"Wyatt Wilkes comes in as probably our best perimeter shooter. Anytime you can shoot three's as well as he can shoot it, there's always a place for a shooter. He's a good athlete. He's extremely knowledgeable. I think he's more than capable of being a guy who can give us those consistent perimeter jump shots."

SEMINOLES PLAY HOST TO CHICAGO STATE IN SECOND ROUND OF EMERALD COAST CLASSIC

Florida State, which has won four consecutive games, plays host to Chicago State of the Western Athletic Conference in a second round campus site game of the Emerald Coast Classic on Monday, November 25, 2019 at the Donald L. Tucker Center in Tallahassee, Fla. The Seminoles defeated Chattanooga, 89-53, on November 20 in Tallahassee in the first round of the Emerald Coast Classic and will face No. 17/20 Tennessee in the third round of the event on Friday, November 29 at 7:00 ET at The Arena at Northwest Florida State College. Florida State enters Monday's game against Chicago State having won four consecutive games with victories over then No. 6 Florida (63-51), Western Carolina (79-74), Chattanooga (89-53) and most recently Saint Francis (80-65) on Saturday at home. Following Monday's game against Chicago State, the Seminoles will play three consecutive games away from Tallahassee as they face Tennessee (November 29 in Niceville, Fla.), either Purdue or VCU in the final round of the Emerald Coast Classic (November 30 in Niceville, Fla.) and Indiana in the ACC/ Big Ten Challenge (December 3 in Bloomington, Ind.) before returning home to play host to Clemson in their first ACC home game of the season (December 8).

HISTORY OF THE EMERALD COAST CLASSIC

Florida State plays its second game of the 2019 Emerald Coast Classic as it plays host to Chicago State on Monday night. The Seminoles are playing in the event for the first time in its six-year history in 2019. Ole Miss won the Emerald Coast Classic in 2014. The Rebels took the first Emerald Coast Classic Championship and have been followed by Iowa State (2015), Virginia (2016), TCU (2017) and Cincinnati (2018) in claiming the team championships in one of the most attractive of the Thanksgiving tournaments spaced among the college basketball landscape. Florida State becomes the third ACC team to play in the event with Virginia (champions in 2016) and Virginia Tech (third place finish in 2015).

FLORIDA STATE VS. CHICAGO STATE - CONNECTIONS

Florida State plays its second game in the Emerald Coast Classic with a home contest against Chicago State at the Donald L. Tucker Center on November 25, 2019. The Seminoles' game against the Cougars is the second game in the series with Florida State leading the series by a 1-0 margin. The first game between the two teams – a 47-42 Seminole victory – came in the third round of the University of Pittsburgh Holiday Hoops Classic at the Peterson Events Center in Pittsburgh, Pa., on December 20, 2003. The Cougars are coached by Lance Irvin, who is in his second season with the Cougars. He has coached against Florida State twice as an assistant and both times while he was at DePaul. He helped guide the Blue Demons past Florida State, 85-75, on February 23, 1992 at the Suncoast Dome in St. Petersburg. The Seminoles then defeated the Blue Demons, 85-80, on December 9, 1995 in the ThunderDome in St. Petersburg, Fla.

FLORIDA STATE HAS MADE THE TUCKER CENTER A TOUGH PLACE FOR OPPONENTS TO PLAY

Florida State is 52-3 (.945 winning percentage in its last 55 home games) since the tail end of the 2015-16 season. The Seminoles earned a 15-1 record home record at home during the 2018-19 season. The Seminoles enter Monday's game against the Cougars having won .945 percent of their games (52-3) and .897 percent of their ACC games (26-3) at home since the tail end of the 2015-16 season. Florida State's streak began with a 77-56 win over No. 23 Notre Dame on February 27, 2015. The Seminoles were 18-0 at home (including 9-0 in the ACC) during the 2016-17 season.

LOOK FOR FLORIDA STATE TO...

- ...Defeat Chicago State and win its 36th consecutive non-conference home game. The Seminoles' current streak against non-conference opponents began December 6, 2014 with a 96-73 victory over UCF;
- ...Defeat Chicago State and raise its record to 53-3 at home in the Donald L. Tucker Center since the end of the 2015-16 season (a perfect 18-0 record in 16-17; 13-2 in 2017-18, 15-1 in 2018-19 and 2-0 in 2019-20);
- ...Defeat Chicago State and win its 10^{th} consecutive home game. The Seminoles won their final six home games of the 2018-19 season and their first three of the 2019-20 season;
- ...Defeat Chicago State and gain a win over a team from the state of Illinois for the first time since November 25, 2015 when the Seminoles defeated Illinois, 72-61, in the final game of the NIT Season Tip Off at the Barclays Center in Brooklyn, N.Y.

A QUICK REVIEW OF THE 2018-29 SEASON

Florida State enjoyed one of the greatest seasons in school history in 2018-19 as it played in its third consecutive NCAA Tournament, advanced to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament for the school-record tying second consecutive season, finished the season ranked 10th nationally, advanced to the championship game of the ACC Tournament, finished fourth in the ACC standings and defeated six nationally ranked teams. Florida State won a program record 29 games and earned a school-record 13 ACC wins, finishing fourth in the best conference for college basketball in the country. The Seminoles defeated Virginia, who won the National Championship, in the semifinals of the ACC Tournament to reach the championship game of the ACC Tournament for the third time in school history.

FLORIDA STATE NATIONALLY IN THE LAST TWO SEASONS

The Seminoles are one of seven teams in the nation (Florida State, Duke, Gonzaga, Kentucky, Michigan, Purdue and Texas Tech) who have advanced at least as far as the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament in both of the last two seasons. The Seminoles advanced to the Elite Eight in 2018 and to the Sweet 16 in 2019.

HAMILTON MOVES CLOSER TO SIXTH WINNINGEST COACH IN ACC HISTORY

With 337 career victories during his tenure at Florida State, 18th-year Head Coach Leonard Hamilton enters the Seminoles' game against Saint Francis on Saturday as the seventh all-time winningest coach in ACC history. He needs only 12 wins to move into sixth place in ACC history (passing Maryland's Lefty Driesell) and only 13 wins to become just the sixth coach in the illustrious history of the nation's best basketball conference to win 350 career games.

SEMINOLES CONTINUE TO LEAD THE ACC IN FREE THROW SHOOTING

Florida State enters Monday's game in the second round of the Emerald Coast Classic against Chicago State shooting an ACC-leading .800 from the free throw line through its first five games of the season. The Seminoles are the only team in the ACC that is shooting better than .750 from the line and have made more free throws than six other ACC teams entering play on Monday night. Florida State is looking to shoot .800 percent or better from the free throw line in a single season for the first time in school history. The single-season record for best team free throw shooting percentage is .773 during the 2007-08 season. During the history of the Seminole men's basketball program, four of the top five single-season free throw shooting marks have come under current Head Coach Leonard Hamilton.

FLORIDA STATE SHOOTS A SEASON-HIGH 88 PERCENT FROM THE FREE THROW LINE IN WIN OVER SAINT FRANCIS

Florida State shot a season-high .882 percent from the free throw line (15 of 17) in their victory over Saint Francis on Saturday in Tallahassee. The Seminoles made 13 of 14 free throws in the first half as the shot better than 80 percent from the free throw line for the third time in their first five games of the season (.867 at Pitt, .821 vs. Western Carolina, .882 against Saint Francis).

SEMINOLES' LENGTH BOTHERS ITS OPPONENTS ON DEFENSE

After earning 10 steals on Wednesday in their 89-53 victory over Chattanooga and 11 on Saturday in their 80-65 win over Saint Francis, the Seminoles enter Monday's game against Chicago State averaging 7.4 steals per game. Redshirt sophomore Anthony Polite earned his career-high of five steals in Florida State's 80-65 victory over Saint Francis as the Seminoles won the points off turnover battle by a 21-14 margin against the Red Flash.

FLORIDA STATE VS. CHICAGO STATE - THE LAST GAME

Anthony Richardson made two free throws with 13 seconds left, the only scoring in the final four minutes, and unbeaten Florida State gained a 47-42 victory over Chicago State on December 20, 2003 in the final game of the Pittsburgh Holiday Hoops Classic at the Peterson Events Center on the campus of the University of Pittsburgh. The Seminoles held the Cougars defensively, limiting them to a .167 shooting percentage in the second half (4-of-24). The Cougars turned the ball over in the backcourt and Chicago State's Tony Weeden had the ball knocked out of his hand as he tried to get off a shot in the lane with a minute left and the Cougars in position to tie it with a 3-pointer. Florida State had nine players score, but none reached double figures as Tim Pickett was held to five points, 10 below his average, and Richardson was held to eight, nearly five points below his 12.9 average. Adam Waleskowski had nine points and Nate Johnson had eight points and eight rebounds for the Seminoles, who shot only 30 percent in a second half as the teams combined to make only 10 of 44 shots.

WILKES ENJOYS CAREER DAY IN VICTORY OVER SAINT FRANCIS

Redshirt sophomore Wyatt Wilkes scored his career-high of 14 points as he made his career-high of three 3-point field goals in 16 minutes of play in Florida State's victory over Saint Francis on Saturday. He scored 14 points against the Red Flash after scoring a total of 31 points in the first 25 games of his career. Wilkes' three 3-point shots made against Saint Francis were also nearly as he had made (five) in the first two years of his career.

OSBORNE TAKES HIS GAME OUTSIDE OF THE 3-POINT LINE

Redshirt sophomore Malik Osborne scored nine points – on a career-high tying three 3-point shots made — in the Seminoles' victory over Saint Francis on Saturday. He had four times previously (during his one season at Rice in 2017-18) made three 3-point shots in a single game.

Exhibition 1 -- Florida State 95, Barry 66

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - Florida State's exhibition opener provided a glimpse of what lies ahead for the Seminoles both in the upcoming season and beyond. It also showed coach Leonard Hamilton a few things he'd like for his team to tighten up between now and the Seminoles' season opener on November 6. So, in that sense, it was a near-perfect evening for FSU, which got 19 points and five assists from senior Trent Forrest in a 95-66 victory over Barry University at the Donald L. Tucker Center. Forrest, the central figure for an FSU team that lost its top two scorers from a year ago, was one of six Seminoles to finish in double-figures. Anthony Polite added 18 - including 16 in the second half - while RaiQuan Gray (10 points) and newcomers Patrick Williams (12, nine rebounds), Nathanael Jack (10), Dominik Olejniczak (10 points, seven rebounds) and Malik Osborne (seven points, seven boards) all enjoyed productive outings

Exhibition 2 -- Florida State 84, Columbus State 54

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – - In its final exhibition game before regular season play begins at Pittsburgh, Florida State earned an 84-54 victory over Columbus State at the Donald L. Tucker Civic Center. Sophomore Devin Vassell led three Seminoles in double figures with 18 points. Also in double figures were Anthony Polite with 16 points and freshman Patrick Williams with 10. The game saw some familiar faces returning to the court after missing Florida State's exhibition victory over Barry. Both M.J. Walker and Devin Vassell made their highly anticipated season debuts and came back with a vengeance. Walker, who started and played nine first half minutes, totaled six points on two made 3-point shots. Vassell totaled 18 points (three-of-three three-pointers) and finished with six rebounds.

Game 1 -- Pitt 63, Florida State 61

PITTSBURGH, Pa. - Reserves Ryan Murphy and Terrell Brown scored 13 points to lead Pitt to a 63-61 win over Florida State in the season opener for both tems. The Panthers won despite shooting just 31 percent (16 of 51) from the fi eld. Pitt survived by getting into the lane relentlessly against the bigger Seminoles, an approach that helped them outscore Florida State 22-13 at the free throw line. Senior guard Trent Forrest led Florida State with 19 points. Devin Vassell added 14 but the Seminoles couldn't survive 14 turnovers and 27 fouls. RaiQuan Gray, Malik Osborne and Balsa Koprivica all fouled out for Florida State. Florida State went up 40-31 on a layup by Osborne with 13:37 to play. The Panthers, however, responded. The Seminoles had a chance to tie it at the end of regulation but Patrick Williams missed a jumper with two seconds to go. Anthony Polite grabbed the off ensive rebound but couldn't get a shot off before the buzzer. Florida State shot 40 percent (21 of 53) from the fl oor.

Game 2 -- Florida State 63, Florida 51

GAINESVILLE, Fla. — Devin Vassell scored 13 points, M.J. Walker added 12 and Florida State upset No. 6 Florida 63-51 on Sunday, extending its series winning streak to six. The Seminoles (1-1) avoided their first 0-2 start since 2000 thanks to suffocating defense that forced the rival Gators (1-1) into 16 turnovers and a woeful shooting performance. Florida was 14 of 50 from the field, including 4 of 22 from 3-point range. A sellout crowd witnessed FSU take over late in the first half and really seize control after the break. The Gators went 10 minutes with just one field goal — a dunk on an inbound play — as Florida State pulled ahead 38-25 in the opening minutes of the second half. The 'Noles went up by 14 on Anthony Polite's 3-pointer with 9:31 to play. The Seminoles made 11 of their first 20 shots in the second half. They also finished with five blocked shots and eight steals.

Game 3 -- Florida State 79, Western Carolina 74

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - Freshman Patrick Williams and junior M.J. Walker each scored 18 points and Florida State rallied to top Western Carolina 79-74 in the Seminoles' home opener. Forrest had 16 points for the Seminoles who trailed 41-24 with 3:41 left before halftime. Florida State gradually chipped away at the lead, going ahead for good with 45 seconds left in the second half as Williams made a layup. Mason Faulkner scored 21 points, including 12 in the first half, as WCU took a commanding early lead. The Catamounts made 7 of 14 3-pointers in the first half but cooled off and was just 2 of 9 in the second half. After Williams made a pair of free throws to give Florida State a 77-74 lead, Faulkner missed a long jumper with three seconds left as he hoped to make the shot and draw the foul in an attempt to tie it up and send the game to overtime. Florida State won its home opener, securing a 33rd straight nonconference victory at the Donald L. Tucker Center.

Game 5 -- Florida State 80, Saint Francis 65

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - Wyatt Wilkes scored a career-high 14 points while Trent Forrest added 13 points and five rebounds as Florida State defeated Saint Francis (Pa.) 80-65. A redshirt sophomore, Wilkes had scored just five points in four games this season before turning in an unexpected five of seven performance from the floor against the Red Flash. Wilkes also knocked down 3-of-5 3-pointers. Myles Thompson scored a career-high 23 points, knocking down 9 of 12 shots for Saint Francis. Thompson came into the game averaging eight points. Forrest was 7 of 7 at the free-throw line as the Seminoles continued to impress by going 15 of 17 at the charity stripe. Florida State came into the game as the only ACC team shooting better than 75 percent from the free-throw line. Freshman center Balsa Koprivica has had back-to-back double-digit scoring games, finishing with 11 points on 5 of 6 shooting versus the Red Flash. Florida State won its 35th straight non-conference home game, a streak that dates nearly five years.

Florida State freshman Patrick Williams 'Scratching The Surface' Of His Potential

Wayne McGahee III Tallahassee Democrat Oct. 24, 2019

Florida State's Patrick Williams isn't a typical freshman.

The 6-foot-8, 225-pound forward from Charlotte, N.C. comes to Tallahassee with enormous expectations.

Williams was ranked as a five-star prospect out of West Charlotte High by the 247Sports composite rankings in the 2019 class, and he's already been projected as a first round pick in a 2020 mock draft by ESPN.

"He has all the tools to be a very, very special player at Florida State," FSU associate head coach Stan Jones told the Democrat.

"He's just scratching the surface of what he's going to become. I think he's the youngest freshman we've ever had come in. He's from a great family and he's got he's got great character. I'll be shocked if he doesn't just continue to grow and grow and do some spectacular things during the course of the season."

There's usually an adjustment period for highly-ranked prospects as they transition from high school to the college level.

Being able to take plays off on the defensive end, getting the ball every time down the court, and being the vocal point for the team is something many talented high school players get used to.

When they get to the college level, those things go away for most players and it can be a tough adjustment.

But FSU's coaches and players all agree that's not the case with Williams. He's got a team-first mentality and doesn't expect anything to be given to him.

"He is very similar in humility as Jonathan Isaac was, in the fact that he doesn't think he's good enough yet, which is a great characteristic," Jones said.

"When you have that healthy fear of where you are and what you want to become, I think that escalates your growth and development. He's never come in with any premonitions of where he should be playing or how much he should be playing. He just wants to become a better player like Jonathan was.

"He lets you coach him. He responds to coaching. He accepts instructions at an extremely at a high level and can give it back to you."

Isaac wasn't the only comparison that Jones made for Williams. He also said that he's a lot like former FSU forward Chris Singleton, who was also a first-round pick by the Washington Wizards.

He compared him to Singleton because of his ability on the defensive end of the court, though he also said Williams is further along offensively than Singleton was when he arrived at FSU.

"I've put him in a category with a couple pretty good Florida State players in Chris Singleton and Jonathan Isaac and he meets all the criteria that both those guys have done while they were here," Jones said.

FSU fans got their first introduction to Williams during the Seminoles' 95-66 exhibition win over Barry University.

It took him a little time to find his rhythm, but after he threw down his first dunk of the game, he settled in nicely.

Williams finished the game with 12 points, nine rebounds, and a block in just under 18 minutes of play. All five of his baskets came on dunks and he knocked down both of his free throw attempts.

"We expect a lot from him," redshirt sophomore forward RaiQuan Gray said.

"He's a great athlete. He has a high basketball IQ. He fits right into our system. He can run, jump, and shoot. We treat him like one of the vets so he's earned a lot of respect."

His athleticism was on full display as he flew through the air on his dunks as well as his effort rebounding and blocking shots.

Williams effort on the defensive end was something else that stood out about his game, but it didn't surprise his teammates.

If a player doesn't give the same effort on the defensive end of the court as he does on the offensive end, then that player isn't going to see the court much under FSU head coach Leonard Hamilton.

Williams has worked hard to be a good defender for the Seminoles and his efforts haven't gone unnoticed. "He does good and with his athleticism, he can you guard one through five if he had to and one through four easily," senior point guard Trent Forrest said.

"He can block shots one through five and clean up the glass like probably one of the best on the team. I'll say he's probably one of our best shot blockers that we have, even with our seven footers. So just his athleticism and his ability to kind of get around the court with quick burst like he does is going to help us a lot."

Williams does have things that he needs to work on, including being more self-assertive when he has the ball. That's something he's been working on during fall practice and he's already made progress in that regard.

FSU knows that Williams is going to make some freshman mistakes this season. That comes with the territory no matter how talented a player is.

But there's a lot of confidence that when Williams does make a mistake, he won't make it twice.

"We've always kind of prided ourselves on having those kind of guys that can cover a lot of ground quickly and can cover a lot of space up high that other people can't get to and he certainly fits the mold in all those categories," Jones said.

"He'll just grow in confidence offensively once he starts figuring his spots out a little bit more and realizing where he is okay making mistakes and where he's going to learn from his mistakes and not make that one again."

Malik Osborne's Versatility Paying Dividends Early In His Florida State Career

By Curt Weiler Tallahassee Democrat November 14, 2019

Days before his Florida State debut, Malik Osborne found out it would go a little differently than expected.

The redshirt sophomore on the FSU men's basketball team had worked all preseason with the guards as he transitioned away from the center role he played in high school and in his one year at Rice before transferring to FSU.

And yet, days before the Seminoles took on Pitt last Wednesday, he discovered that a calf strain to projected starting center Dominik Olejniczak would keep him out of the game.

While he had worked with the guards for the majority of the preseason, his 6-foot-9 frame paired with the inexperience of true freshman center Balsa Koprivica caused a change of plans. Osborne would start at center in his FSU debut.

"It was probably like a couple of days before when I heard that Dom was not gonna be able to play, so that it was like, 'Okay, you played big before at Rice and you had some experience,'" Osborne told the Democrat.

"It was pretty much like I was a vet big even though I wasn't practicing as a big already so based on my prior experiences, a couple of days before, that's when I knew. I was like, okay, it's time to start game-planning at the five.

"I never really knew I was gonna start and then I got the nod to start for the five so I was like you know it's not about just playing the five, it's about doing what I need to do at that position for what my team needs. It really wasn't a concern for me."

Despite the late change, Osborne has found instant success in a spot he didn't expect to play for the Seminoles (1-1, 0-1 in ACC). After a pair of road games to start the season, he'll finally make his home debut Friday at 7 p.m. against Western Carolina (2-1).

While Osborne transitioned away from playing the center position during his redshirt year, he's still got plenty of experience at the position.

He played center in high school as well as in his only year at Rice, averaging 9.0 points and 6.5 rebounds as a true freshman for the Owls.

This wealth of experience helped it all come back to him quickly when he and the Seminoles needed it most. "At this point, it's second nature. The techniques, the footwork, all that stuff, it just comes naturally at that point because I've been doing it for so long and for so many reps... Nothing really went away and I'm thankful for it because it's helped our team," Osborne said.

"I'm still working on guard stuff in practice, but I'm also focused on the bigs right now because that's where immediate help and assistance is needed right now."

In his debut in FSU's 63-61 loss to Pitt, Osborne's offensive impact was minimal. He scored two points on four shots. However, he made a significant impact at the other end, wrangling a game-high nine rebounds -- four more than any other Seminole -- and blocking four shots.

Olejniczak was able to play in FSU's second game at Florida Sunday, but he remained limited enough that Osborne was called on to start again.

In his introduction to the FSU-UF rivalry, he made his impact felt as he finished with 10 points and played a major role in keeping SEC Preseason Player of the Year Kerry Blackshear Jr. from hitting a shot from the floor. Blackshear had 10 points, but they all came from the free-throw line.

"It's just huge to show the type of upside that he has and the type of ability, the type of player that he is to be able to go in and make an impact on the position that he's never really played at Florida State," sophomore Devin Vassell told the Democrat.

"I'm excited for him to just keep learning the spot because I know that once he really gets it, he's going to be a dominant force."

In short time, FSU head coach Leonard Hamilton has seen significant growth from Osborne in a role no one expected him to have to play entering preseason camp.

"When you are playing in our system, you get accustomed to working on your individual improvement areas, working on your game, thinking that this is what is needed for me to fit in and help our program. All of a sudden now, you lose Dominik and he's the next choice," Hamilton said.

"That was a tremendous adjustment for him. That didn't come easy because just to get in there, draw fouls, he was challenged by that early. A few more practices, I thought he got a little more comfortable. Those are some areas we need to work on because we need everybody to be comfortable in whatever position we put them in in relation to what we need in a particular game."

It's unclear whether FSU will ask Osborne to remain at center or return to more of a perimeter role once Olejniczak is fully healthy and ready to claim the starting center role.

It doesn't much matter to Osborne. He's going to have the same approach regardless.

"Everything is pretty much was the same as far as my mindset, the aggression in and just going out and being who I am and that's just like a rebounder, a hustle player and an energy guy," Osborne said.

"I knew whether I was going to be a perimeter player or play in the post, that that was going to be my mindset regardless."
