THE CAPSULE

For the fifth consecutive season, Robert Morris will be playing for the Northeast Conference (NEC) Tournament championship after it defeated LIU Brooklyn, 74-44, on Thursday evening in the NEC semifinals. The Colonials are in search of their third-straight league championship and eighth overall, and would advance to the program's sixth NCAA Tournament with a victory.

THE OPPONENT

Saint Francis U shared the NEC regular-season championship with the Colonials, finishing at 16-2 in league contests. The Red Flash topped Fairleigh Dickinson, 89-70, in the NEC quarterfinals, and avenged an earlier loss to Sacred Heart, 78-47, to secure its spot in the title game. SFU is led by junior guard Jessica Kovatch, who was named NEC Player of the Year after averaging 24.8 points per game. Redshirt freshman guard Caitlyn Kroll is the league's Rookie of the Year selection after pacing the team in assists (3.2) to go along with 13.5 points per game. Graduate student Ace Harrison collected NEC Defensive Player of the Year honors as she ranks second in the NEC in steals (2.6) and seventh in blocks (1.2).

THE SERIES

This is the third meeting of the Keystone State contingent in the NEC Championship Game. Saint Francis U got the best of Robert Morris in the 2005 edition, 65-50, before the Colonials knocked off the Red Flash, 78-64, in 2014. In that victory, Artemis Spanou, who garnered NEC Player of the Year plaudits and was later named NEC Tournament MVP, posted a 30-point, 20-rebound double-double to go along with six assists, two steals, and a block in 40 minutes.

RMU IN THE PLAYOFFS IS...

- 6-10 in away contests
- 11-2 all-time as the No. 2 seed
- 3-6 all-time against the No. 1 seed (Most recent: W, 56-51 at SHU in 2016 title game)
- 4-5 against Saint Francis U in the postseason (Most recent: W, 78-64 vs. SFU in 2014 title game)
- 7-3 all-time in the NEC Championship Game

A NEW STANDARD

RMU's victory over LIU Brooklyn in the NEC Tournament semifinals was its 25th of the season, surpassing the school record first established by the 2006-07 team, who finished 24-8 and advanced to the program's first NCAA Tournament.

TOURNAMENT TWO STEP

Robert Morris owns an 11-2 mark as the No. 2 seed in the NEC Tournament, but eight of those 11 victories have come in the last 11 seasons. The Colonials' last defeat as the second-seeded team came on March 11, 1989 against top-seeded Wagner (L, 60-66).

TWICE AS NICE

Colonials head man Charlie Buscaglia became just the third coach in NEC history to win back-to-back Coach of the Year awards when he received the nod on Wednesday morning. Buscaglia joins Myndi Hill of Saint Francis U (2002, 2003) and Ed Swanson of Sacred Heart (2008, 2009) as the only coaches to achieve this feat.

THREE NAMED ALL-NEC

For the second consecutive season, RMU had three players named to All-NEC teams as Megan Smith, Nneka Ezeigbo, and Honoka Ikematsu all were honored by the conference. Smith topped the list as a First Team honoree, her third all-league accolade from the NEC. Ezeigbo followed up an All-Rookie performance with a Second Team nod this year, while Ikematsu gave the Colonials their 14th All-Rookie plaudit in program history.

A DATE WITH EIGHT

RMU has won seven NEC Tournament championships in its history, including three over the past four seasons. That is the second most in league history behind Saint Francis U, who has won 11 titles. However, the Colonials have won five of their crowns since 2006-07, which is more than twice as much as any other institution during that span.

CHAMPS ONCE AGAIN

The Colonials captured their sixth NEC regular-season championship on March 4, having finished tied at the top of the standings with Saint Francis U at 16-2. RMU previously finished at the top of the NEC table in 2007, 2008, 2010, 2014, and 2016.

LAST TIME OUT

Robert Morris left little doubt in its NEC semifinal contest against sixth-seeded LIU Brooklyn, advancing to its fifth consecutive NEC championship game with a 74-44 win over the Blackbirds on Thursday night. The Colonials doubled up the visitors in the first half, 40-20, and received a game-high 21 points in 18 minutes from Nneka Ezeigbo. Megan Callahan added 16 points on 6-of-9 shooting as RMU shot 50% (29-58) as a team.

BLOCK PARTY

Senior center Mikalah Mulrain has 35 blocked shots this season, upping her career total to 169. Mulrain's next rejection will break Anna Gaillite's school record, which she set from 2009-13.

IRON WOMEN

In their next appearances, seniors Jocelynn Jones and Mikalah Mulrain will establish a new program record for games played at 129. They're currently tied with a pair of seniors from last season's team in Rebeca Navarro and Janee Brown.

WHO WAS ROBERT MORRIS?

The "Financier of the American Revolution," he isn't as famous as his friend George Washington, but without Robert Morris, the American colonies' bold attempt to throw off British rule never could have succeeded.

Born in 1734 in Liverpool, England, Robert Morris sailed to the United States with his father when he was 14 years old. Morris became a partner at the import export firm of Willing & Morris where he made his millions. After, he became the spokesman for opposition to the Stamp Act, smuggled arms for the new American army and navy, signed the Declaration of Independence, secured financing — often using his personal credit — to fight the Revolutionary War and served as a Pennsylvania state senator. He died in Philadelphia on May 8, 1806.

LOCK 'EM DOWN

Robert Morris has prided itself on defense in its history and this season is no different. A season after establishing a new program record for points per game allowed at 57.5, the Colonials are currently allowing an average of 53.6 points per contest, which ranks tops in the NEC and seventh nationally. RMU also paces the conference in field goal defense (.363), which ranks 28th nationally, and sits in the Top 30 in steals per game (10.5, 26th) and turnovers forced (20.10, 25th).

LIFT OFF

RMU has come out of the gates strong this season, owning a 116-point advantage in the first quarter over its 31 games. Against conference foes, the Colonials have outscored their opponents by 97 in 20 opening frames. RMU averages a 4.9-point lead heading into the second quarter versus NEC teams.

THREE-KEMATSU

Just 30 games into her career, it's clear that Honoka Ikematsu is someone you don't want to leave open from beyond the arc. Ikematsu is converting at a 43.8 percent (64-146) rate from deep, which tops the NEC and is the 14th highest three-point percentage in the nation.

SMITH STARTS FOR RMU

Senior forward Megan Smith has been a fixture in the starting lineup since arriving in Moon Township from Barrie, Ontario, appearing in the first five a total of 124 times. Her start against Central Connecticut on Wednesday gave her sole possession of the program record for career starts, passing Artemis Spanou (2010-14) and Anna Niki Stamolamprou (2013-17).

PERENNIAL PLAYOFF POTENTIAL

Robert Morris is participating in its 13th NEC Tournament over the last 14 seasons. RMU had rattled off eight consecutive postseason appearances from 2004-05 to 2011-12, finishing first in three of those seasons.

IN FEBRUARY, WE WORE PINK

It has been a tradition for Robert Morris to don pink alternate jerseys during select games in February. It has also been a tradition for the Colonials to win those contests. After its 67-51 triumph over Central Connecticut on Feb. 26, RMU is now 20-1 in pink jerseys since the 2013-14 season, with its lone loss coming during the 2015-16 campaign.

MEETING THE MARK

With their victory at Bryant on Feb. 24, the Colonials reached the 20-win mark for the 11th time in program history. RMU has now won 20 games in four of the last five seasons, and rattled off four consecutive 20-win campaigns from 2004-05 to 2007-08.

SMITH DOES IT ALL

Megan Smith has been one of the most reliable players in program history over her four seasons and on Feb. 24 at Bryant, she joined an exclusive club. With a career-high seven assists against the Bulldogs, she became just the fourth player in school history to eclipse 1,000 points, 500 rebounds, and 200 rebounds in a career. The other three players to do so are:

Chinata Nesbit (2006-08) - 1,083 pts, 620 reb, 245
Artemis Spanou (2010-14) - 2,124 points, 1,563 reb, 370 ast
Anna Niki Stamolamprou (2013-17) - 1,815 pts, 633 reb, 373 ast

A PERFECT JANUARY

With its victory over Central Connecticut on Jan. 29, Robert Morris finished the month of January undefeated at 7-0. This is the first time since February of 2010 that the Colonials won every game in a month, as that 2009-10 team finished NEC play with a 17-1 record.

ONE IS THE LONELIEST NUMBER

The Colonials defense limited St. Francis Brooklyn to one point in the first quarter of their 59-36 win on Jan. 8, establishing a new school record for fewest points allowed in a frame. The previous mark was set on Jan. 9, 2017 in RMU's 83-42 win over LIU Brooklyn after the Colonials carried a 23-3 advantage into the second quarter.

JOIN THE CLUB

Megan Smith became the 23rd player in program history to score 1,000 points in a career when she knocked down a trifecta in the second quarter of RMU's win at Sacred Heart on Dec. 31. Her milestone was one of three reached on the season thus far:

- Mikalah Mulrain: 500th rebound vs. Kent State (Dec. 19), 22nd player to do so
- Megan Smith: 100th start vs. Monmouth (Dec. 3), fourth player to do so
- Jocelynn Jones: 100th steal vs. Youngstown State (Nov. 29), 16th player to do so.

WELCOME TO HOOP TOWNSHIP

Robert Morris is in the midst of its greatest run ever, capturing three of the last four NEC Tournament titles, including the last two. The Colonials have made five NCAA Tournaments since 2006-07, owning a 229-152 (.601) overall record and a mark of 154-62 (.713) in league play during this stretch.

NATIONALLY KNOWN

Robert Morris has played in a national tournament eight times over the last 11 seasons. In 2007 and 2008, the Colonials took part in their first NCAA Tournaments. In 2008-09, RMU played in the Preseason WNIT, before earning a Postseason WNIT bid in 2009-10. The 2011-12 season ended with the top seed in the Women's Basketball Invitational (WBI), setting the stage for returns to the Big Dance in 2014, 2016, and 2017.

INSURMOUNTABLE LEAD

Robert Morris has never lost a game in which it has held the lead at the end of the second half. In such situations, the Colonials are 25-0 this season and 33-0 in the NEC Tournament. All-time, RMU is 598-0 when leading at the final whistle.

2017-18 NEC PRESEASON

Coming off back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances, the Robert Morris University women's basketball team was selected to finish second in the 2017-18 Northeast Conference (NEC) Women's Basketball Preseason Coaches' Poll, as announced by the league at its annual Social Media Day held at Brooklyn, N.Y.'s Barclays Center.

This is the sixth time in the last seven seasons that Robert Morris has been picked to finish in the top two of the conference. The Colonials were tabbed second last year, which followed three consecutive preseason favorite honors in 2013-14, 2014-15, and 2015-16.

RMU, who collected three of nine possible first-place votes, is currently in the midst of the program's golden era. The Colonials have captured three of the last four NEC Tournament titles and five postseason championships (2007, 2008, 2014, 2016, 2017) since 2006-07. Robert Morris is 52-18 (.743) in league play over the last four seasons, which is the most wins for an NEC team during that span.

Returning for her senior season is All-NEC Third Team honoree Megan Smith, who enters her final hurrah just 117 points shy of becoming the 23rd Colonial to reach 1,000 in a career. A Preseason All-NEC selection, Smith paced RMU in rebounding (6.0), three-point percentage (.465), and free throw percentage (.847) as a junior, while ranking second in scoring (10.7). Her three-point percentage also topped the NEC as she shot 47.7/46.5/84.7 for the season. The Barrie, Ontario forward posted three double-doubles in 2016-17 and reached double-figures scoring on 18 occasions.

Smith is joined by fellow seniors Shakema Dashiell, Mikalah Mulrain, and Jocelyne Jones. The fourth-year quartet has been a part of 59 victories, 38 NEC wins, three NEC Championship Game appearances, two NEC Tournament titles, and a league regular-season championship. All four players have saw action in at least 81 games, with Mulrain and Jones' 97 appearances topping the four. Mulrain enters her final season with 134 career blocks, 36 rejections shy of the program record set by Anna Galite (2009-13).

CHARLIE BUSCAGLIA

Head Coach

15th season at Robert Morris

2nd season as head coach

Manhattan '03

Charlie Buscaglia recently completed his first season as head coach of the Robert Morris University women's basketball team. Coach B, as he is respectfully called, is no stranger to the Colonials' basketball program, however. The long-time assistant spent 13 seasons on the RMU coaching staff before taking over the head coaching role, and served as the associate head coach from 2008-09 to 2015-16.

"Charlie has been an integral part of the success of our program with increasing responsibilities over the years," said RMU Director of Athletics Craig Coleman. "We are grateful that we will be able to maintain continuity in the program under Charlie's leadership to ensure that we will have great success in years to come."

Coach B continued the program's recent run of success in his first season in charge as the Colonials advanced to their fifth NCAA Tournament following a 65-52 victory over Bryant in the NEC Championship Game and final contest at the Charles L. Sewall Center. Robert Morris entered the NEC Tournament as the number one seed after claiming the league regular-season title and finished the 2016-17 campaign with a 22-11 overall record and 14-4 mark in conference.

In addition to the team accolades, the Colonials brought home quite the haul in NEC awards. Buscaglia was named Brenda Reilly NEC Coach of the Year after posting the best record for a first-year head coach in program history, while Anna Niki Stamolamprou took home NEC Player of the Year honors. Megan Smith claimed a spot on the All-NEC Third Team and Nneka Ezeigbo was named to the All-NEC Rookie Team.

Buscaglia has always believed that recruiting is the lifeline of a program. After taking over as recruiting coordinator in 2003, he went in search of the best talent both near and far, connecting with athletes from not only all over the country, but all over the world.

"Most people assume you are a great recruiter when you sign great talent," said Buscaglia. "What I have learned over my years as a coach, however, is that recruiting talent – along with a strong work ethic – is what separates one from the others. My mission will always be for my staff to bring in student-athletes that work hard on the court and in the classroom."

Coach B's rundown of All-NEC players is an impressive list of who's who among the league's stars. The all-star cavalcade began with the signing of Sugeiry Monsac in 2004. Monsac was the 2004-05 NEC Player of the Year who went on to play in the Israeli Division I League and was inducted into the RMU Athletics Hall of Fame. She was followed by a pair of 2006 All-NEC selections in Psyche Butler and Natasha Summerville.

His strong recruiting record received national recognition in 2006-07 when the RMU class was ranked as one of the Top 50 classes by the Adidas All-Star Report.

Buscaglia pulled off another recruiting coup when he signed University of Kentucky recruit Sade Logan in the 2006 class. Logan, who was a Top 20 player coming out of high school, earned NEC Player of the Year honors in 2009 and tied the NCAA Division I record for three-pointers with 126. Another 2006 recruit, Chinata Nesbit, was a two-time All-NEC First Team pick and was twice the NEC Tournament MVP.

Not as well known when she was recruited out of Monroe College, Angela Pace was a diamond in the rough, using her athleticism to become the only player in league history to earn both NEC Player of the Year and NEC Defensive Player of the Year.

More recently, Coach B's recruiting tendrils have gone international with impressive results. Artemis Spanou, a native of Greece, was a two-time NEC Player of the Year and is the team's all-time leading scorer and rebounder. The first NEC Rookie of the Year in team history, she was quickly joined by Italian native Ashley Ravelli, who earned the plaudits in 2013.

The list doesn't end there. Anna Niki Stamolamprou was an All-NEC Rookie Team selection in 2014 and All-NEC pick in 2015, 2016, and 2017. Stamolamprou is also a two-time NEC Tournament MVP after helping the Colonials collect league titles in 2016 and 2017. Megan Smith and Mikalah Mulrain continued the tradition of freshmen making an immediate impact, joining the growing list of All-Rookie Team selections at RMU in 2015. Nneka Ezeigbo later added her name to that wall with her All-Rookie Team selection in 2017.

Buscaglia came to Robert Morris from Manhattan College, the 2003 Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC) champions and NCAA Tournament participant, where he was an assistant from 1998 to 2003. While at Manhattan, Buscaglia focused mainly on recruiting and developing the perimeter players. He signed Rosalee Mason, who averaged a double-double for the Lady Jaspers and finished her career as Manhattan's all-time leading scorer and rebounder. She is one of the many players Coach B has signed that has played professionally in Europe.

"The entire Robert Morris community continually strives to fulfill all the needs of its students and student-athletes, which is beneficial to building a winning tradition," stated Buscaglia. "The university has given me tremendous support in my quest to recruit top student-athletes, which has helped RMU to build a tradition of not only being a Northeast Conference contender, but a nationally competitive program."

Aside from recruiting, Buscaglia has helped run summer basketball camps and clinics at the University of Buffalo from 1994 to 1998, and was a camp coordinator at Manhattan during his tenure there.

A native of Buffalo, N.Y., Buscaglia graduated from Manhattan in 2003 with a Bachelor of Science degree in general studies. Buscaglia and his wife, Roseline, currently reside in Moon Township, Pa.
