Hartzler Field

Completed during the summer of 2012, the Murray G. Hartzler Soccer Field serves as the home facility for both the Francis Marion University men's and women's soccer programs. The field is situated in the new $11.1 million R. Gerald Griffin Athletic Complex located across the street from the main FMU campus. Hartzler Field is lighted with field dimensions of 120x75 yards and a capacity of 650 with an enclosed press box. The physical address is 4700 East Palmetto Street, Florence, SC 29506. The facility is named for the current athletic director and former men's soccer coach. Hartzler also began the women's soccer program in 1995 and coached that squad for eight seasons. The Patriot Women were 6-0-0 at home in the inaugural season of 2012 and are 28-53-6 all-time on the new pitch.

The Patriots left behind the FMU Soccer Field, located behind the Smith University Center at the southern end of the campus, where the Patriot men posted an all-time home mark of 141-127-19 (.524) and the Patriot women a 101-27-7 (.774) record. Prior to building the FMU Soccer Field, the Patriot men's team played its home matches on the university's Cornell (baseball) Field, which at that time included an astroturf infield.
