Pioneer Points...

Pioneers on the Road...

Sacred Heart goes into Monday's game 6-9 on the road after most recently falling to Robert Morris 66-56. The Pioneers are 4-4 on the road in conference play, where their four wins came from Wagner 70-56, Bryant 65-53, St. Francis Brooklyn 81-74, and LIU Brooklyn 51-41. The Pioneers only Conference defeats have been on the road, but look to close out regular season play with an important matchup in Loretto, PA

Haines Haines Haines...

Katherine Haines has become a powerhouse down low as she recently recorded her eighth double-double of the season. Haines finished the night against RMU with a new career high in points with 23, and a new career high rebounds with 18.

Giving Them Away...

The Pioneers were led by Katherine Haines in the last outting, as she went 11-13 at the free throw line. The team shot .842 (16-19) at the charity stripe and with their last time taking on the Red Flash they attempted 28 free throws, so if history repeats itself, the Pioneers will capitalize on the free points

The View From The Top...

The Pioneers have been on a tear this season as they sit at the number one spot going into the final weekend of the regular season. After falling to Robert Morris 66-56, the Pioneers are now tied for first as they go into their final game of the regular season. A win against the Red Flash would put the Pioneers in a situation to be named NEC regular season champions

Late Energy...

The Pioneers have had to spark late energy in their last two contests, as they were brought into overtime by the Fairleigh Dickinson Knights, but were able to outscore the Knights 16-8 in overtime and pick up a 68-60 win.

The Pioneers trailed by 9 points at one point, against the LIU Brooklyn Blackbirds but after posting 19 points, and holding the Blackbirds to 6 points in the fourth quarter they pulled off the 51-41 win.

Storck is CLUTCH...

Erin Storck has shown shes not afraid to take the big shot. Erin Storck hit a big triple, recently against the Knights of Fairleigh Dickinson with a minute remaining in overtime to put the dagger in the Knights. Also three games prior Storck, hit a jumper with 3 seconds remaining against St. Francis Brooklyn to force the game into overtime, where SHU would come out victorious.

Hannah Kimmel...

Hannah Kimmel has had quite the season as she has posted double-digit points in all but two NEC games this season. Kimmel continued to post big numbers as she was one of three Pioneers in double digits recently against Fairleigh Dickinson with 13 points

Coming For A Ring...

The Pioneers posted their 10th win in NEC play after taking down the CCSU Blue Devils 82-61 to secure their spot in the Northeast Conference Tournament. The Pioneers have made the tournament every year since joining the NEC in the 1999-00 season.

Last Game...

The Sacred Heart women's basketball team took the road to take on defending NEC Champions Robert Morris, and fell 66-56. Katherine Haines had a career setting night as she posted her eighth double-double of the season. Haines snagged a new career high 18 rebounds and set a new career high 23 points. the Pioneers found two players in double-digits, as Adaysha Williams posted 11 points respectively. Haines found the majority of her points at the charity stripe as she finished going 11-13 from the line. The Pioneers managed to outrebound the Colonials 40-38, but the Colonials held SHU's shoointg to 31.6% from the field, and shot 41%. The Pioneers ended the first quarter in a 22-7 hole, but despite getting within two points in the final quarter, the original deficit was proven to be too much for the Pioneers.

Away Mondays...

The Pioneers are 9-0 at home against the NEC, with a big road weekend against Robert Morris and Saint Francis U, SHU looks to come out with big wins to secure the home court advantage going into the conference tournament. Against NEC opponents the Pioneers are also undefeated on Saturday, as the three lone losses came on Monday's on the road.

Kimmel Coming For The Top Spot...

Hannah Kimmel has had a remarkable season for the Pioneers as she closes in on the record books as she now sits in second with 229 career three pointers, as she added a three against the Knights of FDU. The current Sacred Heart holder is Maggie Cosgrove (07'-11') who tallied 255 career three pointers.

Snaggin Boards...

The Pioneers grabbed 50 rebounds on the night against CCSU, and outrebounded the Blue Devils 50-31. The last time SHU snagged 50+ rebounds came against St. Francis U earlier in the season where the Pioneers snagged 52 boards. Katherine Haines lead the rebounding train grabbing 15 boards, as Shelby Hickey was right behind her with 10 rebounds.

Pioneers in the Airwaves...

Beginning this season, SHU struck a deal with WSTC 1400AM to air all Sacred Heart men's and women's basketball home games as well as feature both head coaches on the Bruce Hall Second Opinion weekly.

Sitting on Top...

The Pioneers were once again picked to finish atop the Northeast Conference in the league's preseason coaches poll garnering six first place votes. Also announced at NEC Basketball Social Media Day in October was the All-NEC Preseason Team on which reigning NEC Player of the Year Hannah Kimmel earned a spot. This is the second straight year that Kimmel has picked up a preseaon nod from the NEC coaches, and the first time in Mannetti's tenure that SHU was picked first in the preseason poll.

4th season, 61-56

Jessica Mannetti took over the Sacred Heart women's basketball program at the start of the 2013-14 season.

Under her leadership in 2014-15, the Pioneers posted a 16-13 record, and finished fourth in the NEC clinching a quarterfinal home game with an 11-7 record against conference foes. The year was highlighted with the program's first ever win over a Big East member with Dec. 20's 72-49 win over Villanova.

In her first season with the Pioneers, she led the team to a 12-18 record, including overtime battles with Big East members Villanova and St. John's, and a sixth place finish in the Northeast Conference with a 9-9 league record. On November 16, 2013, she earned her first win as a head coach as the Pioneers defeated Yale University 67-54.

A Fairfield County native, Mannetti has called New Caanan home for much of her life. She comes to Sacred Heart after spending four seasons as an assistant coach at Hofstra University on Krista Kilburn-Steveskey's staff. While at Hofstra, Mannetti helped guide the Pride to a 72-55 record as well as a pair of appearances in the WNIT.

She helped develop several players who went on to receive accolades from the Colonial Athletic Association (CAA) including Candace Bond who was named the 2012-13 CAA Defensive Player of the Year. She assisted with the development of All-American Shante Evans, who was named to the 2011 USA Basketball Women's Pan American Games team. As a recruiter, Hofstra's 2011 class ranked as the sixth best mid-major recruiting class in the nation by ESPN Hoopgurlz.

Prior to arriving at Hofstra, Mannetti served as the head girls' varsity basketball coach at Green Farms Academy in Westport, CT. In 2008-09 she led the team to a spot in the Fairchester Athletic Association (FAA) postseason tournament for the first time in school history. In her five seasons with Greens Farm, she developed the program from junior varsity status in 2004-05 to leading the Dragons to the playoffs in her final campaign.

A veteran of the AAU scene, Mannetti served as the head coach of the U-18 girls' team for the CT Future Stars AAU Basketball program from 2004 through 2008. Mannetti has also spent considerable time working with the Five-Star Basketball in a variety of positions since 1999. In addition, she previously worked an internship with the New York Knicks in their basketball operations department and worked as an event staffer for the New York Liberty.

A three-sport athlete in college, Mannetti graduated from Concordia College in Bronxville, NY in 2001 with a degree in business administration. She played volleyball,

In her first year with the Chargers, UNH won the 2015 NCAA Division II East Regional Championship. For New Haven, she was responsible for post player development, recruiting, as well as coordinating official and unofficial visits. She got her introduction to coaching in 2013 when she was selected to attend the NCAA Career in Sports Forum, and furthered her interest in coaching in 2014 at the WBCA's So You Want to be a Coach seminar. Aloizos is no stranger to life as a college student-athlete even before getting into coaching, playing four years of Division I basketball for Binghamton. During her time with the Bearcats, she was named to the Athletic Director's Honor Roll, as well as the America East Honor Roll.
