COLUMBIA HOLDS OFF RICHMOND FOR FIRST WIN

Sunday, November 13, 2016

COLUMBIA 65
RICHMOND 58

RICHMOND, Va. – Behind Camille Zimmerman's double-double, a career-high 18 points from Paulina Koerner and 15 from Tori Oliver, the Columbia women's basketball team earned its first victory of the season, holding on to defeat Richmond, 65-58, Sunday afternoon at the Robins Center.

Columbia (1-1) jumped out to an 18-5 lead after the first quarter, ending the period with 12 unanswered points over the final 4:15. Richmond (0-1) cut the lead to seven at halftime, 31-24, and got within three on two different occasions in the fourth quarter, but the Lions were able to fend off each rally by shooting 56-percent in the final period. A late 6-0 run sealed the victory, putting Columbia in front by nine with less than a minute remaining.

The win was the first in the head coaching career of Megan Griffith, who took over the program in March.

"This was a great team win," commented Griffith. "Sticking to the game plan and jumping out early was big, and it put us in a good place. We were able to sustain that lead over four quarters, which shows a lot about our character."

The Lions maintained that lead with strong defense and an impressive showing on the glass. Columbia outrebounded Richmond 54-33, using 19 offensive rebounds to create 17 second-chance points. The defense limited Richmond to 27-percent from the floor, including a 9.5-percent showing from 3-point range.

Zimmerman highlighted Columbia with 18 points, 15 rebounds and three blocks for her second double-double in as many outings. The junior led Columbia in all three categories last season.

Koerner helped put the game away, scoring nine of her 18 points in the fourth quarter, including a 3-pointer off the glass with 8:02 left that put the Lions up eight. The sophomore shot 4-of-8 on the afternoon with a 9-for-10 mark at the foul line, also setting career marks in free throws made and attempted.

Oliver rounded out Columbia's double-figure scorers with 15. The senior shot 4-of-9 from the floor and knocked down seven of her 10 attempts at the charity stripe. She added eight rebounds, including seven on the defensive end. Oliver, Zimmerman and sophomore Josie Little (7) combined for 30 of Columbia's 54 boards.

For Richmond, Micaela Parson led all scorers with 20, but it came on just 3-of-13 shooting, scoring 14 of her points at the foul line. Preseason All-Atlantic 10 first teamer Janelle Hubbard scored 16.

Columbia's 12 consecutive points through the final minutes of the first quarter were scored by Zimmerman, Koerner and senior Devon Roeper. The three combined to shoot 5-of-8 during the run, which also included two free throws by Koerner. Zimmerman scored four points on offensive putbacks, including a bucket in the final 30 seconds that gave the Lions a 13-point lead.

After going without a 3-pointer the entire first quarter, the Lions buried two in the opening five minutes of the second. Sophomores Abby Lee and Emily Surloff knocked them down, helping the Lions maintain their double-digit lead. A 4-0 Richmond spurt through the last two minutes got the Spiders within single digits at the half.

Richmond cut Columbia's lead to a handful for the first time with a bucket on its first possession of the second half, but the Lions extended their lead back to 11 by scoring on three consecutive trips down the floor. Zimmerman scored off another offensive putback to start the run and Oliver scored on the next two possessions to force the Spiders to call timeout down 43-32 at the quarter's 3:47 mark.

Columbia carried a six-point lead into the fourth and fended off Richmond's multiple attempts to rally. Koerner's 3-pointer off the glass was answered by an and-1 from Parson and a Hubbard jumper to make it a 52-49 game with 7:10 left. Roeper scored the game's next three points, including a bucket in transition to pad the lead back to two possessions, but the Spiders were earning enough trips to the foul line to stay within striking distance.

Leading by three with less than four minutes remaining, Columbia clamped down on defense to put the game away. The Lions held Richmond to 0-for-9 shooting through the final minutes, with the team's only points coming at the foul line. Meanwhile, Columbia scored on baskets by Oliver and Koerner, which led to a 6-0 run that turned it back into a three-possession game.

Columbia has the week off before heading to St. Francis (PA) on Saturday. Tip is set for 4 p.m. at DeGol Arena.

LATE SURGE LEADS LIONS OVER SAINT FRANCIS

Tuesday, December 1, 2015

SAINT FRANCIS (PA.) 78
COLUMBIA 82

NEW YORK – The Columbia women's basketball team (5-1) rallied when it mattered most on Tuesday afternoon as they came from behind once again to take down Saint Francis (Pa.), 82-78, in their Eighth New York City Education Day game.

Playing in front of a screaming crowd of over 1,800 fans, it was Columbia who would get on the board first as Alexa Giuliano drained a three from the corner. Unfortunately, the Red Flash would respond with seven unanswered points to take back the lead.

Still trailing, 7-5, Paige Tippet stepped up for the Lions as she got to the corner and hit one from downtown to put the Lions back on top.

With the help of a Paige Tippet three to give the lions back the lead, Columbia was able to hold the Saint Francis offense without a field goal for the final three and a half minutes, but six free throws allowed the Red Flash to cut the Columbia lead to 19-16 after the first quarter of play.

After battling back and forth through a second quarter that saw two ties and seven lead changes, it was the Red Flash who came out on top heading into the break with a 44-41 lead, holding the Lions without a field goal in the last three and a half minutes.

Leading 49-46, the Red Flash offense began to go to work as they rallied on a 10-2 run before Alexa Giuliano and Devon Roeper could team up for back-to-back buckets to cut the deficit to 59-52 with 4:38 to play in the third.

Coming out of the media timeout, however, it was all Columbia as the Lions rallied on a 13-3 run to pull to within a point, 62-61 with just under two minutes remaining in the quarter.

With the clock winding down, Alexa Giuliano drained a three from the corner to tie the game up at 65-65 and with the help of a Josie Little free throw, the Lions were able to take back the lead, 66-65, heading into the final 10 minutes of play.

Tied at 68-68, Camile Zimmerman stepped up for the Lions as she attacked the lane to hit a runner before Alexa Giuliano followed up, draining her sixth trey of the day to put Columbia ahead, 73-68.

While the Red Flash was able to pull to within three in the final minute, the Lions would not relinquish the lead as they went on to claim an 82-78 victory to improve to 5-1 on the year.

The Lions dominated on the boards, outrebounding the Red Flash, 61-28, with three different players picking up double-digit rebounds.

Giuliano led the Lions with 21 points after shooting 7-of-18 from the field and 6-of-14 from downtown, adding six rebounds and a pair of assists on the day. Devon Roeper picked up 19 points after an impressive 8-of-11 shooting from the field, picking up six rebounds while adding two assists.

Zimmerman picked up her third double-double of the season with 11 points and 12 rebounds after shooting 5-of-9 from the field while Josie Little added 11 rebounds and Tori Oliver rounded out the double-figure rebounding with 10 boards.

The Lions will return to action this weekend as they head out West to Phoenix, Arizona, for the Arizona State University Tournament on Dec. 5-6.

NOTES FROM LAST SEASON

SOMETHING TO BUILD ON

• Along with the most non-conference wins in program history (11), Columbia's 12 overall wins last season places them third all-time since the program turned Division I back in 1986 ... Only the 2009-10 team (18-10) and the 2008-09 team (13-15) have achieved more wins, while six other teams have reached the 12-win mark.

COMPETING WITH UCONN

• For the majority of the season, the Lions led the nation in free-throw percentage, but were surpassed by the national champion UConn Huskies by season's end ... Columbia finished the 2015-16 campaign at 79.3 percent, while UConn came in at an even 80 percent ... The Lions were slightly better in Ivy League play at 79.7 percent, more than three full percentage points ahead of the next closest team, Brown, at 76.6 percent.

CAMILLE ZIMMERMAN IN THE 2ND HALF

• Camille Zimmerman was the go-to in the second half of play in Ivy League games last season, averaging 7.7 points and 3.8 rebounds per game in the final 20 minutes after shooting 51.4 percent (76-of-148) from the floor and 46.2 percent (6-of-13) from deep ... In the opening 20 minutes, Zimmerman leads the team with 7.1 points and 3.5 rebounds per game while shooting 43.2 percent (73-of-169) from the field and 34.4 percent (11-of-32) from deep.

NEWEST MEMBER OF THE 1,000-POINT CLUB

• With the help of a free throw in the second half of action against Princeton on Feb. 13, Tori Oliver became the 10th player in program history to reach the 1,000-point club, marking the first to cross that threshold since Lauren Dwyer (2007-2011) ... Oliver enters the 2016-17 season seventh all-time with 1,055 career points.

SPREADING THE OFFENSE

• Columbia went into the final weekend of last season with two players averaging double figures and three others that averaging at least 7.5. Camille Zimmerman led the way with 15.0 points and 7.5 rebounds per game while shooting 46.7 percent from the floor and 37.8 from downtown ... Devon Roeper was also in double-figures with 10.0 points and 4.0 rebounds per contest ... As a team, the Lions shot 40.1 percent from the floor last season with three of the team's starters averaging over 40.0 percent from the field.

RED HOT ROEPER

• Devon Roeper came alive against Stony Brook on Nov. 23, recording 23 points while picking up six boards in 25 minutes after shooting 10-of-16 from the floor ... Since then, she averaged 11.0 points and 4.5 rebounds while shooting 51.3 percent (97-for-189) from the field over a 24-game period ... With that momentum carrying, Roeper started four of the last five games for the Lions and averaged more than 24 minutes per game.

ROOKIE DUO IMPACT

• The Lions have earned six Ivy League Rookie of the Week honors last season, with Emily Surloff and Josie Little each earning three ... Combined, the two rookies are averaging more than 11 points and seven rebounds per game while shooting 37 percent from the field.

TOP RECRUITING CLASS IN THE IVY LEAGUE

• Heading into last season, the Lions were named the top recruiting class among the Ancient Eight ... Ranked No. 57 among all of Division I schools according to the Dan Olson Collegiate Girls Basketball Report, Columbia's Class of 2019 finished just ahead of conference-foe Princeton (58th) while Penn made the Top 100 at No. 70.

ROEPER DOING MORE THAN SCORING

• Named a member of the 2015 Allstate Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) Good Works Team, Devon Roeper has been doing more than just scoring baskets for the Lions during her time at Columbia ... Since high school, Roeper has been working with the small impoverished community of Mukono, just outside the capital of Kampala in Uganda, where she and a friend, James Lock, have helped create the amateur National Basketball League of Uganda ... Roeper was selected as one of five Division I student-athletes to be named to the WBCA Good Works team and was the only underclassmen in the group ... COLUMBIA HALL OF FAME CLASS OF 2016

Megan Griffith '07CC was named the head coach of the Columbia women's basketball team in March 2016 after spending the last six years at Princeton University. She was inducted into the Columbia University Athletics Hall of Fame in October.

Griffith spent six seasons at Princeton, including the last four as an assistant coach and the team's recruiting coordinator. She also served as the Tigers' director of basketball operations from 2010-12. The last two years, Griffith has helped Princeton make back-to-back trips to the NCAA Tournament. During that span, the Tigers posted a 54-7 overall record, including an undefeated 30-0 regular season in 2014-15, and a 26-2 mark in Ivy League play.

In Griffith's time with Princeton, the Tigers eclipsed 20 victories and reached the postseason each year, while securing five Ivy League titles. She has mentored 13 All-Ivy League players, including Blake Dietrick, who was the 2015 Ivy League Player of the Year and a WBCA Honorable Mention All-American, and 2013 Ivy League Defensive Player of the Year, Lauren Polansky.

Griffith captained the Lions for three seasons and was a two-time All-Ivy League selection (2006 and 2007). Griffith is one of nine Lions to score more than 1,000 points during her career, averaging 10.1 points per game. During her junior year, Griffith ranked 22nd in the nation in assists, averaging 5.5 per game, while chipping in 15.2 points per game. She was twice named Academic All-Ivy League and was a member of the Arthur Ashe Sports Scholar Team two straight years.

Following graduation, Griffith played three years of professional basketball in Europe. She joined FoA Nice Basketball in Forssa, Finland, during the 2007-08 season and was named the team's MVP at the end of the season. In 2008-09, Griffith led the Espoo Basket Team to the National Finnish Championship and the Finnish Cup Championship titles. During the year she was also a youth basketball coach for Honka Basketball Club.

Griffith was also a member of the Celeritas-Donar Basketball team in Groningen, Netherlands. In addition, she was named a U20 Dames 1 assistant coach and U18 Northern Selection Team assistant coach, while working as a youth coach and clinic director for Celeritas-Donar.

Griffith founded Back to Basics Basketball in 2008, an organization developed to teach basketball skills, while providing training and mentoring in her hometown of King of Prussia, Pennsylvania.

Griffith graduated from Columbia with a degree in economics in 2007.
