"The job Leonard Hamilton has done at Florida State this year has been nothing short of masterful. He's taken a dynamic roster, infused fresh faces such as Patrick Williams and Malik Osborne, and hasn't missed a beat. While the Seminoles are certainly still a work in progress, their early season success is a testament to Hamilton's coaching acumen. Not surprisingly, this Florida State team looks to be NCAA Tournament contenders yet again."

Exhibition 1 -- Florida State 95, Barry 66

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - Florida State's exhibition opener provided a glimpse of what lies ahead for the Seminoles both in the upcoming season and beyond. It also showed coach Leonard Hamilton a few things he'd like for his team to tighten up between now and the Seminoles' season opener on November 6. So, in that sense, it was a near-perfect evening for FSU, which got 19 points and five assists from senior Trent Forrest in a 95-66 victory over Barry University at the Donald L. Tucker Center. Forrest, the central figure for an FSU team that lost its top two scorers from a year ago, was one of six Seminoles to finish in double-figures. Anthony Polite added 18 - including 16 in the second half - while RaiQuan Gray (10 points) and newcomers Patrick Williams (12, nine rebounds), Nathanael Jack (10), Dominik Olejniczak (10 points, seven rebounds) and Malik Osborne (seven points, seven boards) all enjoyed productive outings

Game 2 -- Florida State 63, Florida 51

GAINESVILLE, Fla. — Devin Vassell scored 13 points, M.J. Walker added 12 and Florida State upset No. 6 Florida 63-51 on Sunday, extending its series winning streak to six. The Seminoles (1-1) avoided their first 0-2 start since 2000 thanks to suffocating defense that forced the rival Gators (1-1) into 16 turnovers and a woeful shooting performance. Florida was 14 of 50 from the field, including 4 of 22 from 3-point range. A sellout crowd witnessed FSU take over late in the first half and really seize control after the break. The Gators went 10 minutes with just one field goal — a dunk on an inbound play — as Florida State pulled ahead 38-25 in the opening minutes of the second half. The 'Noles went up by 14 on Anthony Polite's 3-pointer with 9:31 to play. The Seminoles made 11 of their first 20 shots in the second half. They also finished with five blocked shots and eight steals.

Game 3 -- Florida State 79, Western Carolina 74

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - Freshman Patrick Williams and junior M.J. Walker each scored 18 points and Florida State rallied to top Western Carolina 79-74 in the Seminoles' home opener. Forrest had 16 points for the Seminoles who trailed 41-24 with 3:41 left before halftime. Florida State gradually chipped away at the lead, going ahead for good with 45 seconds left in the second half as Williams made a layup. Mason Faulkner scored 21 points, including 12 in the first half, as WCU took a commanding early lead. The Catamounts made 7 of 14 3-pointers in the first half but cooled off and was just 2 of 9 in the second half. After Williams made a pair of free throws to give Florida State a 77-74 lead, Faulkner missed a long jumper with three seconds left as he hoped to make the shot and draw the foul in an attempt to tie it up and send the game to overtime. Florida State won its home opener, securing a 33rd straight nonconference victory at the Donald L. Tucker Center.

Game 8 -- Florida State 63, Purdue 60 (OT)

NICEVILLE, Fla. - Trent Forrest scored 17 points to lead Florida State to a 63-60 overtime victory over Purdue in the Emerald Coast Classic championship game. The Seminoles outscored the Boilermakers 5-2 in the extra period by getting their points at the free-throw line including the final two with only one second left to play. Purdue, trailing by only a point, took several potentially winning shots in the last minute but was unable to score against a stifling Florida State defense. Devin Vassell was the only other Seminole scoring in double figures with 13 points. That included the final two free throws in overtime after getting fouled when he grabbed a missed Purdue shot. Matt Haarms led the Boilermakers with 16 points followed by Jahaad Proctor with 12 and Eric Hunter Jr. with 10. It was a back-and-forth game with 10 lead changes and 11 ties. Florida State never led by more than four points while the Boilermakers briefly went ahead by seven early in the second half after trailing 27-24 at the intermission.

Game 8 -- Indiana 80, Florida State 64

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. - Devonte Green senior scored a career-high 30 points, knocked down five 3-pointers and helped fuel a late spurt with two big shots to lead undefeated Indiana past No. 17 Florida State 80-64 in the ACC/Big Ten Challenge. Green went 10 of 15 from the field, 5 of 7 on 3s and 5 for 7 at the free throw line. He also grabbed six rebounds and finished with three assists and two steals -- not bad for someone who missed Indiana's first three games with an injured hamstring. With Green back, the Hoosiers are off to their best start since 2012-13. They earned their third straight win over a ranked team dating to last season and head into Big Ten play with a boost of confidence. It wasn't just Green, either. Freshman forward Trayce Jackson-Davis had 15 points and eight rebounds, while junior Justin Smith chipped in with 14 points and five boards. Trent Forrest scored 13 to lead the Seminoles, who had their seven-game winning streak snapped. M.J. Walker and Devin Vassell added 10 points apiece.

SUNRISE, Fla. - Florida State used smothering defense to overcome a 10-point deficit in the final seven minutes and beat South Florida 66-60 in the Orange Bowl Classic. The Seminoles forced 24 turnovers, including seven as they outscored the Bulls 19-3 down the stretch. Florida State forced four shot-clock violations and won despite being outrebounded by 14 and shooting only 40 percent, including 7 for 27 from 3-point range. Anthony Polite Takes Different Path To Same Destination As His Father

By Curt Weiler Tallahassee Democrat December 7, 2018

Despite the garnet and gold in his gene pool, Anthony Polite didn't grow up around Florida State.

In fact, the Florida State legacy spent the first 15 years of his life on a different continent.

Polite was born in Lugano, Switzerland while his father Michael was playing basketball abroad.

That didn't stop him from following in his father's footsteps and ending up at FSU as well.

"It has been a part of his life from when he was a very small kid," Michael Polite told the Tallahassee Democrat.

"I'd bring my bag home with the ball in there. Him, as a child, rolling it around the house, his mom allowing him to play with the ball and him becoming familiar with that round ball and having a love for it kind of snowballs."

Michael played at FSU from 1987 through 1991. He finished his career with 1,066 points and was on teams that made the NCAA Tournament in three of his four seasons with the Seminoles.

"He has the benefit of a father who really knew something about basketball. That speaks for itself," FSU head coach Leonard Hamilton said.

After his time in Tallahassee, he went onto have a 10-year career in Europe. It was during this time that Michael's wife Maddalena gave birth to Anthony.

Even after Michael's time as a professional player ended, the Polites stayed in Switzerland.

Polite bounced back and forth between basketball and soccer before locking in on wanting to seriously play basketball when he was 12.

"He's been a student of the game," Michael said.

"He knows the history of where I started, from my high school and then obviously playing college ball and then seeing me play professionally, wanting to follow in his dad's footsteps."

A few years and a move to a different area in Switzerland later, Anthony decided he wanted to play high school basketball in the United States.

He moved to Boca Raton and enrolled at St. Andrew's School as a freshman at 15 while his mother stayed back in Switzerland, where she remains to this day.

"His mom has really been supportive of him liking the game and him actually wanting to follow in his dad's footsteps," Michael said.

Added Anthony, "I always looked up to my dad and my mom. They always wanted the best for me. My dream was always to come play college basketball.

"Once I came over here and I moved to the states, (FSU) was definitely one of my top choices."

After a prolific playing career which saw him named the 2017 Palm Beach Player of the Year as a senior, Polite chose FSU over Miami and Memphis, among others.

While his connection to FSU seemed clear on paper, Michael is adamant that his career had little impact on his son's decision to pursue basketball and to do so at FSU.

"I never really pushed him in the direction that he has to do what his dad did. He just had a love for the game and was a student of the game," Michael said.

"Growing up in Switzerland, his mom being supportive of him being a basketball player, he just followed some of the better players, better leagues and the competition in terms of college basketball as well. He decided to come here and play college basketball here and he learned the game from this perspective being here in the U.S. and just studied the collegiate game as well.

"He took a visit to Florida State and fell in love with the program in terms of how coach Hamilton runs his program, the guys showing a lot of love towards him as a player and he made his decision. It was nothing that I forced on him. It was something that he studied and decided to come play for Florida State."

While Anthony played his entire high school career in the U.S., Hamilton sees aspects of his game that developed from his time playing abroad.

"He brings that European system where I think they spend a lot of time with youngsters earlier in life fundamentally. He seems to be pretty sound when he dribbles left, dribbles right, he has good shooting form," Hamilton said.

Michael added, "Growing up in Europe, he has that European style, he has that style of play. Then, obviously, coming over to the U.S., playing high school ball, playing on the AAU circuit, he's done a tremendous job of transitioning his game from learning how to play the game and the fundamentals over in Europe and then picking up the style of play here."

After battling tendinitis in both of his knees last year while redshirting, Polite has earned his first significant playing time this season.

Averaging 14.3 minutes, Polite is seeing the most playing time out of the Seminoles' four true or redshirt freshmen. "I'm not surprised. I've seen Anthony put in a lot of work in his first two years," FSU point guard Trent Forrest said. "I knew he was going to be a pretty good player defensively and he was always able to shoot the ball. I feel like he's just gaining his confidence."

His intensity and ability to operate the Junkyard Dog defense Hamilton wants to see is one of the main things to which this can be attributed.

"I like him being in a stance, I like the pressure he's putting on the ball," Hamilton said.

"I envision him as some point being a good defender, a guy who can pick up the point guard for us and a guy also who can knock down jump shots."

Added Anthony, "I know I'm a good defender so that's what I do. If my shot's not falling, I have to find something else that I can produce in and that's defense, steals, rebounds, finding someone else."

All of this has Hamilton excited about the legacy Anthony may leave behind in his own right at FSU.

"The fact that he has the potential he's developed, he has the energy and the quickness and speed and the strength to defend. I think he's obviously a pretty good shooter, pretty good dribbler," Hamilton said.

"I do think that you can see the future is very bright for him and for us."

Florida State Basketball Center Balsa Koprivica Showing Signs Of Progress

By Wayne McGahee III Tallahassee Democrat December 20, 2019

No. 19 Florida State has been one of the best college basketball programs in the country at developing big men over the last decade.

But the Seminoles (9-2, 1-1 ACC) have taken a bit of a step back this year, which is to be expected when two new centers are introduced to the program.

Ole Miss transfer Dominik Olejniczak and true freshman Balsa Koprivica are both still learning FSU's system in their first years with the program.

For a team that relies heavily on its big men, that has created some challenges.

"We've had a problem with our big guys," FSU coach Leonard Hamilton said.

"We have spots on the floor that we have to fulfill and transition. We don't have layups we got to get to what we call that checkpoints. And our guys are running to the wrong spot. Instead of running to the, what we call the halo at the front of the rim, they're running to the short corner. Or they run to the weak side, or they're stopping at the free throw line."

Both players have improved recently, but the progress that Koprivica has made has Hamilton excited for the rest of the season.

Koprivica, a native of Belgrade, Serbia, spent most of the first part of non-conference play on the bench because he was fouling at an extremely high rate. He even had as many fouls as minutes played at one point.

But Koprivica has shown flashes of his potential over the last six games, and FSU will need him to continue to do so against South Florida (6-4) in the Orange Bowl Classic Saturday at noon at the BB&T Center in Sunrise, Fla.

"I told our staff that I'm seeing something develop there," Hamilton said.

"He's responding to coaching. We've been challenging him. We've been holding them accountable been pushing. And he's eager to learn he's a sponge."

Koprivica, 7-foot-1, 260 pounds, has played the eighth most minutes per game on FSU's roster, but he's sixth in points scored. He's averaging 6.2 points and 2.6 rebounds in 12.8 minutes per game. He's shooting 81.8% from the floor this season (27-33).

He had a career-high 15 points against North Florida Tuesday with three rebounds and a block.

The other seven players in front of him in minutes played are all averaging more than 20 minutes per game. As his time on the court improves, so will his grasping of the system that FSU runs. When that happens, FSU's coaches and players are excited for what his future holds.

"It's amazing," Olejniczak said.

"I mean, where he was when he got here as far as where he is right now it's like having a really, really big strides and he's got so much more potential and his ceiling is unbelievably high. So, I'm just looking forward to seeing where this season takes him."
