Boston University head coach Rich Taylor

"Furman is the finest offensive team I have seen in all my years of coaching. (He was an assistant coach at Lehigh University for three years, assistant coach at Dartmouth for six years and has just completed his seventh year as a Boston University head coach.

They do everything very well--run block and throw. It didn't take us long to learn just how good an offensive team they have. We knew that before the first quarter was over.

The added dimension they have that Eastern Kentucky didn't have last week was the quarterback. They have great skilled people and the best overall balanced offense that I have seen in my years of coaching.

Defensively, they have a fine team but we were able to move the ball against them. We have nothing to be ashamed of as a team.

We want to wish them all the luck, and we hope they go all the way.

(As an aside, Taylor felt the key play was the 52-yard kickoff return by Robbie Gardner.

"That was the backbreaker. We had come back to kick a field goal that cut the lead to 21-3 and we had some spirit on the sidelines. But, that kickoff return took any momentum that we might've had away from us."

Boston University linebacker Mike Radcliffe

"Their offense was kick, hit hard and kept coming at us. We just couldn't stop them on the third down plays.

Their backs are very strong and we just couldn't hold on.

But we've come a long way this year, and this team has shown a lot of heart.

FURMAN HEAD COACH DICK SHERIDAN

"I thought we gave a great effort against a very good football team. Our team has improved week-to-week all season long, and this is a great testimony to the hard work they've shown all year."

"We were very impressed with BU, and it took a great effort on the part of our players and coaches to win this football game."

"We executed our offense very well, and the defense made the big plays when they had to. It was a very fine, all-around team effort, and that kind of effort was what it took to win the football game."

"I thought our offensive line played very well against a Boston defense that was both very quick and had a fairly substantial size advantage. The line, and especially (fullback) Dinky Williams played very well, at least the way it looked on the sideline.

"We welcome the opportunity to play Western Carolina again, and we are very happy that two teams from the Southern Conference have advanced to the semifinal round. We are hoping for a fine crowd and we are happy that Furman University can host another game."

"Our ultimate goal at the beginning of the season was a national championship, and I think you have to go into a season with such a goal. We're now one of the best four teams in the country, and that in itself is a great tribute to our players."
