

FURMAN
MEN'S TENNIS
2025 RECORD BOOK

The Furman men's tennis team has enjoyed a great deal of success in The Southern Conference. The Paladins began competing in the SoCon in 1967, and since then they have won 17 league championships and 14 conference tournament titles. Since 1992 when the SoCon began declaring a champion based on the regular-season schedule, the Paladins have won or shared nine regular-season crowns and six postseason tournament titles.

Furman players have earned league MVP honors six times and claimed six SoCon Tournament Most Valuable Player awards. All-conference plaques have been awarded to 2012 Furman singles and doubles competitors.

Established in 1921, The Southern Conference is the fourth oldest major college conference in the United States. Its roots can be traced to 1894, when several football-playing institutions formed a confederation known as the Southeastern Intercollegiate Athletic Association (SIAA). On February 25-26, 1921, 15 of the larger SIAA members met in Atlanta and officially formed the Southern Intercollegiate Conference. Charter members were Alabama, Auburn, Clemson, Georgia, Georgia Tech, Kentucky, Maryland, Mississippi State, North Carolina, North Carolina State, Tennessee, Virginia, Virginia Tech, and Washington & Lee. Athletic competition began that fall.

Since its formation, The Southern Conference has given birth to the Southeastern and Atlantic Coast conferences, and its membership has changed drastically. Current members include Furman, The Citadel, Chattanooga, ETSU, Mercer, UNCG, Samford, VMI, Western Carolina and Wofford.

The Southern Conference gives three major awards to its member institutions. The Commissioner's Cup is given annually to the school fielding the league's best all-around men's sports program, while the Germann Cup is presented to the school with the best overall women's program. The McAlister Award is presented to the institution judged to have exhibited the highest degree of sportsmanship in league competition. In 2012-13, Furman won the McAlister Award for the fifth time and in 2018-19 captured its 17th Germann Cup. The Paladins claimed their second Commissioner's Cup in 2020-21.
