The Southern Conference

Furman University is a member of the Southern Conference, one of the nation's oldest intercollegiate athletic conferences. The 10-school league is composed of members Appalachian State, The Citadel, Davidson, East Tennessee State, Furman, Georgia Southern, Marshall, Tennessee-Chattanooga, Virginia Military Institute, and Western Carolina.

The Southern Conference was formed in 1921 at a meeting of 15 institutions in Atlanta, Georgia. The league initially was known as the Southern Intercollegiate Conference and the following 14 schools were original members: Alabama, Auburn, Clemson, Georgia, Georgia Tech, Kentucky, Maryland, Mississippi State, North Carolina, North Carolina State, Tennessee, Virginia, Virginia Tech, and Washington & Lee.

The growth of the SIC was rapid and, within a year, Florida, Louisiana State, Mississippi, South Carolina, Vanderbilt, and Tulane were added. In 1923 Sewanee joined the league, with current member Virginia Military Institute joining in 1924 and Duke being admitted in 1929.

In 1923 the league was officially renamed the Southern Conference. Through the years, the conference membership has changed. In 1932, 13 of the 23 members left to form the Southeastern Conference.

In February, 1936, Furman was one of six new members along with current member The Citadel and Davidson. In 1953 there was another mass exodus of schools from the league, this time to form the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Appalachian State joined the league in 1971, with Marshall, Tennessee-Chattanooga, and Western Carolina being admitted in 1977. East Tennessee State came into the league in 1978 to give the Southern Conference nine members. In 1988 Davidson officially ended its 52-year membership in the Southern Conference by withdrawing, thus leaving the conference with eight standing members. But in January, 1991, the league again expanded to nine schools with the acceptance of Georgia Southern. In May of 1991 a tenth school was added when Davidson rejoined the Southern Conference.

The Southern Conference declares championships in 10 men's sports, nine of which are decided by tournament play. The league also holds championships for women in tennis, golf, cross country, indoor and outdoor track, and softball. Southern Conference champions in men's basketball, baseball, football, soccer, and wrestling automatically qualify for participation in NCAA national tournaments. All members of the Southern Conference possess NCAA Division I status.

Wright Waters is the commissioner of the Southern Conference. Don Lucas serves as supervisor of officials for football. Jim Burch is the basketball supervisor of officials for men, and June Corteau is the league's supervisor of officials for women. Associate commissioner Charlie Lyle heads up the league's marketing and promotion efforts, while associate commissioner Geoff Cabe is in charge of special events. Assistant commissioners Chris Walker and Kate Hickey, meanwhile, coordinate media relations and compliance, respectively. Deana Monahan is the league's director of publications. Conference offices are located in Asheville, North Carolina.

The conference annually awards the Commissioner's Cup to the institution which accumulates the greatest number of points in men's championship competition throughout the year. The Germann Cup, signifying the overall winner in women's competition, and given annually by the conference, was captured by Furman University in 1995-96, for the fourth time in five years.

Furman Highlights

- 1889 Furman and Wofford bring football to South Carolina when the two schools meet in the state's first gridiron clash, in Spartanburg, on December 14. Wofford defeats Furman, 5-1, in a game that features no uniforms for its players, no positions, and rules formulated before the game. Described by Wofford alumnus G. Roujie ('91) in the January, 1890, issue of Old Gold and Black, the game "lasted one hour and half, with two fifteen-minute rests, and was won with ease by Wofford, the score being five to one. The visiting team (Furman) left on the afternoon train wiser and sadder men, having learned that though they receive instruction in their heads, not feet, at Furman, a little education of the pedal extremities is requisite to make good football players."
- 1890 Furman loses, 2-1, to Wofford in the first football game ever played in Greenville. Football team disbands following loss and first Furman baseball team is formed.
- 1891 Furman topples Wofford, 12-0, on January 24, in Spartanburg, for the school's first collegiate football victory. Coached by H.C. Granger, the school's first recognized gridiron mentor, Furman completes sweep of Wofford with a 28-2 win in Greenville on March 21. Trinity (Duke) clobbers Furman, 96-0, in Columbia, on November 14.
- 1892 Furman plays South Carolina in Charleston on Christmas Eve and wins 44-0. Furman wears purple jerseys and goes by the name of Mountaineers. Professor H.P. Young plays quarterback and serves as head coach. Furman's players average 156 pounds. At an alumni meeting headed up by James Andrews Tate of York, South Carolina, the school's colors — royal purple and white — are selected.
- 1893 Opposition to football is revealed in the April issue of the Furman Journal, which reports one foe as saying, "There are not a few people in this state who think football is proper only for 'toughs'. You boys are members of the church and ought not to do such things." Team (with 51 other students) takes train to the Augusta Exposition to play Georgia and loses, 22-8.
- 1895 Quarterback and head coach H.P. Young suffers self-inflicted gunshot wound to his wrist and is forced to have his hand amputated. Furman drops games to South Carolina, 14-10, and Wofford, 43-0.

- 1898 Furman student newspaper, The Echo, reports in its October issue that tennis clubs are organized "since we are not allowed to play football." In the November issue of The Echo, football scores from across the nation are printed and students complain that "the problem with southern colleges is they don't advertise, don't play football, and don't teach business classes."
- 1900 Football resurfaces at Furman under the direction of Frank Spencer.
- 1902 Furman and South Carolina meet again on the football field in a game that is significant in South Carolina athletic history. After taking a 10-0 win, Furman's players — known then as Purple Fighters — hoist above their heads a garnet and black rooster with plucked tail feathers. This prompted the use of the name Gamecocks to describe South Carolina's Nicknamed the "30-Mule Team", W.L. Laval's 1927 Furman Purple Hurricane is arguably the greatest team in Furman football history. Other wins that season came over Duke (13-7), North Carolina State (20-0), Wake Forest (53-0), South Carolina (34-0), and Clemson (28-0). In all, Furman notched seven shutouts that year.

1983 Furman goes 10-2-1 and wins its fourth straight Southern Conference title en route to an NCAA I-AA semi-final playoff finish. Paladins knock off Georgia Tech, 17-14, in Atlanta. Tailback Stanford Jennings rushes for Furman record 1,390 yards and is drafted in the third round by the Cincinnati Bengals. Cornerback Ernest Gibson is named to the Kodak All-America squad for the second straight year and is drafted in the sixth round by the New England Patriots. Jennings becomes the first player in conference history to earn league player-of-the-year honors three times. Jennings also becomes the first Furman football player in history to earn Southern Conference Athlete-of-the-Year accolades.

1984 Tailback Robbie Gardner rushes for 1,232 yards and sets an NCAA I-AA record by averaging 7.3 yards per carry. Quarterback Bobby Lamb throws for 19 touchdown passes and finishes third nationally in passing efficiency. Paladins steam roll The Citadel, 42-14, in the season finale

1985 Furman enjoys its second greatest season ever, winning the Southern Conference title for the sixth time in eight years and finishing second in NCAA I-AA with a 12-2 season. Paladins drop championship game to Georgia Southern, 44-42, in Tacoma, Washington. Paladins set 47 new team and individual records and roll to 10 consecutive wins during the year, including Furman's fourth straight win over NCAA I-A opponents — a 42-20 thrashing of North Carolina State. Furman blanks The Citadel, 42-0, and Tennessee-Chattanooga, 28-0, for its first back-to-back shutouts since 1942. Paladins face an NCAA record 90 passes from Rhode Island in NCAA I-AA first round playoff action, but intercept seven and easily defeat the Rams, 59-15. 1,000 yards in a season. Although sidelined for the year following Furman's ninth game, record setting receiver Chas Fox becomes Furman's all-time best, and is selected in the fourth round of draft by the Kansas City Chiefs. Dick Sheridan closes a spectacular eight-year career at Furman with a 69-23-2 slate. Long-time assistant coach Jimmy Satterfield is named the school's 19th head coach.

1986 Furman goes 7-3-2 for the school's seventh consecutive winning season. Freshman placekicker Mike Wood establishes a new school record with a 51-yard field goal against South Carolina State in his first collegiate game. Wood comes back a week later to kick a game-tying 28-yarder in the final minute of play to give the Paladins a 17-17 tie with Georgia Tech. Wood goes on to set five new kick scoring records. Furman's defense is Southern Conference's best, leading the league in total defense, rushing defense, passing defense, and scoring defense. Free safety Steve Squire lands GTE Academic All-America honors and an NCAA Post-Graduate Scholarship. Jimmy Satterfield is named South Carolina Coach-of-the-Year.

1987 Furman goes 7-4 to clinch its eighth straight winning season. Paladins defeat NCAA I-AA national runner-up Marshall, 42-36, in Greenville. Tailback Dwight Sterling rushes for 135 yards and a touchdown against Florida State to become the only back to rush for 100 yards against the 4th-ranked Seminoles all year. Paladins crush The Citadel, 58-13, in Charleston in season finale, running up a school record 676 yards in total offense. Guard Alex Albert is named Associated Press third team All-America.

1988 Picked to finish fourth in the Southern Conference, Furman surprises everyone by recording its greatest season ever (13-2) and first-ever NCAA I-AA National Championship. Paladins get two interceptions from senior linebacker Jeff Blankenship to defeat Georgia Southern, 17-12, in the title game, in Pocatello, Idaho. Furman goes 6-1 in league play and shares Southern Conference title with Marshall for its sixth championship in the 1980s. Paladin defense records four shutouts, tops the Southern Conference in rushing defense and total defense, and finishes as best in NCAA I-AA in scoring defense, giving up 9.5 points per game. Paladins go 8-0 at home for first undefeated home season in Paladin Stadium history, and reel off wins in last nine games. Furman drops a 23-3 decision to Clemson in front of 80,300 fans. Paladins snap Appalachian State's 20-game unbeaten streak in conference play, beating the Mountaineers, 24-9, in Boone before the biggest crowd (25,301) to see a league game in 25 years. Furman again denies The Citadel a shot at a league title, defeating the Bulldogs, 30-17, for seventh straight time, and turns the tables on Marshall with a 13-9 win, in Huntington, in NCAA I-AA quarterfinal playoff action. Senior linebacker Jeff Blankenship tallies a Furman record 235 tackles and closes out his career as the program's all-time leading tackler. Blankenship becomes the school's first consensus All-American, making Associated Press, Walter Camp Foundation, Kodak, Football News, and Walter Camp All-America teams. Blankenship is also named Southern Conference and South Carolina Defensive Player-of-the-Year, as well as Football News National Defensive Player-of-the-Year and Southern Conference Athlete-of-the-Year. Despite suffering a season-ending knee injury against Appalachian State, fullback Kennet Goldsmith is still honored as Jacobs Blocking Award winner for the Southern Conference. Head coach Jimmy Satterfield is named South Carolina Coach-of-the-Year as well as Kodak and Chevrolet National Coach-of-the-Year. Junior defensive end Kelly Fletcher, who paced the Southern Conference with 15.5 sacks, is named GTE Academic All-America. Team is honored by championship parade in Greenville and by joint session of South Carolina legislature in Columbia, where it meets with visiting United States President George Bush.

1989 Furman closes out the most dominant football decade in school history by going 12-2 and winning the school's seventh Southern Conference Championship in the 1980s. Paladins reel off school record 12 straight wins and advance to the semi-finals of the NCAA I-AA playoffs before bowing out with a 21-19 loss to Stephen F. Austin, in Greenville, in the first game ever played in the snow at Paladin Stadium. Furman dominates Southern Conference race, posting a perfect 7-0 record and winning its league games by an average of 21.8 points. Paladins pace the Southern Conference in total offense, scoring offense, rushing defense, total defense, and scoring defense. Largest crowd (80,508) to ever see Furman play a football game witnesses a 30-0 Clemson victory over the Paladins at Death Valley. Paladins trounce nationally-ranked Appalachian State, 31-6, and Marshall, 34-13, in Greenville, and knock off The Citadel, 44-9, in regular season finale for the eighth straight time. Quarterback Frankie DeBusk, who finishes fourth in the nation in passing efficiency, attempts his last 88 passes of the season without an interception but is sidelined prematurely with a knee injury in the second quarter of Furman's 24-10 win over William & Mary in NCAA first round playoff action. Senior defensive end Kelly Fletcher headlines a strong Furman pass rush (48 sacks) by establishing a school record for quarterback sacks with 19 and succeeds Jeff Blankenship as Southern Conference and South Carolina Defensive Player-of-the-Year. Fletcher also reaps Kodak, Associated Press, Sports Network, and Football News All-America honors, and joins defensive end Chris Roper and placekicker Mike Wood on the GTE Academic All-America squad. Roper, a first team Football News All-America selection, is named a National Football Foundation and Hall-of-Fame Scholar-Athlete and becomes the sixth Furman player to earn an NCAA Post-Graduate Scholarship. Roper and Fletcher combine to share Furman Athlete-of-the-Year honors. Furman sweeps state football honors as junior quarterback Frankie DeBusk is named South Carolina Offensive Player-of-the-Year, and Jimmy Satterfield is tabbed state coach-of-the-year for the third time in four years. Despite missing four games with a knee injury, center Steve Duggan becomes first Paladin since 1951 to capture Jacobs Blocking Award for South Carolina. Furman closes out 1980s as state's winningest program of the decade and nation's second most successful NCAA I-AA football program with a 95-25-4 record and .780 winning percentage. Furman claims its third straight Southern Conference Championship and ninth league crown by registering a 9-4 overall record and 6-1 league mark. Paladins again deny The Citadel a share of a league title, beating the Bulldogs, 30-17, in Greenville before the third largest crowd (18,190) in Paladin Stadium history. Furman whips Eastern Kentucky, 45-17, a week later in NCAA I-AA first round playoff action in Richmond, Kentucky. Season ends with a 42-35 triple overtime loss to Nevada, in Reno, in the longest game in NCAA I-AA playoff history. Paladins boast the most balanced offense in school history and pace the Southern Conference in total offense and scoring offense. Quarterback Frankie DeBusk passes for school record 2,433 yards and is named Southern Conference Offensive Player-of-the-Year. Senior linebacker Kevin Kendrick is tabbed as league's best defender after pacing the conference in tackles with 179. Senior center Steve Duggan picks up Jacobs Blocking Award and becomes first Furman offensive lineman to garner first team All-America honors since 1931. Duggan and Kendrick are consensus All-America choices, and junior guard Eric Walter is named to the GTE Academic All-America second team. Tailback Carl Tremble paces the Southern Conference in rushing with 1,277 yards and becomes the first 1,000-yard rusher since 1986. Tremble, who also leads the league in scoring, becomes the first Paladin to score more than 100 points (102) in a season. Placekicker Glen Connally set new school record and ties Southern Conference mark with five field goals in 29-13 win over East Tennessee State. Furman's senior class closes out the best four-year record in school history, having registered a 41-12 mark since 1987.

1991 Furman's bid for a fourth straight Southern Conference Championship falls short as the Paladins finish 7-4 overall and fourth in the league race. Furman's four losses are by a combined total of 12 points, and three came on last second field goals. Paladins hook up with Appalachian State to play first overtime game in Southern Conference history (26-23 triple overtime win by Appalachian State). Paladins' upset bid against defending UPI National Champion Georgia Tech goes awry when a late Furman fumble enables Tech to escape with a 19-17 win in Atlanta. Although forced to miss Furman's last two games with a fractured wrist sustained in the Georgia Tech game, quarterback Hugh Swilling finishes still finishes third in the nation in passing efficiency. Paladins' nine-game winning streak over The Citadel ends as the Bulldogs topple the Paladins, 10-6, in Charleston in front of a stadium record crowd of 21,623 fans. Furman leads the league in rushing defense and total defense. Nose guard Allen Edwards becomes the fourth straight Paladin to earn Southern Conference Defensive Player-of-the-Year honors. Edwards combines with guard Eric Walter to also earn Associated Press second team All-America honors. Walter is named to the GTE Academic All-America first team and combines with tight end Paul Siffri to garner an NCAA Post-Graduate Scholarship. Placekicker Andrew Burr, a former Paladin soccer star, leads the league in scoring with 87 points and becomes the first athlete in league history to lead the conference in scoring in two separate years, in different sports. Paul Siffri signs a free agent contract with the NFL's Pittsburgh Steelers.

1992 Furman posts 13th straight winning season with 6-5 record and fifth place Southern Conference finish. Furman gets game-winning, 43-yard field goal from freshman walk-on Jim Richter to down Appalachian State 16-13 in Boone. Senior tailback Carl Tremble sets school single season rushing record (1,555 yards) and finishes his career as the Southern Conference's all-time leading rusher (4,746 yards). Tremble's season includes 10 100-yard rushing performances and features a career-best 39-carry, 228-yard, 3-TD performance in 35-7 win over Tenn.-Chattanooga in Chattanooga. Tremble later signs free agent contract with

The strength of Furman's football program in the early 1980s was underlined in the Paladins' four straight Southern Conference Championships from 1980-83, and also in the program's success against NCAA I-A opposition. In 1982, Dick Sheridan's Paladins knocked off South Carolina, 28-23, for the first of four straight wins over I-A foes. Georgia Tech (17-14, 1983), North Carolina State (34-30, 1984, and 42-20, 1985) were other Furman victims.
