"Scottie Barnes has been the kind of "do it all but scoring" wing/forward/point that was expected coming into the year. He often initiates the Seminole offense and makes plays as a passer. He's a terrific passer who sees the floor exceedingly well, making high-level reads. Defensively, he's terrific as a help defender."

SEMINOLES PLAY HOST TO NC STATE ON JANUARY 13

Florida State plays host to NC State on Wednesday, January 13, 2021 at the Donald L. Tucker Center. The Seminoles' game against the Wolfpack is their first since playing at Clemson on December 29, 2020 because of postponements against Duke (January 2), at Syracuse (January 9) and at Pittsburgh (January 13). The Seminoles' 15 days between games is the longest in-season layoff between games since an 18-day layoff between games (December 15-January 1) during the 1955-56 season. Florida State enters Wednesday's game against NC State having won 18 consecutive ACC games at the Donald L. Tucker Center in Tallahassee. The Seminoles' ACC winning streak in their home building began with a 77-68 win over Clemson on January 22, 2019. Their most recent ACC victory at home came as a 74-61 win over Georgia Tech. FLORIDA STATE VS. NC STATE – THE LAST GAME

M.J. Walker scored all 12 of his points after halftime to help Florida State take control and beat NC State 67-61 on February 22, 2020 at the PNC Arena in Raleigh, N.C. The Seminoles played well that at both ends after trailing 32-27 at halftime. They went ahead for good with about 13 1/2 minutes left against a Wolfpack team that beat No. 6 Duke by 22 points a few days earlier. Devon Daniels scored 18 points to lead N.C. State (17-10, 8-8), which was trying to bolster its NCAA Tournament resume even more. But the Wolfpack shot 41% and couldn't get to the line after halftime with the same frequency, a combination that turned scoring into a tougher test. The Seminoles handled the halftime deficit with composure to win for the sixth time in seven games. They made 10 of 17 shots to take a 57-48 lead on Trent Forrest's basket in the lane and were up big on the boards for much of the second half before finishing the half with a 23-17 advantage. Florida State's win secured a top-four seed in next month's ACC Tournament and the double bye into the quarterfinals that comes with it.

Florida State Center Balsa Koprivica Is Showing A Lot Of Improvement In Sophomore Season

By Antwan Staley

Tallahassee Democrat

January 1, 2021

As a freshman reserve last season, Florida State center Balsa Koprivica played in 27 games. But he struggled with back and knee injuries throughout the year.

A limited Koprivica averaged 4.7 points (eighth on the team) and 2.4 rebounds (seventh) while shooting a team-leading 69.9% from the field.

Koprivica during the offseason was able to take time off and regain his health. Through seven games (5-2) this season heading into Saturday's home showdown against Duke (3-2), Koprivica has raised his game to another level.

Koprivica, a 7-foot-1, 240-pounder, is averaging 9.9 points, 5.9 rebounds, and 1.0 blocks per game. He is also shooting 59.1% from the field. In Tuesday's 77-67 defeat at Clemson, Koprivica had eight points and tied a career-high with nine rebounds.

The native of Belgrade, Serbia, credits his improvement to hard work on and off of the court.

"I've been watching a lot of film and just trying to figure out ways to be as productive as I can at this level because every level you play at is different, Koprivica told the Democrat. "College basketball is different than high school and the NBA and overseas in Europe. Every level of basketball is different, so you gotta adapt your game to be as efficient as possible.

"I think in college basketball, there's a lot of film to watch, teams to always prepare for, opposing players who know your tendency. Just being able to figure out what's the best for me and the best way I can be productive, and that's the man thing I focused on and working my game throughout the whole summer up into this season."

Improved Long Range Shooting

In today's game, not only are big men like Koprivica expected to contribute inside the paint, but also away from the basket. With that in mind, Koprivica has been working on his long-range shooting.

With the help of FSU associate head coach Stan Jones, Koprivica has been tweaking his jump shot with the hopes of becoming more of a spot-up shooter. FSU recruited Koprivica from Montverde Academy in Orlando with the belief he would become more of an all-around player.

Koprivica hasn't taken many jump shots this season, but his coaches trust him and are giving him the freedom to take those shots whenever he chooses. In his first career start in the Seminoles' season-opening win over North Florida, Koprivica turned in a solid all-around performance with 13 points, five rebounds, two blocked shots, one steal and one assist.

"We started with a plan with him being an effective interior player, and now we have moved into Phase 2 at the start of his second year in adding his ability to go out and play on the floor and face up and get those opportunities to show he has a complete game as a player and not just a complete game as a big man," Jones told the Democrat.

"He's been very receptive, very coachable, very enthusiastic about his work. I think people are starting to see the step by step improvements that he is making. Big men are that way, they don't typically go from point A to point Z.

They have to go through all the letters in the alphabet.

"Big guys always continue to make that progress on a consistent basis. If you watch the game closely from game to game with Balsa, you will see the light getting brighter in every area of his understanding and things he needs to work on.

One area of Koprivica's game that's still a work in progress is his defense. Last season, Koprivica was counted on defensively to give the Seminoles a spark off the bench.

Now that he's a starter and playing more minutes, Koprivica feels like he hasn't generated the same defensive intensity as he did a season ago.

"I just took pride in that and just tried to switch on anyone on the floor and guide anyone," Koprivica said. "And that also brought me energy, going to the glass and being aggressive on offense. And I think obviously this year with playing more minutes, I think I need to do a better job of doing the defensive techniques and closing out a little bit better.

"So I think when it comes to close-outs, I just need to have better footwork, so I don't get blown by. Because sometimes, it is hard when you're in a rotation, and then you have to close out, and someone does rip drives next to you. In general, my defense needs to get a little bit more active this year on defense just like I did last year, just bring more energy to it."

Looking To Bounce Back

FSU is coming off its first ACC loss of the season at Clemson on Tuesday.

The Tigers outrebounded the Seminoles 49-35. Additionally, Clemson converted 24 of 33 free throws, while FSU went 6 of 9. The Seminoles were called for 24 personal fouls, compared to 14 for the Tigers.

Turnovers were also a contributing factor in the Seminoles' loss. They had 17.

Koprivica says he is confident FSU will continue to get better and learn and grow from the loss as the team gets deeper into ACC play. Duke provides an important test as the Seminoles have dropped two of their last three games.

"They shot a pretty poor percentage from the field, and so did we," Koprivica said of the Clemson defeat. "They didn't shoot the ball well, so that means that we were doing a decent job. They had way more offensive rebounds, I think they had 19 offensive rebounds, and we had turnovers in the beginning as we had six turnovers in the first few possessions.

"And they attacked the basket more and got to the free-throw line. So those three things are what we need to focus on, attacking the glass, don't let the opposing team get offensive rebounds, and shoot more free throws than the other team. If we do those three things, everything else will fall into place. We will hit shots, and we will get open looks."

2020 has been a difficult year for everyone in all walks of life. But there have been some positives when it comes to FSU basketball. Last season, the Seminoles finished 26–5 and won the ACC regular-season championship. However, the 2020 ACC Tournament and the 2020 NCAA Tournament was canceled because of the COVID pandemic.

Even before this season started, FSU players dealt with the new normal in the world of COVID. Players were limited in the number of times they could practice as many worked out individually to prepare for this season.

Koprivica is determined to embrace the learning experiences.

Game 2 -- Florida State 69, Indiana 67

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – Freshman Scottie Barnes scored the game winning basket with 1.8 seconds remaining to play in overtime to lift No. 20 Florida State to a 69-67 win over Indiana at the Donald L. Tucker Center in the 22nd Annual ACC/Big Ten Challenge. Barnes was stellar in his first career overtime game as he scored his first career 3-point field goal and then hit the winner to help the Seminoles earn their 10th consecutive overtime victory. Barnes totaled nine points, five assists, four rebounds, and four steals to help the Seminoles improve to 2-0. The freshman opened and closed out the game with field goals in only his second game and second start in a Florida State uniform. Barnes is a candidate for the Bob Cousy award and has earned spots on the Naismith and Wooden Award watch lists. Indiana moved to 3-2 on the season. The win was Florida State's 67th in its last 70 games at home. The Seminoles have now won 25 consecutive home games and 40 straight non-conference games at home. Florida State turned up the defensive pressure in the overtime period. After surrendering an old-fashioned three-point play to Indiana's Trayce Jackson-Davis to open the extra session, the Seminoles outscored the Hoosiers 7-2 over the final 4:38 of the extra session. The Hoosiers were unable to score from the floor and managed on two free throws in the final 4:38 of overtime.

Game 3 -- Florida State 83, Florida 71

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – Highly touted freshman Scottie Barnes scored 17 points and No. 20 Florida State extended its dominance against the Gators with an 83-71 victory that came after Florida suddenly lost its best player. The Seminoles led by as many as 18 in the second half. They ended up extending their winning streak against Florida to seven games, tying the longest by either team in the series. They also stretched their winning streak against nonconference opponents at home to 41 and won their 26th straight at home. Barnes, Anthony Polite and M.J. Walker made this one look easy most of the day. Barnes, the top-rated recruit of Hamilton's tenure in Tallahassee, had two thunderous dunks and was 7-of-10 shooting. It was a breakout game for the 6-foot-9 point guard many expect to be an NBA lottery pick.
