JOHNSTON PROVIDES STEADY PRODUCTION AS A SENIOR

Senior Charles Johnston posted his 10th double-double of the season and second straight with 13 points and 10 rebounds in Furman's 78-69 loss to ETSU on February 18. Last Saturday, he totaled 11 points and 10 rebounds in Furman's 90-72 win at VMI. The Sydney, Australia, native has averaged 10.1 points and 9.4 rebounds per game this season. Johnston has posted 15 double-digit rebound performances this season, highlighted by his 16-rebound game versus Samford at Timmons Arena on January 29. He netted a season-high 21 points at Chattanooga before totaling a season-high 15 rebounds and career-best five assists against VMI. A standout at Cal State Monterey Bay before arriving at Furman prior to last season, Johnston has totaled 24 career double-doubles.

FROM CRICKET TO HOOPS: MORE ON CHARLES JOHNSTON

Furman forward Charles Johnston grew up as an avid cricket player in Australia and is the son of Trent Johnson, who played for Ireland in three world cups. Johnston didn't begin playing the game of basketball until an injury forced him to put aside his promising cricket career as a teenager. Encouraged by his good friend Tyrese Proctor, now a member of the Cleveland Cavaliers, the 6-foot-11 Johnston, who had represented Australia in cricket at the youth level, tried his hand at basketball and began to study the game and work on his skills alone during COVID isolation. Proctor's father used contacts to get Johnston an opportunity at NCAA Division II Cal State Monterey Bay where he averaged 13 points and 10.7 rebounds per game while recording 13 double-doubles as a sophomore in 2023-24.

Justin Neely totaled 24 points and grabbed 13 rebounds to power UNC Greensboro to a 67-64 victory over Furman in front of a national television audience on ESPN2 February 8 at Timmons Arena. The Spartans ended the first half on a 25-15 run to take a seven point advantage into the locker room and stretched the lead to double digits early in the second half. Furman trimmed the deficit to one point, but Noah Norgaard drained a crucial three in the final minutes and Neely connected on a pair of free throws in the final 10 seconds to hold off the rally as UNCG earned a season split with the Paladins and won in Greenville for the fifth straight time. Cooper Bowser went 8-for-12 from the field to score a team-high 20 points for Furman and Alex Wilkins added 15.

WILKINS POWERS FURMAN PAST CHATTANOOGA

Alex Wilkins poured in a career-best 33 points to power Furman to a 75-70 victory over Chattanooga on February 1, at Timmons Arena. The Paladins raced out to a 29-7 lead and led by as many as 24 points before the Mocs clawed within three with under a minute left. Wilkins made 5-of-6 free throws in the final minute and Eddrin Bronson drained a pair at the line with less than 13 seconds left to secure the victory. Wilkins' 33 points were the most since Jonathan Moore scored a Paladin freshman record of 34 points versus Clemson on December 15, 1976, versus Georgia. He became the first Furman freshman to reach 30 points since Jason Stewart tallied 30 at Clemson on December 16, 1995.

FURMAN HOLDS OFF SAMFORD, 78-73

Furman completed the regular season sweep of its home-and-home series versus Samford with a 78-73 victory over the Bulldogs on January 29 at Timmons Arena. Tom House scored 21 points to top the 20-point plateau for the second straight game and Alex Wilkins added 20 to improve the Paladins to 15-7 overall and 6-3 in league play. Charles Johnston pulled down 16 rebounds, his most as a Paladins, and Eddrin Bronson made several key plays down the stretch as Furman held off a late Samford rally to defeat the Bulldogs for the ninth time in the last 11 meetings between the SoCon rivals. Furman's 58.3% shooting performance in the win was its highest of the season versus a Division I opponent.

ORIGIN OF THE PALADIN

Furman University athletic teams were known by different names until the 1961 school year. The baseball team was "Hornets," the football team "Hurricane," and the basketball team "Paladins."

The basketball team was dubbed "Paladins" by a Greenville sportswriter in the 1930s. By vote of the student body, all Furman athletic teams became the "Paladins" on September 15, 1961. A Paladin is a knight on a horse and the recognized mascot of Furman University's athletic teams.

the ship on January 23 with an 89-66 victory over UNC Greensboro at Bodford Arena last Friday afternoon. Playing its second game in less than 48 hours, Furman shot over 55% from the field, 51% from three-point range, and 91% at the foul line to pull away from the Spartans despite dressing just seven scholarship players. Point guard Alex Wilkins delivered 27 points and six assists without committing a turnover while senior Tom House buried a career-best seven three-pointers to add 25 points. Freshman Cole Bowser established career highs with 13 points and 13 rebounds to notch his first career double-double.

LEADS SLIPS AWAY FROM PALADINS AT THE CITADEL

For the second straight game, Furman saw a double-digit lead slip away in the final 10 minutes as The Citadel rallied from a 55-36 second half deficit to force overtime on its way to a 77-75 win over the Paladins Wednesday night at McAlister Field House in Charleston, S.C. After seeing Wofford erase a 59-46 margin in the final 10 minutes last Saturday, Furman suffered a similar fate as The Citadel closed regulation on a 31-12 run to even the game. Sola Adebisi, who led the Bulldogs with 22 points, drained two free throws with under 10 seconds left in the overtime period to give the Bulldogs the victory. Wednesday's game marked the third consecutive overtime contest between Furman and The Citadel in Charleston with the Paladins prevailing in the first two.

Head Coach Bob Richey

Bob Richey is in his ninth season as head coach of the Furman men's basketball team and 15th overall with the program.

A finalist for both the 2023 Hugh Durham Coach of the Year Award and Skip Prosser Man of the Year Award, Richey has helped propel the Paladins to national prominence with 10 consecutive winning seasons, including the 2023 Southern Conference regular season title, the program's first So-Con Tournament title and NCAA Tournament berth since 1980, and its first tournament victory since 1974. In his seven seasons as head coach, the 2022-23 J. Lyles Alley Furman Coach of the Year has guided the Paladins to a 198-92 overall record and 107-49 mark in Southern Conference play while posting a .683 winning percentage, which ranks in the top 30 among all active Division I head coaches.

Under Richey's leadership, Furman has won at least 25 games in four of the past seven seasons and at least 22 victories in seven of the past nine years. Furman's .685 overall winning percentage and .686 SoCon winning percentage over the last 10 seasons both rank among the best in the SoCon during Richey's tenure.

Last season, Richey guided Furman to a 25-10 record, SoCon finals appearance, and an at-large bid to the NIT. Furman's 25 wins tied for the second most in school history. Senior Play Smith Jr. captured first team All-SoCon honors and NABC All-District honors while graduate student Nick Anderson was named third team All-SoCon.

The 2022-23 Paladins notched a school-record 28 victories, highlighted by an 88-79 triumph over Chattanooga in the SoCon Championship game and a 68-67 victory over No. 4 seed Virginia in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament in Orlando, Fla. Seniors Mike Bothwell and Jalen Slawson both garnered first team All-SoCon accolades for the second straight year and were named finalists for the Lou Henson Mid-Major Player of the Year Award. Slawson earned SoCon Player of the Year honors and was selected to play in the NABC Reese's College All-Star Game before being taken in the second round of the NBA Draft by the Sacramento Kings. Bothwell inked a free agent deal with the Cleveland Cavaliers in June.

In 2021-22 Richey led the Paladins to a 22-12 overall record and second place finish in the SoCon with a 12-6 worksheet. He guided Furman to a victory over ACC foe Louisville, its first SoCon Tournament finals appearance since 2015, and a No. 82 ranking in the NCAA Evaluation Tool (NET) Rankings.

Slawson and Bothwell earned first team all-conference honors, while Slawson was named SoCon Defensive Player of the Year. Senior Alex Hunter finished his career as Furman's all-time leader in three-point baskets.

Furman concluded the 2020-21 season at 16-9 overall and 10-5 in the SoCon, securing the program's sixth consecutive winning record and sixth straight top three finish in the league standings. The Paladins, who spent the entire regular season ranked in the College Insider Mid-Major Top 25, concluded the season a league-best No. 75 in the NET Rankings, a SoCon-best No. 92 in the Pomeroy Ratings and No. 90 in the RPI.

Richey guided the Paladins to a 25-7 overall record and 15-3 Southern Conference mark in 2019-20 as the Paladins posted a school-record for victories for a second consecutive season. Furman finished the season at No. 74 in the NCAA Evaluation Tool (NET) Rankings and No. 81 in the Pomeroy Ratings. Jordan Lyons, a College Insider Mid-Major All-American, earned first team All-SoCon honors while Mounce and Gurley received third team all-league accolades. Lyons finished his Furman career as the winningest player in school history with 96 victories.

Under his leadership, the 2018-19 Paladins reached new heights with a school-record 25 wins, including victories over defending national champion and eighth-ranked Villanova and 2018 NCAA Final Four participant Loyola Chicago. Furman finished the season with a 25-8 overall record, 13-5 league mark and earned the school's first trip to the National Invitation Tournament (NIT) since 1991.

Rafferty, who paced the country in win shares and defensive win shares, finished the season as the only player in the SoCon to rank in the top 10 in points (17.5ppg), rebounds (9.0rpg), assists (4.3apg), steals (2.5spg), blocks (1.1bpg) and field goal percentage (61.5%). The first team All-SoCon selection also ranked among the league leaders in assist-to-turnover ratio (2.1) and free throw percentage (76.7%).

In his first season as head coach in 2017-18, Richey guided the Paladins to a school record-tying 23-win season that included a then school-record 22 regular season victories. Under his leadership, Furman placed three players on All-Southern Conference teams and the 2018 senior class finished their careers with 76 wins, now third best in school history.

A native of Florence, S.C., Richey, who served six seasons as a member of the Paladin coaching staff before moving into the head coaching role, helped Furman to a school record-tying 23 total victories and 14 Southern Conference wins in 2017, while the program earned a share of its first Southern Conference regular season championship in 21 years and a trip the CollegeInsider.com (CIT) Postseason Tournament semifinals. The 2016-17 Paladins, who also won a school record 12 road games, notched back-to-back postseason appearances for the first time since 1974-75, and captured postseason victories in consecutive seasons for the first time in school history.

Richey, who has served as position coach for the Paladins' guards since joining the Furman staff prior to the 2011-12 campaign, has recruited and developed back-to-back Southern Conference Players of the Year. Stephen Croone, who finished his Furman career with 1,936 points, earned consensus SoCon Player of the Year honors in 2016 before joining the NBDL's Sioux Falls SkyForce for the 2016-17 season. Sibley followed Croone by earning 2017 SoCon Player of the Year honors, first team All-SoCon accolades, and first team NABC All-District laurels. Sibley was joined on both the All-SoCon squad and NABC All-District Team by fellow Richey recruit Kris Acox, who capped his career with 1,051 points and ranked among the SoCon's top rebounders over two seasons.

Richey's recruits have garnered all-conference honors in 11 consecutive seasons, including Furman recruits Croone (2014, '15, '16 All-SoCon), Acox (2017 All-SoCon), and Sibley (2017 All-SoCon). He has also helped recruit six players over the last seven seasons who have garnered SoCon All-Freshman honors, including Sibley, who won 2015 SoCon Freshman of the Year accolades.

An associate head coach for Charleston Southern during the 2010-11 campaign, Richey helped the Buccaneers achieve their highest win total in 14 years in 2011. In five seasons as an assistant at CSU, he recruited five players who went on to garner All-Big South Conference honors, highlighted by the school's No. 2 all-time leading scorer Jamarco Warren and 2013 all-league performers Saah Nimley and Arlon Harper. Richey helped the Bucs improve their conference record in each season, culminating with a squad that ranked in the top 50 nationally by averaging 74 points per game in his final season.

During his five years at Charleston Southern, Richey recruited five of the top 11 scorers in CSU history in Warren (1,968 points, 2nd all-time), Nimley (1,866 points, 3rd all-time), Harper (1,633 points, 5th all-time), Kelvin Martin (1,483 points, 8th all-time) and Jeremy Sexton (1,253 points, 11th all-time). Two of his recruits earned Big South Freshman of the Year honors in their rookie seasons, and he placed at least one player on the Big South All-Freshman squad in four consecutive seasons. Basketball analyst Jeff Goodman rated Richey as the No. 4 assistant coach in the Big South Conference in 2010, while Richey also ranked as the youngest coach on the list.

A graduate of Florence Christian School, Richey led his team to a 28-2 record and state championship his senior year. He was named the 3A State player of the year and currently holds seven school records at Florence Christian.

Richey graduated summa cum laude from North Greenville University in May of 2006 with a degree in business management. In April of 2007, he married the former Jessica Tingle and the couple have four children, Audrey Gabrielle, Robert McIntire "Mac", Jacks Berner, and Francis "Francie" Elizabeth.

TIMMONS ARENA

“Mid-major size with high-major experience and amenities.” That’s how Paladin men’s basketball coach Bob Richey described the newly renovated Timmons Arena.

Home to Furman’s men’s and women’s basketball programs since 1997, Timmons Arena underwent a $40 million, donor-funded renovation, which was completed prior to the 2025-26 season.

“The renovation of Timmons Arena marks an exciting new chapter for Furman University,” said Donnelly. “As the signature capital project of the Clearly Furman campaign, this reimagined facility will not only be the new home for Paladin Basketball but also a central gathering place for our entire university community. This transformation is more than just a facility upgrade—it’s a bold investment in the future of Furman athletics and campus life. Thanks to the incredible generosity of our donors, this new state-of-the-art arena will stand as a source of pride and a vibrant hub for student engagement, alumni connections, external events, and partnerships with the greater Greenville community for years to come.”

The renovation project was led by Ken Betsch & Associates as well as Harper General Contractors. Businessman and philanthropist Ravenel B. Curry III, a 1963 Furman graduate, provided the lead gift of $10 million to spearhead the project that was also generously supported by the Timmons and Pelham families in honor of their family’s original commitment to the arena in 1997. Furman partnered with Taymar and Legends to provide a first-class ticketing and game day experience as well as Bon Appetit and Athlete Advantage for innovative and unique hospitality, catering and external engagement opportunities.

“We are deeply grateful for the hard work and dedication of our many partners—on and off campus—who helped bring this vision to life,” Donnelly said. “Their efforts have been tremendous.”

The “new” Timmons Arena features a glass façade entrance on the front of the building leading to the new Furman Ticket Office. Entering the building, Paladin faithful are immersed in Furman athletics history in the Hall of Honor, featuring a replica basketball court, championship banners, and interactive displays developed by Dimensional Innovations that detail the history of the Paladins and the Furman Athletics Hall of Fame.

The existing arena structure, stripped down to bare bones, was reimagined and redesigned with a new seating bowl, created with partner Irwin Seating, including the Foster Courtside Seating Section, Spinx Student Section, club seats, and premium seating closer to the floor. A 360-degree concourse above the bowl features new concession areas, along with grab-and-go concession options.

Behind the Spinx Student Section on the south end is a “student zone” to host student programming and events on game days. Timmons’ north side includes one of the most innovative and unique areas inside any college basketball venue as Kraemer Design & Production teamed with The Children’s Museum of the Upstate to create the “Furman Family Zone”.

A pair of new ribbon boards provide first-class fan engagement and corporate partnership opportunities, while the Newsom Family Suite Level provides eight private suites and two party suites for an entirely new way to experience Furman basketball and Timmons Arena. Two premium club spaces, the Ingram Courtside Club and the Herring VIP Suite, give Timmons new opportunities for game day gatherings and special events. The renovation is also highlighted by the addition of the Rogues Hospitality Deck, the perfect location to gather with friends and fellow fans to enjoy a beverage and entertains guests. Timmons Arena also features a new sound system in the arena, designed by Avant Acoustics, that will add to the fan experience.

The new seating bowl and premium hospitality areas will allow Timmons Arena not only to host high-level college athletic events, but to become a first-class destination for concerts, weddings, graduations, and various other community events.

The $40 million project also includes new coaches' offices, team locker rooms, and film rooms for both the men's and women's basketball programs. New visiting team locker rooms, bathrooms, staff offices, a media room, fully equipped catering kitchen, operations space, and storage throughout the building has also been added as part of the investment in Furman and Paladin athletics.

The facility also boasts two state-of-the-art 26' x 10' videoboards, which were dedicated in honor of former Paladin great Frank Selvy prior to the 2018-19 season.

The lead gift of $4 million for the original facility was provided by longtime Furman supporters William R. Timmons, Jr. '49, Jean Timmons Pelham '42, and Charlie and Kitty Wells '48 Timmons. Bill, Jean, and Charlie are children of the late William R. Timmons '14. At the time of facility dedication, Bill Timmons, chairman of Greenville's Canal Insurance Company, longtime university trustee, and recipient of an honorary degree from Furman, recalled that his family's association with the university dated back from his father's enrollment in 1910. His father's brother, Charles Edward Timmons, Jr., also attended Furman before volunteering for World War I, during which he was killed in action.
