NAIA Lacrosse Championships. Finally, former FIU football tight end Jackson McDonald will also join the mix as an on-air analyst.

The new members of the broadcast teams will join the returning voices of the Panthers' AJ Ricketts and Corey Brooks, who both will return to call Panthers' games on both select television and radio broadcasts. In addition, guest analyst Billy Gil will return after appearing on a number of broadcasts in 2023. Gil is a former FIU track and field standout and currently is a senior producer and on-air talent for the Dan Le Batard Show.

FIU FINALIZES SERIES WITH USF

The Panthers have finalized a two-game non-conference series beginning in 2026.

The Panthers and Bulls will begin the two-game series during the 2026 campaign (at USF), before following with a second contest in 2029 (at FIU).

"We are excited to be able to add another in-state opponent to our future football schedules," FIU Director of Athletics Scott Carr said. "We look forward to continuing to build these rivalries against in-state programs and I would like to thank USF Director of Athletics Michael Kelly for his help making this series happen."

FIU and South Florida have met a total of two times previously – with the most recent match up coming during the 2008 season.

USF SERIES DATES

at USF - Sept. 5, 2026
at FIU - Sept. 22, 2029

PENN STATE SERIES FINALIZED

The FIU football program will travel to face Penn State in a non-conference matchup during the 2025 season.

The Panthers and Nittany Lions are scheduled to play on Saturday, Sept. 6, 2025 at Beaver Stadium in University Park, Pa., which seats 106,572 and ranks as the second-largest stadium in college football.

The two programs will be meeting for the second time in their history – having previously played on Sept. 1, 2007, also in University Park.

The Panthers have played a total of six previous games against members of the Big Ten Conference, including contests against Iowa (2008), Indiana (2015, 2016, 2018), Maryland (2016) and Penn State (2007). FIU is also slated to face Indiana in the 2024 season opener on Saturday, August 31 in Bloomington, Ind.

COACHING STAFF UPDATES

FIU named Kenechi Udeze as an assistant coach to the Panthers' coaching staff. Udeze, a former collegiate standout at the University of Southern California and a first round selection (20th overall) in the 2005 NFL Draft, will coach the FIU outside linebackers.

Udeze, who was officially hired just prior to the start of 2024 Spring Practice, brings a wealth of previous coaching experience to the Panther staff, both at the collegiate and NFL levels.

Most recently a pass rush specialist on the staff at the University of Houston (2023), Udeze was previously a member of the staffs at Vanderbilt (2020/LBs) as well as a defensive analyst with LSU during its run to the 2019 National Championship. He was also a defensive line coach at his alma mater USC from 2016-18.

During his stretch with the Trojans, USC led the nation in sacks (46) in 2017 and was fourth nationally in red zone defense. In 2016, USC limited opponents to just 139.6 yards rushing per contest.

GAMES NOTES

Udeze's NFL experience includes a run with the Tennessee Titans as an assistant defensive line coach (2021-22) as well as a stint with the Seattle Seahawks as an assistant defensive line coach in 2012.

He began his coaching career as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Washington for three years (2009-11), where he also worked with the defensive line. The Huskies played in the 2010 Holiday Bowl and 2011 Alamo Bowl. Udeze also held the role of assistant strength and conditioning coach at USC (2015) and Pittsburgh (2014).

In 2013, Udeze completed the Bill Walsh NFL Minority Coaching Fellowship program with the Minnesota Vikings.

During his illustrious playing career, Udeze was a three-year (2001-03) starting defensive end at USC, recording 135 tackles, 51 tackles for loss, 28 sacks, an NCAA record-tying 14 forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries in his career.

As a junior in 2003 on USC's national championship team, he was a consensus All-American first teamer, as well as a Hendricks Award finalist, the Washington D.C. Pigskin Club National Defensive Player of the Year, an All-Pac-10 first team selection and USC's Defensive Lineman of the Year.

That season, he led the nation in sacks (16.5 for a 1.3 average), was fourth in tackles for loss (26 for a 2.0 average) and was ninth in forced fumbles (5 for a 0.4 average), the only player in the nation in the top nine in each of those categories.

His 26 tackles for loss and 16.5 sacks in 2003 were the most by a Trojan defensive lineman since 1989 and he was the first Trojan with double digits in sacks since 1992 (Willie McGinest). He also had 56 tackles, five forced fumbles, a fumble recovery (for a touchdown), three deflections and a blocked field goal in 2003.

Udeze was a Freshman All-American second team pick in 2001 when he had 35 tackles, nine tackles for loss, four sacks, a fumble recovery, three forced fumbles and a deflection as USC played in the Las Vegas Bowl.

As a sophomore in 2002, he made All-Pac-10 second team and was USC's Defensive Lineman of the Year when he had 44 tackles, 15 tackles for loss, 7.5 sacks, a school record six forced fumbles, a fumble recovery, an interception and a blocked field goal (the Trojans won the 2003 Orange Bowl and finished ranked fourth nationally).

He declared for the NFL Draft after his 2003 junior season and was a first round selection (20th overall pick) by the Vikings in 2004. He started 47 of 51 games in his four years (2004-07) with the Vikings, compiling 117 tackles, 11 sacks, three fumble recoveries and two forced fumbles.

As a rookie in 2004, he recorded 36 tackles, five sacks, a forced fumble and a deflection while starting 15 games for the Vikings playoff squad. He started 15 times in 2006, getting 29 tackles, then had 47 tackles, five sacks a deflection and forced fumble with another 15 starts in 2007.

He was diagnosed with acute lymphoblastic leukemia (a blood cancer) in 2008 and placed on injured reserve that season. He received chemotherapy treatments and had a bone marrow transplant from his brother. He was the Vikings' recipient of the 2008 NFL Ed Block Courage Award, as voted by his teammates. After attempting to return to the playing field in 2009 but struggling with peripheral neuropathy in his feet as a result of chemotherapy, Udeze retired from the NFL that summer.

He earned his bachelor's degree in sociology from USC in 2010.

He was a prep All-American lineman at Verbum Dei High in Los Angeles (Calif.), where he also was a shot putter on the track team.

Anthony Gaitor shifts from coaching the outside linebacker to cornerbacks to round out the coaching staff changes.

MACINTYRE NAMED SIXTH COACH AT FIU

Mike MacIntyre was officially announced as the sixth coach in the history of the FIU football program on Dec. 9, 2021.

The consensus 2016 national coach of the year, MacIntyre was born in the Magic City and resided in the area while his father was an assistant coach for the University of Miami.

"Throughout this process, Coach MacIntyre rose to the top," Carr said. "He has a passion for student-athletes and building genuine relationships with them. He's a builder, with proven success taking two struggling programs and elevating them to national relevance. He is a two-time national coach of the year. He's a brand builder who will promote FIU throughout the South Florida community and the state of Florida. We could not be more excited to bring his energy and passion to campus."

RETURN OF PANTHER WALK

Join the spirit squads, the band, and all of Panther Nation, as the team makes its way to the stadium with Panther Walk. Starting approximately two hours and 15 minutes prior to kickoff, the Panthers will walk through Tamiami Promenade and through Gate 6 at the northeast corner of the stadium to prepare for the game. Come on out and cheer on the squad!

UP NEXT

The Panthers open the 2024 home schedule at South Dade Kia Field at Pitbull Stadium on Saturday, Sept. 7 in a 6 p.m. kickoff vs. Central Michigan. The game will be televised on ESPN+.

Florida International University (FIU) Athletics announced a groundbreaking partnership with international superstar and entrepreneur Armando Christian Pérez, better known as Pitbull.

The 10-year agreement will see FIU Stadium rebranded as Pitbull Stadium, making it the world's first-ever athletics venue with an artist possessing the naming rights.

Pitbull kicked off his music career in the South Florida rap scene. Since his debut in 2004, he has skyrocketed to global stardom, becoming one of the most successful recording artists worldwide. His hits like "I Know You Want Me (Calle Ocho)" and the RIAA Diamond Certified "Give Me Everything" have dominated charts and united fans across the globe.

The unrivaled collaboration includes multi-faceted marketing and promotional opportunities between Pitbull, a Miami native, and FIU – the only public Division-I institution in Miami.

"This partnership with FIU is a true honor and a testament to what we can achieve when we work hard," said Armando Christian Perez (Pitbull). "Renaming the stadium isn't just about a name change. It's about inspiring the community, creating opportunities and showing the world that with determination and a clear vision, anything is possible. We're making history together, and we're just getting started. Why dream when you can live it?"

When he steps on the stage at Pitbull Stadium, the GRAMMY®-winning artist will be the first entertainer in history to perform in an athletics facility bearing his name.

"Pitbull's career trajectory mirrors FIU's ascent as one of the nation's top public research universities," said FIU President Kenneth A. Jessell. "Like FIU, he started out very 305 and became worldwide."

The partnership also marks Pitbull's participation in FIU football's Vice Night, featuring Miami-style colors and merchandise, with the Panthers donning their nationally acclaimed Vice uniform. This year's game – which will feature a new Vice uniform – will take place on Oct. 22 at 7:30 p.m. against Sam Houston State and will be broadcast across the country on ESPN.

"This is a historic day for FIU Athletics to uniquely partner with a world-renowned artist and amazing person who truly values relationships and his community," FIU Director of Athletics Scott Carr commented. "Armando's financial support is program-changing, but him providing a microphone to amplify FIU will be even more beneficial to growing our brand. I couldn't be more excited about our partnership as this will take us to another level. We can now officially say: 'Paws Up, Dale!'"

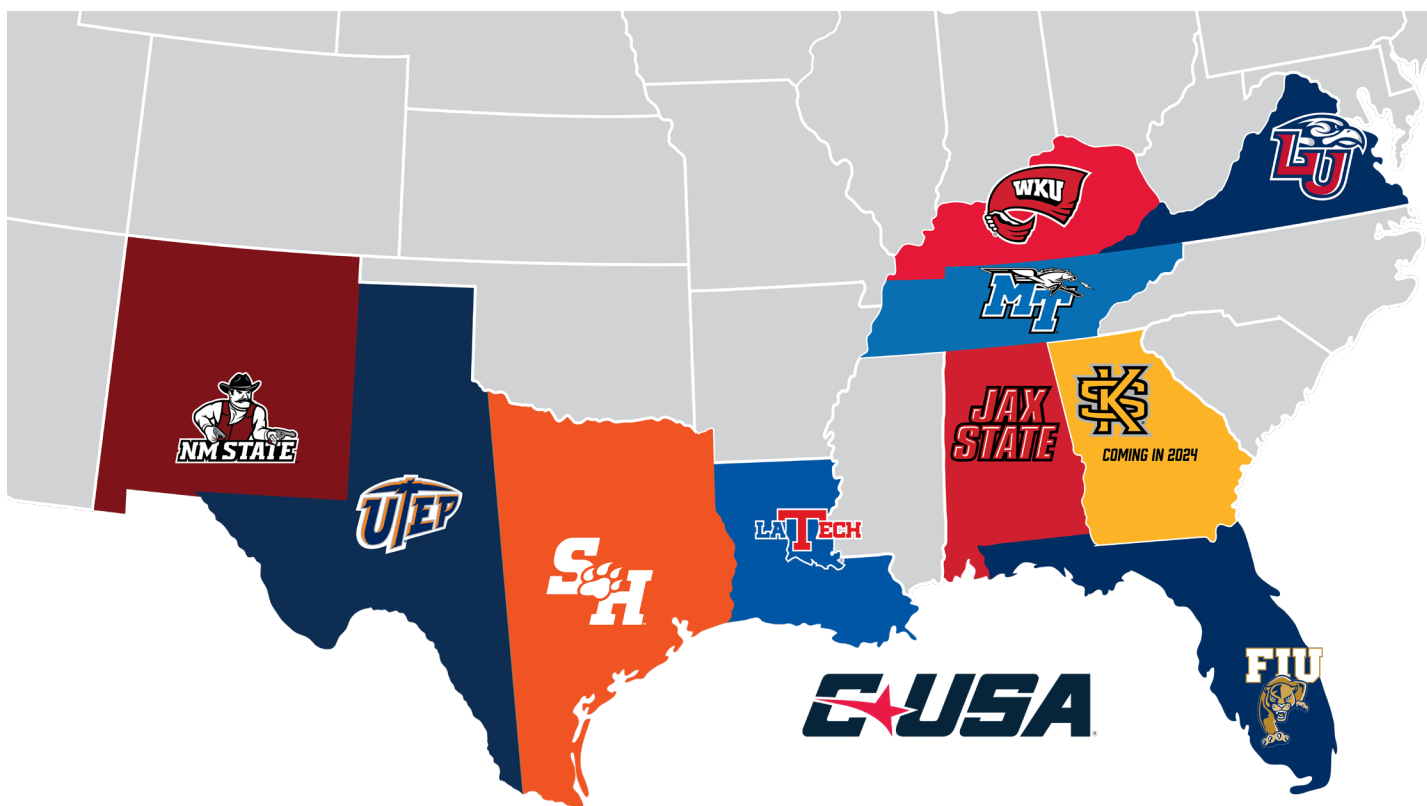

Van Wagner College, FIU Athletics' 3rd-party multimedia rights partner since 2016, assisted with the collaboration. Their efforts also helped attract additional partners to further enhance the partnership, including South Dade Kia which will be the presenting sponsor of the field: South Dade Kia Field at Pitbull Stadium.

Pitbull has been a longstanding advocate for education. He founded the first SLAM! (Sports Leadership, Arts, and Management) tuition-free public charter school in Miami in 2012. The K-12 schools leverage universal themes such as sports, science, technology, media and more to engage students. SLAM! serves nearly 10,000 students across 14 schools in Florida, Nevada, Georgia, Texas and Arizona. In 2022, SLAM! was 1 of 38 school systems in the world recognized as a System of Distinction for excellence in education by Cognia, a global school improvement and accreditation organization.

Like SLAM!, Pitbull's influence extends beyond the classroom. His newly formed SELF 1st Foundation will serve as an extension of those efforts to bridge opportunity gaps and foster real, tangible impact in underserved communities. SELF 1st, which stands for 'Strengthening Education to Level the Field,' enhances educational access and resources for minority and underserved populations across all levels of education, including college and trade school. The organization seeks to cultivate academic excellence, inspire young minds and create a more equitable society where every individual, regardless of background, has the opportunity to succeed through the transformative power of education.

NATIONAL AWARDS

2016	CONSENSUS NATIONAL COACH OF THE YEAR
2012	GRANT TEAFF NATIONAL COACH OF THE YEAR
2009	AFCA FBS ASSISTANT COACH OF THE YEAR

Mike MacIntyre is entering his third season with the Panthers after being named head coach of the FIU football program on Dec. 9, 2021.

MacIntyre wasted no time upon arrival in changing the culture of the FIU program as the 2022 Panthers posted a 400 percent increase in victories from the previous season and recorded the most wins since 2019.

A total of eight Panthers earned All-Conference USA status in 2022 - with another four honored with mention to the Conference USA All-Freshman squad, highlighted by defensive back Demetrius Hill, who became the first FIU player since 2018 to be named to the FWAA Freshman All-America Team.

Always with an eye on the future, MacIntyre has elevated the recruiting aspect of the program as the Panthers were recognized as having the top recruiting class among all returning Conference USA programs during the 2023 early cycle.

A Miami native, MacIntyre was born in the Magic City and resided in the area while his father was an assistant coach for the University of Miami.

MacIntyre is a 33-year veteran of collegiate coaching and has previously served as the head coach at the University of Colorado (2013-18) and San Jose State University (2010-12) – where he led both programs to nationally recognized turnarounds in wins during his tenure. MacIntyre also has experience coaching in the NFL under legendary coach, Bill Parcells.

He was the consensus national coach of the year in 2016 after guiding Colorado to a 10-4 finish and the Pac-12 South Division Title. While with San Jose State, MacIntyre led the Spartans to the program's first ranking in the final BCS standings (No. 24) following a 10-2 mark in 2012.

MacIntyre arrived at FIU after holding the position of defensive coordinator at Memphis for two seasons (2020-21).

The 2021 season saw MacIntyre's defense lead the American Athletic Conference in defensive touchdowns and ranked 23rd nationally.

During the 2020 campaign under MacIntyre, the Tigers ranked 13th in the nation in turnovers gained (20), 17th in the country in interceptions (12) and 19th in red zone defense (.744).

Under his guidance, Memphis defensive lineman O'Bryan Goodson was named First-Team All-American Athletic Conference and defensive back Quindell Johnson earned second-team all-conference accolades. Defensive lineman Morris Joseph earned honorable-mention all-league.

MacIntyre spent the 2019 season as Ole Miss' defensive coordinator and did a tremendous job in turning around the defense in his lone campaign in Oxford, Miss. It was MacIntyre's second stint at Ole Miss, as he also coached there from 1999-02.

Ole Miss made impressive jumps in several defensive statistical categories. The Rebels held opponents to nearly 10 fewer points in 2019 than in 2018 and also held foes to nearly 100 fewer rushing yards per game over those same two seasons.

Ole Miss' total defense under MacIntyre jumped nearly 40 spots in the NCAA rankings. The Rebels limited opponents to just under 70 fewer total yards per game.

MacIntyre has made turnarounds a trademark of his career, which was evident in his six seasons as the head coach at Colorado. In 2013, he took over a Colorado team that was coming off a 1-11 season. Four years later he directed the Buffs to a 10-4 mark and their first appearance in the Pac-12 Championship Game.

In 2016, Colorado was tied with five other programs for the most improved overall nationally and the most improved all-time in Pac-12 league games. The Buffaloes became just the ninth team among Power-5 schools since 1972 to win 10 or more games after finishing the previous season with four or fewer wins.

For his efforts in 2016, MacIntyre earned consensus National Coach of the Year honors after leading the Buffaloes to their first 10-win season in 15 years.

In 2015, the Buffs defense improved by as many as 50 spots nationally in many major defensive areas. The biggest jump came in points allowed per game, slicing off 11.5 from the previous year, the fifth-best improvement in all of FBS.

The turnaround at Colorado came just a few years after MacIntyre similarly resuscitated a San Jose State team from a 1-12 record in 2010 to one that finished 10-2 in 2012 and was nationally ranked. MacIntyre garnered Grant Teaff National Coach of the Year recognition that season. His San Jose State teams won 12 of his final 14 games there.

In recording their first 10-win season since 1987, the Spartans did it with a defense that ranked among the national leaders in numerous statistical categories. The opportunistic Spartans were the co-national leaders with 20 fumble recoveries and were tied for fourth in turnovers gained (33).

MacIntyre arrived at San Jose State after two years as the defensive coordinator at Duke, where he was reunited with David Cutcliffe, who was the Rebels' coach during MacIntyre's first stint in Oxford.

In his first season in Durham (2008), the Blue Devils allowed 67.4 fewer yards and 9.8 fewer points per game than the previous season. The AFCA named MacIntyre its 2009 FBS Assistant Coach of the Year as his defenses were among Duke's best statistically over a 20-year span.

Prior to returning to college ball, MacIntyre spent five seasons in the National Football League with the New York Jets (2007) and Dallas Cowboys (2003-06), where he coached defensive backs.

Working for legendary coach Bill Parcells, the Cowboys returned to the NFL playoffs in 2003 and again in 2006 after missing out on postseason competition during the 2000 through 2002 seasons.

MacIntyre served as Ole Miss' secondary coach during the 2001 and 2002 seasons after spending his first two years in Oxford as the wide receivers coach. The Rebels posted a 29-19 record in that time with bowl appearances in the 1999 and 2002 Independence Bowls and the 2000 Music City Bowl. The 2001 Rebels ranked fifth nationally in pass defense, allowing just 161.3 yards per game.

At Ole Miss, among his recruits were two high-profile student-athletes, quarterback Eli Manning and linebacker Patrick Willis. He has mentored many current and former NFL players, including recently retired former Dallas and Cincinnati safety Roy Williams, a five-time Pro Bowl player.

He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Georgia, working two years (1990-91) in that capacity. He then coached one year as the defensive coordinator at Davidson (1992), four years at UT Martin (1993-96) and an assistant coach two seasons at Temple (1997-98).

A 1989 Georgia Tech graduate, he lettered twice (1987-88) at free safety and punt returner for legendary head coach Bobby Ross. Prior to becoming a Yellow Jacket, MacIntyre played two seasons (1984-85) at Vanderbilt for his father, George, the head coach of the Commodores from 1979-85.
