FAYETTEVILLE STATE BRONCOS (9-2, 7-1 CIAA) vs. DELTA STATE STATESMEN (10-1, 6-1 GSC)

NCAA PLAYOFFS: The Fayetteville State Broncos travel to Cleveland, MS to square off against the Delta State Statesmen in the first round of the NCAA Super Region Two Playoffs. The Broncos ended their conference season on a seven-game winning streak and a CIAA championship with a 31-28 victory over Chowan University last Saturday in Salem, VA. This is the Broncos first trip to the Region Playoffs since their last conference title in 2009.

WE ARE THE CHAMPIONS: Fayetteville State won their fourth conference title in school history last Saturday with a thrilling 31-28 victory over Chowan University at Salem Stadium in Salem, VA. Senior place kicker Elton Andrew provided the game-winning play, booting a 43-yard field goal through the uprights as time expired in the fourth quarter. The championship was the first for FSU under Head Coach Richard Hayes, ended a stretch of four losses in the conference title games over the previous four seasons. FSU has also won CIAA titles during the 2002, 2003 and 2009 seasons.

ALL-CIAA PLAYERS: Eleven Broncos received All-Conference recognition at the end of the luncheon. Devin Cowan (DE) and Jacob Young (P) were named to the All-Conference First Team while Michael Todd (OL), Tyler Fleming (OL), Barry Elliott (WR), Elton Andrew (PK), Cameron Merrell (DE), Kentrell Caldwell (LB), and Brandon Barnes-Brown (CB) were named to the Second Team. Anthony Binyard (DL) and Derrick Alston, Jr. (RB) were named to the All-CIAA Rookie Team. Of the first team selections, Devin Cowan, a junior defensive end from Fayetteville, NC, finished the regular season with 55 total tackles with 14 tackles for a loss of 56 yards. He had a total of 8 sacks for 47 yards, two forced fumbles, six quarterback hurries, and two pass deflections. Senior punter Jacob Young, from Spencer, NC, handled most of the punting duties for FSU. He punted 50 times for a total of 2,057 yards and had a season-long record of 64 yards. Eighteen of his punts landed inside the 20-yard line while two were touchbacks and eight fair catches.

UNDER CENTER: The Broncos have deployed a quarterback-by-committee strategy since the October 8th game vs. St. Augustine's. Preseason All-CIAA selection K'Hari Lane, who served as the primary starting QB in 2021, is now third on the depth chart with freshmen Demari Daniels and Caden Davis splitting the majority of snaps. Daniels has been the most efficient of the trio, completing 62.7% (21-45) of his passes during the regular season and throwing for 6 touchdowns over five games, including a 3 TD performance vs. St. Augustine's. Daniels served as the primary quarterback for the CIAA championship game, going 12-for-24 in pass completions and throwing for two touchdowns to earn the game's MVP award.

BARRY ELITE: Wide receiver Barry Elliot is setting FSU records in his first year with the program as a grad transfer from Charleston West Virginia. He has scored at least one touchdown in six of FSU's last eight games and recorded his ninth receiving touchdown during last Saturday's conference championship game. His 9 receiving touchdowns are the most since Chris Hubert (13) and Tavon Gatlin (11) in the 2015 season, while his 10 total TD's are the most by a Bronco since Stevie Green's 14 rushing scores in 2019. Elliott is a Fayetteville native that attended Jack Britt HS locally.

DEFENSIVE STARS: Defensive ends Devin Cowan and Cameron Merrell led an FSU defense that tallied the second most sacks (34) and allowed the fewest PPG (12.8) in the CIAA during the regular season. Cowan's 14.0 TFL leads the team, while Merrell leads the team lead with 8.5 sacks over the first 10 weeks of the year. FSU's 34 total sacks surpassed the 2021 season total of 30 and are the most by any FSU defensive unit since the 2009 season (46) squad that won the CIAA championship. Other defensive stars include sophomore linebacker Kentrell Caldwell, who is second on the team with 65 total tackles and All-CIAA Preseason cornerback Brandon Barnes-Brown who leads the team with 3 INT's, including one in last Saturday's championship game.

GROUND & POUND: Running backs Elijah Henry and Derrick Alston Jr. have been a focal point of the FSU offense in recent weeks and have stepped up big since starter Syheam McQueen suffered a right-leg injury on 9/29. Henry, a grad student in his final season, has scored a touchdown in three of the last six games and has been heavily utilized in the passing game as a check down option, totaling 147 yards receiving in the last three weeks. Henry didn't see many snaps in week 10 at WSSU after suffering a left leg injury on the opening kickoff but returned for the CIAA championship game. Alston, a sophomore, has scored a rushing touchdown in three of the last five games and compiled 339 of his 382 rushing yards this season during that five-game stretch. Mekhi Fenner has also been utilized in the run game with 40 carries for 189 yards.

Richard Hayes, Jr. HEAD FOOTBALL COACH

Richard Hayes, Jr. is entering his seventh season as the head football coach of the Fayetteville State University Broncos for the 2022 season.

He was announced as the 16th head coach of the program on December 28, 2015.

Hayes brings over 20 years of coaching experience into his leadership role. His background as a defensive specialist has a wealth of experiential knowledge; both as a player and as a coach.

The Broncos made a fourth consecutive appearance in the CIAA Football Championship game in 2021 after going undefeated in conference play (7-0) and finishing the season with an 8-2 record. Despite the 7-17 loss to Bowie State in Salem, Virginia, FSU concluded the year with a number of accomplishments.

Joshua Williams (DB) was drafted by the Kansas City Chiefs in the 4th round with the 153th pick. Greg Brooks (OL) was named the Lowe's CIAA Men's Senior C.L.A.S.S. Award winner. Brooks was also voted the CIAA Offensive Lineman of the Year along with Keyshawn James being named the Defensive Player of the Year and CIAA Championship Runner-up MVP. Twelve Broncos were named to a All-Conference Team selection.

For the 2019 season, Coach Hayes coached the Broncos to a third consecutive CIAA Football Championship berth and seventh overall appearance in program history. He was the first FSU football coach to reach the championship game in his second season at the helm [Kenny Phillips reached the title game in his third season].

Fayetteville State wrapped up the 2019 season with a 8-3 overall record after a 23-7 Championship loss to Bowie State University in Salem, VA. The conference record was an almost perfect 6-1 mark. The Broncos went on a five-game win streak before the last three regular season games.

Ten Broncos earned CIAA post-season honors for 2019. Four were named All-CIAA First Team while three were voted to the Second-Team. Three players made the Rookie Team.

In 2018, FSU finished 6-3 overall and 5-1 in conference play. After having two game canceled due to the aftermath of Hurricane Florence, the Broncos proceeded on a five-game conference win steak to secure its second consecutive berth to the CIAA Championship game.

Richard Hayes was named the CIAA Coach of the Year for 2018; for in his third season at the helm, he led the Broncos to back-to-back championship appearances and Southern Division Titles.

Brandon Smith was named the Special Teams Player of the Year while 11 of his teammates were acknowledged as post-season honorees.

The Broncos finished the 2017 season with a five-game win streak, but fell 42-19 to Virginia State University in the championship game. FSU completed the season with a 6-5 overall record and 5-2 in CIAA play.

FSU garnered both Offensive (Donshel Jetton) and Defensive (Elvin De La Rosa) Rookies of the Year honors. Nine other Broncos were split amongst the All-CIAA First and Second Teams.

In his first season at the helm, FSU finished one game shy of making CIAA postseason play after a 28-21 loss to Winston-Salem State University.

Fayetteville State finished the season with a 4-6 overall and 4-3 conference record.

Stevie Green earned the CIAA Offensive Rookie of the Year award while four others were also named to the team.

Prior to taking charge at Fayetteville State, Hayes served as the defensive coordinator for the 2015 CIAA Champions Winston-Salem State University. He joined the WSSU football coaching staff in 2010 as an assistant coach working with the defensive backs and special teams.

Hayes earned a hefty set of accolades during his time at WSSU. Under Hayes' defensive schemes, the Rams' defense has been ranked nationally in the top 10 since 2010. Hayes played an instrumental role in WSSU making three consecutive NCAA Regional appearances, including two Region I Championships (2011-12) and finishing as a NCAA DII National Finalist in 2012.

Hayes served as the defensive coordinator at W.J. Keenan High School in Columbia, SC (2009) and at James B. Dudley High School in Greensboro, NC (2004-05).

In 1998, Hayes began coaching on the collegiate level at his alma mater North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University. He served as an assistant coach with the Aggies from 1998-2002. He spent three seasons working with the running backs and two seasons as the outside linebackers coach.

Hayes completed his bachelor's degree in Recreation Administration from N.C. A&T State University in 1999. He was a standout defensive back for the 1991 and 1992 Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) champions as a two-year letterman.

He and his wife Thomasina are the proud parents of three children, Richard III, Ryan, and Kennedy.
