Florida State Basketball What's My Number

Scottie Barnes – I chose to wear No. 4 at Florida State because of the many great players before me who played at Florida State and wore No. 4, including most recently Dwayne Bacon and Patrick Williams. Both players were great Seminoles and both were drafted into the NBA.

RayQuan Evans — There is no particular reason why I wear No. 0 at Florida State. I wore the same number at Northern Idaho and I really like the way it looks. It's a very unique number and I feel that I'm a unique player.

RaiQuan Gray — I chose to wear No. 1 at Florida State because I wanted to wear a number that was completely different from any number that I have ever worn before. I wore double digit numbers throughout my career. I wore No. 41 in high school.

Nathanael Jack — I chose to wear No. 11 at Florida State because my younger brother Joshua wears that number as a football player at St. Mary's University in Nova Scotia, Canada. He has been a huge influence on my life and has defied many odds to get where he is in his career. I sincerely admire him for all of the challenges he has been able to overcome.

Balsa Koprivica – I wear No. 5 because I have worn the number throughout my high school and AAU career. I feel like it's been a good number, so I asked for it when I committed to Florida State and was lucky to get it.

Tanor Ngom -- I try to model my game after AD (Anthony Davis) and all the bigs in the league that can do more than just dunk. Giannis is who I eventually want to play like and his number is 34; I also wear the No. 34 because of Shaquille O'Neal in his Laker days – who along with Anthony Davis – are two of the most dominant players ever to play this game.

Anthony Polite – I wear No. 2 at Florida State because I am the second member of my family to play at Florida State. My dad, Michael, wore No. 45 during his career as a Seminole. (1988, 1989, 1991).

M.J. Walker -- I wear No. 23 because LeBron James has been my favorite player for as long as I can remember. I was about four years old when he began playing in the NBA and I have patterned my game after him. I wore No. 23 throughout high school and during AAU ball.

Wyatt Wilkes -- When I signed to play at Florida State and the coaches asked me which number I wanted to wear, I told them I care about wins and not about uniform numbers. There is no significance to the No. 31 that I will wear during my Florida State career. I wore No. 21 in high school.

Former Billings Skyview Standout RayQuan Evans Thriving On Big Stage At Florida State

By Slim Kimmel MontanaSports.com January 15, 2021

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. — RayQuan Evans didn't receive much notice before making his first start in the ACC.

"I found out I was going to be starting a couple minutes before the game," Evans told MTN Sports. "It didn't change my mindset. I just had to play my role, move the ball, score when I need to, bring energy, be that glue guy, so that's what I tried to do, just play my role and tried not to change anything."

Maybe the short notice was for the best. The former Billings Skyview High School basketball standout had his best NCAA Division I game, scoring 24 points — on 9-of-11 shooting, no less — to help his Florida State squad roll to a 105-73 win over North Carolina State on Wednesday.

It might have been Evans' first start for the Seminoles since joining the program in 2019, but it was a long time in the making. He said he used last season "like a learning year," and that experience is paying dividends this year. Evans has played in all eight of Florida State's games and is averaging 7.4 points, 2.7 rebounds and 1.0 assists per game. He's doing it efficiently, too, shooting 47.4% from the floor, 45.5% from 3-point range and 91.7% from the free throw line.

"It's been a great journey. Last year I got the opportunity to learn from a bunch of veterans here. Trent Forrest, he's a great point guard, I got to watch him every day, compete with him and be able just to learn," Evans said. "... This year I've been able to apply everything I've learned, just embrace my role and do what I have to do for this team. It's been a great journey, it's been a challenging journey, but it's led me to become the player that I am today."

The player today is living out the dream of the player from years prior.

Evans was a high school star in Montana, bursting onto the scene as a sophomore at Skyview in 2015. As a junior, he helped the Falcons win their second consecutive Class AA state basketball championship. As a senior, he was one of the best players in the state, averaging 18.2 points, 6.3 rebounds, 3.3 assists and 2.1 steals per game and helping the Falcons to a third-place finish at the state tournament.

Evans originally committed to play college basketball at Rocky Mountain College, but he was a non-academic qualifier, which ultimately led him to North Idaho College, one of the premier junior college basketball programs in the Pacific Northwest. He had a stellar two-year career at NIC and became a big-time recruit on the transfer market. The likes of Georgetown, Washington State and Gonzaga showed their interest, but Evans was all-in on Florida State and the ACC.

Now in Tallahassee, Evans has shown he belongs — Wednesday's breakout game being the final point of affirmation. "It felt good. I felt like I showed my teammates and the ACC what I'm capable of as a player, but more importantly we got the win, and that's what I was more excited about," said Evans, a 6-foot-4 senior point guard. "One of our teammates came off the bench, had 18 points, Nate Jack, so I was really just proud of our team and the way we performed. I was just happy for everyone else."

Florida State is 6-2 this season after last year's remarkable 26-5 season where they won the ACC regular-season championship. The Seminoles never got to finish out their postseason, though, as the coronavirus pandemic shut down the ACC and NCAA tournaments.

Since then, the pandemic has continued to take its toll on sports across the country, but college basketball teams are persevering through the season. FSU has had three games postponed, with Wednesday's matchup with NC State marking their return to action and first game of 2021. The Seminoles are slated to host North Carolina at 10 a.m. (MT) Saturday.

"It's been kind of difficult," Evans said of playing during the pandemic. "You're so used to your home environment and on-the-road environments with just loud noises and crowds, and now you're going into environments with no fans at all and all you can hear is each other. It's quite an adjustment, but as long as you just lock in mentally, I feel like you kind of avoid all that, you kind of don't really pay attention to it, and I feel like that's what our team has been doing pretty well, just getting locked into the game and focusing on each other. Whether there's fans or not, we're just going to continue to play how we've been playing."

And all of those games are still broadcast to a national audience, usually on ESPN or the ACC Network.

"At first, it was a different feeling just knowing that this game might be on ESPN, because that's what you dream of as a kid, just playing on TV," Evans said, before adding that that no longer registers.

In fact, having his games available on national broadcasts has become a big benefit of playing at Florida State. Evans' family back in Montana can watch and cheer from afar, and he receives plenty of support from the Treasure State. Social media buzzes whenever he's in action — especially when he has a big game like he did against NC State — though he's not likely to see it.

"I've felt the support ... through high school to now," Evans said. "My mom's always calling me, talking about people are supporting you at home, and you really don't realize until you hear it from other people, because I'm not really on social media much so I don't see it. But I hear it all the time, and it's just a good feeling to know that there's support back home."

The pride works both ways, too. Evans receives the support from back home, but he's embraced the opportunity to showcase his Native American heritage on some of college basketball's biggest stages.

"All of my family back home in Montana are Native Americans. To be able to show people that I'm proud of where I come from, where my heritage is, and to see that this program really takes pride in that as well — like, we have jerseys dedicated to that — it's a great feeling," he said. "I'm very prideful when I wear those jerseys and just wear my Native American culture on my sleeve, so it's a great feeling to be able to represent my home that way."

Game 2 -- Florida State 69, Indiana 67

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - Freshman Scottie Barnes scored the game winning basket with 1.8 seconds remaining to play in overtime to lift No. 20 Florida State to a 69-67 win over Indiana at the Donald L. Tucker Center in the 22nd Annual ACC/Big Ten Challenge. Barnes was stellar in his first career overtime game as he scored his first career 3-point field goal and then hit the winner to help the Seminoles earn their 10th consecutive overtime victory. Barnes totaled nine points, five assists, four rebounds, and four steals to help the Seminoles improve to 2-0. The freshman opened and closed out the game with field goals in only his second game and second start in a Florida State uniform. Barnes is a candidate for the Bob Cousy award and has earned spots on the Naismith and Wooden Award watch lists. Indiana moved to 3-2 on the season. The win was Florida State's 67th in its last 70 games at home. The Seminoles have now won 25 consecutive home games and 40 straight non-conference games at home. Florida State turned up the defensive pressure in the overtime period. After surrendering an old-fashioned threepoint play to Indiana's Trayce Jackson-Davis to open the extra session, the Seminoles outscored the Hoosiers 7-2 over the final 4:38 of the extra session. The Hoosiers were unable to score from the floor and managed on two free throws in the final 4:38 of overtime

Game 3 -- Florida State 83, Florida 71

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – Highly touted freshman Scottie Barnes scored 17 points and No. 20 Florida State extended its dominance against the Gators with an 83-71 victory that came after Florida suddenly lost its best player. The Seminoles led by as many as 18 in the second half. They ended up extending their winning streak against Florida to seven games, tying the longest by either team in the series. They also stretched their winning streak against nonconference opponents at home to 41 and won their 26th straight at home. Barnes, Anthony Polite and M.J. Walker made this one look easy most of the day. Barnes, the top-rated recruit of Hamilton's tenure in Tallahassee, had two thunderous dunks and was 7-of-10 shooting. It was a breakout game for the 6-foot-9 point guard many expect to be an NBA lottery pick.

Clyde Trapp led Clemson with 15 points and Al-Amir Dawes had 11. The Tigers were down 36-29 when Balsa Korprivica had a layup to start the second half.
