"Our coaches been really consistent with the team from last year and the team this year just instilling the pride they take in defense. For us to be great, we have to focus on that (defense) more than anything. That's just really what we've been doing is taking pride in being tough, flying around and giving all we've got, then the next guy coming in and giving all he has as well because that's just who we are. We take pride in defending the paint, defending the perimeter; defense is the most important thing to us."

Exhibition 1 -- Florida State 95, Barry 66

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - Florida State's exhibition opener provided a glimpse of what lies ahead for the Seminoles both in the upcoming season and beyond. It also showed coach Leonard Hamilton a few things he'd like for his team to tighten up between now and the Seminoles' season opener on November 6. So, in that sense, it was a near-perfect evening for FSU, which got 19 points and five assists from senior Trent Forrest in a 95-66 victory over Barry University at the Donald L. Tucker Center. Forrest, the central figure for an FSU team that lost its top two scorers from a year ago, was one of six Seminoles to finish in double-figures. Anthony Polite added 18 - including 16 in the second half - while RaiQuan Gray (10 points) and newcomers Patrick Williams (12, nine rebounds), Nathanael Jack (10), Dominik Olejniczak (10 points, seven rebounds) and Malik Osborne (seven points, seven boards) all enjoyed productive outings

Game 2 -- Florida State 63, Florida 51

GAINESVILLE, Fla. — Devin Vassell scored 13 points, M.J. Walker added 12 and Florida State upset No. 6 Florida 63-51 on Sunday, extending its series winning streak to six. The Seminoles (1-1) avoided their first 0-2 start since 2000 thanks to suffocating defense that forced the rival Gators (1-1) into 16 turnovers and a woeful shooting performance. Florida was 14 of 50 from the field, including 4 of 22 from 3-point range. A sellout crowd witnessed FSU take over late in the first half and really seize control after the break. The Gators went 10 minutes with just one field goal — a dunk on an inbound play — as Florida State pulled ahead 38-25 in the opening minutes of the second half. The 'Noles went up by 14 on Anthony Polite's 3-pointer with 9:31 to play. The Seminoles made 11 of their first 20 shots in the second half. They also finished with five blocked shots and eight steals.

Game 3 -- Florida State 79, Western Carolina 74

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - Freshman Patrick Williams and junior M.J. Walker each scored 18 points and Florida State rallied to top Western Carolina 79-74 in the Seminoles' home opener. Forrest had 16 points for the Seminoles who trailed 41-24 with 3:41 left before halftime. Florida State gradually chipped away at the lead, going ahead for good with 45 seconds left in the second half as Williams made a layup. Mason Faulkner scored 21 points, including 12 in the first half, as WCU took a commanding early lead. The Catamounts made 7 of 14 3-pointers in the first half but cooled off and was just 2 of 9 in the second half. After Williams made a pair of free throws to give Florida State a 77-74 lead, Faulkner missed a long jumper with three seconds left as he hoped to make the shot and draw the foul in an attempt to tie it up and send the game to overtime. Florida State won its home opener, securing a 33rd straight nonconference victory at the Donald L. Tucker Center.

Game 8 -- Indiana 80, Florida State 64

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. - Devonte Green senior scored a career-high 30 points, knocked down five 3-pointers and helped fuel a late spurt with two big shots to lead undefeated Indiana past No. 17 Florida State 80-64 in the ACC/Big Ten Challenge. Green went 10 of 15 from the field, 5 of 7 on 3s and 5 for 7 at the free throw line. He also grabbed six rebounds and finished with three assists and two steals -- not bad for someone who missed Indiana's first three games with an injured hamstring. With Green back, the Hoosiers are off to their best start since 2012-13. They earned their third straight win over a ranked team dating to last season and head into Big Ten play with a boost of confidence. It wasn't just Green, either. Freshman forward Trayce Jackson-Davis had 15 points and eight rebounds, while junior Justin Smith chipped in with 14 points and five boards. Trent Forrest scored 13 to lead the Seminoles, who had their seven-game winning streak snapped. M.J. Walker and Devin Vassell added 10 points apiece.

Game 11 -- Florida State 66, USF 60

SUNRISE, Fla. - Florida State used smothering defense to overcome a 10-point deficit in the final seven minutes and beat South Florida 66-60 in the Orange Bowl Classic. The Seminoles forced 24 turnovers, including seven as they outscored the Bulls 19-3 down the stretch. Florida State forced four shot-clock violations and won despite being outrebounded by 14 and shooting only 40 percent, including 7 for 27 from 3-point range. RaiQuan Gray had 11 points, seven rebounds and three of Florida State's 13 steals. Anthony Polite, Trent Forrest and M.J. Walker also scored 11 points apiece. Florida State scored 21 points off turnovers to earn its third win in a row. South Florida lost to a ranked team for the 27th consecutive time since 2012. A flurry of nine points in 39 seconds by the Bulls - including a pair of 3s and two free technical foul free throws - helped them lead 57-47 with 6:32 to go. But they didn't score another field goal until garbage time with 3 seconds left, and committed turnovers on four consecutive possessions as the Seminoles pulled ahead. Devin Vassell's jumper with two minutes left put Florida State in front to stay. Michael Durr had 15 points and seven rebounds for the Bulls, but they shot just 3 for 15 from 3-point range.

Florida State Basketball Center Balsa Koprivica Showing Signs Of Progress

By Wayne McGahee III Tallahassee Democrat December 20, 2019

No. 19 Florida State has been one of the best college basketball programs in the country at developing big men over the last decade.

But the Seminoles (9-2, 1-1 ACC) have taken a bit of a step back this year, which is to be expected when two new centers are introduced to the program.

Ole Miss transfer Dominik Olejniczak and true freshman Balsa Koprivica are both still learning FSU's system in their first years with the program.

For a team that relies heavily on its big men, that has created some challenges.

"We've had a problem with our big guys," FSU coach Leonard Hamilton said.

"We have spots on the floor that we have to fulfill and transition. We don't have layups we got to get to what we call that checkpoints. And our guys are running to the wrong spot. Instead of running to the, what we call the halo at the front of the rim, they're running to the short corner. Or they run to the weak side, or they're stopping at the free throw line."

Both players have improved recently, but the progress that Koprivica has made has Hamilton excited for the rest of the season.

Koprivica, a native of Belgrade, Serbia, spent most of the first part of non-conference play on the bench because he was fouling at an extremely high rate. He even had as many fouls as minutes played at one point.

But Koprivica has shown flashes of his potential over the last six games, and FSU will need him to continue to do so against South Florida (6-4) in the Orange Bowl Classic Saturday at noon at the BB&T Center in Sunrise, Fla.

"I told our staff that I'm seeing something develop there," Hamilton said.

"He's responding to coaching. We've been challenging him. We've been holding them accountable been pushing. And he's eager to learn he's a sponge."

Koprivica, 7-foot-1, 260 pounds, has played the eighth most minutes per game on FSU's roster, but he's sixth in points scored. He's averaging 6.2 points and 2.6 rebounds in 12.8 minutes per game. He's shooting 81.8% from the floor this season (27-33).

He had a career-high 15 points against North Florida Tuesday with three rebounds and a block.

The other seven players in front of him in minutes played are all averaging more than 20 minutes per game. As his time on the court improves, so will his grasping of the system that FSU runs. When that happens, FSU's coaches and players are excited for what his future holds.

"It's amazing," Olejniczak said.

"I mean, where he was when he got here as far as where he is right now it's like having a really, really big strides and he's got so much more potential and his ceiling is unbelievably high. So, I'm just looking forward to seeing where this season takes him."

Crow Tribal Member Making His Mark As A Seminole By Dana Wilson Big Horn County News December 5, 2019

Crow tribal member Rayquan Evans, member of the Greasy Mouth clan, and son of Lavern Old Elk and Israel Evans, is making is mark on the Florida State University basketball program.

He is a 2017 graduate of Skyview High School, in Billings Montana. Evans is a state AA champion his sophomore and junior years and a third place trophy winner earned all-state honors, as named by USA Today. He earned Class AA All State first team and eastern class AA all-conference first team honors as a senior.

From there he graduated from North Idaho College in 2019 with an associate's degree social science and he recognized as the Northwest Athletic Conference Male Basketball Athlete of the Year in 2019

He was also named to the All-East Region Defensive Team and as the East Region MVP in 2019 He led the Cardinals to a two-year combined record of 56-10 and they finished with a combined 27-5 overall record in NWAC play, including a perfect 16-0 record during the 2018-19 season.

Evans averaged 18.2 points, 7.4 rebounds and 4.9 assists in leading North Idaho to its second consecutive Northwest Athletic Conference Championship. He shot .552 percent from the field and .781 percent from the free throw line in his second season and scored in double figures in each of his games as a sophomore with his season-high of 32 points, six assists and two steals coming in NIC's victory over Walla Walla in the NWAC Tournament championship game as a senior.

Evans helped lead North Idaho to the 2019 NWAC Championship, where he averaged 23.3 points in three tournament games including a double-double of 18 points and 15 rebounds in the Cardinals' semifinal round victory over Everett Community College.

Evens lived in Billings as a youth, but then his family moved to Minneapolis. He came back to the state for high school, a sport he hopes to continue after college, he said.

"My biggest challenge was trying to keep head focused on main goal," Evans said of his time in school at North Idaho College. "Junior college changed my life, because I learned a lot about myself and how I have to stay focused to get where I want to go."

He did say being alone at first was the toughest thing he had to overcome.

"It's ok to leave (home). I've had to leave my family a lot of times, and it was hard, and still is, but I know they'll always be there and I have their support," he said.

Evans is continuing his social science track at FSU and is weighing options about what type of career he is aiming for, he said.

"I do want to continue to play after college," he said.

Evans, who spent most of his childhood in the city, said it does feels weird being back in a city, but the Florida humidity is what is really surprising.

"Otherwise, It's just another big city," he said.

Evans has traveled a lot for the sport he loves and encourages kids from small towns to do the same.

"Don't be scared to leave, being on your own can be scary, but being away, for me, is one of the best things that could happen to me. It helps you appreciate the support and home more," he said.

Evans spends a lot of his time in practice, class or working out for the team so organization is important to him. He suggests learning a routine and sticking with it manage time.

"I'm really looking forward to getting RayQuan into our rotation. He simply needs playing time to gain his confidence back after missing valuable time when he was injured," said FSU Seminoles Head Coach Leonard Hamilton. "He's a very smart player who thinks the game well and has a high basketball IQ. He's a very instinctive player who is a valuable member of our team; he's a player who will contribute to the success of our team this year."

Evans, said he bring a positive attitude to the team and is pretty good at playing his role, and bringing his energy to the environment during a game.

"This is something I've dreamed about my whole life, he said. "Always work hard and put everything you have into something you love, don't be afraid of losing people along the way. If you put your heart into something and not worry about what people say or think, the sky's the limit".
