Luke Maye added 15 points and 11 rebounds, while freshman Nassir Little scored 18 points and Coby White finished with 10. David Nichols scored 16 points and Terance Mann added 10 for the Seminoles, who had won eight straight but were held to 31 percent shooting in their first loss in more than a month. Maye followed that by sandwiching a pair of 3s -- including one he banked in from about 25 feet -- around a contested jumper by Little to give the Tar Heels all the breathing room they needed.

Quoting Florida State Basketball

"The Florida State men's basketball program has already found themselves in a spot they hadn't been in nearly five decades - inside the top five in the country. This is a team that is still learning to embrace the hype, and they're doing it week in and week out in the toughest conference in the country, and the scary thing? People still don't understand how good they can be."

Alison Posey
WTXL-TV Tallahassee

"The Seminoles are not just an ACC title contender but have to be considered for a run to Atlanta (and the Final Four)."

Andy Katz
NCAA.com

"Florida State is one of the nation's most unappreciated programs and remains embarrassingly long and deep. Seven players are 6-8 or taller, and 11 average at least 8.9 minutes. The No. 10 'Noles — winners of seven in a row — already humiliated Florida in Gainesville, and have defeated Louisville and Purdue away from Tallahassee."

Joey Knight
Tampa Tribune

"Leonard Hamilton is one of the best coaches in the game. He honestly deserves a statue to be built for what he's done here (at Florida State). Coach Ham has done an incredible job here and their length is incredible. Combine their length and defensive style of ball and that team is really hard to beat."

Josh Pastner
Georgia Tech Basketball

"Our coaches have been really consistent with the team from last year and the team this year just instilling the pride they take in defense. For us to be great, we have to focus on that (defense) more than anything. That's just really what we've been doing is taking pride in being tough, flying around and giving all we've got, then the next guy coming in and giving all he has as well because that's just who we are. We take pride in defending the paint, defending the perimeter; defense is the most important thing to us."

Malik Osborne
Florida State Basketball

"I give all credit to Florida State. I thought for, really, the entire game they were the tougher team. I thought our guards got manhandled. They shot over the top of our guards, especially in the second half. They have a really good team. They are really athletic."

Chris Mack
University of Louisville

"We knew coming into the game that they (Florida State) were a really good team, but one thing I was concerned about as a coach is that their speed was going to get to us. So they were able to speed us up, and they were able to use their length to really force us into some turnovers."

Exhibition 1 -- Florida State 95, Barry 66

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. -- Florida State's exhibition opener provided a glimpse of what lies ahead for the Seminoles -- both in the upcoming season and beyond. It also showed coach Leonard Hamilton a few things he'd like for his team to tighten up between now and the Seminoles' season opener on November 6. So, in that sense, it was a near-perfect evening for FSU, which got 19 points and five assists from senior Trent Forrest in a 95-66 victory over Barry University at the Donald L. Tucker Center. Forrest, the central figure for an FSU team that lost its top two scorers from a year ago, was one of six Seminoles to finish in double-figures. Anthony Polite added 18 -- including 16 in the second half -- while RaiQuan Gray (10 points) and newcomers Patrick Williams (12, nine rebounds), Nathanael Jack (10), Dominik Olejniczak (10 points, seven rebounds) and Malik Osborne (seven points, seven boards) all enjoyed productive outings.

Game 2 -- Florida State 63, Florida 51

GAINESVILLE, Fla. -- Devin Vassell scored 13 points, M.J. Walker added 12 and Florida State upset No. 6 Florida 63-51 on Sunday, extending its series winning streak to six. The Seminoles (1-1) avoided their first 0-2 start since 2000 thanks to suffocating defense that forced the rival Gators (1-1) into 16 turnovers and a woeful shooting performance. Florida was 14 of 50 from the field, including 4 of 22 from 3-point range. A sellout crowd witnessed FSU take over late in the first half and really seize control after the break. The Gators went 10 minutes with just one field goal -- a dunk on an inbound play -- as Florida State pulled ahead 38-25 in the opening minutes of the second half. The 'Noles went up by 14 on Anthony Polite's 3-pointer with 9:31 to play. The Seminoles made 11 of their first 20 shots in the second half. They also finished with five blocked shots and eight steals.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. -- Wyatt Wilkes scored a career-high 14 points while Trent Forrest added 13 points and five rebounds as Florida State defeated Saint Francis (Pa.) 80-65. A redshirt sophomore, Wilkes had scored just five points in four games this season before turning in an unexpected five of seven performance from the floor against the Red Flash. Wilkes also knocked down 3-of-5 3-pointers. Myles Thompson scored a career-high 23 points, knocking down 9 of 12 shots for Saint Francis. Thompson came into the game averaging eight points. Forrest was 7 of 7 at the free-throw line as the Seminoles continued to impress by going 15 of 17 at the charity stripe. Florida State came into the game as the only ACC team shooting better than 75 percent from the free-throw line. Freshman center Balsa Koprivica has had back-to-back double-digit scoring games, finishing with 11 points on 5 of 6 shooting versus the Red Flash. Florida State won its 35th straight non-conference home game, a streak that dates nearly five years.

Game 8 -- Florida State 63, Purdue 60 (OT)

NICEVILLE, Fla. – Trent Forrest scored 17 points to lead Florida State to a 63-60 overtime victory over Purdue in the Emerald Coast Classic championship game. The Seminoles outscored the Boilermakers 5-2 in the extra period by getting their points at the free-throw line including the final two with only one second left to play. Purdue, trailing by only a point, took several potentially winning shots in the last minute but was unable to score against a stifling Florida State defense. Devin Vassell was the only other Seminole scoring in double figures with 13 points. That included the final two free throws in overtime after getting fouled when he grabbed a missed Purdue shot. Matt Haarms led the Boilermakers with 16 points followed by Jahaad Proctor with 12 and Eric Hunter Jr. with 10. It was a back-and-forth game with 10 lead changes and 11 ties. Florida State never led by more than four points while the Boilermakers briefly went ahead by seven early in the second half after trailing 27-24 at the intermission.

Game 9 -- Indiana 80, Florida State 64

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. – Devonte Green senior scored a career-high 30 points, knocked down five 3-pointers and helped fuel a late spurt with two big shots to lead undefeated Indiana past No. 17 Florida State 80-64 in the ACC/Big Ten Challenge. Green went 10 of 15 from the field, 5 of 7 on 3s and 5 for 7 at the free throw line. He also grabbed six rebounds and finished with three assists and two steals -- not bad for someone who missed Indiana's first three games with an injured hamstring. With Green back, the Hoosiers are off to their best start since 2012-13. They earned their third straight win over a ranked team dating to last season and head into Big Ten play with a boost of confidence. It wasn't just Green, either. Freshman forward Trayce Jackson-Davis had 15 points and eight rebounds, while junior Justin Smith chipped in with 14 points and five boards. Trent Forrest scored 13 to lead the Seminoles, who had their seven-game winning streak snapped. M.J. Walker and Devin Vassell added 10 points apiece.

But the Cardinals could not overcome a 55.2% shooting performance by the Seminoles in losing their second straight. Florida State made 11 of 23 3-pointers. Nwora had a hot hand early for Louisville, scoring 21 points in the first half. The junior shot 6 of 9 from the floor, but the Cardinals combined to make just 10 of 37. They went the last 5:04 without a field goal as the Seminoles took 39-32 lead into the break. Walker helped offset Nwora's early barrage. The junior came off the bench to score 15 points in the first half on 6-of-8 shooting, including 3 of 5 from 3-point range. Walker finished one point short of his career high. Trent Forrest added 20 points on 9-of-11 shooting, and Devin Vassell scored 14. Florida State led 52-42 with 13:43 remaining. Louisville cut that to 54-51 on Nwora's putback, but that was as close as the Cardinals would get.

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. -- Devin Vassell scored 17 points and Florida State pulled away in the final 10 minutes to beat Wake Forest 78-68, giving the Seminoles another double-digit win in league play. Florida State got in foul trouble in the first half and sent the Demon Deacons to the line 22 times before the break, then surrendered an 11-0 run out of the break that gave Wake Forest a lead. Yet Florida State tightened up its defense and stopped sending a parade of Demon Deacons players to the foul line, then began to gradually stretch out a lead on the way to a seventh straight win.M.J. Walker scored 12 of his 15 points in the first half for the Seminoles, who went ahead for good on RaiQuan Gray's 3-pointer

Game 18 -- Florida State 83, Miami 79 (OT)

CORAL GABLES, Fla. – No. 9-ranked Florida State forced 24 turnovers, including three in a row in overtime, and rallied Saturday to earn their ninth consecutive victory by beating Miami 83-79. Sophomore Devin Vassell set a career high for the third consecutive game by leading Florida State with 23 points while adding 11 rebounds and five assists. His two free throws with six seconds left sealed the win. Walker played only 23 minutes because of foul trouble but scored 19 points, all in the second half, Malik Osborne's three-point play with 2:25 left in overtime put the Seminoles ahead to stay. The Seminoles won despite shooting 42 percent and committing 16 turnovers. They compensated by scoring 21 points off takeaways. Not that Florida State's characteristically strong defense wasn't stout from the start. The Hurricanes had to call a timeout when they were trapped on the game's first possession. They blew a dunk, threw up air balls and had 10 shots blocked. But Miami stayed in the game early with a strong defensive effort of its own. DJ Vasiljevic sank a 3-pointer and then scored on a breakaway to give the Hurricanes their biggest lead with 5:20 remaining, 65-56. The Seminoles have won nine consecutive overtime games, including two this season. Their last OT loss came against Iowa in December 2016.

Game 19 -- Florida State 85, Notre Dame 84

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – Wyatt Wilkes scored 19 points and No. 5 Florida State held off Notre Dame 85-84 for its 10th straight victory. Wilkes drilled 5 of 6 from 3-point range and the Seminoles made 12 of 18 from beyond the arc. Florida State missed its last nine shots from the floor and Notre Dame nearly took advantage. The Fighting Irish had a few chances in the final moments, including Rex Pflueger's desperation 3-pointer that fell short at the buzzer. Trent Forrest and RaiQuan Gray each scored 13 points for Florida State, which has also won 10 consecutive home games. Prentiss Hubb scored 24 points, hitting 5 of 11 3-pointers, and John Mooney had 16 points for Notre Dame. Mooney pulled down just four rebounds, halting his streak of double-doubles at 12 games. Notre Dame shot 22 of 27 (81.5%) from the free-throw line. Florida State's Balsa Koprivica returned after missing four games due to injury. The freshman center had six points and six rebounds in the first half.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. – – Kihei Clark was the littlest player on the court, but he made the biggest play. The 5-foot-9 guard made the go-ahead layup with 59 seconds left, and Virginia ended No. 5 Florida State's 10-game winning streak, 61-56. Clark drove down the left side of the lane, reached across and banked his shot in on the right side. The victory was Virginia's first as an unranked team against a team in the Top 5 since the Cavaliers beat Duke 73-68 on Feb. 28, 2013. Mamadi Diakite had 19 points and nine rebounds for Virginia and Braxton Key added 13 points and nine rebounds. The Seminoles forced 17 turnovers while committing just seven, but were outscored 10-9 off those miscues by the Cavaliers. Virginia also won the rebounding battle 36-23. Devin Vassell led Florida State (17-3, 7-2) with 17 points. The loss was the Seminoles' first since Dec. 3 at Indiana.

Game 21 -- Florida State 74, Virginia Tech 63

BLACKSBURG, Va. – Devin Vassell was too ramped up trying to help No. 5 Florida State beat Virginia Tech to realize he was earning himself a place in the ACC record book. Vassell tied an ACC mark by shooting 7 for 7 from 3-point range and scored 27 points to lift the No. 5 Seminoles to a 74-63 victory over the Hokies. Vassell and the Seminoles rebounded from Tuesday night's loss at Virginia that snapped a 10-game winning streak. Florida State remained a game out of first place in the ACC standings. The Seminoles led for much of the first half, were ahead 34-29 at the break and held the lead the rest of the way. Florida State grabbed a 60-44 advantage on a free throw by Trent Forrest with 9:25 remaining before the Hokies scored the next nine points. They cut the lead to 60-53 on a dunk by Nahiem Alleyne with 6:23 left, but got no closer. Tyrece Radford paced the Hokies with 18 points. Virginia Tech lost its third consecutive game. Vassell connected on his first six shots from the floor -- five 3-pointers -- and made 8 of 10 for the game. He was the lone Florida State player in double figures, but 10 different Seminoles scored and seven scored at least seven points.

Leonard Hamilton's Twitter Account Gives FSU Fans A Peek Into His Personality

By Curt Weiler

Tallahassee Democrat

January 29, 2020

If you only see Leonard Hamilton on game day, you probably think you have an idea of who the Florida State men's basketball head coach is.

For the better part of the last 20 years, the FSU men's basketball coach has patrolled the sidelines during games with a rarely-changing facial expression.

Emotions at either end of the spectrum -- happiness or anger -- rarely escape from behind Hamilton's stoic facade. As such, one might think just from watching him in this setting that he can be unpleasant to be around and hates fun.

Ask those who know him best and this couldn't be further from the truth.

"I have a lot of friends that always ask me, 'How's coach Ham? He always looks so serious, like he's mad.' I'm like, 'He's the complete opposite,'" FSU sophomore Devin Vassell said of Hamilton.

When you're around him, he's always making jokes and laughing. He always tells us that, in the games, he needs to have a serious face because how is he going to be able to yell at us and be laughing and everything. I respect it." While Hamilton's gameday demeanor hasn't changed this season, he's begun to show supporters that other side of him a bit more through the use of his Twitter account @FSUCoachHam.

Hamilton has had the account since 2009, but until recently, he used it just to talk about his team and former players and celebrate their accolades.

That changed this school year as Hamilton has embraced the modern-day internet, beginning to share funny images and show fans the personality that many may not have seen much throughout his time in Tallahassee.

"I do feel that it's important for people to know that I do have a little personality," Hamilton told the Democrat. "I'm not the focused, intolerant guy that they see, intense guy on the sidelines all the time. I have lots of fun with my players."

The first-such image dropped the day of FSU's 2019 football opener, Aug. 31. When FSU fans noticed the turnover backpack was no longer on the sidelines, Hamilton quote tweeted a photoshopped image of him holding up the turnover backpack with the caption, "I promised Willie (Taggart) I would take good care of it."

The timing of Hamilton's Twitter emergence has been in tune with the Seminoles' re-emergence as a program. FSU has been to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament each of the last two seasons -- just the second time that has happened in program history -- and won 59 of its last 62 home games.

The Seminoles saw their 10-game win streak snapped Tuesday at Virginia, but remain all but assured of making their fourth consecutive NCAA Tournament this season. That would also be tied for the longest streak of tournament appearances in FSU history.

Because of this successful run, Hamilton knew the interest would be there for him to start having a little more fun on his account.

"Basically all my coaching career, I've been kind of matter of fact, business approach, low-key approach to developing programs. And I've always been the underdog in certain situations and programs I've had to build so we've had to strategically operate under the radar," Hamilton said.

"But in this new age of social media, this is a movement that youngsters and young adults or just sports fans have gotten into that people are always looking for information about who you are and what you're doing...

"Even though my whole career, I've been somewhat reserved and laid back, I feel a need for people to know about who we are, how we do it and allow our fans and supporters more of an inside look at who we are and what we do in our program. It's been fun trying to decide what's important for fans to know and to try to have a little fun with it as well. We've kind of gotten a kick out of some of the things that we've done. It seems to have drawn a lot of attention."

The funny pictures on Hamilton's Twitter have ranged from a Space Jam parody to old pictures of himself.

A common theme among many of the images and jokes is his age. Hamilton turned 71 last August, but is praised by everyone in the business for how he looks far younger than he actually is.

In November, Hamilton participated in the decade challenge, sharing pictures of him from 2009 and 2019 that show minimal aging with the caption, "I promise these photos are accurate. Told y'all about the Ham Sauce."

Hamilton's personal favorite tweet, however, is a picture posted in December of him at three years old. He's decked out in a full suit with an accompanying caption that reads, "I don't know why I'm not considered one of the best-dressed coaches in college hoops. This is me at 3 years old. I'm just saying. #Smooth"

"That picture says a lot about what my life has been about. That was a picture on a Sunday where my grandmother dressed me up because we went to church every Sunday," Hamilton said.

"If you look at that picture, you'll see from head to toe, I'm probably three years old dressed like a grown adult going to church. That was my grown-up look, my Sunday best clothes going to church... Because I'm dressed so elegantly, I want people to know that I've been dressing well for a long time."

Even as long as he's had his Twitter account, Hamilton's players still aren't entirely how he gets it to work given his technical expertise.

But they're ok with the fact that the rest of the world is finally starting to see the full version of the coach they've known since they were recruits.

"Half the time he doesn't even know what's going on on Twitter, but he somehow tweets out stuff," FSU point guard Trent Forrest said.

"People have him all messed up because he's a hilarious guy. Everybody, they see him on game day and on TV and they see just the stern face, but coach Ham is hilarious."

FSU Hoops Finds, Develops 'High-Character Gym Rats'

By Bob Ferrante

The Osceola

January 31, 2020

Watch a few Florida State basketball games and it becomes quite clear why the team is successful.

Devin Vassell is a budding star. Trent Forrest is the engine that makes the team go. M.J. Walker is the 3-point threat.

But then there is the depth – 10, 11, 12 or more players. It comes at opponents in waves.

“The guys that come in play with the same exact energy as the guys that had just been in,” reserve forward Wyatt Wilkes said. “That’s exhausting to play against. In everyone’s mind, there’s no stars, there’s no backup guys. You just play basketball. You are a Florida State Seminole. That’s what it is. That’s what it’s about.”

Some college basketball teams win with future lottery picks. Duke typically has a few. Louisville has Jordan Nwora. North Carolina likely has one in injured freshman Cole Anthony (who could return soon). Vassell is playing like a potential All-ACC first-team guard. If he stays for his junior year – and keeps developing on his current arc – it’s possible that he will be a lottery pick, too. But it’s also worth reminding that when FSU offered Vassell in high school he had two other offers: Presbyterian and North Florida.

FSU’s success has allowed the coaches to sign five-star prospects. But the coaching staff has also identified some diamonds who were lightly regarded. And found prospects who were the right fit.

At the top of the list: basketball IQ and unselfishness.

“We like to call them high-character gym rats,” FSU assistant coach Charlton Young said. “Guys who can affect the game in the non-ball-dominant fashion. Most times you go to a game to evaluate and it’s natural for coaches to gravitate to the guy who scores the most points. That’s not what we do.

“We gravitate to the guys that affect the game, being non-ball dominant.”

Young tells an anecdote of seeing Terance Mann play as a high school freshman. Mann was down in the low post, fighting with another player for a rebound. The opponent hooked him, Mann could barely jump up and all he could do was tap it to a teammate, just a few feet away near the basket. Mann’s “pass” to his teammate resulted in a basket.

“That’s a rare breed,” Young said. “I offered him a scholarship on the spot as soon as I saw that play. This guy is a basketball genius. And so you put four or five guys out there that make decisions that way.”

Comb through the FSU box scores and you’ll see players who aren’t just efficient shooters but also will fight for rebounds, create steals or block shots. And often there are things that don’t show up in box scores.

There’s no stat for altering shots. But it results in frustration for opponents. There’s no stat for making extra passes in a half-court possession. But it results in better looks. And while that isn’t in a box score, FSU coach Leonard Hamilton has his staff note the number of passes – not assists but passes – in each game.

Hamilton often feels the strength of the team is the sum of its parts. After a recent win he also cited chemistry.

“We’ve developed an outstanding level of chemistry,” Hamilton said. “We share the ball; we share playing time. The guys cheer for one another. No one really cares who gets the credit. That’s a tribute to them (and) their character. I’m very proud of these guys.”

FSU has won 17 of 20 games this year with guards like Vassell, Forrest and Walker. But on any given night either of those three can lead the team in scoring. Or it could be Malik Osborne, Balsa Koprivica, Anthony Polite or Wilkes.

“That’s kind of the strength of our team,” Forrest said. “You never know who can come in and give us that spark.” That’s also what makes FSU a tough team to scout. Opponents can worry about the Seminoles’ trio of starting guards and will likely forget about the potential sparkplugs off the bench.

This is the result of years of work. FSU coaches scouting prospects who fit the mold: team-first players who are well-rounded, will learn defense and have the requisite length and athleticism. And then the coaches spend years watching and working with players.

“Coach Hamilton does a great job of developing players,” Young said. “Before coach Hamilton only got credit for developing big men. But the truth of the matter is J. Leonard Hamilton can develop any position in a basketball program. And I think it’s time that he starts getting his credit for his ability to develop players. And its time for this staff to get credit for developing players.”
