While the Seminoles and the Hokies have played seven times since their 2016-17 regular season, this game is only the second between the two teams at Cassell Coliseum. In winning six of the last seven games in the series, Florida State has won both of the last two games at Cassell (January 20, 2018, 91-82; February 1, 2020, 74-63) and are 4-1 against Virginia Tech on its home court since a 70-50 victory on February 5, 2014. Following Saturday's game against the Hokies, the Seminoles travel to play at the 2023 New York Life ACC Tournament at the Greensboro Coliseum in Greensboro, N.C. Florida State plays in the first round on Tuesday at a time, and with an opponent to be decided based upon Saturday's slate of conference games. Saturday is the final day of the regular season for each of the 15 ACC teams.

SEMINOLES RALLY FROM ACC RECORD 25 POINTS TO DEFEAT MIAMI

Florida State trailed Miami at the Watsco Center in Coral Gables on February 25 by a 50-25 margin with 1:29 remaining in the first half – and rallied to win the game on a buzzer-beating 3-point shot by All-ACC candidate Matthew Cleveland. After falling behind by 25 points late in the first half on the road in ACC play, the Seminoles outscored the rival Hurricanes by a 60-34 margin over the final 21:29 of the game. The comeback of 25 points against Miami is the largest comeback in ACC history – giving Head Coach Leonard Hamilton and his staff the two largest comeback victories in the incredibly storied history of the ACC. The Seminoles rallied from 24 points down against North Carolina on January 22, 2004, to defeat the Tar Heels by a 90-81 margin at the Donald L Tucker Center. The third-largest comeback in ACC history is a 23-point recovery by Duke against Louisville on February 13, 2019.

In that game against the Red Storm, Green Jr. scored his career-high of 23 points, while Cleveland scored his career-high of 23 points.

FLORIDA STATE VS. VIRGINIA TECH - THE LAST GAME

Naheem McLeod scored a career-high 15 points, shooting a perfect seven of seven from the field, but Florida State fell to the incredibly hot shooting Hokies of Virginia Tech, 85-72, on January 29, 2022 at the Donald L. Tucker Center in Tallahassee. Playing without three starters for the majority of the game, the Seminoles could not match Virginia Tech's 18 3-point field goals made and .720 shooting percentage from the three-point line. Anthony Polite led the Seminoles in scoring with 17 points and six rebounds. He was five of eight from the field (.625 percent) and two of four from beyond the arc (.500 percent). Polite's second 3-points shot of the game in the second half gave him 100 for his career and allowed him to become the 24th player in school history with at least 100 three-point field goals. The Seminoles started slowly, but went into the locker room at halftime only down 39-31. A McLeod dunk at the 11:55 mark of the second half put Florida State ahead, 54-53. That lead proved to be their final lead of the game. With the score at 62-60 with 7:25 remaining, Virginia Tech went on a 14-0 run that was finished off by Hunter Cattoor's 3-point shot, to increase its lead to 76-60 with 4:39 remaining.

How Steph Curry, An Unorthodox Shooting Method Prepared FSU Men's Basketball Star Darin Green Jr. By Ehsan Kassim
Tallahassee Democrat
January 24, 2023

Darin Green Jr. remembers loving basketball since he was young.

His father played college basketball at George Washington University, while his mom was a high school star. So the basketball gene runs rampant through him.

But how early Green showed his love for basketball surprised even his father, Darin Green Sr.

Green Sr. finished playing in a YMCA basketball game when his son was just 3 years old. He was about to experience his son's ability and love for the game.

"After one of my games, my wife put Darin down on the ground and he ran over to the bench," Green Sr. told the Democrat.

"And at three years old, you are still kind of clumsy. I rolled the basketball out to try to slow him down because he was running so fast. And unbeknownst to me, he actually picked the basketball up and started dribbling with his left hand and ran over to me.

"And I was like, 'Whoa, I didn't even know he could do it.' And from that day, on, all the way to the point where we got in the car until we got home, he literally slept with that basketball. The ball was probably bigger than he was. It was certainly bigger than his head."

Green Jr., who is coming off a 24-point performance in an upset road victory over Pittsburgh on Saturday, will look to push the Seminoles' (7-13, 5-4 ACC) win streak to a season-high three games when they square off against rival Miami (15-4, 6-3) at 7 p.m. Tuesday at Donald L. Tucker Civic Center.

The younger Green is in his first year with the Seminoles after transferring from UCF. He is averaging 14.6 points, 3.1 rebounds and 2.1 assists. He is shooting 42% from 3-point range and 90% from the free throw line, all while averaging 34.1 minutes per game.

Part of the reason Green Jr. chose FSU as his destination is the hope to take his game to the next level and reach the NBA.

"(Head) coach (Leonard) Hamilton and (associate head) coach (Stan) Jones trust me, and they don't hold me back," Green Jr. told the Democrat. "I'm not saying UCF held me back, but I'm in a situation where this offensive system allows more.

"And then of course on the defensive end, we play 94 feet and pressure, everything. So, that allows me to show

3-point shooting first

Green Sr. played at George Washington from 1994-98. He averaged 3.1 points per game in 89 career games. The elder Green saw his playing career impacted by leg injuries. He was an athletic player who made his name with dunks and later developed a jump shot.

So for Green Sr., he wanted his son to develop his jump shot before anything else.

"That's why he taught me how to shoot first so early," Green Jr. said. "Because the athleticism will come as I grow. And then that your athleticism can be taken away from you, but my shot I have that for much longer."

The first lesson for shooting form came early and with an out-of-the-box idea.

A few days following Jr.'s birthday, a few helium balloons that went to the ceiling started losing air and fell to the ground. Green Sr. found an innovative game for him and his son to play.

"What I did was, I actually took one of those balloons and I used it as a basketball. I would shoot it to him right and do the motion so that he could see the arc and the follow through and wait for the balloon to come down, and he had to catch it. And he had to shoot it to me the same way," Green Sr. said.

"So that's how he worked on his form, which is pretty interesting. What is so funny is I never knew that that was

Kicked out by father/coach

It wasn't always fun and games between father and son. Green Jr. will never argue with referees during a game, but that's due to a consequence of a mistake he made when he was 9 during an AAU game.

"My dad threw me out of the gym, in the middle of a game." Green Jr. said. "He literally kicked me out of the gym. I was talking back to a referee. He didn't like it. I remember I tried to say something back to one of the assistant coaches. He kicked me out and told me to go sit in the stands with my mom.

"He gave it to me young, so that way I know not to do it now. That's why I don't say much too much to the refs now."

Green Sr. said a couple of his players were complaining about calls from the refs during the first half, so he told them anyone who spoke back would be thrown out.

"And lo and behold, it's my son that comes out in the second half who had never done anything like this before," Green Sr. said. "I had to make the decision, right, like, I can't go back on that. So I said, 'No, not only do you go in the stands, you go up in the stands with mommy and then you go sit outside the car.'

"Needless to say my wife was pretty mad at me, but the good thing is he's never talked back to a referee ever. Ever since we can laugh at it now but he certainly wasn't laughing."

The call in question was a blocking foul call on Green Jr. He however felt he was in a good position to pick up a

Meeting Steph Curry

Following a move from North Carolina to Florida, Green Jr. fell behind in his grades in the sixth grade. Green Sr. came up with a motivational idea to get his son to perform better in the classroom.

Green Sr. worked with former NBA players Dell Curry and Muggsy Bogues at their summer basketball camps in Charlotte. He also coached a youth team, one which featured current NBA star, Stephen Curry.

That gave the father an incentive idea.

"I told him, 'Hey man if you do well, you start getting straight A's, I'll take you out to a game and we'll get you to go and actually meet Steph Curry since that's your favorite player," Green Sr. said. "And so he basically cashed in on it. So he went from making lower C's and B's to all A's."

The game turned out to be a Warriors game against the Miami Heat, featuring LeBron James and Dwyane Wade. Following the game, Green Jr. got a chance to talk to his favorite player.

"Every shooter could say that they learned from (Curry's) mechanics and shot, how quick he releases his footwork, getting into his shot from different areas on the court," Green Jr. said. "He's known as the greatest

Tony's Ice Cream

Green Jr. took only one visit after he entered the transfer portal: Florida State.

"I tell this joke all the time, coach Ham, he didn't ask me to take a visit. He said, 'You are going to take a visit this weekend,'" Green Jr. said. "So I had no choice. So, I just came on my visit, and I liked what I saw."

On his visit, Hamilton and Green Jr. bonded over the fact both his mom and Hamilton came from the same city: Gastonia, N.C.

Tony's Ice Cream, a local favorite in Gastonia, was one of the common places both Hamilton and Green Jr. had frequented.

"My grandparents still live in Gastonia," Green Jr. said. "So, he and my grandfather actually met each other and they know some of the same people. It's just crazy."

Green Jr.'s maternal grandfather, Fred Smith, ran into Hamilton early in the season and the two had a chance to catch up.

"From the area we grew up in, it was kind of a tough area," Hamilton said. "Those experiences kind of make who you are. I enjoyed talking with his grandfather because we related so much to the same circumstances. I think a lot of that toughness and a lot of that grit that you had to exhibit to get through that era and that location it causes you to have a different mindset.

"That's the kind of mindset he has. He's a tough guy. He accepts challenges, he makes sacrifices. He's always

NBA aspirations

Following the 2020 season, Green Jr. entered his name in the NBA draft to hear feedback about his chances to take the leap. He was coming off a season averaging 10.1 points per game on 41% 3-point shooting as a freshman with the Knights.

It was an opportunity to earn feedback from the league to see what his next steps needed to be.

"They wanted to see more passing and want to see my defensive ability and more creating for myself. They know I can shoot the ball well," Green Jr. said.

Outside of the comfortability factor, Green Jr. said getting to the NBA played a factor in his decision to come to Tallahassee.

Both father and son said two players Green Jr. has molded his game after are current NBA stars: the Washington Wizards' Bradley Beal and New Orleans Pelicans' CJ McCollum.

Green Jr. said he's putting his faith in the coaching staff, which has helped many players get to the league.

"(Coach Hamilton) is always saying we're trying to get somewhere we've never been," Green Jr. said. "But he's been there, we have just put it in his hands, and I feel like he can get me where I need to be."

Game 29 -- Florida State 85, Miami 84

CORAL GABLES, Fla. - Florida State's Matthew Cleveland made a well-contested 3-point shot at the buzzer to give Florida State an 85-84 win over Miami after being down by 25 points in the first half. Cleveland's heroics came directly after a Jordan Miller 3-point shot off of an inbound play that gave the Hurricanes an 84-82 lead. Cleveland than inbounded the ball to guard Jalen Warley and got the ball back as he crossed halfcourt before launching his second career buzzer-beating 3-point game-winning shot. The sophomore also beat Virginia on a nearly-identical shot in Charlottesville during his freshman season. The Seminoles' 25-point comeback is the largest in the history of the storied Atlantic Coast Conference The Seminoles trailed by 25 -- 50-25 -- after Jordan Miller made a free throw to extend the Hurricanes' lead. From that point on, the Seminoles outscored Miami on its home court by a 60-34 margin (6-4 to close the first half and 54-30 in the second half to gain the improbable victory. The Seminoles committed one second half turnover, shot .667 percent from the field (21 of 31) and .833 from the free throw line (10 of 12) to earn their fifth consecutive win on Miami's home court.

Game 30 -- North Carolina 77, Florida State 66

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - North Carolina's RJ Davis scored a game-high 19 points on seven made field goals and two free throws to lead the Tar Heels to a 77-66 victory over the Seminoles at the Donald L. Tucker Center. Davis led four Tar Heels in double figure scoring, Leaky Black (18 points), Caleb Love (16 points), and Pete Nance (15 points) to earn their 11th ACC victory of the season. Junior Caleb Mills led Florida State with 19 points and six rebounds. Sophomore Matthew Cleveland came within one rebound of his 12th double-double of the season as he totaled 12 points and nine rebounds. The Tar Heels took an early 7-2 lead in the opening minutes of the first half. The Seminoles quickly scored back-to-back points to narrow the scoring gap to 7-6. Although North Carolina was off to a hot start with four of five field goals made in the first six minutes, the next four minutes of the half consisted of three turnovers, along with a prolonged scoring drought for the Tar Heels. Florida State took this opportunity to tie the score 12-12 with a made 3-pointer from Chandler Jackson. North Carolina made three field goals within a minute and a half to score nine points versus the Seminoles' zero. This gave the Tar Heels a 10-point lead with less than five minutes remaining in the first half. Scoring six points in 37 seconds, North Carolina's 11-0 scoring run gave them their biggest lead of the game, 43-25, to lead going into intermission. The Seminoles refused to let the first half define them, scoring 41 points in the second half versus the Tar Heels' 34 points. The matchup came down to the final minutes of the game, as Florida State scored 14 points over a three-minute period to narrow North Carolina's lead to only four points.
