2017 NCAA Regional - Tucson

TODAY'S GAME NOTES

The Red Flash, led by Head Coach Jennifer Patrick-Swift, is 48-9 overall and went a perfect 16-0 in the NEC in the regular season. SFU won all three of its games in the NEC Tournament to capture its first ever NEC Tournament Title and NCAA Tournament bid. SFU earned a No. 3 regional seed in the Tucson Regional.

SFU is the first team in NEC history to go undefeated in league play. Saint Francis set the NEC wins with its victory over Wagner in the NEC Championship, bettering 47 wins by UMBC in 2002.

SFU is one of just two teams in the nation that went undefeated in conference play this season, joining No. 4 Florida State (27-0 ACC).

Saint Francis is red-hot entering the tournament, winning a program-record 21 straight games, the second-longest active streak in DI, and 36 of its last 37 games. SFU is ranked 51st in the RPI, received 10 votes in this week's USA Today/NFCA Coaches Poll and is ranked 25th in the nation by HERO Sports.

The Red Flash has improved its win total each of the last six seasons. Saint Francis improved from 10 wins to 22 from 2011 to 2012, followed by 25 wins (2013), 26 wins (2014), 31 wins (2015), 34 wins (2016) and now 48 wins in 2017.

DUAL-THREAT

The Red Flash has shown some impressive speed and power this season, with 61 home runs and 106 stolen bases. SFU and Florida State are the only teams in the nation with 60 HR and 100 SB this season. SFU has already set SFU and NEC season steals records.

Junior Jordan Seneca has 21 homers and 22 steals this season. She is the first 20-20 player in NEC history and the first player in the NCAA to do it since Longwood's Megan Baltzell in 2015. Seneca is just the third player to accomplish that feat since 2010, with Michigan State's Lindsey Hansen posting a 20-20 season in 2011.

ROAD WARRIORS

Saint Francis has been impressive away from home this season. The Red Flash is 22-4 in true road games and 16-4 in neutral site games. SFU's 22 road wins are the most in Division I. SFU enters the NCAA Tournament with a 17-game road win streak.

SENECA BREAKS SFU, NEC HOME RUN RECORDS

With 21 homers this year, junior Jordan Seneca ranks third in the nation and has more than 88 Division I teams. Seneca has topped the SFU-record 18 homers she hit last year and the NEC-record 19 homers by Mount St. Mary's Rachel Heinze last year.

Seneca also set a new SFU season RBI record, with 64, topping her 59 last season. Seneca, eighth in the nation in RBI, is currently tied for the NEC season record, held by Monmouth's Heather Gordon (2007). Seneca has also scored 62 runs, totaling 126 runs that she has accounted for. That is more than 20 Division I teams.
