FLORIDA STATE PLAYS HOST TO NO. 12/13 VIRGINIA IN ACC BATTLE AT THE TUCK

Florida State, which has won each of its three ACC home games this season, plays host to No. 12/13 Virginia on Saturday, January 14, 2023, at 4:00 p.m. at the Donald L. Tucker Center. Saturday's game is the second between the two teams this season, following a 62-57 win by the Cavaliers on December 3 in Charlottesville. The Seminoles rallied from a 12-point deficit and were within three at 60-57 on an old-fashioned three-point play by Caleb Mills with seven seconds remaining to play in the second half of the first meeting of the year between the Seminoles and the Cavaliers. Florida State enters Saturday's game against Virginia with a 3-3 record in ACC play, and with four wins in its last seven games. The Seminoles have won four of their last six games against Virginia, including a two-game winning streak in games played at the Donald L. Tucker Center. Following Saturday's game against Virginia, the Seminoles travel to play at Notre Dame (January 17, 7:00 p.m.) and at Pittsburgh (January 21, 3:00 p.m.) before returning to the ultra-friendly confines of The Tuck against Clemson (January 24, 7:00 p.m.).

IT'S BEEN A MOMENTOUS WEEK FOR THE SEMINOLES

As the Seminoles return to The Tuck for Saturday's game against Virginia, it's been a wonderful seven days for the Florida State Men's Basketball Team. Head Coach Leonard Hamilton, the winningest coach in Florida State history, won his 600th career game, while at the same time winning his 400th career game as the Seminoles' head coach on January 7 when he guided his team to a 75-64 win over Georgia Tech. On Wednesday night at Wake Forest, junior Caleb Mills scored 19 points and surpassed the 1,000 career point mark for his career. Mills enters Saturday's game against Virginia with 1,003 career points during his career at both the University of Houston and Florida State. Also in the Seminoles' game at Wake Forest, sophomore Matthew Cleveland totaled 19 points and 12 rebounds to earn his sixth consecutive double double. He has earned double doubles against Notre Dame on December 21, Duke on December 31, Georgia Tech on January 7 and Wake Forest on January 11 and is the first player in school history with double doubles in four consecutive ACC games.

CLEVELAND PLAYING FOR HIS SEVENTH CONSECUTIVE DOUBLE AGAINST VIRGINIA

Sophomore Matthew Cleveland enters Saturday's game against Virginia having earned six consecutive double doubles in points and rebounds. He's the first Seminole since Greg Grady during the 1974-75 season to earn six consecutive double doubles. As he begins play against the Cavaliers, Cleveland is looking to become the first Seminole since Reggie Royals during the 1971-72 season against Jacksonville, Florida Southern, Pan American, Houston, South Alabama, Tulane and Georgia Tech (January 26 through February 19, 1972) to earn seven consecutive double doubles.

FLORIDA STATE'S RECENT ACC SUCCESS AT THE TUCKER CENTER

Florida State is 52-6 in ACC play at the Donald L. Tucker Center in the last seven seasons. The Seminoles' winning percentage of nearly 90 percent in conference play since the start of the 2016-17 season has made the Tucker Center one of the toughest places to play for ACC opponents. Florida State has lost only two ACC home games (73-69 to Louisville on January 10, 2018, and 80-78 to Duke on January 12, 2019) from the start of the 2016-17 ACC schedule through the Seminoles' victory over Georgia Tech on January 7, 2023. To extrapolate Florida State's winning ways even further, the Seminoles won their final two ACC home games of the 2015-16 season against Notre Dame (77-56 on February 27, 2016) and Syracuse (78-73 on March 5, 2016) to raise their recent conference record at home to 54-6 for a winning percentage to .900.

Seminole Head Coach Leonard Hamilton is not at all accustomed to his players playing as many minutes as they have been asked to play this season. Hamilton asked Seminole great Trent Forrest what he felt the optimum number of minutes a player could play each game, and play well in the Florida State system, at the end of his All-ACC career – Forrest replied in the 23-24 minute range.

Why I Wear My Number

Matthew Cleveland -- I wear No. 35 at Florida State because that is the number I've been wearing since my sophomore year of high school. We won two state championships while I was wearing that number, so I asked if I could wear it when I came to Florida State.

Cameron Corhen -- I wear No. 3 because I think it is a cool looking number. Most recently I wore the No. 3 during the Peach Jam in 2021.

Cam'Ron Fletcher -- I wear No. 21 at Florida State because that's the only number I have ever worn -- I've worn it my whole life and it has gotten me this far.

Jaylan Gainey -- I wear No. 33 at Florida State because it's the number I wore in high school when I was a three-time All-Conference and three-time conference Defensive Player of the Year. I wore No. 22 during my career at Brown.

Darin Green Jr. -- I wear No. 22 at Florida State (and also at UCF) because it's the number my dad wore when he was a collegiate player at George Washington (1995-98).

De'Ante Green -- I wear No. 5 at Florida State because I think it looks like a really cool number. It is the first time in my career I've worn the No. 5.

Tom House -- I wear No. 12 at Florida State because it has always been my favorite number. It's the only number I've ever worn as a basketball player. Not only is it my favorite number, it's my mom's favorite number, too.

Chandler Jackson -- I wear No. 0 at Florida State because it's a tough looking number, and one of my favorite players, Russell Westbrook, wears 0.

Naheem McLeod -- I wear No. 24 at Florida State because it reminds me of Kobe. With him also being from Philadelphia it makes me think my hometown city always has my back.

Baba Miller -- I wear No. 11 at Florida State because I believe that the only person that can stop me from growing and getting better is myself. I identify 1 as myself, so 11 is the representation of me vs me.

Caleb Mills -- I wear No. 4 at Florida State because I to give myself a fresh start at my new school. I have worn either two or three my whole life, and even if they had been available, I would have asked to wear a new number in my first season at Florida State.

Jaylen Warley -- I wear No. 1 at Florida State because it's a number that I played well in when I was younger. I wanted No. 2 (the number I wore in high school but it wasn't available for my freshman season because Anthony Polite wore it.

Leonard Hamilton Will Never Be Defined Simply By Wins; Not Even 600* Of Them

By Corey Clark

Warchant.com

January 7, 2023

Leonard Hamilton said Saturday he had no idea until the game was over, and it was announced over the public address system inside the Tucker Center, that he had just won his 600th career game as a head coach.

That might seem hard to believe if it was coming from another coach.

But when it comes to this particular one, the guy who has been running this program for the last 20 years, well, it's not that hard to believe at all, is it?

Hamilton's time as the Florida State men's basketball coach is going to come to an end relatively soon. He's 74. And even though he still looks younger than me, we all realize that he's probably not going to be leading this program until he's 80.

Nobody knows when or how it will end, but it's undeniable that we're closer to the end of his FSU career than the beginning. Which is why it was so cool for him to have this moment on Saturday, when he not only got to celebrate the 600th* win of his career but the 400th* at Florida State as well.

(These numbers have asterisks next to them because in reality, he's won 622 and 422, respectively, but the NCAA nonsensically took away 22 of his wins back during the tutor-gate fiasco in the 2000s).

This season, clearly, has not gone great. It's going to end up being one of the worst records he has had as a head coach. Because of another rash of injuries, and a half-year suspension to his most talented player, Leonard Hamilton's 21st season as the Florida State head coach has not gone according to anyone's plan.

Unless there's some miracle run led by Baba Miller, who will make his first appearance Wednesday at Wake Forest, the Seminoles (5-11, 3-2 ACC) likely are not going to make the NCAA Tournament; they're probably not going to have a winning record either.

No, this is a column, and really a celebration, of a man who has done so much for so many. A man who has been a consummate professional, a consummate ambassador, a consummate leader for Florida State University.

Leonard Hamilton is a winner. I want that to always be remembered by Florida State fans. Yes, he has his faults. Just like every other coach in the world. He's not perfect. But he made Florida State basketball relevant.

He made it fun.

He put together a program that has given us so many great memories over the last two decades — including the best multi-year run in the history of the school — and I'm glad he got his video tribute after the win over the Yellow Jackets on Saturday. And the loud ovation from the few thousand fans who were still in the building. He deserves it.

Getting to 600* wins is a great accomplishment. Getting to 400* at FSU is, too. Only four other ACC coaches have won more. It's a bummer, truly, that one of his last seasons started like this one did, with losses mounting at a rate we had never seen around here before.

But let's not lose sight of what he's done in Tallahassee, what he's done for the sport, what he's done for so many people. Let's not lose sight of who he is as a person.

Getting to Win No. 600*, in the middle of a maddeningly difficult season, gives us a chance to celebrate Hamilton again.

It will probably come to nobody's surprise that when I asked him about reaching the milestone he talked a whole lot more about the people he coached, and coached with, than he talked about himself. He gave them a lot of credit for that 600* number.

And in typical Hamilton fashion, he also talked about what means the most to him in the grand scheme of his life and career.

"In our world, you guys recognize us for wins and losses," Hamilton said. "That's how we can keep our jobs, that's how we can get recognized. ... But in reality, we have so much more responsibility than winning games. You take a teenager and are ushering him into young adulthood. You're taking them at the most impressionable, most vulnerable time of their lives, and you're trying to get them to grow up in a four-year period that they're working with you. And that's what we focus on every day.

"Now, the byproduct is that hopefully we'll win enough games. But in reality, the fact that we've only had two guys not graduate, in my opinion is much more important to us than 600 wins."

I'm not sure there's a quote that could sum up who Leonard Hamilton is better than this one.

And while I have no idea how much longer he'll be here or how many more milestones he'll reach, I do know that Leonard Hamilton should absolutely never be defined simply by how many games he has won. Not even 600 (ahem, 622) of them.
