Kim English Guided Friars To A 21-14 Mark In First Year At PC: Friar Head Coach Kim English enters his second season at Providence in 2024-25. In his first-year in Providence, he became the first Friar head coach to win 20 or more games when the squad posted a 21-14 mark (10-10 BIG EAST).

Friars Sell Out Season Tix Again In 2024-25 And Set Attendance Mark In 2023-24: In 2023-24, the Friars sold out of season tickets at the Amica Mutual Pavilion for the first time ever. Again in 2024-25, the team has sold its entire season ticket allotment for the arena. The 2023-24 season marked the first time a complete sell out of season tickets has occurred since the team moved to the AMP when it opened in 1972. As a result, the Friars had 211,147 fans watch the team play 19 games at the AMP. That average of 11,113 per game is the highest single-season mark in the history of the program. The total of 211,147 is the second most fans to watch the Friars at home in the history of the program. In 1991, 211,498 fans attended 20 home games at the AMP. The 211,147 fans in 2023-24, also marked just the second time in the history of the program that the team drew more than 200,000 fans in a single season.

Providence College To Host First And Second Rounds Of The NCAA Tournament In 2025: Providence College will host the First and Second Rounds of the 2025 NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament at the Amica Mutual Pavilion on March 20-22. Providence is one of eight sites hosting First and Second Round games. It will mark the ninth time the Amica Mutual Pavilion has hosted the First and Second Rounds (1976, 1979, 1980, 1981, 1989, 1996, 2010 and 2016). The First and Second Rounds of the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament has regularly sold out at the AMP in the past and it is expected to be a sell out again in 2025.

Friars Are 108-6 In Non-Conference Home Games Over The Last 15 Years: The Friars have posted a 109-6 mark (.948) in their last 15 seasons in non-conference home games. The team's six losses over the last 15 years were to Brown (77-67) on December 8, 2014, Minnesota (86-74) on November 13, 2017, UMass (79-78) on December 7, 2018, Arkansas (84-72) on March 19, 2019, Penn (81-75) on November 23, 2019 and Boston College (62-57) on March 19, 2024. The Friars are 31-1 in their last 32 non-conference home games (2024-25, 5-0; 2023-24, 8-1; 2022-23, 7-0; 2021-22, 8-0; 2020-21, 2-0; 2019-20, 2-0).

Friars In Overtime: The Friars recorded a 2-1 record in overtime games in 2023-24. They have recorded a 79-71 mark all-time in overtime games, including 9-2 in their last 11 games. The Friars were 2-0 at in overtime at the AMP in 2023-24 and 8-0 in their last eight overtime games at the AMP.

Friars At The Amica Mutual Pavilion: All-time, the Friars have recorded a 637-243 (.724) mark in 52 seasons of games at the Amica Mutual Pavilion. The AMP, formerly the Providence Civic Center and the Dunkin' Donuts Center, opened on November 3, 1972. The Friars had played their home games there for 48 consecutive seasons, prior to the 2020-21 season when the team played on campus at Alumni Hall with no fans in attendance due to the pandemic. PC posted a 15-2 mark at the AMP in 2022-23 and a 16-1 record in 2021-22 -- the team's best record at home since 1973-74.

Providence College Basketball: The 2024-25 campaign marks the 98th season of basketball at Providence College. Since the program started in 1926-27, Providence has posted a 1,569-1,044 mark, good for a .600 winning percentage. The Friars have made the NCAA Tournament 22 times and the National Invitation Tournament on 21 occasions.

On March 23, 2023, Kim English became the 16th head coach at Providence College. He came to Providence College after an impressive playing and coaching career. His coaching career included positions at Tulsa, Colorado and Tennessee before serving two seasons as the head coach at George Mason.

"Kim English is the ideal choice to lead our men's basketball program, and I am delighted to welcome him to the Providence College community," Providence College President Father Kenneth R. Sicard, O.P., said. "He is a proven leader with an impressive record of commitment to the holistic development of student-athletes in programs that reflect his work ethic, integrity, and passion for excellence. Those characteristics reflect the ideals of Providence College, and I am excited for the future of Friar men's basketball under Kim's leadership."

In his first season at Providence, he led the Friars to a 21-14 mark overall and a 10-10 record in BIG EAST play. English became the first Friar head coach to win 20 games in his first season at PC. The Friars earned six quad one victories and advanced to the NIT. Junior Devin Carter became just the second Friar ever to be named BIG EAST Player of the Year and Josh Odoro was named All-BIG EAST Honorable Mention.

Carter, who flourished in his first season under English, became the 44th Friar drafted all-time in the NBA when he was selected with the 13th pick in the 2024 Draft by the Sacramento Kings. He also is the 12th Friar selected in the First Round of the NBA Draft and the third Friar selected as a Lottery Pick since its inception in 1985.

In two seasons as the head coach at George Mason, English matched or set Atlantic 10 program bests. During his second campaign in 2022-23, the Patriots matched program records for A-10 league victories (11) and A-10 Tournament seed (5). George Mason won six-straight A-10 league contests for the first time in school history and seven-straight overall for first time since 2016-17. The Patriots reached the 20-win milestone for the first time since 2016-17. Also in 2022-23, the Patriots set a school record for three-point field goal defense (.301, ranked 17th nationally) and also tallied their best scoring defense (67.3 ppg allowed) since 2012-13.

"I am extremely excited to welcome Kim English and his family to Friartown," Providence College Athletics Director Steve Napolillo said. "Today, we begin a new era in the proud history of Providence College basketball. As I was looking for a new head coach, I consulted some of the most knowledgeable people in the game, including Mike Tranchese and Rick Barnes. I wanted to find an individual who represented passion and integrity as well as the many other values of Providence College. That led me to Kim. Kim is known as one of the best recruiters in the country and he is a rising star in college basketball. He has had success at every level of basketball as a player and a coach. I look forward to our program reaching new heights and having the opportunity to work with him as my teammate for many years to come."

English began his coaching career as an assistant under Frank Haith at the University of Tulsa in 2015. He spent two seasons (2015-17) at Tulsa before being hired by Tad Boyle as an assistant coach at Colorado, where he worked for two years (2017-19). In 2019, former Friar Head Coach Rick Barnes brought English to Tennessee as an assistant coach. He was an assistant coach in Knoxville until 2021 when he became the head coach at George Mason.

"I am beyond excited to be named head men's basketball coach at Providence College," English said. "I want to thank Father Sicard and Steve Napolillo for this incredible opportunity. I want to be clear to everyone in Friartown, we are going to do great things at Providence College for a long time. I know that this is a special place with amazing fans, a great tradition and support throughout the community. We look forward to establishing new relationships with the players, the alums and the fans. The work begins now!"

A four-year letterman under coaches Mike Anderson and Frank Haith at Missouri from 2008-12, English scored more than 1,500 points and averaged 11.0 points, 3.0 rebounds, 1.4 assists and 1.1 steals per game for the Tigers. He earned Third-Team All-Big 12 honors in 2010 and 2012, and Missouri won 107 games during his four-year career, making him and two teammates the winningest players in program history. The Tigers won a school-record 31 games while making a run to the 2009 Elite Eight during English's freshman campaign. He averaged a career-best 14.5 points as a senior in 2011-12 and ranked fifth in the Big 12 with 78 three-point makes, while leading Missouri to 30 wins, one of two Big 12 Tournament titles during his career and a No. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament. He was named Most Outstanding Player of the 2012 Big 12 Tournament after averaging 23.0 points and shooting 78 percent during the Tigers' championship run.

The Detroit Pistons selected English with the 44th overall pick in the 2012 NBA Draft, and he appeared in 41 games during the 2012-13 season. He then spent two years playing professionally overseas and had a brief stint with the Chicago Bulls in 2014.

A native of Baltimore, Maryland, English attended Randallstown High School and earned Baltimore Sun All-Metro honors, before playing his postgrad year at Notre Dame Prep in Fitchburg, Mass.

He earned his degree in general studies from Missouri in 2012.

English has two daughters, Celine and Ari.

What They Are Saying About Kim English

"I have tremendous love and respect for Kim English. So, I couldn't be more excited about Kim earning this opportunity—and he absolutely earned it. Going back to his days as a player, Kim's competitive fire always stood out. We were fortunate to have him join our staff at Tennessee, and he brought a unique and powerful presence to our program. Kim has a gift for genuinely connecting with people—not just players, but people in general—and as a coach, he excels in every aspect. He challenges players in ways that inspire them to elevate their expectations for both themselves and their teammates. I can't wait to see the trajectory of Friar basketball once Kim puts his fingerprints on that storied program."

---Rick Barnes, Tennessee Head Coach

"There are home run hires, and there are grand slam hires. Kim English is a grand slam! His ability to connect with people is elite. Replacing Ed Cooley is a difficult task, nobody is more prepared to do it than Kim English."

---Tad Boyle, Colorado Head Coach

"My family has had the good fortune of knowing Kim since he was in high school," Minnesota Timberwolves President of Basketball Operations Tim Connelly stated. "The same passion and work ethic that saw him go from a lightly recruited high school player, to a NBA draft pick, has allowed him to ascend the coaching ranks. His obsession with the game, and his commitment to the development of his players both on and off the court, make him the perfect guy to lead Providence College."

---Tim Connelly, Minnesota Timberwolves President of Basketball Operations
