COACH GIBBS

| 7

The second campaign of the Shawn Gibbs era in 'The Valley' begins with great optimism. The Fort Valley State head football coach aims to build upon the solid opening season at the Wildcats helm.

Gibbs and the Wildcats posted an 8-2 record last fall for the program's best season in over a decade. FVSU's first year under Gibbs included victories over SIAC West champ Tuskegee in the Red Tails Classic and Albany State in the Fountain City Classic along his top players, Emanuel Wilson and Kelvin Durham, earning the SIAC Player, Offensive, Newcomer and Freshman of the Years awards between the two.

Coming to program in February of 2022, FVSU gave Gibbs the reins of his first program as a head coach.

Gibbs has an extensive background in coaching that includes 19 seasons as both an assistant head coach and positions coach at the collegiate level. His coaching experience includes stints at North Carolina A&T University, North Carolina Central University, and Grambling State University.

Gibbs became the North Carolina A&T assistant head coach and running backs coach under legendary head coach Rod Broadway in 2011. His responsibilities included coordinating meetings, implementing game strategies, and recruiting players. During Gibbs' tenure at N.C. A&T, every season, except one, a running back rushed for over 1,000 yards.

Under the tutelage of Gibbs, many N.C. A&T running backs have had successful careers. In 2011, Mike Mayhew was named Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference Offensive Player of the Year. Former running back Tarik Cohen won the Conference Offensive Player of the Year award three times (2014-16) along with being named MEAC Freshman of the Year (2013) and earning All-American honors.

Cohen led the league in rushing all four of his seasons with over 1,000 yards each year. Cohen's other accomplishments include being the MEAC and N.C. A&T all-time leading rusher (5,619), being named to numerous All-American teams, being a four-time First Team All-MEAC selection all while being one of the most nationally recognized players in the nation. Cohen also broke the Aggies single season rushing record with 1,588 yards.

Gibbs helped Cohen become the first-ever Deacon Jones Award winner for best Black College Football Player in the nation. The Chicago Bears drafted Cohen in the fourth round of the NFL Draft in 2017.

Gibbs' success in developing running backs continued after Cohen. N.C. A&T's Marquell Cartwright took over and rushed for 2,149 yards and 21 touchdowns over his final two seasons (2017-18), earning two First Team All-MEAC honors and the 2017 Celebration Bowl Offensive MVP award. Between Mayhew, Cohen, and Cartwright, the Aggies have had a back lead the MEAC in rushing in seven out of the last eight years. In 2018, the Aggies had two running backs earn all-conference honors as Cartwright was a First Team selection and Jah-Maine Martin was a Third Team honoree.

Gibbs' coaching helped the Aggies dominate their league with five MEAC Championships and four Celebration Bowl Championships. After playing his college football at North Carolina Central, Gibbs began his coaching career at N.C. A&T in 2002, where he served as tight ends coach. During this time, he helped create offensive game plans, as well as, assisted in the teaching of football fundamentals and techniques.

SHAWN GIBBS
FORT VALLEY STATE UNIVERSITY

After spending one year at N.C. A&T, Gibbs returned to his alma mater, North Carolina Central, to serve as running backs coach. His expertise helped lead the team to consecutive Central Intercollegiate Athletic Conference Championships and National Collegiate Athletic Conference Division II playoff berths (2005-2006). During the 2006 season, the Eagles led the CIAA in scoring offense, total offense, and rushing offense.

In 2007, Gibbs became the running backs coach at Grambling State University. Under his guidance, the Tigers held one of the most prolific running games in the Division I Football Championship Subdivision. Gibbs inherited a young running back corps that included freshmen Frank Warren and Cornelius Walker. In their first year under Gibbs, Warren and Walker combined for 1,466 yards rushing and 10 touchdowns. Warren was named Southwestern Athletic Conference Freshman of the Year in 2007 as he finished with 901 yards. The running game continued to prosper under Gibbs in 2009 as the Tigers' rushing attack ascended to a No. 12 ranking nationally.
