PETE SANTORA

NSCAA All-American
1996 & 1997
First Team

Santora became the first Furman soccer player to earn first-team All-American honors, and was named to the team for a second consecutive year in 1997. During his career, he was named to the All-Southern Conference team three times, and was named Southern Conference Player of the Year in 1997. He led the Paladins to a 21-4 SoCon record during his four years at Furman, and was named the school's Male Athlete of the Year in 1998. Santora was drafted by the USL's Albuquerque Geckos. He later went on to co-found Blue Sombrero, and was inducted into Furman's Athletic Hall of Fame in 2003.

MATT GOLDSMITH

NSCAA All-American
1999; Second Team
2000; Third Team

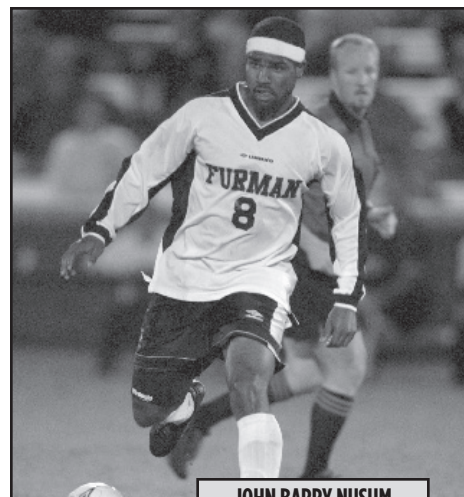

In addition to being named NSCAA All-American twice during his career at Furman, Goldsmith was also named All-South Region in 1999, 2000 and 2001. He currently holds the record at Furman for most consecutive games started, with 91, as well as most games played, with 91. He competed for both the US U-18 and U-20 National Teams, and was selected to participate in the Umbro Select All-Star Weekend. He was drafted by the USL's Charleston Battery.

JOHN BARRY NUSUM

NSCAA All-American
1999, 2000, 2001
First Team

Nusum left Furman as the school's all-time leader in career goals (61), single season points (48), and career points (161). He was named NSCAA All-American for three times and was a top-three finalist for the prestigious Hermann Trophy in 2001. Nusum is one of only 22 players to be named All-America three times, with one of the other 21 players being his father, John Nusum. John Barry Nusum helped lead the Paladins to four Southern Conference championships and three NCAA Tournament appearances, including a quarterfinal finish in 1999, and was named Male Athlete of the Year at Furman in 2001. He was drafted by the Columbus Crew of the MLS and currently plays for the USL's Bermuda Hogges. He is also a member of the Bermuda national team and was named Bermuda's 2005 Male Athlete of the Year. He was inducted into the Furman Athletic Hall of Fame in 2008.

OSIAN ROBERTS

NSCAA All-American
1986 & 1988
Second Team

The first All-American soccer player in Furman history, Roberts was also the team's leading scorer during his senior season, with 15 goals and five assists, a number which has earned him seventh place in the Furman record books for single-season goals. Roberts led his team to a third consecutive Southern Conference title in 1988, and was the first Furman player to be named Player of the Year in the league, in both 1986 and 1988. He also participated in the prestigious Budweiser Senior Bowl and scored the game-winning goal.

DANIEL ALVAREZ

NSCAA All-American
1999
First Team

In addition to being named first-team All-America in 1999, Alvarez also holds the Furman record for single season assists (16) and career assists (41). His 16 assists were good for first in the nation during his senior season. Alvarez also earned All-South Region honors, Southern Conference Player of the Year, and first team All-Southern Conference honors as a senior. He helped lead Furman to a perfect 8-0 SoCon record, a league tournament championship and an appearance in the quarterfinals of the NCAA tournament. He was drafted by the MLS' Metrostars and the USL's Atlanta Silverbacks. Alvarez was inducted into Furman's Athletic Hall of Fame in 2005.

2021 FURMAN SOCCER

RECORDS & HISTORY

RICARDO CLARK

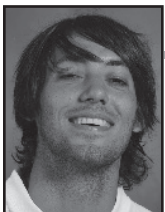

NSCAA All-American
2002
First Team

Clark anchored Furman's midfield for two seasons scoring three goals and recording four assists. He was also selected first team All-SoCon and first team NSCAA All-South region as a sophomore. A starter on the US Under 20 team, Clark entered the MLS draft after his sophomore season at Furman, and was selected to participate in the Project-40 program, playing for the MetroStars, where he was a finalist for the MLS' Rookie of the Year award. He was inducted into the Furman Athletics Hall of Fame in 2010.

CLINT DEMPSEY

NSCAA All-American
2002
Second Team

Dempsey was a three-time All-SoCon selection and an NSCAA All-South region selection twice, in addition to being named NSCAA All-America in 2002. He scored 17 goals and added 19 assists during his three years, before being selected eighth overall by the New England Revolution in the 2004 MLS SuperDraft. He was named Rookie of the Year in 2005. Dempsey joined the US National Team in 2004, and was named to the US roster for the 2006 FIFA World Cup in Germany, where he scored the only goal by a US player. He was named Honda Player of the Year in 2006. Dempsey currently plays for the US National Team and for Fulham F.C. in England. He was inducted into the Furman Athletic Hall of Fame in 2008.

JON LEATHERS

2007
Second Team

In 2007, Leathers claimed his second straight SoCon Player-of-the-Year and Furman Male

Athlete-of-the-Year citation while leading the Paladins to both the SoCon regular season and tournament titles with a 19-4-0 record. The first team NSCAA All-South Region pick helped Furman to the second round of the NCAA Tournament before being selected 25th overall by the Kansas City Wizards in the MLS SuperDraft.

SHEA SALINAS

2007
Third Team

Salinas, an outside midfielder, tallied five goals and nine assists as a senior to help Furman to a 19-4-0 record, SoCon regular season title, SoCon Tournament title and NCAA Tournament second round appearance. The Grapevine, Texas, native also garnered first team NSCAA All-South Region and NSCAA Scholar All-American honors.

Walker ZIMMERMAN

NSCAA All-American
2011, 2012
Third Team, Second Team

Center back Walker Zimmerman tallied 11 goals and added five assists while leading the Paladins to a 26-8-7 record during his two seasons in the purple and white. The Lawrenceville, Ga., native netted five goals and added two assists while starting all 22 matches for Furman in 2011. He was named to College Soccer News and Soccer America's Freshman All-America First Team squads while garnering Southern Conference Freshman of the Year and first team all-league honors as Furman posted a 14-4-4 record and earned an NCAA berth. In 2012, Zimmerman played in and started 17 matches while scoring six goals and adding three assists. He captured College Soccer News First Team and NSCAA Second Team All-America honors after leading the Paladins to a 12-4-3 record to capture first team All-SoCon accolades. Zimmerman was tabbed as the No. 7 pick in the MLS SuperDraft by FC Dallas.

2021 FURMAN SOCCER

RECORDS & HISTORY

Furman Soccer Timeline

September 28, 1968 — Paul Scarpa takes over the reigns as Furman soccer coach. Scarpa is doing triple duty as he is also the men's tennis coach and an assistant basketball coach. Scarpa would lead Furman soccer with no scholarship assistance through the 1981 season. Scarpa is still coaching Furman tennis today as he has tallied over 700 career tennis victories, ranking him fourth all-time in men's tennis.

November 1, 1978 — The Paladins conclude the 1978 season with a 7-6-1 record, the first winning season in school history.

November 4, 1981 — Scarpa coaches his last soccer match as the soccer program will begin receiving scholarship money for the 1982 season.

September 18, 1982 — Former player and assistant coach John Tart coaches his first match as the Paladins have a full-time soccer coach for the first time along with scholarship assistance. Furman defeats Georgia College 2-1, beginning the modern era of Furman soccer.

November 12, 1983 — Furman wins its first of 17 Southern Conference regular season titles as it defeats Davidson 3-1 to finish with a 7-0 conference record.

October 8, 1991 — The Paladins achieve their first ever national ranking shortly after beating South Carolina 1-0 as they are ranked 14th in the coaches poll and 15th in the Soccer America poll.

November 17, 1991 — Furman plays in its first-ever NCAA Tournament match and defeats Wake Forest 1-0 on a Ray Colorado goal.

November 24, 1991 — The Paladins' dream season comes to a close as Furman falls to North Carolina State 4-1 in Raleigh. During the 1991 campaign, Furman defeats North Carolina, South Carolina, Duke, and Wake Forest.

November 14, 1993 — Furman again advances to the NCAA Tournament, this time falling 1-0 to South Carolina on a late goal. Current Paladin head coach Doug Allison was an assistant on the Gamecock sideline.

November 12, 1994 — John Tart coaches his last match as a Paladin in a 2-1 loss to UNCG in an NCAA play-in game. Tart leaves Furman to take the UNCC head coaching job.

September 2, 1995 — Doug Allison coaches his first match as head coach of the Paladins. Furman defeats Jacksonville 2-0 in Paladin Football Stadium.

September 10, 1995 — Over 3,500 fans came out to the dedication of Eugene E. Stone III Soccer Stadium, Furman's new state-of-the-art soccer facility. Pelé is on hand for the dedication. Furman loses to South Carolina 2-1.

October 22, 1995 — Allison claims his first big win as the Paladins defeat second-ranked Clemson 2-1 at home.

September 8, 1996 — Furman returns the favor to South Carolina as the Paladins defeat the Gamecocks on dedication day of their new stadium, 2-1.

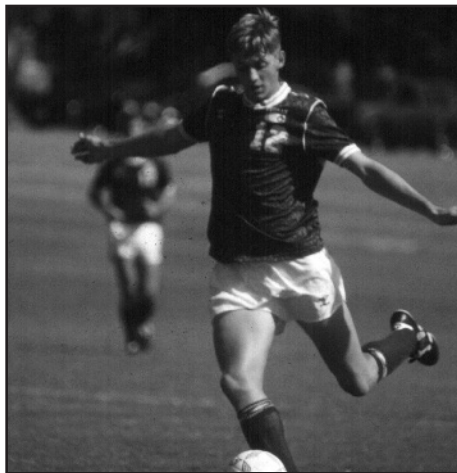

November 8, 1998 — The Paladins lose a heart-breaker to UNCG in the SoCon Tournament final 1-0. For the third straight season, despite consistent national rankings, Furman is left out of the NCAA Tournament.

September 5, 1999 — Furman defeats South Florida 2-1 to open what will become a storybook season for the Paladins.

October 18, 1999 — Furman cracks the top ten for the first time ever as the Paladins are ranked eighth in the NSCAA poll and 10th in the Soccer America poll.

October 27, 1999 — Furman claims one of its biggest wins ever as the Paladins down Clemson 3-2 in overtime in front of over 3,000 fans at Stone Stadium. Over 500 students rushed the field in celebration following the victory.

November 13, 1999 — The Paladins down Radford 1-0 in a

NCAA play-in match to earn a bid to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1993.

November 21, 1999 — Furman defeats North Carolina 2-1 in overtime in the first home playoff match in school history.

November 28, 1999 — Furman embarrasses Wake Forest in Winston-Salem 4-0 to advance to the quarterfinals of the NCAA Tournament.

December 5, 1999 — Despite holding a 2-1 lead with less than 10 minutes to play, Furman loses to UConn 3-2 in the quarterfinals of the NCAA Tournament to end a magical season. The Paladins finish the season 21-2-1 and ranked third in the Final Soccer America poll.

November 19, 2000 — Furman advances to the NCAA Tournament for the second straight year, but falls 3-2 to Clemson in a match that was played in the snow throughout the first half.

September 22, 2001 — John Barry Nusum records a hat trick in Furman's 5-0 victory over The Citadel, giving Nusum 51 career goals as he passes Andrew Burr as Furman's all-time leading scorer.

September 25, 2001 — Furman defeats College of Charleston 4-0 as head coach Doug Allison earns his 100th career victory. He reaches the milestone in only 134 matches.

November 18, 2001 — Furman defeats UNCG 2-1 to claim its third straight SoCon Tournament Title and extend its conference unbeaten streak to 33 matches.

November 23, 2001 — Furman's seasons ends prematurely as UAB knocks off the Paladins 1-0 on an overtime penalty kick in the first round of the NCAA Tournament.

December 3, 2001 — John Barry Nusum is named one of the three finalists for the prestigious Hermann Trophy, awarded annually to college soccer's national player of the year.

September 24, 2002 — Furman defeats Wofford 3-0 to extend its SoCon unbeaten streak to 36 matches, setting a new league record.

October 11, 2002 — Furman freshman Gray Griffin is tragically killed in an automobile accident in the early morning hours on Interstate-85. Fellow freshmen Chefik Simo, Josh Villalobos and Sean Murray were also in the vehicle and sustained injuries. Villalobos and Murray would return to school, while Simo remained hospitalized for months before being transferred to his hometown of Dallas in late November.

October 16, 2002 — The Furman University community continues to mourn the loss of Gray Griffin as Furman holds an emotional memorial service in McAlister Auditorium.

October 19, 2002 — Furman returns to the soccer field after a 12-day absence in which two matches were either postponed or cancelled. Furman defeats the College of Charleston 1-0 on homecoming in this emotional contest.

November 2, 2002 — Furman defeats VMI 2-0 and sets a school record as it records its sixth consecutive shutout, dating back to October 9.

November 16, 2002 — Furman downs UNCG 3-0 in a physical SoCon semifinal in a driving rainstorm that left the playing field unplayable. The win extends Furman's SoCon unbeaten streak to 43 matches, a new NCAA Division I record. Because of the unplayable field conditions, the remainder of the tournament is canceled. Furman receives the automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament because it was the highest-seeded remaining team still in the tournament.

November 23, 2002 — Despite a No. 8 national ranking, Furman is not rewarded a bye in the first round of the NCAA Tournament and plays host to Loyola (Md.) in the first round. The Paladins defeat the Greyhounds 2-0 to advance to the second round of the tournament. Furman receives a pre-game boost as injured Chefik Simo leaves the hospital for the first time since the accident and is in attendance at the match.

November 27, 2002 — Behind an extraordinary defensive effort, Furman advances past eighth-seeded VCU in penalty kicks. Paladin goalkeeper Alex Maslow came up with two huge saves in the penalty kick shootout to secure the 4-2 penalty kick win. With the shutout (final score was 0-0), Furman sets a new NCAA record with its 11th straight shutout.

December 1, 2002 — Furman jumped out to a 1-0 lead in the first half against Stanford, but saw its 11-match shutout streak snapped with a Stanford goal in the 77th minute. Another Stanford goal in the 107th minute in the second overtime ends Furman's remarkable season in the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament. Furman finishes with a 19-3-1 overall record.

January 17, 2003 — Two weeks after announcing that he will forego his final two seasons of eligibility and to play professional soccer, Ricardo Clark is the number two selection in the MLS Super Draft by the MetroStars.

January 16, 2004 — Clint Dempsey becomes the second Paladin in as many years to leave school early to play professional soccer. Dempsey is the number eight pick by the New England Revolution in the MLS Super Draft.

May 2, 2006 — USA head coach Bruce Arena selects Clint Dempsey to the United States' 23-man 2006 World Cup Squad, making the midfielder the first former Furman player to take part in the tournament.

May 2, 2006 — Former Furman soccer standout Stephen Rodriguez is named Manager of Sports Communications for Major League Soccer and Soccer United Marketing.

June 22, 2006 — In the 43rd minute of the USA's final match group match at the FIFA World Cup, Clint Dempsey rockets a shot past Ghana's goalkeeper to become the only United States player to tally a goal in the tournament.

July 13, 2006 — Clint Dempsey is selected to the Sierra Mist MLS All-Star First XI. Shortly after, Ricardo Clark is selected to the MLS All-Star squad marking the first time two former Paladins have been named to the team.

January 10, 2007 — Clint Dempsey complete then record $4 million transfer to English Premier League club Fulham and scores in a 1-0 victory over Liverpool to help the Cottagers avoid relegation.

October 27, 2007 — Furman captured its 18th SoCon regular season title completing a perfect 7-0-0 league slate rallying to beat Elon 2-1 at Stone Stadium on a late Patrick Murray goal.
