TELEVISION | STREAMING VIDEO & AUDIO | RADIO

Providence College hockey games will be carried by various media outlets throughout the 2024-25 season. All home games will be carried live on ESPN+, while select games will be picked up by NESN.

Audio calls of all 34 games will be available through the Varsity Network app and on the radio dial at 790 The Score.

Mike Logan, who will be in his 30th year as the voice of the Friars, will call the live action all season long. Logan also has done play-by-play for the Pawtucket Red Sox, Northeastern University (basketball) and Harvard University (football and basketball). His wealth of experience extends beyond radio as he also does television play-by-play for Providence College hockey on Cox Sports TV as well as college hockey on NESN. Logan was the recipient of the Joe Concannon Media Award on September 29, 2008 at the 25th Annual Hockey East Media Day at the TD Banknorth Garden in Boston, Mass. Logan was the 17th recipient of the Joe Concannon Media Award.

MEDIA INFORMATION

Thank you for your interest in covering Providence College Friar athletics. This guide should help you in your coverage of the Friars. If you have further questions or need assistance, please feel free to contact Mike Billings (mbillin2@providence.edu).

PRESS BOX CONDUCT

Providence College respectfully reminds each person on press row that you are in a working area and cheering for either team is not tolerated. Your cooperation is appreciated.

SCHNEIDER ARENA PRESS CREDENTIALS PROCEDURES

Admittance to the Schneider Arena press box, photo areas and post-game media area is restricted to working media. Requests for credentials should be made one week in advance. All credentials will be left at the Will Call window at Schneider Arena (credentials will not be mailed). Guests in your party with game tickets should enter through the main lobby.

GAME NOTES & PROGRAMS

Game notes and line charts will be available to all members of the media in the press box. Extra line charts will be available for pro scouts for player identification purposes.

POST-GAME PROCEDURES

After the 10-minute cooling off period, Providence College Head Coach Nate Leaman will be available outside the team locker room. Anyone wishing to interview a specific player should notify Mike Billings prior to the completion of the contest.

RADIO AND TRANSMITTING

Providence College Athletics has installed one ethernet line for visiting commercial radio or visiting student radio. There are other lines available at press row for running accounts but are limited to a first-come, first-served basis.

NEWS TELEVISION PHOTOGRAPHERS

Space for television cameras is available on the lower level of the press box on a first-come, first-served basis.

If you are looking to do a live take prior to the game or just after the game, please let us know so that we may make arrangements with the operations staff of Schneider Arena.

BROADCAST TELEVISION SHOOTERS

Live television crews have use of the press box and the box between the team benches at ice level and behind the goals.

VISITING COACHES

Space has been made available in the Schneider Arena press box for the visiting team to watch the game from above: one visiting coach, one visiting statistician and one visiting administrator spot (plus SID).

WEEKLY PROCEDURES

The media relations office will distribute weekly press releases and game notes.

Head Coach Nate Leaman is available by pre-scheduled appointment. Please schedule interviews through the media relations office. Players have been instructed not to conduct interviews unless scheduled through the media relations office. Please do not contact the players directly by phone, email or social media. There will be no interviews on game days. All interviews on other days must be conducted before or after practice. Please respect the players' academic responsibilities when requesting longer interviews.

EXPERIENCE A CITY IN RENAISSANCE...

Providence, Rhode Island is among America's most dynamic, diverse and exciting new destination cities. Come and see it for yourself. Gather with thousands in the rejuvenated downtown for a magical WaterFire display. Catch a Broadway-bound show. Enjoy dinner in one of the city's many award-winning restaurants, then head to Federal Hill to sip an authentic caffè latte. Mingle with the more than 26,000 students who attend the city's five colleges and universities. Explore internship opportunities with the city's businesses and nonprofits and see a real-world path to career success. Providence College's scenic 105-acre campus is located just 10 minutes away from one of the most historic and cosmopolitan city centers in the United States. Come to Providence and embrace all that America's Renaissance City has to offer.

A LIVELY DOWNTOWN SCENE...

It's where Colonial-era cobblestone streets intersect with gleaming new office buildings. Where young men and women from across the nation intern with some of the most recognized names in finance, business, technology and healthcare. In Providence, there's always something happening, always a new exhibition, bookshop or bistro to check out. The New York Times describes it as "one of the hippest towns in New England." And Money Magazine calls it "the best city in the East for young professionals."

A WEALTH OF WEEKEND DESTINATIONS...

Known as the Ocean State, Rhode Island boasts more than 400 miles of stunning coastline. The world-famous mansions of Newport, along with the shores of Narragansett Bay are just a 30-minute drive from Providence. The ski slopes of New England make a great day trip, and the beaches of Cape Cod, Nantucket and Martha's Vineyard are all within easy reach.

YOU'RE CLOSE...

Providence is a short drive from T.F. Green Airport. Known as the "hassle-free gateway to New England," the airport is conveniently located close to Interstate 95 and offers non-stop flight connections to cities throughout the United States and Caribbean.

Providence is America's newest destination city. Here's why:

- The Providence Performing Arts Center is the second largest indoor theater in New England
- The Dunkin' Donuts Center (home of Providence College basketball) has hosted the NCAA Hockey Championship and NCAA Basketball Tournament among other major sporting events
- At the upscale Providence Place Mall, you'll find more than 160 shops, theaters, acclaimed restaurants and an IMAX Theater
- The renowned WaterFire display on the Providence River is one of the many attractions that draw thousands to the city's dynamic downtown
- With seven historic districts featuring beautifully preserved 18th-and-19th century architecture, Providence is one of the most historic cities in America
- Providence has the country's largest per capita concentration of college students, making it one of the nation's most student-friendly cities
- Providence has a rich diversity of neighborhoods offering a wide selection of ethnic cuisine, from pad thai to paella
- The nationally acclaimed Roger Williams Park Zoo is home to hundreds of rare animals from around the world
- The city's rich cultural calendar includes dance performances, theater productions, music recitals, gallery shows and readings by prominent authors and poets

THE MISSION OF THE COLLEGE

Providence College is a primarily undergraduate, liberal arts, Catholic institution of higher education. Committed to fostering academic excellence through the sciences and humanities, the College provides a variety of opportunities for intellectual, social, moral and spiritual growth in a supportive environment.

The College actively cultivates intellectual, spiritual, ethical and aesthetic values within the context of the Judaeo-Christian heritage. These values are nurtured by the unique tradition of the Dominican Order which emphasizes quality teaching and scholarship.

Providence College recognizes the unity of the human family that proceeds from its one Creator. It therefore encourages the deepest respect for the essential dignity, freedom and equality of every person and welcomes qualified women and men from all religious, racial and ethnic backgrounds. Providence College prepares its students to be responsible and productive citizens to serve in their own society and the greater world community.

Responding to the needs of Rhode Island, the Dominican Order of Preachers made a special commitment to the state in 1917 and founded Providence College — the only institution of higher learning in North America that is conducted by the Order. In 96 years, Providence College has steadily moved to a position of national prominence, while maintaining a personal, community-like atmosphere that fosters growth and development among its student population.

Providence College's rich heritage dates back to 1216, or the origins of the Dominican Order in Spain. Through the ages, the Dominican Friars became known as the "champions of the faith," spreading the gospel message through the centuries into every corner of the globe. Today, Dominican Friars continue to spread the gospel in a wide range of remote areas of the world, to teach at every level of the United States educational system.

With the Dominican tradition as its foundation, Providence College focuses on developing the entire person through its values-oriented education. The college seeks to complement a student's knowledge with knowledge of his own values — values that will remain the foundation for sound judgement throughout a lifetime.

To that end, Providence College aims to relate its curriculum to the problems of contemporary society, offering diverse programs of study that remain grounded in the liberal arts. Students may choose from some 60 concentrations ranging from computer science to labor relations to theatre arts. In addition, qualified students who wish to structure a program not specifically provided under the regular concentrations may develop their own program with the approval of the dean of the college.

As part of the core curriculum, all students take a two-year, team-taught course, Development of Western Civilization (DWC) which integrates the study of literature, philosophy, history and religious studies through the ages into a cohesive interdisciplinary unit.

Situated just on the fringe of downtown Providence, the College's location enables students to have easy access to the many social, cultural, educational and recreational amenities of urban life - the Providence Public Library; entertainment at the Providence Performing Arts Center; the Providence Place Mall, the Bank of America City Center, sporting events, entertainment and trade shows at the Dunkin' Donuts Center and the Providence Convention Center and dozens of fine restaurants. With several other major educational institutions located in Providence, the city has become a hub of collegiate activity.

PROVIDENCE COLLEGE ATHLETIC DEPARTMENT MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the Providence College Intercollegiate Athletics program is to foster the personal development and education of young men and women through their participation in NCAA Division I athletics.

Athletic contests provide an opportunity for the campus and the community at large to demonstrate their support of the College, its athletics program, and the student-athletes.

The Athletic Department strives to fulfill student-athlete needs and goals in an environment steeped in the Dominican tradition in which honesty, integrity, mutual respect, effort and constant improvement are cherished and cultivated.

ATHLETIC ACADEMIC SERVICES

Academic Student-Athlete Services provides specialized support to student-athletes in light of the unique time demands, responsibilities, and rules governing participation in intercollegiate athletics. Holistic services are provided in a safe, personal environment where academic growth is a priority, personal development and independence are enhanced, and long-term success is nurtured by a staff which models these same commitments.

Student-athletes who have distinguished themselves in the classroom, as well as on the field or court, may be nominated for the BIG EAST Academic All-Star Team, the HOCKEY EAST Academic Honor Roll, NFHCA Division I Academic Team or the Academic All-America Program presented by CoSIDA. The Providence College Athletic Department also honors student-athletes each semester who have achieved a 3.00 grade point average or higher.

Jamie Lipski, Associate Director of Student-Athlete Services
Shannon Catlin, Academic Coordinator for SAs, SAAC Advisor
Megan Guilbert, Academic Coordinator for SAs
Amanda Reall, Academic Coordinator for Men's Basketball

SERVICES FOR STUDENT-ATHLETES

Academic Monitoring

Progress report slips (i.e., requesting information regarding class attendance and performance) are sent to each instructor for all student-athletes at least once per semester. The staff track individual progress, schedules meetings with student-athletes as appropriate, and personally contacts instructors as necessary.

Counseling/Mentoring

The staff meets with student-athletes, individually and in groups, regarding academic, athletic, career, and/or personal issues.

Life Skills Program/Special Projects

Programs and workshops on select life skills (i.e., NCAA/CHAMPS Life Skills Program) are presented, covering the following five component areas: academics, personal development, community service, athletics, and career development. The OSA has collaborative relationships with many units on campus to help provide these services.

Pre-Advisement/Registration

The staff assists student-athletes with planning and course registration. In conjunction with the Office of Academic Records, dates are determined for preregistration each semester.

Study Hall

Quiet, monitored study time is available, during daytime and evening hours. Student-athletes are required and/or recommendation to attend, on a sport-by-sport basis, by their respective head coach.

Travel Notifications

At the beginning of each semester, student-athletes are provided with letters for their instructors, notifying them of travel/competitive schedules.

Tutorial Services and The Writing Center

The Tutorial Center, which is nationally certified by the College Reading & Learning Association, provides peer tutoring in most all subject areas. The Tutorial Center is open until 9:00 p.m. weeknights. The Writing Center provides more intensive and specialized writing support and also maintains evening hours for student-athletes' convenience.

UNDERGRADUATE DEGREE REQUIREMENTS

Providence College is a Catholic, Dominican, liberal arts institution of higher education and a community committed to academic excellence in pursuit of the truth, growth in virtue, and service of God and neighbor.

To be eligible for a bachelor's degree, members of the Classes of 2015, must earn a minimum of 116 earned credit hours and complete at least 36 courses with a minimum value of three credits each. For members of the Class of 2016 and subsequent years, a minimum of 120 credit hours must be earned. For students of all class years, 2.00 (4.00 scale) minimum cumulative and major grade point averages are required. Included in the total credit hours for students beginning with the Class of 2016 are Core Curriculum courses in the areas of Development of Western Civilization (4 courses), Philosophy (2), Theology (2), Natural Science (1), Quantitative Reasoning (1), Social Science (1), and Fine Arts (1). In addition, a Core Focus sequence (2 courses) outside of one's major requirements and learning proficiencies in the areas of Intensive Writing (2), Oral Communication (1), Civic Engagement (1), and Diversity (1) must be successfully completed.

Undergraduate students must spend at least eight semesters in full-time attendance, unless the period is reduced by advanced standing credit from another institution as reviewed and approved by the dean of undergraduate and graduate studies. The College reserves the right to allow graduation at the completion of seven semesters following the successful petition by students to the Committee on Academic Status with the subsequent approval of the provost and senior vice president for academic affairs.

Official and complete academic information is published in Providence College's academic catalogs, available at <http://catalog.providence.edu/>.

NATE LEAMAN HEAD COACH

Entering his 14th season at the helm in 2024-25, Head Coach Nate Leaman has led a resurgence of the Providence College men's hockey program, highlighted by winning the 2015 NCAA Championship, marking the first NCAA title in program history. Leaman's squad earned another Frozen Four appearance during the 2018-19 campaign.

The 2023-24 campaign yielded the program's 12th-consecutive winning season under Nate Leaman as the Friars finished fourth in Hockey East with an 11-9-4 record and 18-13-4 mark overall. Providence made its 13th quarterfinal appearance in 13 seasons under Leaman. The Friars boasted victories against three Frozen Four participants in 2023-24, including a 4-3 victory over eventual national champion Denver in October. Providence also earned a shootout victory over Boston University, the fourth Frozen Four participant. The team won its season-opener in their first-ever visit to Yost Ice Arena against the University of Michigan, defeating the Wolverines, 4-2. On Jan. 13, the Friars scored a 4-3 victory over Boston College, their first win over a No. 1-ranked opponent since 2011.

The Providence College Years

The 2022-23 season saw the Friars record their 11th-consecutive winning season under Nate Leaman. Providence appeared in an NCAA-high 15 overtime games, going 5-3-7 in those games including two postseason victories. The Friars advanced to the Hockey East Quarterfinals for the 12th time in Nate Leaman's 12 seasons after a 2-1 overtime victory over New Hampshire in the Hockey East Opening Round. They followed that up with their seventh semifinal appearance under Nate Leaman after a thrilling 2-1 overtime victory on the road at Northeastern. Providence was defeated by eventual Hockey East Champion Boston University, 2-1 in overtime at TD Garden on March 18. Junior Brett Berard signed a three-year, entry-level contract with the New York Rangers, forgoing his senior season. Max Crozier signed a two-year, entry-level deal with the Tampa Bay Lightning, along with Parker Ford, who signed a free agent deal with the Winnipeg Jets. Parker Ford was named a Walter Brown Award Semifinalist as the top Division I American-born college hockey player in New England. Ford and Crozier were also named Third Team Hockey East All-Stars and Hobey Baker Award Nominees.

The 2021-22 edition of the Friars posted the 10th-consecutive winning season and seventh 20-win campaign (22-14-2) since Leaman's arrival. The team appeared in their 11th Hockey East Quarterfinal in 11 seasons after a 2-1 win over Vermont in the Hockey East Opening Round. The most notable of the 22 wins came on Oct. 22, 2021 as the Friars rallied from a 4-1 third period deficit to defeat the eventual national champion Denver Pioneers, 6-5, at Schneider Arena. Sophomores Brett Berard (18-20-38) and Nick Poisson (10-25-35) paced the team in scoring and finished third and fifth respectively in scoring among Hockey East players. Berard and defenseman Max Crozier earned Third Team Hockey East recognition. Leaman and Theresa Feaster also returned to the 2022 U.S. National Junior Team staff before the tournament was cancelled due to COVID-19. They will return when the 2022 IIHF World Junior Championship resumes in August 2022.

The COVID-19 pandemic-shortened 2020-21 season saw the program post its ninth-consecutive winning season (11-9-5) and advance to its sixth Hockey East Semifinal appearance in 10 seasons under Leaman. Tyce Thompson led the team in scoring with 25 points (11g, 14a) in 25 games played, earning his second-consecutive Second Team Hockey East

All-Star accolade. Thompson signed an entry-level contract with the New Jersey Devils at the conclusion of the season, appearing in seven games and posting one assist. Leaman also boasted success on the international stage in 2020-21, leading Team USA to a gold medal at the 2021 World Junior Championships. Leaman was also joined on staff by Friar Director of Hockey Operations, Theresa Feaster. Current Friars Brett Berard and Patrick Moynihan also boasted key contributions to the United States' gold medal performance. Leaman will return as Head Coach for the 2022 World Junior Championships. Leaman also served as an Assistant Coach for Team USA at the 2021 World Championships in Latvia, where the U.S. earned a bronze medal.

In 2019-20, the Friars posted their eight-consecutive winning season with a 16-12-6 mark before the postseason was canceled due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Despite a bitter end to the season, Providence student-athletes boasted notable individual accolades. Sophomore Jack Dugan led the NCAA in scoring with 52 points on 10 goals and 42 assists, while teammate Tyce Thompson finished third in the NCAA scoring race with 44 points on 19 goals and 25 assists. Dugan was the program's first Hobey Baker finalist since Rob Gaudreau in 1992. He was also a First Team

CCM All-American and First Team Hockey East All-Star. Defenseman Mike Callahan was also a First Team Hockey East All-Star, while Thompson earned Second Team recognition. In 2018-19, Providence once again earned a berth in the NCAA Tournament, marking the program's sixth-consecutive appearance and advanced to the Frozen Four for the second time in five seasons. The Friars finished tied for second in the Hockey East standings and secured at least 22 wins for the sixth-consecutive season. Providence rallied from a 3-0 deficit to defeat No. 1 seeded Minnesota State, 6-3, at the Dunkin' Donuts Center in Providence to advance to a regional final game in back-to-back seasons. A 4-0 shutout win over Cornell the following day propelled the team to the Frozen Four in Buffalo, where they fell to eventual national champion, Minnesota Duluth in the national semifinals. Goaltender Hayden Hawkey re-wrote the record books in 2018-19, setting program goaltending records for career wins (72), shutouts (16), games played (125) and minutes played (7319:42). His eight shutouts in 2018-19 was a single-season program record and led all NCAA netminders. Four Friars earned Hockey East All-Star recognition - Josh Wilkins (First Team), Jacob Bryson (Second Team), Brandon Duhaime (Third Team) and Hawkey (Honorable Mention). Wilkins also earned Second Team All-American accolades after posting the most points in season by a Friar (46) since 2002-03. Juniors Jacob Bryson (BUF), Kasper Bjorkqvist (PIT), Brandon Duhaime (MIN) and Josh Wilkins (NSH) all signed NHL contracts at the conclusion of the season.

In 2017-18, the Friars recorded their fifth-consecutive 20-plus win season and fifth-straight NCAA Tournament appearance, the second-longest active streak in the NCAA. Providence advanced to their first Hockey East Championship Game since 2001 after rallying for a 3-2 overtime win in the semifinals against Northeastern. The following week, the Friars advanced to the NCAA East Regional Final after a 1-0 shutout of Clarkson in Bridgeport, Conn. The shutout marked Hayden Hawkey's fourth of the season and put him second all-time at Providence with eight career shutouts. Hawkey earned Second Team Hockey East and New England All-Star recognition.

The Friars boasted many postseason accolades - Jacob Bryson earned Second Team All-American honors, marking the fourth-consecutive season a Friar was named an All-American. Bryson also was named a First Team Hockey East All-Star, a New England All-Star, and was the recipient of the league's Len Ceglarski Sportsmanship Award. Erik Foley was also a First Team Hockey East All-Star and signed an entry-level contract with the St.

Louis Blues at the conclusion of the season. Captain Brian Pinho was recognized as a Third Team Hockey East All-Star, as well as the league's Best Defensive Forward. He signed with the Washington Capitals at the conclusion of the season.

The senior class totaled 99 wins over four seasons, setting the program record for wins by a graduating class. The Friars .813 winning percentage at Schneider Arena (13-3-0) was the second-best winning percentage at Schneider Arena in 44 seasons.

In 2016-17, Leaman's squad notched at 22 wins, marking its fourth consecutive season with at least 20-plus victories. Overall, the Friars finished at 22-12-5 (12-7-3), good for fifth in the Hockey East and good for its fourth consecutive NCAA Tournament berth. The team notched a double-digit win total (13) at Schneider Arena for the fourth consecutive season. The senior class posted a 53-15-7 at home over the last four seasons (.753). The 13-3-3 record (.763) at home in 2016-17 was the fifth-best winning percentage posted at Schneider Arena in 43 seasons.

The Friars' resurgence in the second half saw a nine-game winning streak from January to February, falling just one win shy of the program record (10) set in 2015-16. Providence appeared in the Hockey East Quarterfinals for the sixth time in Leaman's six seasons.

Friar defenseman Jake Walman was the lone repeat All-American in 2016-17 and became the program's six member to be a two-time All-American selection. Walman also earned First Team Hockey East and First Team All-New England accolades prior to signing an entry-level contract with the St. Louis Blues in March 2017.

The Friars boasted the second-most wins in program history in 2015-16 (27) and earned their third-consecutive trip to the NCAA Tournament. Overall, the Friars finished the season with a 27-7-4 record, including a program-best 16-3-3 Hockey East record which netted the team its first share of the Hockey East regular season title. Paced by Mark Jankowski's 40 points, the first time a Friar has hit the 40-point mark since 2002-03, Leaman's squad raced out to an undefeated first half of the season (12-0-3) and ran its unbeaten streak to 19-games dating back to 2014-15. The Friars were the first team since Colorado College in 1995-96 to be unbeaten entering the Christmas break and also secured the best start to a season by a reigning NCAA hockey champion.

Leaman became the fastest Friar Head Coach to reach 100 career wins and holds a 106-65-23 record (.606) with the Friars. For his efforts, he was named Hockey East Coach of the Year and a Spencer Penrose finalist for National Coach of the Year.

Sophomore defenseman Jake Walman blossomed in his second year at Providence, leading all NCAA defensemen in goals (13), points per game (1.04), power play goals (8), and game-winning goals (4). Walman became the first Friar since Tim Army and Chris Terrieri in 1984-85 to earn First Team All-American accolades. Jankowski earned Second Team All-American honors for his 15 goals and 25 assists in 2015-16.

Junior goaltender Nick Ellis (25-7-4) put forth the best goaltending performance in Friars history with a 1.80 GAA and .936 save percentage and also tallied four shutouts in 2015-16. Ellis' top performance of the season came in the finale as he set a NCAA Northeast Regional record with 54 saves in a 2-1 double overtime setback to Minnesota Duluth on March 25.

The Friars advanced to the Hockey East Championship semifinals at the TD Garden for the fourth time in Leaman's first five seasons and holds a 5-2-0 record in seven NCAA Tournament games with Providence.

Nine members from the 2015-16 squad ended up signing entry level contracts or amateur try-out agreements with professional teams: Tom Parisi (Montreal – NHL), Mark Jankowski (Calgary – NHL), Brandon Tanev (Winnipeg – NHL), Nick Ellis (Edmonton – NHL), John Gilmour (New York Rangers – NHL), Kevin Rooney (Albany – AHL), Trevor Mingoia (Albany – AHL), Nick Saracino (Iowa – AHL), and Steve McParland (Elmira – ECHL). Tanev appeared in the final three regular season games with the Jets.

In 2014-15, Leaman guided the Friars to back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances for the first time in program history and Providence posted its second-highest win total of all-time (26). He became the youngest head coach to win the NCAA title since 1993 (Shawn Walsh) as Providence College became the 20th institution to win the NCAA Div. I Men's Ice Hockey Championship. The 2015 championship also marked Providence College's first NCAA team title in a men's sport and the College's third overall NCAA Championship in a team sport.

During the 2014-15 National Hockey League season Josh Jooris (Union College) and Tim Schaller '13 (Providence College) became the most recent former Leaman players to reach the NHL when they debuted for the Calgary Flames and the Buffalo Sabres, respectively.

The 2011 Spencer Penrose Award winner, Leaman also was a Spencer Penrose finalist in 2015 and was named the 2015 USCHO.com Coach of the Year. Providence finished the 2014-15 season ranked No. 1 in the national polls (USCHO.com and USA Today/USA Hockey Magazine). The Friars last cracked the top two-places in the national polls in January of 1990, when they were ranked No. 2 in the Times Union poll.

After leading Providence through the 2015 NCAA East Regional (Providence, R.I.) with wins over No. 1 seed Miami, 7-5, and No. 2 seed Denver, 4-1, Leaman and the Friars headed to the Frozen Four for the fourth time in program history and first time since 1985.

At the 2015 Frozen Four (Boston, Mass.), Providence downed No. 2 seed Nebraska Omaha, 4-1, in the national semifinals to advance to the NCAA Championship game for the second time in program history. Leaman then guided the Friars to their first-ever NCAA Championship with a thrilling, come-from-behind 4-3 victory over No. 1 seed Boston University at the TD Garden (April 11). Junior goaltender Jon Gillies made a career-high 49 saves en route to being named the Frozen Four's Most Outstanding Player. Junior forward Brandon Tanev netted the game-winning goal with 6:17 remaining in the third period.

The Friars finished the 2014-15 season with a 26-13-2 record, marking the second-highest win total in program history. Providence also finished the 2014-15 regular season with a 21-11-2 mark, which tied for the second-most regular-season wins in program history. The Friars finished the regular-season with a 13-8-1 mark in Hockey East play and tied for second in the league standings, matching their best-ever Hockey East finish. Providence earned the No. 2 seed in the Hockey East playoffs, its highest seed in the Hockey East Tournament, and appeared in the Hockey East Quarterfinals for the fourth-consecutive season. Providence also finished the season ranked fifth in the nation in scoring defense, yielding just 2.05 goals-against per game.

In 2013-14, Leaman guided the Friars back to the NCAA Championship field for the first time since 2001 and Providence went on to record its first NCAA win since 1991.

The 2013-14 season saw the Friars post a 22-11-6 record, tying the mark for the third-most wins in program history. Providence placed third in the regular-season Hockey East standings and, after a home, quarterfinal-series sweep of Maine, advanced to the Hockey East Championship semifinals for a program-record third straight year. After defeating Quinnipiac in NCAA First Round play, Leaman and the Friars advanced to the NCAA East Regional final where they fell to eventual national champion Union, 3-1. Leaman became the 16th NCAA Div. I men's hockey head coach to lead two different teams to the NCAA Tournament.

Led by Mauermann, the Friar offense scored 115 goals in 2013-14, the most since the 2002-03 season. Mauermann scored 19 goals and added 17 assists for 36 points to become the highest scoring Friar since the 2003-04 season when three players topped the 36-point plateau. Mauermann, who has led the Friars in scoring in each of Leaman's first three seasons, was also named the Hockey East's Co-Defensive Forward of the Year in addition to being named the League's Len Ceglarski Individual Sportsmanship Award winner.

Gillies set the Providence record for career shutouts (9), surpassing the seven career shutouts that Tyler Sims '08 posted from 2004-08. Gillies became the second Friar to take part in multiple World Junior Championships after he started for Team USA at the 2014 WJC in Malmo, Sweden and won gold with Team USA at the 2013 WJC in Ufa, Russia. Gillies finished the 2013-14 season with the nation's fourth-best save percentage (.931).

Other 2013-14 highlights included the program's first six-game winning streak since 2005-06 and a regular-season-ending sweep at Maine, which marked Providence's first sweep at Maine since 2007. That sweep put the Friars in position to host a Hockey East Quarterfinal series for a second consecutive season. The Friar penalty kill ended the season ranked third-best in the country with an 87.2 success rate, while the team defense's 2.26 goals-against per game ranked seventh nationally.

In 2012-13, Leaman led the Friars to a 17-14-7 overall record and a 13-8-6 mark in Hockey East play. It marked the most wins for a Friar squad since the 2005-06 season. The 13 Hockey East wins tied for the third-most in program history. The Friars entered the last weekend of the regular season in contention for the league title for the first time ever and went on to win a home quarterfinal Hockey East playoff series for the first time since 2001. The Friars then made a second consecutive Hockey East semifinal appearance, marking the first time in 17 seasons that Providence made back-to-back Hockey East semifinals appearances.

In his first season at Providence (2011-12), Leaman led the Friars to the Hockey East Semifinals for the first time since 2001. Providence defeated No. 2 seed UMass Lowell in a best-of-three quarterfinal series to become the first No. 7 seed to ever win a Hockey East

RON ROLSTON

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH

Ron Rolston enters his eighth season at Providence College, his seventh as an Associate Head Coach after being promoted to the position on May 14, 2018. Rolston oversees the Friars' power play unit, runs skill development with the Friar forwards and assists on the recruiting trail.

Rolston served as an assistant coach for the Team USA at the 2018 Winter Olympics in Pyeongchang, South Korea. He most recently spent the 2015-16 season as Head Coach of the Springfield Falcons, the former AHL affiliate of the Arizona Coyotes.

Prior to Springfield, Rolston served as Head Coach of the Buffalo Sabres during the 2012-13 and 2013-14 seasons after coaching the Sabres' AHL affiliate, the Rochester Americans, for two seasons (2011-13). Rolston joined the Sabres' organization in 2011 after spending the previous seven seasons as a head coach with USA Hockey's National Team Development Program (NTDP), where he led the U.S. Under-18 team to three gold medals and a silver medal in four stints as head coach at the IIHF World Under-18 Championships. He coached standout NHL players including - Patrick Kane, Kevin Shattenkirk, Cam Fowler, Phil Kessel and Seth Jones during his tenure and also captured a bronze medal in the 2007 Under-20 World Junior Championships alongside Nate Leaman.

Rolston also has experience in college hockey, serving as an assistant coach for Boston College (2002-04), Harvard (1999-02), Clarkson (1996-99), and Lake Superior State (1990-95), where he captured two national championships with the Lakers in 1992 and 1994. Rolston and Leaman both served as assistant coaches at Harvard under Head Coach Mark Mazzoleni.

A native of Fenton, Mich., Rolston attended Michigan Tech University and was a three-year hockey letterman with the Huskies from 1986-89. He resides with his wife, Shannon, his son Ronan, and daughter Maeve.

JOE
ASSISTANT COACH

Joe Palmer enters his second season at Providence as an assistant coach after being hired on Aug. 7, 2023. Palmer spent the previous four seasons (2019-23) as a goaltending & video coach with the Syracuse Crunch of the American Hockey League.

As a member of the Syracuse staff, Palmer was responsible for the coaching and management of all Syracuse Crunch and Orlando Solar Bear (ECHL) goalies in-season, as well as assisting in the goalie portion of Development Camp. Palmer also put together detailed pre-scouts on opposing team's goaltender's tendencies, weaknesses, puck handling and shootout strategy. His responsibilities as video coach included - cut-up all video of future opponents (special teams and 5-on-5 tendencies) for head coach and assistant coaches and put together detailed scouts of upcoming opponents and game-plan sheets to be sent out to the team.

Prior to Syracuse, Palmer spent 2015-19 as the Director of Hockey Operations for the Cornell University men's hockey program and also served as an assistant/goaltending coach for Hamilton College.

Palmer is the founder and primary instructor of Syracuse-based Palmer Goalie Systems, where he provides personal instruction and video analysis to more than 30-area goaltenders who compete at the AAA, prep school, junior and college levels.

As a player, Palmer was a two-time gold medalist with the United States at the IIHF Under-18 World Championship and was later named to the U.S. team at the World Junior Championship in 2008. The 2005 Under-18 gold medal squad was coached by current Friar Associate Head Coach Ron Rolston. Palmer played two seasons (2004-06) for the U.S. National Team Development Program and was selected in the fourth round of the 2006 NHL Entry Draft by the Chicago Blackhawks. He then went on to start 71 games for Ohio State over three seasons (2006-09) and was a three-time Big 10 All-Academic Team selection and earned CCHA All-Rookie Team honorable mention in 2007.

Palmer attended training camp with the Blackhawks in 2009 and 2010 and played professionally in the AHL with the Rockford IceHogs, the Toledo Walleye, Reading Royals, Gwinnett Gladiators and Florida Everblades of the ECHL and the Quad City Mallards of the now-defunct Central Hockey League.

A native of Utica, N.Y., Palmer earned his bachelor of arts degree in communications at The Ohio State University in 2013.

Billings earned a Bachelor's degree in Communications from Framingham State College in 2006 and a Master's degree in Sports Leadership from Northeastern University in 2012.

Prior to Providence, Billings served as the primary contact for field hockey, women's soccer, women's basketball, women's lacrosse, women's rugby, M/W swimming and diving, M/W tennis, and skiing at Brown University.

Before Brown, Billings spent one year as a Media Relations Assistant at Boston College, serving as the primary contact for the Frozen Four finalist women's hockey team, as well as M/W cross country/track, M/W golf, and softball teams. He also assisted in media relations at all home football games as well as the famed Beanpot tournament in February of 2013.

Prior to Boston College, Billings joined the Worcester Sharks of the American Hockey League in January of 2012 as a Public Relations Intern. At the Sharks, he assisted with game notes, feature stories, hockey operations, stat distribution and player time-on-ice tracking during every home game.

A native of North Grafton, Mass., Billings resides in North Providence, R.I. with his wife, Jenn, and their daughters, Annina and Sofia.

Eric DURSIN

SCHNEIDER ARENA MANAGER

Eighth Season at PC

Eric Dursin was named the Manager at Schneider Arena in February of 2017.

He previously served as the Operations Manager of the Babson Skating Center for six years. Before that, Dursin served as the General Manager of the Bank of America City Center in Providence, Rhode Island for 13 years.

In addition to his current role at Providence College, Dursin serves on the United States Ice Rink Association (USIRA) as an Executive Member of the Board of Directors.

He earned a Bachelor of Science degree in criminal justice/political science from Roger Williams University in 2005. Dursin has experience in Providence, as he also served as an Operations Supervisor at the Dunkin Donuts Center in Providence in 2003 and 2004.

Fr. Dominic VERNER, O.P.

ATHLETIC DEPARTMENT CHAPLAIN

Father Dominic Verner began at PC in August 2022. He is a Dominican Friar and Catholic Priest. He serves as an Assistant Professor of Theology where he teaches courses several theology courses as well as Development of Western Civilization classes. He assists students to prepare for baptism and confirmation through the RCIA program as well as assists Father Simon and Father Cuddy in running a PC Student-Athlete Bible study. He also serves as the chaplain to the field hockey team.

Before becoming a professor, Father Verner was an assistant chaplain at PC. He attended Purdue University, graduating with a bachelor of science in electrical engineering. After graduating and deciding to become a priest, Father Verner earned his master's in theology and philosophy in preparation for his ordination. He then attended The University of Notre Dame, where he earned a PhD in moral theology and Christian Ethics.

Father Verner was a competitive athlete through highschool where he ran track and cross country. However, in college, he accomplished a dream of finishing the Chicago Marathon and qualifying for the Boston Marathon.

Father Verner was awarded the John McMahon Award for outstanding dedication and service to the PC student body by the PC Student Congress in 2017. He was also awarded a Dirigo Honorary membership by the Dirigo Leadership Society and the Friar Four Collaborative Colleague award in 2018.

Father Verner is originally from Carmel, Ind., and is the eldest of three children.

Rev. Kenneth R. SICARD, O.P.

PROVIDENCE COLLEGE PRESIDENT

A native of Fall River, Mass., Father Sicard was named Providence College's 13th president on Oct. 4, 2019 and he took office on July 1, 2020.

Father Sicard holds a Ph.D. in business education from The Ohio State University, awarded in 1997. He earned a bachelor's degree in accounting from Providence College in 1978 and a master's degree in business administration from the College in 1982.

From 1978-1984, prior to entering the Dominican Order of Preachers, he was employed by Fleet Financial Group in Providence, beginning in an entry-level position and rising to audit manager.

Father Sicard was ordained to the priesthood in 1990. He holds a master of divinity degree and a bachelor of sacred theology degree from the Dominican House of Studies in Washington, D.C.

His first assignment after ordination was to Ohio Dominican College in Columbus, where he served as chaplain and a full-time faculty member, teaching courses in finance, money and banking, auditing, and accounting from 1990-1997. He also was responsible for the spiritual and sacramental needs of students and Dominican religious sisters.

Father Sicard returned to PC to serve as dean of residence life from 1997-2005. He oversaw the supervision and security of all residence halls, the department's operating budget, the hiring and supervision of more than 100 staff, and the creation of policies that ensured a quality of life for students consistent with the College's mission.

During that time, he also served the Dominican Province of St. Joseph as director of vocations for two years. In addition, he served as provincial treasurer from 2002-2010 and as a member of the Economic Council from 2010-2016, working on behalf of the Order in international operations related to portfolio management, accounting operations, property sales and acquisitions, construction and renovation, and financial planning.

In 2005, he was appointed College executive vice president and treasurer by Rev. Brian J. Shanley, O.P. '80, who took office as PC's 12th president on July 1. In that role, Father Sicard directly supervised many College operations, including athletics, student affairs, general counsel, mission and ministry, external affairs and marketing, human resources, and public safety.

He served as the president's chief of staff and as a member of the President's Senior Cabinet. He oversaw the creation of three of the College's strategic plans, including PC200, adopted in 2018.

Father Sicard served as acting PC president from July 2018 to December 2018 while Father Shanley was on sabbatical.

NAPOLILLO

VICE PRESIDENT & ATHLETICS DIRECTOR
21st Year at PC, 3rd as AD

On January, 26, 2022, Providence College President Rev. Kenneth R. Sicard O.P., '78, '82G named Steven Napolillo '98, as the College's next vice president and director of athletics. Napolillo, who began his new position on July 1, 2022, also serves as a member of the President's Cabinet. He replaced long-time Friar Athletics Director Bob Driscoll, who announced his retirement in January 2022 after serving the College for 21 years.

"Steve has demonstrated that he possesses the key qualities that drive success," said Father Sicard. "I have witnessed firsthand Steve's evolution as a leader over the past 18 years, and I am confident that he will continue to build and expand upon the legacy Bob Driscoll created and nurtured at Providence College during the past two decades. Before being elected president in 2020, I was blessed to have served as executive vice president to PC President Father Brian J. Shanley from 2005-2020. I learned a great deal from him, and when I assumed my new role, was able to continue and build upon the legacy he left behind. I recognize the similarity that exists between Bob and Steve's relationship. Such continuity of leadership allows for a seamless transition that ensures the ongoing success we have enjoyed under Bob's leadership and encourages new opportunities. I am completely confident that Steve will oversee the PC athletic program with integrity, commitment and genuine passion for excellence."

Napolillo began his career at PC in 2004 as an assistant athletic director, where he rose through the ranks to director of athletic development, then to associate athletic director for external relations, and finally senior associate athletic director/assistant vice president for external relations, a position he held from 2014-22. He also has held the position of men's basketball administrator for three seasons.

His leadership efforts in revenue generation, which includes ticket sales and operations, licensing/branding/gear sales, have been monumental for the Friar Athletic Department. In 2023-24, Napolillo led the Friars to new heights as the athletic department had a record year, raising an impressive $10.7 million in donations and bringing in $8.5 million in ticket sales. The men's basketball program has sold out its season ticket allotment each of the last three seasons and currently has a waiting list of more than 1,400 accounts.

He has been able to accomplish this with the integration of the athletic departmental business intelligence efforts, that has included budget analysis, and streamlining departmental workflows. In addition to the record-setting numbers in fundraising and ticket sales, the merchandising and licensing for the athletic department had a 300 percent increase in licensing revenue in 2023-24.

Another area that Napolillo has embraced is name, image and likeness. He has ensured that Friar Athletics has been at the forefront of NIL since its inception. He oversaw the athletic department partnering with Opendorse – an industry leader in solutions to help athletes and their supporters understand, build, protect, and monetize their brand value. All of which is supported by the Friar Family Collective that was founded to create an avenue for Providence College student-athletes in assisting them to make positive contributions to businesses and our local communities, while receiving compensation and growing their respective brands.

Napolillo is highly respected amongst his peers nationally and within the BIG EAST. In the Spring of 2024, he was named the chair of the BIG EAST Athletic Directors for 2024-25.

Continuing to raise the bar for Friar Athletics, Napolillo announced in August of 2024 that the College would be adding men's and women's golf teams, which will begin play in September 2025. The Department will now sponsor 21 varsity teams.

During his tenure at PC, Napolillo has overseen many facets of athletics. He played an integral role in coaching searches resulting in the hiring of Head Women's Soccer Coach Sam Lopes and Head Men's Ice Hockey Coach Nate Leaman. In his first two years as athletic director he was tasked with hiring Men's Basketball Head Coach Kim English, Women's Basketball Head Coach Erin Batth, Lacrosse Head Coach Bobby Benson and Softball Head Coach Kelsey Christensen.

As a fundraiser, he played a decisive part in securing more than $75 million in gifts while supporting strategic decision making for additional capital projects on campus including the renovation of Schneider Arena and Alumni Hall, Anderson Stadium's new soccer and lacrosse complex, the Ray Treacy Track and Field Complex and much more. He also worked closely with major gift donors as lead solicitor to secure a $10 million gift for the $30 million renovation of the Ruane Friar Development Center. The Friars Forever Athletic Fund, which was established to support 19 teams, was developed and led by Napolillo. He has overseen the PC Athletic marketing, ticketing, and development office for the last decade during which time sales doubled to reach over $5.3 million dollars in ticket sale revenue.

During the pandemic, Napolillo worked with senior staff and college teammates to help navigate PC Athletics through the COVID-19 pandemic.

Prior to joining Providence College Athletics, Napolillo was director of merchandising and corporate sales for the Pawtucket Red Sox. He was a member of longtime Pawtucket Red Sox General Manager, the late Lou Schwechheimer's, personal advisory board for his mission to bring baseball back to Cuba and AAA baseball to Wichita.

Napolillo credits Schwechheimer as being his first mentor. Commenting on Napolillo's appointment, Lou's widow Jane said, "Lou encouraged people to find their passion. Given Steve's commitment and love of Providence College and sports, Lou would be overjoyed but not surprised that Steve has been given this great opportunity. I have no doubt that Lou is beaming knowing Steve will continue to be an asset and a leader to the Friar community for years to come."

Napolillo earned his bachelor's degree in political science in 1998 from Providence College and he completed a master's degree program in sports management at Georgetown University in 2023. A 1994 graduate of Bishop Hendricken High School, he has been a member of A Wish Come True in Rhode Island for the past 21 years and a board member for the last four. Napolillo and his wife Bethany reside in North Kingstown, R.I. with their son, Drew, and daughter, Avery.

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT STEVE NAPOLILLO:

"Steve has demonstrated that he possesses the key qualities that drive success. I have witnessed firsthand Steve's evolution as a leader over the past 18 years, and I am confident that he will continue to build and expand upon the legacy Bob Driscoll created and nurtured at Providence College during the past two decades." - Fr. Kenneth R. Sicard, O.P., Ph.D., '78, '82G, Providence College president

"The success that Providence College has had in athletics under Bob Driscoll's extraordinary tenure has been largely predicated on Bob's exceptional ability to manage and maintain the key relationships with coaches, donors, vendors, and conference partners that are critical to success. Steve Napolillo has been a great teammate with Bob in nurturing those partnerships. Steve is uniquely capable of continuing to build the relationships necessary to compete for championships. Fr. Sicard has made a wise choice. Friartown is in good hands. While I am sad that Bob is retiring, I am delighted that Steve Napolillo will be his successor." - Fr. Brian Shanley O.P., '80, St. John's University president and former Providence College president

"We were thrilled to learn of the wonderful decision to hire Steve Napolillo as the next Athletic Director of Providence College. Not only is Steve a great leader at PC, but his ability to connect the Friar Family with A Wish Come True for over 20 years has made a transformational impact on families with children facing life threatening illnesses. Steve's personal connection to A Wish Come True is deep seeded and heartfelt. He is a tremendous team member who gives more than 100% and we look forward to his successful leadership of PC Athletics and our continued work on behalf of our deserving Wish Families. Go Friars!" - Mary-Kate O'Leary, A Wish Come True executive director

"First, I would like to thank Bob Driscoll and appreciate all that he has done to make the former athletes feel welcome when we return to Providence College. Providence College is a special place to me and my wife, Christine. We are so excited that Steve has been hired to continue to lead the athletic department. His passion and love for Providence College are unmatched. He has worked so hard to move the program forward and there is no one who is more committed to seeing success at Providence College." - Billy Donovan '87, Chicago Bulls head coach

"Steve has put his heart and soul into PC Athletics and deserves the opportunity. All of us with the PawSox knew he was a special guy. We were disappointed when he left but we're proud of his career. He's the perfect person for the job." - Mike Tamburro, Pawtucket Red Sox president

"Steve Napolillo has represented Providence College in the community with such class and professionalism," stated. "His passion for PC Athletics is unmatched. Having worked closely with Steve when he was an integral part of the PawSox team, I was so impressed with his tremendous integrity and character. Steve is truly one of the young leaders in the State." - Michael Gwynn, Worcester Red Sox vice president/corporate sponsorships

"This is a great day for Providence College. Bob Driscoll and Steve Napolillo were instrumental in helping me return to Providence College, which enabled me to get my diploma. I could not be happier for both of them. I wish Bob all the best in his retirement. As for Steve, he is a true friend. He is a selfless individual, who has so much love for Friartown. A leader is someone who always puts the organization first with integrity, insight, and inclusiveness. I believe Steve possesses these traits, and because of this, will be a great athletic director." - God Shammgod '14, Dallas Mavericks assistant coach

"As both an undergraduate field hockey student-athlete and graduate assistant in the athletic development office, I have had the pleasure of knowing Steve for the past 10 years. Steve understands and supports the demands of a student-athlete both on the playing field and in the classroom. During my time in the athletic development office, Steve taught me the value of relationships, dedication, and hard work. I'm beyond grateful for his continued mentorship and friendship today. The future of Friar athletics will continue to be bright under his leadership! Go Friars!" - Julie Ruggeri '11

"Steve Napolillo is the perfect selection to replace Bob Driscoll as the athletic director at Providence College. Steve has the knowledge and work ethic to that will enable Friar Athletics to reach the next level. I have known Steve for many years, and I have always admired his dedication to the College. He bleeds black and white." - Rob Gaudreau '92, former Friar men's ice hockey standout

"Father Sicard has made the perfect choice for the next leader of our athletic department. So much of what we have been able to accomplish during my time at Providence has been due to the hard work and dedication of Steve. He played a big part in helping to craft our student-centered vision for athletics. He has spent so many years in service to the College that he brings an overwhelming amount of knowledge and experience to the position. I look forward to watching him expand on the growth of Friar Athletics. I am confident that he will have a long and productive tenure leading the department." - Bob Driscoll, Providence College athletic director

"I would like to commend Father Sicard for this outstanding appointment of Steve. I am so happy for Steve, his wife, Beth, and his entire family. I have seen a tremendous growth in Steve during my 11 years at the College. His love for Providence College and his ability to foster and build relationships have been a major reason why our athletic department has experienced so much success. I believe that he will continue to grow and provide the leadership and vision to help our student-athletes become great future Friars." - Ed Cooley, Providence College men's basketball head coach

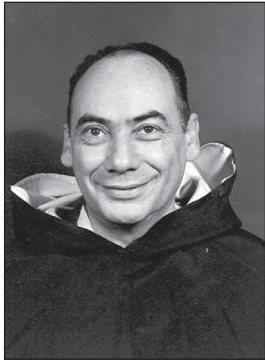

"While it is bittersweet to see Bob retire, Steve Napolillo is the right person to lead Providence College Athletics. No one is more passionate about Providence College Athletics than Steve. His work ethic and vision will enable him to build on Bob's success and lead us in the future. Steve has been at PC for a long time, and he has been an integral part of our championship culture." - Nate Leaman, Providence College men's ice hockey head coach

"I am thrilled that Father Sicard recognizes Steve's unique qualities and skill sets, which will enable him to build upon a legacy of excellence. Providence College has benefitted greatly from Bob Driscoll's outstanding leadership over the past 21 years, and from his vision for the future of Providence College athletics. Steve's experience as an athletic fundraiser will fortify efforts to provide our student athletes with resources, programs, and facilities that complement the holistic development of the 'student' in our athletes. I have no doubt that Steve will continue to help us advance our national reputation by further developing our athletic programs." - Chris Reilly '84, Providence College Board of Trustees chair and co-founder of KarpReilly, LLC.

SCHNEIDER ARENA

The following is an excerpt taken from the eulogy given at Father Schneider's funeral in December 1963:

"...Father Herman Damien Schneider was born into this life on August 16, 1909, at Ozone Park, Long Island and departed this life on Saturday last, after an illness of about two years. Aspiring from his earliest years to that perfection of Christian life (which is the observance of evangelical counsels) he entered the Order of Preachers and studied the natural and divine sciences at Dominican institutions in Columbus and Springfield, Ohio, Providence, Rhode Island, River Forest,

Illinois and Washington, D.C. where he was ordained in 1935. Thirty-four of his fifty-four years were spent as a friar preacher, solemnly vowed to poverty, chastity and obedience, honoring the observances of the common life, and enjoying that peace which the world cannot give, the one hundred fold promised by the Master.

After receiving Holy Orders, his apostolate was varied and fruitful. In imitation of the Good Shepherd, he labored in the parish of St. Pius, preaching, praying, visiting the sick, burying the dead and breaking the bread of Christ to hungry and thirsty souls.

During the Second World War, when the nation issued a call to arms, he served as chaplain in the marine corps and like a watchdog of Christ, remained steadfastly at his post of duty with honor, encouraging and counselling the fainthearted, comforting the wounded, administering the sacraments at all hours of the day and night "becoming all things to all men, that he might save all, for the sake of the gospel." He believed patriotism to be a virtue necessary for the commonwealth and was convinced that the chief strength of evil men lies in the cowardice and weakness of good men; that the social and political order of nations, disintegrates and perishes, when the moral order is uprooted from God.

Father Schneider graduated from Providence College in the class of 1930, and his alma mater, (in the designs of God) was to be his last dwelling place on earth. As a professor, he was sympathetic, enthusiastic and dedicated to the progress of his pupils. Having won a master's degree in modern languages at Columbia University, he functioned as an effective language teacher in the German Department, these last fifteen years. Even after his first and second heart attack, his thoughts would revert nostalgically to his classroom and teaching. The aim of a complete college education in his opinion was not merely the pursuit of intellectual perfection but also maturing to the fullness of the age of Christ during the formative period. He moulded the character of his pupils by balancing his inspiration with their application. Furthermore, in addition to his professorial duties, he cooperated in the program of the diocese by celebrating masses regularly in many local parishes and contributing his talent as a speaker and retreat master.

Blest with a natural aptitude for attracting and stimulating college students, he was appointed moderator of such campus groups as the Mal Brown Club, the Friars Club, the Cranston Club, and the German Society. Being also an ardent sports fan, he was made assistant director of athletics and sponsored the foundation of a hockey team which besides being his personal pride and joy, was a credit to the Athletic Department of the College..."

Opened in 1973, Schneider Arena recently underwent a massive renovation project that culminated in a Grand Reopening on Sept 27, 2013. The eight-month renovation project turned Schneider into one of finest on-campus facilities in the country. The Grand Reopening celebration included a ribbon cutting ceremony and a blessing of the building, featuring President Rev. Brian J. Shanley, O.P. '80, Athletics Director Bob Driscoll, men's hockey Head Coach Nate Leaman and women's hockey Head Coach Bob Deraney.

The renovation project was completed in just under eight months and included a 30,000 square-foot addition. Highlights of the addition and renovation include a new atrium, ticket office, concession stands, coaches offices, shooting room, locker rooms, meeting rooms, athletic training room, press box, five luxury suites, dasher boards, glass, video boards, video ribbon boards, scoreboards, a renovated Friends of Friar Room and a strength and conditioning facility.

Schneider Arena was dedicated and is named in memory of the late Reverend Herman D. Schneider, O.P., the founder of the Friars' highly successful hockey program and a long-time member of the school's faculty.

Since its opening night win, a 1-0 decision over the University of Pennsylvania on November 24, 1973, Schneider Arena has been the home of 482 Friar victories and a .609 winning percentage. At tournament time, either ECAC, Hockey East or NCAA, Providence has an impressive 33-15 mark in Schneider. The Friars' complete 50-year record stands at 482-295-83.

Built at a cost of $1.8 million dollars in 1973, Schneider Arena also serves as the home of PC's women's hockey team and also houses the men's lacrosse team.

Schneider Arena is one of Providence College's buildings that is in constant use. It serves the needs of the men's and women's hockey programs, the Providence College club hockey team and intramurals are also played at the Arena. The building also serves as the home of many of Rhode Island's youth and high school hockey teams as well as junior hockey programs.

HISTORY & RECORDS

HOCKEY EAST ASSOCIATION

The Hockey East Association enters its 41st season on the ice in 2024-25 as it has consistently proven as the strongest NCAA Division I college hockey conference from top to bottom, boasting the reigning Hobey Baker winner.

Hockey East has seen a steady rise to prominence since its founding charter on July 11, 1983, when the possibility of an apparent Ivy League departure threatened the ECAC. In response, the athletics directors from Boston College, Boston University, New Hampshire, Northeastern and Providence unveiled a new Division I men's ice hockey conference. Together, Bill Flynn of Boston College, John Simpson of Boston University, Andy Mooradian of New Hampshire, Joe Zabalski of Northeastern and Lou Lamoriello of Providence launched Hockey East with Lamoriello assuming the role of the league's first commissioner.

Later that summer, the Board of Directors added the University of Maine and the University of Lowell (now UMass Lowell). Official conference competition of the seven-team league began with the 1984-85 season. Soon after, the league expanded to nine teams with the additions of Merrimack College (1989) and the University of Massachusetts (1993). The entry of the University of Vermont for the 2005-06 season raised the conference membership to 10 teams before the University of Notre Dame was accepted as the league's 11th member on October 5, 2011. The Fighting Irish started Hockey East play in 2013-14, the season before Hockey East's newest program, the University of Connecticut, began play.

Hockey East has set new competitive standards for college hockey success, annually compiling an impressive collective winning percentage against non-conference opponents, including a record .705 during the 2002-03 season and a .669 win percentage during the 25th anniversary season of 2008-09. Over the last 20 years, Hockey East has cemented itself as the nation's elite college hockey league, having earned 32 of the 80 berths in the NCAA Frozen Four and boasting nine NCAA title winners: the University of Maine in 1993 and 1999, Boston University in 1995 and 2009, Boston College in 2001, 2008, 2010 and 2012 and Providence College in 2015. The recent run of Hockey East success has led to the conference winning five of the last eight national titles.

In its most impressive NCAA postseason showing, Hockey East boasted three of the four Frozen Four participants in 1999, as Maine triumphed over UNH, 3-2, in overtime in an All-Hockey East final, the second time in five seasons that had occurred. Hockey East sent three teams to the NCAA Tournament in 2015, marking 11 times in the last 12 seasons that three or more Hockey East teams have qualified. Two of those squads, Boston University and Providence, clashed in the NCAA title game at the TD Garden in Boston, Massachusetts.

Hockey East has proven to be an equally strong presence off the ice and in the classroom. League athletes continue to demonstrate their commitment to overall excellence, as the Hockey East All-Academic Team honored 187 student-athletes for outstanding academic achievement during the 2020-21 academic year, 18 of whom achieved elite Distinguished Scholar status for qualifying for the All-Academic team in each of four seasons played.

Hockey East athletes also make a positive impact on many community service programs across the region, volunteering with youth hockey associations and community service organizations. Six Hockey East athletes have received the prestigious Hockey Humanitarian Award, while nine others have been finalists for the honor.

Dr. Landry (1-1)
John Graham (0-4)
Clement Trihey (0-2)

Providence College's first hockey team took the ice in the 1926-27 season and went 1-7-0. Dr. Landry coached the team for two games, winning the first game, 6-4 at Springfield. Team captain, John Graham, took over for the next four games, losing all four. Clement Trihey became the team's third coach for the final two games as Providence College's first hockey team closed out the year at 1-7-0. Due to lack of ice, the program was halted until the 1952 season.

Richard Rondeau
Dartmouth '44
1952-56

Four seasons (25-41-0)

In 1952, hockey returned to Providence College. The Reverend Herman Schneider was the driving force behind hockey's return to the school. He also convinced former Dartmouth great Richard Rondeau to take on the job as coach of the Friars. Working part-time, Rondeau helped lay the groundwork for the new program. In his third season, the Friars produced their first winning season with an 8-7-0 mark. Rondeau stepped down following the 1955-56 season after four years behind the Friars' bench.

Thomas Eccleston, Jr.
Brown '34
1956-64

Eight seasons (94-72-5)

Tom Eccleston, Jr., became the Friars' fifth coach after spending 22 years at Burrillville High School where he coached teams to state championships in football, hockey and baseball. In his eight seasons at PC, Eccleston's teams had seven campaigns of .500 or better, appeared in post season play three times and advanced to the NCAA Finals during the 1963-64 season. The 1963-64 team, one of the college's best, went 19-7-0 on the way to a fourth-place finish in the national tournament. Eccleston retired following the 1963-64 season.

Zello Toppazzini

Four seasons (31-60-1)

The Friars drew their sixth coach from the professional ranks, naming Providence Reds star Zello Toppazzini coach in 1964. "Topper" began his pro career in 1947, playing in the National Hockey League with Boston, New York and Chicago and the American Hockey League with Hershey, Cincinnati and Providence. He is a member of the Providence Reds Hall of Fame. In his first season at PC, "Topper" led the Friars to the ECAC playoffs and a 14-11-1 record. A native of Copper Cliff, Ontario, Toppazzini saw his two sons, Mike and Hugh, go on to play hockey at Providence in the 1980's.

Lou Lamoriello
Providence '63
1968-1983

15 seasons (248-179-13)

Lou Lamoriello, who has more wins than any coach in Providence College hockey history, has done just about everything since coming to the school as a student in 1959. As a player he played both hockey and baseball. He still ranks 33rd on the PC scoring list with 58 goals and 60 assists for 118 points in 64 career games. Following graduation, Lamoriello served as assistant coach to Zello Toppazzini. In 15 seasons as head coach, the Providence native racked up 248 wins and saw 11 of his 15 teams qualify for post season play with teams in 1978, 1981 and 1983 advancing to the NCAA Tournament. Lamoriello's final team, the 1982-83 squad, quite possibly the greatest in PC history, went 33-10-0 and finished third in the NCAA's. Following that season, the popular coach stepped down to take over as athletic director on a full-time basis after assuming that role in July, 1983. He went on to become the driving force in forming HOCKEY EAST and served as the league's first director from 1984-1987. In June, 1987, Lamoriello stepped down as PC's Athletic Director and HOCKEY EAST's Director to become President and General Manager of the National Hockey League's New Jersey Devils. After spending 28 seasons in the Devils organization, he was announced as the 16th General Manager of the Toronto Maple Leafs on July 23, 2015. Lamoriello was inducted into the Hockey Hall of Fame on November 9, 2009 in Toronto.

Steve Stirling
Boston University '71
1983-85

Two seasons (44-28-7)

Steve Stirling came to Providence to succeed Lou Lamoriello in 1983 after a highly successful coaching career at Babson. A hockey All-American, Stirling played at Boston University where he captained the 1971 national championship team. After six years of pro hockey, the former Boston University great began his coaching career at Babson where he compiled an 88-42-5 record. In two seasons with the Friars, Stirling put together back-to-back 20-win seasons. His 1983-84 team lost in the ECAC playoffs to Boston College. A year later, the first for HOCKEY EAST, Stirling's team finished third in the regular season, but won the tournament. The "Cinderella" Friars then advanced all the way to the NCAA Finals where they lost in the finals to RPI, by a 2-1 score. Following the season, Stirling resigned as the Friars' coach to return to Babson.

Mike McShane
New Hampshire '71
1985-1994

Nine seasons (151-153-31)

Mike McShane spent nine seasons behind the Providence College bench leading the Friars to a pair of NCAA Tournament appearances in 1989 and 1991. McShane's teams racked up four consecutive 20-win seasons between 1988 and 1992. A 1971 graduate of New Hampshire, McShane came to Providence in 1985 and after three rebuilding seasons, saw his 1988-89 team start the year at 1-9-0 before going 21-9-2 over the final 32 games and advance to the NCAA Quarterfinals. Following the season, McShane was named the New England Coach of the Year. The Wakefield, Massachusetts native is third on PC's all-time win list with 151 victories and recorded 244 wins in 14 seasons between Providence and St. Lawrence where he started his Division I coaching career in 1980. McShane picked up his 200th career win on November 24, 1991 when PC blanked Merrimack, 4-0, at Schneider Arena. He resigned as the Friars' head coach April 22, 1994 with a career mark of 244-218-31.

Paul Pooley
Ohio State '84
1994 -2005

11 Seasons (185-187-40)

On July 28, 1994, Paul Pooley was named the 10th head coach in the history of Providence College Hockey. In 11 seasons, Pooley brought the Friars to three HOCKEY EAST Finals and two NCAA Tournament appearances. In 1994-95, Pooley became the first head coach to bring a team to the HOCKEY EAST Championship game in his inaugural season behind the bench. In 1995-96, he guided the Friars to their second HOCKEY EAST title and first since 1985. Pooley also led the team to its eighth appearance in the NCAA Tournament. The Friars concluded 1995-96 with 21 victories - the sixth highest win total in the history of Friar hockey. Pooley earned his 100th career win on February 12, 2000 when the Friars defeated New Hampshire, 4-3. Pooley led the Friars to a 22-13-5 record in the 2000-01 season, reaching the HOCKEY EAST Championship game and the NCAA Tournament's First Round. Prior to arriving at Providence, Pooley served as an assistant coach at Lake Superior State and Ohio State. He resigned as the head coach of the Friars on June 8, 2005 with a 185-187-40 record.

Tim Army
Providence College '85
2005-11

Five Seasons (66-116-28)

Tim Army returned to his alma mater to take over the reigns of the Providence College men's hockey program on July 17, 2005. Army, a 1985 graduate of the College, became the 11th coach in the history of the program the first PC alumnus to coach the team since his former coach Lou Lamoriello guided the Friars (1968-83). He also became the first former HOCKEY EAST player to be a head coach in the league. In his first season at PC, Army guided the team to a 17-16-3 overall record, including a 14-10-3 mark in HOCKEY EAST. The 14 league wins was one short of tying a school record. Prior to his position at PC, Army spent three seasons as the head coach of the Portland Pirates of the American Hockey League. Before his stint at Portland, Army spent nine seasons as an assistant coach in the NHL for the Anaheim Ducks and the Washington Capitals. Currently, he is an assistant coach for the Colorado Avalanche.

Nate Leaman
SUNY Cortland '97

13 Seasons (259-163-62)

14th-year Head Coach Nate Leaman has led a resurgence of the Providence College men's hockey program, highlighted by winning the 2015 NCAA Championship, marking the first NCAA title in program history.

In 2014-15, Leaman guided the Friars to back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances for the first time in program history and Providence posted its second-highest win total of all-time (26). He became the youngest head coach to win the NCAA title since 1993 (Shawn Walsh) as Providence College became the 20th institution to win the NCAA Div. I Men's Ice Hockey Championship. The 2015 championship also marked Providence College's first NCAA team title in a men's sport and the College's third overall NCAA Championship in a team sport.

The 2011 Spencer Penrose Award winner, Leaman also was a Spencer Penrose finalist in 2015 and was named the 2015 USCHO.com Coach of the Year. Providence finished the 2014-15 season ranked No. 1 in the national polls (USCHO.com and USA Today/USA Hockey Magazine). The Friars last cracked the top two-places in the national polls in January of 1990, when they were ranked No. 2 in the Times Union poll.

THE COGNOMEN

It is reported by Vincent Cyril Dore, O.P., who played in the earliest of Providence College athletics contests, that PC men were called "Cardinals," but there is no official record or reference in newspaper clippings. There are references, however, to the nickname "Dominicans" as a sobriquet for PC athletes after the use of "Cardinals." "Black and White" and "White and Black" were generally accepted epithets as well. "Friars" first appeared in an April 9, 1929 Providence Journal sports story prior to the start of the 1929 baseball season and a game against Northeastern University.

The earlier nicknames, along with other informal references (Smith Hillers, North End boys, etc.), continued to be used until the Fall of 1932 when "Friars" became more officially accepted and recognized as the one true cognomen for Providence College.

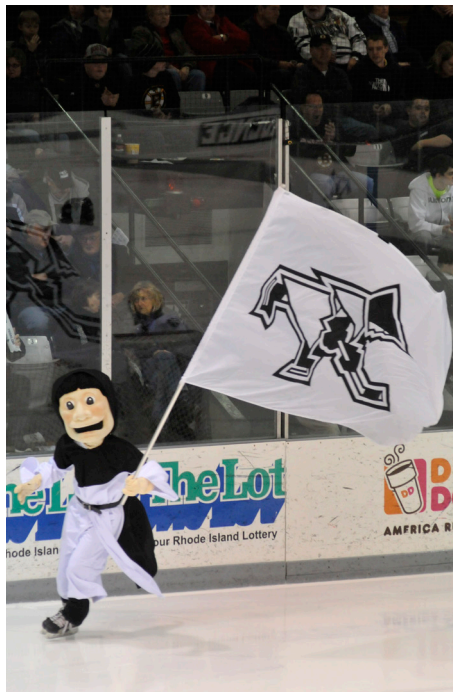

Friars, of course, was the word describing the members of the mendicant orders founded in the 13th century. Most of the members were priests engaged in a direct apostolate to the faithful. The Friars possessed greater mobility than other orders in that they were not confined to a single monastery or abbey.

It is surmised that the cognomen and reference to PC athletes as "Friars" came from an on-campus service club formed by John E. Farrell '26 called the Friars Club. Farrell was the Graduate Manager of Athletics at the College, who travelled with the baseball team to Dartmouth and learned of a service organization called the Green Key Society, which met and assisted visiting athletic teams. With the help of College president Reverend Lorenzo McCarthy, O.P. a similar club was formed at Providence College. Farrell reasoned that since the College was under the jurisdiction of the Order of Friar Preachers, the nickname was a natural.

SCHOOL COLORS

Black and White are the official colors of Providence College. The black and white colors come from the habit worn by the Dominican Order. On solemn and formal occasions, the white habit is covered by a long black cloak and hood which is called the cappa. It is the black cappa, which in ancient times was worn in the street, that caused the Dominicans in English-speaking countries to be called "Blackfriars."

The colors symbolize the ideals of the order. White typifies the Divine Truth preached by the Order and is indicative of the purity of life that must be characteristic of every Dominican. The black cappa is a constant reminder of the sacrifices that must be made in defense of the truth and the penance which is the means of preserving purity of life.

ALMA MATER

From "Finlandia" by Jan Sibelius

Mother of Truth, we proudly pledge to thee
Undying love and steadfast loyalty.

From thee we learned the wondrous work of God,
His goodness, grace, and holy power;
Clear has thou shown that pathways must be trod;
All fearless now we brave life's hour!
Though failure frown, though kindly fortune smile,
Firm our advance, naught can us e'er beguile.
To honor bound, to love and virtue sworn,
Lift we our voices in full acclaim
Our lives shall thee with noble deeds adorn;
Hail Providence! We praise thy name!

SCHOOL SEAL

The seal of Providence College consists of a torch superimposed on a triangle. In symbolism, the triangle represents the Trinity. Thus is signified an education which considers human existence in relation to eternity, which goes beyond the natural order and teaches the student to live according to the higher principles of supernatural grace.

The torch, always indicative of learning, is particularly emblematic of a Dominican institution since it is part of the device of one of the oldest shields of the Order. At the outset it referred to Saint Dominic himself who so magnificently conquered error by the Light of Truth, and who personally and through his followers was responsible, in no small measure, for the full flowering of the medieval universities. This tradition for learning the Friars Preachers carried to every part of the world.

The flame of the torch signifies the soul of man; the light of the flame indicates his mind. The torch is always borne aloft. The flame, therefore, towers over the surrounding symbols and typifies leadership among men.

The motto of the College is Veritas. It means Truth, which is the proper object of all intellectual activity.

The Diamond Jubilee logo depicts the long tradition of Dominican influence on the College.

PROVIDENCE HOCKEY LOGO

The famous Friar hockey logo is the creation of Mr. Chuck Verde '63 who came up with the idea of a logo that would set hockey apart from all other Providence sports.

He developed several ideas after talking with then-coach Lou Lamoriello and assistant coach Bob Bellemore. They liked the idea and chose what has now become the traditional hockey logo. This logo came on the scene during the 1972-73 season and first appeared on the Friars' jerseys at the start of the 1973-74 season.

IMPORTANT NAMES AND EVENTS IN FRIAR HISTORY

The following is a list of some of the greatest names in the history of Friar hockey. Although there have been many great names over the 62 seasons of PC hockey, this list only includes those Friars who are in the PC Athletic Hall of Fame, earned All-America accolades, were Olympians, rank in the top-10 in overall scoring or the top overall goaltenders. Also listed are moments and events that impacted Friar Hockey History.

1926-27 Team -- The 1926-27 squad was the first varsity hockey team at PC. The team posted a 1-7 record, with its only win being a 6-4 victory over Springfield on January 6, 1927. During the summer, the College decided that it could not budget a full-time coach or secure nonconflicting practice schedules so the decision was made to drop the sport for the 1928 season and, "until such time as it might be supported adequately."

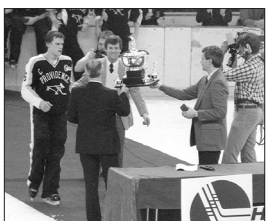

1952-53 Team -- The 1952-53 Friars were the first varsity team since the inaugural 1926-27 season. Rev. Herman Schneider was responsible for the reinstatement of Friar hockey. The team posted a 6-8-0 mark in 1952-53.

1964 ECAC Title -- The 1963-64 Friars captured the team's first conference title when the squad defeated St. Lawrence, 3-1, at the Boston Arena on March 14, 1964. The team recorded a 19-7 mark and made the squad's first appearance in the NCAA Tournament.

1981 ECAC Title -- The 1980-81 Friars posted a 17-15-1 mark and captured the team's second ECAC title. The team won its second ECAC crown with an 8-4 victory against Cornell at the Boston Garden on March 14, 1981. The Friars were eliminated from the NCAA Tournament by Michigan Tech in two games.

1985 HOCKEY EAST Title -- Tim Army and Head Coach Steve Stirling accept the HOCKEY EAST trophy from Commissioner Lou Lamoriello after capturing the 1985 Tournament title. PC defeated BC, 2-1, in double overtime on March 16, 1985 at the Providence Civic Center.

1996 HOCKEY EAST Title -- The underdog Friars defeated top ranked BU, 5-4, in the semifinals and Maine, 3-2, in the title game on March 16, 1996 for the team's second HOCKEY EAST crown. PC became the first No. 4 seed to win the league title.

2016 HOCKEY EAST Regular Season Champions -- The Friars earned a share of the 2015-16 Hockey East Regular Season crown after finishing with a 27-7-4 (16-3-3 HEA)

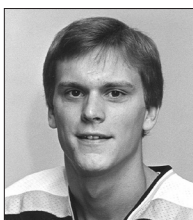

2018-19 Team -- As a No. 4 seed, the Friars took down top-seeded Minnesota State and followed with a 4-0 win over Cornell in the East Regional to advance to the program's fifth Frozen Four.

2015 NCAA Champions -- Providence defeated the Boston University Terriers, 4-3, on April 11 at the TD Garden on the strength of an exhilarating third period comeback that culminated in junior forward Brandon Tanev's game-winning goal scored with just over six minutes to play. Junior goaltender Jon Gillies made a career-high 49 saves en route to being named the Frozen Four's Most Outstanding Player, while sophomore defenseman Anthony Florentino and junior forward Mark Jankowski joined Gillies on the All-Tournament Team. It marked Providence's first-ever back-to-back appearances in the NCAA Tournament, and the Friars made a run to the Frozen Four for the first time in 30 years before capturing the College's third NCAA team title overall, joining the women's cross country team, who captured NCAA titles in 1995 and 2013.

Tim Army '85 was one of a long line of high scoring forwards who led PC hockey to prominence in the early 1980's. The Friars' all-time leader in games played (151), he captained the 1984-85 Friars to the first HOCKEY EAST Championship and helped lead the Friars to the 1985 NCAA Finals. Sixth on the Friars' all-time scoring list with 179 points (71 goals, 108 assists), Army was the leading goal scorer in HOCKEY EAST's first season with 73 points (27 goals and 46 assists). A 1985 First Team All-America, All-Academic Team, All-HOCKEY EAST and All-New England selection, the East Providence native was a finalist for the 1985 Hobey Baker Award and won PC's Mal Brown Award. Army was also selected as the winner of the 1985 Walter Brown Trophy which is awarded annually to the top American born player in New England. After two years of playing professional hockey, Army returned to Providence College where he served as an assistant coach for six seasons (1987-93). In 1993, he moved on to the Mighty Ducks of Anaheim in the National Hockey League where he served as an assistant coach to Friar Hall of Famer Ron Wilson. He also served as an assistant to Wilson with the Washington Capitals and as a head coach of the Portland Pirates. He was named head coach at Providence College in 2005 and coached the Friars for six seasons. Army was named one of top-25 forwards during Hockey East's 25th Anniversary celebration in 2009. Currently, he is an assistant coach with the NHL's Colorado Avalanche.

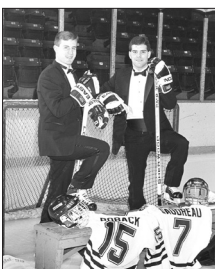

Bob Bellemore '66 is one of the top goaltenders to have ever played at Providence College. Bellemore ranks fifth with a 3.12 career goals against average. In his sophomore year of 1964, he helped the Friars win their first ECAC title and their first berth in the NCAA Final Four. While at PC, Bellemore also starred on the baseball team, captaining the squad in his senior year. Bellemore began his coaching career as the part-time assistant men's ice hockey coach and in 1972 he joined Lou Lamoriello's staff as a full-time assistant coach until 1986. In 1986-87, Bellemore held the title of Arena Director of Schneider Arena. Bellemore left PC in 1987 to become the goaltending coach for the New Jersey Devils. He returned to PC in 1991 to finish his master's degree and to become the assistant women's ice hockey coach. In 1984, Bob was inducted in the Providence College Athletic Hall of Fame as one of the best goalies to man the Friar cage.

Rick Bennett '90 was best recognized for his versatility with the Friars. In his years at PC, the powerful left wing played center, played defense, played on the power play and killed penalties. The culmination of years of hard work and dedication led Bennett to be a 1990 Hobey Baker Finalist. A former Friar co-captain, Bennett earned Second Team All-HOCKEY EAST honors in 1990. In 1987, Rick was named to the HOCKEY EAST All-Rookie Team. He was a two-time winner of the Lamoriello Trophy as Team MVP for Providence. In 1989, he tallied 46 points and was named Second Team All-American. Bennett participated in two U.S. Olympic Sports Festivals where he won a gold medal for the West Team in 1989. Bennett ranks 24th all-time at PC with 134 points in 128 games. Bennett played three seasons with the New York Rangers in the National Hockey League. He also played for the Pee Dee Pride of the ECHL. He currently serves as the head coach of the Union College men's hockey team.

Boback and Gaudreau -- Mike Boback '92 and Rob Gaudreau '92 formed a formidable duo for the Friars, registering 412 points combined. Boback ranks fourth all-time in scoring (201 points) and Gaudreau ranks third (211 points). Both players helped lead the Friars to two NCAA appearances and four 20-win seasons in their four years at Providence.

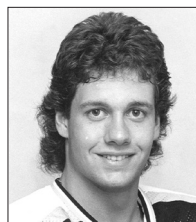

Mike Boback '92 ranks as one of the top 10 goal scorers of all time at PC with 73 tallies. Boback finished his four seasons with the Friars ranking second in career assists (128) and fourth in career points (201) in 131 games. Boback scored 72 points in his senior year. As a sophomore and as a senior, Boback was a first team HOCKEY EAST All-Star. Boback holds the school record for the longest game point scoring streak with 19 games. He was named Stickyfingers/

WDOM Player of the Year in 1989-90. The All-New Englander was also a recipient of two of the highest honors at Providence College, the 1992 Lamoriello Most Valuable Team Player accolade and the 1992 Mal Brown Award. He is a member of the PC Athletic Hall of Fame.

Edward Conaty '33 served as a volunteer SID for the PC football and basketball teams from 1938-41. A statistician for the football team until the sport was dropped, Conaty also volunteered in developing alumni interest in basketball and was associated with the school's hockey program for over 20 years. After his graduation, he held every office in the Alumni Association from secretary through president. In 1973, he was given the Alumni "Distinguished Service Award" and is the donator of the college's oldest athletic award, the Mal Brown Award. Conaty also was a founding member of the Friends of Friar Hockey organization. His dedication truly depicts what a true fan should be like. He is a member of the PC Athletic Hall of Fame.

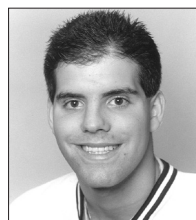

Gord Cruickshank '88 was one of the top goal scorers to ever skate for the Friars. The talented center garnered 1988 Second Team All-America accolades and All-New England Honors. The two time HOCKEY EAST All-Star Team member played in 145 career games, becoming one of Providence's top goal scorers with 99 career goals and 60 career assists. As a Friar co-captain, Cruickshank led his team in scoring with 29 goals, 16 assists to help Providence advance to the HOCKEY EAST Semifinals during his senior year. Cruickshank finished his college career as one of HOCKEY EAST's all time goal scoring leaders with 80 career goals in league play. He was awarded with the Male Sine Qua Non Award (That without whom, there is nothing), which is an award that is presented to a senior who distinguishes himself among his peers without receiving proper recognition. Cruickshank also received the 1987-88 Lamoriello Trophy for the Team's Most Valuable Player.

Thomas Eccleston Jr. '34 became the Friars' fourth coach after spending 23 years at Burrillville High school where he coached teams to the state championships in football, hockey and baseball. In his eight seasons with the Friars, Eccleston's teams had seven winning campaigns, appeared in post season play three times and advanced to the NCAA Finals during the 1963-64 season. The 1963-64 team, one of the College's best, went 19-7-0 on the way to a fourth place finish in the national tournament. Eccleston retired following the 1963-64 season as the New England Coach of the Year. He is a member of the PC Athletic Hall of Fame.

Rob Gaudreau '92 was one of the most outstanding Friars to skate for PC. He finished his career with over 100 goals and 100 assists. He is third in all-time scoring with 211 points, and PC's all-time leader in goals scored (103). During his senior year, co-captain Gaudreau was moved from forward to defense to help the Friar attack. He led all defensemen in HOCKEY EAST with nine goals and 19 assists as well as the country in scoring with 21 goals and 34 assists. Gaudreau scored over 20 goals in every season as a Friar, playing in 146 games. Gaudreau was the 1988-89 HOCKEY EAST Rookie of the Year, a two-time HOCKEY EAST All-Star, a member of the 1992 HOCKEY EAST All-Tournament Team, the 1992 New England Player of the Year and New England Top Defensemen. He earned the 1992 Providence College Male Athlete of the Year award, was a two-time winner of the team's Most Valuable Player award, and he was awarded the 1992 Walter Brown Trophy, given to the top American hockey player in New England. Gaudreau was a 1992 Hobey Baker Finalist, All-American Second Team member, and a two-time All-New England selection. Gaudreau signed with the San Jose Sharks in 1992, collecting the team's first ever hat trick during his second NHL game. He also played two seasons with the Ottawa Senators. He was inducted into the Providence College Hall of Fame in 2003. Gaudreau was named among the top-25 forwards during Hockey East's 25th Anniversary Celebration in 2009.

IMPORTANT NAMES AND EVENTS IN FRIAR HISTORY

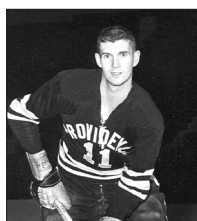

Jon Gillies was one the Friars' all-time greatest goaltenders. He helped Providence to the 2015 NCAA Championship, the first in program history. He made a career-high 49 saves in the NCAA Championship game win over Boston University (4-3) and was named the Frozen Four's Most Outstanding Player. A two-time All-American (2013 and 2015), Gillies went 24-13-2 during the 2014-15 season and posted the second-best goals-against average in program history (2.01). In 2015, Gillies was selected to the Hockey East First Team. He also earned that honor in 2012-13 to become just the fifth goaltender in Hockey East history to earn multiple First-Team honors. Gillies is Providence's all-time leader in shutouts (13) and career goals-against average (2.08). He owns three of the top-four lowest single-season goals-against averages in Friar history (2.08, 2.16 and 1.95). He also ranks second in career wins at Providence College (60-34-13) and second at Providence in career saves (3,000) and fourth in goaltender appearances (108). As a freshman, he was named the HCA National NCAA Div. I Rookie of the Year.

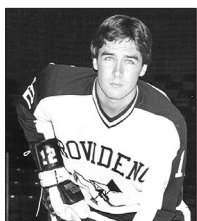

Paul Guay '85 was the first Providence College Friar to become a hockey Olympian. While only playing two seasons with the Friars, Guay made quite the impression upon hockey fans in Rhode Island. He scored 34 goals in his last season as a Friar, topping PC single-season goals list. In just 75 games, Guay scored 57 goals and 48 assists. He was a member of the 1982-83 All-New England squad. After attending the Sports Festival for the 1984 Olympics, Guay made the 1984 Team USA. Guay did not return to the Friar lineup, foregoing his last two years of eligibility to play for the Philadelphia Flyers. He continued his NHL career in Boston, New York, Hartford and Los Angeles.

Grant Heffernan '65 was a powerful center who helped the 1964 team capture the ECAC Championship by scoring the game-winning goal. He was awarded with the Paul Hines Award for the most improved player in the New England area. Grant was a two-time All-ECAC selection and also was a member of the All-New England team in 1964. He earned All-America accolades in 1965. Heffernan was inducted into the PC Athletic Hall of Fame in 1977.

Dan Kennedy '76 proved to Friar fans that he was one of the top wingers in the East. After overcoming injuries in his freshman year, Kennedy was able to come back and score a total of 75 goals, 93 assists for 168 points in 105 career games. He helped bring his team to two ECAC tournaments. Kennedy was an honorable mention All-East selection. Regardless of being unnoticed for his first three seasons with the Friars, this co-captain was thrilled to be part of the most productive lines in Friar Hockey. Kennedy at right wing, along with Randy and Brad Wilson at left and center, tallied 80 goals and 90 assists for 170 points. He was awarded with the Sine Quo Non Award in 1976. Kennedy is most remembered for his non-flashy ways of getting the job done, and getting it done correctly. He was inducted into the Providence College Hall of Fame in recognition of his outstanding achievements on and off the ice while at Providence College.

Larry Kish '64 was one of the greatest defensemen in the history of Providence College hockey. The first Friar All-America, he was also a member of the 1964 All-New England team and a two-time All-ECAC selection. During his senior year, Kish co-captained the team that won the ECAC Championship. He received the Walter Brown Memorial Award as the most valuable player in New England in 1964. Kish was inducted into the Providence College Athletic Hall of Fame in 1974. For 18 years after graduating from Providence College, Kish was a minor league coach with organizations such as the Cape Codders, the Sun Coast Suns, the Rhode Island Eagles and Binghamton. In 1982, Kish became the Hartford Whalers' head coach, making his leap into the National Hockey League.

Kurt Kleinendorst '83 finished his Providence College career as one of the top goal scorers on one of college hockey's most talented teams of all-time. The 1982-83 Friars posted a 33-10-3 mark and advanced to the NCAA finals where they finished third. A finalist for the 1983 Hobey Baker Award, Kleinendorst ranks fifth all-time in career points with 89 goals and 103 assists. Kleinendorst was selected First Team All-America (1983), two-times All-ECAC and to the All-New England Team and to the 1982-83 All-East senior All-Star Team. In 1981, he led the Friars to the ECAC Championship and was the tourney's Most Valuable Player. He helped Providence to a pair of NCAA Tournaments and was the team's leading scorer as a junior and senior. Following a career in pro hockey, Kleinendorst moved behind the bench, most recently coaching the Iowa Wild (AHL) and UAH Chargers (NCAA).

Lou Lamoriello '63 has more wins than any other hockey coach at Providence College. Lou Lamoriello has done just about everything since coming to the school as a student in 1959. As a player he played both hockey and baseball. He still ranks 33rd on the PC scoring list with 58 goals and 60 assists for 118 points in 64 career games. Following graduation, Lamoriello served as assistant coach to Zellio Toppazzini. In the 15 seasons as head coach, the Providence native racked up 248 wins and saw 11 of his 15 teams qualify for post-season play with teams in 1978, 1981, and 1983 advance to the NCAA Tournament. Lamoriello's final team, the 1982-83 squad, quite possibly the greatest in PC history, went 33-10-0 and finished third in the NCAA's. Following that season, the popular coach stepped down to take over as athletic director on a full-time basis after assuming that role in July, 1982. He went on to become the driving force in forming HOCKEY EAST and served as the league's first director from 1984-1987. In June of 1987, Lamoriello stepped down as PC's Athletics Director and HOCKEY EAST's director to become the President and General Manager of the New Jersey Devils of the National Hockey League, where he led them to three Stanley Cup titles. Lamoriello was inducted into the Hockey Hall of Fame on Nov. 9, 2009 in Toronto. He was then inducted into the U.S. Hockey Hall of Fame on Nov. 15, 2012. His No. 14 jersey was retired at Schneider Arena in 2016-17.

Bill Milner '79 is one of the top goaltenders in Friar hockey history. He ranks fourth in the school's all-time career saves list with 2,839 career stops. Milner recorded 50 career victories, which is good for third all time. During the 1978-79 season, Milner led the Friars to a berth in the ECAC Playoffs, as PC finished with a 16-10-2 overall record. For his efforts, he was named team MVP in 1978 and 1979.

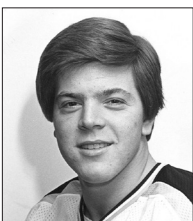

IMPORTANT NAMES AND EVENTS IN FRIAR HISTORY

NCAA Runner Up -- Tim Army, the sixth leading scorer in Friar history (179 points), poses with the NCAA Second Place Trophy. After winning the inaugural HOCKEY EAST title in 1985, the Friars advanced to the NCAA Tournament and made it all the way to championship game where the team was defeated by RPI, 2-1, on March 29, 1985.

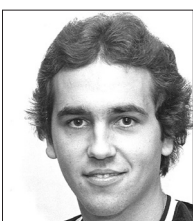

Steve O'Neill '81 ranks ninth on the PC career goals list with 74 tallies. He is also ranked ninth in the Providence College all-time scoring list with 164 points (74 goals and 90 assists) in 117 games. He served as a captain his senior year and was nominated to the All-ECAC team in 1980. O'Neill played on various minor league teams after graduating from PC.

Gates Orlando '84 ranks among the most talented players ever to play at Providence College. A speedy skater with great hands and hockey skills, Orlando ranks second in all-time scoring at Providence College with 213 points on 95 goals and 118 assists. A member of two NCAA Tournament teams (1980-81 and 1982-83), Orlando also played on the 1981 ECAC Championship team. An exciting player to watch, Orlando was a Second Team All-America, All-ECAC, a two-time All-New England selection, All-East Senior All-Star, and the New England Forward of the Year. Gates was a finalist for the 1984 Hobey Baker Award. A native of LaSalle, Quebec, Orlando led the Friars in scoring as a freshman and as a senior. Orlando played professionally in Europe for nine years after a three-year stint in the Buffalo Sabres organization. He played on three Olympic teams for Italy in 1992, 1994 and 1998.

Mario Proulx '84 holds several records as a Friar goaltender. He holds the record for career wins (64), and season wins (26). He is also tied for first all-time in season shutouts (3). In addition, Proulx is second all-time in career minutes played (5,823) and shutouts (5). In the 102 games, he allowed 351 goals against, made 2,785 saves and registered a goals against average of 3.62. During his senior year, Proulx was named to the College Hockey Statistics

Bureau All-Academic Team and was awarded with the Mal Brown Award, which is given to a the Providence College athlete who best exemplifies the qualities of Sportsmanship, Courage and Honor. After PC, Mario played with the New York Rangers.

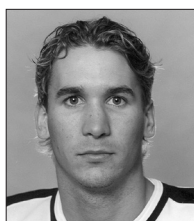

Richard Pumple '71, who was called one of the best all-around hockey players in PC history, set a PC record for most goals (38) and most points (71) as a freshman. Despite an injury in his junior year, Pumple was the squad's high scorer with 22 goals and 41 assists for 63 points. As team captain, he led the squad to a 17-11 season and an ECAC playoff berth in 1970-71. In three seasons, he had a total of 109 points, the sixth best record of any player under the old freshman eligibility role. His decision to attend PC and his outstanding performance led to a string of first class recruits that Coach Lamoriello used to turn around the program. Pumple was inducted into the PC Athletic Hall of Fame in 1984.

Chad Quenneville '95, with a quiet distinction, became one of the top goal scorers at Providence College. He ranks eighth on Providence's career scoring list with 167 points, sixth in career goals with 78, and 13th in assists with 89. A member of the 1994 Olympic Festival, Quenneville was selected to the Preseason All-Star Team. During his final year as a Friar, Quenneville earned his second Second Team All-American honor. During his career, he also was a two-time All-New England selection as well as HOCKEY EAST All-Conference and HOCKEY EAST All-Tournament Team selection. He also was honored as a New England Sportswriters All-Star and as the University of Maine's Most Honored Opponent. Quenneville was further recognized with the Thomas Eccleston Jr. Unsung Hero Award and twice with the Lamoriello Team Most Valuable Player Trophy. He won the Friar award given to PC's top defensive player and he still holds the record for the longest goal-scoring streak with 11 games. After graduating from Providence, he played eight games with the Albany River Rats of the AHL. He also spent four seasons with Pensacola of the ECHL.

Devin Rask '03 became the 14th Friar to earn All-America honors as he tallied 51 points to help the Friars earn an NCAA Tournament berth in 2001. Rask finished his career at Providence ranked 14th in the school's scoring list with 151 points (64 goals, 87 assists). In addition to being named All-American, Rask was an All-New England and an All-Hockey East selection. He also was named the College's Co-Athlete of the Year and earned the Lou Lamoriello Award in 2001. He is tied for the Providence College record for most goals in one period (four).

Rhode Island Auditorium -- The Auditorium served as the home of Friar hockey from 1952 to 1972.

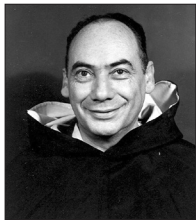

Steve Rooney scores -- Steve Rooney scored one of the all-time great goals for the Friars. With under three minutes to go in the second overtime, Rooney scored PC's second goal of the game as the Friars defeated BC, 2-1, in double overtime to capture the inaugural HOCKEY EAST Championship at the Providence Civic Center on March 16, 1985.

Nolan Schaefer '03 is Providence's all-time leader with 2,848 career saves. He also ranks sixth all-time at PC with a career 2.98 goals against average. In 2001, he earned All-America accolades after leading the Friars to the NCAA Tournament. Schaefer was the 15th Friar to be named an All-American. A Second Team All-Hockey East Selection in 2000-01, Schaefer tied the school's record for most shutouts (three) in one season.

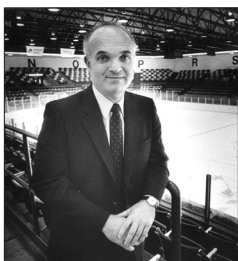

He was named the team's top defensive player in three of his four years at Providence.

IMPORTANT NAMES AND EVENTS IN FRIAR HISTORY

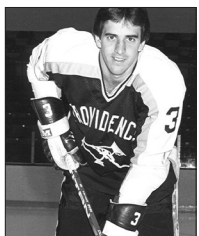

Rev. Herman Schneider, O.P. '30 was the founder of Friar Hockey. Rev. Schneider was known for his dedication and sympathy for his students. He was an acclaimed professor of languages in the German department. He felt that the aim of a college education was not only the pursuit of a intellectual perfection but also maturing to the fullness of the age of Christ during the formative period. He molded the character of his students by balancing his inspiration with their application. Blessed with a natural aptitude for attracting and stimulating college students, he was appointed moderator of such campus groups as the Mal Brown Club, the Friars Club, the Cranston Club, and the German Society. Being an avid sports fan, he was made assistant director of athletics and sponsored the foundation of a hockey team, which besides being his personal pride and joy, was a credit to the Athletic Department. The home ice for the Friar Hockey Team was named in memory of Rev. Schneider and he was also acknowledged by being inducted into the Providence College Athletic Hall of Fame.

Schneider Arena -- Since 1973 Schneider Arena has been the home of Friars Hockey. It was built at a cost of $1.8 million. Lou Lamoriello, PC's Athletic Director, was responsible for the construction of PC's Schneider Arena. On Sept. 27, 2013, the College hosted the Grand Reopening of Providence College's Schneider Arena to celebrate the renovation of the 40-year old arena. The celebration included a ribbon cutting ceremony and a blessing of the building, featuring President Rev. Brian J. Shanley, O.P. '80, Athletics Director Bob Driscoll, men's hockey Head Coach Nate Leaman and women's hockey Head Coach Bob Deraney. The renovation project was completed in just under eight months transformed the home of the Friar men's and women's ice hockey teams into one of the finest on-campus hockey facilities in the nation.

Peter Taglianetti '85 was one of the hardest working defensemen to skate in the Friar lineup. After sitting out most of his freshman season, Peter came back to skate in all 43 games during his sophomore year, leading the Friars to the NCAA Final Four Championship in North Dakota. His impressive improvement caught the eye of the Winnipeg Jets, as he was drafted in the third round, 43rd player overall. Later that summer, he was invited to participate in the 1983 National Sports Festival in Colorado Springs. During his third season as a Friar, he anchored the defensive corps and wound up as the team's fifth leading scorer and he was second in team assists with 25. Taglianetti was named twice to the All-New England Team, twice to the All-America Second Team and All-ECAC Second Team. Taglianetti holds the HOCKEY EAST record for 114 penalty minutes. Taglianetti's senior year proved to be a pinnacle for him as he helped the Friars capture the HOCKEY EAST title in double overtime and to the Semifinals of the NCAA Final Four for a second time in his career at PC. Taglianetti followed his dream of playing in the NHL. He played in 451 NHL games. He helped Pittsburgh win two Stanley Cup titles. Taglianetti was inducted into the PC Hall of Fame in 1999.

Chris Terreri '86 is the top goaltender to ever play for the Friars. Terreri back-stopped the Friars to the first ever HOCKEY EAST Championship in 1985 and set NCAA records while leading the team to the NCAA Frozen Four Championship game. Terreri holds PC records for saves (1,418), games played in a season (41) and minutes played in a season (2,512). In 1985, he was named Most Valuable Player in the HOCKEY EAST and NCAA tournaments. Terreri earned 1985 HOCKEY EAST player of the year honors and was named to the HOCKEY EAST 10th anniversary team, 1985 All-New England squad, and was a Hobey Baker Finalist. A two-time All-American, Terreri had a 3.18 career goals against average in 88 games with a record of 42-36-5 and played in two NCAA Tournaments. Besides his outstanding achievement on the ice, Terreri was an excellent student, being honored as a member of the 1984 and 1986 College Hockey Statistics Bureau All-Academic Team and the GTE/CoSIDA Academic All-American Teams in both 1985 and 1986. Terreri was named the Providence College Male Athlete of the Year in 1985. Terreri, a native of Warwick, R.I., was a member of the 1988 United States Olympic Team. Terreri owns two Stanley Cup Championship rings with the Devils. He is a member of the PC Athletic Hall of Fame. Terreri was named the top goaltender during Hockey East's 25th Anniversary Celebration in 2009.

Chris Therien '94 was best known for his size and ability to kill penalties. The 6-foot-4-inch, 230-pound defenseman was a member of the 1990-91 HOCKEY EAST All-Freshmen team and was named Second Team All-HOCKEY EAST in 1993. Therien had the ability to not only kill penalties, but to make the most of power plays from the Friar blueline. After competing in Canada's Spengler Cup Team in 1992, earning himself a gold medal, Therien earned a spot on the 1994 Canadian Olympic Team. After his three seasons with the Friars, Therien went straight to the Philadelphia Flyers' organization. He was nominated to the 1995 NHL All-Rookie team and played 13 years in the NHL. Most recently, Therien was named among the top defensemen during Hockey East's 25th Anniversary Celebration in 2009.

Marshall Tschida '62 was one of the finest all-around players at Providence College. In 61 games, he scored 137 points, which was the all-time record while he was a student at PC, scoring 68 goals and 69 assists. He was 15th in scoring in the Eastern league in 1962, tallying 26 goals and 26 assists in his senior season. Marshall was named the Most Valuable Player of the Boston Area Tournament. Tschida was named to the 1962 All-East Hockey Squad as a forward and as was named to the 1962 New England Collegiate All-Star Team and All-East Senior All-Star Squad. Co-captain of his senior squad, Marshall was a recipient of the Joseph Tomasello Trophy which was the Year's Most Unsung Player in Eastern league. He is a member of the Providence College Athletic Hall of Fame.

IMPORTANT NAMES AND EVENTS IN FRIAR HISTORY

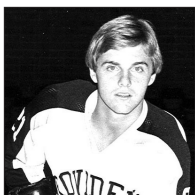

Randy Velischek '83 was one of the top defensemen ever to take the ice for Providence College. A member of the 1981 ECAC Championship team, the Montreal native scored 27 goals with 65 assists for 92 points in his career. The ECAC Player of the Year in 1982-83, Velischek's talents were recognized when he was named to the ECAC's Team of the 1980's. Named PC's Athlete of the Year in 1983, Velischek was a Second Team All-America, a two-time All-ECAC and All-New England selection and an All-East Senior All-Star. Velischek was a finalist for the 1983 Hobey Baker Award. He played on NCAA Tournament Teams in 1981 and 1983. Following his days at Providence, Velischek played for 10 seasons (509 games) in the National Hockey League for Minnesota, New Jersey and Quebec. He is a member of the Providence College Athletic Hall of Fame.

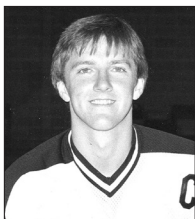

Brad Wilson '78 is one of the most underrated players to skate for the Providence College. Master of the face-off, Wilson won 75 percent of the attempts during his career. In his freshman year, Wilson recorded a PC and ECAC record of 57 points and a record of four goals in one period. As a sophomore he scored 26 goals in one season. The penalty killer was considered to be the best defensive forward in the East. While serving as a captain, he led the 1978 squad to a 17-15-2 season and a berth in the ECAC tournament in his senior season. Wilson was awarded the team's Most Valuable Player award in 1977, a season where he and his two brothers were one of the most dynamic trios on the ice. The winner of the 1978 Mal Brown Award, Wilson tallied 63 goals, 96 assists for a total of 159 points in 86 games. He is a member of the Providence College Athletic Hall of Fame.

Randy Wilson '79, the youngest of the three Wilson brothers, proved to Friar fans that he would not be outdone by his older brothers. Randy, like his brother, Brad, was also a forward, completing a dynamic force when the Wilsons skated onto the ice. He is 12th on the all-time points ledger with 67 goals and 87 assists for a total of 154 points in 112 games.

A two-time season goal scoring leader, he holds records for goals in a game (six) and goals by a freshman (30), which is also a record in the East. He is a member of the PC Athletic Hall of Fame.

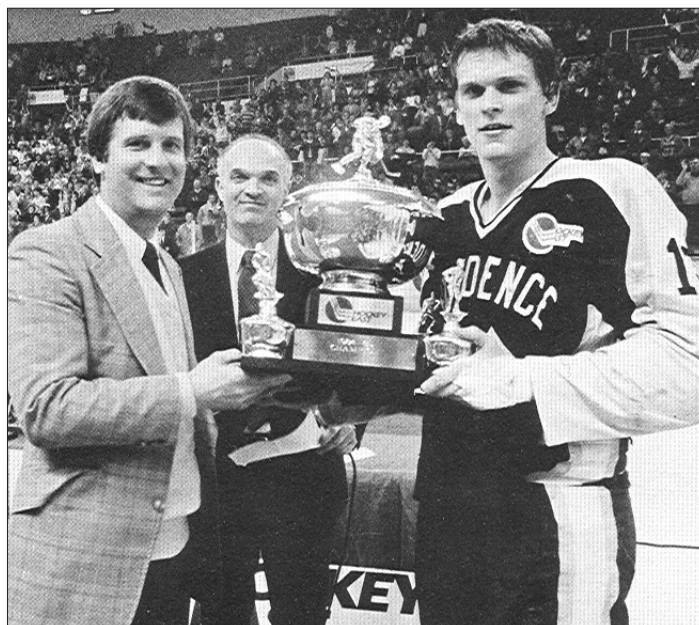

Ron Wilson '77 was a two-time First Team All-American and four-time All-ECAC choice. He was the 1973-74 ECAC Rookie of the Year, 1974-75 ECAC Player of the Year and the 1975 Providence College Athlete of the Year. He also was named to the All-Decade team for the 1970's. Still the school's all-time leading scorer (250 points), he is sixth in career goals (78), first in assists (172) and holds ECAC records for: points by a defenseman (250), season points (87), season assists (61), and career assists (172). His 87 points and four, four-goal games are still PC standards. Wilson is the NCAA all-time leading scoring defenseman. The four-time leading scorer played in the NHL for seven seasons (Toronto and Minnesota) in addition to a stint in Europe. Wilson has coached the Mighty Ducks of Anaheim, the Washington Capitals, the San Jose Sharks, and the Toronto Maple Leafs. He led the 1996 United States National team to a gold medal in the World Cup. In 1998, he served as the head coach for Team USA at the Nagano Olympics and also coached the 2004 United States National World Cup team. Wilson also was the head coach of the 2010 U.S. Olympic Hockey Silver Medal Team that competed in Vancouver. He is a member of the PC Athletic Hall of Fame and had his No. 4 jersey retired at Schneider Arena in 2016-17.

Stephen Wood '04 is the first Friar defenseman since Rob Gaudreau in 1992 to earn All-America honors. He ranks eighth all-time in scoring among PC defensemen with 88 career points (28 goals, 60 assists). In addition to being named All-American, Wood was a First Team All-Hockey East selection, an All-New England selection and a Walter Brown Award finalist.

Former Friar Head Coach Steve Stirling and Tim Army hold the inaugural Hockey East Tournament championship trophy. In the background is former Providence College head coach and Athletic Director Lou Lamoriello.

The Wilson brothers, Brad, Ron and Randy combined for 563 total points at Providence College.

THE BEGINNINGS

Providence College was founded by Bishop Matthew Harkins during the 700th anniversary of the Dominican Order. The doors were to open on September 22, 1918, but with World War I raging in Europe, it was decided to postpone the opening until the following fall. On September 17, 1919, 71 undergraduates registered.

Hockey was first mentioned in 1922 when "an informal team of freshmen started practicing on available ponds in the metropolitan area."

Reports of games again surfaced in January 1926 but were strictly freshman games and only three were played. Again, the College provided no equipment so the program was run by students on an informal basis.

The first ever Providence College hockey game took place on January 6, 1927 when Providence defeated Springfield, 6-4, at the Springfield Arena. According to reports, Providence got its first-ever goal "early in the first period, when Frank Maloney, a big defenseman from New Haven, whipped the puck past the Indians goalie for a 1-0 lead."

Maloney would score three more goals in that game and behind the goaltending of Art McDonald, Providence prevailed, 6-4.

That would be the only win for the Black and White as they went 1-7 on the year. During the summer, the College decided that it could not budget a full-time coach or secure nonconflicting practice schedules so the decision was made to drop the sport for the 1928 season and, "until such time as it might be supported adequately."

For Providence hockey fans, it would not be until the efforts of Father Herman Schneider were finally successful in 1952, that the program would return to Smith Hill.

THE CHAMPIONSHIPS

Over the years, Providence College has always been one of the top programs in college hockey. The team first appeared in the NCAA Tournament in 1964 and has qualified for a total of 11 NCAA Tournaments, including four Frozen Fours (1964, 1983, 1985 and 2015).

The 2014-15 team will go down in history as the greatest Friar team, having earned the program's first NCAA Championship. Providence defeated the Boston University Terriers, 4-3, on April 11 at the TD Garden on the strength of an exhilarating third period comeback that culminated in junior forward Brandon Tanev's game-winning goal scored with just over six minutes to play. Junior goaltender Jon Gillies made a career-high 49 saves en route to being named the Frozen Four's Most Outstanding Player, while sophomore defenseman Anthony Florentino and junior forward Mark Jankowski joined Gillies on the All-Tournament Team. It marked Providence's first-ever back-to-back appearances in the NCAA Tournament, and the Friars made a run to the Frozen Four for the first time in 30 years before capturing the College's third NCAA team title overall.

Two additional squads that earned unique distinction at PC were the 1983 team and the 1985 team. The 1983 Friars finished third at the NCAA Tournament, but concluded the year with the top record in the country at 33-10-0. The 1985 squad completed its magical season with a second-place finish in the NCAA Tournament after falling to RPI, 2-1, in the title game.

In addition to the team's success in the NCAA's, four Providence College hockey squads have captured conference titles. The 1964 team won the first title for PC when the Friars defeated St. Lawrence, 3-1, to win the ECAC Championship. In 1981, PC captured its second ECAC crown with an 8-5 win against Cornell. Two years later, the Friars won their third conference title by winning the inaugural HOCKEY EAST Championship with a thrilling 2-1 double-overtime victory over Boston College at the Providence Civic Center. The Friars most recent conference championship came in 1996 when an underdog Friar team shocked the college hockey world with a 3-2 win over Maine to give PC its second HOCKEY EAST title.

THE COACHES

A total of 12 men have held the honor of coaching the Providence College Friars. The inaugural 1926-27 season was rough for the Friars and the team's head coaches. The squad had three head coaches that season, including the team's first coach, John Graham (0-4-0). Dr. Landry (1-1-0) and Clement Trihey (0-2-0) also took a turn at leading the Friars during their first season.

In 1952, Father Schneider brought hockey back to Smith Hill and named former Dartmouth great Richard Rondeau to coach the team.

Rondeau (25-41-0) coached the team for four seasons, including PC's first winning campaign in 1954-55 when the squad recorded an 8-7-0 mark.

Thomas Eccleston, Jr., a 1934 graduate of Brown, coached the Friars from 1956-64. The former Burrillville High School coach has the third best winning percentage of all PC coaches with a .564 mark (94-72-5). Eccleston's teams had seven winning seasons and advanced to postseason play three times, including the 1964 NCAA Frozen Four.

Zellio Toppazzini followed Eccleston behind the Friars' bench and coached the team until 1968. A hometown star with the Providence Reds, Toppazzini guided PC to a 31-60-1 mark in his four seasons.

PC's seventh head coach became the most influential person in Friar hockey history. A 1963 graduate of the College and a two-sport athlete (baseball and hockey), Lou Lamoriello took over the team in 1968 and led the Friars to a 248-179-13 record. He is the team's all-time winningest coach and was responsible for the construction of Schneider Arena. He guided the Friars to three NCAA Tournament appearances, including the 1983 team that posted the best record in the country (33-10-0). Following that season, Lamoriello became the school's athletic director and helped form HOCKEY EAST, serving as commissioner from 1984-87.

Although Steve Stirling only coached the Friars for two seasons (1983-85), the 1971 BU graduate coached the Friars to a 44-28-7 record. He led the team to the inaugural HOCKEY EAST title and is the only Friar head coach to bring the squad to the NCAA title game.

New Hampshire alumnus Mike McShane took over the team in 1985 and led the team to a 151-153-31 mark over nine seasons. He is third only to Paul Pooley and Lou Lamoriello at Providence in all-time wins with 151. His teams posted four consecutive 20-win seasons between 1988 and 1991 and made two NCAA Tournament appearances (1989 and 1991).

Former Ohio State All-American Paul Pooley became the 10th coach of the Friars in 1994. Pooley quickly made his mark on the program, guiding the team to the HOCKEY EAST title game in his first season and winning the Championship in his second year (1996). In 11 seasons behind the PC bench, Pooley posted a 185-187-40 record and his teams advanced to two NCAA Tournament appearances.

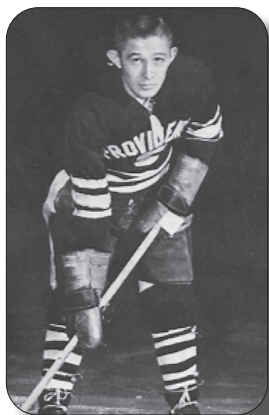

Former Friar great Tim Army returned to his alma mater to take over the reigns of the PC program on June 17, 2005 and guided the Friars for six seasons.

Nate Leaman was hired as Providence College's 12th head coach on April 22, 2011. Leaman came to Providence after leading Union College to a 26-10-4 overall mark and a trip to the NCAA Tournament in 2011. For his efforts, Leaman earned the Spencer Penrose Award as the Division I Men's Coach of the Year. Leaman has led a resurgence of the Providence College men's hockey program, highlighted by winning the 2015 NCAA Championship, marking the first NCAA title in program history. In 2014-15, Leaman guided the Friars to back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances for the first time in program history and Providence posted its second-highest win total of all-time (26). He became the youngest head coach to win the NCAA title since 1993 (Shawn Walsh) as Providence College became the 20th institution to win the NCAA Div. I Men's Ice Hockey Championship. Leaman also guided the Friars to their fifth Frozen Four appearance in 2019, capping their sixth-consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance.

THE PLAYERS

Most importantly, the players have shaped the history of Friar hockey. Providence College has produced its share of incredible hockey players. However, there are some names that have become synonymous with Friar hockey. Army, Boback, Gaudreau, Gillies, Kennedy, Kleinendorst, Lamoriello, O'Neill, Orlando, Proulx, Terreri and Wilson have all placed their names at the top of the Friar record books.

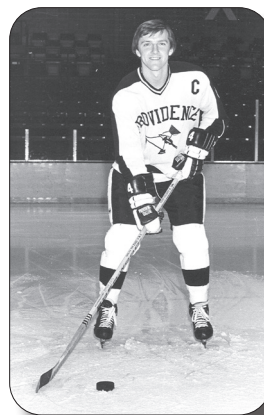

Beginning with Larry Kish in 1964, PC players have earned 22 All-America honors and three Academic All-America accolades. The squad also has produced 20 All-ECAC players, 25 HOCKEY EAST All-Stars, 24 New England honorees, seven Hobey Baker finalists and four Olympians. Currently, Lou Lamoriello (New Jersey) and Brian Burke (Calgary) are serving in executive level leadership positions in the NHL. Lastly, 28 former Friars have skated in the NHL.
