SERIES HISTORY
Florida State leads series 0-4

BY THE NUMBERS

2-0

Troy opened the first week of the season a perfect 2-0 to be among one of seven undefeated teams in the SBC. This was the first time Troy started 2-0 since 2016-17 - that season the team won the SBC.

30

Offense has not been an issue for the Trojans through the first week of the season, scoring 87 and 96 points in their games. With an average of 91.5 points, Troy sits tied with Penn State for 30th in the nation in scoring offense.

5

Troy finished last season with historic numbers, achieving a 20-win season to receive national attention. On March 11, Troy accepted their second CBI invitation, ending a five-year postseason drought.

20

Troy claimed its 20th victory of the season over Little Rock, marking the first 20-win season in Coach Scott Cross's tenure at Troy - third in his career as a head coach last season.

4

Zay Williams continues to rise among the ranks of Troy's greatest shot blockers in all-time history. With a career-high four blocks against MUW, he is one block from tying Bernard Toombs for seventh.

2

Nelson Phillips shined in his opening week with the Trojans. Through the first two games, the Georgia State transfer has led in scoring through both games. Against Montevallo, Phillips scored 17 and MUW he had 20 for 18.5 per game.

QUICK HITTERS

• Troy and Florida State will meet for the first time since 2018-19. Williams was a member of the team and played seven minutes, and scored two points.

• History favors the Seminoles over the Trojans, with FSU beating Troy by an average of 21 points through four meetings.

• The 2-0 start for Troy has the preseason 10th-ranked team sitting tied for second in the standings in the opening week as one of seven undefeated teams.

• Last season, Troy played one power-five opponent in Florida, which resulted in an 84-45 loss in Gainesville, Fla.

• Monday marks Troy's first game in the state of Florida. Last season, Troy journeyed to the Sunshine State seven times for a 3-4 record.

• Head coach Scott Cross emphasized rebounding all offseason with the team's lack of size. In the first week, that was not an issue as Troy outrebounded their opponents, 43.5 per game to 31.

TROY, Ala. – 11 players found their way onto the scoreboard as Troy puts on a 96-42 clinic over MUW on Thursday night in Trojan Arena.

The Trojans start their season at 2-0 for the first time since 2016-17 in the program's first matchup with the Owls. That season, Troy went 22-15 on its way to a Sun Belt Championship and a trip to the NCAA tournament.

Four Trojans found their way into double figures in scoring, led by Nelson Phillips with 20 points on 8-of-11 shooting. Christyon Eugene (12), Zay Williams (10) and Aamer Muhammad joined him on a combined 14-of-31 from the field.

Thomas Wright scored nine points in the Owls' exhibition season opener. The team was held to 28.8 percent shooting from the field and 13.3 percent from deep.

Dominant From the Jump

Troy took the lead in the opening minute off a second-chance layup in the paint from Williams, 2-0, and never looked back. By the time the 13:48 mark hit in the first, the Trojans held a double-digit lead, 19-8, off another second-chance layup from Phillips.

Charlie Werner made a slight dent in the Troy lead, bringing it down to 14 after Nate Tshimanga threw a bad pass that ended in the hands of Tyson Smithey. Werner launched a 3-pointer on the other end to put the score at 29-15.

Tshimanga responded with an easy layup in the paint 28 seconds later to open a 30-7 run to end the first half.

In the final 9:04, the Trojans shot 12-of-16, with Tshimanga, Eugene, Phillips, Williams and Darius McNeill contributing to the outpour. On the defensive end, Troy held MUW to 1-of-7 and forced six turnovers.

Lock In to Open the Second

Tshimanga ensured the Trojans stayed locked in, pushing the advantage to 39 points in the second half's opening minute off Muhammad's miss.

The second half continued the first's dominance and peaked on a 9-0 run. Kieffer Punter started it on a deep 2-point shot, and Lydell Geffrard brought it to the top on his second career 3-point bucket after attempting none last season with 13:10 remaining.

Troy's lead reached its summit at 59 when Jackson Fields hit his free throw and gave the Trojans their 96th point. From there, MUW stopped the bleeding to end the game, 96-42.

Winning Thoughts from Scott Cross

"Today was a good win for the program. Our guys came, and we were very explosive in the first half in terms of knocking down shots and getting to the basket. We had a ton of energy throughout the game and limited them to a low shot percentage. It led to us creating a lot of turnovers and steals with our defense. Team chemistry is one of the biggest separators in championship-ready teams and middle-of-the-pack teams. And at our level in the Sun Belt Conference, there isn't much separation, so the team that is the most together is probably going to win the championship. I thought Eugene was the best at facilitating for us tonight. He did a great job getting good shots for his teammates."

First-Ever Matchup Stats

- For the second time in as many games, Troy scored over 50 points in a half. The Trojans scored 59 on 64.7 percent in the first half from the field.
- Troy knew how to draw the whistle in the first half, heading to the line 11 times and making all of them.
- Phillips ended the day with 20 points for the first time in his Troy career and the fourth time in his collegiate career.
- Through the opening two games of the season, Troy has outscored its opponents 183-109.

TEAM NOTES

PRESEASON NODS

Senior Zay Williams joined the Preseason All-Sun Belt Third team for the first time in his career. Williams comes off an elite season that saw him average 7.8 points and 6.5 rebounds on a team-high 24.9 minutes. He was also the most efficient 3-point shooter for Troy (min. 10 shots) at 41.5 percent while leading the team in blocks at 17.

REVAMPED REVOLVING DOOR ROSTER

Despite the team having its first 20-win season in five years, the Trojans are hitting the reset with a brand-new roster. Troy lost six key players to the transfer portal and two to graduation. In response, the team has brought in nine new faces, including three transfers (Darius McNeill, Aamer Muhammad, Nelson Phillips), three freshmen (Randi Ovalle, Andre Young, Jackson Fields) and three walk-ons (Remy Graham, DJ Jamerson, Kamryn Mitchell).

I WOULD WALK 6,055 MILES AND I WOULD WALK 6,055 MORE

Troy hits the road for some long trips while in nonconference play. The team travels an estimated 6,055 miles between seven venues and nine opponents. The team will travel as far south as Florida State, north as Montana and west as San Diego State.

TEXAS RECRUITING PIPELINE

With head coach Scott Cross being a native of Arlington, Texas, where he formerly coached and played, Troy has opened a direct recruiting pipeline to the second-largest and second-most populated state of Texas. Currently, the Trojans have four players from the state in Christy Eugene (Spring, Texas), Christian Turner (Grand Prairie, Texas), Darius McNeill (Houston, Texas) and Jackson Fields (Missouri City, Texas).

ADAPTING TO THE NEW TRANSFER PORTAL

The NCAA has reinvented the transfer portal, allowing easier access to players to come and go from programs. As a result, the Trojans lost Sun Belt Newcomer of the Year in Efe Odigie to SMU and Sun Belt Freshman of the Year in Duke Deen to Bradley, among four others. However, Troy adapted quickly with the acquisition of Darius McNeill from UTSA, Nelson Phillips from defending SBC champions Georgia State and Aamer Muhammad from Lubbock Christian. Together, they have a combined 125 starts, 16 games with 2+ blocks, 91 with 2+ steals, 54 with 3+ assists, 18 with 20+ points and 106 with 20+ points.

HOME-COURT ADVANTAGE

Last season's historic numbers drew an even more historic crowd in Troy program history and the Sun Belt. Through 13 home games last season, Troy broke the highest average attendance at Trojan Arena with 2,758 per game, which was the most in the Sun Belt Conference. They also brought three of Troy's highest-attended individual games with South Alabama (third – 4,546), Texas State (fifth – 4,438) and Little Rock (sixth – 4,128). This helped the team finish 10-3 at home.

RISE IN THE RECORD BOOKS

Zay Williams has competed as a Trojan for four seasons and is arguably one of the best shot blockers and rebounders in Troy Division-I history. Entering the 2022-23 season, Williams sits fifth all-time in career rebounds at 576 (242 behind Jordan Varnado at first) and tied for seventh all-time in blocks at 81 (70 behind Rob Lewin at first).

SWIPER NO SWIPING

The Troy defense was a menace on the court last season, with the promise of being even peskier this season. In 31 games, the Trojans ranked 53rd nationally and second in the conference with 252 total steals for 7.9 per game.

TROY IS A SUCKER FOR THE HOLIDAY SEASON

Troy's success came straight out of the gate in nonconference play. The best months in terms of record came during the holiday months of November and December. In those two months with Thanksgiving and Christmas, the Trojans feel jolly with victories, going 10-4.

LUCKY NUMBER 70

A big key to Troy's success last year was on the defensive end. Through 31 games, the Trojans limited their opponents to 65.6 points per game. The key number was 70 for Troy. If the team could keep their opponent under 70 points, the Trojans finished 17-5 rather than 3-6 when the opponent had 70 or more.

STRIKE EARLY, STRIKE OFTEN

Troy's ability to put a tally in the win column was largely determined in the first 20 minutes. When the team entered the locker room for halftime with the advantage, Troy would win 93 percent of the time with a 14-1 record. Meanwhile, if Troy found itself down or tied through the opening 20 minutes, the team would struggle, ending 6-10 in that scenario.

OFF TO THE MOUNTAINS

This season, Troy travels to 11 different states outside of Alabama. One of those states is Montana, where the team participates in the UMontana Tournament from Nov. 17-19 with three opponents in Merrimack, St. Thomas and Montana.

FOREIGN TOUR 2022: COSTA RICA

With nine new faces, team chemistry is of the utmost importance heading into the new season. Luckily, the team was due for their foreign tour, which saw them head overseas to Costa Rica for a 10-day excursion. In Costa Rica, the group participated in three games while being brought into the Costa Rican culture through whitewater rafting, zip lining, hiking, ATV riding and trying the local cuisine.

SENIOR STARTING FIVE

The senior night starting lineup looks to already be decided with five seniors on the roster in Darius McNeill, Nelson Phillips, Zay Williams, Lydell Geffard and Kieffer Punter. Unlike last season, the team gains a veteran presence with all five seniors taking on large roles this season on and off the court.
