FURMAN PALADIN POINTS

◆ Furman makes its return to downtown Greenville on Saturday when it hosts the Winthrop Eagles at Bon Secours Wellness Arena. The contest marks the 11th all-time meeting between the schools with the series knotted at 5-5. Winthrop has won each of the last five meetings, including a 93-74 decision in the last meeting on November 29, 2017, at Timmons Arena. The loss marked the last regular season non-conference defeat for the Paladins, who have since won 15 straight during the regular season versus non-conference foes on their home floor. Furman's last win over the Eagles came in a 74-68 overtime verdict on December 20, 1988, at the Greenville Memorial Auditorium, which was located across the street from the Well.

◆ The Paladins called downtown Greenville home from the program's inception in 1908 until the closing of Greenville Memorial Auditorium following the 1995-96 season. Furman captured six SoCon Tournament titles, four regular season titles and made six NCAA Tournament appearances while playing its home games downtown. The last time Furman basketball took the court for a regular season game downtown came during the 2006-07 season when it dropped SoCon matchups versus Davidson and College of Charleston at Bon Secours Wellness Arena. The Well also hosted the SoCon Tournament in 2000 and 2001 with the Paladins advancing to face Appalachian State in the semifinals in 2000 in front of more than 10,000 fans.

HEAD COACH BOB RICHEY

Bob Richey recently completed his second season as head coach of the Furman men's basketball team and his eighth as part of the program.

Under his leadership, the 2018-19 Paladins reached new heights with a school-record 25 wins, including victories over defending national champion and eighth-ranked Villanova and 2018 NCAA Final Four participant Loyola Chicago. Furman finished the season with a 25-8 overall record, 13-5 league mark and earned the school's first trip to the National Invitation Tournament (NIT) since 1991.

Furman's 2019 senior class finished with a school-record 90 wins over four seasons, including a 48-18 overall record and 26-10 Southern Conference mark in Richey's first two seasons. Since the beginning of the 2016-17 campaign, Richey has helped the Paladins to their most successful three-year stretch in program history with a 71-30 overall record that includes a stellar 37-9 worksheet inside Timmons Arena.

Senior Matt Rafferty, who paced the country in win shares and defensive win shares, finished the season as the only player in the SoCon to rank in the top 10 in points (17.5ppg), rebounds (9.0rpg), assists (4.3apg), steals (2.5spg), blocks (1.1bpg) and field goal percentage (61.5%). The first team All-SoCon selection also ranked among the league leaders in assist-to-turnover ratio (2.1) and free throw percentage (76.7%).

Junior Jordan Lyons earned third team All-SoCon honors after a standout season that included a 54-point performance and NCAA record-tying 15 three-point baskets versus North Greenville. Forward Noah Gurley garnered SoCon All-Freshman honors.

In his first season as head coach in 2017-18, Richey guided the Paladins to school record-tying 23-win season that included a then school-record 22 regular season victories. Under his leadership, Furman placed three players on All-Southern Conference teams and the 2018 senior class finished their careers with 76, now third best in school history.

Guard Devin Sibley earned first team All-SoCon honors, while forward Matt Rafferty and guard Daniel Fowler garnered second team all-league accolades. The Paladins ranked second in the SoCon averaging 79.4 points per game and ranked third in scoring defense at 68.5 points per contest. Furman posted a 13-3 home record at Timmons Arena, including a 7-2 mark against SoCon opposition.

"I am excited to have Bob Richey as the face of the Furman program moving forward," said Furman Athletics Director Mike Buddie, at the time of Richey's hiring. "The trajectory of our program is due in large part to Bob's efforts and I know that trajectory will continue in the right direction. After a record-setting season, to be able to maintain continuity is fantastic. Bob is well qualified and will continue to run a program that will make the Furman family extremely proud."

A native of Florence, S.C., Richey, who served six seasons as a member of the Paladin coaching staff before moving into the head coaching role, helped Furman to a school record-tying 23 total victories and 14 Southern Conference wins in 2017, while the program earned a share of its first Southern Conference regular season championship in 21 years and a trip the CollegeInsider.com (CIT) Postseason Tournament semifinals. The 2016-17 Paladins, who also won a school record 12 road games, notched back-to-back postseason appearances for the first time since 1974-75, and captured postseason victories in consecutive seasons for the first time in school history.

"I am truly humbled to be given the opportunity to lead the Furman basketball program moving forward," said Richey, at the time of his hiring. "To have the chance to continue to work at this great university and sustain the relationships I have established is quite an honor. I look forward to continuing the success that we have built on the court, while we recruit and align with the overall mission of Furman University. With our basketball program, outstanding liberal arts degree, beautiful campus, and city, Furman will continue to attract the best student-athletes and prepare them for success in all areas of their lives. We look forward to the days ahead!"

Richey, who has served as position coach for the Paladins' guards since joining the Furman staff prior to the 2011-12 campaign, has recruited and developed back-to-back Southern Conference Players of the Year. Guard Stephen Croone, who finished his Furman career with 1,936 points, earned consensus SoCon Player of the Year honors in 2016 before joining the NBDL's Sioux Falls SkyForce for the 2016-17 season. Junior Devin Sibley followed Croone by earning 2017 SoCon Player of the Year honors, first team All-SoCon accolades, and first team NABC All-District laurels. Sibley was joined on both the All-SoCon squad and NABC All-District Team by fellow Richey recruit Kris Acox, who capped his career with 1,051 points and ranked among the SoCon's top rebounders over the past two seasons.

In 2016, Richey played a key role in Furman's return to the postseason as the Paladins fashioned a 19-16 overall record, finished third in the SoCon with an 11-7 mark, and advanced to the second round of the CIT with a buzzer-beating victory over Louisiana Monroe at Timmons Arena in first round action. Furman won a school record 14 home games, including 11 in a row, while Croone earned player of the year and first team All-SoCon accolades.

The previous season, Richey helped lead the Paladins to their first Southern Conference Tournament finals appearance in 13 years as the Paladins downed No. 2 seed Chattanooga and No. 3 seed Mercer to advance to the league championship game.

Richey's recruits have garnered all-conference honors in nine consecutive seasons, including Furman recruits Stephen Croone (2014, '15, '16 All-SoCon), Kris Acox (2017 All-SoCon), and Devin Sibley (2017 All-SoCon). He has also helped recruit six players over the last five seasons who have garnered SoCon All-Freshman honors, including Sibley, who won 2015 SoCon Freshman of the Year accolades.

An associate head coach for the Charleston Southern Buccaneers during the 2010-11 campaign, Richey helped CSU achieve its highest win total in 14 years in 2011. In five seasons as an assistant at CSU, he recruited five players who went on to garner All-Big South Conference honors, high-

♦ Furman forward Tre Clark is the son of former Notre Dame football standout Willie Clark, who went on to play five seasons in the NFL for the San Diego Chargers and Philadelphia Eagles.

♦ The Paladins' Clay Mounce is the youngest member of an athletic family. His father played basketball at Montreat-Anderson College and his mother was a volleyball standout at Appalachian State. Oldest brother Chase played college basketball at Tusculum University, while brother Carson currently plays for UNC Pembroke.

♦ Furman has made Timmons Arena a fortress since the start of the 2015-16 season, posting a 56-11 overall record and 31-5 conference mark in the facility. The Paladins have won 15 straight non-conference regular season contests on campus and boast a 25-5 overall record in its last 30 regular season non-conference contests.

♦ Prep standouts Joe Anderson and Garrett Hien signed on November 13, to join the Furman basketball program in 2020-21. Anderson, a point guard out of Maryville High School in Maryville, Tenn., garnered 2018 and 2019 Tennessee Sports Writers Association AAA All-State honors. The Knoxville News All-PrepXtra first team selection averaged 20.6 points, 4.8 assists and 3.1 steals per game last season. Hien, a 6-foot-9 wing, was a NCISAA AAA All-State pick and All-Metrolina Conference choice last season for Concord First Assembly Academy in Concord, N.C. The versatile Hien averaged 15.5 points, 7.3 rebounds and 5.7 assists per game as a junior.

♦ Sophomore Noah Gurley netted a career-high 25 points to pace the Paladins to an 83-61 victory over Southern Wesleyan on November 15. The Fayetteville, Ga., native connected on all 10 of his field goal attempts to become the second player in school history (Russ Hunt, 14-for-14 vs. App State, Dec. 9, 1971) to record a perfect night from the field on 10 or more attempts.

♦ The Paladins posted a dominating victory with a 91-47 triumph at Charleston Southern on November 12. On the strength of 19 points from Clay Mounce and a suffocating defense, Furman raced out to a 48-14 halftime lead before fashioning its largest margin of victory in a road contest since downing College of Charleston, 114-67, in January of 1953.

♦ The opening week of the season featured two big wins for the Paladins. In the season opener, Furman halted Gardner-Webb's 14-game home winning streak with a 70-63 triumph at Paul Porter Arena in Boiling Springs, N.C. Noah Gurley paced the Paladins with 18 points, while Alex Hunter totaled 13 points. Three days later, Furman raised the curtain on its home schedule with a decisive 87-63 victory over 2019 Missouri Valley Conference regular season champion Loyola Chicago. Jordan Lyons poured in 24 points and Clay Mounce added 22 as Furman topped the Ramblers for the second straight season.

♦ Despite returning four starters this season, Furman faces a major task in replacing first team All-SoCon forward Matt Rafferty. The Hinsdale, Ill., native put together one of the most outstanding seasons in school history last year averaging 17.5 points, 9.0 rebounds, 4.3 assists, 2.5 steals and 1.1 blocked shots per game. He became one of just a handful of players in the history of Division I college basketball to average 17 points, nine boards, four assists and two steals per game and was named by Sports Illustrated as one of the top 50 players in college basketball last season. Rafferty finished his career ranked 23rd in school history in scoring (1,340 points), eighth in rebounding (857), sixth in blocked shots (98), fourth in field goal percentage (57.6%), 12th in assists (311) and fourth in steals (186). His field goal percentage of 61.5% last season ranked second best in school history and he established a new school record with 84 steals as a senior. Rafferty and fellow senior Andrew Brown fashioned a new school record by winning 90 games over their four years. Senior Jordan Lyons has helped the Paladins to 80 wins in his first three-plus years at Furman.

ORIGIN OF THE PALADIN

Furman University athletic teams were known by different names until the 1961 school year. The baseball team was "Hornets," the football team "Hurricane," and the basketball team "Paladins."

The basketball team was dubbed "Paladins" by a Greenville sportswriter in the 1930s. By vote of the student body, all Furman athletic teams became the "Paladins" on September 15, 1961. A Paladin is a knight on a horse and the recognized mascot of Furman University's athletic teams.
