2007 SoCon Champions

SOCON CHAMPIONS

Everyone expected the seventh-seeded Furman Paladins' stay at the 2007 Southern Conference Tournament in Greensboro, N.C. to be a short one - except for the Paladins themselves. Furman defied the odds, recovered from a rocky regular season and finished what they had come agonizingly close to doing a year earlier by winning the SoCon Championship and securing the school's first-ever NCAA Tournament bid with a script that even Hollywood might have thought hard to believe.

For the fourth straight year, Furman finished near the back of the SoCon pack and drew the College of Charleston in Wednesday's opening round. A year earlier Furman had stunned the Cougars in the first round on their way to an improbable SoCon Finals run. Furman's hopes were dashed in the 2006 finals when Georgia Southern defeated the Paladins twice on Saturday to claim the title after coming out of the loser's bracket.

The Cougars started the 2007 edition of the SoCon Tournament racing out to a 2-0 lead on the Paladins. Furman pulled even in the second inning and took the lead for good in the third when freshman Lana Mackey unloaded a three-run blast to give the Paladins a 5-2 lead. Charleston pulled within a run, but Furman plated six runs in the fifth inning, including a three-run double by Stephanie Cushing, to claim the 12-5 over the second-seeded Cougars.

Furman's 2006 flashback continued when they found themselves paired with Elon in round two on Thursday. Unlike the previous year, this matchup with Elon would not contain a lot of suspense. Blake Murray tossed a four-hit complete game and hammered her first career home run as Furman cruised to a 7-1 victory over the Phoenix. Centerfielder Amber Kiser recorded three hits as the Paladins pushed on to the winner's bracket final against sixth-seeded Western Carolina on Friday.

Kiser helped carry Furman one step closer to the title on day three. She delivered a two-out, two-run single in the second inning and scored the Paladins' final run in a 4-2 win over the Catamounts. Murray held Western Carolina to just two unearned runs while Kiser, Lynn Parmer and Cushing each collected two hits.

Furman found itself in a familiar spot as

Georgia Southern rose from the loser's bracket once again to face the Paladins in Saturday's championship round. For the second year in a row, the Eagles forced a final game, downing Furman 4-1 early on Saturday.

Game two would be a pitcher's duel between Mackey and Georgia Southern's hurlers Melissa Laliberte and Logan Free. Georgia Southern struck first in the top of the fourth when pinch runner Aubrey Thweatt scored from third base on a throwing error.

Furman answered quickly in the bottom of the fourth. Abby Robertson singled, moved to third on an error and scored on senior Megan Jaudon's sacrifice fly to right field.

Mackey and Laliberte carried the pitcher's duel into extra innings before Eagle shortstop Maria Laurato gave GSU a 2-1 lead starting the top of the eighth inning with a solo home run to left field. After a Murray strikeout to start the bottom of the eighth, Furman was down to its final two outs, but Kiser lined a triple to right-center and scored on Robertson's sacrifice fly to tie the game at 2-2.

Heavy rains moved into the area before the start of the ninth inning and delayed play for an hour and a half before Georgia Southern stepped to the plate at 7:43 p.m. Mackey picked up where she left off as the Perry, Ga., native set down the Eagles in order while fanning two batters.

The chance for a championship-winning play moved back to the Paladins as the game went to the bottom of the ninth. Free relieved Laliberte and retired the first batter she faced before issuing a base on balls to senior Danielle Franklin. After Palmer went down swinging, Murray drew a walk to move Franklin to second. Kiser, the Paladin leadoff hitter, worked the count full and fouled off several pay-off pitches before lining a shot down the left field line. Franklin raced around third and was mobbed by her teammates as she crossed the plate to give Furman a 3-2 win and its first SoCon title since 1995.

Mackey had tossed nine innings allowed just one earned run and Kiser had delivered the two biggest hits of the day, Furman had done the improbable and erased the memories of 2006 by writing the script for the most memorable moment of Furman softball history.

Furman went on to play in its first NCAA Tournament at the Knoxville Regional. The Paladins fell to nationally-ranked Tennessee and All-American pitcher Monica Abbott before being eliminated by Winthrop the following day.
