MEDIA GUIDELINES

All media who wish to cover FSU athletics will be expected to comply with all the procedures of the University, ACC and FSU Sports Information Office in order to be credentialed. Procedures will be provided in detail at the start of the 2012-13 athletic year.

Interviews

Media interviews with all FSU players and coaches MUST be arranged through the Sports Information Office. Contact Kerwin Lonzo, Football SID via email at klonzo@fsu.edu or by calling (850) 644-5656 to arrange interviews with head coach Jimbo Fisher and Seminole players. Player requests can also be sent to Bob Thomas at bthomas2@fsu.edu. Please give as much advance notice as possible when requesting players for midweek interviews.

Players are available following practice on Mondays and prior (around lunch time) to practices on Tuesdays and Wednesdays. Team locker rooms are off limits to media representatives at all times.

Player's phone numbers will not be given to the media and players should not be called directly or contacted through social media sites to arrange interviews or ask questions.

Head Coach Jimbo Fisher

FSU Head Coach Jimbo Fisher will meet with the media on Mondays during the season. Contact the Sports Information Office or refer to the weekly release for exact times and location for the press conferences which will begin during the week of the first game and run throughout the season.

All interview requests for Coach Fisher are coordinated through Football SID Kerwin Lonzo via email at klonzo@fsu.edu or by calling (850) 644-5656. Coach Fisher will participate in the ACC head coaches' weekly teleconference with the other 11 league coaches each Wednesday. He will also meet with the media immediately following practice Tuesday-Thursday.

Video Services

Florida State's Sports Information Office has the ability to assist networks and television stations by providing video services through Seminole Productions, Inc. (SPI). Please call general manager Mark Rodin at (850) 644-6275 to arrange for these services.

XOS Digital Exchange

The Florida State Sports Information Office has partnered with XOS Digital in order to provide over-the-air television stations with instantaneous access to video content. The partnership involves the use of the company's Digital Media Xchange Server that will allow television stations to pull down video content year round. The data transfer speed is much faster than a traditional FTP service allowing very large files to be downloaded in just minutes.

The password protected video FTP site will be hosting Monday press conferences with Florida State Football Head Coach Jimbo Fisher and the starting quarterback and a Thursday Jimbo Fisher interview.

If you have an interest in creating an account that gives you access to the video weekly, please email Elliott Finebloom (efinebloom@fsu.edu). If you are looking for access just for a particular game week, please email prior to that game to set up a guest account.

Social Media

Florida State Sports Information is making a continued effort in 2012-13 to utilize social media outlets as another way of passing information to our fans and those who cover our programs. Media can receive updated information from the SID office via Twitter by following @FSUSID. Fan feeds for the athletic department (@Seminoles_com) and the football program (@FSU_Football) are available as well. Our Facebook home is located at http://www.facebook.com/FSUSeminoles.

COVERING THE SEMINOLES

Credential Requests
All requests for working press, radio, television, photography or scouting credentials should be directed to our online credentialing site located on the Seminoles.com Media Relations page no later than four days prior to the game. PHOTOS WILL BE REQUIRED AND MUST BE UPLOADED AT THE TIME YOU REQUEST CREDENTIALS. PHOTO MUST BE IN COLOR AND PROVIDE A CLEAR VIEW OF THE FACE. Requests for season credentials should be made at least two weeks prior to the first game. Space for the working press, radio and television is allocated by the FSU Sports Information Office. Any credential questions can be answered by Assistant A.D./SID Elliott Finebloom.

Press Parking
Once again, parking is limited in 2012 and passes will be issued on a priority basis within the same guidelines as working credentials. Press parking is approximately 600 yards from the press box, located in the parking garage just north of the Seminole soccer field on Spirit Way.

Media Will Call
Media Will Call is located near Gate B in the northwest corner of the end zone. Do not enter the stadium but proceed to the right and enter through the external doors marked "Press Entrance" where the media will call table is located right inside the doors.

Press Box
All media, with the exception of the live network telecast crew, will work from the ninth level of the press box. Media can access the press box only through the designated elevator in the northwest tower of the University Center. After parking, media should proceed down Stadium Drive and move towards Gate B in the northwest corner of the end zone. To enter the press box, do not enter the stadium but proceed to the right and enter through the external doors marked "Press Entrance."

Internet Access
Internet access is available in the ninth level press box. Access to the wireless internet requires a proper authorization code which can be picked up at the press table located on the ninth floor as soon as you exit the press box elevator.

Radio-TV
Florida State will host both home and visiting radio in booths in the press box. Network television (or the network broadcasting live) will be working from a mid-field booth on the eighth Level (one below working press). Both home and visiting radio will broadcast from booths at the south end of the ninth level.

Photographers
Florida State reserves the right to admit only those photographers deemed to be on the premises for legitimate media purposes and who are shooting for editorial purposes only. All photographers working FSU games should be prepared to show a media ID card and equipment designed to photograph major college football. Florida State uses a double photo line system on its sidelines. Only those photographers actually shooting the game will be allowed on the "front" line. These shooters will be given photo armbands upon check-in to allow them front line access. All other photo personnel will be required to stay behind a second line as not to obstruct the view of the shooters. This would include grips, runners and sideline reporters. No media personnel are allowed in the team area of the sidelines at any time during a game. Sideline passes for local television will be limited to shooters only. Still photographers may have access to the sidelines only. Those holding a photography credential should report to the Press Box where they will be issued an armband, rosters and a pre-game meal. The only access to the field is through the gate at the northwest corner of the stadium near Gate A. A guarded dark room is available underneath the stadium. The AP Dark Room is located in E 142.

Telephones
Telephone service should be secured directly through the Florida State University Office of Telecommunications at (850) 644-4357. The Telecommunications Office can provide both lines and phones. Orders can also be placed on-line at www.its.fsu.edu. Please make sure to request phone lines at least three days prior to the game.

Postgame Interviews
Florida State's locker room is closed to media following games, both at home and on the road. Coach Fisher will hold his postgame press conference in the media room (second floor turf room of the Moore Athletics Center), while requested players will be brought to the media room to meet with media representatives after Fisher. FSU sports information personnel will take player requests during the fourth quarter of each game.

Digital Media
The Digital Media Department is responsible for presenting the Seminoles online. Offices are located on the second floor of the Moore Athletics Center.

The department manages FSU's official site Seminoles.com, the premium content Seminoles All-Access, official social media platforms for the Seminoles, online stores, auctions, apps, promotional and championship sites.

SEMINOLES.COM ALSO PROVIDES:
- Live game audio featuring "The Voice of the Seminoles" Gene Deckerhoff and William Floyd
- Live video of the Jimbo Fisher Call-In Show
- Live video of the starting quarterback and head coach press conference each Monday
- Gametracker - Live in-game stats
- Live chats before, during and after each game
- Access to the Florida State Seminole facebook and twitter pages (@Seminoles.com; @FSU_Football)
- Roster, Schedules, Media Guides, Game Notes and more.

SEMINOLE IMG SPORTS NETWORK

IMG sports · entertainment · media

IMG College is the leading multimedia, marketing and licensing/brand management company in America representing more than 200 of the nation's top collegiate properties including the NCAA and its 89 championships, NCAA Football, leading conferences, and many of the most prestigious colleges and universities in the country. Headquartered in Winston Salem, N.C., IMG College employs 700 people in nearly 100 offices throughout the U.S. with annual sales of nearly $450 million.

Voice of the 'Noles Still Booming in 34th year

Gene Deckerhoff joined an elite list of esteemed radio broadcasters when he called his 400th Florida State football game against Virginia in 2011. Now in his 34th season, the Jacksonville native and Florida grad moved to Tallahassee for the job he has now held since the 1979 season. Deckerhoff was selected over two other broadcasters of some note - the late Tom Meece, who became a national figure at ESPN, and Craig Sager, who is best known for his NBA work on TBS.

His career got off to a rousing start as the Seminoles went 21-3 over his first two seasons.

The only FSU football games he has missed were bowl games that the school did not have the rights to broadcast; He has also called 1,061 FSU basketball and 473 NFL games as the voice of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

IMG College is the leader in capturing consumer devotion to college sports through partnership opportunities in multimedia rights, licensing, events and hospitality, marketing, stadium and arena development, stadium seating solutions, ticketing, sales, and consulting. IMG College produces nearly 30,000 hours of radio programming on the largest sports network in the country, manages nearly 5,000 hours of local television programming, is the leading publisher of college sports publications, and is the largest manager of university athletic websites. IMG College is a division of IMG Worldwide, a global sports, fashion and media business. For more information, please visit www.imgworld.com. Seminole IMG Sports Marketing is headed up by General Manager, Paul Phipps.

Florida State's broadcast crew is known as one of the nation's best, as it provides insight and entertainment, as well as detailed and expert analysis. The broadcast features award-winning play-by-play announcer Gene Deckerhoff, a 33-year veteran of the Seminole broadcasts heading into his 34th season. Deckerhoff is nationally known as one of the finest announcers in the South. The "Voice of the Seminoles" is a 12-time winner of the NSSA Florida Sportscaster of the Year Award and has been inducted into the Florida Sports Hall of Fame. A native of Jacksonville, Fla., Deckerhoff has been the play-by-play announcer for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers of the NFL for the past 23 years, making for some very busy fall weekends. He runs Gene Deckerhoff Productions, a firm specializing in sports broadcasting and the production of radio and television commercials.

National Champion and Super Bowl winner William Floyd joins Deckerhoff in the booth as the color analyst. Floyd is now in his fifth season broadcasting FSU football games after joining the team in 2008. The former Florida State great is very familiar with the broadcasting world as he has hosted his own radio show in the Bay Area and worked as a reporter and studio analyst for SUN Sports. During the pregame show, Tom Block and Senior Associate Athletic Director Monk Bonasorte join Floyd in providing in-depth analysis of the upcoming game. Florida State's game-day broadcasts begin two hours prior to every kickoff.

THE JIMBO FISHER CALL-IN SHOW

The Jimbo Fisher Show

"The Jimbo Fisher Show," televised throughout the entire state of Florida, features the head football coach of the Florida State Seminoles. Coach Fisher is joined each week on the show by host Tom Block. Every Monday afternoon during football season, Coach Fisher along with Block review the action-packed highlights of the previous week's game.

Jimbo Fisher Call-In Show

On Wednesday evenings, Seminole fans have the chance to visit with FSU head coach Jimbo Fisher and "The Voice of the Seminoles" Gene Deckerhoff during "The Jimbo Fisher Call-In Show" live from Hotel Duval in downtown Tallahassee. Coach Fisher's call-in show is an hour-long broadcast beginning at 7 p.m. The show features Coach Fisher and Deckerhoff talking directly with fans from across the country, touching on game insights, trivia, and random Seminole banter.

NATIONAL MEDIA EXPOSURE

- Excluding BCS bowl games, Florida State has participated in two of the top six most viewed bowl games in the history of ESPN with the 2008 Champs Sports Bowl ranking fourth on the list and the 2010 Chick-fil-A Bowl ranking sixth.
- Excluding BCS bowl games, Florida State is the only school to have played in two of the top nine most viewed ESPN bowl games in the history of ESPN.
- Two of the top three most-watched games in the history of the BCS featured the Seminoles (2000 Sugar Bowl and 2001 Orange Bowl).
- Florida State's 2011 game versus Oklahoma in Tallahassee was the highest-rated ABC college football game since 2009 and the 11th-most viewed program of the week on broadcast TV, the only non-NFL sporting event to make the top 25. It was also the most-viewed regular season single game of the year for ABC.
- The Florida State-Oklahoma and Miami-Ohio State games which both aired at 7:30 p.m. on Sept. 17, 2011 scored the highest combined ratings and were the most viewed of any two regular season college football games aired by ABC and ESPN in 2011.
- Florida State has played on national television 182 times since 1995.
- Florida State appeared in two of the top 10 most-viewed college football games during the 2009 season. The Seminoles' season-opener at home against Miami (ESPN) ranked seventh across all networks and drew a 5.07 rating and was seen in more than 5.8 million homes. FSU's regular-season finale at Florida (CBS) ranked 10th with a 4.70 rating and reached nearly 5.4 million homes and was that network's fourth highest rated game of the year.

- The Jan. 1, 2010 Gator Bowl game between FSU and West Virginia – Bobby Bowden's final game as coach – reached 4.5 million homes. The rating was the second-highest for the Gator Bowl dating back to 2003.
- For the sixth time in eight years, Florida State helped set an attendance record at a bowl game. A crowd of 68,305 turned out for the 2011 Champs Sports Bowl, the largest crowd in the history of the game since moving to Orlando.
- The 2011 Champs Sports Bowl, featuring Florida State and Notre Dame, saw a 55% ratings increase from the game the previous year.

- FSU's 2008 Champs Sports Bowl (vs. Wisconsin) and 2007 Music City Bowl (vs. Kentucky) also earned high marks from the networks. Not only did the 'Noles help set a new Champs Sports Bowl attendance mark, but the 5.20 rating ranked fourth all-time among bowls broadcasted by ESPN. FSU's Music City Bowl appearance against Kentucky boosted ratings for that game by 80 percent over the previous year.

SEMINOLE PRODUCTIONS

Anyone who has visited the second floor broadcast facilities in the Moore Athletics Center has seen them - the two very large, yet overcrowded trophy cases in the Seminole Productions area. That's because each and every year, Florida State's Seminole Productions is recognized for excellence. With an experienced, award-winning staff and talented students, Seminole Productions is viewed as a leader in sports production, graphics, and corporate video. Recently ESPN executives visited the state of the art SP facility and were so impressed, that they set in motion the groundwork to form a strategic partnership with Seminole Productions. ESPN has asked Seminole Productions to produce both live events and show programming for their sports network. In late 2011 and early 2012, Seminole Productions produced three live FSU men's basketball games and also seven live FSU baseball games for ESPN.

Established in 1987, Seminole Productions handles virtually every video production need for Florida State Athletics. It produces the Jimbo Fisher, Leonard Hamilton, Sue Semrau and Mike Martin TV shows, as well as Seminole Sports Magazine and contracted shows for Sun Sports/Fox Sports Florida. Seminole Productions also provides all of the production elements for Seminole Vision, the in-game entertainment productions for all Florida State football, basketball and baseball home contests, in addition to providing visual communication support for the government and other agencies throughout the State of Florida. Creating the perfect blend of high-tech wizardry with outstanding Seminole sports action is a big part of what Seminole Productions is all about

Over the years, Seminole Productions has won over 70 national and international awards in a variety of production and graphics categories. It was recognized for its work with Florida State athletics on both TV programs and for content running on FSU's Big Screen displays. In 2011 producer D.D. Garbarino was nominated for an Emmy Award for Seminole Gametime: Women's Basketball. The program featured an outstanding behind-the-scenes look at the FSU women's team as they participated in the NCAA postseason.

Seminole Productions has also established itself as a leader in stereo 3D (S3D) video production while producing Florida State football's highlight video in S3D. FSU is the only school in the nation to have their football highlights in S3D. Executive Director Mark Rodin continues to test the boundaries of S3D with experimentation in other sports and various programming. Seminole Productions has partnered with several industry leaders in broadcast production to test and evaluate S3D equipment, while seeking new techniques and applications.

Where senior defensive end Brandon Jenkins ranks on the FSU career lists for quarterback sacks (21.5) and tackles for loss (36.5) entering his final season.

Combined career interceptions by veteran FSU cornerbacks Greg Reid (7) and Xavier Rhodes (5) entering the season, to go along with 41 combined career passes defended.

15.1
Points per game allowed by the FSU defense in 2011, which ranked fourth among all NCAA Division I programs.

98
Tackles for loss by the Seminole defense last season, resulting in 447 negative yards for the opposition. FSU returns defenders who were responsible for 78 of those stops behind the line.

121
Florida State quarterback EJ Manuel closed the 2011 regular season with 121 pass attempts without an interception. Manuel's streak covered the final five games of the season when the Seminoles compiled a 4-1 record. The school record for attempts without an interception is 270, set by Drew Weatherford in 2007.

313
Number of punt return yards needed by senior Greg Reid to eclipse Deion Sanders as Florida State's all-time leader. Reid enters the year with 1,117 yards, while Sanders holds the school mark of 1,429.

326
Senior kicker Dustin Hopkins' career scoring total of 326 points is good for a share of fifth all-time in the ACC, along with former Seminole Scott Bentley. Hopkins is on track to eclipse the ACC scoring record of 393 points, held by Maryland's Nick Novak (2001-04). The FSU school record is also 393 points, set by Derek Schmidt (1984-87).

420
Total career starts amassed by those on the 2012 Florida State roster.

.860
The percentage of points the Seminoles return this season – 344 out of 398 – from the 2011 squad. FSU lost only one player – WR Bert Reed (30) – who scored more than six points last year.

2012 PREVIEW

Xavier Rhodes

In two seasons under Jimbo Fisher's direction, the Florida State football program has established a framework for success. The Seminoles have built a deep and talented roster by reeling in consecutive recruiting classes which have ranked among the nation's best, then set out to maximize that roster's potential with a rigorous regimen of physical and mental training.

As the 2012 season unfolds, the Seminoles are bent on fulfilling their potential by maximizing production and achieving at the highest level with greater consistency. Fisher's program has been building for this opportunity, plotting its course with 19 victories - including a pair of bowl wins and consecutive state titles – over the past two seasons, which serve as benchmarks.*

History has shown that experience and defense matters and the Seminoles are long on both counts. FSU returns 19 starters – eight offense, nine defense and two specialists – who were on the field when the Seminoles closed the 9-4 2011 season with an 18-14 Champs Sports Bowl win over Notre Dame. Quarterback EJ Manuel triggers an offense that is long on weaponry at receiver and athletically improved along the offensive line.

More importantly, FSU must replace only three defensive starters from a unit that ranked fourth nationally in total defense (275.0 ypg) and scoring defense (15.08 ppg) and second against the run (82.7 ypg). Matching or improving on that production will go a long way as the 'Noles attempt to reclaim the Atlantic Coast Conference and become a player on the BCS National Championship scene, where dominant defenses have set the stage for title runs.

2012 SEASON PREVIEW

FSU OFFENSE

EJ Manuel

QUARTERBACKS

• EJ Manuel is literally and figuratively the face of the Seminoles' offense. After two seasons of extensive and successful understudy work, he grabbed the reins in 2011 and guided the team to nine victories in 11 starts, completing 65.3 percent of his pass attempts. His 18 touchdowns with just eight interceptions marked a dramatic improvement in efficiency as well. Entering his senior season with 13 starting victories - a .765 winning percentage - and a significant hand in three consecutive bowl wins, Manuel has demonstrated his ability to lead. Strong-armed and mobile, he is quickly ascending the career top 10 lists in virtually every category. He enters the year with an active streak of 121 pass attempts without an interception, which covered the final five games of the 2011 season, when the 'Noles went 4-1.

• Redshirt sophomore Clint Trickett earned his first playing time in 2011 filling in when Manuel was injured against No. 1 Oklahoma. Any doubt that he could lead the team was settled when he passed for 336 yards and three touchdowns in a narrow ACC road loss at Clemson.

• Jacob Coker enters his redshirt freshman season off a solid spring, when he competed with Trickett for back-up honors. Strong-armed and surprisingly nimble for his size, Coker is the likely No. 3 as the season begins, with a solid handle on the playbook. That provides him with a leg up on highly-touted incoming freshman Jameis Winston, who was the nation's top-rated dual-threat quarterback of the 2012 senior class and Sean Maguire, one of the top prospects out of the northeast.

RUNNING BACKS

• Returning five of the top six backs is more a necessity than a commodity for an FSU offense that has adopted a spread-the-wealth approach to carrying the ball in Fisher's system. Not only do the 'Noles return 1,073 rushing yards (74 percent), but also the players who carried the ball over the goal line for 18 of the team's 20 ground scores.

• Sophomore Devonta Freeman is back after producing the fifth-best rushing season (579 yards) by a freshman in school history. His productivity included a team-high eight touchdowns on the ground, to go along with 15 receptions.

• Senior Chris Thompson, who was FSU's most dynamic playmaker out of the backfield in 2010, returns for his final campaign after missing most of 2011 with a back injury. In 2010, he led the team with 845 rushing yards and a whopping 6.3 yards per carry average, aided by three touchdowns of 70 yards or longer.

• While Freeman and Thompson are small in stature, the Seminoles have a pair of big-back options at the tailback slot as well. Sophomore James Wilder Jr. (6-2, 220) was effective in limited action in 2011, moving the pile at the clip of 4.6 yards per carry on 35 totes. Freshman Mario Pender (6-0, 190) enrolled in January and saw substantial action throughout spring practice.

• Lonnie Pryor enters his senior season as the Seminoles most proven fullback, whose versatility and production ranks among the best in the program's history. Beyond bone-crunching blocks at the point of attack, Pryor has piled up 15 career touchdowns – 10 rushing and five receiving. Senior Debrale Smiley, junior Chad Abram and redshirt freshman Eric Beverly provide depth at the fullback spot.

RECEIVERS

• In two seasons, Florida State has completely rebuilt its receiving corps to the point that it now ranks as one of the deepest positions on the roster. The Seminoles return six of their top seven wideouts from 2011, including four players coming off 400-plus yard seasons. Collectively that group combined for 157 receptions for 2,680 yards (17.1 ypc) and 17 touchdowns.

• Coming off one of the finest freshman campaigns in school history, sophomore Rashad Greene figures to be a staple in the FSU attack. The MVP of the Champs Sports Bowl win over Notre Dame, Greene led the team with 596 yards and seven TD receptions – despite missing four games due to injury.

• Senior Rodney Smith, a 6-foot-6 outside target, has 1,016 yards and seven touchdown receptions on his career resume. With size and speed to stretch the field, Smith creates match-up difficulties, which the 'Noles have been able to exploit.

• In two seasons, junior Kenny Shaw has developed a reputation for coming up with tough catches in tight quarters. A precise route-runner, Shaw was one of four 'Noles with four or more touchdown receptions in 2011 and already has 70 career catches.

• As a redshirt freshman, Christian Green's 17.3 yards per catch led all Seminoles with 20 or more receptions. A converted high school quarterback, Green caught 26 balls for 450 yards last season.

• Juniors Greg Dent and Jarred Haggins, similar in size and stature, have been productive, complementary contributors the past two seasons – roles that could expand.

• The Seminoles will add a pair of sizeable additions to the receiving corps mix with the return of redshirt junior Willie Haulstead (6-3, 233) and the debut of redshirt freshman Kelvin Benjamin (6-6, 238) to the unit. Haulstead missed all of last season with a head injury after leading the 'Noles in 2010 with six TD receptions and 38 catches for 587 yards. Benjamin sat out last season but was a dominant force throughout spring practice.

Rashad Greene

TIGHT ENDS

- As a true freshman, Nick O'Leary flashed the toughness and sure-handedness the FSU coaching staff expected when they landed the highly-touted recruit. By the midway mark in the season, O'Leary had entrenched himself as the Seminoles' No. 1 tight end, a role he carries into 2012 after collecting 12 receptions for 164 yards and one touchdown – numbers sure to improve moving forward.
- The Seminoles' experience at tight end begins and ends with O'Leary. The preseason depth chart includes junior Dan Hicks, a productive and athletic defensive end who crossed over to offense in the spring, and redshirt sophomore Will Tye. Neither has a career reception or significant game experience at the position. That could open the door for incoming freshman Christo Kourtzidis to get into the mix.

OFFENSIVE LINE

- The future of Florida State's offensive line may have revealed itself in the Champs Sports Bowl, when the Seminoles sent four freshmen into the starting lineup, joined by graduating senior tackle Zebrie Sanders. After a shaky start, the youngsters – guards Josue Matias and Tre' Jackson, center Austin Barron and right tackle Bobby Hart – settled in and stymied Notre Dame's active defensive front.
- Collectively, FSU's projected starting lineup averages 310 pounds a man. Not only would that be the Seminoles largest line in years, but perhaps also its most athletic.
- As the Seminoles emerged from the spring, a new face had joined the projected offensive line fray. Former defensive tackle Cameron Erving, a gifted athlete and productive, run-stuffing reserve, was drawing rave reviews for his work at left tackle. A redshirt sophomore with a huge frame (6-5, 315) and upside, Erving is expected to fill the void created by Sanders' departure for the NFL.
- While nothing is set in stone, massive sophomores Matias (6-5, 320) and Jackson (6-4, 328) are poised to make their second career starts in the 2012 season-opener. Barron (6-3, 295) is the veteran among the sophomores, with three career starts at center entering the new year.
- The right tackle spot may well fall to the veteran of the unit – redshirt junior Bryan Stork (6-4, 312). Stork has 14 career starts to his credit, including 10 last season between the center and guard positions, but has yet to start at tackle. His experience, intelligence and tenacity adds depth to go along with Bobby Hart (6-5, 318), an nine-game starter as a true freshman.
- For the first time since line coach Rick Trickett arrived prior to the 2007 season, he will have the kind of depth necessary to fill voids and strengthen the unit when the need arises. Redshirt junior Garrett Faircloth (6-7, 302), a six-game starter at right guard last season, can step in at either guard or tackle now that he's recovered from hip surgery. Senior Jacob Fahrenkrug (6-4, 324) started all 12 regular season games last season at either guard or center and can fill several roles. Senior transfer Daniel Glauser (6-6, 322), a junior college All-American, worked extensively at left tackle behind Erving in the spring and is a viable option as well. Another junior college standout in Menelik Watson (6-6, 320) joins the unit in the fall.

FSU Offensive Line

FSU DEFENSE

DEFENSIVE TACKLE/ NOSE GUARD

- The emergence of the Seminoles' defense as one of the nation's elite in 2011 began – as it does with all outstanding units - with its interior line. The collective efforts of a deep rotation, not only to hold the point of attack, but penetrate into the backfield as well, was instrumental in a rushing defense that limited opposing backs to a nation-leading 2.35 yards per carry. Not only did the 'Noles rank second nationally in rushing defense (82.7 ypg), their ability to occupy blocks freed up FSU's furious pass rushers.
- A pair of seniors return in 2012 to provide presence and productivity in the first wave from a deep segment. Defensive tackles Everett Dawkins and Anthony "Amp" McCloud provide the perfect complementary skill set in the middle. In 13 starts last season, Dawkins registered 25 tackles, including three behind the line and two sacks, to go along with an interception, three passes batted down and three quarterback hurries. McCloud, who holds the point of attack in the middle, also registered 25 tackles, including five behind the line of scrimmage.
- One of the keys to FSU's interior defense is its ability to inject fresh faces into the rotation without a fall-off. Sophomore Timmy Jernigan earned freshman All-America honors after leading all interior linemen with 30 tackles, including six for lost yardage. Junior Demonte McAllister has demonstrated a knack for penetrating into the backfield throughout his career and is coming off an outstanding spring, which figures to provide a springboard to a big season.
- Senior Jacobbi McDaniel, who was in the midst of an outstanding season when it was cut short by a season-ending ankle injury at Duke, is slated to back up McCloud. McDaniel has been a fixture in the lineup since arriving as a freshman. Redshirt freshman Nile Lawrence-Stample, a 280-pound linebacker in high school who now tips the scale around 300, is ready to make his Seminole debut. Oft-injured senior Moses McCray, who has started at various points in his career, is quite capable of contributing as well.
- FSU added several potential impact signees in the spring who could also get into the mix, including the nation's top-rated tackle, Eddie Goldman and one of the top tackles out of the state of Alabama in Justin Shanks.

DEFENSIVE ENDS

- In an era where quarterbacks are getting the ball out of their hands quicker than ever, Florida State continues its tradition of producing pass-rushing ends who are capable of changing the game. After leading the nation with 48 sacks in 2010, the 'Noles tacked on 40 more in 2011 at a clip of 3.08 per game, which was good for a share of eighth nationally. Equally important, FSU's ends also played an active role in its second-ranked run-stuffing unit.
- All-ACC senior Brandon Jenkins enters his final season as one of the nation's elite ends after leading the 'Noles with 12 tackles for loss and eight sacks among his 41 stops in 2011. Capable of playing with his hand on the ground or dropping into coverage, Jenkins ranks eighth in FSU history in sacks and tackles for loss from his right end spot.
- Junior left end Bjoern Werner was equally effective from the other side. Blessed with a relentless motor and the strength of an interior lineman, Werner closed his first season as a starter with 37 stops, including 11 for loss and seven sacks, while racking up an unfathomable nine passes defended – eight break-ups and an interception. The Berlin, Germany native also picked up a pair of fumbles, returning one for a score against Clemson.
- Cornellius Carradine quietly authored a rock-solid junior season behind Jenkins. The former JUCO National Defensive Player of the Year contributed 38 tackles to the cause, as he came on strong over the final half of the year, and added eight tackles for loss and 5.5 sacks.
- With Dan Hicks' move to tight end, the 'Noles will also look to get some productive reps from a group that includes redshirt freshman Giorgio Newberry and senior Toshmon Stevens, but heralded signee Mario Edwards Jr. will get a long look as a potential contributor in the preseason, as will classmate Chris Casher.

LINEBACKERS

- The coaching staff must find a way to replace graduated weakside linebacker Nigel Bradham, the first 'Nole to lead the team in tackles for three consecutive seasons since Marvin Jones. The first step came in the spring when junior Christian Jones slid over from the strong side spot he held down last season. Jones' move also opened the door for former safety Nick Moody to bring his hard-hitting persona closer to the line of scrimmage as the likely successor on the strong side. How those changes play out, around middle linebackers Telvin Smith and Vince Williams – who split repetitions last season – will play a major role in FSU's defensive effectiveness.
- Jones has all the makings of a perfect fit to succeed Bradham. Tall and rangy, with the speed to play in space, he should be freed up to significantly increase his quietly effective 2011 totals. A year ago he registered 56 stops and also led the team with a pair of forced fumbles.
- Limited by injury last season, Moody is ready to return to his 2010 form, when he amassed 79 tackles which ranked third on the team. Not only is the senior a ferocious hitter, he also has experience in coverage, which should help him make the transition to the strong side spot.

Everett Dawkins

• Smith (6-3, 209) and Williams (6-1, 245) are a contrast in both size and playing style. Blessed with a great burst and a knack for finding the ball, Smith put up 42 tackles in a reserve role, highlighted by eight tackles for loss (three sacks) and shared the team lead with two fumble recoveries. Williams, who made 12 starts in the middle, piled up a career-high 54 tackles as a prototypical in-the-box stopper.

• The Seminoles remain especially thin in the linebacker corps with redshirt sophomore Nigel Terrell and redshirt freshman Terrance Smith listed as the backups on the outside, which could open the door for newcomers Ukeme Eligwe and Reggie Northrup.

SECONDARY

• For the second consecutive season, defensive coordinator Mark Stoops' secondary emerged as the most improved segment on the field, and there's ample evidence that the group can collectively continue that ascent. Despite the loss of cornerback Mike Harris and safety Terrance Parks, the 'Noles have a wealth of experience. Returning corners Greg Reid and Xavier Rhodes, second-year strong safety Lamarcus Joyner – a second-team All-ACC pick – and free safety Terrence Brooks, who steps up from a reserve role, make up a formidable starting unit. Collectively they helped limit opponents to 15 touchdown receptions – seven of which came in consecutive losses to Clemson and Wake Forest.

• In Reid and Rhodes, a senior and junior, respectively, the Seminoles have arguably the top cornerback tandem in the ACC. Fearless from his field corner position, Reid has collected seven career interceptions and 27 passes defended. Rhodes (6-2, 205) locks down the boundary corner and is both outstanding in run support (101 career tackles/85 solos), but also has 17 passes defended, including five interceptions in just two seasons.

• FSU's secondary improvement in 2011 can be directly traced to the decision to move the diminutive Joyner (5-8, 193) from cornerback to strong safety. Not only did his significant ball skills – team-best four interceptions – pay off, he also pitched in 54 tackles. Brooks' stock steadily climbed throughout last season and he parlayed a strong spring into the starting nod at free safety. In limited action he registered six passes defended; none bigger than his first career interception – an end zone snare – to seal FSU's bowl win over Notre Dame.

2012 SEASON PREVIEW

FSU SPECIAL TEAMS

SPECIALISTS

• After fielding arguably the nation's best special teams segment in 2011, the Seminoles must fill one substantial hole in 2012 following the departure of All-America punter Shawn Powell to the NFL. Fortunately, the 'Noles still have 2011 Groza Award finalist and senior Dustin Hopkins handling all of the kicking duties, while Dax Dellenbach returns for his third season as the deep snapper. Then there's the return game, where Greg Reid remains one of the most dangerous punt returners in the country, while Karlos Williams leads a long list of quality kickoff return candidates.

• With three outstanding seasons behind him, Hopkins is poised to become the most prolific kick scorer in Florida State and ACC history. His 326 career points rank fifth in ACC history, putting both the league and school records of 393 well within reach. Furthermore, his experience, leg strength and versatility on kickoffs will no doubt lend a hand in light of kickoff rule changes in 2012.

• Reid is fast closing on Deion Sanders' school record for punt return yardage and like Prime Time, has a knack for making the big play when the ball is in his hands, with three career touchdown returns to his credit. His most likely back-up is sophomore Rashad Greene, who is equally slippery if no less dynamic.

• The kickoff return duties could be handled by committee. Williams averaged 23.2 yards per return as a freshman and flirted with several game-breakers, while Lamarcus Joyner led the team with a whopping 30.5 average. The addition of national class sprinter/wide receiver Marvin Bracy could also prove helpful.

• Replacing Powell will be no small feat. Not only did the first consensus All-America punter in school history lead the nation with a 47.0 average and pin opponents inside their own 20 40-percent of the time, he also handled all of the holding chores. Freshman Cason Beatty was signed to fill the void and was the beneficiary of enrolling in time to participate in spring practice. He could be pushed by walk-on Dillon Kidd. The holding duties will likely fall to redshirt sophomore Chris Revell.

41 • Chad Abram

- FB, 6-0, 235, JR
- Lakeland, Fla./Kathleen

2012 OUTLOOK: Junior fullback who has continued to develop after making the switch from safety last season. Tremendous special teams player who is part of kickoff return, punt return and kickoff coverage units. Displays good power and burst and has a knack for blocking. His athleticism and ability to catch the ball out of the backfield are added pluses on offense.

2011: Played in 11 games, mainly on special teams, where he made his biggest impact and registered five tackles…started on three of four phases of special teams…serving as an edger on kickoff coverage, one of the back ends on kickoff return excelling as a top blocker and one of the top coverage guys on punt return usually responsible for manning the opponent's best coverage player…made the switch to fullback from safety and carried twice on the season gaining five yards…first career carry came against NC State for two yards and added his second for a career-long of three yards against Notre Dame in the Champs Sports Bowl.

Chad Abram

2010: True freshman defensive back who played in 12 games, all on special teams … registered first career tackle in the season opener against Samford.

PERSONAL: Committed to Florida State in March 2009...held a three-star ranking from both Rivals and Scout.com...No. 64 player in state by Rivals...No. 13 safety prospect according to ESPN...a standout on special teams with a knack for blocking kicks...blocked five kicks and collected five interceptions as a junior for the Red Devils... missed first three games of his senior season with hand injury...credited with 30 tackles, two interceptions and seven pass breakups...Florida Super 75 selection by the Florida Times-Union newspaper, where he ranked No. 5 among safeties...No. 48 rated player on Bill Buchalter's Florida Top 100, where he ranked as the No. 4 safety...first team All-Polk selection...born May 22, 1991.

62 • Austin Barron

- OL, 6-3, 295, SO
- Fort Lauderdale, Fla./St. Thomas Aquinas

2012 OUTLOOK: Smart interior lineman, who made an immediate impact at the center position as a true freshman, earning three starts. Heads into 2012 as the starter, solidifying his role after a strong close to the 2011 season and a good spring practice.

2011: Gained invaluable experience at the center position as a true freshman...played in nine games, including three starts…one of four freshmen starters in the Champs Sports Bowl against Notre Dame…had the second-highest grade among freshmen against the Irish (73), with one missed assignment in 62 snaps…with just 38 snaps under his belt, was thrust into the starting lineup due to injury at Boston College…was remarkably effective against the Eagles, posting a season-high grade of 81 percent over 54 plays… was perfect on snaps and committed just two missed assignments while grading out at 92 percent on passing plays… earned a second consecutive start against Miami but was replaced by starter Bryan Stork in the early going…made impressive physical gains over the summer prior to his freshman season after arriving at FSU with little fanfare…earned one of six freshman academic awards at the team's annual banquet for his work in the classroom.

PERSONAL: Sleeper offensive lineman in the class of 2011, who had a coming out party as a senior...showed to be quick on his feet and exhibited toughness in the trenches...helped St. Thomas Aquinas to a Class 5A state title in 2010, which included helping the offense rack up 5,612 yards of total offense...named to EliteScoutingServices Class 5A All-Tournament Team...ranked No. 40 on the Sun Sentinel's Broward County Top 50 List...joined fellow teammates Bobby Hart and Rashad Greene in the 2011 FSU signing class...another one of veteran offensive line coach Jay Connolly's products, which include former Seminole and Green Bay Packer offensive lineman Andrew Datko and former Seminole and Buffalo Bills deep snapper Garrison Sanborn...also played third base for St. Thomas Aquinas' baseball team... member of the 2010 SunStateFootball All-State Finals First Team Offense…born Oct. 19, 1992.

1 • Kelvin Benjamin

- WR, 6-6, 238, R-FR
- Belle Glade, Fla./Glades Central

2012 OUTLOOK: Tall, physical receiver who has deceptive speed and a great ability to attack the ball in the air. Benefitted from a redshirt season by gaining more knowledge of a very extensive playbook which allowed him to excel during spring practice. Adds more depth to one of the strongest units for the Seminoles. Is expected to create match-up problems as the Noles will be able to use him in a variety of packages because of his size and hands.

2011: Redshirt season

PERSONAL: Played only three years of football at perennial power Glades Central, a perennial power…four-star recruit who was rated the No. 8 wide receiver and the No. 60 overall player nationally by Rivals.com and the No. 12 receiver by Scout.com…rated the No. 23 wide receiver nationally by ESPN…ranked as the No. 13 wide receiver and the No. 89 player nationally according to 247Sports…hauled in 30 catches for 551 yards and six touchdowns in just eight games as a senior…No. 2 on the Sun Sentinel's Top 32 Broward County Seniors…named First Team All-Palm Beach County by Sun Sentinel… No. 25 on Bill Buchalter's Florida Top 100 for the Orlando Sentinel…No. 36 on Mobile Press-Register Super Southeast 120…member of the Times-Union's Florida Super 75 where he was rated as the No. 1 wide receiver…Palm Beach Post All-Area First Team… No. 72 on Tom Lemming's MaxPreps.com Top 100…No. 42 on the SuperPrep Florida 110…born Feb. 5, 1991.

29 • Eric Beverly

- RB, 5-9, 234, R-FR
- Jacksonville, Fla./First Coast

2012 OUTLOOK: Reserve fullback, who spent his first season learning behind veteran players Lonnie Pryor and Debrale Smiley. Added strength and size after primarily being a running back in high school. Looks to carry over momentum from a productive spring practice which saw him gain a majority of reps while blocking for his fellow unitmates, Pryor and Smiley, who were forced into running back roles due to injuries this past spring.

35 • Nick O'Leary

- TE, 6-4, 245, SO
- Palm Beach, Fla./Dwyer

2012 OUTLOOK: One of the top sophomore tight ends in the country who is the lone experienced tight end on the roster. Hard-nosed, old-school player who doesn't wear gloves and possesses strong hands with a knack for finding the ball whenever it comes in his direction. Displays great versatility which allows him to flex out wide as a receiver, line-up close on the line or be used in the backfield as a H-Back.

2011: True freshman tight end who played in all 13 games and registered a pair of starts - his first career start coming on the road at Clemson and another start at Duke… led all FSU tight ends with 12 receptions and 164 yards (13.7 ypc)…had a pair of three-reception games which included the 38-7 win at Boston College, when he finished with a team-leading and career-high 87 receiving yards…hauled in a career-long 58-yard reception against the Eagles which was the longest by an FSU tight end since Lonnie Johnson in 1993…earned ACC Rookie of the Week honors after his performance at Boston College… also collected three receptions in his first start at Clemson… had two catches in the opening quarter of the game against No. 1 Oklahoma…did not record a reception in the home win over Miami, but his recovery of a game-sealing onside kick was called the "play of the game" by coach Jimbo Fisher...first career touchddown reception - a three-yard catch - came on the road at Duke....voted a Top Newcomer on offense at the team's annual banquet.

Nick O'Leary

PERSONAL: The top-rated tight end prospect in the country, who presents matchup problems with his athleticism...as a senior, caught 51 passes for 875 yards and 12 touchdowns in helping lead Dwyer to the 2010 Class 4A state football semifinals...helped Dwyer win the 4A title in 2009...U.S. Army All-American...Rivals ranked him as the No. 1 tight end and No. 33 player overall while Scout.com had him the No. 3 tight end and the 62nd best player in the nation...rated a five-star prospect, the No. 1 tight end and the No. 16 overall player in the nation by 247Sports...All-USA Second Team offense by USA Today...No. 20 on the ESPNU 150 and rated the No. 2 tight end prospect...No. 74 on Tom Lemming's MaxPreps.com 2011 Top 100...Sun Sentinel Super 11 selection...No. 1 on the Sun Sentinel's Top 32 Broward County Seniors...No. 3 on Bill Buchalter's 2011 Florida Top 100 for the Orlando Sentinel...No. 39 on Mobile Press-Register Super Southeast 120...First Team All-Palm Beach County by Sun Sentinel...also excelled as a punter and special teams player... member of the Florida Times-Union's Florida Super 75 where he was rated as the No. 1 tight end...Palm Beach Post All-Area First Team...No. 10 on the SuperPrep Florida 110... Grandson of legendary golfer Jack Nicklaus...born August 31, 1992.

59 • Henry Orelus

- OL, 6-3, 328, R-JR
- Belle Glade, Fla./Glades Central

2012 OUTLOOK: Another versatile offensive lineman who can play either inside at guard or outside at tackle. Experienced lineman in the system, who was limited in spring practice after returning to action after missing the 2011 season.

2011: Sat out the season after suffering a preseason concussion.

2010: Redshirt freshman who was forced into duty after some injuries on the offensive line...played in 13 games and made four starts - three at left tackle and one at right guard..played 229 snaps with his best game coming against Samford when he graded out at 78 percent...totaled five knockdown blocks.

2009: Spent his redshirt season working at a variety of positions along the offensive line...did not play a snap, though he did dress and travel to several road games late in the year.

PERSONAL: A versatile offensive lineman who excelled at center, but was projected to play guard...a first-team All-County selection by the Palm Beach Post...was the lone junior selected to the Palm Beach County Super 11 team...participated in the Treasure Coast and Outback All-Star games...his coach at Glades Central was former Seminole Jessie Hester...played on both sides of the line at Glades Central...chose FSU over LSU, Tennessee and Auburn...born November 27, 1989.

56 • Trey Pettis

- OL, 6-5, 342, R-FR

DeLand, Fla./DeLand

2012 OUTLOOK: Young offensive lineman, who saw a lot of reps in the spring while serving as a reserve at guard. Another big interior lineman for the Seminoles that has quick feet.

2011: Redshirt season.

PERSONAL: Enrolled early in January 2011...standout offensive lineman who split time between tackle and center as a senior for DeLand High School, where he was coached by his father, Kevin Pettis...played a prominent role in DeLand's resurgence as the program compiled a 22-5 record over his seasons...named an Under Armour All-American and took part in the All-American Game on Jan. 5...three-star recruit who was rated the No. 8 center by ESPN, No. 10 by Scout.com and No. 13 by Rivals.com... also a three-star prospect by 247Sports...First Team All-County by Daytona Beach News-Journal in 2009 and 2010...started 43 varsity games -- 38 at DeLand...selected for the FACA North-South All-Star Game...No. 43 on Bill Buchalter's 2011 Florida Top 100 for the Orlando Sentinel...No. 105 on the SuperPrep Florida 110...No. 6 on Orlando Sentinel's 2011 Central Florida Super60...named first team All-Central Florida and first team All-Volusia County by Orlando Sentinel...member of the Times-Union's Florida Super 75 where he was rated as the No. 2 center...born June 11, 1992.

24 • Lonnie Pryor

- RB, 6-0, 229, SR
- Okeechobee, Fla./Okeechobee

2012 OUTLOOK: Versatile back who is considered the unsung hero for the Seminoles' offense as a punishing lead blocker now entering his second season as the full-time starter at fullback. Continues to thrive as a blocker using good technique with his hands and body leverage which has allowed him to earn back-to-back Mr. Skill Blocker Awards at the last two team end-of-the-season banquets.

2011: Started eight of 13 games for the Seminoles and rushed for touchdowns versus NC State and Boston College giving him 10 career rushing touchdowns...caught a touchdown pass against Charleston Southern giving him five career receiving touchdowns and 15 total career touchdowns...had a much bigger impact carrying the ball over the last eight games...had just two rushes and two catches in the first five games of the season before adding 25 carries in the last eight games including multiple carries in five of those eight contests… finished the season with 27 carries for 74 yards (2.7 ypc)…picked up three awards at the team's annual banquet – Mr. Skill Blocker Award, one of two leadership awards for the offense and one of two attitude awards for the offense.

Lonnie Pryor

2010: Primarily served as the Seminoles' lead blocker from the fullback slot...his versatility drew comparisons from coach Jimbo Fisher to former FSU back Edgar Bennett...shared the team lead in touchdowns with seven (four rushing, three receiving)...had a pair of two-touchdown games with two through the air in the opener against Samford and two rushing against North Carolina... Pryor's most productive rushing game by yards came against Maryland when he ran the ball three times for 45 yards...had 112 rushing yards on 23 carries on the season (4.9 avg)...added 69 receiving yards on 12 catches on the year...pushed his career touchdown total to 12.

2009: The only true freshman on offense to play in all 13 games...his four starts were the most by any true freshman...ranked third on the team with four rushing touchdowns and fifth with 156 rushing yards...scored two touchdowns in the BYU and Maryland victories, highlighted by his game-winning 3-yard plunge against the Terrapins with 1:14 remaining to secure a bowl berth...earlier in the Maryland game Pryor flashed his big-play ability when he raced 50 yards with a downfield option pitch from quarterback EJ Manuel for a touchdown...also established himself as an effective pass receiver out of the backfield, collecting 10 receptions for 132 yards on the season...his season-long 49-yard reception resulted in a touchdown pass from Christian Ponder at Clemson...he also returned four kickoffs for 21 yards on the season.

PERSONAL: Ranked as the nation's 15th best running back according to Rivals.com and was a consensus four-star prospect...the Okeechobee High School standout was awarded Offensive Player of the Year honors by the Palm Beach Post and the Scripps Treasure Coast newspapers...rushed for 2,281 yards and 20 TDs as a senior...participated in the Offense-Defense All-American Bowl...earned 4A All-State honors twice after piling up more than 4,000 rushing yards and 40 TDs over his final two seasons...chose FSU after entertaining 17 FBS offers, including Florida, South Carolina, North Carolina, Boston College and Wake Forest...born February 22, 1990.

28 • Nigel Terrell

- LB, 6-1, 235, R-SO
- Helena, Ala./Pelham

2012 OUTLOOK: Young linebacker who took a lot of reps in spring and left as the backup at weakside linebacker. Looks to build on that momentum in the fall as he heads into his third season in the program. Has a good combination of speed and athleticism.

2011: Saw action in four games and recorded one tackle against Charleston Southern.

2010: Redshirt season

PERSONAL: Alabama native who was given a three-star ranking by both Rivals and Scout.com...Rivals rated him the No. 65 outside linebacker in the nation and No. 26 prospect in Alabama...checked in as No. 46 outside linebacker prospect nationally by Scout...ESPN ranked Terrell the No. 11 outside linebacker and No. 120 prospect overall...moved from safety to linebacker as a junior in 2008 and responded with 101 tackles, including 65 solo stops, 14 tackles for loss, three sacks and an interception... selected as a member of the Birmingham News Senior Pre-Season Second Dozen... stuck with verbal commitment to FSU made in August 2009, despite a strong push from Colorado and Ole Miss...born December 16, 1990.

4 • Chris Thompson

- RB, 5-8, 187, SR
- Greenville, Fla./Madison County

2012 OUTLOOK: Veteran of a young running back unit who looks to bounce back from a back-injury in 2011. Has great abilityto find a seam inside, turning the corner or hauling in a pass. Despite missing spring practice, heads into 2012 at the top of the depth chart and has a great understanding of the offense. Shows tremendous quickness and has a history of being a home run threat when he gets the ball in his hands. Makes the switch from No. 23 and will don a new No. 4 jersey on offense to go along with defensive end Brandon Jenkins.

2011: The 2010 Chick-fil-A Bowl Offensive MVP was one of the team's top tailbacks before breaking his back versus Wake Forest on his first carry of the game…played in the first five games and started twice (Clemson, Wake Forest)…eclipsed 1,000 yards for his career on his first carry of the first quarter versus Charleston Southern...played in just five games but was third on the team in average per game (16.6) and rushing touchdowns (1)...fourth on the team in carries (29) and yards (83)...led FSU with 33 yards rushing on just six carries versus ULM…was only Seminole running back to carry the ball at Clemson, totaling 36 yards on 11 carries and it is believed to be the first time in school history that one player (other than the QB) recorded every rush in a game for FSU... received one of three unselfish leadership awards at the team's annual banquet.

2010: Sophomore tailback who led the Seminoles in rushing with 845 yards on 134 carries, including a single-season best five rushing touchdowns...Thompson's 6.3 yards per carry was the highest by an FSU back with 100 or more carries in a season since Leon Washington averaged 6.9 in 2004...though he appeared in all 14 games, Thompson had just six starts and shared the rushing load with tailbacks Jermaine Thomas and Ty Jones...displaying sprinter speed he logged the ACC's longest touchdown run of the season - a 90-yard dash against Miami - which is also the third-longest TD run from scrimmage in FSU history...Thompson also scored on runs of 83 (BYU) and 70 (Maryland) yards...ranked second on the team with eight plays covering 25 or more yards, all on runs from scrimmage...posted his first 100-yard rushing performance against BYU (9-123) when he averaged 13.7 yards per carry...eclipsed that mark with a career-high 158 yards on 14 totes in the win over Miami (11.3 ypc)...named Chick-fil-A Bowl Offensive MVP after logging 147 yards on a career-high 25 carries...a dual-threat back, Thompson led all FSU backs with 19 receptions for 155 yards, including his first career TD reception from EJ Manuel (20 yards) in the ACC Championship game...also collected a career-high five receptions against the Hokies...his career-high for receiving yards is 54 (on four receptions) set against Samford in the season-opener.

2009: Played in 11 games and missed two games due to a death in the family...had two carries for 20 yards and also caught one pass for nine yards in a Gator Bowl win over West Virginia...scored two touchdowns both coming in a victory over NC State...one of two true freshmen to record 100 or more yards rushing...finished sixth on the team with 120 rushing yards on 23 carries (5.2 ypc)...also caught two passes...had the second longest rush of the season with a 49-yard run in the Georgia Tech game...recorded six kick returns for 150 yards, including a long of 33 yards, and averaged 25.0 yards per return.

Chris Thompson

PERSONAL: Ranked as the nation's second best all-purpose player coming out of Madison County High School where he was a teammate of defensive tackle Jacobbi McDaniel...a four-star prospect who earned PrepStar and Under Armour All-American honors...battled ankle injuries throughout his senior season...rushed for 2,300 yards and 33 TDs in leading his team to the state championship...ran for 203 yards and two TDs in the 2007 state championship game...an outstanding high school sprinter who logged a personal-best time of 10.4 in the 100 meter dash as a senior...selected FSU over Miami, Florida and Clemson...born October 20, 1990.

Jimbo Fisher carried the momentum of his first season through his second year at the helm of the Florida State football program in 2011 and heads into his third season in 2012 with a program back in the national spotlight.

After 22 seasons as a college assistant, including three as FSU's offensive coordinator, Fisher succeeded Bobby Bowden – the second winningest coach in major college football. The Seminoles' first new coach in 35 years, and just the ninth in program history, hit the ground running in 2010 and has not looked back.

With a 19-8 career record already at FSU, Fisher has produced the best two-year start in Seminole history. Considered to have one of the best offensive minds in the college ranks, Fisher's early success has come on the heels of his team's defenses and special teams. His last two recruiting classes have stockpiled defensive talent. Florida State's defense tied for the nation's lead in sacks (48) his first season before having a breakout season in 2011. FSU's run defense allowed opposing backs to average just 2.35 yards per carry, which led all 120 FBS programs. The Seminoles ranked fourth nationally in total defense (275.0), second in rushing defense (82.7), fourth in scoring defense (15.1), eighth in tackles for loss (8.62) and tied for eighth in sacks (3.08 per game) in 2011. The Seminoles led the ACC in eight different defensive categories. Linebacker Nigel Bradham became the first Seminole in 20 years - since All-American Marvin Jones – to lead the team in tackles for three consecutive years. Bradham was FSU's highest NFL draft selection in 2012 going in the fourth round to the Buffalo Bills and was joined by fellow draftees Zebrie Sanders (5th round, Buffalo Bills), Mike Harris (6th round, Jacksonville Jaguars) and Andrew Datko (7th round, Green Bay Packers). Fisher also had arguably the best kicking tandem in the nation in punter Shawn Powell, who left FSU as a consensus All-America punter, and kicker Dustin Hopkins, a 2011 finalist for the Lou Groza Award who is on pace to become the Seminoles all-time leading scorer in 2012.

But Fisher's knowledge of offenses is still where FSU will thrive. On the heels of adding his 11th quarterback prodigy to the National Football League in 2011 first round pick Christian Ponder, quarterback EJ Manuel is the most accurate passer (66.1 career completion percentage) in FSU history heading into his final season in 2012 as well as ranking 10th all-time in career completions, 11th all-time in career passing yards and 18th all-time in touchdown passes. Receiver Rashad Greene burst onto the scene in limited game action in 2011 and put together one of the best seasons ever by an FSU freshman. Greene posted the second-most receptions (38), receiving touchdowns (7) and third-most receiving yards (596) by an FSU freshman and ranked among the top five freshmen nationally in receiving touchdowns. That coupled with running

A CLOSER LOOK

- Became just the third coach in school history to record multiple shutouts in the first two years of his tenure at Florida State. The Seminoles earned shutouts against Wake Forest (Sept. 25, 2010), ULM (Sept. 3, 2011) and NC State (Oct. 29, 2011) in the first 22 games of his career. Only Bill Peterson (1960 and 1961, four shutouts) and Don Veller (1948 and 1949, five shutouts) join Fisher as coaches with multiple shutouts in the first two years of their Florida State careers.
- With FSU's 34-0 victory over ULM in 2011 season opener, Fisher became the second-winningest head coach after 15 games in FSU history with an 11-4 record.
- The Seminoles swept Miami and Florida in back-to-back seasons for the first time since 1998 and 1999.
- Named the 2010 Football Writer's Association of America's Freshman All-America Team Coach.
- Won the most games (10) by a first-year coach in Florida State history and tied for second most by a rookie coach in ACC history.
- Put together back-to-back top five recruiting classes with the 2011 class ranking either first or second nationally by ESPN.com, Scout.com and Rivals.com and the 2012 class ranking No. 2 by ESPN.com.

- Led FSU to its 30th consecutive bowl appearance - the longest active streak in the nation and second all-time to Nebraska's 35 and extended the Seminoles streak of winning four consecutive bowl games which also is the longest active streak in the nation.
- Led FSU to first ACC Atlantic Division title since 2005 and first season sweep of Miami and Florida since 1999 in 2010. In posting the first season sweep of in-state rivals Florida and Miami, he joined former Florida coaches Ray Graves (1960) and Galen Hall (1985) as the only men in the state to pull off the feat as a first-year coach. The 52-point combined margin of victory over the rival Hurricanes and Gators was the widest margin in a season sweep by the Seminoles.
- Guided FSU to its best home record (6-1) in 2010 since posting 6-0 marks at Doak Campbell Stadium in 1999 and 2000.
- By winning six of his first seven games in his first year, joined former FSU coaches Don Veller (`48) and Larry Jones (`71) to notch that feat as a first-year coach with the `Noles.
- Responsible for developing FSU QB Christian Ponder who, as a second-year starter, led the ACC in total offense and passing yards per game in 2009. Ponder capped off his senior season in 2010 by becoming the 12th overall pick of the Minnesota Vikings in the 2011 NFL Draft.
- As FSU's offensive coordinator from 2007-09, the Seminoles improved each season to rank among the ACC leaders in total offense.
- Offensive coordinator for the 2003 National Champion LSU Tigers.
- Coached three players selected in the first round of the 2007 NFL draft including No. 1 overall pick JaMarcus Russell.

back Devonta Freeman's freshman campaign in 2011 which saw him run for the most yards (579) by a freshman since Travis Minor in 1997 shows that Fisher's offenses are continuing to be a force to reckon with in college football.

"We worked together for five years. He did a fabulous job for us at LSU as the offensive coordinator. I think he's got all the right stuff to be a great head coach. I know he's turned down other opportunities to stay at Florida State and we're happy he's getting the opportunity as a head coach."

- NICK SABAN
ALABAMA HEAD COACH

Fisher wrapped up his second season at the helm of the FSU program by guiding the Seminoles to a 9-4 record, capped by their 18-14 victory over Notre Dame in front of a Champs Sports Bowl record crowd. Florida State closed the year ranked No. 23 in both the Associated Press and USA Today Coaches polls after cashing in on their nation-leading 30th consecutive bowl appearance. It was a fitting finish to a season that saw the Seminoles successfully defend their state title, sweeping both Miami and Florida for a second consecutive season - something that had not been done since the 1998 and 1999 seasons.

The Seminoles displayed tremendous resolve throughout the 2011 campaign, winning seven of their final eight games after getting off to an injury-riddled, 2-3 start.

Florida State's success under Fisher has not been unexpected. Fisher set the standard for expectations in his first season, delivering the Seminoles back to a place of national prominence with a 10-4 record in 2010. FSU capped the season with a 26-17 win over No. 19 South Carolina in the Chick-fil-A Bowl and finished at No. 16 in the USA Today Coaches Poll. In addition to his season sweep of in-state rivals Miami and Florida, the Seminoles won the ACC Atlantic Division title en route to their first 10-win season since 2003.

Fisher won the most games (10) by a first-year coach in Florida State history and is tied for the second-most by a rookie coach in ACC history. He was named the 2010 Football Writers Association of America's Freshman All-America Team Coach.

Three of his players in 2010 earned All-America honors: offensive guard Rodney Hudson (consensus All-America selection), defensive end Brandon Jenkins and cornerback Xavier Rhodes. Rhodes was named the ACC Rookie of the Year and National Defensive Freshman of the Year. Fisher capped off the 2010 season with three seniors selected in the 2011 NFL Draft led by quarterback Christian Ponder - the No. 12 overall pick in the draft by the Minnesota Vikings. Ponder became the highest offensive player to go for the 'Noles since offensive lineman Alex Barron in 2005. Before Ponder, Gary Huff was the highest drafted FSU QB as the 33rd overall pick in the second round of the 1973 draft.

THE FISHER FILE

Position:	Head Coach
Coaching Experience:	25th season, 6th at Florida State (3rd as Head Coach)
Hometown:	Clarksburg, WVa.
Alma Mater:	Salem (W.Va.) '89
Birthdate:	October 9, 1965
Family:	wife Candi Fisher; sons Trey (11) and Ethan (7)

Fisher carried the success of his first season onto the recruiting trail as he put together a 2011 recruiting class ranked either first or second nationally by ESPN.com, Scout.com and Rivals.com. He did it again in 2012 with a recruiting class ranked second nationally by ESPN.com. While maintaining the core values that Bowden instilled over the course of his 34 seasons in Tallahassee, Fisher has a simple explanation for the sweeping changes he has brought to the program: You don't run a business the same way today as you did 5-10 years ago.

He has carefully crafted his vision by borrowing from two men – Nick Saban and Bowden – he worked under. Their influence, though very different, can be seen sprinkled throughout Fisher's own blueprint for success. Fisher has not wasted any time putting his stamp on the Seminoles. From assembling a staff of energetic, ambitious assistants, to dramatically overhauling the program's infrastructure, he has left no stone unturned. His attention to every aspect of the program – from strength & conditioning, nutrition, mental training, academic support, talent evaluation and recruiting, player development and peer mentoring among teammates – is centered on establishing an unshakeable foundation that emphasizes the whole development of each player.

JIMBO FISHER

HEAD COACH

The Fisher Family

Yet the greatest influences in Fisher's life have been his parents, John James and Gloria Fisher. His late father, a coal miner and farmer who demanded accountability from sons Jimbo and Bryan, helped them understand the value of hard work from an early age. Those lessons extended beyond the family farm and home and onto the fields and courts as a promising young football, basketball and baseball player.

By the time Fisher reached junior high school and became the starting quarterback, he was calling plays in the huddle. Win or lose, the car rides home with his father always included a critique of what transpired on the field.

Fisher learned about tough-love from his father, but his future was also shaped by his mother, Gloria, who retired in 2011 from the West Virginia public schools system after teaching high school chemistry for 51 years. It was Gloria who made sure that her son escaped from a life in the coal mines and followed his dream after an all-state career at Liberty High School.

He has done both and with a high degree of success. After a one-semester stop at Clemson, where he was going to play baseball, Fisher returned home to Salem College in West Virginia. He starred for three seasons at quarterback, establishing a school and conference record for career passing yardage. A two-time conference player of the year and an All-American in his final season at Salem, Fisher transferred to Samford College in Birmingham, Alabama for his final season of eligibility. He enjoyed a record-setting season in 1987 with the Bulldogs, earning NCAA Division III National Player of the Year honors, which he parlayed into a season with the Chicago Bruisers of the Arena Football League.

In 1993, Fisher joined the staff at Auburn and over the next 14 seasons, including stops at Cincinnati and LSU, he built a reputation as a keen play-caller whose development of quarterbacks was second-to-none in major college football. His list of standout pupils included record-setters Stan White, Patrick Nix and Dameyune Craig, who is the lone 3,000-yard passer in Auburn history. After guiding Cincinnati to one of its most prolific seasons in a one-year stint, he joined Saban's staff at LSU. Over the course of a seven-year run with the Tigers, quarterbacks Josh Booty, Rohan Davey, Craig Nall, Matt Mauck, JaMarcus Russell and Matt Flynn were selected in the NFL Draft. Russell, who was the first player selected in the 2007 NFL Draft, and Davey remain the only 3,000-yard passers in LSU history.

LSU made seven consecutive bowl appearances, won two SEC titles, posted a 70-20 record and won the 2003 BCS National Championship with Fisher as its offensive coordinator. He was a finalist for the 2001 Frank Broyles Award, presented to the nation's top assistant coach.

Fisher accepted Bobby Bowden's invitation to join the Florida State staff as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in January 2007 and by the end of his first year, was tabbed as Bowden's successor upon retirement. The quick ascent followed a similar arc to the Seminoles' offense, which improved statistically in each of his first four seasons.

Along the way he has significantly impacted FSU's recruiting, been instrumental in the development of quarterbacks Ponder and Manuel and set the table for the inevitable transition to the seat occupied by Bowden since 1976. The time as a coach-in-waiting allowed him the opportunity to closely evaluate the players and program as a whole; what changes needed to be made and how to work the proper channels to get that accomplished.

Fisher has assembled one of the top staffs in the country. Collectively the average age of his staff is just under 40 and yet brings nearly 80 years of experience to the table. They have coached in four of the six BCS conferences – SEC, Pac-12, Big Ten and Big East – as well as Conference USA, WAC and Notre Dame. Fisher had crossed paths with many of them throughout his career. Fisher and all of his assistant coaches are married with children, so having family involved with the football program is a priority to the second-year head coach.

Candi Fisher and their sons, Trey and Ethan, are regular visitors in the football office and on the practice field. So, too are the spouses and children of other members of the FSU coaching staff.

In the same sense, Fisher treats his players very much like his own family, challenging, praising, even admonishing, when necessary. It is all in an attempt to help each and every one reach their full potential as student-athletes and responsible young adults, thus strengthening the team one player at a time.

He firmly believes that it takes a keen ability to focus on the task at hand to fulfill, not only their individual potential, but the collective result as teammates.

Fisher wants relentless competitors to define his Florida State program; players who are immune to adversity.

As a hands-on head coach who will continue to work with the quarterbacks and call plays, Fisher will remain a vocal presence on the field, while balancing a myriad of off-the-field responsibilities as he continues to shape the Florida State program in his own image.

Fisher will do that with a sense of responsibility and appreciation for Florida State's rich past and the men – Bowden and the players who have come before those he coaches today – who have built the program. Not surprisingly, he has welcomed those players back with open arms in an effort to bridge the past with the present and future.

It's that rich tradition that drew Fisher to Florida State and his time under Bowden. Now it is time to build on it.

JIMBO & CANDI FISHER KIDZ 1ST FUND
JOIN IN THE FIGHT AGAINST FANCONI ANEMIA

Kidz 1st

- Jimbo Fisher and his wife, Candi, announced on Aug. 5, 2011 the creation of a new national fund to fuel the quest for a cure for Fanconi anemia, a very rare life-threatening disorder that afflicts their 7-year-old son, Ethan, and many others.
- Money raised through a campaign called "I Fight Fanconi" will support research into Fanconi anemia at the University of Minnesota, one of the leading universities pioneering better ways to treat the disorder, in advance of finding a cure. The campaign will raise research dollars for the Kidz 1st Fund, established by the Fishers, through the sale of t-shirts, wristbands and other products and through online donations. Less than seven months after creating the fund, Coach Fisher and his wife Candi along with their sons, presented the University of Minnesota's Amplatz Children's Hospital with a check for $500,000 for Fanconi anemia research during the first half of a University of a Minnesota men's basketball game on Mar. 3, 2012. The $500,000 doubled the University's current research budget for Fanconi anemia.
- This type of hereditary anemia, primarily a blood disease, can affect all systems in the body and leads to bone marrow failure. For decades, the disorder was thought to be untreatable, but promising advances in medical research have improved the prognosis. To extend their lives, most children suffering from Fanconi anemia will require a stem cell transplant, either bone marrow or cord blood, yet many wait years to find a donor who is a perfect match – or never find one.
- Kidz1stFund's ultimate goal is not a dollar figure. It is a cure, so that Ethan and other kids with Fanconi anemia may lead full, happy lives. Together we can fight FA for the thousands affected by this disease. Through your gift to Kidz1stFund, we can all say "I FIGHT FANCONI."
- The Fishers also are making a widespread appeal for people to join the National Marrow Donor Registry to determine if they are a match for any of the thousands of people whose lives depend on a bone marrow transplant. For more information visit: www.Kidz1stFund.com.

• James Coley is in his fifth season at Florida State – third as the offensive coordinator and fifth as tight ends coach.

• Entering now his eighth season at the collegiate level, Coley is heavily involved in game-planning and provides invaluable game-day assistance down to the sideline from the press box. Florida State ranked third in both scoring offense (30.6 points per game) and passing offense (257.0 yards per game) in the Atlantic Coast Conference in 2011.

• In 2010, FSU was the fourth-best scoring offense in the ACC averaging 31.4 points per games and ranked fourth in rushing offense with 171.4 yards per game. FSU ran for more than 200 yards five times as a team including a 298-yard performance against in-state rival Miami which capped off a string of four consecutive 200-yard rushing games - BYU (278), Wake Forest (201), Virginia (256) and Miami (298). FSU ran for 218 yards in the Chick-fil-A Bowl win over SEC East Champion South Carolina. FSU also led the league in third down conversions (47.6 percent).

• Coley's work on the field has been instrumental in bringing the tight end position back to a place of prominence for the Seminoles. In 2011, freshman Nick O'Leary, the nation's top tight end coming out high school, finished as FSU's eighth-leading receiver and was one of nine players to average more than 10 yards per catch. Florida State's tight ends combined for more than 200 yards receiving in 2010. In 2009, tight ends Caz Piurowski and Beau Reliford combined for 24 receptions, 283 yards and four TDs. The four TDs were the most for the `Noles from the tight end position since 1994.

• As the recruiting coordinator at Florida State in 2008 and 2009, Coley was instrumental in the Seminoles landing back-to-back Top 10 signing classes, which have helped re-stock FSU's talent pool. He was named the top recruiter in the ACC in 2010 by ESPN.com.

• Prior to arriving at FSU, Coley spent one season as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at FIU. The Miami native completely overhauled the Golden Panthers offense and established new standards for rushing yardage, as the unit doubled its production over the second half of the season.

• In two seasons as an offensive assistant with Saban's Miami Dolphins, Coley had an opportunity to work with running backs Ricky Williams and Ronnie Brown ('05) when they boasted the NFL's seventh-rated rushing attack. In 2006 he worked with the receivers, including All-Pro Chris Chambers and Wes Welker, and was responsible for breaking down opposing defenses and self-scouting as the quality control coach.

• Coley's first foray into the college game came as a graduate assistant at LSU on offensive coordinator Jimbo Fisher's staff in 2003 and 2004. The Tigers won the 2003 SEC Title and National Championship and played in the 2004 Capital One Bowl.

• Coley initially crossed paths with Fisher while coaching high school football in Miami from 1997-2002. His first job was as the quarterbacks coach at Miami Senior, where he spent three seasons and worked with current NFL standouts Andre Johnson and Roscoe Parrish.

• He moved to Norland in 2000 as assistant head coach/offensive coordinator and coached several players who had outstanding collegiate careers, including Dwayne Bowe (LSU), Kareem Brown (Miami), Alexander Bostic III (FIU) and Antwan Barnes (FIU) during a three-year run which culminated with the school winning the 6A state title in 2002.

• After graduating from Florida State in '97, Coley received his master's degree in kinesiology from LSU in 2004.

• Mark Stoops is in his 23rd season of coaching and his third year as Florida State's defensive coordinator and secondary coach. Hired by Jimbo Fisher in January of 2010 to replace the venerable Mickey Andrews, Stoops came to FSU from Arizona, where he spent six seasons serving the Wildcats in the same capacity under his brother head coach Mike Stoops. He is also the brother of Oklahoma head coach Bob Stoops.

• Stoops transformed Florida State's defense into one of the nation's best in 2011. FSU allowed its opponents to run for an average of just 2.35 yards per carry, which led the nation. The Seminoles ranked fourth nationally in total defense (275.0), second in rushing defense (82.7), fourth in scoring defense (15.1), eighth in tackles for loss (8.62) and tied for eighth in sacks (3.08 per game). His secondary ranked 20th in pass defense and 25th in pass efficiency defense. The Seminoles led the ACC in eight different defensive categories. Linebacker Nigel Bradham capped off his career leading the Seminoles in tackles for the third straight year - becoming the first Seminole since Marvin Jones to accomplish that feat. He orchestrated a defense that featured one of the deepest defensive line rotations highlighted by defensive ends Brandon Jenkins, Bjoern Werner and Cornellius Carradine who combined for 20.5 sacks, 31 tackles for loss, 14 quarterback hurries and nine pass breakups. The middle of the line featured stout tackles Everett Dawkins, Anthony McCloud and Freshman All-American Timmy Jernigan who combined for 14 tackles for loss, 6.5 sacks and a remarkable 80 tackles. With nine starters returning in 2012, the Seminole defense again figures to be among the nation's best.

• Stoops is credited with overhauling the Seminoles' defense in his first season as defensive coordinator in 2010. The 'Noles yielded 19.6 points per game which was third best in the ACC and 20th in the nation. The Seminoles ranked 42nd nationally in total defense after ranking 108th in 2009 and ranked sixth in the ACC in 2010 after ranking last in the league in total defense in 2009. Florida State improved its overall defense by more than 80 total yards per game, mainly by limiting opponents to 75 less rushing yards per game. The Seminoles ranked third in the nation in quarterback sacks and 21st in tackles for loss led by second team All-American Brandon Jenkins who finished with 13.5 sacks (third-most in the ACC and sixth nationally) and 21.5 tackles for loss. FSU tied with Boise State for the national lead with 48 total sacks. In the secondary, he coached Xavier Rhodes to ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year honors and National Defensive Freshman of the Year honors.

• Stoops was instrumental in turning Arizona into one of the finest defensive units in the Pac-10 during his six-year stint. Arizona ranked 25th nationally in total defense in 2009 and was ranked among the top three in the conference in five statistical categories as the Wildcats finished with a second consecutive 8-5 season.

• Stoops built an impressive resume by developing nationally elite units, especially in the secondary. Prior to his six-year run at Arizona, he spent three seasons at the University of Miami as the secondary coach. His 2002 and 2003 units led the nation in pass defense, while the 2001 Hurricanes - which won the national championship - led the nation in pass efficiency defense, scoring defense and turnover margin.

• He spent the 2000 season as co-defensive coordinator at the University of Houston, following a three-year run at Wyoming as the secondary coach. His first full-time college job came in 1996 when he was hired by USF to help with the start-up of the program.

• A proponent of zone schemes, Stoops' pass defenses have been especially proficient and extraordinary at takeaways. The 2001 Miami team established a single-season school record with 27 interceptions and 45 takeaways. Miami's 2002 secondary tied an NCAA record by allowing just 9.5 yards per completion. The 2003 Hurricanes were second in total defense and fourth in scoring defense and pass efficiency defense. The 1997 Wyoming secondary contributed significantly to its school-record 24 interceptions.

• Stoops recruited and developed some of the finest defensive backs in the nation over the past decade, many of who have gone on to enjoy outstanding NFL careers. Among the notable are Arizona's Antoine Cason and Michael Johnson, Miami's Philip Buchanon, Kelly Jennings, Brandon Merriweather, Ed Reed, Antrel Rolle, Mike Rumph, Sean Taylor and Wyoming's Brian Lee.

• Like his brothers, Stoops played collegiately in the secondary at Iowa for Hall of Fame coach Hayden Fry. Fry hired Stoops as a graduate assistant for the 1990 and 1991 seasons. The Hawkeyes won the 1990 Big Ten title and played in the Rose Bowl; duplicating feats Stoops also achieved as a player during a four-year career.

• As a player and a coach, he has taken part in 13 bowls, including his first two seasons at Florida State and both of his final two seasons at Arizona.

• Before launching his collegiate coaching career, Stoops followed in his father's footsteps as a high school football coach. He spent four years at Ohio's Nordonia Hills as the school's athletic director and assisted with the football program.

• Raised in Youngstown, Ohio, Stoops played high school football at Cardinal Mooney.

• Eddie Gran is in his 26th season of collegiate coaching and his third season at Florida State, where he serves as associate head coach, tutoring the running backs and coordinating special teams.

• Under Gran's direction, Florida State boasted the nation's second-best special teams unit in 2011 based on the Football Outsiders Efficiency Ratings. Shawn Powell became FSU's first consensus All-American punter and the school's all-time leader in multiple punting categories as a three-year starter. Powell led the Football Bowl Subdivision with a 47-yard overall average and the Seminoles ranked second nationally in net punting (41.3). Kicker Dustin Hopkins was named one of three finalists for the Lou Groza Award and enters the 2012 season with 326 career points, having made 63 of 92 FG attempts (.768) and 137 of 141 PATs, including the last 130 in a row. Gran's return game features some of the most electrifying players in Greg Reid, Lamarcus Joyner and Karlos Williams. Reid is one of the nation's most dangerous punt return specialists who heads into 2012 needing just 312 yards to break Deion Sanders' career mark for punt return yards. While 2011 was a breakout season for his special teams, Gran's running back corps played behind a banged up offensive line bringing down the group's production from the 2010 season. However, Gran still produced one of the top freshman running backs in FSU history as Devonta Freeman ran for 579 yards - the fifth best single season total by an FSU freshman. Freeman also led the team with eight rushing touchdowns.

• Gran helped develop Florida State's running game into one of the strongest in the ACC in his first season in Tallahassee in 2010. The Seminoles averaged nearly 5.0 yards per carry and ranked third in the league in rushing touchdowns with 27. The Seminoles ranked fourth in the league in scoring as compared to sixth the year before Gran's arrival. In 2010, three Seminole running backs gained more than 400 yards rushing on the ground led by FSU's leading rusher Chris Thompson, who gained 845 yards. It was only the sixth time in FSU history that a trio gained more than 400 yards in a season. FSU ran for more than 200 yards five times as a team including a 298-yard performance against in-state rival Miami which capped off a string of four consecutive 200-yard rushing games – BYU (278), Wake Forest (201), Virginia (256) and Miami (298). FSU ran for 218 yards in the Chick-fil-A bowl win over SEC East Champion South Carolina.

• Gran spent 15 seasons as a running backs coach and special teams coordinator in the SEC, including 10 years at Auburn, followed by a stop at Tennessee before coming to Florida State in 2010.

• Gran has a strong record for developing backfield talent. During his 14 seasons as the assistant to Tommy Tuberville at Ole Miss and Auburn, he sent eight running backs to the NFL, including former Tigers Carnell Williams, Ronnie Brown, Rudi Johnson, Brandon Jacobs, Heath Evans and Kenny Irons. They were preceded by former Rebels Deuce McCallister and John Avery.

• Tennessee's Mario Hardesty (1,345 yards) added his name to the lengthy list of 1,000-yard rushers Gran has worked with over the course of his career in '09. Hardesty, who did not fumble on 282 carries from scrimmage in 2009, was a second-round draft pick of the Cleveland Browns in 2010. He was selected one slot after Auburn's Ben Tate (Houston Texans), whom Gran coached in 2008.

• Gran's tenure as a special teams coach included oversight of Auburn kicker John Vaughn, who was the SEC Special Teams Player of the Year in 2006. With his hands-on approach in all facets of special teams play, Gran is widely regarded as one of the most meticulous in tutoring the game's critical "third phase."

• Beyond the playing field, Gran has established himself as one of the nation's top recruiters. He has spent the better part of two decades recruiting Miami and greater South Florida as his primary territory, where he first crossed paths with Jimbo Fisher. The fertile ground has remained his primary recruiting area with the Seminoles and he helped the Seminoles attract the nation's No. 1 recruiting class in 2011. He and fellow assistant coach Lawrence Dawsey were named two of ESPN.com's Top 25 Recruiters of the Year in 2011.

• Gran and his wife, Rosemary, are deeply involved in the community for a cause that has changed their lives and continues to impact others. The Sydney Gran Foundation is a charity designed to support children's hospitals and other families whose children are facing serious illness. Sydney, the third of the Gran's four daughters, was born with the rare disease called Holoprosnecephaly. She passed away just shy of her sixth birthday in 2005. Additional information is available at www.sydneygranfoundation.org.

• Gran's 25 seasons in the college ranks includes stops from coast-to-coast. It began at his alma mater Cal Lutheran, where he played four seasons as a wide receiver. Like fellow FSU staff members Mark Stoops and D.J. Eliot, Gran also served on the staff at the University of Miami.

• One of the top and most respected offensive line coaches in all of college football, Rick Trickett enters his sixth season at Florida State and his 40th overall. He is nationally recognized for his ability to identify, recruit and develop talent.

• Trickett's abilities to mold a unit were tested by injuries during 2011. The extended losses of seniors Andrew Datko and David Spurlock led FSU to start seven different offensive line combinations. No single group was together in the same position for more than three consecutive games. However, Trickett's group still managed to produce an All-ACC first team selection in senior Zebrie Sanders, a freshman All-American in Bobby Hart and two NFL draft picks. Sanders ended up being a fifth round pick of the Buffalo Bills. Datko, who was headed for a solid senior campaign, was selected in the seventh round by the Green Bay Packers. Trickett's handy work in crafting offensive lines really came to light in the 2011 Champs Sports Bowl. His young starting line featuring four true freshmen overcame a four-sack first half, settled down and held off a good Notre Dame defensive line to help FSU rally from a 14-0 deficit as the Seminoles won 18-14. That quartet of Bobby Hart, a nine-game starter, three-game starter Austin Barron, Josue Matias and Tre' Jackson will be mixed in with Bryan Stork, Garrett Faircloth and newly converted left tackle Cameron Erving giving Trickett some depth and versatility to work with in 2012.

• In 2010, Trickett's line featured second round NFL draft pick Rodney Hudson. Hudson became one of the most decorated offensive linemen in school and ACC history, earning unanimous first team All-American honors in 2010. Hudson was one of three finalists for the Outland Trophy, won his second consecutive Jacobs Blocking Trophy as the ACC's most dominant lineman and was only the second lineman in league history to be selected All-ACC four times. Trickett's unit led the way for three Seminole running backs who gained more than 400 yards rushing on the ground. It was only the sixth time in FSU history that a trio gained more than 400 yards in a season. FSU ran for more than 200 yards five times as a team including a 298-yard performance against in-state rival Miami which capped off a string of four consecutive 200-yard rushing games – BYU (278), Wake Forest (201), Virginia (256) and Miami (298). FSU ran for 218 yards in the Chick-fil-A bowl win over SEC East Champion South Carolina. Center Ryan McMahon finished his career as the all-time leader in career starts (53) after Trickett converted the defensive tackle into a mainstay on the offensive line for four years. Going into 2011, his bookends – tackles Datko and Sanders – garnered preseason honors.

• In 2009, Trickett's unit allowed just 20 sacks - the fewest by an FSU team since 1997 - as the `Noles averaged 271.8 yards a game through the air. In 2008, the `Noles averaged 179.1 yards a game on the ground; the best by an FSU team since 2002. All five Florida State starting offensive linemen in 2009 were nominated for All-ACC honors by opposing league coaches, marking a first in Trickett's distinguished career.

• Trickett has coached seven All-American offensive linemen in his storied career at some of the nation's top schools, including Hudson, who earned the distinction from the Football Writers Association of America in 2009 and was a unanimous All-American selection in 2010. He has been nominated for the Frank Broyles Award twice (2006, 2009) which goes to the nation's top assistant coach.

• Three FSU linemen –Hudson, McMahon and Datko – garnered Freshman All-American honors while playing for Trickett. He has coached 16 players that have been named either first or second team freshmen All-Americans.

• Trickett's track record for developing strong units quickly transferred to Florida State as the Seminoles improved its per game rushing yards average by more than 70 yards after two seasons. After one season at West Virginia, the Mountaineer running game improved from 35th in the nation to second in 2002. From 2002-2006, West Virginia finished among the top 15 rushing offenses and three times were among the top five nationally.

• In 2006 as the offensive line coach at West Virginia, the Mountaineers were second in the nation in rushing, third in scoring offense and fifth in total offense. Only two other schools in the previous 10 years had finished in the top five of each of those categories.

• At Auburn, he coached four linemen - Wayne Gandy, Willie Anderson, Victor Riley and Kendall Simmons - who were selected in the first round of the NFL Draft.

• More than 30 players Trickett has coached have gone on to play in the NFL and more than 30 players have won all-conference honors, including four of his five linemen at West Virginia in 2005 and 2006. At LSU in 2000, three of his players earned All-SEC honors.

• Trickett earned his undergraduate degree in 1972 from Glenville (W.Va.), where he was an all-conference strong safety. He received his master's degree from Indiana (Pa.) in 1975.

• Trickett is a U.S. Marine Corps and Vietnam War veteran.

• Trickett's first published book in 2012 "Complete Offensive Line" is a comprehensive guide to the techniques, drills and game strategies necessary to develop an effective offensive front.

• The Tricketts have been a fixture on the FSU campus since Rick's 2007 arrival in Tallahassee. Two of Tara and Rick's sons have been involved in the football program with Travis serving as an offensive graduate assistant in 2010 after serving as a videographer. He received his master's degree from FSU and is now the co-offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Samford. Clint is a redshirt sophomore quarterback with the Seminoles and Chance graduated in spring 2011 with his bachelor's degree.

• Greg Hudson is in his 22nd season of collegiate coaching and third as Florida State's assistant head coach and linebackers coach. He is one of the architects of Florida State's rapidly improving defense. In particular, the Seminoles' linebackers were considered to be one of Florida State's most improved units in 2010 and took the next step in 2011 as FSU ranked fourth nationally in total defense.

• Hudson's linebacker corps has played a pivotal role in FSU's climb as one of the nation's top defensive units in two short seasons. Two of Hudson's linebackers, Nigel Bradham and Christian Jones, were among the top three tacklers for FSU in 2011. Bradham became the first Seminole in 20 years - since All-American Marvin Jones – to lead the team in tackles for three consecutive years. Bradham was FSU's highest NFL draft selection in 2012 going in the fourth round to the Buffalo Bills. Jones excelled in his first year as a starter at strongside linebacker finishing with 56 tackles playing behind one of the top defensive lines in the country. He takes over for Bradham at weakside linebacker in 2012. Overall in 2011, Hudson's group accounted for 32 percent of the team's tackles for loss which helped FSU finish eighth nationally in that category. FSU allowed its opponents to run for an average of just 2.35 yards per carry, which led the nation. The Seminoles finished second nationally in rushing defense (82.7), fourth in scoring defense (15.1), eighth in tackles for loss (8.62) and tied for eighth in sacks (3.08 per game).

• In 2010, Florida State's defense was rated as the 42nd best out of 120 Division I teams after ranking 108th the season before Hudson's arrival in Tallahassee. The Seminoles ranked 20th in the nation in scoring defense in 2010 after ranking 94th nationally in 2009. FSU allowed more than 80 fewer yards defensively in 2010 than it did in 2009. Hudson coached two of the team's three leading tacklers in Bradham (98 tackles) and Kendall Smith (97 tackles).

• During his tenure at East Carolina, where he worked for one-time FSU graduate assistant Skip Holtz, the Pirates set new standards for excellence. ECU posted four consecutive winning seasons for the first time in 30 years and made four consecutive bowl appearances for the first time in school history. The Pirates also became the first team to win consecutive Conference USA championship games, pulling off the feat in 2008 and 2009 and knocking off two of the nation's top rated offenses in Tulsa (2008) and Houston (2009).

• Hudson's ECU defenses earned a reputation for turning over opponents, coming up with 145 takeaways in five seasons - an average of 29 per season - which ranks among the top 10 of all FBS programs in that stretch.

• The Pirates finished in the top 10 nationally in four defensive categories in 2009 - fumbles recovered (3rd, 17), red zone defense (7th, 0.71 pct), turnovers gained (4th, 34) and turnover margin (10th, +0.79). They also led CUSA in scoring defense (21.93) and turnover margin.

• In 2008, Hudson's ECU defense led CUSA in total defense and scoring defense, despite losing several key players to injury. He earned national recognition for his work when the Pirates shut down No. 8 West Virginia's spread offense, led by quarterback Pat White, in a 24-3 victory. ECU also defeated eventual ACC champion Virginia Tech to open the 2008 season.

• Hudson has coached on both sides of the football over the course of his career, which began at the University of Redlands (Cal.) with the linebackers in 1991. He worked with the offensive line as a graduate assistant at Notre Dame in 1993 and was on the sideline for the historical "Game of the Century," when the Fighting Irish hosted Florida State. Hudson's first full-time post in the major college ranks came at Connecticut, where he had oversight of the offensive line. He held the same position during his first season at Cincinnati. Hudson returned to defense and worked with linebackers at both Cincinnati and Minnesota.

• A product of the legendary high school powerhouse Cincinnati Moeller, he was inducted into the Moeller Sports Hall of Fame in February 2011. Hudson attended Notre Dame and played linebacker for the Irish. He was also a catcher on the Notre Dame baseball team.

• Dameyune Craig began to make his mark as Florida State's recruiting coordinator and quarterbacks coach as he reached two very big milestones following the 2010 season: The Seminoles attracted the nation's No. 1 recruiting class in 2011 and Christian Ponder – the Seminoles' quarterback in Craig's first season – was selected in the first round of the 2011 NFL Draft. Now in his ninth season as a college coach – his third at Florida State, Craig has had a profound impact on the trail for promising new talent as well as an active role in developing some of the top passers in FSU history.

• Charged with coordinating FSU's recruiting efforts, Craig's time in that role has produced No. 1 and No. 2 recruiting classes the past two seasons with the help of the entire Seminole coaching staff. His biggest impact has come in his home state of Alabama where he's positioned the Seminoles to have recent success in convincing some of the top talent in the country to head to Tallahassee instead of staying home to play in a tradition-rich SEC backyard. For his efforts in 2012, Craig was recognized as the 2012 Scout/FoxSportsNext ACC Recruiter of the Year as well as the Rivals.com ACC Recruiter of the Year. He joined fellow Seminole assistant Odell Haggins in being named one of the top 25 recruiters in the country by Rivals and fellow assistant coach Lawrence Dawsey as one of the top 50 recruiters by 247Sports.

• In addition to his recruiting duties, Craig also assists Fisher in the day-to-day instruction of Seminole quarterbacks. One year after Ponder became the first Florida State quarterback to be selected in the first round of the NFL Draft. EJ Manuel continued down his path of leaving a mark in FSU history in 2011. Manuel sits atop the FSU record book in career completion percentage (66.1) having completed at least 65 percent of his passes in each of his three seasons including 65.3 percent in his first season as a full-time starter in 2011. He was one of the ACC's and nation's most efficient passers ranking second in the ACC (151.2) and 18th nationally. Besides Manuel, Craig has plenty of talent to work with in young quarterbacks Clint Trickett and Jacob Coker. Trickett shined as a redshirt freshman in the limited action he saw in 2011 highlighted by his first career start at Clemson in place of an injured Manuel. Trickett threw for 336 yards and three touchdowns. Coker made strides in the spring of 2012 and showed a good grasp of the Seminoles offense after running a wing-T offense in high school. Adding 2012 top quarterback recruit Jameis Winston and New Jersey star quarterback recruit Sean Maguire will give Craig two more arms to groom as the Seminoles look to keep pace as one of the top passing offenses. FSU ranked third in the ACC in passing offense in 2011.

• In 2010, FSU shined in passing efficiency with Ponder (135.7 passing efficiency) ranking third in the ACC and 44th nationally. Ponder and Manuel combined to throw for 2,905 yards while Ponder completed 61.5 percent of his passes and Manuel completed 69.9 percent of his passes.

• Craig came to Florida State after a strong two-year run at South Alabama where he directed the wide receivers for Joey Jones. Jones made Craig his first hire when he was charged with starting the Jaguars' football program, which played its first season in 2009 and was in the process of becoming a Football Championship Subdivision program.

• At South Alabama, Craig was instrumental in implementing a run-based, spread offense that put up prolific numbers during its seven-game inaugural season in 2009. The Jaguars (7-0) averaged 45.9 points and 439 yards of total offense in 2009.

• Craig played quarterback under Jimbo Fisher's watchful eye for four seasons at Auburn. He still holds numerous Auburn passing records, including completions (216) and passing yards (3,227) in a season as well as a single-game record for most net yards gained (445 vs. Army in 1996; 75 rush, 370 pass). The two were reunited at LSU when Craig began his collegiate coaching career as an offensive graduate assistant on Nick Saban's staff, which included Fisher as the offensive coordinator. He also spent one season with Saban as a special teams assistant with the Miami Dolphins.

• After spending four years in the NFL, Craig returned to the college ranks and helped Tuskegee to a two-year record of 22-2. As the Golden Tigers' quarterbacks coach he was instrumental in fine-tuning an impressive offense and also earned the reputation as an outstanding recruiter. Tuskegee won a pair of SIAC titles and defeated Virginia Union in the Pioneer Bowl X to cap a 12-0 season in 2007 by winning the Black College National Championship.

• Craig also brings professional experience as a player to the Seminoles. He signed as a free agent quarterback with the NFL's Carolina Panthers and appeared in six games over a four-year stretch. Craig gained his greatest acclaim on the field as a pro with the Scottish Claymores in NFL Europe, where he passed for a single-game league record 611 yards against Frankfurt and matched another league mark with five touchdown passes in a game. He finished his professional playing career in 2002 with Indiana of the Arena Football League.

• Craig began his coaching career at his high school alma mater, Blount, near Mobile, Ala., where he was an assistant coach in 2003.

• Lawrence Dawsey is in his sixth season on the Florida State staff and his third season as the Seminoles' passing game coordinator and receivers coach.

• Florida State's receivers have prospered under Dawsey's direction. In 2011, six different receivers averaged better than 11 yards per reception for a passing offense that produced 25 TD receptions and 3,341 yards through 13 games. Rashad Greene, Rodney Smith, Kenny Shaw, Bert Reed and Christian Green finished with at least 25 receptions and more than 400 yards. Dawsey guided Greene, FSU's leading receiver, to one of the best freshman campaigns in FSU history as he posted the second-most receptions (38), receiving touchdowns (7) and third-most receiving yards (596). He ranked among the top five freshmen nationally in receiving touchdowns. Reed left Florida State after four years under Dawsey's tutelage among the top five Seminoles in career receptions and top 15 Seminoles in career receiving yards. Green, a converted quarterback who redshirted in 2010, broke out in 2011 leading the team with a 17.3 yard per catch average and finishing third in receiving yards. Dawsey's unit looks to be even stronger in 2012 returning six of his top seven receivers from a year ago and adding redshirt Kelvin Benjamin, a big, physical 6-6 talent along with veteran receiver Willie Haulstead, who missed the 2011 season, to the mix.

• In 2010, Dawsey added passing game coordinator to his title and four receivers caught at least 30 passes as Florida State ranked fifth in the ACC in pass receptions and sixth in receiving yards. Reed, Haulstead and Smith combined for 127 receptions, 1,649 yards and 11 touchdowns.

• In 2009, Dawsey tutored Rod Owens and Reed who became the first pair of Seminole receivers to collect at least 60 receptions each in the same season since 1995. Owens (61) and Reed (60) joined the prolific '95 tandem of Andre Cooper (71) and E.G. Green (60) as the only duos to match that standard in program history. Five Seminoles in 2009 - Owens, Reed, Jarmon Fortson (45), Taiwan Easterling (35) and Richard Goodman (27) - caught at least 20 passes. FSU had not had five receivers with 20 or more catches since the 1992 season.

• The production of Dawsey's receivers has helped the Seminoles improve in total offense over each of the past five seasons, including their average of 421.7 yards per game in 2009 which was the best season at FSU since 2001. FSU's wideouts had a hand in quarterbacks Christian Ponder and EJ Manuel completing 67.7 percent of their pass attempts, which was the highest by the `Noles since Charlie Ward's 1993 Heisman Trophy winning and National Championship campaign.

• In Dawsey's first two seasons at Florida State he helped Greg Carr climb the charts as one of the most productive receivers in school history. Greg Carr finished his career with 148 catches for 2,574 yards and 29 career touchdowns.

• In 2007, Dawsey's first season, Florida State boasted three receivers – Preston Parker, De'Cody Fagg and Carr - with 700 or more receiving yards for the first time in school history.

• Beyond the playing field, Dawsey too has established himself as one of the nation's top recruiters. He's picked up the Seminoles' efforts in the Tampa area and helped the Seminoles attract the nation's No. 1 recruiting class in 2011. He was named one of ESPN.com's Top 25 Recruiters of the Year in 2011. Dawsey was also named the 2011 ACC Recruiter of the Year by SI.com and one of the Top 25 recruiters in the nation in 2011 and 2012 by Rivals.com. Also in 2012, he was selected as one of the top 50 recruiters in the country by 247Sports.

• Dawsey's first coaching job came as a high school assistant at Tampa Catholic in 1998. He did not return to the sideline until serving as a training camp assistant coach with the NFL's St. Louis Rams in 2001 and returned to the high school ranks in 2002 at Blake in Tampa.

• He spent the 2003 season as a graduate assistant on Nick Saban's LSU staff, where he worked with Jimbo Fisher and also crossed paths with fellow graduate assistant and current FSU assistant James Coley. The Tigers posted a 13-1 record and won the BCS National Championship.

• Dawsey had the opportunity to work with LSU receiver Michael Clayton, who later became the No. 1 selection of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and broke several of Dawsey's rookie receiving records with the club.

• The season at LSU opened the door for Dawsey's first, full-time college position as he returned to Tampa as the wide receivers coach at USF from 2004-2006. As a recruiter, he was instrumental in landing the talent which helped the Bulls break on to the national scene. USF's passing offense also took flight during Dawsey's three seasons and ranked among the best in the Big East.

• Dawsey was an integral part of the Seminole football dynasty as a player. His four seasons at wide receiver corresponded with the first four 10-win, top-five poll finishes by FSU. As a player, he was known for his work ethic, accountability, precision route-running, down-field blocking and the ability to rise to the occasion in big games. Those are the same qualities he has instilled in his current group of receivers.

• A third-round selection by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1991, Dawsey enjoyed a seven-season NFL career. He also played for the New York Giants (1996), Miami Dolphins (1997) and New Orleans Saints (1999).

• Dawsey was named the NFL Rookie of the Year by Sports Illustrated and named to the All-Rookie Team by Pro Football Weekly in 1991 after he led Tampa Bay with 55 receptions and set the club's rookie record with 818 receiving yards. Dawsey also led the team in receptions (60) and receiving yards (776) in 1992.

• Dawsey's family also has enjoyed success as well. His daughter Dominique and son-in-law Michael Moffitt, both Florida State graduates, have each earned their M.D. at Meharry Medical College in Nashville, Tenn. Dominique is a clinical resident in Anesthesiology at Brigham and Women's Hospital – a Harvard University Hospital.

• D.J. Eliot completed his 14th season of collegiate coaching in 2011 and heads into his third season with the Seminoles in 2012.

• Eliot has already made his mark, tutoring the players who have helped return FSU to its place among programs with elite pass rushers. Brandon Jenkins, Bjoern Werner and Cornellius Carradine became one of the top defensive end trios in 2011 combining for 20.5 sacks, 31 tackles for loss, 14 quarterback hurries and nine pass breakups. For the second consecutive season, the Seminoles ranked among the top 10 national leaders in both sacks and tackles for loss. Eliot's defensive ends accounted for 51 percent of the team's sacks and 36 percent of the tackles for loss. FSU allowed its opponents to run for an average of just 2.35 yards per carry, which led the nation. The Seminoles ranked fourth nationally in total defense (275.0), second in rushing defense (82.69), fourth in scoring defense (15.1), eighth in tackles for loss (8.62) and tied for eighth in sacks (3.08 per game).

• In his first season at Florida State in 2010, Eliot's defensive ends were one of the most improved units in all of college football. He and defensive tackles coach Odell Haggins put together one of the nation's top defensive fronts. Led by Jenkins – an All-ACC first team selection – the Seminoles tied for the national lead with 48 sacks, ranked third with a 3.4 sacks per game and tied for 11th in total tackles for loss. Jenkins totaled 13.5 sacks and 21.5 tackles for loss to rank among the national leaders in both categories. He also was instrumental in the development of right end Markus White, who doubled his production from his junior to senior year and was a seventh round pick of the Washington Redskins in 2011.

• Eliot came to Tallahassee from Rice in 2010 after serving three seasons as the recruiting coordinator and defensive line coach for the Owls. At Rice, Eliot had oversight of the recruiting process; a challenge given the schools' stringent academic standards. He identified and helped develop two true freshmen defensive ends – Cheta Ozougwu (61 tackles) and Scott Solomon (63) – who led all CUSA linemen with 124 combined tackles and teamed for 21 tackles for loss and 11 sacks. Ozougwu was selected in the 2011 NFL Draft by the Houston Texans while Solomon was a 2012 NFL draft pick of the Tennessee Titans.

• Eliot was a member of the 2008 Rice staff which guided the Owls to a 10-3 record, capped by a Texas Bowl victory over Western Michigan. It was the program's first 10-win season since 1949 and first bowl triumph since the 1950 Cotton Bowl.

• He is one of three FSU assistants who spent time on the coaching staff at the University of Miami, where he served as a graduate assistant working with defensive backs and special teams in 2002. Mark Stoops was the Hurricanes' secondary coach while Eliot was with the Hurricanes. Eddie Gran also did a graduate assistant stint at Miami a decade earlier.

• Eliot earned his first full-time position at Texas State under David Bailiff, coaching defensive backs for one season before a two-year stint with the linebackers. Two of his pupils – David Simmons and Jeremy Castillo – earned all-conference honors. Texas State won the Division I-AA Southland Conference title in 2005 and qualified for the NCAA playoffs. Bailiff later hired Eliot to join his staff at Rice.

• Eliot's coaching career also led to a season as the linebackers coach at Tulsa, where he was instrumental in developing CUSA Defensive Player of the Year Nick Bunting as well as all conference standouts Nelson Coleman and Chris Chamberlain. Tulsa earned a berth in the Armed Forces Bowl that same year. Chamberlain is a five-year NFL veteran now playing for the New Orleans Saints.

• On the field, Eliot played linebacker at Wyoming from 1995-97 before joining the Cowboys' coaching staff as a student assistant. He moved into a graduate assistant role in 1999 after earning his undergraduate degree in natural science with a minor in zoology. Eliot earned his Master's degree in sports administration from the University of Houston in 2003.

• Odell Haggins is the longest-tenured member of the Florida State coaching staff as he enters his 19th season at the school where he starred on the defensive line from 1986-89. He began his career as a tight ends/offensive line coach in 1994 with the Seminoles and took over the interior defensive line duties in 1996, where he has remained a fixture.

• Haggins has been instrumental in developing one of the nation's finest interior defensive lines, building depth with a group that at one point in 2011 was four-deep at each position. His regular rotation of Anthony McCloud, Everett Dawkins, Cameron Erving and freshman All-American Timmy Jernigan produced 100 tackles, including 16.5 behind the line of scrimmage. FSU's run defense allowed opposing backs to average just 2.35 yards per carry, which led all 120 FBS programs. The Seminoles ranked fourth nationally in total defense (275.0), second in rushing defense (82.69), fourth in scoring defense (15.1), eighth in tackles for loss (8.62) and tied for eighth in sacks (3.08 per game). The Seminoles led the ACC in eight different defensive categories. Jernigan earned first team freshman All-American honors from several publications after posting 30 tackles, six tackles for loss and 2.5 sacks. Despite losing Erving to the offensive line, Haggins unit should be strong again in 2012. Three of his top four tacklers return in 2012, and the unit gets a boost with the return of Jacobbi McDaniel, who missed the final seven games of 2011 as well as top defensive tackle recruits Eddie Goldman and Justin Shanks.

• Haggins' helped produce one of the best defensive lines in the nation in 2010 as the Seminoles ranked third in the nation in quarterback sacks, 21st in tackles for loss and 42nd in total defense. The Seminoles tied with Boise State for first nationally in total sacks with 48 sacks. Three of his defensive tackles – Dawkins, McCloud and McDaniel - were among the top 15 tacklers on the team.

• Named one of the six best defensive line coaches in college football by CBS Sports columnist Dennis Dodd in 2008, Haggins has repeatedly turned out top-flight talent. Since the 2000 season he has coached eight defensive tackles that have been selected in the NFL Draft.

• The litany of standouts that Haggins has coached includes four first round draft picks: Brodrick Bunkley (2006), Travis Johnson (2005), Corey Simon (2000) and Andre Wadsworth (1998). Wadsworth began his career at the nose guard position before moving to defensive end. The No. 3 overall pick (Arizona) in the 1998 draft, Wadsworth remains the highest drafted player in FSU history.

• In addition to the first-rounders, Haggins' pupils have also included Pro Bowler Darnell Dockett (third round) - whom he recruited and mentored - Larry Smith (second), Andre Fluellen (third), Jerry Johnson (fourth), Julian Pittman (fourth) and Letroy Guion (fifth).

• Haggins has won at every level as a player and a coach. He was on the front end of Florida State's dynasty years, starring at nose guard for the Seminoles. FSU posted a 39-8-1 record with Haggins in the lineup from 1986-89 and he was part of four bowl-winning teams. He earned Kodak, Walter Camp and UPI All-American honors as a senior in 1989.

• A ninth-round pick in the 1990 NFL Draft by the San Francisco 49ers, Haggins went on to play for the Buffalo Bills during their 1991 Super Bowl season. Following a three-year NFL career, he returned to Florida State, completed his degree and joined Bobby Bowden's staff following the Seminoles 1993 national championship season.

• As an assistant coach, Haggins has established himself as an outstanding recruiter, developer of talent and a role model to his players. He earned ACC Top Recruiter of the Year honors from ESPN.com in 2012. He was named one of the top 25 recruiters in 2011 and 2012 by Rivals.com. He has been a part of FSU staffs which have posted a 169-59 record with 18 consecutive bowl appearances.

• Haggins' 1999 defensive front included future NFL standouts Corey Simon and Jerry Johnson, who were instrumental in FSU's 12-0 run to the national championship.

• The Seminoles boasted the nation's top-ranked defense in 1998 and the No. 1 rushing defense in 1996 and 1997. The 2008 defense ranked first nationally in tackles for loss.

Vic Viloria
Head Strength and Conditioning Coach/Football

Experience:	9th Season/3rd at Florida State
Hometown:	New Orleans, La.
Alma Mater:	Southern Methodist, '02
Birthdate:	July, 22, 1979
Family:	wife, Randi Viloria; daughters, Taylor Ann (4) and Mady (2)

• Vic Viloria joined Florida State football coach Jimbo Fisher's staff in January 2010 from SMU - his alma mater - where he spent the previous three seasons as the head strength and conditioning coach. Now in his third season at FSU, the Seminoles have made noticeable physical gains across the board in just two seasons under his guidance.

• Viloria was at LSU for three years where he worked under the supervision of Tom Moffitt before going to SMU. While at LSU he worked with the Tigers' nationally ranked football and baseball programs as well as the swimming and golf teams.

• A disciple of renowned weightlifting coach Gayle Hatch, Viloria endorses the "Hatch System" which develops functional and explosive strength in players through the use of free weights, plyometrics and jumping drills.

• Viloria was a four-year letter winner at linebacker for SMU and a three-time member of the All-Western Athletic Conference team. He led the Mustangs in tackles each of final three seasons and recorded at least 10 tackles in 21 games over the course of his career.

• He was a member of the NFL Europe's Scottish Claymores.

• Viloria is certified by USA Weightlifting.

• He is married to former SMU sprinter, Randi Taylor.

Erik Korem

- Director of Sports Science & Football Operations
- 3rd season at Florida State

• Erik Korem is in his second season as the Seminoles' Director of Sports Science and Football Operations. He joined the Florida State strength & conditioning staff in February 2010 as the speed and nutrition specialist to the football program, after spending the previous two years at Mississippi State.

• Korem works with strength and conditioning, sports medicine and nutrition to develop new means to maximize human performance. In addition, Erik helps coordinate all home game operations, and coordinates all the football team's road game and postseason travel plans.

• At Mississippi State, Korem served as an assistant strength & conditioning coach and was also a professor in the Exercise Science Department.

• Korem's resume includes extensive work with world-class track & field sprinters, including five-time Olympic medalist and six-time World Championship medalist Veronica Campbell-Brown. He serves as the high-performance coach for Campbell-Brown coaching her to a gold medal in the 2012 Indoor 60m World Championship. He also served as a speed development consultant for Tyson Gay during the 2008 Olympic year when he broke the American record in the 100-meter dash (9.69).

• Prior to working at Mississippi State, Korem spent a year as the Director of Athletic Performance at the University of the Pacific, which followed a short stint as the head strength & conditioning coach at Fort Valley State University.

• Korem served an internship and was a graduate assistant at the University of Arkansas while completing his master's degree in exercise science from 2004-2006.

• As an undergraduate, Korem played football for four seasons at Texas A&M, where he earned his degree in applied exercise physiology.

• He is married to former Mississippi State softball player, Hayle Guess. They have a son, Cooper.

2011 SEASON IN REVIEW

.634

Florida State's win over Notre Dame in the Champs Sports Bowl gave the Noles a 25-14-2 record in 41 bowl appearances. That's a winning percentage of .634, the sixth best nationally for any school with 15 or more bowl appearances.

Shawn Powell – FSU's First Consensus All-America Punter

40.4

The percentage of punts which Florida State's Shawn Powell placed inside of the opponent's 20-yard line in 2011. Powell dropped 23 of his 57 punts inside the 20.

47.0

Florida State P Shawn Powell led the nation in punting average at 47.0 yards per punt. FSU ranked second nationally in net punting (41.3).

2011 Season In Review
BY THE NUMBERS

2.35

Florida State's defense allowed just 2.35 yards per rush in 2011, which led the nation. Overall the Seminoles ranked second in rushing defense (82.69 ypg).

4

FSU's defense finished the 2011 season ranked fourth nationally in total defense (275.0 ypg) and scoring defense (15.08 ppg).

7

Freshman receiver Rashad Greene hauled in seven touchdown passes in 2011. As one of the best freshman receivers in FSU history, he posted the second-most receptions (38) and receiving touchdowns (7), and third-most receiving yards (596). He ranked among the top five freshmen nationally in receiving touchdowns.

8

With defensive ends Brandon Jenkins, Bjoern Werner and Cornellius Carradine leading the way, Florida State ranked eighth in tackles for loss and tied for eighth nationally in sacks. The trio of Jenkins (12.0 TFLs, 8.0 sacks), Werner (11.0 TFLs, 7.0 sacks) and Carradine (8.0 TFLs, 5.5 sacks) combined for 31 tackles for loss and 20.5 sacks.

17

Greg Reid ranked 17th nationally in punt returns while averaging 11.24 yards per return. His 416 punt return yards led the Atlantic Coast Conference, moving his career total to 1,117 yards. Heading into 2012, he is 313 yards shy of breaking Deion Sanders' Florida State career mark (1,429).

30

Florida State extended the nation's longest current consecutive bowl participation streak. FSU's trip to the 2011 Champs Sports Bowl was its 30th consecutive appearance.

130

PK Dustin Hopkins extended his consecutive made PAT streak to 130. The ACC record is 160, held by Georgia Tech's Luke Manget during the 1999-02 seasons.

196

Florida State's defense allowed just 196 points in 2011 – the fewest points allowed by an FSU defense since 2004.

579

Freshman tailback Devonta Freeman rushed for 579 yards on 120 carries in 2011 – the fifth-most yards in a single season by an FSU freshman running back.

84,392

A Doak Campbell Stadium record 84,392 fans turned out to watch No. 5 Florida State take on No. 1 Oklahoma on Sept. 17, 2011.

2011 GAME SUMMARIES

GAME 1

LOUISIANA-MONROE	0
(5/6) FLORIDA STATE	34

Saturday, Sept. 3, 2011 • Tallahassee, Fla. — FINAL

EJ Manuel

- Quarterback EJ Manuel spread the ball around, finding 10 different receivers while completing 22 of his 34 passes in 3 1/2 quarters of work. He finished the game with 252 yards passing, two touchdowns, one interception and 22 yards rushing.
- The Seminoles registered 372 total yards against ULM (280 passing and 92 rushing). Rodney Smith helped that by hauling in a game-best six catches for 78 yards. Bert Reed and Greg Dent (50-yd TD catch) both caught touchdown passes and Jarred Haggins became a go-to target with five catches of his own.
- Defensively, the Seminoles were nearly perfect limiting ULM and its hurry-up, no-huddle offense to just 191 yards. The Warhawks did not register over 100 yards in either rushing or passing (99 team rushing yards and 92 team passing yards).
- Middle linebacker Vince Williams had a team-high and career-best seven tackles in the shutout. Brandon Jenkins, Jeff Luc and Lamarcus Joyner had five tackles apiece as well. Joyner added an interception.
- True freshman Rashad Greene added a 28-yard touchdown in the game, too, but it came from the arm of another quarterback. Not only was the catch his first reception as a Seminole, but it was on the first pass ever thrown by backup quarterback Clint Trickett.
- Dustin Hopkins made field goals of 24 and 23 yards respectively and returner Greg Reid gained 71 yards on four punt returns for a 17.8 average.

GAME 2

CHARLESTON SOUTHERN	10
(4/5) FLORIDA STATE	62

Saturday, Sept. 10, 2011 • Tallahassee, Fla. — FINAL

- Quarterback EJ Manuel needed just 2 1/2 quarters of play to rack up 329 yards passing and a career-high four touchdowns against CSU. Manuel finished his day completing 24-of-35 passes.
- Senior wide receiver Bert Reed had his first multi-touchdown receiving game of his career. Rodney Smith also had a touchdown catch included in his five-grab, 77-yard outing and Lonnie Pryor had a scoring catch as well. Kenny Shaw added five catches for 67 yards and Christian Green had 63 yards on two catches.
- Rashad Greene caught two second-half touchdowns of 29 and 69 yards from backup quarterback Clint Trickett. It was the second and third time the duo hooked up for scores this season. Trickett finished with 148 yards on 6-of-7 passing and also ran one in for a score.
- Playing in his first game as a Seminole, running back James Wilder, Jr. had a team-high 10 carries for a game-best 76 yards.
- In total, the Seminoles generated 647 yards of offense, including 170 yards rushing and 477 yards passing. On the flip side, the Seminoles held Charleston Southern to just eight yards of offense and no first downs in the first half before allowing just 84 yards total and three first downs for the game.

GAME 3

(1/1) OKLAHOMA	23
(5/5) FLORIDA STATE	13

Saturday, Sept. 17, 2011 • Tallahassee, Fla. — FINAL

- A Doak Campbell Stadium record crowd of 84,392 turned out for the most highly-anticipated home game in 15 years, but left disappointed as No. 1 Oklahoma prevailed 23-13 against the fifth-ranked Seminoles.
- FSU's defense limited the Sooners' prolific offense to 310 yards – their lowest output in two seasons – by holding quarterback Landry Jones to 199 passing yards.
- Seminoles Nigel Bradham and Lamarcus Joyner each came away with interceptions. Bradham and Mike Harris shared the team lead with nine tackles, while Bjoern Werner registered six stops with two tackles for loss, including a sack of Jones.

Lamarcus Joyner

- Quarterbacks EJ Manuel and Clint Trickett were sacked six times by the Sooners' defense. Manuel was knocked out of the game in the third quarter with a shoulder injury, but Trickett rallied the 'Noles to a 13-13 deadlock with a 56-yard touchdown pass to Rashad Greene with 9:32 remaining.
- Oklahoma broke the 13-13 deadlock when Jones connected with Kenny Stills on a 37-yard TD pass with 7:00 to play. Sooners' kicker Jimmy Stevens connected on his third short field goal of the game for the final points with 2:01 to go.
- The Sooners out-gained the Seminoles 310-246 and came away with three interceptions in the hard-hitting defensive battle.
- FSU punter Shawn Powell averaged 50.2 yards on four punts, including a career-long 69-yarder. Dustin Hopkins kicked a pair of field goals, including a season-long 53-yarder.

GAME 4

(11/14) FLORIDA STATE	30
(21/22) CLEMSON	35

Saturday, Sept. 24, 2011 • Clemson, S.C. — FINAL

- Florida State fell victim to a plethora of penalties and third-down defensive deficiencies in Death Valley and Clemson withstood a late rally to earn the 35-30 win.
- The No. 11 Seminoles (2-2, 0-1) allowed the No. 21 Tigers (4-0, 1-0) to convert nine of their 17 third-down attempts while committing 11 penalties for 124 yards.
- Without the services of injured starter EJ Manuel (left shoulder) at quarterback, redshirt freshman Clint Trickett made the first start of his career in perhaps the ACC's most hostile environment at Memorial Stadium.
- Trickett did not look anything like a rookie. He finished the day with an impressive 24-of-38 passing mark for 336 yards and three touchdowns
- For the game, Clemson out-gained FSU 443 yards to 365 but those numbers did not matter. What mattered was that the Tigers committed just five penalties for 50 yards and held the 'Noles to just 3-of-10 on third-down conversions.
- Rashad Greene had a team-high eight catches for 98 yards and one touchdown, Christian Green had seven receptions for 77 yards and Rodney Smith added 118 yards and one touchdown on four catches.

Clint Trickett

- Defensively, Mike Harris had 11 tackles, Nigel Bradham had nine and Christian Jones had seven. Bjoern Werner had a fumble return for a touchdown in the third quarter.

GAME 5

(23/22) FLORIDA STATE	30
WAKE FOREST	35

Saturday, Oct. 8, 2011 • Winston-Salem, N.C. — FINAL

- The Seminoles lost their third consecutive game of the season falling 35-30 to the Demon Deacons in a contest that was similar to the team's performance two weeks previous at Clemson.
- Blame penalties (13 of them for 109 yards), defensive struggles (second-straight game allowing 35 points and costly third-down conversions) and five turnovers (four interceptions and one fumble) for the loss.
- On a day lacking many bright spots, Rashad Greene did his best to help prevent that Demon Deacon milestone. The true freshman wide receiver had career highs in catches (12) and yards (164) and continued his season-long streak of catching at least one touchdown in every game.
- Clint Trickett got the start at quarterback over the not-quite-healthy EJ Manuel but was yanked late in the second quarter after two interceptions and a fumble. Trickett finished the day with just two completions for 29 yards while Manuel passed for 286 yards, two touchdowns and two interceptions of his own.
- With Manuel providing a bit of a spark, the FSU offense actually out-gained Wake Forest 425 to 391.
- Christian Green had a career-high 102 yards receiving and the ground game showed signs of life, registering 110 yards including touchdown runs by James Wilder and Ty Jones.

GAME 6

FLORIDA STATE	41
DUKE	16

Saturday, Oct. 15, 2011 • Durham, N.C. — FINAL

- EJ Manuel threw for 239 yards and two touchdowns to help Florida State beat Duke 41-16 to give the Seminoles their first win in a month.Manuel had three completions of at least 50 yards in the first quarter including a perfectly thrown 50-yard scoring toss to Rodney Smith. Manuel followed with a 51-yard throw out of his own end zone to Kenny Shaw on the next drive, which ended with Devonta Freeman's 10-yard touchdown run that helped the 'Noles jump ahead 24-3 barely a minute into the second quarter.
- FSU had just 428 yards rushing through its first five games but more than doubled that at Wallace Wade Stadium with 242 yards on the ground. Freeman was the star of the ground game finishing with 109 yards on 19 carries. With Manuel at the helm, Florida State racked up 481 yards of offense while the defense held Duke to 289 yards.
- Manuel also ran for 62 yards and a pair of touchdowns. His 3-yard scoring pass to Nick O'Leary midway through the third quarter gave Florida State its largest lead at 34-3. He answered a pair of touchdowns from the Blue Devils by scoring on a 6-yard keeper with 9:49 left to make it 41-16, giving the Seminoles at least 40 points in all seven trips to Durham.
- Nigel Bradham led the 'Noles with eight tackles and Mike Harris had seven. As a team, FSU registered 10 tackles for loss as Telvin Smith recorded two of those stops for negative yardage.
- Dustin Hopkins kicked two field goals (27 yarder, 48 yarder) and went 4-of-4 on PAT's including his 110th consecutive to break the all-time record at FSU set by Derek Schmidt.

GAME 7

MARYLAND	16
FLORIDA STATE	41

Saturday, Oct. 22, 2011 • Tallahassee, Fla. — FINAL

- A balanced offense and bothersome defense helped the Florida State football team return home in style with a 41-16 win over Maryland.
- Playing inside Doak Campbell Stadium for the first time in more than a month, FSU (4-3, 2-2 Atlantic Coast Conference) racked up 482 yards of offense and registered a season-high six sacks of Terrapin (2-5, 1-3) quarterbacks C.J. Brown and Danny O'Brien.
- Quarterback EJ Manuel helped the 'Noles earn their second-straight win with his 264 yards and one touchdown on 18-of-26 passing before the dynamic duo of rookie Devonta Freeman and senior Jermaine Thomas took over in the second half. Thomas had played sparingly and his fresh legs propelled him to 86 yards rushing and one score.
- Starting for the first time as a Seminole, Freeman finished with 100 yards rushing and one score on just 11 carries. It was the second game in a row that the versatile runner had hit the 100-yard mark, which made him the first FSU freshman to accomplish such a feat since Chris Parker did so in 1988.
- Sophomore Kenny Shaw grabbed a game- and career-best six catches with one score. Bert Reed added 76 yards on a season-high five catches and Rodney Smith had 64 yards through the air.
- Sophomore linebacker Telvin Smith had a career-best two of FSU's six sacks on the day and Bjoern Werner once again lived in the offensive backfield as he registered a sack of his own.

GAME 8

NC STATE	0
FLORIDA STATE	34

Saturday, Oct. 29, 2011 • Tallahassee, Fla. — FINAL

- EJ Manuel threw for 321 yards and two touchdowns to lead Florida State to a 34-0 win over NC State.
- Florida State led 24-0 at halftime and intercepted NC State quarterback Mike Glennon twice en route to its first shutout of the season.
- Manuel completed 25-of-34 passes and connected on scoring plays of 20 yards to Kenny Shaw and 26 yards to Greg Dent.
- Lonnie Pryor and Devonta Freeman scored on short runs and Dustin Hopkins chipped in with two field goals for the Seminoles, who bounced back from an early-season, three-game losing streak with three straight wins.
- NC State managed only 166 yards on offense while suffering its first shutout since the 2008 season opener.
- The Seminoles rolled up 444 yards and 23 first downs in the game.
- Florida State's offense produced 249 yards before halftime while its defense limited NC State to 106 yards.
- Manuel sizzled in the first half completing 17 of 22 for 212 yards and a touchdown throw to Shaw.
- FSU forced two interceptions -- one by Xavier Rhodes and another by Vince Williams -- and one fumble that was forced by Christian Jones and recovered by Timmy Jernigan. Jones wound up as the leading tackler for the 'Noles with nine total stops and a sack. Mike Harris added eight tackles and a sack and Jernigan had a sack to go along with his five tackles.

GAME 9

FLORIDA STATE	38
BOSTON COLLEGE	7

Thursday, Nov. 3, 2011 • Chestnut Hill, Mass. FINAL

- Florida State clinched the program's 30th consecutive bowl appearance after defeating Boston College 38-7 on a Thursday night in Chestnut Hill, Mass.
- EJ Manuel threw for one touchdown and ran for another to lead the Seminoles.
- The Seminoles' defense held the Eagles to just 207 yards of offense and a 5-of-15 mark on third-down conversions.
- Manuel completed 12 of 16 passes for 180 yards and ran 16 times for 37 yards to help Florida State (6-3, 4-2 Atlantic Coast Conference) open a 28-0 halftime lead and coast to its fourth consecutive victory.
- Devonta Freeman ran for 62 yards and two touchdowns while Nick O'Leary caught three passes for a career-high 87 yards as Florida State did most of its damage with touchdowns on three straight possessions in the first half.
- The Seminoles forced four turnovers -- two fumbles and interceptions by Bjoern Werner and Telvin Smith. Nigel Bradham finished with a team-high seven tackles and 2.5 tackles for loss. Terrance Parks added six tackles and Anthony McCloud had five stops and a tackle for loss.

GAME 10

MIAMI	19
FLORIDA STATE	23

Saturday, Nov. 12, 2011 • Tallahassee, Fla. FINAL

- Greg Reid scored on an 83-yard punt return and Dustin Hopkins kicked three field goals to lead Florida State to a 23-19 win over longtime nemesis Miami.
- Florida State (7-3, 5-2 Atlantic Coast Conference) led 17-7 at the half and held Miami to its lowest scoring total of the season. The Hurricanes had scored at least 21 points in each of their previous nine games.
- Florida State won its fifth straight game since an early-season three-game slide knocked it out of the rankings and a possibility at an ACC championship.
- Senior Shawn Powell averaged 54.8 yards-per-punt on five kicks which included two 60 yarders and two punts downed inside the 20.
- Starting in his first game against Miami, EJ Manuel threw for 196 yards on 17-of-23 passing with one touchdown.
- Christian Green hauled in four catches for 55 yards. Bert Reed also grabbed three passes for 45 yards and Rodney Smith had a 21-yard touchdown reception.
- Devonta Freeman caught three passes for 21 yards and ran the ball 16 times for 76 yards.
- Nigel Bradham added a game-best 10 tackles, half a tackle for loss, a fumble recovery and forced fumble. Greg Reid, Xavier Rhodes and Christian Jones each had five tackles apiece and Lamarcus Joyner had an interception. FSU forced three turnovers and did not commit any of its own.

- EJ Manuel completed 18 of 31 passes for 200 yards, but was sacked three times.
- Virginia's Michael Rocco completed 22 of 31 passes for 238 yards.
- Florida State's defense held the Cavaliers, who averaged 187.6 yards rushing a game, to just 78 yards - its lowest output of the season, but Rocco drove Virginia 75 yards on five plays in just 37 seconds for the win.
- Florida State held a 386-316 advantage in total yards which included 186 yards on the ground, but FSU could not overcome 11 penalties for 94 yards.
- Seniors Nigel Bradham, Bert Reed and Jermaine Thomas turned in solid performances in their final home game. Bradham led the defense with a season-high 13 tackles. Reed had his third career 100-yard receiving game with four catches for 104 yards. Thomas ran 14 times for 69 yards.

GAME 12

FLORIDA STATE	21
FLORIDA	7

Saturday, Nov. 26, 2011 • Gainesville, Fla. — FINAL

- Devonta Freeman had two short touchdown runs following turnovers while Florida State beat rival Florida 21-7 despite only 95 yards of offense.
- The Gators (6-6) avoided their first shutout since 1988 when Jacoby Brissett found Quinton Dunbar for a 6-yard score with 4:16 remaining.
- The Seminoles (8-4) not only won a game in the Swamp for the first time since 2003 but they also claimed a second-consecutive state championship. FSU had not defeated both Florida and Miami in back-to-back seasons since doing so in 1998 and '99.
- FSU's defense only gave up 184 yards and one late score after a Jermaine Thomas fumble, but it was the Seminoles' ability to force turnovers and turn the Gators' giveaways into points that was the difference.
- The Seminoles intercepted four passes, three off starter John Brantley and one off replacement Brissett, while the first two were quickly followed by FSU scores on short fields. It was senior Terrance Parks' 29-yard pick-six that put the visitors on top 21-0 and the game out of reach early in the fourth quarter.
- Parks also led the Seminoles with six total tackles and two tackles for loss. Greg Reid added two interceptions and Mike Harris had one of his own.

GAME 13 - CHAMPS SPORTS BOWL

FLORIDA STATE		18
NOTRE DAME		14

Thursday, Dec. 29, 2011 • Orlando, Fla. FINAL

- Florida State capped off its nine-win season by defeating Notre Dame 18-14 in Orlando despite a seemingly never-ending string of setbacks.
- Four true freshmen offensive linemen finding their groove, a hobbled quarterback, two lost defensive stars and 18 unanswered points sums up what took place on a Thursday night at the 2011 Champs Sports Bowl.
- The Seminoles rallied from a 14-point second-half deficit and used a pair of touchdown passes by EJ Manuel and two field goals from Dustin Hopkins to earn their fourth straight bowl win and second under Jimbo Fisher.
- FSU receiver Rashad Greene, who caught one of Manuel's touchdown passes, was selected the game's MVP. Greene finished with five receptions for 99 yards.
- The Seminoles finished the game with 290 yards and got an efficient night from Manuel. He played behind a young offensive line, but was 20 for 31 passing for 249 yards.
- FSU scored on all four of its red zone chances.
- The defense picked off Notre Dame quarterbacks Tommy Rees and Andrew Hendrix three times and also had four sacks. Senior linebacker Nigel Bradham tallied a team-high nine tackles and collected one of those INTs.
- Safety Terrance Brooks sealed the win with a late interception.

FLORIDA STATE UNIVERSITY

Location: Tallahassee, Fla.
Founded: 1851
Enrollment: 41,710
Website: www.fsu.edu

Florida State University is a public, fully accredited, coeducational institution, and one of 11 institutions of Florida's State University System, which is directed by the Florida Board of Governors. Located in Tallahassee, Florida's capital city, the university affords students and faculty opportunities for interaction with state and federal agencies for internships, research and part-time employment, as well as numerous social, cultural and recreational activities.

BEGINNINGS

Florida State was established as the Seminary West of the Suwannee by an act of the Florida Legislature in 1851. The institution first offered instruction at the postsecondary level in 1857 and is the longest continuous site of higher education in Florida. In 1905, the Buckman Act reorganized higher education in the state and designated the Tallahassee school as the Florida Female College. In 1909, it was renamed Florida State College for Women. In 1947, the school returned to coeducational status, and the name was changed to Florida State University.

40,000 & COUNTING

In 1946, there were 2,583 students enrolled. In 2011, enrollment stood at nearly 42,000. Of that number, 76.4 percent were undergraduates, 20.4 percent were graduates and 3.2 percent were unclassified; 82.2 percent were in-state students; 93.3 percent were from the United States; students hailed from all 50 states and the District of Columbia; 17 states contributed more than 100 students each; 19 foreign countries contributed more than 30 students each; 54.9 percent were female and 45.1 percent were male; 27.9 percent were minorities and 4.4 percent were internationals.

LAY OF THE LAND

The university's main campus encompasses 445.7 acres in Tallahassee, Leon County; the Panama City Campus has 25.6 acres in Panama City, Bay County. The university owns a total of 1,588.1 acres in Leon, Bay, Collier, Franklin, Sarasota and Gadsden counties. In addition, sites are leased in Marion and Leon counties in Florida and other locations overseas.

WEALTH OF OPPORTUNITY

With 17 colleges, students can take courses of study leading to a baccalaureate degree in 215 fields in 105 degree-programs, to a master's or advanced master's degree in 117 degree programs in 245 fields, to a specialist degree in 22 degree programs, to a doctoral degree in 76 degree programs, as well as to a professional degree in two degree programs. The colleges are: Applied Sciences; Arts and Sciences; Business; Communication and Information; Criminology and Criminal Justice; Education; Engineering; The Graduate School; Human Sciences; Law; Medicine; Motion Picture Arts; Music; Nursing; Social Sciences and Public Policy; Social Work; and Visual Arts, Theatre and Dance.

Why Florida State?

One of the nation's elite research universities, Florida State University — with the Carnegie Foundation's highest designation, Doctoral/Research University-Extensive — offers a distinctive academic environment built on its cherished values and unique heritage, welcoming campus on the oldest continuous site of higher education in Florida, championship athletics, and prime location in the heart of the state capital.

Our faculty includes: members of the National Academy of Sciences, the National Academy of Engineering and the American Academy of Arts & Sciences; Pulitzer Prize winners; a Nobel Laureate; Oscar winners; and Guggenheim, Fulbright and National Endowment for the Humanities fellows.

Florida State faculty members attract nearly $200 million a year in research dollars.

Florida State consistently ranks in the top 10 universities nationally in physical science grants awarded by the National Science Foundation.

Our nearly 42,000 students, of whom 8,500 are graduate and professional students, come from across the nation and around the world.

Recognized nationally for its commitment to diversity, Florida State University is a national leader in the number of doctorates awarded to African-American students and in the graduation rate of African-American undergraduates. Its College of Medicine and College of Law are ranked in the nation's Top 10 for Hispanic students.

Programs consistently included in the top public university list include physics, chemistry, political science, psychology, criminology, public administration, library science, information, human sciences, business and law.

At the Ph.D. level, interdisciplinary programs draw on notable research faculty strengths that transcend the traditional disciplines, including neuroscience, molecular biophysics, computational science, materials science and research at the National High Magnetic Field Laboratory—home to the world's most powerful magnets.

FRESHMAN FACTS (CLASS OF 2015)

The middle 50 percent high school GPA, 3.5-4.1… SAT score 1130-1280…ACT score 25-28…there were 16 National Merit Scholars, 4 National Achievement Scholars and 2 Hispanic Scholars enrolled as undergraduate students during the fall 2011 term.

STELLAR FACULTY

A total faculty of 2,306 are appointed to either full-time or part-time positions on a faculty classification…Florida State's faculty has included six Nobel Laureates…12 faculty members have been elected to the National Academy of Sciences…11 faculty members have been elected to the American Academy of Arts and Sciences… two faculty members have been elected to the National Academy of Engineering…one faculty member has been elected to the National Academy of Medicine…and two faculty members are Pulitzer Prize winners.

EDUCATIONAL ADVANTAGES

Florida State has the No. 1 ranked criminology and criminal justice program in the nation. It is located a mere four blocks from the state Capitol, which affords students from many academic disciplines, opportunities for employment or internships with legislators and state agencies. It is home to the National High Magnetic Field Laboratory, which has the world's most powerful magnets.

GOING WORLDWIDE

Florida State offers a variety of overseas opportunities for students during the regular academic year. It has year-round study centers in Florence, Italy; Panama City, Panama; The Republic of Panama; Valencia, Spain; and London, England. Courses at the study centers are offered each semester and cover a wide range of subject areas that are perfect for meeting general and liberal studies requirements. Summer programs are currently being offered in locations including Argentina, Australia, Bahamas, Brazil, China, Costa Rica, Croatia, Czech Republic, Ecuador, France, Israel, Peru, Russia, South Africa, Switzerland, Turkey, and Uruguay.

WORLD-RENOWNED RESEARCH

Florida State has built a reputation as a strong research center in both the sciences and the humanities. The faculty generates $199.8 million in external funds to be used for research. These external funds are in the form of contracts and grants from private foundations, industries and government agencies, and are used to support research, improve research facilities and provide stipends for graduate students.

A PLACE FOR EVERYONE

Florida State has more than 450 recognized student organizations that allow students to find their own niche.

SOME SERIOUS READING

Florida State's Library System contains nearly than 3 million volumes, of which 1,156,915 are available electronically as e-books. FSU Libraries subscribe to 72,825 electronic journals and 771 databases.

MILESTONES

In 2012, Florida State celebrated 50 years of integration with three days of commemorative events in April to honor the pioneering African-American students who were admitted in the 1960s. Also in April, the university's Flying High Circus marked its 65th anniversary. It is one of two collegiate circuses in the United States.

ACADEMIC SUCCESS

21 ACADEMIC HONOREES

FSU earned 21 academic honors in 2011 including second team Academic All-America selection, placekicker Dustin Hopkins (above).

Hopkins was named to the Capital One CoSIDA Academic All-District team where he was joined by first-time honoree Bjoern Werner, a sophomore defensive end. Hopkins, a junior from Houston, Texas, earned a degree in communications in 2012. Werner boasts a 3.31 GPA in International Affairs.

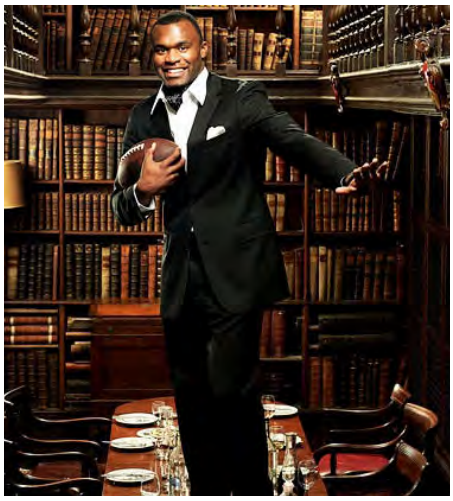

Hopkins went on to be named to the Capital One Academic All-America® Division I football team as selected by COSIDA, earning a spot on the 22-player second team.

HAMPSHIRE AWARD

Zebrie Sanders was selected to the 2012 National Football Foundation & College Hall of Fame Hampshire Honor Society. The honor society is comprised of college football players from all divisions of play who each maintained a 3.2 GPA or better. A total of 721 players from 232 schools qualified for membership in the society's sixth year, making the class the largest since the program's creation in 2007.

Sanders became the fifth Seminole selected to the Hampshire Society joining Ochuko Jenije (2011), Christian Ponder (2011), Zack Aronson (2010) and Myron Rolle (2009). Ponder also earned NFF National Scholar-Athlete honors following the 2010 season. A four-year starter at offensive tackle for the Seminoles, Sanders capped off his career by earning first team All-ACC honors and was a two-time All-ACC Academic football team member. He graduated in December 2011 with a degree in retail merchandising and product development and was selected in the fifth round by the Buffalo Bills in the 2012 NFL draft.

RHODES SCHOLAR

Former Seminole Myron Rolle earned a Rhodes Scholarship - one of the oldest and most prestigious awards for international study established more than 100 years ago. The Rhodes Trust selected Rolle one of 32 U.S. Rhodes Scholars for 2009 - the first time in nearly 25 years the scholarship was a awarded to a prominent college football player. Rolle became the fourth Florida State student ever to be named a Rhodes Scholar. He followed in the footsteps of former Student Body President Joe O'Shea (2008), student-athlete Garrett Johnson (2006) and Caroline Alexander (1976). The scholarships provide all expenses for up to two or three years of study at the University of Oxford in England.

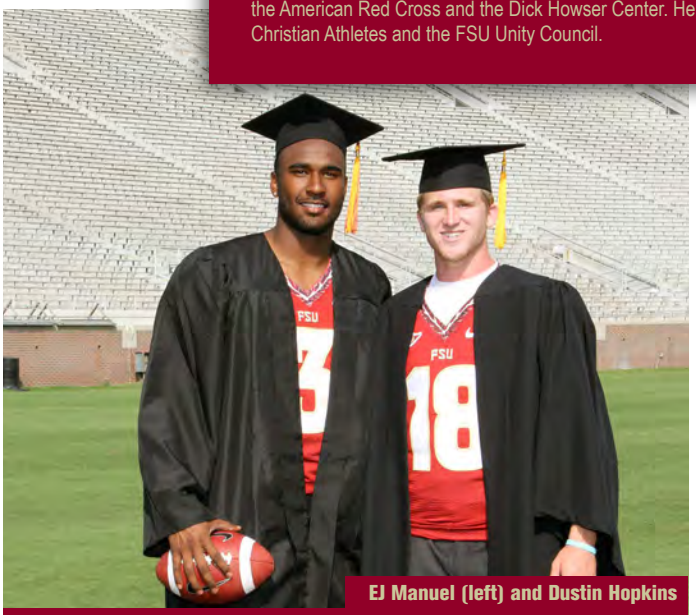

GRADUATING STUDENT-ATHLETES

Since Jimbo Fisher took over in 2010, 34 Seminoles have graduated from Florida State including 11 Seminoles (pictured above) who will have received their degrees before the 2012 season opener.

Call Him Doctor: David Castillo M.D.

Dr. David Castillo, former team captain and starting center for the Seminoles under Coach Bobby Bowden, became part of the largest graduating class for The Florida State University College of Medicine on May 19, 2012 as one of 117 new physicians. After playing five seasons of football at Florida State, Castillo decided to pursue a career in medicine focusing on family medicine with a sports medicine emphasis. His football career began when he was part of the last FSU team to play for a national championship (as a freshman in 2000) and ended with his being named an ESPN The Magazine Academic All-American. While earning his degree in exercise science, Castillo was recognized as the top scholar-athlete in the Atlantic Coast Conference when he won the league's James Tatum Award. He also was named 2006 recipient of the Arthur Ashe Jr. Male Scholar-Athlete Award and was named to Kappa Omicron Nu Honor Society and the ACC All-Academic team. Castillo won a National Football Foundation postgraduate scholarship, a Weaver-James-Corrigan postgraduate scholarship and a National Collegiate Athletic Association Enhancement Scholarship. Castillo volunteered in the Speaking to Youth Role Model Program, with Big Brothers/Big Sisters, the American Red Cross and the Dick Howser Center. He was a member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and the FSU Unity Council.

Giving back to the community is more than a high priority at Florida State University. It is an integral part of the development of the student-athlete. Through the Athletic Department's Office of Student Services, student-athletes are encouraged to serve the community and participate in a program that focuses on life skills as well as personal, career and leadership development.

COMMUNITY

OUTREACH

ACC Top 6 for Service

For the second straight year, Dustin Hopkins was recognized by the Atlantic Coast Conference and Florida State as a "Top 6 for Service" honoree, receiving the award in 2012. Hopkins is arguably one of the most outgoing student-athletes at Florida State. Hopkins received a standing ovation from a group of fifth graders after giving them a speech on the importance of education at their annual science fair. He finished by encouraging the children to strive for excellence in all that they do. His influence on his team has led many others to volunteer with him at many events. This is a testament to his ability to relate and inspire people making him a joy to be around, an impactful speaker and a leader wherever he goes.

The Top 6 for Service is awarded on each ACC campus annually. The criteria for this award are determined by each individual school recognizing student-athletes that have demonstrated outstanding community service and community relations. A Top 6 for Service award recipient is dedicated to serving others and have shown a passion for enriching the lives of others.

Seminole Community Service
BY THE NUMBERS

150,000

The Florida State Athletic Department has been honored three times as the National Consortium of Academies Sports Outreach Program of the Year for reaching more than 150,000 youth.

12,641.5

In the last two years, FSU athletic teams have performed 12,641.5 hours of community service. More than 1,000 student-athletes have contributed to that total.

7,077.5

Florida State athletic teams combined to provide 7,077.5 hours in service to the community in 2011-12, which is just over 1,500 hours more than the previous year. Ten teams completed over 200 hours each, which is also up from nine last year. More than 450 student-athletes contributed in supporting such events as Across the State Relay, Dance Marathon, FCAT Encouragement (Leon County Schools), Ghazvini Learning Center, Palmer Munroe Teen Center, Red Ribbon Week (Drug Awarness/"Say No to Drugs"), Relay for Life, Smoke Free Florida (Campus Breathe Easy Initiative), Florida Disabled Outdoors Association (FDOA) Miracle Sports Seminole Showdown, Stomp Out Type II Diabetes and United Way (Days of Doing), to go along with others.

553.5

In 2011-12, the FSU football team completed 553.5 hours of community service. The team was one of nine teams in the FSU athletic department to reach 100 percent participation and one of five teams to complete more than 500 hours.

Excellence On and Off the Field

The excellence FSU's student-athletes and athletic teams have displayed in the community this past year has been matched by their performance on the field. The Seminoles were fifth in the final 2011-12 Division I Learfield Sports Director's Cup Standings. In 2010-11, Florida State finished ninth overall in the standings as every one of the school's athletic programs participated in postseason play for the second consecutive year. FSU has finished in the top 15 in these standings that measure the overall success of the entire athletics program in each of the last six years.

Hopkins is Golden Off the Field

Dustin Hopkins was recognized for a second straight year as the Golden Nole winner for the football program in 2012.

One of the great events held yearly at Florida State University is the Golden Nole Awards. Student-athletes get together as an entire group and are honored for the contributions they make on the field, in the classroom and in the community. The 18th annual Golden Nole Awards banquet in 2012 was hosted by the Student Athlete Advisory Council (S.A.A.C.) to honor the contributions Florida State student-athletes make that often go unnoticed but are never unappreciated.

Golden Nole honorees are chosen on a combination of factors which include athletic achievement, community service, attitude and dedication.

PROMINENT

LEE CORSO

Most people know Lee Corso as one of the star analysts for ESPN's College GameDay, but "Not so fast, my friend." Corso enjoyed a standout career as both a quarterback and defensive back for the Seminoles and also played on the FSU baseball and basketball teams. After graduating from Florida State in 1957, Corso ascended up the college coaching ranks, becoming the head coach of Louisville and Indiana before starting his successful broadcast career. He was presented with an honorary doctorate degree during spring commencement 2012.

BUSTER POSEY

After winning nearly every college baseball Player of the Year award as a junior catcher for the Seminoles in 2008, the San Francisco Giants made Buster Posey the fifth overall pick in the MLB Draft. Two years later, Posey was named the National League's Rookie of the Year and led the Giants to the 2010 World Series title. Posey was selected to the 2012 MLB All-Star Game receiving the most votes ever by a National League All-Star in baseball history.

JAKE OWEN

The country music star went from attending Florida State to singing about barefoot blue jean nights in sold out arenas in just a few short years. Since debuting on the country scene in 2006, Jake Owen has released three Top-10 albums.

SARA BLAKELY

The youngest woman ever to make Forbes magazine's list of billionaires nabbed a degree in communications from Florida State. In 2000, Sara Blakely invented Spanx. The shapewear company soon took off turning Blakely's $5,000 investment into a whole lot more and making her one of the most respected young entrepreneurs in the world.

MARTIN MAYHEW

Martin Mayhew is entering his fourth season as the general manager of the Detroit Lions. In just three years he turned the Lions from a winless squad in 2008 to a 10-6 playoff team in 2011. Mayhew spent nine seasons as a cornerback in the NFL before obtaining his law degree in 2000 from Georgetown's Law Center and joining the Lions front office in 2001. He graduated from Florida State in 1988 and was an Academic All-American for the Seminoles.

WARRICK DUNN

Warrick Dunn enjoyed a stand out career at running back for Florida State and matched that success during a 12-year professional career with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and Atlanta Falcons earning invitations to three Pro Bowls and rushing for 10,000 yards. Most impressive about Dunn is his community service. Warrick Dunn Charities have donated over 100 homes to needy families with a single parent. He was selected as the Outstanding Athlete in Service and Philanthropy for the 2011 Jefferson Awards for Public Service, a prestigious national presidential award honoring community and public service in America.

15,000-84,392

From a maximum capacity of 15,000 in 1953 to a record crowd of 84,392 in 2011 against Oklahoma, Doak S. Campbell Stadium has risen along with the Florida State football program to the top of the college football ladder.

NOV. 20, 2004

In a special ceremony prior to the Florida game on November 20, 2004, the home of Florida State football took on a meaning even more special when Bobby Bowden Field was dedicated. Now, with numerous additions to enhance the gameday experience, Seminole fans are treated to one of college football's greatest venues.

SOUTH ENDZONE

The south end zone houses the Florida State University School of Hospitality, where students in the program receive hands-on experience in various aspects of the food and beverage industry. The multi-level facility includes a restaurant and a sports grill on the top floor that gives a breathtaking panoramic view of Bobby Bowden Field at Doak Campbell Stadium.

NORTH ENDZONE

The north end zone, which consisted of wood bleachers until the 1994 season kicked off, is topped by the offices of the football coaches. The offices are just part of the Daisy Parker Flory wing of the Moore Athletic Center which includes a number of amenities for the football staff. An even more drastic change came to completion in June of 2005 when the athletics department offices moved back into the newly rebuilt Moore Center.

THE LAST 147

The Seminoles have been formidable at home. In their last 147 home games — since the start of the 1988 season — the Seminoles are 124-22-1. The bulk of those games came with Bobby Bowden leading the team. Over his 34-year career the Seminoles posted a 166-33-2 home record — an .831 winning percentage. That includes an astonishing 56-1-1 record at home in the 1990s and the start of a 54-game unbeaten streak (53-0-1) which began in 1992 and stretched through the first two games of the 2001 season.

200 & 300

Bowden's 200th career victory came on Oct. 27, 1990, as FSU routed Louisiana State, 42-3, in Tallahassee. In 2007, Bowden won his 300th game at FSU on the field that bears his name with a 24-16 win over Maryland.

260 & COUNTING

The 'Noles are 260-86-4 all-time (.749) at Doak and 268-90-4 (.740) as the home team, which includes three seasons — 1947-49 — when they played their home games at Centennial Field. FSU was 8-4 at the downtown Tallahassee site, including 8-0 in coach Don Veller's first two seasons.

OCT 7, 1950

Doak Campbell Stadium opened on Oct. 7, 1950, with Florida State celebrating a 40-7 victory over Randolph-Macon. Since then, millions of fans have passed through the gates.

OSCEOLA & RENEGADE

THE BEST NCAA FOOTBALL TRADITION IN THE COUNTRY

Arguably the greatest spectacle in college football unfolds moments before kickoff at Doak Campbell Stadium when Osceola charges down the field atop Renegade, a beautiful Appaloosa, and plants a flaming spear at midfield prior to each home game.

The tradition was born on September 16, 1978, when a student led the football team from the tunnel, riding a horse as the Seminoles headed into battle against Oklahoma State. Jim Kidder and Reo were the original Osceola and Renegade. Since then, five different Renegades and 15 different riders have made the ride and planted the spear, which brings the game day crowd to its feet.

Bill Durham trained the riders and horses for 20 years before passing the honor and responsibility along to his son, Allen, who was a rider from 1992-1994. The clothing and rigging used by Osceola and Renegade are designed for authenticity and approved by the Seminole Indian Tribe of Florida.

Prior to the 2011 season, ESPN's SportsNation voted Osceola and Renegade the best NCAA Football Tradition in the country. A framed rendering of the spear plant was presented to Bill and Allen Durham during the Oklahoma game on Sept. 17, 2011. That rendering resides in the Moore Athletics Center.

SOD CEMETERY

Florida State's sod cemetery holds chunks of the field from great Seminole road wins.

7

For nearly seven decades, "sod games" and the Florida State University Sod Cemetery have been a rich part of the Seminoles college football history, commemorating many of the greatest victories.

1962

In 1962, as the Seminoles completed their Thursday practice in preparation to face Georgia at Sanford Stadium, Dean Coyle Moore – a long-time professor and member of FSU's athletic board – issued a challenge: "Bring back some sod from between the hedges at Georgia."

OCT. 20 - FSU 18, GEORGIA 0

On Saturday, October 20, the Seminoles scored an 18-0 victory over the favored Bulldogs. Team captain Gene McDowell pulled a small piece of grass from the field, which was presented to Moore at the next football practice. Moore and FSU coach Bill Peterson had the sod buried on the practice field as a symbol of victory. A monument was placed to commemorate the triumph and the tradition of the sod game was born.

ON THE ROAD: UNDERDOG, UF, ACC TITLE, BOWLS

Before leaving for all road games in which Florida State is the underdog, all road games at the University of Florida and all ACC championship and bowl games, Seminole captains gather their teammates to explain the significance of the tradition. Victorious captains return with a piece of the opponent's turf to be buried in the Sod Cemetery inside the gates of the practice field.

Away from home and against the odds, Florida State sod games represent the most difficult battles on the football field. The Sod Cemetery stands as a tribute to those triumphs, to be enjoyed by the Seminole faithful.

ACC CHAMPS

In 2011-12, Florida State saw five teams win ACC titles. The FSU's men's basketball program won the ACC Tournament title for the first time in school history, as did the Seminole women's soccer team to join the volleyball, women's cross country and men's indoor track & field teams as league champions.

AT THE TOP OF ITS GAME

Florida State earned its highest ranking in the Learfield Sports Director's Cup in 2009-10, when the school finished fifth among all Division I athletic programs. The Seminoles matched that feat again in 2011-12, bracketing a ninth-place finish in 2010-11. These are the first top 10 Director's Cup finishes in school history. Over the past six years the Seminole athletic program has finished higher in the standings than at any previous point in the history of the Director's Cup.

Over the past three years, FSU qualified for NCAA postseason play in every sport, every year, with just one exception. In 2010-11, Florida State was the only Division I athletics department in the NCAA to have all of its sports (19) participate in the postseason. It marked the second consecutive year that FSU could make such a claim.

ONE OF THE BEST

For the second time in three school years, Florida State capped the 2011-12 athletic campaign as one of only two Division I programs in the country to send its football team to a bowl game, have its men's basketball team reach the NCAA Tournament and its baseball team compete in the College World Series. The Seminoles last pulled off that impressive trifecta during the 2009-10 academic year. In 2010-11, FSU was one of only eight schools to appear in a football bowl, the NCAA men's basketball tournament and reach the NCAA baseball postseason.

James Ramsey helped lead the Seminole baseball team to its 15th College World Series in 2012. Along the way, Ramsey was selected a Consensus All-American, ACC Player of the Year, ABCA National Player of the Year, Lowe's Senior CLASS Award Winner and a first round pick of the St. Louis Cardinals.

WINNING ON AND OFF THE FIELD

Since 2008, Florida State teams and student-athletes have been winning on and off the field.

HISTORY OF WINNING - 13 NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS

Florida State's women's programs were brought to national prominence in the early 1980s when the Seminoles earned five national championships in four sports within a four-year period. The golf program earned the AIAW championship in 1981 while the softball team had back-to-back AIAW titles in 1981 and 1982. The women's track and field program ran away with the 1984 NCAA Outdoor and 1985 NCAA Indoor Championships. Florida State's other national titles include men's gymnastics in 1950-51 and again in 1951-52. The men's volleyball team won the national championship in 1955 and 1957, while football claimed a championship in 1993 and 1999. The men's track and field team took home the 2006 and 2008 national outdoor titles and nearly added two more, finishing second in the nation in 2009 & 2011.

INDOOR PRACTICE FACILITY

Florida State is in the midst of finalizing plans for a new indoor practice facility which will allow the Seminoles to train year round in championship facilities in spite of severe weather conditions or other disruptions. Al and Judy Dunlap made a $5 million pledge to the Winning Edge Campaign in Feb. 2011.

FIRST-CLASS FACILITIES

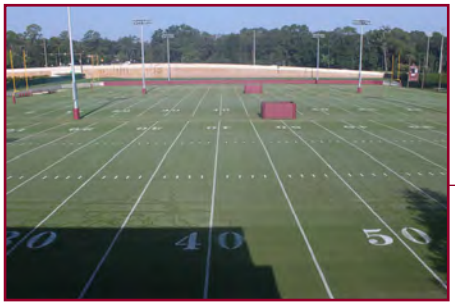

THE MANNY GARCIA LOCKER ROOM

- The Manny Garcia Locker Room recently underwent renovations costing more than two million dollars
- The locker room features a unique semi-circle shape and houses 120 wooden lockers for Seminole football players
- Sealed lockers representing the glorious history of FSU football are featured all around the facility
- FSU's consensus All-Americans are also honored throughout the locker room

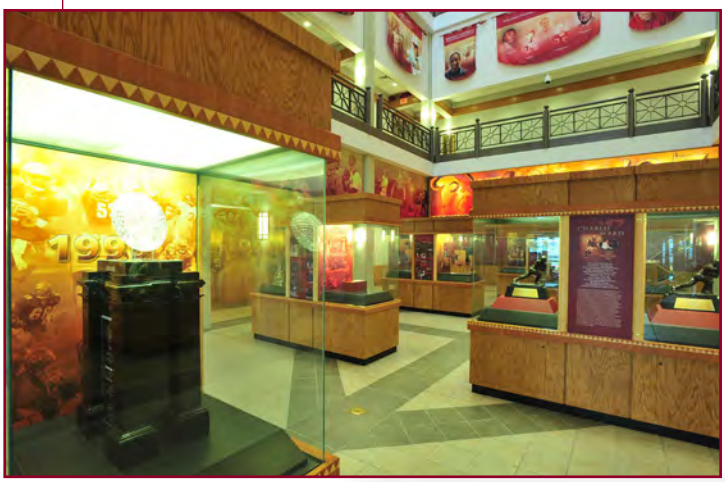

Sealed Lockers

The retirement (or permanent sealing) of lockers in the Florida State locker room began after Deion Sanders' senior season in 1988. The criterion for locker retirement allows only the dressing area of a two-time consensus All-American and/or Heisman Trophy winners to be retired. Ron Simmons (1979-80), Sanders (1987-88), Marvin Jones (1991-92), Derrick Brooks (1993-94), Sebastian Janikowski (1998-99), Peter Warrick (1998-99) and Alex Barron (2003-04) have had their lockers sealed as two-time consensus All-Americans while Heisman Trophy winners Charlie Ward (1993) and Chris Weinke (2000) have had their lockers forever retired. The lockers are encased in glass with the player's final home uniform and gear intact right down to the sweat bands.

THE AL DUNLAP PRACTICE FIELDS

- The Al Dunlap Practice Fields are the home to all Seminole football practices.
- The facility contains three practice fields running side-by-side (north to south)
- Renovations in March 2011 brought a new sand based drainage system, resurfacing with new top soil to produce natural Bermuda grass, lights for all three fields and the conduits for all the necessary electrical, sewage and other needs for the site of the new indoor facility.

THE MOORE ATHLETICS CENTER

- Renovations completed in 2004 to the four story home for Florida State's Department of Athletics.
- State-of-the-art building includes the football locker room, weight room, athletic training and rehab facility, tutorial and study hall space, multi-purpose theatre for team meetings, press conferences and symposiums, classrooms and a dining facility with a full service kitchen and a mailroom.
- Hub of life for FSU's 400-plus student-athletes.
- Home to the athletics administration and support staff housing the executive staff, business office, computer information services, coaches' video, Seminole Productions, college of communication faculty offices and student edit rooms, academic support, student services, compliance, sports Information, digital media, marketing and promotions, facilities and event management.
- Main level showcases Florida State's talented student-athletes with wall-to-wall vibrant memories of historic Seminole seasons and athletic achievements, including the 1993 and 1999 football national championships.
- Designated space for athletic-training curriculum and a studio provided for the College of Communication students to gain hands on experience producing work for Seminole athletics.

SPORTS MEDICINE

The Don Fauls Athletic Training Facility was completed in 2004 and serves as the centerpiece for the daily healthcare needs of Seminole football student-athletes as well as the student-athletes for all 20 of FSU's intercollegiate teams. This 15,000 square foot facility provides FSU student-athletes with access to virtually any needed avenue of health care through the many amenities in place in the facility, as well as through the network of team and supporting physicians. Seminole football student-athletes come here to receive care for any and all types of health related issues.

BACK ON TRACK

Seminole football student-athletes are also able to receive the very best in recovery and rehabilitation of injuries with the guidance of the Sports Medicine staff of four full-time Licensed and Certified Athletic Trainers, one of whom is also a Licensed and Certified Physical Therapist, as well as two Certified Athletic Trainer Graduate Assistants. At their disposal are a wide variety of tools to assist in rehabilitation including a Biodex System 3™ Iso-Kinetic exercise and testing system and a new HydroWorx X80™ underwater treadmill system.

EVERYTHING THAT YOU NEED

The Don Fauls Athletic Training Facility has multiple physician examination rooms, equipped with current medical database record keeping systems, extensive medical supplies and a Fluroscan C-Arm system for providing onsite assessment of fractures and dislocations.

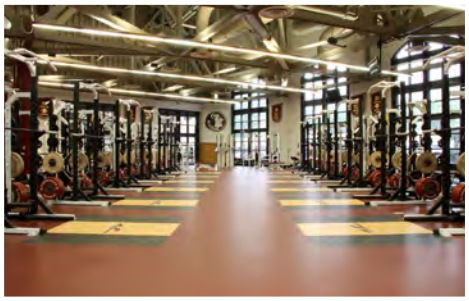

THE NECESSARY STEPS

With the goal of prevention of injury, Seminole football student-athletes are screened for mobility and stability deficiencies using the Functional Movement Screening™ and Selective Functional Movement Assessment™. The athletic training staff takes all the proper precaution before practices and games in preparing players for competition on the field.

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

THE ROGER HOLLER CHAMPIONS TRAINING COMPLEX

The Florida State Seminoles train out of the Seminole Strength and Speed Complex. The state of the art facility includes a 14,700 square feet weight room, 5,000 additional square feet of complex training area, 24 self-contained powerlift work stations, a cutting edge video/audio system and over 80 pieces of customized free weight and selectorized machines.

Certified Strength and Conditioning Coaches operate the Seminole Strength and Speed Complex. The coach's design individualized programs that include a regiment of strength training, power development, linear and lateral speed enhancement, mobility and endurance. Before a program is designed all student-athletes are put through a battery of test to identify strengths and weakness.

Once testing is completed a computer-generated program is assigned to the student athlete. A coach will guide the student athlete through the program daily and progress will be monitored on a weekly basis by the strength and conditioning staff. Continuous supervision of the athletes will ensure a successful physical transformation into a collegiate athlete.

FSU STRENGTH & CONDITIONING STAFF A CLOSER LOOK

Florida State's strength and conditioning program has quickly become one of the most innovative and advanced programs in the country under the direction of Vic Viloria and his staff of four full-time assistants. Using some of the top training methods and technologies, FSU's staff has transformed the Seminoles into one of the nation's fittest teams evident in the teams on-the-field success.

"Stay in the Eye of the Storm"

The motto of the strength and conditioning staff is simple, "stay in the eye of the storm." The most fundamental and important aspect of the Florida State University strength and conditioning program is that our coaches will always be on the floor coaching their athletes. No athlete is left to train on his or her own. Every workout, every exercise, every set, and every rep will be monitored by a coach. The coach will teach, instruct, provide feedback, and motivate the athlete.

ONE GOAL

It is the goal of the Florida State strength and conditioning program to help each athlete reach their full athletic potential by providing them with training programs that are scientifically based and founded on modern methods of strength and conditioning.

THE COMPLETE ATHLETE

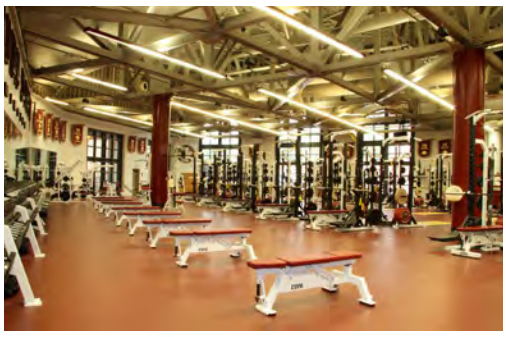

The objective of the FSU strength and conditioning staff is not only to produce stronger, better conditioned athletes, but also to build discipline and mental toughness in each athlete through the implementation of a very structured and organized environment. Athletes are held accountable for the commitment and effort that they put into the program, and lifting and conditioning must be viewed as a vital element in the training program for athletes of any sport.

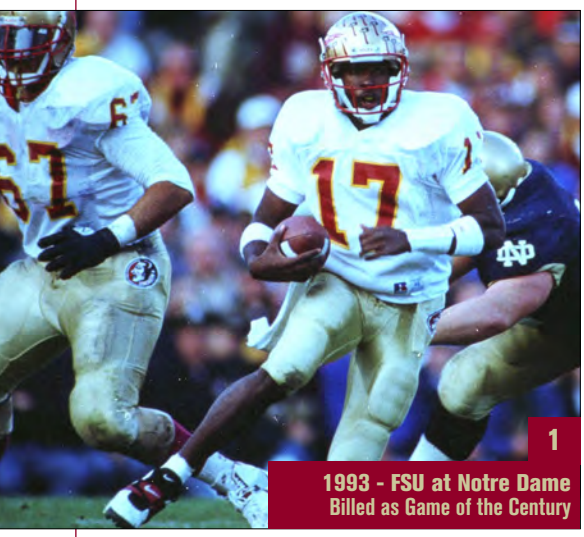

KEEPING YOU AT THE TOP OF YOUR GAME

The Florida State strength and conditioning staff also plays a major role in the nutritional counseling and implementation of healthy diets for each of our athletes. Our staff is responsible for selecting NCAA approved supplements that we deem the most beneficial to our athletes. On a daily basis, our strength and conditioning coaches weigh-in athletes to help monitor changes in bodyweight that may be associated with dehydration, sickness, skipping meals, overeating or eating junk food. This is all done in an effort to help our athletes reach their ideal playing bodyweights, keep energy levels high and sufficient hydration levels.

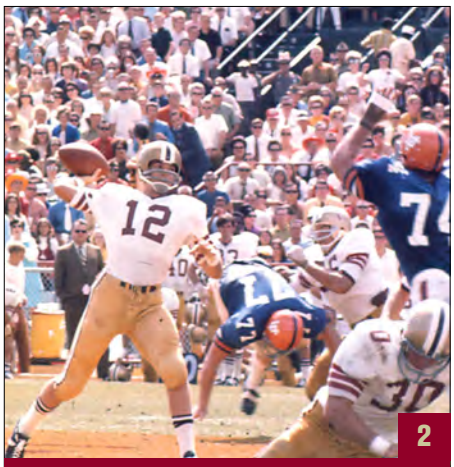

HISTORY OF FSU FOOTBALL

1993 - FSU at Notre Dame
Billed as Game of the Century

2

1987 - FSU vs. Notre Dame - Fiesta Bowl
FSU arrives as national power

1851

Florida State University actually began in 1851 when a legislative act established the Seminary West of the Suwannee. The first students enrolled in 1857 and the Florida State College was co-educational until 1905 when the Buckman Bill sent all the female students to the "new" Florida State College for Women. The huge numbers of male college students wishing to enter school on the G.I. Bill after World War II forced the legislature to make FSU co-educational in 1946.

1902-04

Thirty-three years after Princeton and Rutgers kicked off American college football, the Florida State College played three seasons of football in Tallahassee. From 1902-1904, FSC played wearing the colors purple and gold. The 1904 squad was crowned state champions after defeating the University of Florida at Lake City and Stetson.

1946

Florida State University became a co-educational institution in 1946 when the first male students were enrolled, most of whom were coming back from World War II. The transition from FSCW, which was regarded as one of the nation's top colleges, to the new institution was remarkably quick and the development of an athletics program was almost as rapid.

1947

Florida State University fielded a football team in 1947 coached by Ed Williamson. On October 18, 1947, Stetson kicked off to the FSU three yard line. Don Grant returned the kickoff to the FSU 32 and 7,165 fans at Centennial Field celebrated the first football game. The team finished 0-5 on the season.

1948

Don Veller became FSU's second football coach in 1948 and would coach the team until 1952. An outstanding player at Indiana University, Veller inherited 20 lettermen from the first year, but only 12 would letter in 1948. Veller would lose just two games over his first three years, including an undefeated 8-0 campaign in 1950.

1950

Florida State played its first football game in Doak S. Campbell Stadium on Oct. 7, 1950 against Randolph Macon. 9,676 fans watched the Seminoles win 40-7, but the new home field was a story in itself. It was built on a former cow pasture and was completed in just five months. Tallahassean Rainey Cawthon was instrumental in selling over 1,000 season tickets at $50.00 each to fund the stadium and won a wheelbarrow ride down Monroe Street from contractor Red Coleman, who missed the completion date by two days. FSU players painted the stadium over the next summer for $1 per hour.

1953

Tom Nugent became FSU's third head coach in 1953 and would coach the Seminoles until leaving to become Maryland's head coach in 1958. An innovator on a national level, Nugent developed the I-formation and the typewriter huddle. Among the players he coached were FSU greats Bobby Renn and Lee Corso as well as a talented tailback named Burt Reynolds whose career was cut short by injury.

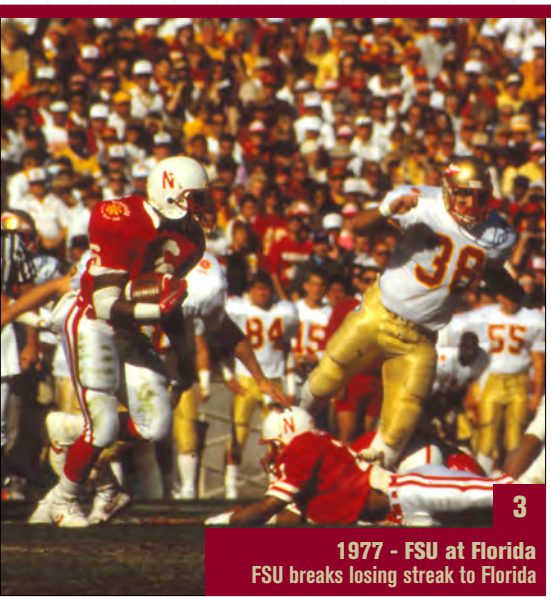

BOB CRENSHAW AWARD

Given in memory of Robert E. (Bob) Crenshaw (Played 1952-55), Florida State footall captain in 1954 and student leader who was killed in a jet crash in 1958. The plaque's inscripion reads: "To the football player with the biggest heart." The recipient is chosen by his teammates as the man who best exemplifies the qualities that made Bob Crenshaw an outstanding football player and person.

1977 - FSU at Florida
FSU breaks losing streak to Florida

1960-70

Florida State's arrival on the national map occurred during Bill Peterson's 11 seasons as head coach. He came in 1960 when free substitution was still five years away in the game. He moved FSU boldly into the forefront of the passing game and led the Tribe to its biggest win yet when they topped No. 5 Kentucky 48-6 in 1964. He would post a 62-42-11 record in Tallahassee. Among a host of other things, Peterson developed the concept of the "hot receiver" in 1964 that remains in most offenses today.

1964

Fred Biletnikoff became FSU's first consensus All-American as a senior in 1964. He ranked fourth nationally with 57 receptions for 11 touchdowns which did not include his four touchdowns in the Gator Bowl win over Oklahoma. Biletnikoff put FSU on the map and he was married under the goalposts at Doak Campbell in 1965. He would go on to have a Hall of Fame career with the Oakland Raiders. The national award given to the top college receiver in the country is named after him.

1966

Ron Sellers began a career at Florida State that would prove one of the most prolific in college history. He gained an unheard of 3,979 yards over his career. His statistics were so impressive that most lasted as national records all the way until 1987. He caught passes in 30 consecutive games and averaged 119.9 yards per game. He is a member of the College Football Hall of Fame.

1970

While integration of schools throughout the country came painfully slow, Florida State's first African-American player took the field in 1970. J.T. Thomas was a starter from the first game he played at FSU and he backed a sterling college career with three Super Bowl rings earned as a member of the Pittsburgh Steelers.

1971

Larry Jones coached the Seminoles from 1971-1973. An 0-11 campaign in his last year spelled the end for the coach. Among notable players during his era were outstanding wide receiver Barry Smith, quarterback Gary Huff and Alabama transfer Billy Sexton.

1974-75

Darryl Mudra coached the Seminoles for two seasons and did his work from the pressbox on game day. Perhaps the biggest accomplishment of Mudra's brief tenure, that included the NCAA mandated scholarship limits for the first time, was the signing of an unheralded running back named Larry Key. Key would prove to be one of the finest running backs in Seminole history.

1976

FSU president Stanley Marshall and athletic director John Bridgers set up a dinner meeting at an airport hotel in Tampa where West Virginia head coach Bobby Bowden was coaching an all-star game known as the American Bowl. They offered him a four-year contract worth $37,500 and he became the Seminoles' eighth head coach on Jan. 12. Bowden was interviewed for the job six years earlier when it went to Larry Jones, but FSU officials felt he lacked the experience.

1979-80

Florida State got its first taste of the real big-time in 1979 and 1980 going to back-to-back Orange Bowls against Oklahoma. FSU went undefeated (11-0) over the regular season in 1979, but lost 24-7 to the Sooners and finished sixth in the final AP poll. FSU took a 10-1 record into the Orange Bowl showdown the next year before losing a heartbreaker 18-17.

1980

If one game can be singled out as the most important in the run of unprecedented success at Florida State, it would be the contest at Nebraska on Sept. 7, 1980. FSU won in Lincoln, 18-14, opening the eyes of the entire country. Nebraska fans shook off a mixture of shock and confusion to stand and give Bobby Bowden and his Seminoles a standing ovation as they left the field.

1981

FSU takes on the following schools in order all on the road: Nebraska, Ohio State, Notre Dame, Pittsburgh and LSU. FSU won at Ohio State, Notre Dame and LSU, but, more importantly, won fans coast to coast for its undaunted spirit.

1981

In 1981 a freshman tailback named Greg Allen was given the football in the middle of legendary Death Valley with a sea of LSU fans around him. He finished the day with a remarkable 202 rushing yards that signaled the arrival of a superstar for the Seminoles. Later that year, he would rip Western Carolina for 322 rushing yards, which still stands as the best rushing game ever for a Seminole.

1986

Deion Sanders spent a quiet first two years at Florida State before exploding on the national scene in a preseason press conference. He would become one of the most popular players ever in college football and one of the greatest athletes in FSU history.

1991-92

On July 1, 1991, the Atlantic Coast Conference accepted Florida State University as its ninth member and the first addition to the league since Georgia Tech joined in 1978. FSU had competed in the Metro Conference for all sports other than football, which had been an independent. FSU's first ACC football game was a 48-21 win over Duke on Sept. 7, 1992.

1993

The Seminoles won their first national championship behind Heisman Trophy winner Charlie Ward in 1993. FSU played Nebraska in the national title game at the Orange Bowl and used freshman Scott Bentley's late field goal to win 18-16.

1995

A 31-26 come-from-behind win in the fourth quarter of the Orange Bowl against Notre Dame was FSU's 11th consecutive bowl win. The streak set an NCAA record as was FSU's 14-game unbeaten streak in bowls that was spoiled only by a 17-17 tie with Georgia in the 1984 Citrus Bowl.

1999

Bobby Bowden used to keep an empty picture frame in his office, which was reserved for his first perfect season. He filled the frame with a 1999 team photo. The Seminoles finished the year 12-0 and topped off the record run with a 46-29 win over Virginia Tech for the national championship in the Sugar Bowl.

2000

Chris Weinke literally rewrote the FSU record book over his senior season and took home the second Heisman Trophy for a Seminole player when he won the award in December of 2000. He would finish his career with a record of 32-3 as a starter.

2002

Bobby Bowden passed Bear Bryant and moved into second place on the all-time coaching wins list.

2003

Bobby Bowden defeats Wake Forest to become all-time winningest major college coach. The Seminoles won the ACC and earned the BCS bid.

2004

Bobby Bowden Field at Doak S. Campbell Stadium was dedicated on Nov. 20, 2004 prior to the Florida game.

2005

Florida State wins the inaugural ACC Championship game by a score of 27-22 over Virginia Tech in Jacksonville. Willie Reid was named the game's MVP. The conference title was FSU's 12th since joining the league in 1992.

2006

The College Football Hall of Fame announced that Bobby Bowden and Charlie Ward would be two of the year's 15 inductees. Bowden and Joe Paterno, who was also inducted, were the first two active coaches to be honored.

2007

2008

The College Football Hall of Fame announced that Ron Simmons would be one of 15 inductees. The Rhodes Trust named junior Myron Rolle one of 32 U.S. Rhodes Scholars for 2009 - the first time in nearly 25 years it has awarded the scholarship to a prominent college football player. Senior kicker Graham Gano was named the Lou Groza Award winner, making him just the second Seminole to ever garner the honor.

2009

Legendary head coach Bobby Bowden (1976-2009) and longtime defensive coordinator Mickey Andrews (1984-2009) announced their retirements during the season and said their final farewells when FSU defeated West Virginia 33-21 in the 2010 Gator Bowl. The victory secured the Seminoles' 33rd straight winning season under Bowden. It was Florida State's 28th straight bowl appearance – the nation's longest active bowl streak. Bowden retired ranked second all-time in victories for NCAA major college football.

2010

Jimbo Fisher took over the helm at Florida State in 2010 after being named the successor to legendary coach Bobby Bowden on Jan. 5, 2010. In just his first-year, Fisher guided the Seminoles to a final ranking of No. 16 in the USA Today Coaches Poll. He led Florida State to the 2010 Chick-fil-A Bowl Championship after a season sweep of in-state rivals Miami and Florida, an ACC Atlantic Division Title and the program's first 10-win season since 2003. His 10 wins were the most by a first-year head at FSU and the third-most by a rookie coach in the ACC history.

2011

Jimbo Fisher led Florida State to its 30th consecutive bowl appearance in the Champs Sports Bowl and the Seminoles rallied for an 18-14 win over Notre Dame to win their fourth straight bowl game. Punter Shawn Powell earned consensus All-American honors. FSU defeated both Miami and Florida for the second straight year, something the 'Noles hadn't done in back-to-back seasons since 1998-99.

DID YOU KNOW?

Scholarships In '51

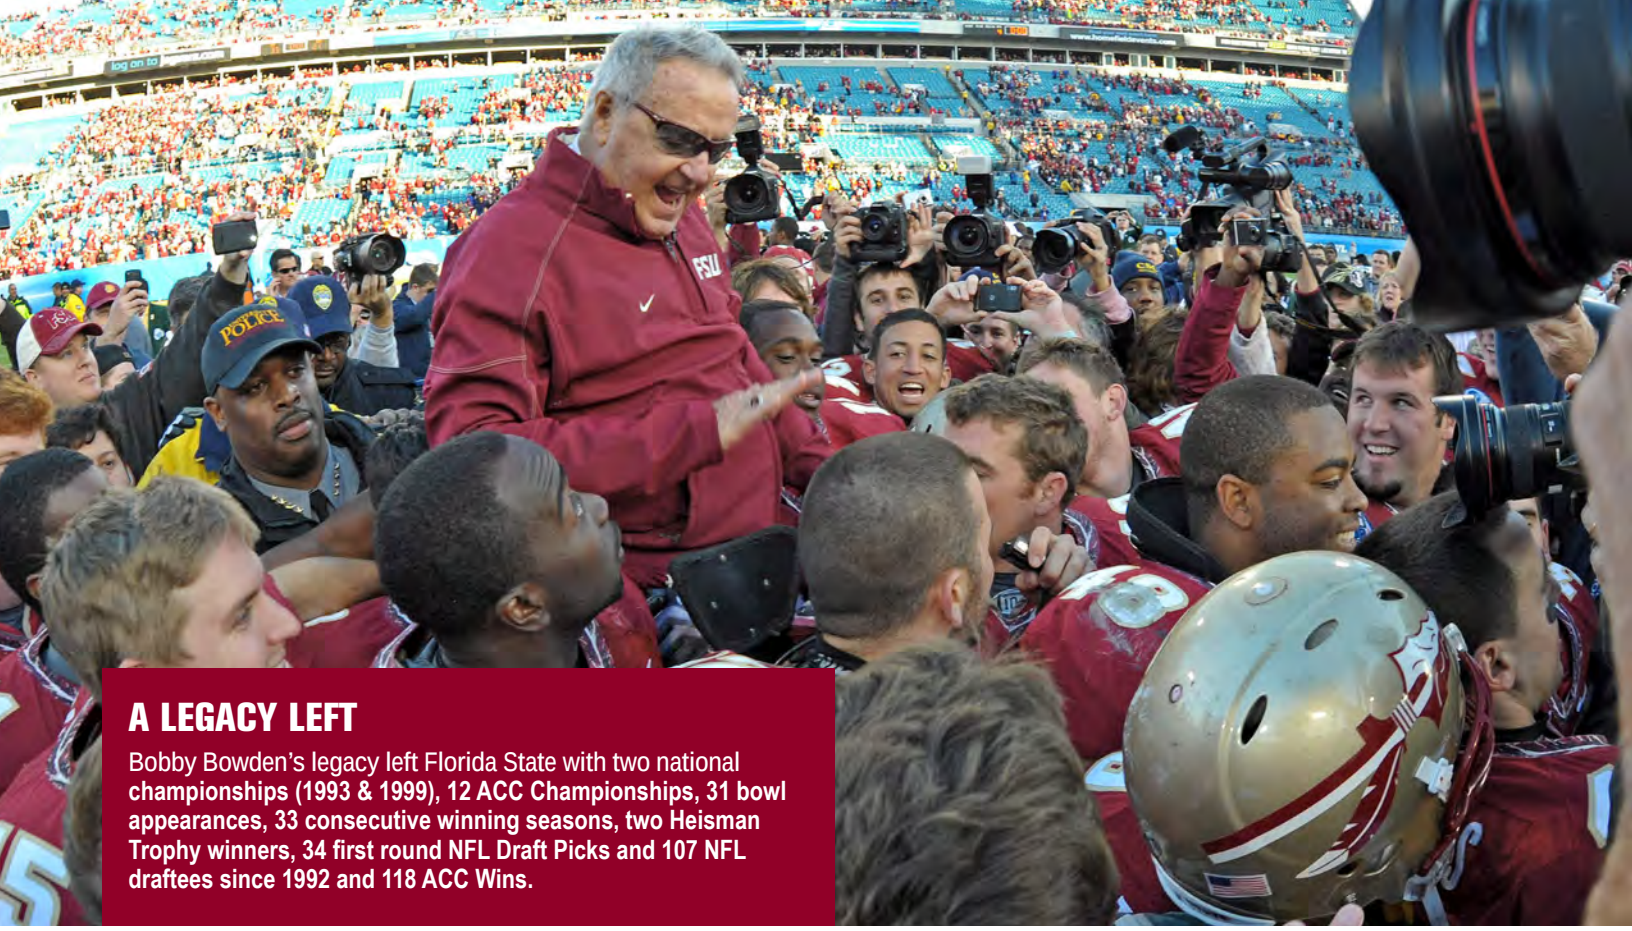

It was not until 1951 that Florida State began to grant athletic scholarships and the move put added pressure on the program to win. FSU left the Dixie Conference and petitioned for membership in the Atlantic Coast Conference and the Southeastern Conference but were rebuffed. Interestingly, it was the University of Florida that sponsored FSU for admission to the SEC.

Seminoles First To Score Two

The late Vic Prinzi, who is a member of the Florida State Hall of Fame and was the color commentator for the radio network until his death in 1997, was the first college player ever to score a two-point conversion. On Sept. 13, 1958, the Seminoles took the season-opening drive of the Tennessee Tech game in for a touchdown and Prinzi, playing quarterback, ran in the two-point conversion to beat the other national games by just minutes.

Football Since 1902 Actually

Florida State College actually played football during the 1902-1904 school years and played it well. The first game in 1902 was a 5-0 win over South Georgia Military on Nov. 21 when touchdowns were worth five points. The NCAA nor the governing body at the time recognizes the early games for FSC, although the school won the state championship in 1904. The 1904 season included a 23-0 win over Florida in Lake City, Fla. The school then became the Florida State College for Women and would remain one of the nation's top all-female institutions until the large number of returning veterans from World War II triggered the state system to open Florida State University to men in 1946. The school resumed football in 1947, taking on Stetson in its first game.

Bobby Bowden's legacy left Florida State with two national championships (1993 & 1999), 12 ACC Championships, 31 bowl appearances, 33 consecutive winning seasons, two Heisman Trophy winners, 34 first round NFL Draft Picks and 107 NFL draftees since 1992 and 118 ACC Wins.

THE BOWDEN ERA

1976
Although FSU had considered dropping football due to a 4-29 record over the previous four seasons, Bobby Bowden is hired as head coach and records his only losing season at FSU with a 5-6 mark.

1977
In one season, Bowden turns the program around with a 10-2 record, FSU's first-ever 10-win season. Under Bowden's direction, FSU won its first bowl game since 1964 with a 40-17 drumming of Texas Tech in the 1977 Tangerine Bowl.

1978
Bowden and Florida State received the program's first preseason national ranking at No. 17. He led the Seminoles to a second straight win over Florida, marking the first time in history FSU had recorded two straight wins over the Gators.

1979
Bowden led FSU to the Orange Bowl in its first ever New Year's Day bowl. Bowden recorded FSU's first ever unbeaten regular season and the highest AP ranking at No. 4 entering the postseason and coached FSU to a school-record 11 wins.

1980
Bowden's 1980 team was the first in program history to finish in the AP Top 5. When it's looked at how FSU became a national power, the 18-14 win at Nebraska always comes to mind as a landmark victory. He was named National Coach of the Year (Bobby Dodd).

1981
Bowden and Florida State gained notoriety with a schedule that lined FSU up in successive weeks on the road against Nebraska, Ohio State, Notre Dame, Pitt and LSU. The Seminoles went 3-2 in that stretch while Florida State's overall schedule was nicknamed "Murderer's Row" and "Octoberfest."

1982
For the second straight year, Bowden and the Seminoles faced the nation's toughest schedule according to the NCAA. Bowden reached into his bag of tricks for a 34-17 upset win at Ohio State.

1983
Bowden surpassed former head coach Bill Peterson as the all-time winningest coach at FSU. He was inducted into the Florida Sports Hall of Fame. The "War Chant" saw its birth and FSU sported its "mustard" uniforms for the first and only time.

1984
Greg Allen recorded Florida State's first 1,000 yard rushing season. Bowden continued his creative play calls as Jessie Hester scored on a 77-yard reverse as FSU stunned defending national champion Miami, 38-3, in the Orange Bowl.

1985
Bowden coached FSU to its ninth straight winning season, capped off by a 34-23 Gator Bowl victory over Oklahoma State. Perhaps FSU's biggest victory came in the second game when FSU traveled to No. 10 Nebraska and defeated the Cornhuskers 17-13, a game Bowden would later call "one of the biggest wins in FSU history."

1986
Bowden and FSU recorded a 56-14 pounding of South Carolina in FSU's first-ever appearance on ESPN. Bowden led FSU to a perfect 6-0 record at home and the most points scored in a game by FSU in history with a 76-14 win over Tulsa. He was inducted into the Alabama Sports Hall of Fame.

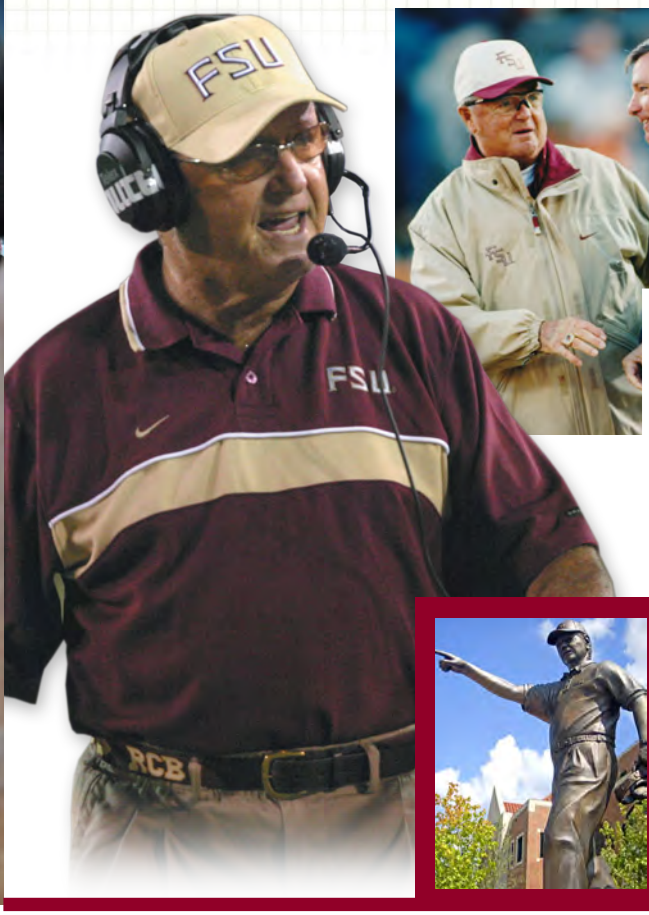

1987
Bowden missed his first national championship by one point when two Miami defenders knocked down a two-point conversion and FSU fell 26-25. FSU snapped a six-game losing skid to the Gators which marked Bowden's 100th victory at FSU.

1988
Bowden's preseason No. 1 ranked team fell at Miami breaking its streak of 11 opening day victories. The Seminoles would not lose again, winning 11 straight games. Bowden called one of his greatest trick plays, the Puntrooskie, at Clemson. FSU drubbed Florida 52-17 for the Seminoles' largest victory margin over the Gators.

1989
After a loss to Clemson, FSU went on to win 10 straight and earn a Top 3 ranking for the third straight year. FSU played in a third straight New Year's Day bowl with a win over Nebraska in the Fiesta Bowl, extending its bowl unbeaten streak to eight.

1990
Bowden earned his 200th career victory when FSU beat LSU 42-3. The 1990 meeting with Florida marked the first time in the series that both teams were ranked in the Top 10 as No. 8 FSU defeated No. 6 UF 45-30. Bowden and FSU beat Joe Paterno's No. 7 Penn State Nittany Lions 24-17 in the Blockbuster Bowl.

1991
Bowden was named National Coach of the Year (Walter Camp) and led FSU to an 11-2 mark and fifth straight season of 10 or more wins. FSU was preseason No. 1 and stayed there 11 weeks before falling to Miami in Wide Right I. FSU defeated No. 3 Michigan 51-31, the most points ever allowed in the Big House.

BOWDEN IN BRONZE

Former head coach Bobby Bowden is bigger than life in front of the Moore Athletics Center at Florida State as a bronze statue of his likeness was unveiled in a ceremony on Sept. 24, 2004. The statue is one-and-a-half life-size of Bowden and was sculpted by Tallahassee artist Stanley Proctor. The artist also created a smaller piece of artwork, measuring just over 12 inches high, featuring Bowden and Doak Campbell Stadium.

1992
Bowden and FSU beat Duke in FSU's first game as a member of the ACC. FSU suffered Wide Right II at Miami and fans saw the birth of the "fast-break offense" in the comeback win at Georgia Tech. Marvin Jones became the first Seminole to capture two national awards. Bowden was named the 1992 Neyland Trophy Winner.

1993
Bowden brought home FSU's first national title with an 18-16 win over Nebraska in the Orange Bowl. Charlie Ward became FSU's first Heisman Trophy winner and won every award he was eligible for. Bowden was named ACC Coach of the Year and led FSU to 12 victories for the first time in school history.

1994
Bowden's squad set an NCAA record with the amazing 28 point fourth quarter comeback against Florida. He led the Seminoles to another ACC Title and Top 4 national ranking. Florida State would play Florida a second time in a game dubbed the Fifth Quarter in the French Quarter, as FSU won 23-17 in the Sugar Bowl.

1995
Florida State's streak of 29 straight ACC wins came to an end with a loss at Virginia. FSU still won the ACC Championship and the victory over Notre Dame in the Orange Bowl preserved its NCAA record 11th straight bowl win. Bowden earned career win No. 250 in his 20th year as Florida State's head coach.

1996
Bowden guided FSU to its second national championship game as FSU celebrated 50 years of Seminole football. Florida State fell in a rematch to Florida in the national championship. Bowden was honored as the 1996 National Coach of the Year (Home Depot). FSU finished the season ranked No. 3.

1997
Bowden and FSU went 11-1 for the second straight season, capped off by a win over Ohio State in the Sugar Bowl. Bowden recorded his 200th victory at FSU. He was named ACC Coach of the Year for the second time. FSU finished No. 3, keeping alive the streak of 11 straight seasons of Top 4 finishes in the AP poll.

1998
Bowden led FSU to its second national championship appearance in three years. FSU won another ACC Championship despite falling at NC State 24-7 in only the second ACC loss for the Seminoles since joining the league. FSU went 11-2 and with a Top 4 ranking (No. 3) and 10 or more wins for a 12th-straight season.

1999
Bowden led FSU to its first undefeated season as FSU became the first team in the history of college football to go wire-to-wire as the AP No. 1 ranked team. Bowden was named National Coach of the Year (Home Depot), a National Coach of the Decade Finalist (Home Depot) and his Seminoles were honored as the ESPN College Team of the Decade (any sport).

2000
FSU played in its third straight national championship game and fourth in five years. The 2000 season was the last of Bowden's streak of 14 straight AP Top 5 finishes and 14 straight seasons of 10 or more wins. The Seminoles finished the season 11-2, 8-0 in the ACC and a No. 5 ranking in the AP final poll.

2001
For the first time since joining the ACC in 1992, Bowden's Seminoles did not win the ACC championship but still went to their 11th straight New Year's Day bowl with an invitation to the Gator Bowl where FSU defeated Virginia Tech. With that win, Bowden tied Bear Bryant for second place on the all-time coaching wins list with 323.

2002
Florida State returned to the top of the ACC and the Seminoles played Georgia in the Sugar Bowl. FSU concluded the season ranked 21st in the final AP poll. During the season, Bowden recorded his 250th victory at Florida State and 325th victory of his career.

2003
Bowden led FSU back to another 10-win season and passed Joe Paterno as the all-time winningest major college football coach. The Seminoles captured the ACC title, its 10th in 12 years, and earned the BCS bid to the Orange Bowl, marking FSU's 22nd straight postseason trip and 13th consecutive January bowl game.

2004
Bowden coached FSU to its 23rd straight bowl and a No. 15 final ranking as he recorded FSU win No. 275 and career win No. 350 during the season. The field at Doak Campbell Stadium was named Bobby Bowden Field, a stained glass window depicting Bowden and a statue of his likeness were placed in front of the stadium.

2005
Bowden guided FSU to another ACC title in the inaugural ACC Championship game with a 27-22 win over Virginia Tech in Jacksonville which propelled FSU into the FedEX Orange Bowl against Penn State. The game was Bowden's 24th consecutive bowl, as he coached against Joe Paterno in an epic triple OT game.

2006
Bowden was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame. The Seminoles made their longest road trip in school history, venturing 2,600 miles to San Francisco for the Emerald Bowl where they beat UCLA. The game marked FSU's 25th straight bowl appearance and the win extended Bowden's winning-season streak to 30.

2007
Bowden earned his 31st consecutive winning season with a 7-6 record and made a Music City Bowl appearance. Bowden reached another milestone in his decorated career when he earned his 300th win at Florida State in a 24-16 victory over Maryland.

2008
Bowden coached his 'Noles to a 9-3 record, No. 21 national ranking and a tie for 1st in the ACC Atlantic Division. FSU concluded the season with a win over Wisconsin in the Champs Sports Bowl and touted the nation's longest bowl streak at 27 straight. In FSU's win over Colorado in Jacksonville, Bowden recorded his 500th game as a head coach.

2009
On December 1st, Bowden announced that the bowl game would be his last as head coach of Florida State. He was carried off the field in his final game as his Seminoles defeated West Virginia, the school he coached prior to coming to FSU, in the Gator Bowl.

FSU FOOTBALL TRADITION

FSU Fight Song

While the "War Chant" has become familiar at FSU games, the Florida State fight song still remains the definitive sound of Seminole sports. FSU's band became the Marching Chiefs in 1950 and with that came the fight song. Tommy Wright, a member of the faculty in the School of Music, was perturbed that the Seminoles had been using "On Wisconsin" and the "Notre Dame Victory March" so he introduced the song in the Sewanee game, setting to music a poem by FSU Alumni Doug Alley.

History of the Garnet and Gold

Florida State's school colors of garnet and gold date back to the Florida State College championship football teams of 1904 and 1905. In those championship seasons, FSC donned purple and gold uniforms. When Florida State College became Florida Female College in 1905, the football team was forced to attend the University of Florida. The following year the FFC student body selected crimson as the official school color of 1905. The administration in 1905 took crimson and combined it with the recognizable purple of the championship football teams to achieve the color garnet. The now-famous garnet and gold colors were first used on an FSU uniform in a 14-6 loss to Stetson on Oct. 18, 1947.

War Chant

Florida State's "war chant" appears to have begun with a random occurrence that took place during a 1984 game against Auburn. In the 1960s, the Marching Chiefs would chant the melody of a popular FSU cheer. In a sense, that chant was the long version of FSU's current "war chant." During a thrilling game with Auburn in 1984, the Marching Chiefs began to perform the dormant melody. Some students behind the band joined in and continued the "war chant" portion after the band had ceased. Most agree the chant came from the fraternity section, but many spirited Seminole fans added the hand motion to symbolize the brandishing of a tomahawk. The chant continued among the student body during the 1985 season, and by the 1986 season, it was a stadium-wide phenomenon. Of course, the Marching Chiefs refined the chant, plus put their own special brand of accompaniment to the "war chant," for the sound we hear today. Atlanta Braves fans took up their version of the song and chant when former FSU star Deion Sanders came to the plate as an outfielder. The Kansas City Chiefs first heard it when the Northwest Missouri State band, directed by 1969 FSU graduate Al Sergel, performed the chant while the players were warming up for a game against San Diego.

Goal Posts Salute Peterson

The Bill Peterson era as head football coach at FSU was a time of great offensive innovation and of many firsts for the upstart Seminole program, including the first Seminole coach to beat the Gators at Florida Field, coaching the program's first All-American in Fred Biletnikoff and recruiting James Thomas, the first African American player to ever play football at FSU. A tradition of the Peterson era was to enter the field through the goal posts. As a tribute to the players and coaches of the Peterson era and their many firsts, "H" style goal posts were added to the field at Doak Campbell Stadium prior to the 2002 season and will forever be referred to as "Pete's Posts."

Tomahawks Can Be Won and Lost

Florida State's coaching staff and academic staff award tomahawks to individual players for great plays or contributions on the field and in the classroom. Players may get a tomahawk for a crucial play, a touchdown, a saving tackle or various other achievements on the field. In 1997 the Seminoles began receiving tomahawks for outstanding academic achievements as well. They look identical except the word academics runs down the handle of the tomahawk. What many fans do not know is that Florida State players can actually lose tomahawks as well. Poor performance on the field or in the classroom can cause a player to be stripped of the coveted decals.

SPECIAL LANDMARKS

"Unconquered"

Dedicated on Oct.10, 2003, Fritz White's bronze statue "Unconquered" was designed to capture the indomitable spirit of the Seminole people and those who have adopted that spirit as a symbol for their university. The massive structure, including its granite-covered pedestal base, stands approximately 31 feet in the air and depicts a spear-brandishing Seminole astride a rearing horse. At sunset the night before each home game, the spear is ignited and burns until sunrise on the next morning after the game. George Langford's endowment of the project for up to $1 million helped make the statue a reality. Fifty-one artists were then considered before White eventually saw the statue dedicated 10 years after the concept was inspired by attorney and FSU graduate Stephen Reilly's trip to South Bend, Ind. for an FSU football game.

Sportsmanship Statue

Between Gates B and C of Doak Campbell Stadium stands the one ton, 15-foot tall Sportsmanship Statue given in honor of Pappy Strum by his daughter Margaret Strum Allesee, who is an FSU graduate and former Seminole cheerleader. The enduring symbol of the most important aspect of athletic competition was sculpted by FSU alumnus and accomplished artist Edward Jonas.

Three Different Helmets to One

For one season in 1962 the Florida State Seminoles took the field with three different helmets. Coach Bill Peterson's three-team system featured the two-way Chiefs, the defensive Renegades and the offensive Warriors with each group wearing a different helmet. By 1963 the Seminoles were back to just one helmet, an all-gold version which once again lasted just one season as the word "State" was added in 1964.

RETIRED JERSEYS & NUMBERS

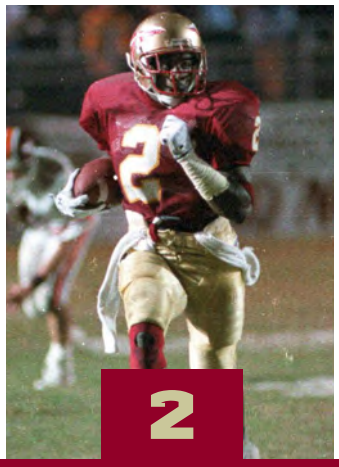

Since Florida State University first fielded an intercollegiate football team 56 years ago, only eight numbers/Jerseys have been retired. Those numbers/ jerseys — 2, 10, 16, 17, 25, 27, 34, 28 and 50 — belonged to eight of the greatest players in Florida State football history — Deion Sanders, Chris Weinke, Charlie Ward, Fred Biletnikoff, Ron Sellers, Warrick Dunn, Derrick Brooks, Ron Simmons and Terrell Buckley.
With his blessing, Sellers' #34 was brought out of retirement in 2003.

Fred Biletnikoff

Ron Sellers

Deion Sanders

Charlie Ward

25 • Fred Biletnikoff

- Wide Receiver
- 1962-64

Biletnikoff played wide receiver at Florida State from 1961-64 under Head Coach Bill Peterson. He was FSU's first consensus All-American. As a senior, he ranked fourth in the nation with 57 receptions for 11 touchdowns, not including four touchdown catches in the Gator Bowl. Following his collegiate success, Biletnikoff went on to star for the Oakland Raiders of the National Football League for 14 years. During that time, he played in four Pro Bowls and was the Most Valuable Player of Super Bowl XI.

34 • Ron Sellers

- Flanker
- 1966-68

Sellers remains the most prolific receiver in FSU history. He held most of the NCAA receiving records from the end of his senior season in 1968 until 1987. A flanker for Florida State from 1966 to 1968, he accumulated 3,979 yards on 240 receptions. Sellers' career was marked by consistency, quality and quantity. He caught passes in 30 consecutive games, averaging 119.9 yards per game. Sellers also led Florida State to three bowl games during his playing days.

50 • Ron Simmons

- Nose Guard
- 1977-80

The greatest defender in Florida State history, Ron Simmons' No. 50 was retired in 1988. Simmons anchored the center of the defense that took FSU to a pair of Orange Bowl appearances in 1979 and 1980, resulting in FSU's highest national rankings ever at that time. A dominating nose guard and the Tribe's first two-time consensus All-American, Simmons seemed to camp out in opponents' backfields. He totaled an FSU record 25 quarterback sacks and 44 tackles for loss — a mark that held top ranking at FSU for 23 years. He was the first Seminole defender to have his number retired.

Ron Simmons

2 • Deion Sanders

- Defensive Back
- 1985-88

Deion Sanders' place in the history of the game of college football was immortalized over a five month period in 2011 when he was inducted into the NFL Hall of Fame in August and the College Football Hall of Fame in December. Sanders redefined the position of cornerback over his historic career winning the 1988 Jim Thorpe Award as a senior at Florida State and landing two-time consensus All-America honors. He left FSU second on the all-time interceptions list, first for career punt return yards and having become one of college football's all-time brightest stars.

17 • Charlie Ward

- Quarterback
- 1989-93

Heisman Trophy Winner | AAU Sulllivan Award Winner
Davey O'Brien Award Winner
Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award Winner
Walter Camp Player of the Year
Chevrolet Offensive Player of the Year

ACC Player of the Year | Toyota Leader of the Year
The Sporting News Player of the Year
UPI Player of the Year | ACC Offensive Player of the Year
Football News Offensive Player of the Year

Florida State's Charlie Ward began his senior season in 1993 chasing both the school's first national championship and the Heisman Trophy. Thousands of fans poured into Doak Campbell Stadium for a celebration of the national championship and Ward's Heisman, which included the surprise retirement of his number. He joined Fred Biletnikoff and Ron Sellers becoming only the third player in FSU history to be so honored. Ward's passing and running skills were already well known qualities by 1993, but his inspired leadership and poise under pressure during his senior year elevated him to one of the game's all-time greats. So exceptional was Ward's command of the offense that coaches moved him into the shotgun to allow him to make adjustments during the play. Ward set 19 school and seven Atlantic Coast Conference records over his two years as the starting quarterback for the Seminoles. A consensus All-American, Ward won over 30 individual awards in addition to the Heisman. Ward ranks second in career total offense at FSU with 6,636 yards and has the highest completion rate for a career (62.3%) and lowest interception percentage (2.90%). Ward set the FSU record for touchdown passes in a season with 27 in 1993.

RETIRED JERSEYS & NUMBERS

Derrick Brooks

Warrick Dunn

Chris Weinke

10 • Derrick Brooks

- Linebacker
- 1991-94

Brooks was a two-time consensus All-American at outside linebacker for the Seminoles where his blend of speed and athleticism set a new standard for the position. He starred at FSU from 1991-94 leading FSU to its first national title as a junior and earning first team All-ACC honors as a sophomore, junior and senior. He was named the ACC Player of the Year in 1994 and was a finalist for the Butkus, Lombardi and Football Writer's Defensive Player of the Year Award in both 1993 and 1994. Brooks was just as highly regarded off the field earning first team Academic All-America honors in 1994 and winning an NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship. In addition, he was committed to public service causes throughout his Seminole career. Brooks carried his excellence both on the field and as a citizen into his likely Hall of Fame career as the NFL's Tampa Bay Buccaneers' all-time leading tackler. He was voted to 10 consecutive Pro Bowls (11 total) and at the time of his retirement had made an NFL-leading 200 consecutive starts. He led his beloved Tampa Bay team to the Super Bowl Championship in 2002. As a professional, Brooks was the recipient of several prestigious awards, including the 2000 Walter Payton/ NFL Man of the Year award, the 2003 Bart Starr Award, the 2004 Bryon "Whizzer" White Award, and the 2008 JB Award through the NFL Players association, all of which recognize an NFL player annually for their commitment to the communities in which they live.

28 • Warrick Dunn

- Running Back
- 1993-96

Warrick Dunn's four-year career at Florida State established him as one of the most popular players in all of college football and the finest running back in school history. Dunn is the only Seminole ever to rush for over 1,000 yards in three consecutive seasons. His 3,959 career rushing yards broke Greg Allen's school record set in 1984. He also broke Allen's single season rushing record when he ran for 1,242 yards as a junior in 1995. Dunn has the record for most touchdowns scored in a career with 49 over four seasons and rushed for over 100 yards more times (21) than any player at FSU. He was a three-time All-ACC selection as well as a member of the ACC All-Academic Team. He was selected to the first team Football Writer's All-America squad as a senior and earned second team Associated Press honors that same year.

Set 26 School Records Over His Career At FSU
Set ACC and FSU Record for Career Passing Yards

Chris Weinke literally rewrote the Florida State record book over his career as the Seminoles' quarterback. He set 26 school records, including both the FSU and Atlantic Coast Conference records for career passing yards with 9,839. He led the Seminoles to an undefeated season and the national championship as a junior in 1999. He became FSU's second Heisman Trophy winner as a senior in 2000, while leading the nation in passing with 4,167 yards and averaging 347.3 yards per game. Weinke compiled a remarkable 32-3 record as the starting quarterback at FSU, which ranked as the seventh best winning percentage in NCAA history. His 79 career touchdown passes ranked as the 12th best performance in NCAA history and his career passing yards placed him at 18th on the NCAA's all-time list. Weinke owned the first, second and fourth best passing games in FSU history headlined by a school record 536 passing yards against Duke in 2000. His accomplishments were even more impressive considering he suffered a potentially career-ending neck injury as a sophomore. Weinke's place among Florida State's all-time greatest players was recognized when his jersey was retired in 2001, at the time making it one of only seven retired numbers/jerseys in school history. His place among the ACC's all-time best was recognized when he was voted one of the 50 best players in the history of the conference.

27 • Terrell Buckley

- Cornerback
- 1989-91

Florida State retired the jersey of former Seminole and NFL star cornerback Terrell Buckley at halftime of the ULM on Sept. 3, 2011. Buckley owns most of FSU's interception records following his outstanding three-year career from 1989-91 including the single season mark with 12 interceptions as a junior. He became FSU's second Jim Thorpe Trophy winner following the 1991 season and finished seventh in the Heisman Trophy balloting. He totaled 21 career interceptions as a Seminole. Buckley was also one of FSU's all-time great punt returners and he scored seven career touchdowns, four on interceptions and three on punts. He also played two years for the FSU baseball team and ran track for the Seminoles. Buckley was the fifth player taken overall in the 1992 NFL draft by the Green Bay Packers. He went on to an outstanding 15-year NFL career in which he totaled 50 career interceptions.

1993

Charlie Ward

Charlie Ward

- Quarterback
- 1989-93

1993 HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER

The most decorated player in the history of college football as a senior, Charlie Ward won literally every award he was eligible for in his final season. Ward, who led the Seminoles to their first national championship, became Florida State's first Heisman Trophy winner in 1993. A native of nearby Thomasville, Ga., Ward waited for his turn at quarterback and overcame a rough start as a junior to become the finest player in Florida State history. In addition to the trophies listed on the previous page, Ward saw his No. 17 jersey retired and, remarkably, played in the NBA for more than a decade. He is only the second football player in history to win the prestigious Sullivan Award, presented to the nation's top amateur athlete.

HEISMAN TROPHY

2000

Chris Weinke

16 • Chris Weinke

- Quarterback
- 1997-00

2000 HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER

The first three-year starter at quarterback for the Seminoles under Bobby Bowden, Chris Weinke became the second FSU player to win the Heisman Trophy when he was named the nation's best football player in December 2000. Weinke led the nation in passing as a senior with 4,167 yards and averaged 347.3 yards per game. Weinke led the Seminoles to an undefeated season and the national championship as a junior in 1999 and compiled a remarkable 32-3 record as a starter at FSU, which ranked as the seventh best winning percentage in NCAA history. Weinke set both the Florida State and Atlantic Coast Conference record for career passing with 9,839 career passing yards and would set 26 school records during his career. His 79 career touchdown passes ranked as the 12th best performance in the NCAA history and his career passing yards placed him at 18th on the NCAA's all-time list. Weinke owns the first, second and fourth best passing games in FSU history headlined by a school record 536 passing yards against Duke in 2000. Weinke also won the Davey O'Brien and Johnny Unitas trophies as a senior signifying his selection as the nation's best quarterback. Weinke's No. 16 jersey was retired at a ceremony during halftime of the 2001 spring football game.

Deion Sanders

- Cornerback
- 1985-88

1988 JIM THORPE AWARD WINNER

One of the best athletes ever to wear a Florida State uniform, cornerback Deion Sanders won the Jim Thorpe Award as the top defensive back of 1988.

Sanders collected the prize after a career which saw him gather 14 career interceptions, not including three in bowl games. In his junior and senior seasons, FSU went 11-1 with a pair of New Year's Day bowl wins. In 1988, Sanders ranked in the top 10 nationally with five interceptions in nine games. He was the nation's top punt returner, averaging 15.2 yards per return.

The Ft. Myers, Fla., native ranks third on the FSU career interceptions chart and holds most of the school's punt return records. A three-sport star in football, baseball and track at Florida State, Sanders was the fifth pick in the 1989 NFL draft by the Atlanta Falcons. He became a successful two-sport pro — elected to the Pro Bowl seven times in football and started in centerfield for the Atlanta Braves and the Cincinnati Reds. He was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame and the College Football Hall of Fame in 2011.

Terrell Buckley

- Cornerback
- 1989-91

1991 JIM THORPE AWARD WINNER

In 1991, Terrell Buckley capped the best season ever by a Florida State cornerback by becoming the second Seminole ever to win the Jim Thorpe Award. A junior, Buckley blew away the Florida State record for interceptions with 12 in 1991. He intercepted passes in eight of FSU's 12 regular season contests to lead the country in pickoffs. Against Michigan in Ann Arbor, his interception and 40-yard return for a touchdown on the game's first play set the stage for a 51-31 Florida State win. A native of Pascagoula, Miss., Buckley also demolished the Florida State career record with 21 INTs in just three seasons. His 501 career return yards broke an NCAA record that had stood since 1974. Following the year, Buckley entered the NFL draft and was selected by the Green Bay Packers with the fifth pick in the first round. He's been named one of the Top 100 Greatest College Football Players of all-time by CollegeFootballNews and named one of Sports Illustrated's Ten for the Ages' Defensive Back Game Breakers of all-time in college football. Buckley's FSU jersey No. 27 was retired in 2011.

1987 BUTKUS AWARD WINNER

Calling the Butkus Award for linebackers, "The Heisman of the Bad Guys," FSU inside linebacker Paul McGowan accepted the award from Dick Butkus himself in December of 1987.

The 6-1, 230-pound McGowan won the award by a one-point margin over Ohio State's Chris Spielman. McGowan won the award based on a senior season in which he totaled 150 tackles, including 97 solo stops and 11 behind the line of scrimmage. He was named to the Associated Press, Sporting News and Football News first team All-America squads.

Marvin Jones

- Inside Linebacker
- 1990-92

1992 BUTKUS AWARD WINNER

The top player in the nation in 1992, Marvin Jones became the first Seminole to capture two national awards in the same year when he earned both the Butkus Award for linebackers and the Lombardi Award for linemen and linebackers following his junior season.

Florida State's third two-time consensus All-American, Jones tallied 111 tackles and seven tackles for a loss in 1992 while leading the Seminoles to an 11-1 record. He made 10 or more tackles in nine games and finished fourth in the balloting for the Heisman Trophy.

He finished his career seventh on FSU's career tackle chart with 369 and third on the all-time list with 28 tackles for loss. A first team All-ACC choice out of Miami, Fla., Florida State tailored its nationally-ranked defense to Jones' strength in 1992.

Jones left Tallahassee for the NFL after his junior season, and at the time, was the highest Seminole draft choice when he was selected fourth overall by the New York Jets.

LOU GROZA AWARD

Sebastian Janikowski

2008

Graham Gano

Sebastian Janikowski

- Placekicker
- 1997-99

1998 & 1999 LOU GROZA WINNER

Sebastian Janikowski became the first Seminole to win the Lou Groza Award when he was named the nation's top kicker in 1998. He became the first kicker to win back-to-back Groza awards in 1999.

Janikowski set Florida State and Atlantic Coast Conference records with 27 field goals in 1998. He nailed a remarkable 84.4 percent (27-of-32) field goals in 1999 and led the nation with an average of 2.23 per game. His 123 points were the most scored in a single season by a kicker in FSU or ACC history. He matched Bill Capece's Florida State record for field goals in a game by booting five at Maryland in 1998 and vs. NC State in 1999. His 53-yard field goal against Clemson tied for the third longest in Seminole history and he kicked 10 of 40 yards or more. He was named first team Associated Press and Football Writer's All-America along with earning first team All-ACC honors.

Graham Gano

- Placekicker
- 2006-08

2008 LOU GROZA WINNER

Graham Gano brought home the third Lou Groza Award in school history in 2008. That season Gano finished first in the FBS for field goals made, percentage of field goals converted and 50-yard field goals made. He was one of only two kickers in college to make over 90% of his field goal attempts that season and he was the highest scoring kicker in America. Gano was a Rivals.com, Scout.com and CBS Sports first team All-American, a Walter Camp, Associated Press, Sporting News, SI.com and Phil Steele second team All-American. He also earned All-ACC First Team honors.

Gano is the only kicker in FSU history to convert over 90% of his field goals in a season. He is the Seminoles single season record holder for 50 yard field goals and he finished second for career 50-yard field goals at FSU despite kicking for just one season. At one point in 2008 Gano made 18 consecutive field goals covering 55 days after missing his first career field goal attempt against Wake Forest. He also made five straight attempts from 50 yards or longer.

Jamal Reynolds

- Defensive End
- 1997-00

2000 LOMBARDI AWARD WINNER

Defensive end Jamal Reynolds became just the second Florida State player to win the Lombardi Award when he was named the nation's most outstanding lineman/linebacker following his senior year.

A consensus All-American following the 2000 season, Reynolds was another in a long and prominent line of great defensive linemen for the Seminoles that included 1999 Lombardi runner-up Corey Simon. Reynolds joined Seminole star Marvin Jones who won the Lombardi in 1992 from his middle linebacker position. Reynolds led the Seminoles in sacks as a senior with 12 and forced four fumbles for a defense that was among the nation's best in 2000. He finished the year with 58 tackles including 28 unassisted stops and had two safeties on the year. His 23.5 career quarterback sacks ranks fourth all-time at FSU and his 12 sacks as a senior ties him with Ron Simmons (1977) as the fifth best season ever. Reynolds was the first FSU player selected in the 2001 NFL draft when he was taken in the first round by the Green Bay Packers with the 10th pick. Reynolds' distinction as a consensus All-American puts him in the company of Peter Boulware (1996), Reinard Wilson (1996) and Andre Wadsworth (1997), who also earned the distinction at defensive end.

O'BRIEN, MAXWELL & UNITAS AWARDS

The Davey O'Brien Award honors the No. 1 quarterback in the nation, presented by the Davey O'Brien Educational and Charitable Trust of Fort Worth. The award is named for TCU Hall of Fame quarterback Davey O'Brien (1936-38).

The Maxwell Award is presented to the nation's outstanding college football player by the Maxwell Football Club of Philadelphia.

The Johnny Unitas Award is presented by the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Educational Foundation, to the best senior college quarterback in the country. The award is named for Hall of Fame quarterback Unitas, who played at Louisville before his 18-year NFL career.

Charlie Ward

- Quarterback
- 1989-93

1993 DAVEY O'BRIEN AWARD WINNER
1993 JOHNNY UNITAS GOLDEN ARM AWARD WINNER
1993 MAXWELL AWARD WINNER

The most decorated player in the history of college football, Charlie Ward won literally every award he was eligible for as a senior signal caller. Ward, who led the Seminoles to their first national championship, became Florida State's first Heisman Trophy winner in 1993.

A native of nearby Thomasville, Ga., Ward waited for his turn at quarterback and overcame a rough start as a junior to become the finest player in Florida State history.

Ward saw his jersey No. 17 jersey retired and, remarkably, has played in the NBA for 11 years. He became only the second football player in history to win the prestigious Sullivan Award.

Chris Weinke

- Quarterback
- 1997-2000

2000 DAVEY O'BRIEN AWARD WINNER
2000 JOHNNY UNITAS GOLDEN ARM AWARD WINNER

The first three-year starter at quarterback for the Seminoles under Bobby Bowden, Chris Weinke became the second FSU player to win the Davey O'Brien Award. He became the third FSU quarterback to win the Johnny Unitas Award when he was named the nation's best quarterback joining FSU alums Charlie Ward (1993) and Casey Weldon (1991).

Weinke led the nation in passing as a senior with 4,167 yards and averaged 347.3 yards per game. Weinke led the Seminoles to an undefeated season and the national championship as a junior in 1999 and compiled a remarkable 32-3 record as a starter at FSU, which ranked as the seventh best winning percentage in NCAA history.

Weinke set both the Florida State and Atlantic Coast Conference record for career passing with 9,839 career passing yards and would set 26 school records during his career. His 79 career touchdown passes ranked as the 12th best performance in the NCAA history and his career passing yards placed him at 18th on the NCAA's all-time list. Weinke owns the first, second and fourth best passing games in FSU history headlined by a school record 536 passing yards against Duke in 2000.

Weinke also won the Heisman Trophy as a senior signifying his selection as the nation's best player. Weinke's No. 16 jersey was retired at a ceremony during halftime of the 2001 spring football game.

Casey Weldon

- Quarterback
- 1988-91

1991 JOHNNY UNITAS GOLDEN ARM AWARD WINNER

Quarterback Casey Weldon capped a great senior season with the 1991 Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award. Weldon, who was runner-up for the Heisman Trophy, completed 189-of-313 passes for 2,527 yards and 22 touchdowns in leading the Seminoles to an 11-2 record and 4th-place finish in the Associated Press poll.

A native of Tallahassee, Weldon was truly a hometown hero who won over fans with a combination of exceptional talent and great desire. He led the Seminoles to a 10-2 win over powerful Texas A&M in the Cotton Bowl as a senior.

YEAR-BY-YEAR RESULTS

ED WILLIAMSON
(1947) 0-5-0

Ed Williamson was appointed Florida State's first coach just a few weeks before the inaugural football season. He had no stadium, no scholarships and no team name. With only 45 ex-high school players, his teams came close to winning three games that year, although it finished 0-5. Williamson was not paid for coaching the team.

DON VELLER
(1948-52) 31-12-1

Don Veller won 30 of his first 34 games as head coach at FSU before the Seminoles began playing a major college schedule. His overall record included an undefeated (8-0) season in 1950, the year the Tribe moved into Doak Campbell Stadium. Veller owns the second highest winning percentage of FSU coaches (.716). He is credited with laying the early foundation for the FSU football program.

TOM NUGENT
(1953-58) 34-28-1

Tom Nugent had a successful coaching stint at Florida State, as indicated by his 34-28-1 record in six years at the Seminole helm. Florida State participated in two bowl games during Nugent's tenure and his 1958 squad was the first FSU team to play Florida. Nugent also served as athletic director while head coach of the Seminoles.

PERRY MOSS
(1959) 4-6-0

Moss was one of two FSU coaches who spent only a year at the school. Midway through the 1959 season, reports were published that Moss would leave to join the Montreal Alouettes of the Canadian Football League. True to the reports, he departed after a brief year in Tallahassee.

BILL PETERSON
(1960-70) 62-42-11

Bill Peterson took over a football program in deep trouble in 1960. When he left, 11 years and four bowl games later, he had become the most significant coach in the first 25 years of Florida State football. Under "Pete," the Seminoles went 62-42-11. The most memorable Peterson year was 1964, when the "Seven Magnificents" led Florida State to a 9-1-1 record and FSU's first ever win over Florida.

LARRY JONES
(1971-73) 15-19-0

Larry Jones compiled a 15-19 record in three years as the Seminole head coach. In his first two seasons, the popular coach led his teams to a 15-8 record; but he is probably remembered most for the 1973 campaign, when his team did not win a game.

DARRELL MUDRA
(1974-75) 4-18-0

Darrell Mudra was a successful coach before arriving at Florida State, and he was successful after he left. At FSU, Mudra inherited an 0-11 team and wasn't able to bring the program back to the glory years it enjoyed under Bill Peterson. Mudra coached from the press box instead of the sidelines.

BOBBY BOWDEN
(1976-2009) 316-97-4*

Bobby Bowden spent 34 years at the helm of the Seminole program that he resurrected beginning in 1976. By far the winningest coach in school history, Bowden accumulated more wins than the previous seven head coaches combined. He finished his career as major college football's all-time second-winningest coach.

Bowden took the Florida State program to the top of the college football world and won two national championships (1993, 1999). Bowden's Seminoles were one of the most dominant bowl teams ever posting a 22-10-1 record with NCAA records for consecutive bowl wins (10) and consecutive bowl appearances without a loss (14).

Bowden is the only coach in the history of college football to lead teams to 10 or more wins over 14 straight seasons. He is also the only coach ever to lead his team to 14 straight finishes among the Associated Press Top Five.

* Due to sanctions imposed on Florida State by the NCAA, the NCAA recognizes Bowden with 377 overall victories and 304 wins at FSU.

JIMBO FISHER

Jimbo Fisher took over the helm at Florida State in 2010 after being named the successor to legendary coach Bobby Bowden on Jan. 5, 2010. In just his first-year, Fisher guided the Seminoles to a final ranking of No. 16 in the USA Today Coaches Poll. He led Florida State to the 2010 Chick-fil-A Bowl Championship after a season sweep of in-state rivals Miami and Florida, an ACC Atlantic Division Title and the program's first 10-win season since 2003. His 10 wins were the most by a first-year head at FSU and the third-most by a rookie coach in the ACC history. In Fisher's second year in 2011, the Seminoles swept in-state rivals Miami and Florida for the second straight year marking the first time since 1998-99 that FSU recorded back-to-back sweeps of the Hurricanes and Gators. FSU also won its fourth straight bowl game with a win over Notre Dame in the Champs Sports Bowl.

UNIVERSITY ADMINISTRATION

Dr. Eric J. Barron
University President

Dr. Eric J. Barron became the 14th president of The Florida State University on February 1, 2010.

He is a 1973 Florida State alumnus, with a bachelor's degree in geology. He earned master's and doctoral degrees in oceanography from the University of Miami.

Prior to assuming the Florida State presidency, he served as director of the National Center for Atmospheric Research in Boulder, Colo. From 2006-2008 Dr. Barron was dean of the Jackson School of Geosciences at the University of Texas at Austin. At Pennsylvania State University from 1986 to 2006, he was professor of geosciences, director of the Earth System Science Center, director of the EMS Environment Institute, and finally dean of the College of Earth and Mineral Sciences.

Dr. Barron is a Fellow in the American Association for the Advancement of Science, the American Geophysical Union, the American Meteorological Society and the Geological Society of America. He has received many national awards as a scholar, researcher and distinguished lecturer, has published extensively, and has been editor or a member of the editorial boards of a dozen academic journals.

He has testified before Congress and has chaired numerous committees in service to the federal government, including the NASA Senior Review for the Earth Sciences in 2005. He has chaired committees and panels of the National Research Council since 1987 and currently chairs "An Ocean Infrastructure for U.S. Ocean Research in 2030."

A highly visible scientist, Barron is committed to the full spectrum of academic disciplines. He is an ardent supporter and advocate for the full spectrum of excellence in the arts and humanities, sciences, law, business and medicine.

A native of Lafayette, Ind., Barron and his wife, Molly, have two grown children and one granddaughter.

Randy Spetman
Director of Athletics

Florida State Director of Athletics Randy Spetman can rightfully look at his four years at the helm of the Seminole athletic program with great pride. In his three full seasons as the Seminoles AD, FSU qualified for NCAA postseason play in every sport every year with just one exception. This past athletic year FSU equaled its highest-ever Director's Cup finish placing fifth for the second time in three years. The Seminoles were also just one of two schools to finish ranked among the Top 25 in football, men's basketball and baseball. Six Seminole teams made it to the final four in their respective sports and the ACC named six of FSU's student-athletes the top scholar-athlete of the year in their sport.

In 2010-11 Florida State athletics was the only Division I department in the NCAA to have all of its 19 sports participate in the NCAA postseason. It marked the second consecutive year that FSU sent every one of its athletic programs into NCAA postseason play. In addition, this past athletic year the FSU's men's basketball program won the ACC Tournament Title for the first time in school history, as did the Seminole women's soccer team.

After being ranked 15th nationally in the Director's Cup following his first year, FSU earned its highest ever ranking in 2009-10 when the school finished fifth overall. In 2010-11 FSU was in the top 10 once again finishing ninth in the nation. These were the first top 10 finishes in school history and in each of the last seven years the Seminole athletic program has finished higher in the standings than at any other point in program history. The first ever top 10 finishes under Spetman are so impressive as this has been accomplished during a time when budgets are as constrained at Florida's universities as they have ever been in the modern era.

In 2011-12 Florida State had a banner athletic year under Spetman's guidance both on the field and in the classroom. There were more than 50 All-America honors earned by Seminole student-athletes this past year, a number that was surpassed only by the amount of athletes selected to All-ACC Academic Teams.

"This was a wonderful athletic year on so many levels. Finishing in the top 5 for the second time in three years, something only four programs with three straight top 10 finishes have done, speaks to the commitment and excellence of this entire department, our coaches and especially our student-athletes," said Spetman. "To finish in the top 5 for a second time in three years and inside the top 15 every year I have been at Florida State is an amazing accomplishment. We are very proud to be amongst this select group of athletic programs and I know our fans appreciate the success we have had across the board."

In 2011-12 Florida State was one of only two schools to have football play in a bowl game, the men's team make the NCAA Basketball tournament and the baseball team play in the College World Series. That blend of rare success has been the norm the last three years at Florida State under Spetman. FSU was one of only eight schools to have its football team play in a bowl game, its men's basketball team selected to the NCAA Tournament and its baseball team selected for the NCAA Championships in 2010-11. That came on the heels of 2009-10 when the Seminoles were one of only three universities in the country to appear in a bowl game, a NCAA men's basketball tournament and advance to the baseball College World Series.

The success Spetman has experienced at Florida State begins with excellence in the classroom. In November of 2008, football's Myron Rolle highlighted the academic year when he became the second Seminole student-athlete since 2006 to earn a Rhodes Scholarship - one of the oldest and most prestigious awards for international study. It was the first time in nearly 25 years a Rhodes Scholar was awarded to a prominent college football player. Rolle is the fourth Florida State student ever to be named a Rhodes Scholar.

In the last three years alone there have been 18 Seminoles named the ACC's top student-athlete in their sport, 13 student-athletes have been named CoSIDA Academic All-Americans, 25 have been named CoSIDA Academic All-District first team selections and well over 200 All-ACC Academic honors have been bestowed on FSU student-athletes.

The success FSU's student-athletes and coaches have achieved since Spetman's first full year on the job in 2009 is a credit to his leadership and direction for the department. In just four years, there have been more than 250 All-America honors earned by Seminole student-athletes, 18 ACC Coach of the Year awards, 18 ACC team championships and out of a possible 76 NCAA Tournament appearances, the Seminoles have advanced to NCAA postseason play 69 times.

Over the last two years FSU added three exciting facilities with the completion of a multi-purpose teaching facility and six indoor courts for the tennis programs, a softball hitting complex, and a new sand volleyball complex as well. In 2011-12 the football practice fields, which underwent a major renovation during the summer, opened for fall practice.

Spetman was introduced as Director of Athletics at FSU on February 4, 2008 following a national search. A former pilot and retired Air Force colonel, he took over after serving as Director of Athletics at Utah State from 2004-2008 and in the same position at the United States Air Force Academy from 1996-2003.

Spetman, 59, was lauded over his tenure at Utah State for the success of the Aggies' athletic programs both on the field or court and in the classroom. Utah State joined the Western Athletic Conference (WAC) in 2005 and claimed four conference championships in its first two years. USU's student-athletes led the WAC with a 78 percent graduation rate and maintained over a 3.0 cumulative grade point average.

Under Spetman's leadership, Utah State made high profile improvements to the football stadium. He also spearheaded fundraising and building efforts for a $12.5 million facility and crafted a unique business partnership for medical health coverage that improved the overall coverage of USU student-athletes and reduced medical costs. In addition, he negotiated a lucrative new marketing agreement for Aggie Athletics with Learfield Sports Properties.

Spetman spent eight successful years as Director of Athletics at the United States Air Force Academy in Colorado Springs, Colo. During his tenure, he administered the school's 27-sport intercollegiate program as well as the physical education and intramural programs. Under his command, the football team participated in four bowl games.

Born and raised in Council Bluffs, Iowa, Spetman graduated from the Air Force Academy in 1976. He earned three letters as a defensive end for the Falcons and was a team captain as a senior. He also won a pair of heavyweight Wing Open Boxing Championships. Spetman's 28-year military career took him around the world in a variety of positions. A command pilot with more than 3,000 hours of flight time, his range of positions took him from assistant football coach at his alma mater to Chief of Bomber Planning in Operations Desert Shield and Desert Storm to serving as Chief, Command and Control Division, Operations Directorate of the U.S. European Command in Stuttgart, Germany.

A graduate from Squadron Officer School, he attended the National War College and earned a master's degree in National Security Strategy. Spetman also holds a master's in management and supervision from Central Michigan University.

He served as President of the National Association of Collegiate Director's of Athletics (NACDA) in 2009-10.

He and his wife, the former Becky Luhring of Des Moines, Iowa, are the parents of two grown children, Brian and Kim.

Dr. Pamela L. Perrewé
Faculty Athletics Representative

Pamela L. Perrewé (Ph.D.) is in her second year as the Faculty Athletics Representative to the NCAA and the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Perrewé is the Haywood and Betty Taylor Eminent Scholar of Business Administration and Distinguished Research Professor at Florida State University. She received her Bachelor degree in Psychology from Purdue University and her Master and Ph.D. degrees in Management from the University of Nebraska. Perrewé has focused her research interests in the areas of job stress, burnout, coping, mentoring, organizational politics, emotion and personality. Perrewé has published several books, over 30 book chapters and over 100 articles in journals such as Academy of Management Journal, Journal of Management, Journal of Applied Psychology, and Organizational Behavior and Human Decision Processes. She holds Fellow status in the Society for Industrial and Organizational Psychology and the American Psychological Association.

Perrewé has maintained a commitment to her profession as well as to Florida State University for over 25 years, and she has won teaching, mentoring, and research awards at Florida State University. She has served as the Management Department Chair as well as the Associate Dean for Graduate Programs in the College of Business. She has a passion for sports, enjoys playing tennis, and has served on the Athletic Board since 2004. Perrewé also served on the Board of Scientific Counselors of the National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health (NIOSH) from 2004-2007. She is married to Dr. Gerald R. Ferris and together they have six children; Erin, Jennifer, Emily, Ellie, Stephen and Matthew and one granddaughter, Lily.

ATHLETIC ADMINISTRATION

Monk Bonasorte
Senior Associate Athletic Director
Football Oversight

Monk Bonasorte is in his fifth year as Senior Associate Atletic Director at Florida State and among his responsibilities are oversight of internal operations within the athletic department and oversight of Florida State's football program.

Currently, Bonasorte is responsible for administrative oversight of the following departments: Media Relations, Equipment, Communications, Student Services, Athletic Training, Coaches Video and Strength & Conditioning.

A member of Florida State's All-Time football team as named by Athlon Magazine, Bonasorte earned four varsity letters (1977-80), played in the 1977 Tangerine Bowl and two Orange Bowls (1980 and 1981) and was inducted into the FSU Athletics Hall of Fame in 1995 as one of the top defensive backs in school history. He ranks second in school history with 15 interceptions while his eight interceptions in 1979 ranks as the second highest single season total in school history.

Bonasorte joined the Florida State athletics department executive staff in 2008 after a 13-year career as the president and executive director of the Florida State University Varsity Club - the organization that gives back to every Seminole letterwinner and allows them to give back to the current letterwinners. He helped build the FSU Varsity Club into one of the top organizations of its kind across the nation.

As a player, Bonasorte earned All-America Third Team honors in 1979 by the Associated Press and All-America Second Team honors from Football News in 1980 starring on one of the toughest defensive units in Florida State history in 1979. He led the nation in interceptions for the majority of the 1979 season and finished with eight to rank fourth nationally and set a Seminole record for interceptions in a season. The Seminoles ranked sixth nationally and fifth nationally during his junior and senior seasons, respectively.

Bonasorte spent seven years working with the Elmont Sports Group - a leader in the building and marketing of professional sports teams. He served as the marketing director for two seasons for the Tallahassee Scorpions of the indoor professional soccer league. He served as the director of marketing for the East Coast Hockey League Tallahassee Tiger Sharks (1997-99) and served as the Vice-President and General Manager for the Tallahassee Thunder of the Arena2 Football league (1999-2003).

Bonasorte and his wife, Beverly, have two sons, T.J. and Rocky.

Vanessa Fuchs
Senior Associate Athletic Director
SWA

Florida State Athletic Director Randy Spetman promoted Vanessa Fuchs to the role of Senior Associate Athletic Director/ Senior Woman Administrator in May of 2012. Fuchs had served as the department's associate athletic director for compliance since 2010.

Since joining the athletics staff in 2010, Fuchs has focused her time on building a comprehensive rules education program, implementing a department-wide recruiting and compliance software system and establishing a new team structure for the compliance office.

Prior to arriving at Florida State, Fuchs committed seven years to the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) in Indianapolis, Indiana. In 2007, her extensive knowledge of NCAA legislation, interpretations and the NCAA's governance process earned her a promotion to Associate Director of Academic and Membership Affairs (AMA).

Fuchs remained rooted in AMA throughout her tenure with the NCAA. Fuchs was primarily responsible for supervising the functions of the Legislative Relief Waiver team and contributed heavily to issuing interpretations, serving as a staff liaison to NCAA governance committees and leading project teams for the association.

Before embarking on her career with the NCAA, Fuchs got her start working for the Atlantic Coast Conference as a Championships Intern in 2001. The Pompano Beach, Fla., native was a four-year letterwinner for the Seminoles' women's basketball team from 1997-2001. She was the team co-captain in her senior year. Fuchs finished her career as a three-time ACC Honor Roll selection.

Fuchs graduated Magna Cum Laude with a bachelor's degree in communications at Florida State University and earned her master's degree from the University of North Carolina in sport administration. She will oversee the compliance and academic departments in her new role.

Kevin Terry
Senior Associate Athletic Director
CFO

Kevin Terry is in his eighth year with the Florida State Athletics Department. After serving as Assistant Athletics Director of Business Operations and Finance, Terry was elevated to the position of Senior Associate Athletic Director and CFO in July of 2010. This past year he added oversight responsibilities for Florida State's men's basketball program.

Terry joined the Florida State University Athletics Department in 2004, served as Assistant Business Manager from 2004-2007 and was promoted to Business Manager in 2007 in charge of all business operations for Seminole Athletics. Terry was later promoted to Assistant Athletics Director of Business Operations and Finance in 2009.

In his role as chief financial officer of the department, Terry directs the development and administration of the program's $67 million budget and oversees the athletic department's financial planning.

Currently, Terry is responsible for administrative oversight of the following departments: Business Operations, Ticket Operations, Marketing and Promotions, Facilities and Event Management, Digital Media, Information Technology, Courtesy Car Program, and Human Resources/Payroll representative.

Before coming to Florida State University, Terry worked for five years with the Georgia Institute of Technology Athletic Association in a number of roles. While at Georgia Tech, Terry had multiple responsibilities within both Business Operations and Ticket Operations for the Yellow Jackets.

Terry received both his bachelor's degree in Business Administration and Finance and a master's degree in sport administration from Georgia State University in Atlanta.

COMPLIANCE

What is NCAA Compliance?

Florida State University is committed and obligated to the principle of institutional control in operating its athletics program in a manner that is consistent with the letter and the spirit of the NCAA, ACC and university rules and regulations. The maintaining of institutional control is imperative to the continued growth and success of Seminole Athletics. Proper rules compliance is the concern of everyone associated with Florida State University, and everyone plays a role. Keeping our student-athletes, administrators, coaching staffs and alumni/boosters abreast of NCAA and ACC rules is the key to ensuring proper rules compliance.

The FSU Compliance Team coordinates, monitors and verifies compliance with all NCAA requirements and educates the various constituencies of the University and the community regarding NCAA/ACC regulations. Our office is dedicated to providing educational programs and interpretive support to ensure that all individuals involved with the athletics program understand and adhere to the University's compliance expectations. It is the goal of the compliance program to place the University in a proactive position by educating, overseeing and monitoring the intercollegiate athletics program and maintaining a positive compliance environment. Some of the areas that the office is responsible for are Amateurism, Coaching Limits, Eligibility, Recruiting, Financial Aid, Awards and Benefits and Playing and Practice Seasons.

The Compliance Office is located on the Fourth Floor of the Moore Athletic Center and is staffed by the Associate Athletic Director for Compliance, two Assistant Athletic Directors, two Directors of Compliance and two Graduate Assistants. We welcome any questions or concerns that you may have regarding the NCAA or ACC regulations in relation to FSU student-athletes or athletics programs.

Please Remember to ASK Before you ACT!

Florida State University wants to continue our winning ways, but it is important to win the right way – and that means adhering to the NCAA rules. Therefore, we encourage you to contact the Compliance Team should you have any questions about or knowledge of a potential rules violation. Providing information about any potential violations is the best way to protect FSU, current student-athletes and prospects.

We greatly appreciate your continued support and assistance in our compliance efforts.

ACADEMIC SERVICES

Mission Statement

The mission of Student-Athlete Academic Services (SAAS) at The Florida State University is to help student-athletes strive for excellence in all aspects of life. This is accomplished by creating an environment that supports academic, athletic and personal achievement, utilizing highly qualified and dedicated support staff and administrative personnel. A combined effort helps individuals become better students, athletes, and citizens, and prepares student-athletes to make transitions to the next level of participation academically and athletically.

More specifically, the drive towards excellence will focus on the advancement of learning, developing leadership skills, and fostering the personal growth of the student athlete, while offering a high quality athletics program. SAAS personnel will strive to provide programs that develop meaningful standards of scholarship, leadership, integrity and self-responsibility. This focus extends to all phases of academic and professional development, culminating with graduation and job placement or graduate school.

Academic Advising

The advisors in SAAS serve as a portion of the advising unit for all student- athletes. The staff advises students through the Liberal Studies curriculum, degree prerequisites and major requirements. Advisors work with the students in a number of areas related to the academic experience at Florida State University, with a primary emphasis in advising and monitoring the progress toward the selected degree program, taking into consideration all variables which would enhance or impede each student toward the goal of graduation. By partnering with on-campus major advisors, the SAAS staff provides comprehensive assistance in all areas of university advising.

Support Services

In addition to academic advisors, student-athletes have the opportunity to benefit from working with the staff Learning Specialists. Designed to provide intensive, essential learning strategies, the SAAS learning specialists' target population are at-risk student-athletes who would like to refine their basic skills. By providing proactive, early, sustained, individualized support to enhance student success and develop independent learners, learning specialists are utilized by more than just the at-risk population. Additional responsibilities include administering an academic needs assessment for student-athletes with learning challenges, as well as consulting on referrals for further testing if desired.

Tutoring Program

The Athletic Department at Florida State University has made a commitment to providing our student athlete with one of the finest and most comprehensive tutorial programs in the nation. The tutorial program is just one of several key support services that are available to all student-athletes as they progress towards their goal of obtaining a college degree from FSU.

SAAS hires approximately 70 tutors a year, from a variety of academic departments, who are committed to providing proactive in individualized assistance with course comprehension and study skills. The tutoring program provides student-athletes the opportunity to meet individually with tutors, with the overall goal being for the student-athletes to develop different study habits, various ways to approach and understand material, and effective test preparation methods. The tutors engage the student-athletes in different ways to become academically successful.

Seminole Athletics Touts...

- 17 Postgraduate Scholarship Award winners, including six CFA and seven NFF Postgraduate Scholarship winners.
- Scholar-Athlete - In 2010 Christian Ponder was one of 16 recipients of the National Football Foundation's Scholar-Athlete Award - one of the most prestigious honors bestowed upon a college football player. His inclusion on the list elevated him into a finalist for the William V. Campbell Trophy, presented to the nation's top scholar-athlete.
- In the Spring 2012 semester, 222 Seminole student-athletes achieved a 3.0 grade point average or better. In all, eight of 20 FSU athletic teams posted a 3.0 semester GPA or better.
- A total of 21 student-athletes posted a perfect 4.0 GPA with 14 earning President's List Honors. 75 student-athletes earned Dean's List honors with a 3.5 GPA or better.
- The Athletic Department posted a cumulative GPA of 2.85 and a 2.73 semester GPA.

ACADEMIC SERVICES

Our "Objective Tutoring Plus" program gives student-athletes additional assistance outside of their normally scheduled tutoring sessions. These sessions, which are scheduled through the student-athlete, advisor, and tutor further engage the student-athlete in the academic process by establishing learning objectives and completing them within in the duration of the appointment.

Tutorial assistance is a free service available to all student athletes in any of their academic coursework and may be obtained by filing out a tutorial request form through GradesFirst website or through discussing their needs with their advisor.

Matt Schmauch Academic Commitment Award

The Matt Schmauch Academic Commitment Award was established in honor and memory of former Academic Support Assistant Director Matt Schmauch, who passed away in June of 2003, and is given annually to a deserving football student athlete. The award does not necessarily go to the football player with the highest GPA. Rather, it goes to the player who is dedicated to getting a degree, is accountable and responsible in the classroom and works everyday to be a better student.

Mentoring Program

The SAAS Mentor Program is designed to assist incoming freshman, transfers and "at-risk" student-athletes with their transition to Florida State University by developing the necessary skills to become a successful student. This developmentally-oriented program creates relationships between the mentors and mentees that will foster a well-rounded learning experience not only in the realm of academics but in all aspects of student-athletes' lives.

In these one-on-one meetings, student-athletes work with their assigned mentor in the areas of communicating with professors, note taking, study strategies, university policies, time management and accountability. The overall goal of the Mentor Program is for the student-athlete to move forward from this process so that they will be able to proceed throughout the rest of their collegiate career with the appropriate tools to be successful.

Computer Lab

The Student Athlete Academic Services computer lab is located in the Moore Athletic Center on the second floor outside of the SAAS office. Florida State has numerous PC compatible computers and several laser printers available for use by the student-athletes. The computer lab is available to student-athletes with a current FSU ID card. The entire Athletic Academic Support Services is also equipped with wireless internet and can easily be accessed using the standard FSU issued logon.

Bridge Program

Student-Athlete Academic Services, in conjunction with Athletic Student Services and the University, offers incoming student-athletes a "Summer Bridge Program" to aid in the transition from high school to college and highlights many different topics that are important for student-athlete success in academics and FSU. The program is a week-long intensive orientation that incorporates the standard FSU orientation with the athletics department orientation and continues throughout the six-week summer session. Seminars, designed to acclimate the students to the University community, are conducted weekly. Seminar topics include media training, health promotions, academic mapping requirements, the Academic Honor Policy and the Student Code of Conduct, as well as faculty communications and expectations.

Academic Honors and Awards Programs

Student-Athlete Academic Services is committed to recognizing the academic success of all student-athletes. The annual "Golden Torch Gala" is an academic awards banquet that occurs each fall and is the highlight of the year. At this event, the ACC Honor Roll student-athletes, and individuals with the highest GPA on their respective teams are recognized, as well as the men's and women's teams with the highest combined GPA.

Team meetings are held each year, during which time student-athletes are notified of potential honors and awards and are encouraged to apply. A combination of a strong grade point average, athletic accomplishments, community service activities and leadership experiences make for a student-athlete capable of obtaining unlimited academic honors, awards and postgraduate opportunities. Florida State student-athletes have achieved great satisfaction in obtaining recognition for academic achievements. Over the past two decades, more than $470,000 in Postgraduate Scholarship monies has been granted to FSU student-athletes as well as numerous other academic honors.

STUDENT SERVICES

About Student Services

The Office of Student Services strives to establish a commitment to the total growth and development of each student-athlete. Through the N.O.L.E.S. program (New Opportunities for Leadership, Education & Service), an administrative commitment to academics and athletic excellence, as well as to personal development, these efforts are supported with programs and services in personal, career, and leadership development.

Personal Development

Fostering the development of personal growth is a fundamental component of the N.O.L.E.S. program. This support program ensures that the student-athletes will be provided with opportunities to focus on personal growth areas such as values clarification, goal setting, fiscal planning, decision-making and personal responsibility. Programming focuses on helping the student-athletes develop a healthy lifestyle while they are at Florida State University and habits that will benefit them throughout their lives.

Career Development

Preparing for life after college is a major focus of the N.O.L.E.S. program. The program is designed to work in cooperation with Florida State's Career Center to acquaint students with the job search process, provide networking opportunities and ultimately assist with job placement. The program places a priority on the development of the total person, with the goal of developing individuals who will have rewarding and productive lifestyles after they leave Florida State University.

Community Service

Serving the community is the focus of the Seminole Spirit program. Student-athletes are challenged to give service to our community and individuals who are in need. With a clearly defined program of service, student-athletes are given the opportunity to develop a lifelong commitment to volunteerism. Over the years, our commitment to community service has grown leaps and bounds. During the 2006-2007, 2007-2008 and 2009-10 academic school year, the Florida State University Department of Athletics was recognized by the National Consortium for Academics and Sports for having one of the most successful outreach and community service programs in the nation, in which Seminole Student-Athletes impacted the lives of over 150,000 youth. During the 2010-11 academic year, Florida State's student-athletes performed almost 7,000 hours of community service as a group.

Leadership Development

The Florida State University Department of Athletics is committed to developing programs of excellence that foster leadership development. Currently, the Office of Student Services offers three leadership programs to our student-athletes. The Student-Athlete Advisory Council (SAAC) has been in place at Florida State for over 15 years and is a fantastic group of motivated student-athletes. The SAAC is made up of FSU student-athletes representing every sports team and the spirit groups. Regularly scheduled meetings occur bi-weekly which gives the members an opportunity to discuss issues confronting student-athletes, here at Florida State, as well as in the Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC) and across the nation. The SAAC at Florida State has many responsibilities: they take the lead on a variety of events, starting with New Student-Athlete Orientation, Peers Helping Athletes Transition (P.H.A.T.) Tuesdays, the Welcome Back Picnic and the Golden Nole Awards Banquet, where seniors from each team are recognized and student-athletes who have excelled in the area of community service are honored. SAAC officers for the 2012-2013 academic year are President Hannnah Wilson from Swimming and Diving, Vice President Jessica Nori from Softball and Secretary Nick Klein from Swimming and Diving.

In addition to the leadership program and opportunities provided to the student-athletes on the SAAC, there are two additional leadership programs that are offered to all male and female student-athletes. WILD (Women in Leadership Development) Women, and REAL (Reliable Educated Accountable Leaders) Men provide an opportunity for a small group of male and female student-athletes to further develop their leadership skills. Materials used for these groups are adapted from Jeff Janssen's 'Captain's Leadership Manual', John Maxwell's 'Ultimate Leadership', and Dale Carnegie's 'Leadership Institute'. Topics addressed include: effective communication, values and ethics, conflict resolution, goal setting, time management, leaving a legacy, and writing a personal mission statement. Group members are chosen on a first come, first serve basis and the curriculum lasts throughout the academic year.

THE ACC

The Tradition

Consistency. It is the mark of true excellence in any endeavor. However, in today's intercollegiate athletics, competition has become so balanced and so competitive that it is virtually impossible to maintain a high level of consistency.

Yet the Atlantic Coast Conference has defied the odds. Now, in its 60th year of competition, the ACC has long enjoyed the reputation as one of the strongest and most competitive intercollegiate conferences in the nation. And that is not mere conjecture, the numbers support it.

Since the league's inception in 1953, ACC schools have captured 127 national championships, including 67 in women's competition and 60 in men's. In addition, NCAA individual titles have gone to ACC student-athletes 145 times in men's competition and 104 times in women's action.

The conference had an immediate impact on the national college football scene in the fall of 1953 when the University of Maryland captured the first of what would eventually be five national football titles for the ACC. Clemson laid claim to the league's second national title in 1981 while Georgia Tech followed suit in 1990. Florida State pocketed national titles No. 4 and 5 in 1993 and 1999.

Additionally, Miami has laid claim to five national gridiron titles over the past 29 seasons. Four of the Hurricanes' five national titles (1983, 1987, 1989, 2001) were unanimous with both the sportswriters and coaches polls, while in 1991 Miami (AP) shared the national title with Washington (coaches).

The 12 institutions that take to the field this fall under the ACC banner have produced 586 first- or second-team gridiron All-Americas and 73 first-team academic All-Americas.

ACC Football, though, has always been about more than just wins and losses and individual athletics honors. For the sixth time in the last seven years, ACC schools, cumulatively, were ranked higher nationally than any other conference in the most recent rankings of American Universities by the U.S. News & World Report, with seven ACC institutions ranked 38th or higher nationally and all 12 schools rated as "Tier One" schools.

The Conference was No. 1 in the NCAA's APR for the sixth consecutive year in 2012, and the ACC has led all Football Bowl Subdivision Conferences in the NCAA's graduation rate (GSR) in six of the last seven years. In 2011, six ACC schools were honored nationally (AFCA) for their graduation rates. ACC schools have led the nation in football graduation rates no fewer than 20 times and have been honored for their rates 101 times, far more than any other conference.

Since becoming a 12-team league in 2005, the ACC has consistently made history in the NFL's annual professional football draft. This year, the ACC had 15 of the first 100 players chosen in the NFL Draft, and had the first linebacker chosen.

In the 2009 NFL Draft, the ACC was the only league with four players chosen among the top nine selections in the draft. It marked the second time in four years the ACC had managed that trick, also claiming four of the top nine picks in 2005. During the 2006, 2007 and 2008 drafts, the Conference became the first college league in the history to have two of the top four NFL Draft picks in each of three consecutive years.

In 2008, the ACC also set an NFL Draft record having the first defensive player chosen for three straight years with NC State's Mario Williams (2006), Clemson's Gaines Adams (2007) and Virginia's Chris Long (2008) claiming the honor.

The ACC's run began with the 2006 Draft when the Conference set an NFL Draft record with 12 players chosen in the first round and 51 players chosen overall. During that time, the ACC is second among all conferences in the last seven years in first-round draftees, having 40 chosen, and total number of draftees with 245.

Heading into the 2012 football season, no league in America has sent more linebackers to the NFL, as no fewer than 45 former ACC standouts began the summer on NFL rosters leading both the Big Ten (44) and SEC (38) for that honor. This marked the fourth straight year the Conference had led or tied in numbers of linebackers on NFL rosters.

Since 2006, the ACC has had more defensive ends or outside linebackers--the glamour positions of defense in the NFL--drafted in the first or second rounds (19) than any opther league. The Big Ten is next with 13 followed by the SEC (8).

The 12 current ACC schools have had 2,287 players selected in the annual professional football draft, including 232 first-round selections.

Last year, the ACC had three teams ranked in the among the Top 25 in both final polls for the Associated Press and USA Today Football Coaches. Virginia Tech was ranked 21st by AP and 17th by USA Today, followed by Clemson (22nd in both polls) and Florida State (23rd in both polls).

The ACC also has a storied bowl tradition, setting an NCAA record with 10 of its teams (.833) invited to post-season bowl games in 2008, breaking its own record for bowl participation (.778) set originally in 2002.

Since 2005, the Conference is second among all leagues with 58 of its teams travelling to post-season bowl games. Additionally, five of its teams— Florida State (6th, 25-14-2, .634), Boston College (11th, 13-9, .591), NC State (16th, 14-11-1), Georgia Tech (17th, 22-18, .550) and Miami (20th, 19-17-0, .528)—rank among the Top 20 winningest bowl programs of all-time, with a sixth--Maryland (23rd, 11-11-1, .500)--tied for 23rd.

Three ACC schools are also among the top eight nationally in current bowl game streaks including national leader Florida State (30 straight bowl games), Virginia Tech (3rd, 19) and Georgia Tech (tied for 4th, 15) .

2011-12 Review

The 2011-12 academic year saw ACC teams capturing four more national team titles and 7 individual NCAA crowns. In all, the ACC has won 55 national team titles over the last 14 years and has won two or more NCAA titles in 29 of the past 31 years.

The ACC was one of pnly three conferences in America to place two of its teams in the final Top 10 rankings of the 2011-12 Learfield Director's Cup Standings--symbolic of the nation's top overall programs--as Florida State (5th), North Carolina (8th), Virginia (15th) and Duke (16th) all were ranked nationally in the Top 20.

This past year also marked the 11th consecutive year that the ACC has placed four or more teams in the Top 30

A total of 126 ACC teams placed in NCAA post-season competition in 2011-12. League teams compiled a 116-73-5 (.611) mark against opponents in NCAA championship competition.

Mission Statement of the Atlantic Coast Conference

The Atlantic Coast Conference, through its member institutions, seeks to maximize the educational and athletic opportunities of its student-athletes while enriching their quality of life. It strives to do so by affording individuals equitable opportunity to pursue academic excellence and compete successfully at the highest level of intercollegiate athletics competition in a broad spectrum of sports and championships.

The Conference will provide leadership in attaining these goals, promoting diversity and mutual trust among its member institutions, in a spirit of fairness for all. It strongly adheres to the principles of integrity and sportsmanship, and supports the total development of the student-athlete and each member institution's athletics departmental staff, with the intent of producing enlightened leadership for tomorrow.

THE SEMINOLE TRIBE OF FLORIDA

The Unconquered People

By Barry Ray
FSU Office of News and Public Affairs

As a people, few have prevailed over more trying circumstances than the Seminole Indians of Florida. Over the course of almost two centuries, Florida's Seminoles endured three wars with the U.S. government, resisted numerous efforts to relocate them to federal reservations in the West, and ultimately made their home in one of the world's most inhospitable environments, the Florida Everglades. That they have not only survived, but thrived — all the while maintaining their fierce independence and rich culture — is a tribute to their courage and perseverance. This is their story.

Long before European explorers ever visited the area now known as Florida, native peoples had been living here for thousands of years. In fact, as many as 100,000 members of four Indian nations — the Apalachee, the Tequesta, the Timucua and the Calusa — were living in highly organized settlements throughout the peninsula when the Spanish first arrived in 1513.

The native peoples' lack of resistance to smallpox, yellow fever and other "European" diseases, as well as later slaving raids from the English colonies of Georgia and South Carolina, eventually decimated their numbers. By the mid-18th century, the Indian nations of Florida had ceased to exist.

In their place, groups of Indians from a confederation of tribes collectively referred to as the Lower Creeks began moving into Florida from Alabama and Georgia. They had been pushed out of their former homes by the encroachment of white settlers, as well as by conflicts with other tribes. It was around this time that the name "Seminoles" first appeared; there are several possible explanations as to its origins.

When the first English speakers began arriving in Florida in 1763, they found many Creeks living as yat'siminoli, or "free people," across the northern part of the Florida peninsula. ("Yat'siminoli" was a term used in the Mikisúkî, or Miccosukee, language, which still is spoken today.) The settlers may have simply ignored the Indians' separate tribal affiliations and called them all Seminolies, or Seminoles.

Others believe that the Seminole name comes from the Spanish word cimarron, meaning "wild men" or "unconquered." The Indians may have been given this name because they had escaped from slavery in the English-controlled colonies to the north.

With the end of the American Revolutionary War in 1784, English-speaking settlers began moving southward in ever greater numbers, buying or seizing land from the native inhabitants. By 1813, some of the Creek tribes in Alabama rose up against the white settlers and the Indian tribes that supported them. This conflict, known as the Creek War of 1813-14, proved disastrous to all of the tribes. U.S. troops led by Gen. Andrew Jackson crushed the uprising and forced a treaty on the Creeks that took more than 2 million acres of land from them. Several thousand Creek warriors and their families migrated south into Spanish Florida, where they and the Seminoles increased their resistance to white settlement.

In 1814, such conflicts escalated into the first of three Seminole wars. Over the next four years, Jackson illegally entered Spanish Florida numerous times to burn Seminole villages and kill resistance leaders.

With the end of the First Seminole War in 1818, many Indians moved further into Florida. By 1820, the year before Spanish Florida became a U.S. territory, there were at least 5,000 Seminoles, Creeks and Mikisúkî people living here. However, a series of federal treaties failed to protect their rights and, in 1835, war broke out again.

The Second Seminole War (1835-42) proved to be the longest, most costly, and the last of the U.S. wars of Indian removal fought east of the Mississippi River. It also would be the first guerilla-style war faced by U.S. troops. Led by the fierce warrior Osceola, the Seminoles were aided by runaway slaves, who received protection from their allies in return for a portion of the agricultural staples that they grew. These so-called "Black Seminoles" also had a reputation as fierce fighters, and were equally determined to preserve their freedom.

The Symbol: Seminoles

Florida State would play two games in 1947 before students demanded the school acquire a symbol. While details conflict, most believe the account of a poll of the student body is accurate. The Florida Flambeau reported that Seminoles had won by 110 votes over Statesmen. The rest of the top contenders (in order) were Rebels, Tarpons, Fighting Warriors and Crackers.

In the 1950s, a pair of students dressed in Native American costumes and joined the cheerleaders on the field which eventually evolved into the majestic symbol of Osceola and Renegade that FSU now enjoys. Today, the Seminole Indian Tribe participates in many campus activities.

Florida State University is proud of its longstanding cooperative relationship with the Seminole Tribe of Florida. The Seminole people have suffered many hardships and injustices, but they have remained brave, dignified and proud. The Seminoles are unconquered. They symbolize what we hope will be the traits of all of our graduates, including our student-athletes.

The fighting ended in a stalemate in 1842, and an uneasy peace lasted for 14 years. In 1856, however, Seminole leader Billy Bowlegs and his followers were provoked by U.S. soldiers. They retaliated, and the ensuing series of skirmishes became known as the Third Seminole War (1856-58).

When U.S. troops once more withdrew — again with no treaty or victory — the Seminole Wars finally ended. All told, more than 3,000 Seminoles had been forcibly removed from Florida to the Western territories of Arkansas and Oklahoma. As few as 300 remained in Florida, and they took refuge within the dense swamps of the Everglades. However, their place in history was assured as the only American Indian tribe never to have signed a peace treaty with the U.S. government.

From the 1920s onward, as the development boom exploded in South Florida, the Seminoles lost more and more of their hunting lands to tourists and settlers. They became agricultural workers in the vegetable fields of South Florida, and also ran tourist attractions, wearing their colorful patchwork clothing, producing souvenirs and wrestling alligators.

On Aug. 21, 1957, the Seminole Tribe of Florida was established through a majority vote of Florida's Seminole Indians. This vote gave the Seminoles federal recognition as a self-governing tribe with a constitutional form of government. The Seminole Tribe of Florida now has almost 3,000 members living on five reservations across the peninsula at Hollywood, Big Cypress, Brighton, Immokalee and Tampa.

The Seminoles work hard to be economically independent. Tourism and gaming profits pay for infrastructure and schools on their reservations, while citrus groves, cattle agriculture, aircraft production, tobacco sales, land leases and aquaculture are other significant sources of revenue.

Having persevered through two centuries of adversity, the Seminole Indians of Florida have earned the right to call themselves "the unconquered people." Their indomitable spirit is one that Florida State University proudly seeks to emulate in all of its endeavors.

THIS IS FLORIDA STATE FOOTBALL

From its humble beginnings a mere 66 years ago has sprung a college football program rich in history; defined by Hall of Famers, Heisman winners, national champions, exemplary young men on and off the field and a legendary coaching run. Inside the brick fortress known as Doak Campbell Stadium, Saturdays have become a spectacle, filled with pregame pageantry, which is matched only by the unconquered spirit of the competitors clad in garnet and gold. While the faces have changed over time, the goals remain the same.
