The 2022 Fordham University football media guide is to assist you in covering the Rams during the upcoming season. All media requests concerning the Fordham football program or any of the other 21 varsity sports offered at the University should be made through the Office of Sports Media Relations.

Credentials

Requests for credentials for any of the games at Jack Coffey Field should be directed to the Office of Sports Media Relations and should be made no later than 48 hours prior to the game. The request must be made either by mail or by phone at 718-817-4240. All credentials can be picked up 90 minutes before kickoff at the Gate C entrance of Jack Coffey Field. Members of the media can gain entrance to the press box with their credential by entering Gate C and taking the elevator to the press box. There is a photo deck located on top of the main press box for the taking of game films. It can be reached from the east end of the press box and is reserved for cameras only. All sideline photographers must display their credentials at all times and stay between the 25-yard lines in accordance with NCAA rules.

Radio

All radio line requests should be made no later than two weeks prior to the game and should be arranged through the Fordham Sports Media Relations Office, at 718-817-4240. Telephone and ethernet lines are available. Press box space at Jack Coffey Field is limited and assigned on a first-come, first-serve basis.

Press Parking

Game-day parking is reserved for members of the media in the main campus parking garage. Please indicate your parking needs when making your credential request. There will be no parking available directly outside the stadium.

Press Services

Statistics, pregame media notes, flipcards, game programs, starting lineups and additional copies of this media guide will be made available to accredited members of the media in the press box 90 minutes before kickoff. Complete quarterly play-by-play and halftime statistics also will be available during the game. A complete final statistical package will be available following the game in the press room.

Post Game Activities

All post-game activities will take place in the interview room located in the Lombardi Center. Following a 10-minute "cooling off" period, the visiting coach and requested visiting players will be available in the interview room followed by Coach Conlin and requested Fordham players. Phone lines for filing stories will be available in the Sports Information Office.

Jack Coffey Field

Fordham University's Jack Coffey Field, named for the Hall of Fame baseball coach and graduate manager, has served as the home of the football Rams since Fordham brought football back to campus on the club level in 1966.

The field has undergone many changes since it first opened, most recently with the replacement of the FieldTurf™ in 2014 when a new sound system was also installed.

In 2012, a new state-of-the-art video scoreboard was installed, allowing the Rams to show live action and replays, while the playing surface was first upgraded to FieldTurf™, one of the top artificial surfaces in the world, in 2005 when lights, a new scoreboard and an upgraded drainage system were installed.

In addition to hosting the football and baseball Rams, Jack Coffey Field also hosts the men's and women's soccer teams and is available for the intramural and club sports programs.

The Walsh Athletic Training Center

The Walsh Athletic Training Center, a 3,200 square foot facility located under the stands of Jack Coffey Field, benefits not only the Fordham University Football Rams but each varsity athletic squad within the University.

The facility offers a state-of-the-art weight room and also includes a classroom with seating for 30-35 people, an office for a strength coach, and adequate space for free movement exercises to supplement the weight training.

The facility was built due in large part to a tremendous $500,000 gift to the football program by Fordham alumnus William Walsh, FCRH '51. Mr. Walsh, in turn, challenged the Fordham University Gridiron Club to match his donation dollar-for-dollar. The $500,000 that Mr. Walsh gave the football program is part of his $10.5 million gift to Fordham University which helped complete the new library on the Rose Hill campus, named in Walsh's honor.

"This will help the football program, and I agree that a weight room is of vital importance," Mr. Walsh said. "It will also benefit other athletes and improve everyone's performance."

Beryl & John Lyons Locker Room

In August of 2010, when the Fordham football Rams returned to campus for preseason camp, they were greeted by the sight of a brand-new locker room. On September 12, 2010 the Rams formally thanked John Lyons, FCRH '50, for his generous gift that helped make the new facility possible with the official dedication of the Beryl and John Lyons Football Locker Room.

Lyons made the new home for the Rams possible with a $1 million donation in memory of his loving wife Beryl, matched by another $1 million gift from a former football player who wishes to remain anonymous, resulting in the state-of-the-art football locker room. The new space features over 90 wooden lockers, wide screen televisions and a theater-type viewing area for the team. The room also features two sealed lockers to honor Vince Lombardi and Bill Tierney. At approximately 4,800 square feet, the locker room is more than four times larger than the former room.

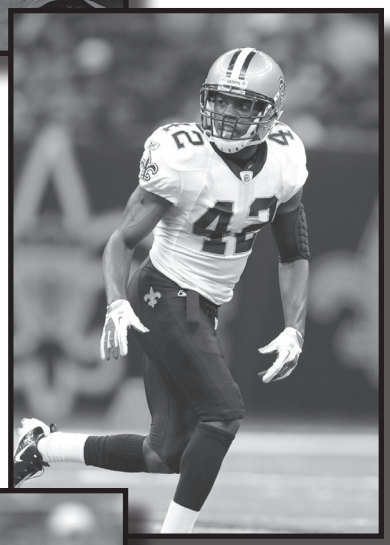

Fordham has sent a total of 83 players on to the professional ranks, beginning with the appearance of end George Lowe with Frankford in the 1920 season through the drafting of running back Chase Edmonds in the fourth round in 2018 by the Arizona Cardinals and Nick Zakelj in the sixth round of the 2022 draft by the San Francisco 49ers. Defensive back Dylan Mabin and Isaiah Searight signed as free agents with the Raiders and Buccaneers, respectively, in 2019. In 2013, wide receiver Greg Wilson was signed by the Denver Broncos while in 2014, placekicker Patrick Murray signed a contract with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. In 2017, defensive lineman Justin Vaughn was drafted by the CFL's Hamilton Tigercats. Additionally, former Ram defensive back Tad Kornegay played for eight years in the Canadian Football League, winning two Gray Cup championships.

The Fordham University football squad not only works hard on the field but just as hard in the classroom, under the direction of the Athletic Academic Advising Office. For the past five years, Fordham has been among the leaders in the number of players named to the Patriot League Academic Honor Roll while over that same time frame, almost 40% of the roster has been honored at the Fordham University Breakfast for Champions for having a 3.00 GPA or better. Additionally, Fordham has had at least one player named First Team CoSIDA Academic All-District in eight of the past ten years and a CoSIDA Academic All-America® in three of the past nine seasons.

Ryan Greenhagen was named a CoSIDA Academic All-American® in 2020-21 and 2021

Patriot League Academic Honor Roll

For the ninth straight year, Fordham ranked among the top Patriot League schools with 38 honorees on the 2021 Fall Academic Honor Roll, tied for second most among conference schools.

To be eligible for the Academic Honor Roll, a student-athlete must earn a 3.20 grade-point average in the fall semester and participate in one of the Patriot League's seven fall championship sports.

JOE CONLIN

Head Coach
Fifth Season at Fordham
Fifth Season as Head Coach

Joe Conlin, who served as associate head coach/offensive coordinator at Yale for four years, was named head football coach at Fordham University on December 22, 2017.

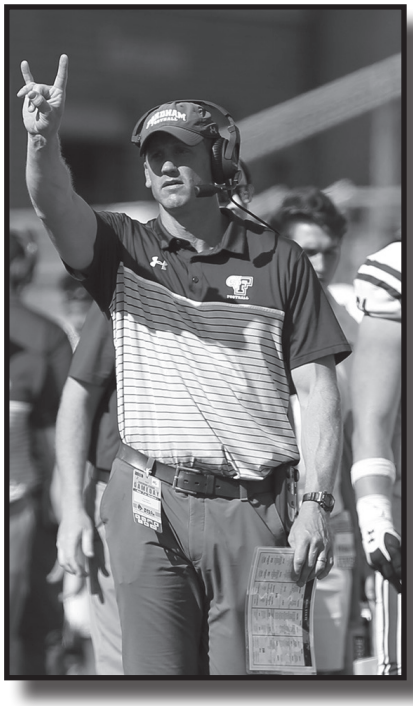

In the 2021 season, the Rams went 6-5 overall, 4-2 in the Patriot League, and continued their offensive success. Fordham led the League and ranked eleventh in the NCAA FCS in passing offense (296.7 yards/game) and lead the League and ranked 12th in the NCAA FCS in total offense (447.5 yards/game). The Rams also were second in the PL and 18th in the NCAA FCS in scoring offense (33.6 points/game) while leading the League and ranking 22nd in the NCAA in fewest sacks allowed (1.36/game) and leading the League and ranking ninth in the NCAA in TFLs allowed/game (3.91/game).

Leading the 2021 Fordham offense was lineman Nick Zakelj, who received consensus All-America honors and was drafted in the fifth round by the San Francisco 49ers, and quarterback Tim DeMorat, who was named the Patriot League Offensive Player of the Year for the second straight season.

For the spring 2020-2021 season, the Fordham offense was tops in the Patriot League and 17th in the NCAA FCS in scoring, averaging 31.7 points/game. The 2020-2021 Fordham offense also led the League and was 14th in the NCAA FCS in total offense (433.3 yards/game) and led the League and was sixth in the NCAA FCS in passing offense (349.7 yards/game). Junior quarterback Tim DeMorat earned Patriot League Offensive Player of the Year honors, and he was joined by five other Rams in earning First Team All-League accolades.

Defensively in 2020-2021, the Rams were paced by Patriot League Defensive Player of the Year junior linebacker Ryan Greenhagen, one of three first team All-League selections for Fordham. The Rams led the Patriot League in fumbles recovered, passes intercepted, passing yards allowed, and red zone defense.

In 2019, Conlin's offense led the Patriot League in passing yards/game (357.2 yards/game) and scoring (25.0). He saw sophomore quarterback Tim DeMorat, who led the conference in passing yards, passing yards/game, and passing touchdowns, earn First Team All-Patriot League honors while junior running back Zach Davis, who led the league in rushing, and junior offensive lineman Nick Zakelj also earned first team honors.

In his first season on Rose Hill, Conlin's offense was tops in the Patriot League in passing offense, averaging 200.7 passing yards/game, and he saw seven players earn All-Patriot League honors.

Conlin, who spent six seasons at Yale, was named the Joel E. Smilow '54 Offensive Coordinator at the school in 2014.

In 2017, Yale ended a 37-year drought when it beat Harvard 24-3 in the 134th edition of The Game to win the Ivy League Title. Yale improved from 3-7 in '16 to 9-1 in '17 and its offense improved in nearly every key statistical category under Conlin's leadership.

In 2017, the Yale offense ranked 12th in the NCAA FCS in total offense (450.7 yards/game) and 13th in passing efficiency (152.41) while also ranking in the top 22 in the NCAA FCS in red zone offense (14th), rushing offense (14th), scoring offense (14th) and fewest sacks allowed (22nd).

Conlin arrived at Yale as the offensive line coach in 2013 before being promoted to offensive coordinator in 2014. His 2014 season was a great start as the Yale offensive coordinator. The Bulldogs, who went 8-2, led the NCAA FCS in total offense (ranking third among all NCAA schools), while running back Tyler Varga (points per game) and wide receiver Grant Wallace (yards per game) led the FCS in offensive categories. In addition, his quarterback, Morgan Roberts, was tops in the Ivy in almost every statistic before finishing his career in 2015 as one of Yale's all-time best.

Conlin, who also served as the offensive line coach, did great things with the guys up front. The stats tell most of the story, but there are other accomplishments. His 2013 (and 2014) starting five began every game, the only Ivy League school to accomplish that, while three of the five earned All-Ivy League honors.

Conlin arrived in New Haven after spending the 2011 season as the offensive line coach at Harvard, helping the Crimson win an Ivy League title while setting a school scoring record.

Most of Conlin's coaching experience was at FCS power New Hampshire, where he helped the Wildcats to seven straight NCAA playoff appearances from 2004 to 2010. During his tenure at UNH, Conlin served as the offensive line coach in 2009 and 2010 but also worked with the defensive line, safeties and special teams for a program that went 65-25 and won one conference championship.

Conlin, a three-year starter at defensive tackle at the University of Pittsburgh, coached the defensive line at West Virginia Tech in 2003, a year after graduating. His Pittsburgh head coach, Walt Harris, selected him as a game captain four times. Conlin earned a degree in administration of justice in 2002.

He also gained coaching experience at Greensburg Central Catholic High School from 2002-03, where he worked with the tight ends and defensive ends while also handling strength and conditioning.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT JOE CONLIN

Yale Head Coach Tony Reno

"I'm so proud of Joe and what's he's accomplished to this point, not only at Yale but prior to his time here. I consider him one of my closest friends and he was the first person I called when I got the head coaching job at Yale. Joe has been instrumental is building the program here and was a big reason we won the Ivy League title this year. I'm excited for Joe and his wife Karen and their kids. Fordham made the best decision possible and they are getting an exceptional coach and a great person."

New Hampshire former Head Coach Sean McDonnell

"Joe is an unbelievable person and a very good football coach who was a great coordinator at Yale. It was tremendous to see his progression from New Hampshire to Harvard to Yale and now I'm excited to see him take that next step as a head coach. This is an outstanding opportunity for Joe and a great get for Fordham."

University of Akron Head Coach Joe Moorhead

"I've known Joe since his time as a player at Pitt. He combines incredible intelligence with a blue-collar work ethic. I'm confident he'll do a great job at Fordham."

Yale University (2014-19)
McNeese State University (2013)
University of New Hampshire (2013)
Southeastern Louisiana (2010-11)
Sacred Heart University (2005-10)

Art Asselta, former assistant coach at Yale University, was named assistant football coach at Fordham University in February of 2020. He was promoted to associate head coach in the spring of 2021 and is also responsible for the Fordham wide receivers.

In 2021, Asselta's wide receivers were a big reason the Rams led the Patriot League and ranked eleventh in the NCAA FCS in passing offense (296.7 yards/game) and led the League and ranked 12th in the NCAA FCS in total offense (447.5 yards/game). Fordham also ranked second in the PL and 18th in the NCAA FCS in scoring offense (33.6 points/game).

Leading the 2021 Fordham passing game were wide receivers Dequece Carter and Fotis Kokosioulis, both First Team All-Patriot League selection, and MJ Wright, a Second Team All-League pick.

In his first year on Rose Hill, Asselta helped the Rams to a 2-1 record in the 2020-2021 spring season. The Fordham offense led the Patriot League and ranked 17th in the NCAA FCS in scoring, averaging 31.7 points/game, and also led the League and was 14th in the NCAA FCS in total offense (433.3 yards/game). The Rams offense also was tops in the Patriot League and sixth in the NCAA FCS in passing offense (349.7 yards/game). Carter and Kokosoioulis were named first team All-Patriot League and Wright was placed on the second team.

Asselta arrived at Fordham after spending six years at the wide receivers coach at Yale University, including five as the recruiting coordinator. Additionally he served as the pass game coordinator for the Bulldogs in his final two years in New Haven. The Bulldogs won the 2019 Ivy League title with two wide receivers and quarterback Kurt Rawlings earning first team All-Ivy honors. Rawlings was also named the Ivy League Offensive Player of the Year and the New England Football Writers Player of the Year.

At Yale, Asselta mentored five of the most prolific receivers in the history of the program, including Deon Randall '14, Grant Wallace '15, Christopher Williams-Lopez '17, Reed Klubnik '20, and JP Shohfi '20. He helped Klubnik and Shohfi earn all-league honors in 2018 and 2019 after coaching All-Ivy selections Michael Siragusa and Williams-Lopez in 2017 during an Ivy League Championship campaign.

His first (2014) campaign with the Blue produced big numbers. His receivers helped Yale lead the nation in total offense while Wallace led the FCS in yards per game.

Prior to Yale, Asselta served as an assistant coach at McNeese State in 2013, helping the Cowboy offense rank seventh in FCS scoring (40.0) and 17th in total offense (451.0). McNeese State ranked eleventh in the NCAA FCS, going 10-3 and making the 2013 NCAA Playoffs. His pupil, Cody Stroud, who threw 28 TD passes, was Southland Conference Offensive Player of the Year.

At the University of New Hampshire in 2012, Asselta mentored the receivers and the pass game as the No. 13 Wildcats reached the NCAA Quarterfinals.

Asselta served as an assistant at Southeastern Louisiana in 2010 and 2011. A pair of Lions signal-callers, Tyler Beatty and Brian Young, grabbed spots in the school record books under Asselta. Beatty, as a first-year starter in 2010, posted the eighth-best total in passing yards (1,738 yards) while finishing his career sixth in passing yards (2,328) and completions (188). Young succeeded Beatty in 2011 and posted the third-highest single-season total in passing yards (2,855 yards) while finishing third in career passing yards (3,867) and completions (332).

Asselta also spent six seasons as the passing game coordinator and quarterbacks/receivers coach at Sacred Heart University. Under his tutelage, Dale Fink became the most prolific passer in school history and he coached SHU's three-time All-Northeast Conference receiver Steve Tedesco. Tedesco led the league in receiving with 67 receptions for 865 yards as a senior and holds school records for career receptions (229), career receiving yards (2,848), career touchdowns scored (37), career receiving touchdowns (37), receptions in a season (77), TD catches in a game (4) and catches in a game (12).

Asselta coached the running backs in his first year at SHU and helped Ed Priccolo become the school's all-time rushing and TD leader.

Before joining SHU, Asselta worked as a graduate assistant and running backs coach at Louisiana-Monroe, where he coached the first 1,000-yard rusher for the Warhawks since their move to the NCAA FBS.

Asselta earned a 1999 degree in marketing from Hofstra where he was twice named conference player of the week as a quarterback for the Pride. He holds a graduate degree from Stony Brook University and worked as a graduate assistant for the Seawolves for one season.

He and his wife, the former Jessica Andrews, have a daughter, Alexis, and a son, Ayden.

Shane Fogarty, who served as offensive coordinator at Colby College in 2014, returned for his second stint at Fordham as an assistant with the football program in 2015. Fogarty previously served under former Fordham head coach Joe Moorhead as tight ends coach and special teams coordinator in 2012. After leading the special teams and running backs for five years, Fogarty begins his third season with the safeties in 2022.

In 2021, the Fordham safeties helped the Rams rank third in the Patriot League in interceptions, led by Jesse Bramble who was named Second Team All-League.

In 2020-21, Fogarty's safeties helped the Rams led the Patriot League and ranked 17th in the NCAA FCS with eight interceptions with sophomore Stephen Williams II earning Second Team All-Patriot League honors.

In 2019, Fogarty saw two running backs earn All-Patriot League honors with junior Zach David leading the Patriot League in rushing to earn First Team All-Patriot League honors, while junior running back Trey Sneed earned second team accolades. Additionally, junior placekicker Andrew Mevis, who led the Patriot League and was 19th in the NCAA FCS in field goals/game, earned First Team All-League honors.

Under Fogarty's tutelage, running back Chase Edmonds compiled 5,862 career rushing yards along with 74 career touchdowns and 67 career rushing touchdown, all school and Patriot League records. His 5,862 career rushing yards is fifth best in NCAA FCS history while his 67 career rushing touchdowns is fourth best and his career rushing yards/game average of 133.2 is 14th best. He also amassed 7,374 career all-purpose yards, a school and Patriot League career record, tenth best in NCAA FCS history.

The Fordham special teams was also among the nation's best in 2017, leading the NCAA FCS in punt return defense (2.75) and ranking 27th in punt return average (10.11).

Fogarty tutored Edmonds to consensus All-American honors in 2016. The junior finished fourth in voting for the 2016 Walter Payton Award, presented to the NCAA FCS offensive player of the year. Edmonds led the NCAA FCS in rushing yards per game (163.5) and was second in total rushing yards as well as ranking second in all-purpose yards per game (194.6) and third in rushing touchdowns. The 1,799 yards was just 39 yards shy of Edmonds' school single-season record set in 2014.

In 2015, Fogarty helped Edmonds earn consensus All-America honors as the sophomore, who was also named the 2015 Patriot League and ECAC Offensive Player of the Year, rushed 251 times for 1,648 yards and 20 touchdowns while also catching 31 passes for 383 yards and five scores. He led the Patriot League and was third in the NCAA FCS in rushing yards and led the league and was fourth in the NCAA FCS in rushing yards/game (137.3) and rushing touchdowns. Edmonds led the league and was fourth in the NCAA FCS in all-purpose yards/game (184.18) and was second in the nation in scoring (12.5 points/game).

Between his first stretch at Fordham and his year at Colby in 2014, Fogarty served as an assistant coach at the University of Connecticut in 2013, working with the safeties and assisting with the special teams.

In 2012 with the Rams, Fogarty coached tight end Dan Light at Fordham, who was named First Team All-Patriot League as he hauled in 45 passes for 388 yards, the most for any Patriot League tight end and the most receptions for a tight end in Fordham history.

On special teams, Fogarty coached placekicker Patrick Murray, who earned All-America honors and led the NCAA FCS with 25 made field goals while ranking second in punting average (46.0).

Light signed a free agent contract with the Kansas City Chiefs following graduation and was on the Denver Broncos practice roster in 2015 while Murray served as the placekicker for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2014 and signed a free agent contract with the Cleveland Brown in 2016.

Fogarty was a graduate assistant for the Huskies in 2010 and 2011, coaching the defensive backs and linebackers for the 2010 BIG EAST championship team, who appeared in the 2011 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, and the 2011 squad.

Prior to his stay in Storrs, Fogarty spent the 2009 season as an assistant at Norwich University in Northfield, Vt. He coached the wide receivers that year and helped the Cadets to the 2009 East Coast Football Conference championship.

Fogarty was an assistant coach at Trinity College in Hartford from 2006-08, working with the running backs and special teams in 2008 and leading the Bantams to the 2008 NESCAC championship. In 2006 and 2007, he coached the outside linebackers.

From February through June of 2008, Fogarty served as a head coach and offensive coordinator for the Carinthian Black Lions in the Austrian Football League.

A 2006 graduate of UConn with a degree in history, Fogarty was a member of the Husky football program from 2002-05, earning a letter in his senior season. While at UConn, he earned the Joseph M. Giannelli Unsung Hero Award as well as the Counseling Program for Intercollegiate Athletes Award for Academic Excellence in the football program.

A native of West Virginia, Fogarty led Morgantown High School to the 2001 championship in the state's biggest division. He had a 25-2 record as a starting quarterback in high school and was a two-time All-State pick.

Fogarty and his wife Samantha are the parents to two young children, Maggie and Colin.

Kevin Decker, a 2012 UNH graduate, starts his fourth year at Fordham as the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach in 2021. He joined the Rams in February of 2019 after serving as an assistant at Brown University the previous three years. He was the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach for the Bears in 2018, the youngest offensive coordinator in the Ivy League, after coaching the Brown tight ends his first two years in Providence.

Last fall, the Fordham offense, under Decker's guidance, led the Patriot League and ranked eleventh in the NCAA FCS in passing offense (296.7 yards/game) and led the League and ranked 12th in the NCAA FCS in total offense (447.5 yards/game). The Rams were second in the PL and 18th in the NCAA FCS in scoring offense (33.6 points/game) and led the PL and ranked 22nd in the NCAA in fewest sacks allowed (1.36/game).

In 2021, quarterback Tim DeMorat earned his second straight Patriot League Offensive Player of the Year honor after throwing 31 touchdowns passes, seventh best in the NCAA FCS, while six other Rams were named All-Patriot League, led by offensive lineman Nick Zakelj, a consensus All-American who was drafted by the San Francisco 49ers.

In 2020-21, Decker led a Fordham offense that led the Patriot League, and was 17th in the NCAA FCS, in scoring, averaging 31.7 points/game. The 2020-2021 Fordham offense also led the League and was 14th in the NCAA FCS in total offense (433.3 yards/game) and led the League and was sixth in the NCAA FCS in passing offense (349.7 yards/game). Junior quarterback Tim DeMorat earned Patriot League Offensive Player of the Year honors and was joined by five other Rams on the offense in earning First Team All-League accolades.

In 2019, Decker made an immediate impact to the Fordham offense, a unit that led the Patriot League in passing offense and scoring offense. Sophomore quarterback Tim DeMorat, who led the Patriot League in passing yards and passing touchdowns, earned First Team All-League honors as did junior running back Zach Davis, the top rusher in the conference.

In 2018, Decker helped freshman quarterback Michael McGovern lead the Ivy League in passing yards/game and finish second in total offense. He also saw tight end Anton Casey earn second team All-Ivy honors after leading the conference in receptions for a tight end.

Decker joined the Brown coaching staff after working as an offensive assistant at Montana State in 2015. He helped the Bobcats rank first in the NCAA FCS in yards per play, touchdowns per game and red-zone touchdown percentage. He worked under Montana State head coach Rob Ash and Offensive Coordinator Tim Cramsey and was responsible for opposition film breakdown, game day charting assignments and compiling weekly scouting reports. He worked closely with the offensive coaches during game planning, game evaluation, and personnel evaluation meetings.

A 2012 graduate of the University of New Hampshire, Deceker was an outstanding quarterback for the Wildcats where he was the Colonial Athletic Association's Player of the Year and a finalist for the Walter Payton Award in 2011. He threw for 3,272 yards and 22 touchdowns as a senior, while rushing for 429 yards and nine touchdowns. A team captain, he was also the squad's Most Valuable Player and served on the Team Council Committee at UNH.

Mark Powell, a former assistant coach at Austin Peay, was named defensive coordinator at Fordham University in January of 2022.

Powell arrives at Rose Hill after three years on the Austin Peay staff. After joining the Govs as a defensive coordinator in 2019, Powell moved to special teams coordinator for the spring 2021 season while remaining the team's linebackers coach.

In his three seasons at Austin Peay, Powell coached seven All-OVC honorees, including two-time Consensus First Team All-American Kordell Jackson.

In Powell's first season on the Austin Peay sideline, the Governors ranked 12th among all FCS programs in total defense, permitting just 307.5 yards per game. Austin Peay was particularly adept at shutting down the running game, ranking eighth nationally while allowing only 104.1 yards per game.

Prior to joining the Governors' staff, Powell was a graduate assistant at Mississippi State where he worked with the defensive unit for a squad that appeared in the Outback Bowl. The Bulldogs' defense was the only defense in the country to finish in the top ten of all four major defensive categories, ranking first in total defense (263.1 yards per game), second in scoring defense (13.2 points per game), second in rushing defense (95.0 yards per game) and seventh in pass defense (168.0 yards per game).

Powell has Patriot League experience, beginning his career as a student assistant coach at Lafayette after an injury ended his playing career. He went on to serve on the coaching staffs at Yale and Villanova. The next season, Powell moved to Christopher Newport in 2017 where he was the Captains defensive line and special teams coach.

A 2014 Lafayette graduate with a degree in history, Powell also earned a master's degree in workforce education leadership at Mississippi State in 2021.

Alex Huettel, a former graduate assistant at Cincinnati, was named offensive line coach at Fordham University in March of 2020.

Last fall, the Fordham offensive line was a key part of a unit that led the Patriot League and ranked eleventh in the NCAA FCS in passing offense (296.7 yards/game) and led the League and ranked 12th in the NCAA FCS in total offense (447.5 yards/game). The 2021 Rams ranked second in the PL and 18th in the NCAA FCS in scoring offense (33.6 points/game). The Fordham front five also helped the Rams lead the PL and rank 22nd in the NCAA in fewest sacks allowed (1.36/game) and lead the League and rank ninth in the NCAA in TFLs allowed/game (3.91/game).

The 2021 Fordham offensive line was led by consensus All-American Nick Zakelj, who was drafted in the fifth round by the San Francisco 49ers. He was joined by Phil Saleh in receiving First Team All-Patriot League honors.

In 2020-2021, the Fordham offensive line helped the Rams lead the Patriot League and rank 17th in the NCAA FCS, in scoring averaging 31.7 points/game. The 2020-2021 Fordham offense also led the League and was 14th in the NCAA FCS in total offense (433.3 yards/game) and led the League and was sixth in the NCAA FCS in passing offense (349.7 yards/game). Senior Nick Zakelj and junior Phil Saleh were both named First Team All-League.

Huettel arrives at Fordham after working with the University of Cincinnati football program in 2019 where he served as a graduate assistant, working with the offensive line. He was also charged with coaching the defensive scout team, running daily meetings for the scouts, and running the offensive line weekly scout meetings. The Bearcats went 11-3 in 2019, 7-1 in the AAC, and fell to #17 Memphis in the AAC Championship game. Cincinnati then defeated Boston College, 38-6, in the TicketSmarter Birmingham Bowl and finished ranked 21st in the nation.

Prior to Cincinnati, Huettel served as the offensive line coach at Gannon University in 2018. His responsibilities included developing run and pass protection techniques with the offensive line and tight ends, creating scout reports, breaking down film, running the defensive scout team and assisting in recruiting efforts. Behind the offensive line, the Knights rushed for 2,173 yards (197.5 yards/game) that fall.

Huettel got his start in coaching as an offensive graduate assistant at Bowling Green University from 2016-2017.

The Pickerington, Ohio, native was a standout offensive lineman for Bowling Green from 2011-2015. A two-time MAC champion, Huettel started a program-record 55 consecutive games after redshirting in 2011. He was the anchor of an offensive line that helped Bowling Green set program records in points (591), first downs (389), passing yards (5,135), total yardage (7,655) and total offensive touchdowns (81) in 2015. Huettel earned All-MAC honors three times (2013-15) and All-America first-team accolades as a senior.

A team captain during his final two seasons, the right guard was selected to play in the 2016 East-West Shrine Game. He was also invited to minicamp for the NFL's New York Giants in 2016.

Huettel earned a bachelor's degree in human development and family service from Bowling Green in 2015. He and his wife, Danielle, have a son, Boone.

James Lenahan begins his fifth year on the Fordham staff in 2022. After serving on the defensive side of the ball his first two years, he moved over to the offensive side in 2020, coaching the Rams' running backs. In 2021 he moved back to the defensive side, overseeing the Fordham cornerbacks, a task he will continue in 2022.

In 2021, the Fordham cornerbacks helped the Rams rank third in the Patriot League in interceptions.

In 2020-2021, the Fordham running backs helped the Rams lead the Patriot League and rank 17th in the NCAA FCS in scoring, averaging 31.7 points/game. The 2020-2021 Fordham offense also led the League and was 14th in the NCAA FCS in total offense (433.3 yards/game) while senior running back Trey Sneed earned First Team All-Patriot League honors.

Lenahan joined the Fordham football staff in March of 2018 first coaching the inside linebackers in 2018, and then guiding the safeties in 2019.

In 2019, the Fordham defense ranked third in the Patriot League in interceptions, with senior free safety James Bigg-Frazier leading the way with two.

In 2018, Lenahan's linebackers helped the Rams led the Patriot League and rank 20th in the NCAA FCS in tackles for loss with 7.5/game. He also saw one of his student-athletes, Glenn Cunningham, earn First Team All-Patriot League accolades after setting a school record with 21.5 tackles for loss.

Lenahan arrived at Fordham after serving as the Defensive Assistant/ Assistant Defensive Line Coach at Yale in 2017, where he worked with Fordham head coach Joe Conlin and Fordham defensive coordinator Paul Rice. At Yale he was responsible for weekly full opponent film breakdown, assisting the defensive line coach during individual periods, creating and editing the defensive playbook and new installations and assisting the defensive coordinator in drawing all scout cards and running the scout team during practice.

Prior to his stay in New Haven, Lenahan was a graduate assistant coach at Utica College in 2015 and 2016, guiding the cornerbacks in his first year with the Pioneers and the outside linebackers during his second. He handled daily positional meetings and structured individual periods during practice, and assisted the defensive coordinator with defensive pass game schematics based on weekly opponents. Lenahan also was responsible for weekly opponent breakdowns with other graduate assistants and assisting on all aspects of special teams in accordance to the head coach. He also served as the junior varsity defensive coordinator/head coach in 2016.

A 2015 graduate of Utica College where he received a degree in cyber security, Lenahan was a three-year starter for the Pioneers. He was named to the Empire 8 All-Conference Team in 2013 and 2014 and was voted defensive player of the year by his coaches and teammates in 2012. He holds school career records for most interception return yards (172) and interceptions/game while his six interceptions in 2014 is the second best single-season total at Utica.

West Virginia (2014-2015)
West Virginia Wesleyan (2013)

Anthony Leonard, former assistant coach at UIP, was named an assistant football coach at Fordham University in September of 2021. He will be in charge of the Rams' defensive line again in 2022.

Last fall, Gant's defensive line helped the Rams rank third in the Patriot League in fumbles recovered, 20th in the NCAA FCS, and rank third in the League in both tackles for loss and sacks per game.

Leonard arrived at Rose Hill after five seasons on the Indiana University of Pennsylvania coaching staff where he led the Crimson Hawks' defensive line group from 2016-2020 before being promoted to linebackers coach in 2021.

During his stay at IUP, the Crimson Hawks compiled a 41-8 (.838) overall record in his four seasons (the 2020 season was canceled). Leonard helped the team to three NCAA Division II playoff appearances, including a national semifinal berth, and a PSAC Championship in 2017.

At IUP, Leonard led and coached two All-Americans, seven All-Super Region One selections, and nine All-PSAC West picks. Rotating up to ten players along the defensive front in any given year, Leonard's group combined for 111 sacks and 195.5 tackles-for-loss over that span.

Leonard arrived at IUP from West Virginia University, where he was the defensive graduate assistant and assistant linebackers coach for the 2014 and 2015 seasons. A former All-Big East linebacker at WVU, Leonard spent two seasons at his alma mater, helping the Mountaineers to Liberty Bowl and Cactus Bowl invitations.

Assisting with the linebackers, he mentored first team All-American Nick Kwiatkoski and honorable mention All-Big 12 selection Jared Barber. Leonard coached Shaq Petteway, who earned Defensive Player of the Game honors at the 2016 Cactus Bowl. He also assisted with the Western Pennsylvania and South Florida recruiting areas.

Leonard went to WVU after coaching the defensive line at West Virginia Wesleyan in 2013. He saw Marcus Spearman earn second team All-Mountain East honors while also serving as the program's assistant director for strength and conditioning.

Leonard got his coaching career off the ground after suiting up for West Virginia. A three-year team captain, he earned All-Big East honors in helping the Mountaineers' defense rank second nationally in 2010. He played in four bowl games at WVU – the 2008 Fiesta Bowl, 2008 Meinicke Car Care Bowl, 2009 Gator Bowl, and 2010 Champs Sports Bowl – and also earned the program's Gridiron Gladiator and Hammer Awards in his final season.

A 2010 graduate of WVU in 2010, Leonard received a degree in athletic coaching education and received a master's degree in communication from the school in 2015. He spent time in the New England Patriots camp in 2011 after signing as a rookie free agent.

Leonard graduated from McKeesport Area High School in 2006, where he was a first team All-State and All-WPIAL player an helped the Tigers to 2005 WPIAL and PIAA championships.

Fordham Appeared in the First Televised College Football Game 80 Years Ago

On September 30, 1939, Fordham hosted Waynesburg College at Triboro Stadium on Randall's Island. The game was the season opener for the Rams, who beat Waynesburg, 34-7. Announcer Bill Stern called the contest over station W2XBS (now WNBC) as a demonstration of this new medium at the World's Fair. Two iconoscope cameras, which had just been patented by RCA, were used to televise the game with the images being sent to a relay station 10 miles from the stadium and then, by cable, to the top of the Empire State Building, where a large transmitter broadcast the game to the lucky few who owned a television in those days. A top-of-the-line set in 1939, a Clifton, sold for about $600.

Notable Fordham players who appeared in the game include Len Eshmont and Dominic Principe, who went on to play in the professional ranks, as well as Ralph Friegden, father of former Maryland head coach Ralph Friedgen, who scored twice in the game.

Did You Know?

Who is named after whom? According to Mike Lessiter's 1988 book "Name That Team," the Cleveland (now St. Louis) Rams were named after the 11 from Rose Hill. "If there is one college team that has a name that I really like, it's the Fordham Rams," said Bud Wetzel, an NFL General Manager in 1937. "That's wonderful," said owner Homer Marchman, and so the NFL Rams were born.

Did You Know?

The Yankees are not the only team that enjoyed success in "The House that Ruth Built." From 1932-42, Fordham teams went 11-1 at Yankee Stadium, losing only the 1936 finale 7-6 to NYU. However, that game may be the most remembered game of any of the 12 because it cost Fordham an unbeaten season and a trip to the Rose Bowl. Hall of Famer Vince Lombardi later called the loss "the most devastating loss of my life."

In 2016, the Rams played at the current Yankee Stadium, upending Holy Cross, 54-14, in front of more than 20,000 fans.

Did You Know?

The Rams actually received a bid to play in the Rose Bowl and turned it down.

After the last game of a very successful 1941 season, Fordham Coach Jim Crowley informed the team that they had received a bid to play in the Granddaddy of all bowls. The players all cheered until they learned that if they accepted the bid, the game would be played in New York City and not on the West Coast for fear of Japanese bombing. The team opted to take a bid from the Sugar Bowl instead.

Did You Know?

Three Fordham alumni have been inducted into the National Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio.

The first Ram to be inducted was Alex Wojciechowicz ‘38, who was enshrined in 1968. Wojciechowicz was a two-time All-American at Fordham and the center of the famed “Seven Blocks of Granite”. He was the number-one draft choice of the Detroit Lions in 1938 and played eight years on both sides of the ball for the Lions before later playing with the Philadelphia Eagles.

Wojciechowicz

The second Ram to join the Hall of Fame was Vince Lombardi ‘37, who was honored in 1971. He was also a member of the famous “Seven Blocks of Granite” at Fordham and went on to fame as the head coach of the Green Bay Packers. Lombardi coached the Packers from 1959-67 and compiled an 89-29-4 career record along with five NFL titles and two Super Bowl crowns. He then coached the Washington Redskins in 1969 and led them to their first winning season in 14 years.

Lombardi

The most recent of the Hall of Fame inductees is the late Wellington Mara ‘37, inducted in 1997. Though he never played football at Fordham, he was a mainstay with the New York Giants. Starting out as an Assistant to the President and Treasurer in 1937, Mara rose through the ranks to become President of the team in 1966. The Giants won 14 divisional titles and four NFL titles, including two Super Bowls, under Mara’s tenure.

GAME 1

Fordham 7
Nebraska 52

September 4, 2021 - Lincoln, Neb.

Unfortunately for the Fordham Football Rams, not all David and Goliath stories end with David slaying the giant. Nevertheless, the Rams gave it their all today, with senior linebacker Ryan Greenhagen playing the role of David, before falling to the University of Nebraska, 52-7, in Memorial Stadium.

The loss overshadowed a record-setting day for Greenhagen, who set the NCAA Division I record with 31 total tackles (he was credited with a tackle on Monday to bring the total to 31). The former record of 30 was accomplished three times previously since the NCAA made tackles an official statistic in 2000. Others to achieve the feat include Chattanooga's Josh Cain (2001), Norfolk State's Kevin Talley (2004) and Stetson's Donald Payne (2014).

According to cbssports.com Greenhagen's 31 tackles were the most by any player against an FBS opponent since the NCAA began keeping records. The record was previously held by former Oklahoma linebacker Kenneth Murray, who had 28 tackles against Army. NFL Hall of Fame linebacker Mike Singletary notably recorded 35 tackles against Houston and 33 tackles against Arkansas in 1978 for Baylor, but both of those games occurred before stats were considered official.

Greenhagen broke a 31-year-old Patriot League single-game tackles record, a mark that was held by Lehigh's Lee Picariello against William. & Mary in 1990.

GAME 2

Monmouth 26
Fordham 23

Sept. 11, 2021 - Jack Coffey Field

It has been over 650 days since fans saw the Fordham football in action on Jack Coffey Field. And the Rams did their best to keep the fans in the stands the entire game before falling to #21 Monmouth University, 26-23.

Senior linebacker Ryan Greenhagen tried his best to better his NCAA-record 31 tackles from last week but came up just shy with 28 stops, 11 solo, including one for loss.

Offensively, senior quarterback Tim DeMorat completed 27 of 49 passes for 352 yards and three scores with two of those touchdowns going to junior wide receiver Dequece Carter, who hauled in five passes for 97 yards.

The Rams trailed by ten, 26-16, with 13:26 remaining before the Rams pulled within three, 26-23, when DeMorat found Carter with a 39-yard scoring strike with just over five minutes left.

The Hawks held the ball for the next 4:35 before the Rams got the ball back on their own eight with 26 seconds on the clock. DeMorat completed three of four passes to get the ball to the Fordham 44 and a Hail Mary pass to the end zone was tipped before it fell to the ground as time expired.

GAME 3

Fordham 14
Florida Atlantic 45

September 18, 2021 - Boca Raton, Fla.

Tonight's game with Florida Atlantic University got off to a later start than anticipated, thanks to some late afternoon lightning strikes in the area around FAU Stadium. The late start didn't seem to affect the Ram defense as they held the Owls in check early but the Fordham offense couldn't seem to get on track as Fordham fell to FAU, 45-14, on Saturday night.

Senior linebacker Ryan Greenhagen continued his torrid opening to the season recording a game-high 17 tackles, while freshman linebacker James Conway, the reigning Patriot League Rookie of the Week, also finished in double figures with 15 stops, and he recovered a fumble.

Offensively, junior wide receiver Dequece Carter caught three passes for 111 yards and one score.

The Rams trailed by 21, 28-7, when senior quarterback Tim DeMorat hooked up with Carter on a 48-yard scoring pass to make it a 28-14 game with 9:45 left in the fourth. But the Owls scored 17 unanswered points to put the game away.

GAME 4

Fordham 31
Stony Brook 14

Sept. 25, 2021 - Stony Brook, N.Y.

It doesn't matter! That was the sound coming from the Fordham football locker room tonight following the Rams' 31-14 win over Stony Brook University at LaValle Stadium. The cry was in response to the fact that the start of the game was delayed due to a bus breakdown but head coach Joe Conlin and the Rams refused to let it matter.

Senior quarterback Tim DeMorat led the Fordham offense, completing 21 of 33 passes for 280 yards with two of those scores going to junior receiver Dequece Carter.

Defensively, senior linebacker Ryan Greenhagen had his fourth straight double-digit tackle game, making 16 stops, including 2.0 for loss, one sack, and he intercepted a pass.

The Rams got on the board early as Stony Brook fumbled the opening kickoff and it was recovered by Fordham's Alfonzo Dixon IV on the Seawolves' 28. Five plays later, DeMorat found Carter in the corner of the end zone for a 7-0 Fordham lead 1:11 into the game.

After Stony Brook tied the game on the ensuing possession, the rams took the lead for good when DeMorat found Fotis Kokosiolis with a four-yard scoring strike midway through the second.

Fordham increased the lead to 21-7 when the Rams took the second half kickoff and drove 75 yards with DeMorat hooking up with Hamze El-Zayat on an 18-yard scoring pass two minutes into the second half.

GAME 5

Fordham 42
Lafayette 41

October 2, 2021 - Easton, Pa.

Though most of the Fordham football players probably listen more to Lil Baby, they should take a line from the late Jerry Garcia: "What along strange trip it's been." The Rams closed out the first five games of the season with four of those on the road, ranging from Lincoln, Nebraska, to Boca Raton, Florida, with a strange game today at Lafayette. Senior quarterback Tim DeMorat scored with 28 seconds left and the defense held on for a 42-41 Patriot League win over the Leopards in Fisher Stadium.

The game featured the return of Fordham senior running back Trey Sneed, who was seeing is first action of the year. He finished with 147 rushing yards on 23 carries with two touchdowns and he caught one pass for eleven yards. Senior quarterback Tim DeMorat completed 21 of 37 passes for 305 yards and one score with 13 of those passes going to senior wide out Hamze El-Zayat for 166 yards, both career-highs.

The Rams trailed 41-36 with 1:40 remaining after a Lafayette score, but DeMorat and Sneed drove them downfield to the Lafayette two where DeMorat faked a handoff to Sneed and sprinted around the left side for the score that put Fordham up for good.

The Rams wasted little time getting on the board, taking the opening kickoff and driving to the Lafayette four where Trey Sneed took a pitch from DeMorat and carried it around the left side for a 7-0 lead 1:23 into the contest.

GAME 6

Wagner 7
Fordham 56

October 9, 2021 - Jack Coffey Field

On Thursday night former Ram quarterback Michael Nebrich, who is third on the all-time passing touchdowns list, was inducted into the Fordham Athletic Hall of Fame. Today senior Tim DeMorat, Fordham's current quarterback, entered the Wagner game 15 passing scores behind Nebrich and he tried his best to catch up to the Hall of Famer, throwing four touchdown strikes to lead the Rams to a 56-7 Homecoming win over the Seahawks on Jack Coffey Field.

DeMorat completed 19 of 23 passes for 339 yards and the four touchdowns in just 30 minutes of action (he didn't play in the second half) with seven of those passes going to senior wide receiver Fotis Kokosioulis for 101 yards and two scores.

Defensively the Rams were led by freshman linebacker James Conway, who recorded a game-high 12 tackles, including two for loss and he forced a fumble, one of three turnovers forced by Fordham.

Fordham put the game away early, scoring on all six of its first half possessions. Senior running back Trey Sneed put the Rams on the board first with a four-yard rush nine minutes into the game.

On Fordham's next possession, DeMorat threw his first scoring strike to Kokosioulis, a five-yarder, to give the Rams a 14-0 lead with a minute left in the quarter.

|---|---|
| Bucknell | 21 |
| Fordham | 66 |

October 16, 2021 - Jack Coffey Field

Last week, Fordham senior quarterback Tim DeMorat seemed as if he were trying to tie Mike Nebrich on the school's career passing touchdowns list. Today he DID tie a Nebrich record, throwing six scoring strikes to lead Fordham to a 66-21 Patriot League win over Bucknell University on Jack Coffey Field.

DeMorat completed 26 of 36 passes for 318 yards and the six touchdowns in just over two quarters of work. He tied the school mark with the six touchdowns, first set by Kevin Eakin against Rhode Island in 2003 and matched by Nebrich against Penn in 2014.

Junior wide receiver Dequece Carter led all Fordham receivers with ten catches for 87 yards and two touchdowns while senior Fotis Kokosioulis had six receptions for 76 yards and three scores. On the ground, senior Trey Sneed rushed 15 times for 137 yards.

Defensively freshman linebacker James Conway made ten tackles, five solo, including one for loss, while senior Alfonzo Dixon IV finished with eight stops, four solo, including 2.5 tackles for loss, and 2.0 sacks.

Much like last week, the Fordham offense came out firing on all cylinders, scoring a touchdown on its first four possessions to take a 28-7 first quarter lead that grew into a 45-14 advantage at the half.

October 23, 2021 - Jack Coffey Field

About the only thing Fordham's Tim DeMorat didn't do today was to help park cars as they entered campus for the game. The senior quarterback threw for three scores and ran for two more, including the game-winner with 1:45 remaining, to lead the Rams to a 35-28 Patriot League win over Lehigh University to the delight of a sold out Family Weekend crowd on Jack Coffey Field.

DeMorat competed 24-of-40 passes for a career-high 401 yards and three touchdowns and rushed three times for 16 yards and two scores. His favorite receiver today was senior Fotis Kokosioulis, who grabbed ten passes for 157 yards, both career-highs, while junior Dequece Carter caught five passes for 97 yards and one touchdown, and junior Garrett Cody hauled in three for 111 yards and a score.

Defensively, freshman linebacker James Conway made a season-best 21 total tackles, nine solo, and he forced a pair of fumbles, while senior defensive back Jesse Bramble finished with eleven stops, eight solo, and he forced a fumble and broke up a pass.

Trailing 28-14 early in the fourth, the Rams reeled off 21 unanswered points for the win.

November 6, 2021 - Washington, D.C.

For the past five games the Fordham offense has been stealing the headlines, putting up big numbers in leading the Rams to victory. Today the defense reminded Fordham fans there are two sides of the ball, leading the Rams to a 41-20 Patriot League win over Georgetown University on Copper Field.

Senior safety Jesse Bramble led the Fordham defense with six solo tackles to go with in an interception while junior defensive back Stephen Williams II made six solo stops and freshman linebacker James Conway finished with six total tackles, including one for loss.

The offense also kept up its recent success with senior quarterback Tim DeMorat completing 22 of 37 passes for 273 yards and three touchdowns while graduate student running back Zach Davis gained 103 yards on 21 carries with two scores. Senior wide receiver Fotis Kokosioulis led all Fordham receivers with five catches for 95 yards and two touchdowns.

After Georgetown took a 6-0 lead on the first possession of the game, the Rams ran off 41 unanswered points.

November 13, 2021 - Jack Coffey Field

The Fordham offense seemed to be coming alive, taking a 24-17 lead with 3:21 remaining in the first half. Then Mother Nature took over with lightning forcing a over hour delay and when the teams came back out, Hoy Cross seemed to be energized, scoring with 15 seconds left in the half tie the game and then scoring 28 unanswered second half points to defeat the Rams, 52-24, on Jack Coffey Field.

Senior quarterback Tim DeMorat was held in check by Holy Cross, completing 12 of 27 passes for 223 yards and two scores while graduate student running back Zach Davis gained 66 yards on 15 carries with one score.

Freshman linebacker James Conway led the Rams' defense, recording a game-high 16 total tackles, five solo, including 0.5 for loss, while senior Jesse Bramble added eleven stops, five solo.

GAME 11

| Fordham | 31 |
| Colgate | 45 |

November 20, 2021 - Hamilton, N.Y.

A regular season that commenced on a hot August day on Jack Coffey Field ended today on a cold November Day on Crown Field at Andy Kerr Stadium. However, it did not end the way the Rams would have liked as Colgate took advantage of five Fordham turnovers to defeat the Rams, 45-31 in a Patriot League game.

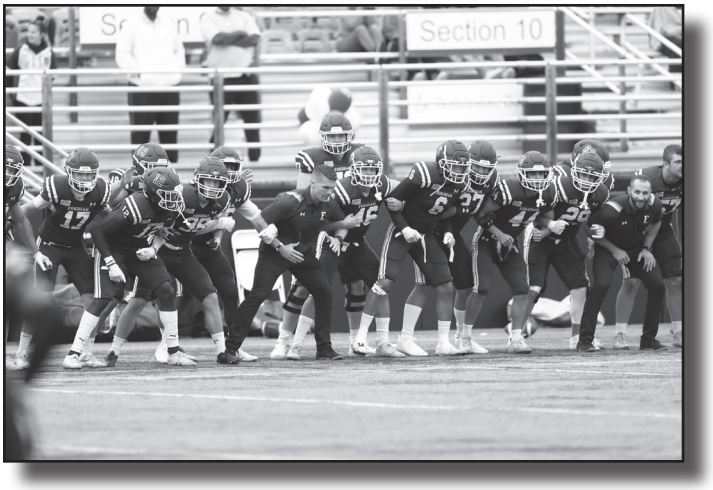

Senior quarterback Tim DeMorat completed 29 of 48 passes for 350 yards and two touchdowns while junior wide receiver MJ Wright caught 13 passes for 119 yards and junior wide out Dequece Carter added six receptions for 127 yards and a score.

Defensively, freshman linebacker James Conway made a game-high 12 tackles, eight solo, including one for loss, while junior linebacker Tyler Cook added nine stops, including a sack.

A Nick Leinenweber field goal gave the Rams a 24-23 lead 4:40 into the second half but Colgate scored late in the third and early in the fourth to take a 38-24 lead.

Zach Davis rushed around the right side on fourth and goal with 5:54 left to make it a seven-point game, 38-31.

The Fordham defense held the Raiders on the ensuing possession but DeMorat was stripped sacked on the Fordham 12 and the Raiders took the turnover to the end zone

FOOTBALL TRADITION

"The Blocks"
The fabled Seven Blocks of Granite are one of the best-known groups of linemen in the history of football. The original group (1929-30) amassed a 15-1-2 record, including 12 shutouts. The more famous of the "Blocks", which included Vince Lombardi, ruled college football for the 1936 and 1937 seasons, piling up a 12-1-3 record and eight shutouts.

Club Football
Today's varsity owes a great deal to the students who revived football on a club level at Rose Hill in the 1960's. The Rams posted a 23-13-1 record during their six club seasons under Jim Lansing, including taking national club titles in 1965 and 1968.

Jack Coffey
Fordham's home field is named after its legendary Director of Athletics, Jack Coffey. Coffey began his duties at Rose Hill as baseball coach and graduate manager of athletics in 1909, and remained at Rose Hill in one capacity or another until retiring in 1958. He amassed 817 wins as a baseball coach and became a popular answer to a baseball trivia question, since he is the only player to play with both Babe Ruth and Ty Cobb in the same season (1917 Red Sox and Tigers).

Consensus All-Americans
The Rams have had 17, the last three being Chase Edmonds (2014, 2015 and 2016), Garrick Mayweather, Jr. (2015) and Stephen Hodge (2015).

Stephen Hodge

The Great Eight
The names of the eight best quarterbacks in Fordham history, Dick Doheny, Roger Franz, Gary Brennan, Joe Moorhead, Mark Carney, Kevin Eakin, John Skelton and Michael Nebrich. Doheny helped guide the Rams to a 5-3 mark in 1949 while leading the nation in passing. Franz followed Doheny by setting most of the Rams' passing standards from 1951-53 until they were broken by Brennan, who helped guide Fordham to Division I-AA from 1989-91. But Brennan's records didn't stand long as Moorhead, believed to be the first left handed quarterback in Fordham history, graduated in 1995 with school records for single game, season and career passing yardage as well as season and career completions. As a senior in 2001, Carney went to work on some of Moorhead's single season records, setting new school marks for most passing yards and touchdowns in a season as well setting a school record for career touchdown passes.

John Skelton

But those marks didn't last long as Eakin took over as the starter in 2002 and immediately broke Carney's records for most passing yards in a season as well as Moorhead's record for most completions in a season as he led the Rams to the 2002 Patriot League title and a spot in the NCAA I-AA Playoffs. In 2003, Eakin continued his attack on the record books, surpassing his own single season records for most completions and passing yards and completing his career as Fordham's all-time leader in passing yards and touchdown passes.

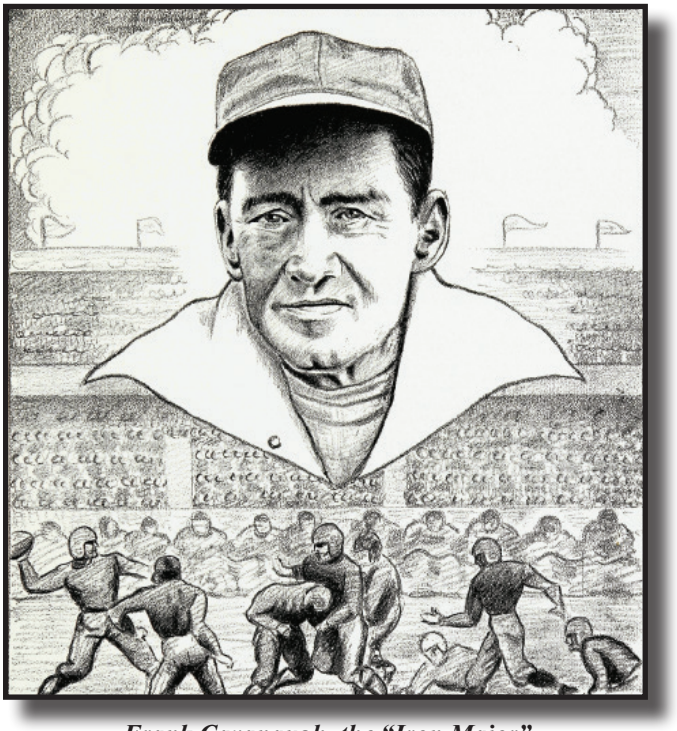

Skelton then came along and broke of all Eakin's records over his four-year career. He completed 802 passes for 9,923 yards and 69 touchdowns, all Fordham records as is his 64.4% career completion percentage. He also holds the single season mark for completions (284 in 2009) and passing yards (3,708 in 2009).

Nebrich shattered all of the single season records in 2013, completing 353 of 480 passes for 4,380 yards and 35 touchdowns. He led the NCAA FCS in pass cmpletion percentage and total offense/game.

Division III Playoffs
Fordham reached the NCAA Division III Eastern Quarterfinals in 1987, crushing favored Hofstra 41-6 in the opening round before losing to Wagner College, eventual national champions, 21-0 a week later.

Goin' Bowlin'
Fordham is the only NCAA FCS institution to have played in at least two of the four major bowl games (Cotton, Orange, Sugar, Rose), competing in the 1941 Cotton Bowl and the 1942 Sugar Bowl. They are also one of just six FCS schools to have made more than one bowl appearance.

"The Iron Major"
Frank Cavanaugh, the legendary "Iron Major", guided the Rams to a 24-14-4 mark in six seasons at the helm. He retired in 1932 due to failing health.

Frank Cavanaugh, the "Iron Major"

The Meadow Trophy
Presented first to the Most Valuable Player of the Fordham-NYU game and later the Homecoming MVP, this award was a Rose Hill mainstay from 1933 until it was retired in 1985. Only three players (Dennis DeMeo, Pierre Davis and Juan Pacheco) won the award twice.

"Much ado About Nothing to Nothing"
The moniker hung on the Rams' three consecutive scoreless ties with the University of Pittsburgh from 1935-37. The two battled for 13 consecutive scoreless quarters before Pitt kicker Bill Daddio hit a field goal in the second quarter of the 1938 game in a game won by the Panthers before a still standing Pitt Stadium record crowd of 68,918.

Alex Wojciechowicz (30) and Ed Franco combine for the stop in a 1939 game

National Rankings
Fordham appeared in each of the first six final national rankings put out by the Associated Press, a record matched only by Duke University. During that six-year period (1936-41), the Rams were ranked in the Top 10 twice, including a number three ranking in 1937, the highest in their history.

The Rams
Fordham's tremendous popularity in the 1930's inspired National Football League owner Homer Marchman to name his fledging franchise after the "boys from the Bronx", thus starting the history of the NFL Cleveland Rams. The Rams first moved to Los Angeles and now reside in Los Angeles.

"Rose Hill to Rose Bowl"
The chant echoed by Rams faithful during the 1936 season. The cheering was silenced following a crushing 7-6 defeat to NYU in the season finale, a loss Hall-of-Famer Vince Lombardi later called the "most devastating of my life".

"Sarausky's Masterpiece"
The nickname given to the Rams' 13-12 win over Rose Bowl-bound Tennessee in 1934. Halfback Tony Sarausky rambled 62 yards with the tying score and then added the extra point early in the fourth quarter to hand Colonel Bob Nayland's Volunteers their only setback of the season.

"Sleepy Jim"
"Sleepy Jim" Crowley, one of the fabled "Four Horsemen of Notre Dame," led Fordham to a 56-13-7 mark from 1933 until 1941, including the Rams' two bowl appearances, the '41 Cotton Bowl and the '42 Sugar Bowl.

Undefeated Season
Fordham has had three, 1886, 1929 and 1937.

The Victory Bell

Situated in front of the Rose Hill Gym is the Fordham Victory Bell, which is traditionally rung after every football victory. The bell was presented to the University by Admiral Chester Nimitz and blessed by his Eminence Francis Cardinal Spellman as a memorial to those who lost their lives during World War II. The bell was taken from the Aircraft Carrier Junyo, which saw action in the battles of Savo New Guinea and The Solomon Islands before being silenced by an aerial bomb at Saipan. It was first rung at Rose Hill by President Harry Truman on May 11, 1946.

A "Wild Geese" Chase
Fordham was involved in only the third I-AA game to take place overseas, taking on Patriot League foe Holy Cross in the Wild Geese Classic on November 16, 1991 in Limerick, Ireland. The Crusaders prevailed 24-19.

1882 — Intercollegiate football becomes a reality as Fordham defeats Seton Hall in its first-ever contest and goes on to record a 6-1 record in its first season.

1883 — The first coach, Dr. John F. Condon, and captain, George W. Wallace, lead Fordham into the 1883 football season and the first recorded touchdown is scored by John J. Downey in a loss to St. Francis Xavier on Nov. 26.

1886 — The Rose Hills enjoy their only undefeated, untied season in their history, posting a 16-0 record vs. primarily area club teams.

1889 — The Rams face the New York Athletic Club during the season and drop a 20-0 decision, marking the first of many games Fordham will play at the Polo Grounds.

1902 — John Mullen races a still-standing school-record 100 yards from scrimmage in a 24-0 win over City College of New York at Rose Hill.

1909 — The Rams post an 11-2-2 mark (.800) as Edward Barrett, Frank McCaffrey and Jim McCarthy become Fordham's first three All-America selections.

1910 — The University decides to drop football and basketball because of financial mismanagement and a concern of violence in football. Football is reinstated for the 1912 season.

1921 — Fordham scores a school-record 101 points in a whitewashing of Washington (Md.) College.

1922 — Fordham suffers its first losing season ever, going 3-5-2 (.400), the first of two straight sub-par seasons for the Rams.

1924 — The Fordham-New York University series moves from the Polo Grounds to Yankee Stadium for the first time as the Rams triumph, 27-0.

1926 — Following a 3-4-1 season, Frank Gargan leaves Fordham as the University's all-time winningest coach, finishing his eight-year career with a 63-29-4 record (.677).

1929 — After consecutive losing seasons under new coach "Iron Major" Frank Cavanaugh, the Rams shock the football world by posting a 7-0-2 mark (.889), recording six shutouts on the season. Unfortunately, the two ties (6-6 vs. Davis & Elkins at the Polo Grounds and 0-0 at West Virginia University) keep the first edition of the "Seven Blocks of Granite" from a first-ever postseason bowl bid.

1930 — The first edition "Blocks" record six shutouts for the second straight year, finishing the season 8-1, the only blemish being a come-from-behind 20-12 victory by St. Mary's (Calif.) College. Jim Murphy and Henry Wisniewski are selected Fordham's first two consensus All-Americans following the season.

1931 — A chance for a second undefeated season in the last three years and a postseason berth goes by the wayside as the Rams drop a 14-13 decision to Bucknell University in the season finale. The game takes an even more somber note when Cornelius "Connie" Murphy dies from injuries suffered in the game. Frank Cavanaugh names the late star captain of the 1932 squad.

1932 — A 6-2 season is the last for Frank Cavanaugh as he is forced to retire due to failing health, the sixth all-time winning coach in University history with a 34-14-4 record (.692). He passes away the following July.

1933 — "Sleepy" Jim Crowley, one of the fabled "Four Horsemen of Notre Dame," replaces Frank Cavanaugh and debuts with a 52-0 triumph over Albright College, eventually finishing the campaign 6-2. Ed Danowski becomes the first Fordham player to earn All-American honors in consecutive years.

Henry Wisniewski, a 1930 All-American and member of the first edition of the "Seven Blocks of Granite".

1934 — The "greatest game" in Fordham football history takes place on Nov. 3, when the Rams top eventual-Rose Bowl Champion Tennessee, 13-12, at the Polo Grounds on Tony Sarausky's "masterpiece," a 62-yard third-quarter run to give the Rams the lead for good.

1935 — The first of three consecutive scoreless ties with the University of Pittsburgh takes place at the Polo Grounds as the Rams' defense holds the Panthers to just 76 total yards and does not allow the visitors past midfield.

1936 — With a 5-0-2 record entering the season finale with New York University at Yankee Stadium, Fordham fans are chanting "Rose Hill to Rose Bowl," but that dream comes to a screeching halt as the Violets hold on for a 7-6 win. The loss is the last for the second, and more famous, version of "The Blocks" and a loss that Vince Lombardi will later call, "The most devastating loss of my life."

1937 — The Rams' last undefeated season (7-0-1) ends with a No. 3 national ranking by the wire services, but they are still denied a postseason bowl bid because of the third scoreless tie with No. 1-ranked Pittsburgh, despite allowing just 16 points, all season. Ed Franco and Alex Wojciechowicz become the Rams' only two-time consensus All-Americans while Al Babartsky also earns consensus All-America honors.

1938 — The final remaining "Blocks," Harry Jacunski and Mike Kochel, lead Fordham to a 6-1-2 campaign with the lone loss coming at Pittsburgh as the 13-quarter stalemate ends with a 24-13 Panthers win. The defense records seven shutouts and allows just 30 points during the season while the rushing offense averages 297.1 yards a game to lead the nation.

1939 — An otherwise ordinary 6-2 season is highlighted by a season-opening 34-7 rout of tiny Waynesburg College at Randalls Island on Sept. 30 in what is the first-ever televised football game. Announcer Bill Stern calls the contest over station W2XBS (now WNBC) as a demonstration of this new medium at the World's Fair.

1940 — Needing a win to capture their first-ever bowl bid heading into the season finale with New York University, the Rams post a 26-0 victory over the Violets as Steve Filipowicz rushes for three touchdowns and passes to Jim Lansing for another. Fordham accepts a bid to the Cotton Bowl to take on Texas A & M and, despite jumping out to a 6-0 lead on Steve Filipowicz' second-quarter six-yard run, fall 13-12 as the Aggies score all 13 points in the third quarter. Jim Blumenstock runs 15 yards in the third quarter for Fordham's second score, but the possible-tying extra point is blocked and the Rams fail to threaten again.

Len Eshmont, Joe Ungerer and Lou DeFilippo cap their careers by being named All-Americans.

1941 — A 7-1 regular-season record gives Fordham its second consecutive bowl bid and the Rams travel to the Sugar Bowl to take on Missouri. The game is played in a steady downpour and the only points come during the first quarter when Alex Santilli blocks a Tigers punt through the end zone for the 2-0 triumph.

The Rams also are invited to play in the Rose Bowl, but have to turn down the trip to Pasadena because of a previous commitment to the people of New Orleans.

The backs: Joseph Andrejco, Claude Pieculewicz, Steve Filipowicz and James Blumenstock. The group is pictured at their last full workout in Bay St. Louis, Miss. prior to the Sugar Bowl.*

1942 — The war takes its toll on the Rams as the University's second all-time winningest coach, Jim Crowley, takes his 56-13-7 record (.783) to coach the Navy pre-flight school in Chapel Hill, N.C. Fordham goes 5-3-1 and graduate manager of athletics Jack Coffey suspends all intercollegiate sports for the duration of the war.

1946 — Football returns with former Rams' All-American Ed Danowski at the helm, but University president Robert Gannon, S.J., announces that the sport will be de-emphasized because of financial concerns and a fear that the University cannot reach its high academic goals. The de-emphasized team goes 0-7 in 1946 and 1-6-1 in 1947.

1950 — After a 5-3 mark in 1949, the Rams grab their last bit of glory with an 8-1 record. Senior quarterback Dick Doheny leads the nation in passing and is named an All-American along with Alan Pfeifer and Tom Mareski.

1952 — Quarterback Roger Franz puts his name in the Fordham record books by completing 105 of 216 passes for 1,887 yards. His main target is Ed Brown, who catches 57 passes for 774 yards and earns All-American status.

Fordham Club Football

From 1964 to 1969, a group of well-organized and adventurous students planted the seeds for Fordham's eventual return to Division I football. During those six seasons, the Rams were a student-run club team, without any backing by the athletic department. The fact that they were able to thrive proved to the administration that football could prosper at the University and led to its eventual return to its present level.

The Rams boasted a 23-13-1 record (.635) during those six seasons and were consistently ranked among the top club teams in the country, leading to the return of the program to varsity status and the Division III level in 1970. Much of where the program is today can be traced to the efforts of these teams, whose yearly records are listed below.

The 1964 Rams

1954 — After a 1-7-1 season and dwindling attendance, University president Lawrence McGinley, S.J., announces that the University has decided to discontinue football, citing a deficit in excess of $200,000.

1964 — Led by student David Langdon, football at Fordham is reinstated at the club level. The Rams are defeated 42-0 at Maine Maritime Academy in their debut, but bounce back to topple New York University, 20-14, on Jack Coffey Field the following week.

1965 — Former All-American Jim Lansing is hired to coach the team and the Rams post a 4-1 record and are selected the No. 1 club team in the country by The Associated Press.

1968 — The Rams finish the season 7-1 and as the top-ranked club team in the country.

The presentation of the 1950 Madow Trophy to Tom Mareski

1970 — In a unanimous vote, the University brings back football at the Division III level and the Rams post a 5-1-2 record against three Division III and five club teams.

1977 — The Rams achieve their first collegiate national ranking since the 1940s when the 8-2 team grabs the top ranking among Division III schools in the East during the regular season. Dave Rice is named Metro Conference Coach of the Year.

1985 — Chip Kron rushes for 272 yards and five touchdowns in a 56-0 win at Georgetown University and is later named Fordham's first All-American since 1952.

Head coach Ed Danowski, pictured with 1949 team captain Herb Seidell, helped Fordham grab the last post-war glory before football was dropped following the 1954 season.

Rick Hollawell was named All-American in 1987 and Liberty Conference Rookie of the Year in 1986.

Aaron Dougherty, 1993 Patriot League Defensive Player of the Year

1986 — The Rams open the season in a new league and with a new coach. With former Harvard University assistant Larry Glueck now at the helm, Fordham begins play in the Liberty Conference along with C.W. Post, Iona College, Pace University, St. John's University and the United States Merchant Marine Academy.

Chip Kron finishes his career as the school's all-time leader in rushing (3,246 yards) and touchdowns scored (26). Rick Hollawell is chosen the Liberty Conference Rookie of the Year.

1987 — The Rams record a 9-1 regular-season mark, win the Liberty Conference Championship and make their first postseason appearance since 1941. Fordham shocks Hofstra, 41-6, in the NCAA Division III Eastern Quarterfinals before losing a 21-0 match to eventual National Champion Wagner in the Eastern Semifinals.

Larry Glueck is named the Liberty Conference Coach of the Year while Marty Mazzara and Rick Hollawell earn All-American honors. Matt Michaels is selected as a GTE Academic All-American.

1988 — The University announces in August it will elevate the program to the Division I-AA level and become a member of the Colonial (now Patriot) League beginning in 1990, joining Bucknell University, Colgate University, College of the Holy Cross, Lafayette College and Lehigh University.

The Rams capture their second straight Liberty Conference Championship, but a 3-0 loss at SUNY-Stony Brook keeps Fordham out of the NCAA playoffs. The Rams accept a bid to the ECAC South title game and suffer a 21-14 defeat to Dickinson College.

1989 — A decision by Davidson College to leave the Colonial League forces the Rams to play a Division I-AA schedule one year earlier than anticipated and they struggle to a 2-6 mark, losing all four games to Division I-AA opponents.

1990 — Fordham struggles through a 1-9 season, losing all five of its Patriot League contests in its first full-time year in the league. Punter Joe Emmons becomes the first Fordham player to earn All-Patriot League First Team honors while linebacker Matt Stover and center Eric Schweiker garner Second Team accolades with Schweiker also becoming the first Division I GTE Academic All-American at the University.

1991 — The Rams play a regular-season game with the College of the Holy Cross in Limerick, Ireland, just the third Division I-AA football game played outside the continental United States. Linebacker Mark Blazejewski is named a Second Team All-American by The Associated Press.

1992 — Fordham wins their first-ever Patriot League contest, downing Bucknell 21-0 on Halloween in Lewisburg, Pa. The Rams' defense finishes third in 1-AA against the run despite a hard-luck 1-9 mark. Blazejewski garners Patriot League co-Defensive Player of the Year honors and an honorable mention All-American slot. Receiver Tom Garlick leaves as Fordham's all-time recordholder in most receiving categories.

1993 — Senior Aaron Dougherty wins the Patriot League Defensive Player of the Year award, and becomes the first player in Patriot League history to be named First Team All-Patriot League at two positions. Dougherty is tabbed at both linebacker and defensive end.

1995 — Fordham posts a 4-6-1 record, their best ever on the I-AA level. The Rams defeat Holy Cross for the first time since 1930 in the 3rd annual Bermuda Bowl, 17-10. Carl Barbera is named Second Team All-American by Don Hansen's Weekly Football Gazette, while Steve Borys is an honorable mention selection. Nick Quartaro wins the Iron Major Award, given to Fordham University's Coach of the Year.

1996 — Despite a 2-8 record, the Rams receive numerous accolades, including Second Team All-American honors by Don Hansen's Weekly Football Gazette for Carl Barbera. Barry Cantrell is named Patriot League Football Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

1997 — Fordham finishes with a 5-6 record, the most wins recorded by the Rams at the I-AA level. The Rams also go 4-2 in the Patriot League for a third place finish, their best ever finish in the league. Senior punter Barry Cantrell is named All-American as he leads the NCAA Div. I-AA in punting with a 45.85 average. Cantrell is also named Patriot League Scholar-Athlete for the sport of football for the second straight year. Cantrell and senior center Cory Bailey sign free agent contracts with the Dallas Cowboys and New York Giants, respectively.

1998 — Quarterback Steve O'Hare and receiver Gerry McDermott combine to set four school records. McDermott sets new Fordham marks for most catches in a season (58), most receiving yards in a season (868) and most receiving touchdowns (13) while O'Hare sets the record for most touchdown passes in a year (19).

1999 — Wide receiver Gerry McDermott closes out his career by setting school records for most receptions (77) and most receiving yards (911) in a season. He finishes his career with the school record for most receiving touchdowns (28).

2000 — Placekicker Brian Colsant sets two school records, most field goals in a season (15) and most field gaols in a career (30). He breaks his own single-season mark of 12, set in 1999, and erases Steve Troutman's (1987-90) career record of 27.

Brian Colsant

2001 — Rams finish the season 7-4, 5-2 in the Patriot League, for their first winning record on the I-AA level. Dave Clawson is named Co-Patriot League Coach of the Year while Kirwin Watson, Javarus Dudley, Mark Manno and Brian Colsant are named First Team All-Patriot League and Maurice Briscoe, Charlie Mull, Mark Carney and Tony Downs are named Second Team. The five Patriot League wins are the most ever by a Fordham squad. Watson becomes the first Fordham running back to go over 1,000 yards rushing on the I-AA level while Dudley is the first Ram receiver to gain more than 1,000 yards in a season.

2002 — Fordham wins its first ever Patriot League championship and advances to the NCAA I-AA Playoffs for the first time in school history. Rams win first round game at Northeastern before falling to Villanova in the quarterfinals. Team finishes season with a 10-3 overall record, 6-1 in the Patriot League. The ten wins is the most on the I-AA level for a Fordham team. Head coach Dave Clawson is named Schutt Sports I-AA National Coach of the Year as well as Patriot League Coach of the Year for the second straight season. Kirwin Watson is named Third Team All-American by the Associated Press, The Sports Network and the Football Gazette. Watson is also named the Patriot League Offensive Player of the Year and First Team All-League. He is joined on the All-League First Team by teammates Javarus Dudley, Kevin Eakin, Matt Fordyce, Dan McGrath and Alemayo Whyte. Earning Second Team honors are Aymen Aboushi, Will Davis, NaQuinton Gainous, Travis Johnson, Keron Lucius, Kevin Oefelein and John San Marco. Watson sets school rushing records with 285 carries for 1,467 yards and 18 touchdowns, while Eakin sets school records with 239 completions for 3,040 yards. Dudley sets a school record with 1,106 receiving yards and ties a school record with 77 catches. Fordyce sets an NCAA I-AA Playoff single game record with five field goals in the win over Northeastern and finishes the year with a school-record 18 three-pointers.

The 2002 Patriot League Champions

2003 — Senior Javarus Dudley is named a consensus First Team All-American, Fordham's first consensus All-American since Jim Lansing in 1941. Dudley leads the NCAA I-AA in receptions with a school- and Patriot League-record 101 for 1,439 yards. He graduates with the Patriot League career records in receptions, receiving yards, all-purpose yards, kickoff returns and kickoff return yardage. Senior running back Kirwin Watson is also named All-American (Second Team) while setting school records for most rushing yards in a season (1,477) and most rushing touchdowns (20). He graduates with the school record for carries (942), rushing yards (4,617) and rushing touchdowns (48). Senior quarterback Kevin Eakin sets school records with 247 completions for 3,072 yards.

Javarus Dudley

He graduates with the Fordham career records for most passing yards (6,112) and touchdowns (45). Freshman kicker Micah Clukey is named Patriot League Freshman of the Year as he sets a school record with 47 PATs on the year. Dudley, Eakin and Watson are all named First Team All-Patriot League along with senior offensive lineman Prince Poitier, senior defensive lineman Colby Khuns, junior defensive lineman Aki Jones and junior defensive back Tad Kornegay. Named Second Team All-League are Clukey, senior punter Stephen Ayers, senior defensive back Will Davis, junior linebacker NaQuinton Gainous, and senior offensive lineman Kevin Oefelein.

2004 — Senior defensive back Tad Kornegay is named a consensus All-American, Fordham's second consensus All-American in as many years. Kornegay is also one of 40 players named to the I-AA.org All-Star Team and is a Second Team Don Hansen's Football Gazette All-American as well as a First Team ECAC All-Star. He leads the Patriot League and is ranked second in the NCAA I-AA in interceptions, averaging 0.73/game.

Tad Kornegay

He also twice sets a Fordham varsity record with three interceptions in a game, picking off three passes against Duquesne and Brown.

Senior center Jared Amatuzzo, sophomore placekicker Micah Clukey and senior linebacker NaQuinton Gainous join Kornegay on the First Team All-Patriot League. Junior tight end James Caffarello, junior punter Anthony DiFino, senior defensive linemen Edward Gordon and Aki Jones, senior wide receiver Steve Porco and senior linebacker Tyrone Thorne each receive Second Team All-League honors. Also, freshman running back Jonte Coven was named the Patriot League Rookie of the Year.

Sophomore quarterback Derric Daniels completes 146 of 304 passes for 1,876 yards and 23 touchdowns. The completions, passing yards and touchdowns are all Fordham records for a first-year player (Daniels missed all of the 2003 season with a thumb injury), while the 23 touchdown passes is the second best single season total in school history.

Jones signs a free agent contract with the Washington Redskins while Gainous (Saskatchewan) and Kornegay (Hamilton) sign free agent contracts with the Canadian Football League. Former Rams Kevin Eakin (New York Jets) and Matt Fordyce (Arizona Cardinals) sign free agent contracts in the NFL while Javarus Dudley signs with the Montreal Alouettes of the CFL.

2005 — Six Rams earn All-Patriot League honors led by placekicker Micah Clukey and punter Anthony Difino, who are each named to the First Team. Running back James Prydatko, defensive lineman Edward Gordon, linebacker Marcus Taylor and offensive lineman Michael Sabatini are named to the Second Team.

Prydatko becomes the second Ram on the NCAA I-AA level to rush for more than 1,000 yards in a season as he finishes with 1,022 yards and five touchdowns.

James Prydatko

2006 — Two Rams earn All-American honors as senior linebacker Marcus Taylor is named First Team All-American by the Football Gazette, who also name him the Northeast Linebacker of the Year, and Third Team All-American by The Sports Network. Junior punter Benjamin Dato is named a Third Team All-American by the Associated Press and Honorable Mention All-American by the Football Gazette. Both are also named ECAC All-Stars and First Team All-Patriot League while Taylor is also named the Patriot League Defensive Player of the Year, the third Fordham player to earn that award.

Taylor led the Rams with 116 total tackles, including a team-high 12 tackles for a loss. He also recorded four quarterback sacks in 2006 and intercepted a team-best three passes while breaking up four others.

Dato finishes the 2006 season as the leading punter in the league, kicking 58 times for 2,587 yards, an average of 44.6 yards/punt. His 44.6 average is the second best single season average in Fordham history (All-American Barry Cantrell averaged 45.8 yards/punt in 1997) and he ranks third in the NCAA Division I Football Championship Subdivision (formerly the NCAA I-AA).

Senior defensive lineman Jay Edwards also earns All-Patriot League honors, being named to the Second Team.

Marcus Taylor

2007 — After being picked to finish sixth in the seven-team league, Fordham wins its second ever Patriot League championship and advances to the NCAA FCS playoffs where the Rams fall to seventh-ranked Massachusetts, 49-35.

Senior punter Ben Dato is a consensus All-American, earning First Team All-American honors from The Sports Network and CollegeSportsReport.com and Second Team accolades from the Associated Press. Dato led the Patriot League and ranked third in the NCAA FCS with a 44.7 yards/punt average. His 44.7 average is the second best single season average in Fordham history (All-American Barry Cantrell averaged 45.8 yards/punt in 1997).

Senior linebacker Earl Hudnell also receives Honorable Mention All-America honors from The Sports Network. Hudnell led the Patriot League and was tied for 36th in the NCAA FCS with 15.5 tackles for loss (1.29/game).

2007 Patriot League Champions

Freshman running back Xavier Martin is named the Patriot League Rookie of the Year, becoming the third Ram to earn such an honor, while head coach Tom Masella is named the league's Coach of the Year. Dato, Hudnell and senior running back Jonte Coven are all named First Team All-Patriot League while Martin, senior center Mike Breznicky, sophomore linebacker James Crockett, junior wide receiver Asa Lucas, junior defensive lineman Ryan Mehra, senior offensive guard Mike Nardone, senior cornerback Sam Orah, senior linebacker Dominique Owens and sophomore quarterback John Skelton were named to the Second Team.

Ben Dato

2008 — Five Rams earn All-Patriot League honors as seniors Matt Loucks (DB) and Greg DeMarco (DL) are named to the First Team and seniors Ryan Mehra (DL) and Justin Sarabaez (OL) along with junior James Crockett (LB) are named to the Second Team. Junior quarterback John Skelton becomes Fordham's all-time passing yards leader, throwing for 2,605 yards to bring his career total to 6,215 yards, breaking Kevin Eakin's all-time record of 6,112 passing yards. He also tied Joe Moorhead's mark for career completions with 518 and finished the year two scoring passes shy of tying Eakin's career record for touchdown passes (45). Sophomore running back Xavier Martin becomes the sixth Ram to rush for more than 1,000 yards in a season (the third on the NCAA FCS level), closing out the year with 1,237 yards, the fourth best single season total in school history.

Academically, 20 players are named to the Patriot League Commissioner's Honor Roll, the most Rams to achieve the academic honor since Fordham joined the league. Seniors Adam Danko and Matt Loucks are named to the 2009 National Football Foundation & College Hall of Fame (NFF) Hampshire Honor Society.

The biggest news comes in June when Fordham announces that it will again start to award football scholarships, beginning with the freshman class that will enter in the fall of 2010.

Matt Loucks

2009 — Eight members were honored by being named All-Patriot League in voting by the League's seven head coaches. Being placed on the first team were senior wide receiver Jason Caldwell, freshman punter Patrick Murray, junior tight end Stephen Skelton and senior offensive lineman Andrew Tyshovnytsky. Receiving second team accolades were senior quarterback John Skelton, junior defensive lineman Jordan Bledsoe, senior defensive back Kelvin Colbert, who led the NCAA FCS in passes defended, and junior linebacker Nick Magiera.

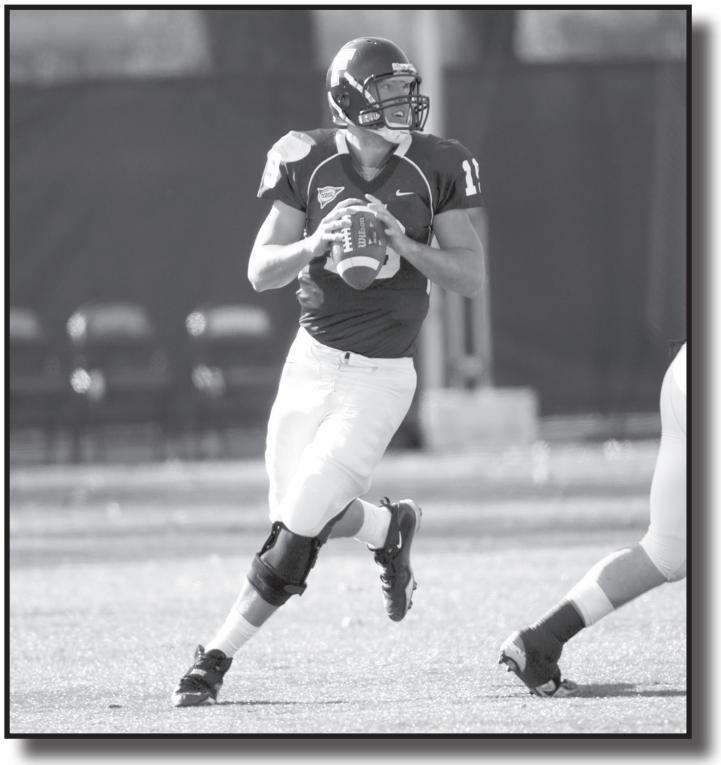

Caldwell was furthered honored by being named Championship Subdivision (FCS) Honorable Mention All-America by the College Sporting News as well as Second Team FCS All-America by The Sports Network and Third Team Associated Press FCS All-America.

Caldwell turned in one of the most productive season for a Fordham wide receiver last fall, catching 79 passes for 1,252 yards and nine touchdowns. The 79 receptions and 1,252 receiving yards are both the second best single season total in school history while his nine touchdown catches ties him for third. Caldwell leads the Patriot League in receptions per game (7.2) and receiving yards/game (113.8). He finished second in the NCAA FCS in total receiving yards, third in receiving yards/game, tied for tenth in the in receptions/game and 27th in all-purpose yards/game.

Jason Caldwell

John Skelton wrapped up a record-shattering career for the Rams this fall, closing out the year completing 284 of 441 passes (64.4%) for 3,708 yards and 26 touchdowns. He set new school marks for completions and passing yards, breaking Kevin Eakin's former school records of 247 completions for 3,072 yards set in 2003 as well as breaking Steve

O'Hare's completion percentage record of 63.1% set in 1997. Skelton led the NCAA FCS in passing yards/game (337.09) and total passing yards (3,708), was ranked second in total offense (348.18 yards/game), third in completions per game (25.82) and 14th in passing efficiency (149.95).

Skelton threw for over 300 yards eight times in eleven games in 2009, including four 400-yard games. He completed 20 of 27 passes for 420 yards and five touchdowns against Cornell, breaking the school record of 413 passing yards set by Joe Moorhead in 1995 and coming up one shy of the school record for scoring passes of six, set by Kevin Eakin in 2003. Skelton then broke his own record two weeks later, completing 43 of 67 passes for 427 yards, all school records, against Holy Cross.

For his accomplishments, Skelton was invited to play in the prestigious East-West Shrine Game on January 23, 2010, at the Florida Citrus Bowl in Orlando, becoming just the third player out of the Patriot League to appear in the game.

Over his career, Skelton completed 802 passes for 9,923 yards and 69 touchdowns, all school marks. He shattered Joe Moorhead's career completions record of 518 while also surpassing Eakin's career marks for passing yards (6,112) and touchdowns (45).

The Fordham offense finished the season setting a school record for most total offense in a season whie leading the NCAA FCS in total offense (488.82 yards/game) and ranking second in passing offense

Jamal Haruna

In the spring, John Skelton become the first Ram since 1968 to be drafted as he is taken in the fifth round of the NFL draft by the Arizona Cardinals. Andrew Tyshovnytsky also signs a free agent contract with the Indianapolis Colts.

Academically, 23 student-athletes were named to the Patriot League Academic Honor Roll.

Isa Abdul-Quddus

2010 — The season marked the first in which Fordham had scholarship players on the roster since 1954 but it was the upperclassmen who led the way, specifically tight end Stephen Skelton, defensive back Isa Abdul Quddus and wide receiver Jason Caldwell.

Skelton and Abdul-Quddus were able to show their talents to the NFL scouts at the annual Texas vs. The Nation All-Star Game in the Alamodome in San Antonio, Texas, in January. Skelton played for Texas, his native state, for head coach Bill Bates, a former Dallas Cowboy, while Abdul Quddus played for The Nation, under former NFL head coach Jerry Glanville. They were the only two players from the Patriot League that appeared in the game.

Skelton completed his senior year at Fordham as one of the most prolific tight ends in school history. He caught 42 passes or 443 yards (10.5 yards/reception) and three touchdowns, all second best on the team.

Over his career, Skelton recorded 127 receptions for 1,313 yards and ten touchdowns, all career-highs for a Fordham tight end. He is seventh on the school's all-time receptions list and tied for eighth in career touchdown receptions.

Abdul Quddus, who was named Second Team Preseason All-Patriot League by Phil Steele's College Football Preview, closed out his Fordham career leading the 2010 squad with 78 tackles, 56 of those solo, and he recorded six pass breakups and forced three fumbles. He tied for the Patriot League lead in forced fumbles/game (0.27) and was eleventh in the League in tackles/game (7.1).

Caldwell, who was named a 2010 First Team Preseason NCAA FCS All-America by both the The Sports Network and Phil Steele's College Football Preview, wrapped up his career leading all Fordham receivers for the second straight year with 71 catches for 910 yards and three touchdowns. He led the Patriot League in receptions/game was second in receiving yards/game and third in all-purpose yards/game. Caldwell was tied for 12th in the NCAA FCS in receptions/game, 23rd in the receiving yards/game and 49th for all-purpose yards/game.

Academically, 38 student-athletes were named to the Patriot League Academic Honor Roll, the most for any league school and the most in Fordham history, while senior defenive back Jamal Haruna and sophomore kicker Patrick Murray were both named ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District I. Additionally, Jamal and his brother, Ahmed, were named to the 2011 National Football Foundation & College Hall of Fame (NFF) Hampshire Honor Society.

2011 — Junior punter Patrick Murray was honored by numerous All-America organizations, being named Third Team All-America by both the Associated Press and The Sports Network as well as being named the NCAA FCS Punt Performer of the Year by the College Football Performance Awards (CFPA). He also added another All-America honor to his resume, being named Second Team All-America by the Beyond Sports College Network. He became the first Fordham football All-American since Jason Caldwell in 2009.

Following the season, Joe Moorhead was named Fordham's new head coach.

Patrick Murray

Head coach Joe Moorhead

2012 — Senior plackekicker Patrick Murray earned consensus All-America honors for the second straight year and was the recipient of the 2012 Fred Mitchell Award as the top non-NCAA FBS placekicker in the nation and a prestigious NCAA postgraduate scholarship. Murray led the NCAA FCS with 25 field goals, a Fordham and Patriot League record. He was one of eight Rams to earn All-Patriot accolades, being named First Team All-League at both placekicker and punter.

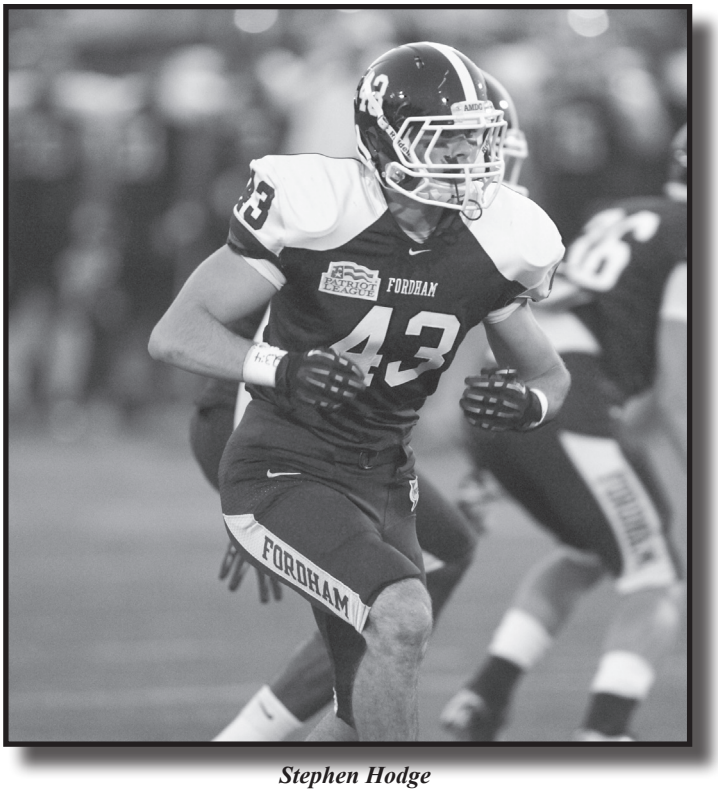

Head coach Joe Moorhead was named a finalist for the Eddie Robinson Award as the NCAA FCS Coach of the Year after the Rams finished the season with a 6-5 record after going 1-10 in 2011. The five-game improvement ranked Fordham second among all NCAA FCS.

Academically, Murray and Brendan Melanophy both earned Capital One Academic All-District honors while Murray, Melanophy and Nick Womack were named to the National Football Foundation & College Hall of Fame NFF Hampshire Honor Society. Melanophy was also named Academic All-Patriot League.

Following the season, five Rams were invited to NFL rookie free agent camps, the most of any Patriot League school: Patrick Murray (Chicago Bears), Brendan Melanophy (New York Jets), Greg Wilson (San Francisco 49ers) and Lloyd Morrison and Stephen George (Tampa Bay Buccaneers).

2013 — The Rams turn in one of the most successful seasons in school history, going 12-2 and advancing to the second round of the NCAA FCS Championship for just the second time in school history.

Head coach Joe Moorhead was an Eddie Robinson Award finalist as the NCAA FCS Coach of the Year, as well as being named AFCA Regional Co-Coach of the Year and Patriot League Coach of the Year and a Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year finalist. He led the Rams to unprecedented success in 2013, winning the first ten games of the year for the first time in school history and being ranked as high as fifth in the NCAA FCS polls, Fordham's highest ever ranking on the FCS level. The Rams set a school record for most wins in a season in the modern era (since 1920) and accomplished a plethora of firsts, including the first win over an NCAA FBS team (Temple), the first win over a top-ten ranked NCAA FCS team on Jack Coffey Field (Villanova) and the school's first ever home NCAA FCS championship win on Jack Coffey Field (Sacred Heart).

Stephen Hodge

The Fordham offense led the NCAA FCS in pass completion percentage (70.6%), was third in passing offense (360.9 yards/game) and total first downs (364), and seventh in total offense (515.3 yards/game).

Individually, four Rams earned All-America honors (Sam Ajala, Stephen Hodge, Mike Nebrich and Dan Light) and four were named to te ECAC All-Star team (Ajala, Hodge, Nebrich and Light). In the Patriot League, Nebrich and Hodge were named Offensive and Defensive Players of the Year, respectively, while Ajala (WR), Carlton Koonce (RB), Light (TE), Mason Halter (OL), Tom Fisher (OL), Brett Biestek (DL), DeAndre Slate (DL), Ian Williams (DB) and Michael Marando (PK) joined them on the All-Patriot League First Team. Being placed on the Second Team are Tebucky Jones. Jr. (WR), Brian Wetzel (WR and RS), Austin Hancock (LB), Jordan Chapman (DB), Levon Williams (DB) and Joe Pavlik (P).

Academically, Biestek was named First Team Academic All-America® and was one of two NCAA FCS players chosen as a recipient of the 13th Division I Football Championship Subdivision Athletics Directors Association (FCS ADA) Scholar-Athletes of the Year and a $5,000 postgraduate scholarship. Biestek, Hodge and Light were also named Academic All-Patriot League.

2014 - It was another record-setting year for the Rams, led by freshman running back Chase Edmonds who won the 2014 Jerry Rice Award as the top NCAA FCS freshman along with All-America and Patriot League Rookie of the Year honors. Fordham had seven other players earn All-America honors and set a Patriot League record with 19 All-League selections, including a league-record 15 first team selections, led by quarterback Mike Nebrich who earned Patriot League Offensive Player of the Year honors for the second consecutive season.

The Rams swept through Patriot League play, finishing with a perfect 6-0 record to take home a third league title. Fordham was the first school since 2003 to go through the league schedule 6-0. The Rams hosted and won their second straight NCAA FCS Championship game, advancing to the second round for the third time overall. Fordham finished eleventh in the final NCAA FCS rankings.

Academically, Brett Biestek (First Team) and Dan Light (Second Team) both earned Capital One Academic All-America® accolades and both were also named Academic All-Patriot League with Biestek selected as the Patriot League Football Scholar Athlete of the Year for football. Additionally, 35 Rams were named to the Patriot League Academic Honor Roll, the second most of any league school.

2015 - The Rams made their third straight NCAA FCS Championship appearance, earning an at-large berth.

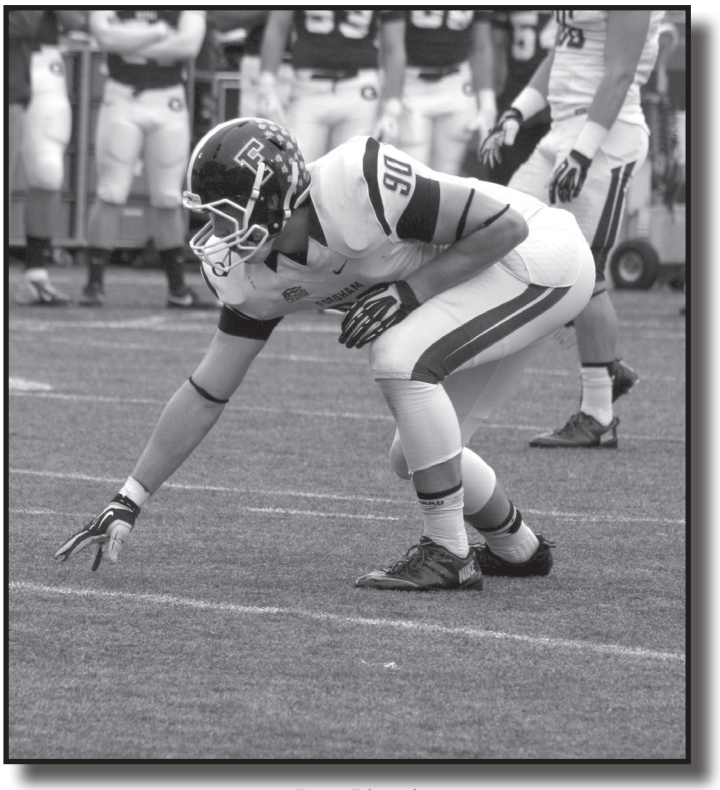

It was another great season for Chase Edmonds who was named the Patriot League and ECAC Offensive Player of the Year. Edmonds was joined by Garrick Mayweather, Jr. (OL) and Stephen Hodge (LB) in earning consensus All-America honors.

Joining Edmonds, Hodge and Mayweather on the All-Patriot League First Team were defensive back Jihaad Pretlow and placekicker Makay Redd. Picking up Second Team accolades were defensive back JQ Bowers, offensive lineman Anthony Coyle, tight end Phazahn Odom and linebacker Niko Thorpe, while Pretlow was also named to the second team as a return specialist.

2016 - Following the season, junior running back Chase Edmonds earned consensus first team All-American honors and finished fourth in voting for the Walter Payten Award, presented to the NCAA FCS offensive player of the year. On the season, he rushed 257 times for 1,799 yards and 19 touchdowns. A first team All-Patriot League pick, he led the NCAA FCS in rushing yards/game (163.5) and was second in total rushing yards and all-purpose yards per game (194.6) as well as ranking third in rushing touchdowns. The 1,799 yards gained in 2016 was just 39 shy of Edmonds' school single season record set in 2014.

Against Lafayette on October Edmonds rushed for a school and Patriot League record 359 yards and scored four touchdowns. What made that day ever more remarkable was that he gained the 359 yards (the most by an NCAA Division I player last year) on just 17 carries, averaging 21.1 yards per carry, setting an NCAA FCS record for most yards gained per rush in a game. The former mark was 19.07 set by VMI's Gene Brown in 1988.

As a team, Fordham ranked fourth in the NCAA FCS in scoring offense (40.1 points/game) and total offense (498.2 yards/game), was seventh in turnover margin (1.18), 12th in rushing offense (229.7) and 14th in passing offense (268.5).

Joining Edmonds in receiving first team All-Patriot League honors were junior offensive lineman Anthony Coyle, senior defensive lineman Justin Vaughn and junior defensive back Caleb Ham while the Rams placed six players on the All-Patriot League second team: senior defensive back Jihaad Pretlow (who earned second team honors at both defensive back and return specialist), senior quarterback Kevin Anderson, sophomore tight end Isaiah Searight, sophomore wide receiver Austin Longi, junior offensive lineman Ben Hartman, and senior linebacker George Dawson.

Edmonds, Coyle, Ham and Vaughn were all also named to the ECAC All-Star Team.

In May, Vaughn was selected in the Canadian Football League draft by the Hamilton Tiger Cats while senior tight end Phazahn Odom signed a free agent contract with the Pittsburgh Steelers.

2017 - In a season filled with injuries to key players, the Rams closed out the season strong, winning three of their last four games.

Following the season, eight Rams earned All-Patriot League honors, highlighted by senior offensive lineman Anthony Coyle, junior wide receiver Austin Longi and junior defensive back Dylan Mabin, who were each named to the first team, while senior running back Chase Edmonds, junior tight end Isaiah Searight, senior offensive lineman Ben Hartman, junior defensive back Antonio Jackson and freshman linebacker Glenn Cunningham were each placed on the second team. Additionally, Cunningham was named a Freshman All-American while Coyle and Mabin were each named All-ECAC.

Academically, senior Jonathan Dimon was named Academic All-Patriot League and first team CoSIDA Academic All-District while Dimon, Vincent Sansone, and Clayton Welch were named to the National Football Foundation's Hampshire Honor Society. Additionally, 39 football student-athletes were named to the Patriot League Academic Honor Roll, the second most of all Patriot League football teams.

Edmonds closed out his career with 5,862 career rushing yards along with 74 career touchdowns and 67 career rushing touchdown, all school and Patriot League records. His 5,862 career rushing yards is fifth best in NCAA FCS history while his 67 career rushing touchdowns is fourth best and his career rushing yards/game average of 133.2 is 14th best. He also amassed 7,374 career all-purpose yards, a school and Patriot League career record, tenth best in NCAA FCS history.

In May, Edmonds was selected in the fourth round of the NFL Draft by the Arizona Cardinals, the highest Fordham pick in the draft since 1943, while Coyle signed a free agent contract with the Houston Texans. The football squad was one of nine Fordham teams to be honored for having an APR score in the top 10 percent of all NCAA football programs.

2018 - Seven members of the 2018 Fordham University football team were recognized with All-Patriot League honors, including senior tight end Isaiah Searight, senior wide receiver Austin Longi, senior defensive back Dylan Mabin, and sophomore linebacker Glenn Cunningham, who were all named to the first team. Joining the four first team selections were three-second team picks: freshman linebacker Ryan Greenhagen, sophomore placekicker Andrew Mevis, and sophomore offensive lineman Nick Zakelj.

Academically, senior defensive back Bryce Petty was named Google Cloud Academic All-District as well as Academic All-Patriot League, being joined on the Patriot League team by Longi while Petty, Longi, and senior Jalen Ollie were named to the National Football Foundation's Hampshire Honor Society. Additionally, 35 football student-athletes were named to the Patriot League Academic Honor Roll, the third most of all Patriot League football teams.

The football squad was one of eight Fordham teams to be honored for having an APR score in the top 10 percent of all NCAA football programs.

Joining the six first team selections were three second team picks: sophomore offensive lineman Phil Saleh, junior running back Trey Sneed, and junior defensive lineman Ellis Taylor.

Academically, Cunningham, Greenhagen, and Zakelj were named Academic All-League with Zakelj also being named CoSIDA Academic All-District.

2020-2021: The Rams played a three-game spring schedule due to COVID, and finished with a 2-1 mark. Junior quarterback Tim DeMorat and junior linebacker Ryan Greenhagen were named Patriot League Offensive and Defensive Players of the Year, respectively.

Academically, Cunningham, Greenhagen, and Zakelj were named Academic All-League for the second straight season with all three also being named CoSIDA Academic All-District. Greenhagen would go one to be named a CoSDIA Academic All-American.

Texas A & M 13 January 1, 1941
Fordham 12 Dallas, Texas

The Aggies score two touchdowns in the first five minutes of the third quarter to come from behind and nip the underdog Rams before 47,000 in Dallas. Fordham takes a 6-0 lead late in the second quarter on a Steve Filipowicz one-yard run, but Steve Hudacek's extra-point attempt is blocked. A & M knots the score on the second play of the third quarter when Marion Pugh hits Earl "Alabama" Smith with a 62-yard touchdown pass. The game turns on the next series when Derace Moser's punt is downed at the Fordham four-yard line and the Rams are unable to pick up the first down. Fordham's Jim Blumenstock is forced to punt out of his own end zone and Moser takes the kick at midfield and returns it to the Rams' 25-yard line. On the play, the Rams are assessed an elbowing penalty, giving the Aggies a first down at the one-yard line. Jamie Kimbrough goes over from the one and the game's only conversion gives Texas A & M a 13-6 lead. Before the quarter ends, Fordham's Alex Santilli recovers an Aggies fumble and the Rams trek 43 yards in eight plays with Blumenstock carrying the final 15 for the score. The conversion attempt is deflected by Kimbrough, hits the cross bar and falls back, leaving the Rams trailing by one with a quarter left to play. The Aggies' defense stiffens and Fordham never seriously threatens again.

1942 Sugar Bowl

Fordham 2 January 1, 1942
Missouri 0 New Orleans, La.

Making their second consecutive bowl appearance, the Fordham Rams collect their first-ever postseason victory with a 2-0 triumph over the Missouri Tigers in a game played in a steady rain before a crowd of 73,000 at Tulane Stadium. Alex Santilli provides the game's only points when he blocks Don Greenwood's punt out of the end zone in the first quarter. The Tigers threaten only once in the game, reaching the Fordham 23-yard line with less than three minutes remaining. However, the Rams' defense holds and a 45-yard field-goal attempt by Missouri's Bob Steuber into a strong wind falls short of the cross bar. Needing to run out the clock to secure the victory, the Rams are able to pick up two critical first downs and ensure their first major bowl victory.

1987 Division III Eastern Quarterfinals

Fordham 41 November 21, 1987
Hofstra 6 Hempstead, N.Y.

Making their first postseason appearance in 45 years, the Rams shock the heavily favored Flying Dutchmen. Fordham races to a 20-0 first-quarter advantage and cruises to the win, allowing Hofstra just one score, that coming on a 58-yard run in the second quarter. Eddie Pearson puts the Rams on top in the first quarter with a 36-yard run. Already leading 7-0, Fordham scores twice more during that opening frame, first on a 12-yard run by Dave Olsakowski and then on a 67-yard run by Rick Hollawell. Pearson scores his second touchdown of the game on a second-quarter one-yard run to put the Rams ahead 26-0. He adds a third touchdown to close out the game's scoring with a two-yard run in the fourth quarter and finishes the game with 135 yards rushing. The final Rams' score comes on a 12-yard third-quarter run from Hollawell, who finishes the game as its leading rusher with 181 yards on 26 carries.

1987 Division III Eastern Semifinals

Wagner 21 November 28, 1987
Fordham 0 Bronx, N.Y.

One week after the upset win at Hofstra, the underdog Rams host their first postseason championship game as they square off against the Wagner Seahawks in search of their 11th win of the season and first-ever berth in the Eastern Championship game. All hope quickly fades when Seahawks quarterback Greg Kovar runs over from two yards out for the only score the eventual National Champions will need in advancing with the 21-0 win over the Rams. A pair of third-quarter touchdowns puts Wagner ahead to stay and the Seahawks' defense inflicts the first shutout on the Rams since they were blanked by Hofstra in 1983, 14-0. With the loss, the Rams closed out the season with a 10-2 record, the most successful season in Rams history since the 1918 squad posted a 10-2-1 mark under coach Edward Siskind, his only season at the helm.

1988 ECAC South Championship

Dickinson 21 November 19, 1988
Fordham 14 Bronx, N.Y.

The Rams celebrate their second consecutive Liberty Conference championship with their first back-to-back postseason berths since 1940-41 as they host the Dickinson Red Devils in the ECAC South Championship game. Sporting a 9-1 overall record, Fordham enters the game boasting a 5-0 mark at home. The Red Devils grab the early lead, but Fordham battles back to tie the game on the strength of an 83-yard touchdown run by Rodney Knight in the first quarter. Following a second-quarter Dickinson score, the Rams are able to block the extra-point attempt and then grab a lead of their own when Jim Hock nabs a tipped Dave Olsakowski pass and carries it 52 yards to tie the score. Steve Troutman's extra point gives Fordham its only lead of the game, 14-13. The Red Devils regain the lead on a nine-yard pass play and add the two-point conversion with just 36 seconds left in the half. The second half turns into a defensive struggle as neither team matches its first-half scoring output and Dickinson captures the ECAC South title.

NCAA DIVISION I-AA PLAYOFFS

FORDHAM 29, NORTHEASTERN 24
November 30, 2002
I-AA PLAYOFFS- FIRST ROUND
Parsons Field, Brookline, Mass.

Senior kicker Matt Fordyce's outstanding season was recognized by the Patriot League coaches as he was named First Team All-Patriot League as a punter and placekicker, the first person to do so in Patriot League history. At Northeastern, Fordyce displayed his skills on the national level as he kicked an NCAA Division I-AA playoff record five field goals to lead Fordham University to a 29-24 win over Northeastern University in a first round game of the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs on Parsons Field.

Fordyce's five field goals broke the old NCAA I-AA playoff mark of four set by three different players, most recently by Shonz LaFrenz of McNeese State in 1998. The five field goals was also a Fordham school record and a Patriot League record.

The Rams got on the board early, taking the opening kickoff and driving to their own 48 where on second down and ten, Eakin hit Peter Modelski with a screen pass which Modelski turned into a 58-yard touchdown pass to put the Rams up 7-0 2:03 into the contest.

The Fordham defense held the Huskies to three plays on their possession and the Rams took over on the Northeastern 45 following a 13-yard punt return from Dan McGrath. Three straight completions by Eakin moved the ball to the Northeastern 13. Watson gained four yards on the first down play but Eakin was then sacked back to the Huskies 18. After an incompletion, Fordyce came on to boot a 35-yard field goal to give Fordham a 10-0 lead with 7:52 left in the first.

The 10-0 lead would hold until early in the second quarter when the Huskies' Tim Gale burst through the line and went 43 yards for a touchdown to cut the Rams' lead to three, 10-7, with 12:37 remaining.

The Rams came right back, taking the ensuing kickoff and moving from their own 31 to the Northeastern 28, where the drive stalled. Fordyce capped the drive with a 45-yard field goal, a Patriot League playoff record, and a 13-7 Fordham lead.

Late in the half, Fordyce would kick a 23-yard field goal with 14 seconds remaining to give Fordham a 16-7 halftime lead.

Northeastern took the second half kickoff and marched 50 yards on 13 plays to the Fordham 17 where Miro Kesic connected on a 34-yard field goal to cut Fordham's lead to 16-10 with 8:53 left in the third.

A holding call on the ensuing kickoff forced the Rams to start their next drive on their own 15. But on the first play from scrimmage, Eakin found Conroy down the right side with a 73-yard pass, placing the ball on the Huskies 12. Three plays later, Fordyce came on and kicked a 25-yard field goal for a 19-10 Fordham lead with 7:13 remaining in the third.

Northeastern responded with a touchdown pass from Shawn Brady to Cory Parks to cut Fordham's lead to two, 19-17, with 6:20 left in the third.

In the fourth quarter, Fordham took possession of the ball on their own 31 following a punt and marched 69 yards on seven plays. The big play of the drive was a fourth and two call from the Northeastern 32. Eakin faked a handoff to Watson going to the right and rolled out to his left, running for the two yards and the first down. On the next play Watson covered the final 30 yards to put the Rams up 26-17 with 8:52 remaining.

The Fordham defense then got into the act as Anthony Riley fumbled a punt return to give Fordham the ball on Northeastern 24. Four plays later, Fordyce connected on his record fifth field goal, a 42-yarder, to give the Rams a 29-17 lead with 2:50 left in the game.

Northeastern managed to drive 70 yards on 12 plays on their next possession with Gale scoring from a yard out with 52 seconds left to make it a 29-24 game, but the Rams recovered the ensuing onside kick and ran out the clock for their first I-AA playoff win.

VILLANOVA 24, FORDHAM 10
December 7, 2002
I-AA PLAYOFFS - QUARTERFINALS
Villanova Stadium, Villanova, Pa.

Brett Gordon completed 26 of 30 passes for 219 yards and two touchdowns while Terry Butler carried 19 times for 81 yards and a touchdown to lead Villanova University to a 24-10 win over Fordham University in the quarterfinals of the NCAA I-AA playoffs at Villanova Stadium.

The loss ended Fordham's best season in 60 years. The Rams, the 2002 Patriot League co-champions, won the most ever games on the I-AA level and advanced to the I-AA playoffs for the first time since moving to I-AA in 1989.

The Rams trailed 17-3 in the fourth quarter when Chris Anzano blocked a Villanova punt, which was picked up by Adam Foley on the Villanova 12 and returned to the one. Two plays later, Kirwin Watson scampered around the right side for the score to pull the Rams to within a touchdown, 17-10, with 9:49 remaining.

The Wildcats took the ensuing kickoff and drove 76 yards on 13 plays with Gordon finding Butler with an eight-yard pass as Villanova regained a 14-point lead, 24-10, with 3:29 left. More importantly, the drive took 6:20 off the clock and didn't allow the Rams a chance to mount a comeback. The big play on the drive was a fourth and one carry for Butler from the Fordham 26 that gained three yards and kept the drive alive.

Villanova took the opening kickoff and drove to the Fordham 10 where Adam James kicked a 27-yard field goal to put the Wildcats up 3-0 with 8:32 left in the first.

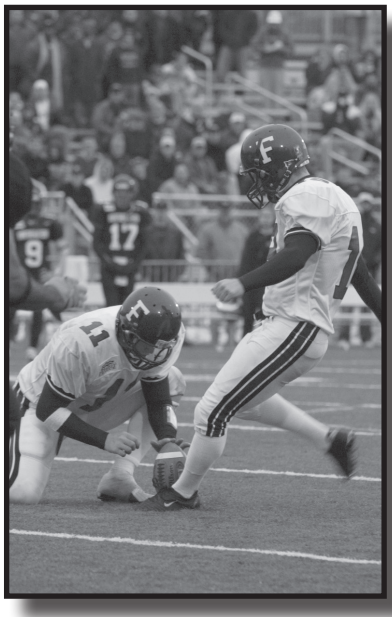

The Wildcats would extend the lead to 10-0 on a trick play as Gordon hit Brian White in the flats and White pitched the ball to Martin Gibson who took it in from the Fordham 25.

The 10-0 lead would hold until the third when the Rams would drive 66 yards on 11 plays to the Villanova 14 where Matt Fordyce connected on a 31-yard field goal to cut Fordham's deficit to seven, 10-3, with 7:17 remaining in the third.

Villanova responded with a 66-yard, 13-play drive of its own with Butler taking it in from the four for a 17-3 Wildcat lead with 38 seconds left in the third.

Eakin finished the day completing 16 of 30 passes for 115 yards while Watson carried 15 times for 54 yards and the touchdown. Travis Johnson led the Fordham receivers with four catches for 47 yards while Steve Porco made three catches for 24 yards.

Dan McGrath led the Fordham defense, which held the Wildcats to ten points under their season average, with eleven total tackles, ten solo, while Na-Quinton Gainous also made 11 stops, nine solo, including a sack.

MASSACHUSETTS 49, FORDHAM 35
November 24, 2007
NCAA FCS PLAYOFFS- FIRST ROUND
McGuirk Stadium, Amherst, Mass.

As the Fordham Rams were leaving the field following their 49-35 NCAA Division I Championship loss to Massachusetts, the sense of sadness was quickly being replaced by a sense of accomplishment and optimism.

The sense of accomplishment came as the players and staff started to look back at the amazing season and how they were able to accomplish all their goals and how they managed to come close to knocking off the seventh-ranked team in the country.

The optimism came from the fact that this is a young Fordham squad; a team will return eight of its eleven starters on each side of the ball.

Today on UMass' McGuirk Stadium, the Ram offense gave the Minutemen defense, a defense that entered the game ranked eighth in the NCAA FCS in total defense (287.0 yards/game) and eleventh in scoring defense (16.36 points per game), everything they could handle before coming up short in the end.

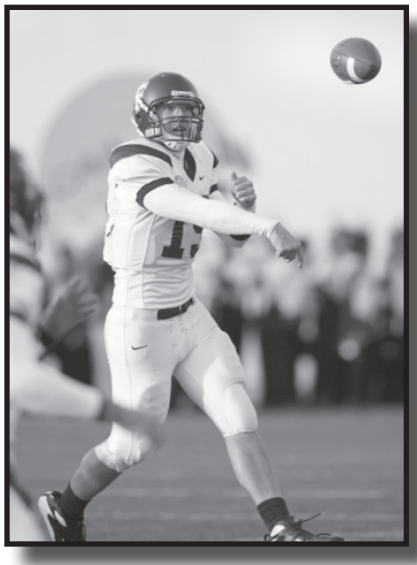

The offense was led by sophomore quarterback John Skelton, who had a hand in all five Fordham scores, throwing for three touchdowns and rushing for two others, setting a Patriot League playoff game record, surpassing the four by Colgate's Chris Brown in 2003. He completed 24 of 46 passes for 281 yards on the day, his second straight 200-yard day and his seventh of the season.

The Rams trailed by seven at the half, 28-21, but took the second half kickoff and drove 69 yards on six plays with Skelton hooking up with Richard Rayborn with a 19-yard scoring pass to knot the game 2:30 into the half. Skelton completed all four passes on the drive for 63 yards.

The Minutemen answered with an 80-yard drive, taking a 35-28 lead with 9:05 left in the third when Chris Zardas took a short pass from Liam Coen and turned it into a 33-yard touchdown.

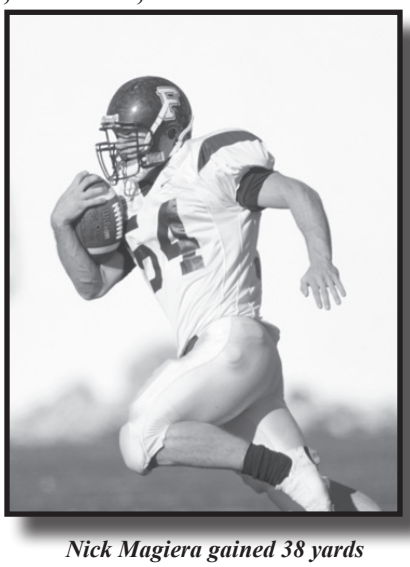

Massachusetts threatened to take a 14-point lead on its next possession, driving down to the Fordham two where a Coen pass was tipped in the end zone and intercepted by Fordham's James Crockett. Skelton then drove the Rams downfield, completing four of five passes to put the ball down on the Massachusetts 16. After Jonte Coven picked up five yards on a rush, Skelton was flushed out of the pocket but as he scrambled he found Sylvester Clarke in the end zone to tie the game at 35 with 11:59 left.

Once again, the Minutemen responded with a scoring drive of their own, moving 83 yards on nine plays, with Matt Lawrence scoring on a 13-yard rush to put Massachusetts up for good, 42-35, with 9:25 remaining.

John Skelton accounted for all five Fordham touchdowns in the UMass NCAA FCS playoff game, throwing for three scores and rushing for two, to set a Patriot League playoff record.

On the ensuing possession, the Rams took over on their own 20 but on third down and five, Skelton's pass over the middle was picked off by Charles Walker and returned to the Fordham 22. Six plays later, Lawrence scored from two yards out to give the Minutemen a 49-35 lead with 5:15 left in the game.

Nick Magiera gained 38 yards on a fake punt

The loss did little to temper the Fordham effort on the day as the Rams gave the two-time Colonial Athletic Conference champions, a squad which features 16 NCAA FCS transfers, everything they could handle. Massachusetts, who advanced to the NCAA I-AA championship game last year, has gone 23-4 over the past two years, with one of the losses to Boston College earlier in the year and one to Appalachian State in the I-AA championship game in December of 2006.

It looked like the Minutemen would run away with the game, scoring on their first two possessions to take a 14-0 lead with 6:12 left in the first.

The Rams got on the scoreboard later in the quarter, taking over on their own 18 following a punt. Three plays netted eight yards and Fordham lined up to punt but the ball was snapped to up-back Nick Magiera who ran it up the middle for a 38-yard gain, bringing the ball down to the Massachusetts 36. After a five yard gain from Quasand Lewis, Skelton found Asa Lucas with a short pass over the middle which Lucas turned into a 28-yard gain. Two plays later, Skelton went up over the pile from the one to cut the Fordham deficit to seven, 14-7, with 55 seconds left in the first.

A Dato punt midway through the second pinned Massachusetts back on its own three but Coen drove UMass downfield, eventually hitting a diving Rasheed Butler in the end zone for a 21-7 Massachusetts lead with 8:18 left in the half.

The Rams scored again in the second when Skelton found found Cody Kritzer with a three-yard touchdown pass to make it a 21-14 game with 2:46 remaining in the half.

UMass then used a 41-yard scoring strike to take a 28-14 lead before the Rams turned an Isiejah Allen fumble recovery into a Skelton one-yard sneak on the final play of the half to cut the Fordham deficit to seven at the break, 28-21.

Asa Lucas led all Fordham receivers with eight catches for 108 yards.

FORDHAM 37, SACRED HEART 27
November 30, 2013
NCAA FCS PLAYOFFS- FIRST ROUND
Jack Coffey Field, Bronx, N.Y.

Bronx, N.Y. (November 30, 2013) – After a record-setting season for the Fordham University offense this fall, it was odd that the first question asked at the postgame press conference was directed at a defensive player. But it made perfect sense as the question was for Levon Williams, who recovered two fumbles and intercepted a pass to lead a strong defensive effort and help the Rams to a 37-27 win over Sacred Heart University in the first round of the NCAA FCS Championship on Jack Coffey Field.

In what has been a year of firsts, the Rams added two more today, winning 12 games for the first time in the modern era (since 1920). winning the first ever NCAA FCS Championship game on Jack Coffey Field and winning their seventh home game of the year, the most home wins in a season in school history.

The teams entered the game ranked one-two in turnovers gained in 2013 with Sacred Heart gaining 38 to 34 for Fordham. But it was the Rams who won the turnover battle today, forcing four Pioneer miscues while Fordham committed just one. Williams was involved in three of the four turnovers gained for Fordham, recovering two first half fumbles, both leading to Ram touchdowns, and then picking off a pass in the fourth quarter which led to a field goal to make it a two score game with 2:05 left.

But the success of the defense didn't necessarily come at the expense of the offense, a unit that accounted for 539 total yards with two players setting school single season records. Junior quarterback Mike Nebrich completed 32 of 51 passes for 413 yards and three scores to bring his season totals to 316 completions for 3,986 yards, both school records. He betters John Skelton's previous records of 284 completions and 3,708 yard set in 2009. The three scoring strikes brings Nebrich's total to 31, adding to his new season mark as he surpassed Mark Carney's 2001 record of 27 earlier this year while the Fordham offense increased its school record for passing yards to 4,658.

Junior wide receiver Sam Ajala caught seven passes today for 128 yards to bring his season marks to 85 catches for 1,526 yards as he surpasses Javarus Dudley's former school record of 1,439 receiving set in 2003.

Joining the 1,000-yard receiving yards club for the second straight season today was junior Brian Wetzel, who had 73 receiving yards to bring his season total to 1,008, becoming just the second player in Fordham history to record back-to-back 1,000 yard receiving seasons. He joins teammates Tebucky Jones,. Jr. and Ajala with 1,000 receiving yards this year, the first time in school history the Rams have had three 1,000-yard receivers in the same year.

Michael Marando connected on three field goals in the win over Sacred Heart

Senior running back Carlton Koonce gained 96 yards on 26 carries in the game and now has 1,436 rushing yards in 2013. Also junior kicker Michael Marando converted four PATs to add to his school record for PATs in a season which stands at 59, and he booted three field goals to bring his season total to 19, the second best single season in school history, behind Patrick Murray, who kicked 25 last fall.

Jake Rodriques

The Rams led 31-17 at the half but a Sacred Heart third quarter touchdown and field goal made it a four-point game, 31-27, entering the fourth. Early in the fourth, Jordan Chapman intercepted a RJ Noel pass on the Fordham 32 and returned it to the Sacred Heart 33. Three plays later, the Rams appeared to have scored on a 15-yard pass from Nebrich to Brian Wetzel but Fordham was called for a holding penalty on the Sacred Heart two and couldn't score from the 12 so Marando booted a 32-yard field goal to give the Rams a 34-27 lead with 11:27 left.

Later in the fourth, the Pioneers took over on their own 30 following a punt and on the third play from scrimmage, Levon Williams picked off Noel at the Fordham 29. Fordham was able to put together a drive that took up over four minutes but couldn't find the end zone, settling for a 33-yard Marando field goal that made it a two possession game, 37-27, with just over two minutes remaining.

Levon Williams recovered two fumbles and intercepted a pass in the win

The Fordham defense then forced two incomplete passes before DeAndre Slate sacked Noel for a loss on third down. On fourth down with just over a minute left, Jake Rodriques rushed Noel who threw an incomplete pass , giving the ball back to the Rams with 1:14 left and Fordham was able to kneel on the ball for the win.

NCAA FCS PLAYOFFS- SECOND ROUND
Unitas Stadium, Towson, Md.

Towson, Md. (December 7, 2013) - Back on August 1 when the Fordham University football squad returned to campus to start summer camp, head coach Joe Moorhead set out the team's goals for the season, with winning a national championship on the top of the list. And the 2013 Rams did their best to fulfill that goal, playing into December for just the second time in school history on the NCAA FCS level before coming up short in the second round of the NCAA FCS Championship, falling to Towson University, 48-28, in Johnny Unitas Stadium.

Despite the earlier-than-desired end to the season, the year was a success on multiple levels for Fordham. As a team, the Rams set the modern day (since 1920) record for wins in a season, including the first win over an NCAA FBS team (Temple), the first win over a top-ten ranked NCAA FCS team on Jack Coffey Field (Villanova) and the school's first ever home NCAA FCS championship win on Jack Coffey Field (Sacred Heart).

The Rams broke numerous school records this fall, including most points (526), passing yards (5,052) and total yards (7,214) in a season. All three records are also Patriot League marks as the Rams bettered the Holy Cross scoring record of 511 points in 1987, the Lehigh mark for passing yards in a season of 4,428 set in 2011 and the Colgate total offense record of 6,125 yards set in 2003.

Individually, when junior quarterback Mike Nebrich completed his first pass of the game he surpassed the 4,000-yard mark on the season as Fordham became the first school in NCAA FCS history to have a 4,000-yard passer, three 1,000-yard receivers (Sam Ajala, Tebucky Jones, Jr., and Brian Wetzel) and a 1,000-yard rusher (Carlton Koonce).

Nebrich finished the game completing 37 of 50 passes for 394 yards and four touchdowns, bringing his totals on the year to 353-of-480 for 4,380 yards and 35 touchdowns, all school records. He also set new Patriot League marks for passing yards in a season, bettering Chris Lum's (Lehigh) mark of 4,378 set in 2011, and passing touchdowns, surpassing the former record of 34 held by three other players, most recently by Holy Cross' Dominic Randolph in 2009. Nebrich's completion percentage of 73.5 was also both a school and Patriot League record.

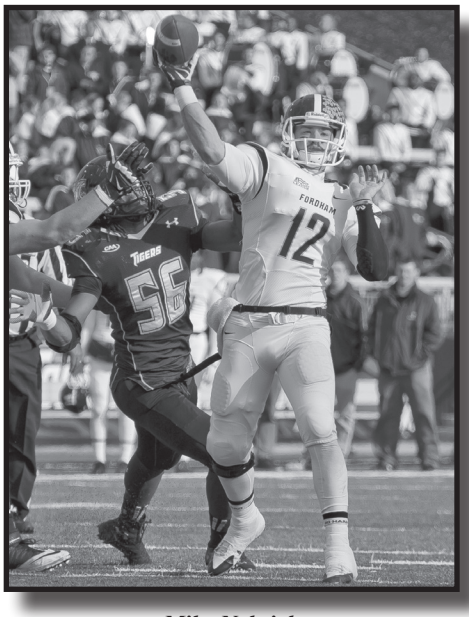

Nebrich also set a new Patriot League mark for passer efficiency rating with a mark of 171.34, surpassing Frank Baur's (Lafayette) previous record of 171.12 set in 1988.

Sam Ajala

Ajala caught eight passes for 120 yards to bring his season totals to 93 receptions for 1,646 yards, setting new school and Patriot League records for receiving yards. The former Fordham mark was 1,439 by Javarus Dudley in 2003 while the former Patriot League record was 1,614 set by Ryan Spadola of Lehigh in 2011.

Wetzel caught five passes for 86 yards and one touchdown today while Jones finished with five catches for 15 yards. On the year, Wetzel hauled in 89 passes for 1,094 yards and 14 touchdowns while Jones added 85 receptions for 1,154 yards and five scores.

Also setting a school mark today was junior tight end Dan Light, who caught 13 passes for 122 yards, both career-highs, to bring his total to 66 catches for 588 yards on the year, a school record for most receptions and receiving yards by a tight end.

Koonce closed out his Fordham career by gaining 1,462 yards on 307 carries with nine scores, the fourth most rushing yards in a season by a Ram and his career total of 3,283 is second best in school history.

Towson entered the game with the nation's leading rusher in Terrance West but the Rams managed to contain him only to see Towson quarterback Peter Athens have a career-day, throwing for 301 yards and three scores.

Brian Wetzel

The Rams also found out the hard way that the closer you get to the championship game, the smaller the margin of error becomes. Today, Fordham saw two second half scoring chances thwarted by penalties and another by a fumble.

The Rams used two second quarter scores to tie the game at 21 entering the break but the Tigers came out and scored quickly to open the second half, covering 76 yards on four plays with Athens completing a short pass to Andre Dessenberg that turned into a 46-yard scoring play to break the tie.

November 29, 2014
NCAA FCS PLAYOFFS- FIRST ROUND
Jack Coffey Field, Bronx, N.Y.

Bronx, N.Y. (November 29) - Even though the two schools had never met before last year, Fordham University and Sacred Heart are becoming familiar with each other quickly as the two squads faced off for the second straight year in the first round of the NCAA FCS Championships. And for the second straight year, the Rams withstood a strong Pioneer defense to upend Sacred Heart, 44-22, on Jack Coffey Field.

With the win, #9/12 Fordham improves to 11-2 overall and advances to face the University of New Hampshire, the number one overall seed, next Saturday in Durham, New Hampshire. It will be Fordham's second straight trip to the second round of the NCAA FCS Championship. Sacred Heart closes out the season with a 9-3 mark.

The Rams continued to rebound following losses under head coach Joe Moorhead, winning for the seventh time following a loss under the third-year mentor.

The Fordham offense knew it would have its work cut out for it, facing a Sacred Heart defense that ranked first in the NCAA FCS in first downs and red zone defense and in the top ten in the nation in total defense, interceptions, tackles for loss and sacks. But the Rams' offense was firing on all cylinders today, both on the ground and through the air.

On the ground Chase Edmonds gained 91 yards on 24 carries with one touchdown, bringing his season total to 1,630 yards with 22 touchdowns, both school records. He surpassed Carlton Koonce's single season rushing mark of 1,596 yards, set in 2012, while he bettered Kirwin Watson's single season rushing touchdown mark of 20 set in 2003 earlier this year.

In the air, Mike Nebrich completed 29 of 50 passes for 423 yards and four touchdowns with Brian Wetzel and Tebucky Jones, Jr. each hauling in eight passes with two scores, Wetzel for 166 yards and Jones for 139 yards. Wetzel now has 1,231 receiving yards this fall while Jones has 1,138 and Sam Ajala, who caught four passes for 56 yards has 1,009 as the Rams have three 1,000-yard receivers for the second straight season. Wetzel now has three straight 1,000-yard seasons while Jones and Ajala have two.

Also adding to his school record was placekicker Michael Marando, who connected on three field goals to bring his career total to 45. He surpassed Brian Colsant's former record of 41, set from 1998-2001, earlier this year. The 45 career three-pointers is also a Patriot League record, surpassing Lafayette's Davis Rodriguez who kicked 43 from 2007-10. Marando also tied his own school record, set last year, for points by a kicker with 120 so far in 2014.

DeAndre Slate recovered a fumble that led to the first Fordham touchdown

As a team, the Rams had their ninth 40-point game of the year, and brought their season total to 550 points, surpassing last year's school record of 526. Edmonds' 91 rushing yards also helped the Rams set a new team single season record with 2,184, bettering the former mark of 2,162 set last year.

Brian Wetzel caught eight passes for 166 yards and two touchdowns

The game wasn't all about the Fordham offense as the defense did its part too, forcing three turnovers, recording 13 tackles for loss, holding Sacred Heart to 4-of-17 on third down conversions while surrendering just six second half points. Ian Williams paced the defense with eight tackles, seven solo, and he intercepted two passes while breaking up five. His two interceptions brings his career total to 15 as he moves into second place on the Fordham all-time interceptions list behind Ralph Rios, who picked off 23 career passes.

Levon Williams and Austin Hancock also made eight stops for the Rams while Marlon Crook, Jr., playing in place of the injured Brett Biestek, had a pair of sacks.

Ian Williams intercepted two passes and broke up five against Sacred Heart

Notes

The 400-yard passing game was Nebrich's third of the season and the seventh of his career, a school record… Wetzel recorded his third straight, and fifth overall, 100-yard game of the year and the 16th of his career, a school record… Wetzel has 359 receiving yards over the past two games… Tebucky Jones, Jr., notched his fifth 100-yard receiving game of the season and the tenth of his career… Eight different players caught a pass for the Rams… Marando converted on all five of his PATs to bring his season total to 63, one off his school record of 64 set last year… The two teams have only met twice, in the NCAA FCS Championship the past two years.

NCAA FCS PLAYOFFS- SECOND ROUND
Cowell Stadium, Durham, N.H.

Durham, N.H. (December 6, 2014) - Fordham freshman running back Chase Edmonds has enjoyed a record-setting rookie season and that continued today as he set an NCAA FCS Championship and two Patriot League records in a second round NCAA FCS Championship game at the University of New Hampshire. Unfortunately for the Rams, Edmonds' heroics weren't enough as they saw their season come to an end with a 44-19 loss to the Wildcats in Cowell Stadium.

With the loss, Fordham closes out the season with an 11-3 record while #1 New Hampshire improves to 11-1 with its eleventh straight win.

Edmonds rushed 18 times for 208 yards and one touchdown today while also returning seven kickoffs for 164 yards and catching two passes for 13 yards. His 385 all-purpose yards are a Patriot League single-game record (previous was 370 set by Lehigh's Ronald Jean in 1999) and his 208 rushing yards and 164 kickoff return yards are the top marks for a Patriot League player in an FCS playoff game. Edmonds also set an NCAA FCS Championship game record with a 91-yard touchdown run, surpassing the previous long of 90 yards set by Henry Fields of McNeese State in 1994.

On the year, Edmonds amassed 2,473 all-purpose yards, setting a Patriot League single-season record (former mark was 2,425 set by Colgate's Kenny Gamble in first League season in 1986), while his school-record 1,838 rushing yards puts him fourth in the Patriot League single-season record book, and his school-record 23 rushing touchdowns ties him for second all-time in the conference. Edmonds also set a school record with 144 points scored this fall, bettering Kirwin Watson's 2003 mark of 126 points.

Edmonds wasn't the only one adding to career records today as senior placekicker Michael Marando connected on two field goals to bring his school-record career total to 47, also a Patriot League career mark, while he also booted an extra point to tie his own single season record with 64. Marando also set a school record for points scored by a kicker in a season with 127, surpassing his own record of 120 set last year while his 143 career PATs is also a school mark.

The Rams got off to a slow start, going three-and-out on their first two possessions while New Hampshire scored on each of its first two possession as the Wildcats jumped out to a 14-0 lead midway through the first.

Michael Marando

New Hampshire threatened on its third drive of the game but De'Nard Pinckney sacked Wildcat quarterback Sean Goldrich causing Goldrich to fumble and the ball was recovered by Brett Biestek on the Fordham 27.

Fordham took advantage of the turnover, moving to the New Hampshire ten, thanks in part to a 30-yard carry by Edmonds. The Rams couldn't push the ball across the goal line and settled on a Michael Marando field goal to cut the deficit to 14-3 early in the second quarter.

Jordan Chapman

The Wildcats again moved the ball on their next possession and appeared to have a first down inside the Fordham ten but Jordan Chapman forced a Jared Allison fumble on the five and Jake Dixon recovered the ball for the Rams on the three.

Edmonds picked up six yards on the first play of the drive for the Rams and then broke through the middle and went 91-yards to the end zone for the NCAA-record setting score. The Rams attempted a two-point conversion which failed and Fordham trailed 14-9 with 7:44 left in the first half.

Another Marando field goal (29 yards) cut the deficit two two, 14-12, with 5:05 on the clock.

The Wildcats responded with a five-play, 71-yard drive, scoring on an eleven-yard run to boost their lead to 21-12 with 3:07 left in the half and then connected on a field goal just befor the break for a 24-12 halftime lead.

Chase Edmonds

After New Hampshire scored on the first possession of the second half, Fordham responded with a Nebrich to Wetzel five-yard scoring strike as the Rams pulled within 12, 31-19, with 11:19 left in the third.

But the Wildcats scored later in the third, on a seven-yard run, and with 4:48 left in the fourth, on a 24-yard run, for the 44-19 final.

NCAA FCS PLAYOFFS

#7/8 CHATTANOOGA 50, FORDHAM 20
November 28, 2015
NCAA FCS PLAYOFFS- FIRST ROUND
Finley Stadium, Chattanooga, Tenn.

Back in August, if someone told Fordham football fans that the Rams, despite losing 18 starters from 2014, would finish the regular season 9-2 and advance to their third straight NCAA FCS Championship, they would have taken it. Well that's exactly what happened and today's loss to Chattanooga did nothing to diminish the job done by the 2015 Rams, who opened the season with a win over Army and closed it out as one of seven teams to earn a bid to the NCAA FCS Championships in each of the past three years.

It's said that football is a game of inches but today's game was more like a game of feet and ankles. Feet in the form of a long completion from Kevin Anderson to Austin Longi that seemed destined for a score and would have pulled the Rams within seven, 14-7, in the first quarter. But Longi stumbled on the Chattanooga 30 and, three plays later, an Anderson interception was returned for score. Ankle as in the left ankle of Fordham running back Chase Edmonds, an ankle he injured two weeks ago at Georgetown and which wasn't quite healed enough to allow the sophomore to play, forcing him to the sidelines after the first two Fordham offensive possessions.

The Rams gained two first downs on the first possession of game, including converting a fourth and one from their own 34, but the drive ended at the Chattanooga 45.

The Mocs took over on their own three after a Joe Pavlik punt was downed there by the Rams. But Chattanooga went to work, covering the 97 yards in nine plays to take a 7-0 lead on a 38-yard run with 6:33 left in the first.

After a Fordham three-and-out, the Mocs moved 75 yards on nine plays, adding seven points on a 43-yard scoring pass from Jacob Huesman to C.J. Board with 2:35 on the clock.

Fordham appeared to be moving on its next series as Anderson connected with Longi for a 45-yard gain to the Mocs' 30. But three plays later, Anderson was rushed and his pass was picked off by Lucas Webb and returned 71 yards for a 21-0 Chattanooga lead with 33 seconds remaining in the first.

Early in the second, Fordham drove to the Chattanooga 27 but Jarred Brevard couldn't find any running room on fourth and one and the ball went back to the Mocs who moved to the Fordham six where Henrique Riberiro connected on a 23-yard field goal to put Chattanooga up 24-0, midway through the second.

Chattanooga made it a 31-0 game just before the half on a 13-yard scoring strike from Huesman to James Stovell with ten seconds remaining.

Caleb Hamm and JQ Bowers

The Mocs got the ball first in the second half and covered 65 yards on eight plays, capped by a 14-yard Derrick Craine touchdown run, to take a 38-0 lead 2:04 into the third quarter.

The Rams responded with their first scoring drive of the day, started by a 24-yard Jihaad Pretlow kickoff return. Brevard gained 32 yards on two carries on the drive while Anderson completed all four of his pass attempts, including a six-yard touchdown pass to Phazahn Odom with 10:21 on the clock to make it a 38-7 game. It was Odom's seventh touchdown catch of the season, breaking the school mark for most touchdown receptions by a tight end.

Kevin Anderson

But the Fordham defense couldn't contain the Mocs, who took a 41-7 lead with a three-yard scoring pass from Huesman to Richardre Bagley with 6:34 left in the quarter.

The Fordham offense made quick work on the ensuing possession, using a 35-yard Pretlow return to start at the Fordham 40. After a screen pass to Jordan Allen gained six yards, Anderson found Ben Johnson with a 65-yard scoring strike to make it a 41-14 game 45 seconds later.

The Mocs blocked a Pavlik punt from the end zone early in the fourth quarter that turned into a safety and were threatening on the ensuing possession when Manny Adeyeye forced and recovered a fumble on the Fordham 23.

After Brevard gained five yards on first down, Anderson connected with Odom for a 39-yard gain and then Johnson for 24 more yards to put the ball on the Chattanooga nine. Three plays later, Tony Patrignelli made a nice catch on a two-yard touchdown pass to make it a 43-20 game.

Chattanooga closed out the scoring with a 38-yard touchdown pass with 2:02 left.

Anderson completed 26 of 40 passes for 329 yards and three touchdowns with Odom catching six passes for 85 yards and Corey Caddle and Allen each hauling in five and Brevard rushing for 70 yards on ten carries.

Defensively, JQ Bowers recorded a career-high 15 tackles, eleven solo, and he broke up a pass while Caleb Ham added a career-best 12 stops, nine solo, and Stephen Hodge finished with ten, including one for loss.

The Ram-Crusader Cup

When Holy Cross defeated Fordham on Jack Coffey Field on November 13, 2021, the Crusaders retained the "Ram Crusader Trophy" for the fifth straight year.

First dedicated in 1951 to the memory of Major Frank W. Cavanaugh, who was an outstanding figure in the football coaching annals of both Fordham and Holy Cross, the award is jointly sponsored by the Holy Cross College Clubs of New York and Long Island. The series between Fordham and Holy Cross was interrupted after the 1954 season when Fordham dropped football, but was resumed in 1990 when the Rams joined the Crusaders as members of the Patriot League.

The award was proposed by William P. Walsh, who graduated from Holy Cross in 1952 and from Fordham Law School in 1957. While in college, Walsh, a Fordham football fan in his childhood years, worked as a summer camp counselor under the tutelage of Ed Danowski, FCO '34, a former Fordham football standout and then the University's head coach. Walsh got the idea for a trophy when Danowski informed him in August 1951 that the two schools would be playing each other for the next four seasons, and that Danowski's Rams would "pin back the ears" of the Crusaders. Feeling challenged, Walsh suggested the trophy be named for the "Iron Major," whose last Fordham team had been captained by Danowski. He and classmate Joseph B. Breen, who also graduated from Fordham Law School, were appointed co-chairmen of the trophy committee.

Holy Cross won that 1951 meeting, and the trophy was presented by John Cavanaugh, one of the Major's nine children. The trophy has been fought for in some exotic places, as the two teams battled in the 1991 Wild Geese Classic in Limerick, Ireland, and the 1995 Bermuda Bowl contest in Hamilton, Bermuda.

A native of Worcester, Mass., and a graduate of Dartmouth where he played end, Frank Cavanaugh started his coaching career at the University of Cincinnati. He was the Holy Cross head coach from 1903 to 1905, achieving a 16-10-2 record. After earning a law degree from Boston University, he coached Dartmouth for six seasons.

War came and, enlisting in the 102nd Field Artillery of New England's 26th "Yankee Division", "Cav," as he was known, was wounded at Chateau-Thierry and was released from service after World War I with the rank of major.

He coached at Boston University for one season, and then started as coach of the Fordham University Rams in 1927. Cavanaugh established the Rams as one of the top football programs in the country before retiring after the 1932 season. In his six seasons as the coach of Fordham University, Cavanaugh posted a 34-14-4 (.692) record. In his final four years at the helm, the Rams were 27-4-4, including a 7-0-2 season in 1929. Major Cavanaugh died in August, 1933.

His memory lives on, in both the Fordham and Holy Cross football histories.

The Liberty Cup

As two of the three NCAA Division I institutions in New York City to sponsor football, Fordham University and Columbia University decided in 2002 to compete for a special trophy in their annual game. Thus was born the Liberty Cup.

The idea behind the Liberty Cup is to honor the alumni of both schools who were lost in the attacks of September 11, 2001. The Cup also honors all of those who lost their lives on September 11th, including members of the various city and state agencies (FDNY, NYPD, EMS, Port Authority, etc.). Each school has created a scholarship fund with the host school donating the proceeds of the game to their respective fund.

There has been much debate over the years as to who the "Seven Blocks of Granite" actually were. The name, which is attributed to former Fordham publicist Tim Cohane, was originally applied to the line play of the 1929-30 Rams which posted a 15-1-2 two-year record, including 12 shutouts. The 1936-37 edition, pictured below, eventually became better known than its predecessor primarily because of the presence of Vince Lombardi (#40). This second edition had an impressive two-year run, recording a 12-1-3 mark with eight shutouts.

The Late Al Bart Visits with the Rams: The late "Seven Blocks of Granite" member Al Bart paid a visit to the 2002 Spring Game where he spoke with the current Rams about the history of Fordham football.*

The Seven Blocks of Granite Monument: Located at the corner of Constitution Row and the Gate A entrance to Jack Coffey Field, the monument is a generous gift from Joe Moglia, FCRH '71, and honors both sets of Fordham's famous Seven Blocks, the 1929-30 version and the 1936-37 edition.*

Rich Marrin Team Most Valuable Player Award

At the 88th Annual Block "F" Dinner held this past May, senior tight end Isaiah Searight was named the Rams' Rich Marrin Most Valuable Player for the 2021 season.

The award is named in honor of the late Rich Marrin FCRH '67, LAW '70, a former football Ram as well as a major benefactor of the football program.

The Macken Award

This award was established in memory of Rams' special assistant coach Bob Macken, who passed away suddenly in June of 1992. Coach Macken was a key part of the Fordham staff for seven seasons, always handling the "little things" that are so vital to keeping a program going. He took special pride in working with the special teams, and his "Macken Pizza Party" for the top special teams plays of the year were a source of great honor for the team.

More importantly, Coach Macken epitomized the "Fordham person." He always represented the University in a first class manner, greeting people with a smile and a firm handshake. He took great pride in being associated with Fordham and its long football tradition, and made all those with whom he came in contact better for just knowing him.

Andrew Mevis

Although Coach Macken can never be replaced, this award is a fitting tribute to someone who gave his all to Rose Hill and never asked for anything in return.

The Lansing Trophy

The Jim Lansing Trophy is awarded annually to the Fordham Rams' outstanding lineman. The trophy is sponsored by the Fordham University Gridiron Club. It was his second straight Lansing Trophy honor.

The award is named for Jim Lansing, a former player and coach who was a consensus All-American in 1941. That was the same season that Fordham downed Missouri 2-0 to capture the 1942 Sugar Bowl. As a coach, Lansing won national club championships in 1965 and 1968, and became the school's first varsity coach since 1954 when the program was elevated to Division III in 1970. In five club seasons and two varsity campaigns, Lansing posted a 29-20-3 record.

The Bill Tierney Award

In the fall of 1996, the Fordham University Football Program suffered a tragic loss when junior Bill Tierney passed away prior to the Lafayette game. Tierney suffered a cardiac arrest brought on by viral myocarditis, an inflammation of the heart muscle, on October 12, 1996 while warming up for the Homecoming football game.

The Rams have honored Bill by retiring his uniform number "28". The Fordham Gridiron Club, the football booster club, has also memorialized Bill by creating the Bill Tierney Spirit Award that will be presented annually to the Fordham varsity player who in the estimate of his teammates, represents the spirit that Bill so unselfishly exemplified. A special Ram award was commissioned by Ernest H. Hammer, FCO '55, and created by David Hacker (a New York artist and a former formidable football player at California). The award is presented annually to the winner of the Bill Tierney Award. Bill was the posthumous recipient of the initial award.

The Mara and Walsh Family Awards

Richard Marrin, Jr., FCRH ’91, LAW ‘96, and Neil Abromavage, GABELLI '93, were honored with the Mara Family Award and the Walsh Award, respectively, at the annual Fordham Gridiron Club Dinner held at the New York Athletic Club on Thursday night, April 7.

The Mara Family and Walsh Awards honor members of the Fordham football family for their dedication and contributions to the program. The Mara Family Award is named in honor of the family of the late Wellington Mara, a 1937 graduate of Fordham, while the Walsh Award is named in honor of William D. Walsh, Fordham College class of 1951 and namesake of the Walsh Athletic Training Center as well as the Walsh Family Library on the Rose Hill campus.

Conor Mara, FCRH ’11, presented the Mara Family Award to Marrin, whose late father, Richard Marrin, Sr., FCRH 67, LAW ’70, was a member of the Fordham Club football team and who was a generous supporter of the Fordham football program. Marrin, Sr. received the Mara Family Award in 2011. Marrin, Jr., was an offensive and defensive lineman for the Rams from 1987-1990.

Conor Mara, FCRH ’11, presented the Mara Family Award to Richard Marrin, Jr., FCRH '91, LAW '96.

Deborah Hirsch, PAR '13, daughter of William Walsh, presented the Walsh Award to Abromavage. A three-year varsity player for the Rams from 1990-1992, Abromavage was a flanker for the Rams from 1990-1992.

Fordham also honored Harry Hammer, FCRH '55, LAW '59, for his devotion and dedication to the football program with a special #55 framed jersey.

Deborah Hirsch, PAR '13, presented the Walsh Award to Neil Abromavage, GABELLI '93.

The University

Fordham, the Jesuit University of New York, offers a distinctive, values-centered educational experience rooted in the Jesuit tradition of intellectual rigor and personal attention. Since 1841, Fordham's partner in this great enterprise has been New York. Students enjoy the unparalleled educational, cultural and recreational advantages of living and learning in one of the world's most diverse and dynamic cities.

The Walsh Family Library

Engaged Students

The University enrolls more than 15,000 students in its four undergraduate colleges and six graduate and professional schools. With its two distinctive residential campuses—green and gothic Rose Hill, on 85 acres adjacent to the New York Botanical Garden and the Bronx Zoo; and cosmopolitan Lincoln Center, in the heart of Manhattan, across from Lincoln Center for the Performing Arts—Fordham offers students virtually unlimited possibilities for learning and personal growth.

The Rose Hill campus houses Fordham College at Rose Hill, the Gabelli School of Business, the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences, the Graduate School of Religion and Religious Education, and Fordham College of Liberal Studies. The Lincoln Center campus, established in 1961, houses Fordham College at Lincoln Center, the Graduate School of Social Service, the Graduate School of Business Administration, the Graduate School of Education and the School of Law. A third campus, the Marymount Campus of Fordham University in Tarrytown, N.Y., is home to the Westchester divisions of the Graduate School of Business Administration, the Graduate School of Education, the Graduate School of Social Service and Fordham College of Liberal Studies.

Fordham was ranked 68th Best Among National Universities by *U.S. News and World Report

Fordham draws students from across the country and around the world who want to live and learn in the global capital of commerce and culture. The University offers one of the most extensive internship programs in the country. Students choose from more than 2,600 internship options in business, communications, education, government, health care, biomedical research, law, the arts and other fields. The Office of Career Services also offers workshops, career days, one-on-one career counseling and on-campus interviews with major corporations. Students compete for and earn prestigious fellowships and scholarships—including Fulbright, Truman, Mellon and other competitive awards. And each year, more than 1,300 students engage in community service, both locally and in distant corners of the world, through the University's award-winning Global Outreach program.

Great Teaching

Fordham has a proud history of approaching education in a distinctly Jesuit way, one that emphasizes cura personalis, a commitment to nurturing the whole person—mind, body and spirit—and challenging students to surpass their perceived limitations. This kind of education unites both heart and mind, and at Fordham it occurs within and beyond the classroom.

Fordham's world-class faculty is committed to teaching and research. In small classes (the average class size is 22 and the University boasts a 13:1 student-faculty ratio), these scholars and mentors challenge students to develop to their full potential—and they give each student the individual attention he or she needs to excel.

Students choose from more than 65 majors and academic programs in the liberal and performing arts, sciences, and business. Every student also completes a rich Core Curriculum that spans literature, history, science, religion, philosophy, the social sciences and the arts, and is designed to nurture curiosity and inspire a lifelong love of learning. Special academic offerings include honors programs, study abroad, dual-degree programs with Fordham's graduate schools, and pre-professional programs in law, medicine and other health professions. Fordham's G.L.O.B.E. international business program combines liberal arts and business courses, and prepares students for multinational careers. Undergraduate students often collaborate with faculty on original research, and they also work with faculty and staff to prepare to compete for Rhodes, Fulbright and other prestigious fellowships and scholarships.

New York Is Our Campus, Fordham Is Our School

New York City provides unparalleled internship and career advantages, but it also offers students a never-ending list of things to see and do—from Broadway theater, museums, and concerts to major league sports or a bike ride through Central Park.

Fordham's two residential campuses—Rose Hill and Lincoln Center—are easily accessible by public and private transportation. The University's Ram Van service also makes it easy for students to enjoy the social and academic life of the two campuses.

Strong orientation programs, special freshman seminars and active faculty advising ensure a smooth transition to college life. Integrated learning communities in the residence halls on the Rose Hill campus give students the chance to collaborate with other students, staff and faculty to design social, service and educational activities and events throughout the year. Students majoring in pre-health professions are mentored by resident upperclassmen in the new Science Integrated Learning Community. The Lincoln Center campus features McMahon Hall, a 20-story complex that provides apartment-style living and great views of Manhattan. Fordham's state-of-the-art facilities also include one of the most technologically advanced libraries in the country.

More than 130 student organizations offer a remarkable range of programming that capitalizes on the cultural resources of New York City. An extensive athletics program includes 22 varsity sports and a range of club and intramural sports. Each year, the Community Service Program gives hundreds of students an opportunity to work together on volunteer projects at dozens of sites in New York City, including soup kitchens, nursing homes, transitional shelters, hospitals and community parks.

Successful Outcomes

A Fordham education blends a challenging curriculum with the resources, culture and energy of New York City—a unique combination by any measure. Fordham students serve as interns at the United Nations and are mentored by CEOs of Fortune 500 companies. They win mtvU Student Filmmaker Awards and capture prestigious Marshall and Fulbright fellowships. The opportunities Fordham provides students through close contact with influential professors and the school's urban setting translate into jobs and internships at graduation. More than 2,600 organizations in the New York metropolitan area offer students internships that provide hands-on experience and valuable networking opportunities in fields such as business, communications, medicine, law and education. Students also earn admission to top graduate programs and win prestigious fellowships and scholarships for further study. As the Jesuit University of New York, Fordham is a place where talent and intellect are truly nurtured and dreams are achieved.

Fordham has become a popular stage for both television and movies, including filming of the FOX show Gotham and the CBS drama Madam Secretary along with U2 rocking Rose Hill on ABC's Good Morning America and filmed scenes from Wall Street 2 featuring Michael Douglas and Shia LaBeouf, USA Network's White Collar, and the movie The Adjustment Bureau, featuring Matt Damon as a former Fordham basketball player.

Tania Tetlow
University President

Tania Tetlow was named the 33rd president of Fordham University on February 10, 2022, and took office on July 1. She is the first layperson, and the first woman, to hold the office at Fordham.

President Tetlow was the 17th president of Loyola University New Orleans. She was the first woman and the first layperson to lead Loyola since the Society of Jesus founded the university in 1912. President Tetlow was also the fourth, as well as the youngest, woman to lead one of the 27 colleges and universities in the U.S. that make up the Association of Jesuit Colleges and Universities. She joined Loyola in August 2018 and during her tenure ushered in a new and exciting era at the Jesuit, Catholic university.

Under her leadership, Loyola successfully completed a turnaround after the most challenging period in its financial history, improving its bond rating and repositioning university finances through careful budgeting, increased retention, continued enrollment growth, and expansion of online, graduate, and professional programs.

A dynamic leader, President Tetlow also set a clear and attainable vision for the future at Loyola. The university's Strategic Plan for Inclusive Excellence and Strategic Plan 2020: Courage and Creativity were created to capitalize on the university's strength in diversity, equity, and inclusion, while encouraging sustainable and meaningful improvements to programs and enrollment growth. New academic programs created in response to local and regional needs placed increased emphasis on health care. A new undergraduate nursing program established in partnership with national industry leader Ochsner Health System has created clinical placement opportunities for students and helped fill a critical gap for the system.

President Tetlow oversaw the completion of Loyola's $100 million Faith in the Future campaign, the most ambitious fundraising campaign in its history. Funds raised went primarily toward scholarships, endowed professorships, improvements to academic programs, and construction of the new Chapel of St. Ignatius and the Gayle and Tom Benson Jesuit Center. Newly created student hardship and digital equity funds have helped ensure that students are able to complete their Loyola education.

When the COVID-19 pandemic took root in New Orleans in March 2020, President Tetlow ensured the general safety of the Loyola community and a smooth transition to online and hybrid operations with minimal impact to finances. Consistent, clear communication and new virtual marketing and recruitment tools ensured that Loyola not only survived but, in many ways, thrived, taking advantage of new technology and bringing lessons learned into future operations.

Prior to joining Loyola, President Tetlow served as senior vice president and chief of staff as well as the Felder-Fayard Professor of Law at Tulane University, where she was a key strategic adviser to President Michael Fitts. As a law professor, President Tetlow's research helped persuade the Department of Justice to reimagine its regulation of constitutional policing. She also directed Tulane's Domestic Violence Law Clinic for which she raised millions of dollars in federal grant funds.

Before her career in academia, President Tetlow was an associate at Phelps Dunbar, litigating complex commercial transactions. She also served as an assistant United States attorney, prosecuting everything from violent crime to fraud cases.

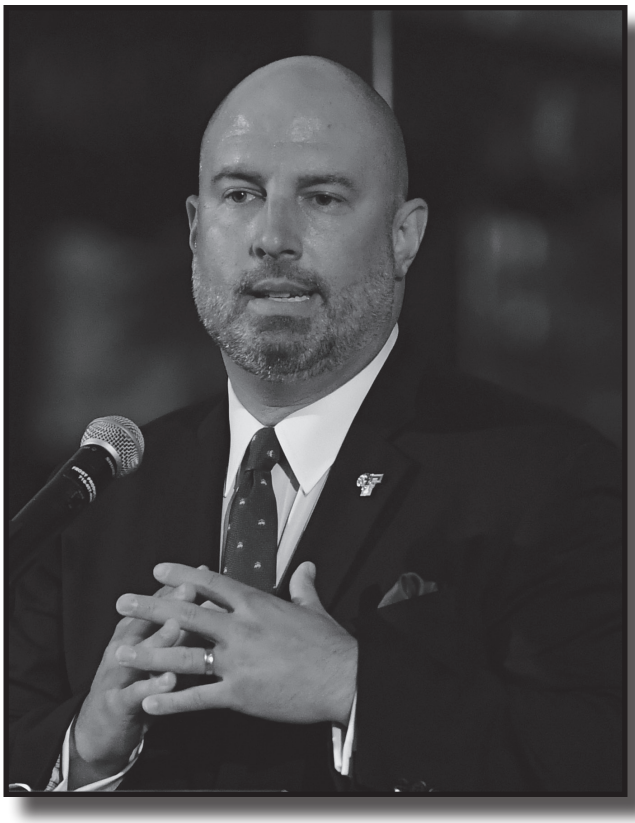

President Tetlow graduated cum laude from Tulane University with a Bachelor of Arts degree in American studies and is a magna cum laude graduate of Harvard Law School, where she earned a Juris Doctor degree and was a Harry S. Truman Fellow. A Catholic who was born in New York and grew up in New Orleans, President Tetlow has deep family ties to the Jesuits and to Fordham, where her parents met as graduate students in the late 1960s.

Ed Kull
Director of Intercollegiate Athletics & Recreation

Edward M. Kull was named Director of Athletics at Fordham on February 19, 2021. Kull, who had been serving as the interim director since April of 2020, reports directly to the president and oversee a division of more than 100 coaches and staff, 500 student-athletes, and 22 varsity teams.

"Jesuit higher education has always integrated athletic excellence and competition into its mission as part of the commitment to developing the whole person," said Joseph M. McShane, S.J., then president of Fordham. "In Ed Kull we see this commitment to excellence, the care and well-being of our student athletes, and the ease with which he connects with all areas of the University community. I believe Ed is exactly the right person to lead Fordham athletics at this moment. His skills, knowledge of the world of athletics and his devotion to the mission and ideals of the University will enable Fordham athletics to raise the national profile of the University and to rally our alumni—and indeed the entire Fordham family—to ever greater pride in and support of our beloved University. Therefore, I both thank him for taking on this new role, and I invite the entire Fordham community to welcome him in his now-permanent role."

Kull arrived at Fordham in March of 2017 when he was hired to lead the athletic development team and serve as an associate athletic director. He brought over 14 years of experience in sports marketing, business development, higher education fundraising and athletic development to the position.

In Kull's ten months of service as interim director, he has focused on a number of initiatives including increased support for student-athlete well-being, managing the pandemic response and protocols, creating a social justice task force, implementing department-wide diversity, equity, and inclusion initiatives, creating an athletics strategic plan, student-athlete brand education with Jeremy Darlow and INFLCR, external marketing and revenue generation, and inclusion of athletics in the University's fundraising capital campaign, among others.

A 2003 graduate of Stony Brook University, he received his MBA from St. John's University in 2005, where he is also a doctoral candidate in Educational Leadership. He began his career in athletic sales, marketing, and promotions at St. John's, becoming Assistant Athletic Director before moving to the corporate world as a sports marketing manager representing the Powerade and Vitaminwater brands for the Glaceau and Coca-Cola companies.

Kull returned to St. John's University in 2011 to serve in the President's Office as Chief of Staff for Athletics and Institutional Advancement, and ultimately, Acting Vice President for Institutional Advancement. In that role, Kull was the driving force behind record-breaking revenue growth from 2013-2016. During the three-year period he held this position, St. John's experienced its third- and fourth- best revenue years in its history. The increase of major gifts under Kull's tenure supported and advanced St. John's educational mission, financial needs, and strategic planning.

"I want to thank Father McShane and the Board for giving me this incredible opportunity," said Kull. "I am humbled to be a part of a university with a renowned competitive tradition and a passionate and loyal alumni and fan base. As you can imagine, the past ten months have been both inspiring and challenging and I'm thrilled to continue the work we have already started. I am honored to be chosen to carry on the Fordham athletic tradition of excellence."

"Fordham University, under the leadership of Fr. McShane, has made the perfect decision. Ed Kull is a skilled administrator, familiar with the intricacies of intercollegiate athletics and higher education and a true advocate for the student-athlete," commented Atlantic 10 Commissioner Bernadette V. McGlade "He has earned the respect of his peers in the Atlantic 10 Conference and I look forward to working with him for many years to come!"

Charlie Elwood
Deputy Director of Intercollegiate Athletics

Charlie Elwood, former Senior Associate Athletic Director at St. John's University, is in his 22nd year at Fordham University, his seventh as the Deputy Director of Athletics. He served the previous eleven years as the Director of Athletic Administration, being named to the post in July of 2001.

Elwood oversees the comprehensive day-to-day internal operations of the Athletic Department. These responsibilities include fiscal management, facility and event management, scheduling, personnel administration, compliance, assisting in the strategic planning process for the department, sports information and the intramural, recreation and club sport programs.

A member of the NCAA Division I men's soccer committee from 2006-2010, Elwood served as the Chairman of the committee from 2008-09. On the conference scene, Elwood served two three-year stints on the Atlantic 10 men's soccer championships committee, serving as chair of the committee in 2005-06 and 2008-09. For the past five years, Elwood has been the co-chair of the committee.

Elwood was promoted to Senior Associate Athletic Director at St. John's in December 2000 after serving as Associate Athletic Director/External Affairs since July of 1997. He joined the University in February 1996, after eight years in the Department of Athletics at the College of William & Mary.

At St. John's he was responsible for overseeing the areas of marketing, advertising, fundraising, ticketing, sports information, business office and the equipment room for St. John's 21 intercollegiate sports. He served as the liaison with Madison Square Garden for scheduling and game operations and was the scheduling administrator for Men's Basketball. He was also the Director of Licensing for the University.

Elwood served as the Tournament Manager of the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Tournament First/Second Rounds at Nassau Coliseum in March 2001, hosted by St. John's. In that capacity, Elwood managed all operations of the NCAA Championships, from travel and lodging for competing teams to media and game operations as well as fiscal responsibility for the tournament.

Elwood had been a member of the BIG EAST men's soccer committee since 1997 and served as its chair through the 2000-01 academic year.

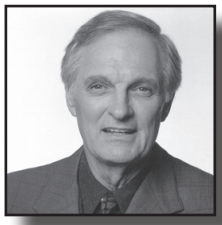

He joined the University in 1996 as Associate Athletic Director/Athletic Business Affairs. In that position, he oversaw all elements of the business office, ticket office, facilities, game operations and the equipment room.

Prior to his arrival at St. John's, Elwood served as Assistant Athletic Director of Business Affairs at the College of William & Mary from November 1988 to February 1996. He was responsible for supervising financial operations of the business department and ticket operations.

A graduate of Fordham University, Elwood began his career in Chicago in 1982 at DePaul, when he was hired to work as Director of Business Affairs. He worked there for six years (1982-88), before leaving to take the position at William & Mary. He received his master of science in sports administration from Biscayne (Fla.) College in 1981 and his MBA in marketing from DePaul University in 1986.

Charlie and his wife, Carolyn, are the proud parents of two daughters, Blake, a 2019 Fordham graduate who was a member of the track and field team, and Kylie, a 2021 Fordham graduate who was a member of the Fordham crew.
