BOB DRISCOLL

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR

Entering his 17th season as Providence College's Associate Vice President & Athletics Director, Bob Driscoll has transformed and reinvigorated Providence College's athletics program. Having established a vision of student-athlete success in the classroom and in the community while competing for championships, Driscoll maintains focus on leading, fostering and mentoring one of the nation's most respected athletic programs.

Over the past five years, Driscoll has been the architect of one of the most successful eras in the history of Providence College athletics. The Friars continued their success during 2017-18, with the men's basketball team's fifth-consecutive NCAA appearance. Providence finished in a three-way tie for third in the BIG EAST standings at 10-8, highlighted by a momentous 76-71 win over then-No. 3/2 Villanova at the Dunkin' Donuts Center. As the No. 5 seed in the BIG EAST Tournament, Providence's run to the title game included three-consecutive overtime contests – a 72-68 win over No. 4 Creighton, a 75-72 triumph over top-seeded Xavier, and a 76-66 setback to eventual national champion Villanova.

Men's hockey continued its run with its fifth-consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance and fifth-consecutive 20-plus win season under Head Coach Nate Leaman. The Friars advanced to their first Hockey East Championship Game since 2001 with a 3-2 overtime win over Northeastern in the semifinals. Providence also advanced to the NCAA East Regional Final by virtue of a 1-0 win over Clarkson in Bridgeport, Conn. Sophomore defenseman Jacob Bryson earned Second Team All-American and First Team Hockey East recognition, while teammate Erik Foley also earned First Team Hockey East Distinction. The team finished the season ranked seventh in the USCHO poll and ninth in the USA Today/USA Hockey Magazine poll, marking the sixth-consecutive season that the program has earned a spot in the final national polls.

Providence became just the third Division I school all-time to have both men's basketball and men's hockey programs earn NCAA Tournament bids in the same season for five-consecutive years.

Women's cross country secured its fifth NCAA Northeast Regional crown in the last six seasons, while Catarina Rocha captured the individual BIG EAST Cross Country crown. The Friars earned its 28th NCAA Cross Country Championships berth, finishing 16th overall at the event. Rocha, Brianna Ilarda, Millie Paladino, and Abbey Wheeler, All-Northeast Region honors after finishing in the top-25 at the NCAA Northeast Regional meet. Paladino also qualified for the final of the women's mile at the NCAA Indoor Championships, finishing sixth overall to earn First Team All-American recognition. Rocha and Wheeler both qualified for the NCAA Outdoor Championships in the 5,000m event. Wheeler advanced to the final of the 5,000m, finishing 19th overall and earning Honorable Mention All-American accolades.

Providence College ranked 107th in the final Learfield Directors' Cup standings, finishing sixth among NCAA Division I non-FBS/FCS institutions and third among BIG EAST Conference members. The Friars picked up a total of 170.00 points. The men's hockey program picked up the most points for the Friars (60) by virtue of its run to the NCAA East Regional Final.

This impressive run kicked off when the 2013 women's cross country team claimed the College's second NCAA Championship. It continued with the men's basketball team winning the 2014 BIG EAST Tournament title and advanced to the 2014 and 2015 NCAA Tournaments. The men's hockey team made back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances (2014 and 2015) for the first time in program history before claiming its first NCAA Championship with a dramatic, come-from-behind win over Boston University on April 11, 2015 at the TD Garden. It marked the College's third NCAA team title and its first in a men's sport.

For the second time in his tenure, Driscoll was recognized as the Under Armour I-AAA Athletics Director of the Year at the 51st Annual National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) convention in June 2016. In June 2008, Driscoll also was named the 2007-08 Astro Turf Athletics Director of the Year for the Division I Northeast Region at the 43rd National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics Annual Convention.

The Friars also have excelled in the classroom, with Providence's student-athletes combining for an average GPA of 3.22. After a school-record six Providence College athletic programs received Public Recognition Awards in 2014 as part of the NCAA Academic Progress Rate (APR) program, three Friar teams earned the honor in 2015 and two teams, women's swimming & diving and women's tennis, earned recognition awards in 2016 and 2017. Multiple Friar teams have been honored in each of the 13 years the NCAA has given out the Public Recognition Awards. Aside from excelling in the classroom and competing for championships, Driscoll's student-athletes are very active in the local community. Last year alone, Friar student-athletes combined for over 2,000 hours of community service, raising $28,880. Providence was named a runner-up for the 2018 NACDA Community Service Award, earning $5,000 to donate to local charities.

One of the biggest impacts Driscoll has had on the Providence College Athletics Department, and the College as a whole, has been with facility development, construction and renovation. Since his arrival in 2001, Driscoll has transformed the College's athletics facilities. Construction was completed in the fall of 2015 to build Chapey Field at Anderson Stadium, where the men's and women's soccer and men's lacrosse programs play, as well as a new softball field and tennis courts. Chapey Field at Anderson Stadium has also played host to the BIG EAST Lacrosse Tournament (2017) and the USILA North-South All-Star Game (2017-2018). Men's soccer also played host to a BIG EAST Semifinal and a NCAA First Round game at Chapey Field at Anderson Stadium in 2016. Women's soccer finished 7-3-0 in their inaugural season at Anderson Stadium in 2016.

In December 2015, the College announced a historic gift to begin Phase I construction of the Ruane Friar Development Center, which will include a men's basketball training and recruiting facility in addition to the College's academic services space. Groundbreaking for the Ruane Friar Development Center took place on Oct. 1, 2016 in a ceremony held outside Alumni Hall. Phase I construction is expected to be completed in August 2018.

In September of 2013, a state-of-the-art renovation and 30,000-square foot addition project to Schneider Arena was completed. The project included new locker rooms, new coaches' offices, a renovated press box, a state-of-the-art video board and sound system, luxury boxes, as well as a new hockey and lacrosse strength and conditioning room. The Ray Treacy Track was built over the summer of 2013 to give the men's and women's cross country and track programs an improved place to train and race, as well as serving the whole Providence College community. Taylor Natatorium also underwent extensive renovations in 2013.

Other facility upgrades that have highlighted Driscoll's tenure include an $80-million renovation of the Dunkin' Donuts Center, which serves as the home venue for Friars men's basketball. The project was the result of Driscoll working strategically with lead officials in the City of Providence and the State of Rhode Island. The renovations enhanced the game-day experience by adding 20 luxury boxes, new seats, a video scoreboard, sound system, updated restaurant and concession stands, team store, locker rooms and new weight training/fitness areas. These renovations have enabled Providence College to serve as host for the First and Second Rounds of the 2010, 2016, and the future 2021 NCAA Men's Basketball Championship.

Kicking off Driscoll's vision for the improved athletic facilities footprint at Providence College, the Concannon Fitness Center, opened in August of 2007, adjacent to Lennon Family Field (Astroturf facility), which was completed in August 2005. A new Astroturf surface was installed on Lennon Family Field in the summer of 2017 in addition to a new videoboard in the summer of 2018. The Fitness Center houses the Friars' Jimmy Walker Strength and Conditioning Center for varsity student-athletes, as well as administrative and coaching offices, conference rooms and locker rooms. Additionally, the Concannon Fitness Center serves the whole Providence College community and houses the recreation sports staff, furthering the bond between the campus community and Friar Athletics. Next, the Canavan Sports Medicine Center was completed in August of 2008.

Driscoll established the athletic fundraising philosophy and department that has been instrumental in making program upgrades possible. He and his staff have exceeded fundraising goals on a yearly basis, including $6.4-million in cash donations during the 2017-18 fiscal calendar. The additional revenue remains critical to building and supporting championship programs and providing the best opportunities to Providence College's student-athletes. The funds Driscoll and his staff raise help directly support all 19 of Providence College's Division I programs, the Friars Forever Fund and capital projects.

In the past, Driscoll has served as the President of the Division I-AAA Athletics Directors Association. He also has served as First Vice President and Second Vice President for the organization. Additionally, Driscoll represents the BIG EAST's athletic directors on the Student-Athlete Advisory Council, serves as a mentor for the Division I-AAA mentoring program and serves on the Hockey East Television Negotiations and Marketing Committees. He previously served on the NCAA Division I Management Council, the NCAA Ice Hockey Championship Committee (Chair 2010-11) and was the Chair of the BIG EAST Athletic Directors in 2011-12. Driscoll also was an NCAA Fellows Programs Executive Mentor. Currently, Driscoll serves on the BIG EAST Finance Committee with the league's other presidents and also is a Chair for the Hockey East Board of Directors.

Driscoll joined the Providence community after 14½ years in athletic administration at the University of California, Berkeley, culminating in serving as the Acting Executive Director for Intercollegiate Athletics and Recreational Sports. Prior to that, he was Cal's Executive Associate Athletic Director and was responsible for the day-to-day operations of the department, as well as overseeing football, men's basketball, men's and women's swimming, men's and women's water polo, rugby, strength training, equipment and the sports medicine programs.

Driscoll was hired at Cal as the Associate Athletic Director for Student Services, a position he held for five years. He then assumed the position of Executive Associate Athletic Director, at which point he was responsible for the administration of 27 varsity sports, a staff of 250 and a $36 million budget. Prior to coming to Providence, he served as the Acting Executive Director for Intercollegiate Athletics and Recreational Sports. During his tenure, Cal won over 20 national championships and competed in the Citrus, Copper, Alamo and Aloha Bowls. The Bears also finished as high as 12th in the NACDA Directors' Cup.

Before arriving at Cal, Driscoll served six years (1981-87) as the Athletic Director and Chair of the Department of Physical Education, Recreation and Intramural Sports at Mills College in Oakland, Calif. Prior to Mills, Driscoll was Assistant Athletic Director and Head Baseball and Hockey Coach at Union College in Schenectady, N.Y. from 1977-81. Driscoll played hockey, where he was captain and team MVP for three-consecutive years, and baseball at Ithaca College (N.Y.). He received a Bachelor of Science degree in physical education in 1974 and his Master of Science in physical education/psychology of sports from Ithaca in 1975.

A native of West Concord, Mass., Driscoll was inducted into the inaugural class of Concord-Carlisle High School's Athletic Hall of Fame (football, ice hockey and baseball) in 1993. He and his wife Cathy have three grown children.

CRAIG STEWART

HEAD COACH

SEVENTH SEASON AT PROVIDENCE

TENTH SEASON AS A HEAD COACH

Craig Stewart enters his seventh season as the head coach of the Providence College men's soccer team. Stewart is the fourth head coach in school history. In his nine seasons as a head coach (six at Providence, three at Franklin Pierce), Stewart has led his teams to a 111-51-22 record, including six trips to the NCAA Tournament.

Last season, the Friars finished 5-8-5 and made their fifth-consecutive BIG EAST Tournament appearance. Stewart coached two players to All-BIG EAST honors, including senior forward Mac Steeves (Needham, Mass.) and redshirt freshman Matt DePerro (Baldwinsville, N.Y.). DePerro was an All-Freshman team selection while Steeves garnered First Team honors and United Soccer Coaches Div. I All-Great Lake Region Third Team honors. At the conclusion of the season, Steeves was drafted 43rd overall by the Houston Dynamo in the MLS Superdraft.

In 2016, Stewart led the Friars to their second Elite Eight appearance in three seasons. Stewart coached the Friars to an upset over the No. 1 overall and undefeated Maryland Terrapins, 5-4, in the NCAA Second Round, erasing a 4-1 deficit (Nov. 20). In addition to leading the program to its first BIG EAST Regular Season title, Stewart guided six athletes to All-BIG EAST honors, and claimed three major awards. Julian Gressel (Neustadt an der Aisch, Germany) was named the BIG EAST Offensive Player of the Year, Colin Miller (Bel Air, Md.) was named Co-Goalkeeper of the Year and Stewart and his staff were unanimously selected as the Coaching Staff of the Year. Gressel, Miller, and defender Mark Jecewiz (Smithtown, N.Y.) were All-BIG EAST First Team selections while Joao Serrano (Evora, Portugal), Liam Wilson (Sussex, England) and Danny Griffin (Wethersfield, Conn.) were named to the BIG EAST All-Freshman team. Stewart coached Gressel, Miller, Jecewiz, Serrano, and Griffin to All-Great Lakes Regional Honors. He guided Gressel to a First Team All-America selection, a MAC Hermann Trophy Semifinalist, and to the program's first MLS Superdraft First Round pick (8th overall, Atlanta United FC).

In the 2015 season, Stewart coached the Friars to a BIG EAST Semifinal game for the third time in four years, where they fell, 2-1, to Creighton and finished with an 8-7-3 overall record. He also guided five athletes to All-BIG EAST honors. Leading goal-scorer Mac Steeves (Needham, Mass.) earned All-BIG EAST First Team honors, Julian Gressel earned All-BIG EAST Second Team honors and three freshmen were named to the All-BIG EAST Freshman Team, including Klisman Sousa (Sal, Cape Verde), Tiago Mendonca (Faro, Portugal) and Brendan Constantine (Glastonbury, Conn.). Additionally, Stewart coached Steeves to 2015 NSCAA/Continental Tire NCAA Division I All-Regional honors.

During the 2014 season, Stewart guided the Friars to their most successful season in program history. Providence captured its first ever BIG EAST Championship title after defeating Xavier, 2-1, in Philadelphia on Nov. 16. Following the BIG EAST Tournament, the Friars earned an NCAA tournament berth for the eighth time (second consecutive year) and their first First Round bye in program history. After a 3-0 win over Dartmouth in the Second Round (Nov. 23) of the NCAA Tournament, a 1-0 win over UC Irvine in the Third Round (Nov. 30) and a 3-2 win at Michigan State in the Quarterfinal (Dec. 6), the Friars advanced to the College Cup for the first time in program history. At the College Cup, despite a 3-2 double overtime loss to UCLA in the second semifinal game, Steeves was named the 2014 College Cup Most Outstanding Offensive Player. Steeves became the first player in 31 seasons to be named Most Outstanding Offensive Player of the College Cup without being a member of a team in the Cup final. In addition, the 2014 team also set a record for the number of wins in a season (16).

Also during the 2014 season, Stewart coached six players to All-BIG EAST honors. Brandon Adler '15, Phil Towler '15, Fabio Machado '15, as well as then-sophomores Dominik Machado (Attleboro, Mass.) and Steeves were all named to the All-BIG EAST Second Team, while Daniel Neustadter (Mainz, Germany) was named to the All-BIG EAST Rookie Team. Upon conclusion of the BIG EAST Tournament, four Friars were recognized for their performances. Adler, Keasel Broome '14, Markus Naglestad '14 and Gressel were all named to the BIG EAST All-Tournament team. Naglestad also was named Most Outstanding Offensive Player of the Tournament, while Adler was named Most Outstanding Defensive Player. In addition, Stewart coached five players to 2014 NSCAA/Continental Tire NCAA Division I All-Regional honors, including Adler, Towler, Dominik Machado, Fabio Machado and Steeves, as well as coaching Towler to his first All-America honor. Towler became the fourth player in Providence College history to earn All-America accolades.

After the season, two of Stewart's seniors were selected in the 2015 MLS SuperDraft, including Broome and Naglestad. Broome was drafted fourth in the third round (46th overall, San Jose Earthquakes), while Naglestad was drafted second in the fourth round (64th overall, New York City Football Club).

In 2013, Stewart coached the Friars to their third BIG EAST Championship Final game in program history and led the team to an NCAA tournament berth for the seventh time. Stewart's second year with the Friars saw the team finish the season with an overall record of 12-6-4, which included a BIG EAST record of 6-3-0. Providence qualified for the BIG EAST tournament and had an excellent post-season, beating Creighton 2-1 in the BIG EAST quarterfinal and advancing past Georgetown in a penalty shootout in the semifinals. The Friars finished the tournament as runner-up to Marquette in the BIG EAST Final. The team's success in the BIG EAST tournament helped earn the Friars an at-large selection to the NCAA tournament, where they advanced to the second round. The Friars defeated the University of Pennsylvania in the first round of the tournament in a penalty shootout. Goalkeeper Broome tallied two saves, while Gressel, defender Anthony Baumann '14 and Naglestad all converted from the spot to give the Friars a 3-1 penalty kick-advantage win, sending them into the second round.

During the 2013 season, Stewart coached three athletes to BIG EAST accolades. Gressel earned Second Team All-BIG EAST honors and was named to the BIG EAST All-Rookie team. Brandon Adler and Phil Towler earned BIG EAST Honorable Mention. Adler was also named to the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) All-Northeast Second Team. Stewart helped Wilder Arboleda '13, Baumann, George Hodge '13 and Phil Ziegler '14 earn selection to the 2013 NEISL All-Star Game.

In addition to leading the Friars, Stewart has served as the Division I Representative for the New England Intercollegiate Soccer League (NEISL), as a New England Technical Scout for U.S. Soccer, as a Professional Match Evaluator (PME) for Major League Soccer (MLS) and as a U.S. Scout for the British Universities Men's Football Team. Stewart's work helped the Great Britain team claim the silver medal in the 2013 World University Games.

Stewart recorded his first career win behind the Providence bench on Aug. 31, 2012 when the Friars posted a 1-0 double overtime win at Bryant in the opening round of the 2012 Ocean State Soccer Classic - ensuring that the Friars advanced to the tournament's championship game for a third consecutive season. Arboleda scored the game-winning goal at 109:07 to lift Stewart and the Friars to their first win of the year, marking the latest game-winning goal for the Friars since 2000.

Stewart's first year leading the Friars was highlighted by a 1-0 Senior Day win over third-ranked Connecticut (Oct. 24) and a come-from-behind, 3-2 overtime win against Pittsburgh (Oct. 13). Stewart coached Arboleda to NSCAA All-Northeast Region and All-BIG EAST Third Team honors. Arboleda was the 14th Friar to earn All-BIG EAST honors in program history. Stewart also coached senior Marc Cintron, who became the fourth Friar to be selected in an MLS Draft as he was taken in the second round (34th overall) by the New York Red Bulls in the MLS Supplemental Draft. Eight of his players went on to earn 2012-13 BIG EAST Academic All-Star honors.

Stewart, who spent the previous three seasons as the head coach at Division II power Franklin Pierce University (Rindge, N.H.) before taking over at Providence, succeeded Chaka Daley. Under Daley, Stewart previously served as an assistant coach at Providence from 2006-08.

In 2011, Stewart guided Franklin Pierce to a 21-1-1 overall record as the team captured the Northeast-10 Conference regular season and tournament championships for the second consecutive season. The 21 victories set a single-season school record. In addition, the team earned a trip to the NCAA Final Four. Franklin Pierce also had its first unbeaten regular season record in team history as the Ravens went 16-0-1. For his efforts, Stewart was named NSCAA/Mondo East Region Coach of the Year for the second consecutive season. Franklin Pierce also excelled in the classroom as the team earned the NSCAA Team Academic Award with a 3.12 team grade point average and two of his players garnered CoSIDA Academic honors.

In three seasons, Stewart led Franklin Pierce to a 51-8-6 overall record, two Northeast-10 Conference championships (regular season and tournament), two trips to the NCAA Tournament quarterfinals and one trip to the Final Four. Stewart also coached four players who combined to win six player-of-the-year awards from either the conference or regional committees. In addition, he guided the Ravens to an undefeated record (24-0-2) in the Northeast-10 Conference during the last two seasons.

Prior to Franklin Pierce, Stewart served as an assistant coach at Providence College for three seasons (2006-08) under Chaka Daley. While at Providence, Stewart helped the Friars to consecutive NCAA Tournament berths and a trip to the 2006 BIG EAST Semifinals. Stewart spent the 2005 season as an assistant coach at Northeastern University. In addition, Stewart is currently the head coach for the U18 Boston Bolts Academy Team which is affiliated with US Soccer and Celtic FC. He also serves as an assistant coach for the British University Team which competes in the World University Games.

In addition to coaching, Stewart also played collegiate soccer at Franklin Pierce, where he earned a master's in business administration and managerial leadership in 2004. At Franklin Pierce, Stewart was named NSCAA Division II All-American and Northeast 10 Player of the Year in 2004, as he helped the Ravens to a pair of NCAA Tournament appearances. Following his collegiate playing career, Stewart played professionally for the New Hampshire Phantoms and the Western Massachusetts Pioneers, both of the United States Soccer League.

Stewart was a product of the Newcastle (England) United Football Club youth system, spending almost 10 years at the club followed by stints with Sunderland AFC and Everton FC. Stewart then attended Loughborough University (England), where he was part of a BUSA National Championship team, earning a degree in Sports Science (2002). The native of Newcastle-Upon-Tyne, England, earned his Football Association (FA) coaching license and served as academy coach at the Newcastle Football Development Scheme.

Stewart and his wife, Jessica, reside in Providence with their sons Jack and Jordan.

• The Friars finished the 2017 season with 5-8-5 overall record and a 2-3-5 mark in BIG EAST play.

• The team entered the BIG EAST Tournament as the fifth seed and traveled to play fourth-seeded Xavier in the Quarterfinal round. Providence was shutout by a score of 3-0 on Nov. 4.

• Providence closed out the regular season on a seven-game unbeaten streak. The Friars compiled a 3-0-4 record from Oct. 7 to Nov. 1. The run was critical in keeping postseason hopes alive, as six of those seven games were BIG EAST contests. Three of the ties during that stretch were 0-0 results, including a draw on the road at then-No. 10 Georgetown.

• Senior Mac Steeves led the Friars in goals (8) and total points (19). With his performance in 2017, Steeves moved into second place all-time in career goals (35) and career points (82).

• The Friars had two players named to All-BIG EAST teams. Steeves was named to the All-BIG EAST First Team and redshirt freshman Matt DePerro collected BIG EAST All-Freshman Team honors.

• In addition to the BIG-EAST honors, Steeves garnered United Soccer Coaches All-Great Lakes Region Third Team recognition. He was also an All-ECAC Honorable Mention selection.

• Prior to the season, Steeves and classmate Mark Jecewiz were recognized with Preseason All-BIG EAST honors. Steeves also nabbed Preseason BIG EAST Offensive Player of the Year.

• Redshirt junior Colin Miller played 16 games in net for the Friars. He put together a 5-6-5 record with a 1.08 goals against average, a .762 save percentage and five shutouts.

• Providence had 13 different players register at least a point in 2017. Of those players, nine individuals registered a goal.

• Steeves was invited to the MLS Combine and drafted to the Houston Dynamo in the second round (43rd overall).

He became the highest-ever drafted Friar in the MLS Superdraft as the eighth overall pick to Atlanta. He is the program's third First Team All-American and was a MAC Hermann Top-15 Semifinalist. Gressel scored 30 career goals, 26 assists, and finished his collegiate career with 80 points. A three-time All-BIG EAST honoree and a member of the All-Freshman team, he was also named the BIG EAST Offensive Player of the Year in 2016. He was Providence's Male Athlete of the Year in 2016 and led the Friars to two of their most successful seasons (2014 & 2016). In his first season with Atlanta (2017), he was named the MLS Rookie of the Year.

Mac Steeves '18 surpassed former teammate Julian Gressel in all-time goals (35) and points (82). He finished his career ranked second in both those categories at Providence. He was drafted in the MLS Superdraft as the 43rd overall pick to Houston. Steeves was named to the NSCAA Div. I Great Lakes Region Third Team twice (2014, 2017) and the First Team once (2015). He was a three-time All-BIG EAST honoree and a two-time Preseason BIG EAST Offensive Player of the Year. Steeves highest honor came when he was named the College Cup Most Outstanding Offensive Player in 2014.
