

FLAGLER COLLEGE

ATHLETICS HISTORY

Flagler College was founded in 1968 and its athletics teams started in the early 1970s. The first sports at Flagler were: men's and women's basketball, men's cross country, men's soccer, slow-pitch softball, men's and women's tennis, volleyball and baseball.

Women's basketball debuted well ahead of Title IX. Katie Presnell was hired as the program's first coach in 1970 and the team only lost one game on its way to a state championship. They followed suit in 1971 with another state title. The women's basketball program went on to win three more state titles (1975-77). Cathy Forson coached the team to the title in 1976 while Nancy Sermons guided the team to the title in '77.

Volleyball debuted in 1971 and despite a shaky regular season the Saints finished in second place at the state tournament. The next season (1972), Mary Jo Murray coached the team to a state title.

The slow-pitch softball team dominated from the start winning six consecutive state titles from 1972 to 1977. The 1975 team had an undefeated regular season before taking two-of-three in the state final series against Florida State University.

Women's tennis debuted in 1972, but many consider 1975 as the first "real" season of the program. In 1975, the College constructed two courts north of Valencia Street along with two more at the southeast corner of the Markland grounds across King Street from the post office.

Men's sports made a casual debut in the fall of 1971 with a men's basketball team which played in the YMCA winter basketball league. The next year, under head coach Chuck Neader, the Saints started to play other college teams and posted a 5-8 record. The first win recorded in the history of the program was against Shelton College of Cape Canaveral.

In the spring of 1975 Darwin White met Flagler President Dr. William Proctor and was hired as its director of athletics.

In 1977, Flagler's athletic programs became members of the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) and in 1990 became charter members of the Florida Sun Conference (now known as the Sun Conference). On Feb, 14, 2006, Flagler announced its official move to NCAA Division II and on July 1, 2009 announced its membership in the Peach Belt Conference. Flagler earned the league's highest honor by winning the PBC Commissioner's Cup in 2018-19 and 2020-21.

Flagler has won five NAIA national titles in women's tennis (1987, 1988, 1989, 1990 and 1991) and was the national runners-up in 1992. The men's tennis program claimed the NAIA national title in 1977 and 1986. They were the national runner-up in 1985.

The men's tennis team made the NCAA Division II National Tournament for the first time in 2022. The Saints advanced all the way to the semifinal round after winning its first two matches. The men's team won its first PBC regular season title with a perfect 6-0 record. In 2024, the Flagler men were the first team in the D2 era to play for a national title as they advanced to the championship match. The Saints went undefeated in conference play during the regular season and captured the conference tournament title too. Baptiste Mercier became the first player to win the ITA Cup in the fall. The women's tennis team also made the NCAA Division II National Tournament for the first time in 2022. The Saints won their Round of 16 match to advance to elite eight round. The women won a share of the regular season conference title in 2022. The Saints were unblemished in league play in 2023 and advanced to the national semifinal.

The women's tennis team has won or shared the PBC regular season title four times (2022, 2023, 2024, and 2025) and won the PBC Tournament title twice (2021 and 2023). The Saints have played in the NCAA Division II postseason 12 times and made the Round of 16 three times (2022, 2-23, and 2025).

The men's basketball teams competed in the NAIA national tournament three times (2003, 2004 and 2005) and advanced to the second round in the last two trips. The Saints were ranked in the NAIA Top 25 at least once every year from 1995-2006, with the exception being 1999. Flagler made its first appearance in the NCAA Division II National Tournament in 2021 and advanced to the Final Four.

The women's basketball team appeared in two NAIA national tournaments (1999 and 2000).

The men's golf team has made numerous appearances in the NAIA national tournament and earned its highest ranking in the history of the program, No. 2, in the final poll of 2006. The team won Peach Belt Conference titles in 2011 and 2015. Since 2010, the Saints have competed every year in the NCAA Division II South/Southeast Regional, except 2013 and 2018.

The women's golf team won the inaugural Peach Belt Conference Championship in the spring of 2010 and became the first program in the NCAA Division II era to be ranked No. 1 in the country in the spring of 2015. The Saints have competed in the NCAA Division II regional, as a team, nine times. Linn Weber earned medalist honors at the 2016 Peach Belt Conference Championship which was held at the Slammer & Squire Course at the World Golf Village. Flagler has won six PBC titles (2010, 2017, 2018, 2019, 2021, and 2024). The Saints competed in the medal match play portion of the national tournament in 2024 and 2025.

Both cross country teams became the first NCAA Division II teams at Flagler to participate in the postseason as they competed in the South Regionals in 2008. Corey Mundy competed in the NCAA Division II Championships in 2013 and 2014. The women's cross country team won the 2013 Peach Belt Conference title and finished second at the Southeast Regional which allowed the team to compete at its first national championship, which was held in Spokane, Washington. The women won the league title again in 2018, finished second at the regional meet and then advanced to the national championships in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

The baseball team has had 19 players drafted into the Major Leagues and had its first player, Chris Barnwell, make it to the Major Leagues in 2006 with the Milwaukee Brewers. Kyle Bird and Blair Calvo have also played in the Majors for the Texas Rangers and the Colorado Rockies, respectively. The Saints won a share of its first regular season title with a 19-11 record in the PBC in 2019.

The men's soccer team won the Peach Belt Conference regular season title three times (2009, 2011, and 2021) and has played in the NCAA Division II National Tournament from 2009-13. Johan Bergfeld became the program's first Division II All-America selection in 2010. John Lynch was named the Southeast Region Coach of the Year in 2009. In the summer of 2012, Johan Bergfeld received the Peach Belt Conference's highest honor - the Student-Athlete of the Year.

The women's soccer team started in 1995 and had a banner season in their final year in the NAIA. In 2005, the Saints finished the year with a 14-5 record. The program has taken off under the guidance of Flagler alum Ashley Martin. He coached the team to their first NCAA Tournament appearance in 2017, which featured Flagler's first All-American in the D2 era in Charlene Nowotny. In 2019, Flagler won both the regular season and the postseason Peach Belt Conference titles, a feat they duplicated in the spring of 2021. The Saints also hosted the NCAA D2 Southeast Regional at Saints Field, won the regional, and advanced to its first D2 final four in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

The volleyball team has won the Peach Belt Conference regular and postseason titles (2009-11 and 2016-17). The Saints won the conference tournament in 2015 and the 2021 team went undefeated (10-0) in league play. The 2009 team won the Southeast Regional and advanced all the way to the national semifinals. The 2011 team that won the Southeast Regional title advanced to the national quarterfinals. Taylor Mott won the Coach of the Year Award in the Peach Belt Conference (2009-11). She also earned Florida Sun Conference Coach of the Year honors three times. Flagler has produced three NCAA Division II All-Americans – Olivia Snipes (2011), Sara Davis (2016-17) and Taja Valmyr (2017) - and three more who earned honorable mention honors: Katie Beale (2009), Meg Weathersby (2010) and Dianna Craine (2011-12). Kennedy Muff became the first Flagler player to win the PBC Female Student-Athlete of the Year (2022-23).

The softball team, which debuted in 2009, has made NCAA regional appearances in back-to-back seasons (2011 and 2012), and advanced all the way to the national championship for the first time in 2012.

The men's and women's indoor track & field program held its inaugural season in 2014-15 competing in five different meets. Andrew Smith became Flagler's first athlete to compete at the NCAA Division II Indoor Track & Field Championships in 2016. Heloise Duffie de Tassigny earned NCAA Division II All-America honors in 2018 and she followed that up with another All-America accolade in 2019. The men's and women's outdoor track and field teams debuted in the spring of 2022.

The men's and women's lacrosse teams had their inaugural seasons in the spring of 2022. The women's lacrosse team posted an 11-8 overall record and a 4-2 mark in the Gulf South Conference. The Saints advanced to play in the GSC Tournament championship game in its first season. The men's lacrosse team finished with a 3-14 overall record and a 2-3 mark in the Peach Belt Conference. The Saints hosted a PBC Tournament game in its first season. The women were ranked as high as No. 10 in the country and went through GSC play undefeated. The Saints played in the first round of the NCAA Division II National Tournament. Lexie Morton became the first All-American from Flagler in women's lacrosse.

129 student-athletes have been named NAIA All-America as well as 52 NAIA Scholar Athletes. Former tennis coach Walter Shinn was named NAIA Coach of the Year five times (1987-91), all in women's tennis.

Flagler Gymnasium was built in 1976 and seats 1,000 people for volleyball and basketball. The Flagler Tennis Center was constructed in 1983 and is considered to be one of the finest facilities in the state. The facility is undergoing renovations in the summer of '22 to improve the courts and the locker rooms. The Flagler Field Complex houses Drysdale Field (baseball), Saints Field (soccer), Flagler Field (softball), the Flagler Lacrosse Field, and the Flagler Field Locker Room Facility which was built in 2011. Drysdale Field was dedicated in 2011 and seats 700. The stadium introduced new seating behind the backstop in 2015. The original Flagler Stadium was dedicated in 2000. Saints Field was also introduced at the same time and was lighted in 2002. The complex is about three miles from campus. Flagler Field was opened in 2009. The Flagler Lacrosse Field had its inaugural game on Feb. 9, 2022 as the women trounced Webber International University, 25-4.
