HEAD COACH ERIK RAEBURN

Erik Raeburn is in his fifth season as head coach of the Gannon football program in 2024. Raeburn was announced as the sixth head coach in program history on Nov. 19, 2019, after joining the program in 2019 as the team's offensive coordinator. Now in his 24th year as a head coach Raeburn has a 163-84 career record. The season-opening win over Charleston (WV) in 2022 was the 150th of his career.

Raeburn brings more than three decades of experience in college football, including 23 seasons as a head coach. After serving for a season as the offensive coordinator in 2019, Raeburn's first year was marred by the COVID pandemic in 2020. Gannon would play four games in the spring of 2021, with the Golden Knights presenting Raeburn with his first win as their head coach against crosstown rival Mercyhurst. Gannon won 28-21 in overtime to finish at 1-3.

The 2021 Gannon edition ended the year with a 5-6 record, the most wins since the 2017 squad also posted a 5-6 record.

The 2022 Golden Knights squad accomplished something done just once before – finish as co-champions of the PSAC Western Division. Gannon finished in a three-way tie with Indiana (Pa.) and Slippery Rock, all finishing at 6-1.

Gannon's 8-3 record left the Golden Knights one win shy of the school record of nine wins set in 2003 (9-1) and 2014 (9-2). The 1949 Gannon edition finished at 8-0. Gannon also finished in a tie for first place in the Western Division in 2014 as well.

The 2023 season finished with a 5-6 record, as well, but the Golden Knights were 5-2 in PSAC West play to finish third in the division.

In addition to Gannon, Raeburn has served as head coach at Coe, Wabash, and Savannah State. His most recent stop prior to Gannon was as the head coach at Division I Savannah State in Savannah, Georgia. He led the Tigers for three seasons from 2016 to 2018 with an 8-23 record.

Prior to his stop in Georgia, Raeburn was the head coach at Division III Wabash in Crawfordsville, Indiana, from 2008 to 2015. In those eight seasons, he led the Little Giants to a 78-13 overall record and won the North Coast Athletic Conference title three times (2008, 2011, 2015). He was named the conference Coach of the Year after finishing 12-1 and reaching the NCAA quarterfinals in 2011, one of five years his teams reached the NCAA playoffs. His teams never won fewer than eight games.

Four of his teams won 10-or-more games, including 12-1 finishes in 2011 and 2015. Both seasons saw the Little Giants win the NCAC championship and reach the NCAA Division III quarterfinals. Wabash was 10-2 in 2008 and 2014, winning the NCAC championship in 2008 and reaching the second round of the Division III playoffs both years.

In the 131-year history of the Wabash program, Raeburn's winning percentage of .857 stands second, and his 78 wins place him third. The Little Giants earned 13 All-America honors during his time there, and placed 121 players on the all-conference team, including seven conference offensive or defensive players of the year.

Raeburn got his head coaching start at Division III Coe College in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, where he compiled a 57-26 record in eight seasons between 2000 and 2007. The Kohawks won three conference titles in the Iowa Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (now American Rivers Conference), and Raeburn was named IIAC and regional Coach of the Year in 2002.

Coe went to the NCAA Division III playoffs twice during Raeburn's tenure, picking up the first playoff victory in program history in 2002. That was a 21-18 win over Wisc.-La Crosse, as Coe finished at 10-2, reached the second round of the Division III Tournament and won the IIAC championship. The Kohawks were 9-2 in 2005 and once again were IIAC champions. Raeburn produced 60 all-conference performers and six All-Americans in his time in Cedar Rapids.

Raeburn claimed his first career victory as a head coach in 2000, leading Coe to a 35-19 win at William Penn on September 2. Win number 100 was a 27-24 win over rival Wittenberg while coaching at Wabash in 2012.

A native of northeast Ohio, Raeburn got his college coaching start at his alma mater, Division III national power Mount Union. In six years as an offensive line coach and offensive coordinator, he helped the Raiders to six Ohio Athletic Conference championships and three consecutive NCAA Division III national championships.

A 1994 graduate of Mount Union with a bachelor's degree in Mathematics, Raeburn played for the Raiders from 1989-92. The team went 37-5-2, winning a pair of OAC championships and reaching the 1992 NCAA semifinals.

SCOUTING THE GOLDEN KNIGHTS

GANNON HAS NOW WON SEVEN STRAIGHT HOMECOMING GAMES

Gannon celebrated Homecoming last weekend with a 23-17 win Seton Hill. The Golden Knights extended their string of victories on Homecoming to seven straight games. The last time Gannon lost on Homecoming was in 2016, a 38-35 loss to Mercyhurst in overtime. Gannon will be playing in another Homecoming contest this week with Slippery Rock hosting Homecoming.

BAKER NAMED PSAC WEST DEFENSIVE ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

Redshirt senior Trey Baker was named the PSAC West Defensive Player of the Week following the 23-17 win over Seton Hill last Saturday. The linebacker came up with the two of the key plays in the game. The first was an interception late in the first half that he returned 68 yards to set up a Gannon touchdown with 18 seconds left in the half. The interception was the first of Baker's career and the first forced turnover by the Golden Knights this season. It is also tied for the seventh-longest interception return. The second halted another Seton Hill drive. He recovered a fumble at the GU 36 with just under a minute left to play after Charles Calhoun forced a fumble with a sack. Baker had six tackles on the afternoon, boosting his career total to 209.

THREE TURNOVERS KEY TO VICTORY

Gannon did not force a turnover over the first four games but came up with three in the win over Seton Hill Each played a huge role. The Golden Knights finally broke through when Trey Baker intercepted a pass late in the first half. Gannon later forced a pair of fumbles to stop Seton Hill drives. The first came early in the fourth quarter with the Griffins inside Gannon territory. David Francis Jr. caused the fumble with Jordan Tolliver recovering at the GU 36. With Gannon holding the 23-17 lead Seton Hill gained the ball at its own 29 with 3:43 remaining. The Griffins drove to the GU 21 but the potential winning drive was stopped when Charles Calhoun sacked SHU quarterback Jake Cruz, forcing a fumble. Baker fell on it at the GU 36 with 53 seconds remaining and Gannon proceeded to run out the clock.

SPECIAL TEAMS COMES UP WITH BLOCKED PUNT

The Gannon special teams contributed in a big way against Seton Hill with a blocked punt. Freshman Andrew Kuban blocked a Seton Hill punt in the first quarter with Eric Steinle recovering at the SHU 13. Four plays later Gannon built its lead to 10-0 when Bryson Costa kicked a 24-yard field goal.

OFFENSIVE LINE BATTLING INJURIES ...

The Golden Knights were missing three starters on the offensive line against Seton Hill, forcing two players to make their first career starts. Despite the makeshift offensive line Gannon ran for a season-high 146 yards. Center Jake Vasko was forced to miss the game along with both starting tackles -- Dylan Wilson and Riley Noble. For Nobel, the right tackle, it was his second straight game out of the lineup. Right guard Eyvar Robles has moved over to replace Noble with Aidan Ricks starting the last two games at right guard. Redshirt freshman Nevin Davila made his first career start at center. Cameron Stoffel, a redshirt junior who transferred from San Diego Mesa College this year, made his first career start at Gannon at left tackle.

WHILE SECONDARY GETTING HEALTHIER

Prior to the last couple games where the offensive line has bore the brunt of the injury epidemic it was the secondary taking the biggest hit. Serrell Curtis and Ty Tiggs have been the only defensive backs to start all five games, and Gannon is using a five-man secondary. All told, ten different players have started at least one game. The good new is two veteran players who were original starters at the beginning of the year returned against Seton Hill. Zaire Allen started the first three games before missing the California (Pa.). Jordan Tolliver missed three straight games after starting the opener.

COSTA DRILLS FIRST CAREER FIELD GOALS

Bryson Costa made an immediate impact as a punter but had not had much of an opportunity as a placekicker. That changed for the freshman against Seton Hill. He drained three field goals, beginning with a 24-yarder in the first quarter followed by a 27-yard field goal in the second. The third was the most impressive, a 45-yarder into the wind late in the third quarter. It is tied for the 13th-longest field goal in Gannon history. He is also averaging 43.2 yards on 21 punts, ranking 19th in Division II.

TANK REACHES TOP TEN IN CAREER YARDS RECEIVING

Donell "Tank" Mason enjoyed the biggest night of his career against Northwood. He hauled in eight passes for a career-best 181 yards. That's the fourth-highest single-game total and bettered his 164-yard showing against Clarion last year. Included in his eight catches was a 61-yard touchdown for Gannon's first score of the year. He has since moved into 10th place in career yards receiving at 1,301 yards. He is also 12th in career receptions with 89. Mason was the 2022 PSAC West Freshman of the Year.

CALHOUN MAKES PRESENCE FELT

Charles Calhoun continues to make big plays for the Golden Knights. The redshirt junior defensive lineman made sure the Golden Knights came away with their first win when he sacked Seton Hill quarterback Jake Cruz, forcing a fumble with just under a minute remaining. Trey Baker recovered the fumble and Gannon came away with a 23-17 win. Calhoun finished with six tackles.

BEAN SCORES FIRST CAREER TOUCHDOWN

Matthew Bean joined the Golden Knights this year after playing at Eastern Illinois for three seasons. The 6-foot-5, 259 lb. redshirt junior previously played on the offensive line but he has been converted to tight end. He missed the early portion of the season due to injury but is now seeing more and more action. He scored his first career touchdown against Seton Hill, running an underneath pattern, pulled in his first career reception at the 15 and headed for the left corner of the end zone, running over a Seton Hill defender for a 19-yard TD reception.

GANNON ESCLIPSES POINT TOTALS IN FIRST, SECOND QUARTERS

Gannon entered last week's game with Seton Hill having scored just seven points in the first quarter and seven in the second. They added to those totals with 10 points in each quarter. Now they need to come out of halftime and score. Gannon has scored just three points in the third quarter.

SCOUTING SLIPPERY ROCK

▶ The preseason favorite in the PSAC West, Slippery Rock has lived up to the lofty expectations with a 5-0 record, including 2-0 in the PSAC West. SRU celebrates Homecoming this weekend. The Rock climbed to sixth in the AFCA Division II Top 25 following a 33-32 win at 21st-ranked Indiana (Pa.) last week. Trailing 32-27 with less than two minutes remaining Slippery Rock drove 75 yards in eight plays for the winning score. Brayden Long's 11-yard pass to Tyler Settle with 12 seconds remaining was the game-winner. SRU still had to survive one last scare, as IUP returned the ensuing kickoff to the SRU 45. One play later IUP attempted a 54-yard field goal, but it was wide right.

▶ Shawn Lutz has enjoyed great success as Slippery Rock's head coach. Now in his ninth season at the helm and 29th at SRU, he owns a 75-19 record with five PSAC West titles and five trips to the NCAA playoffs.

▶ Brayden Long was named the PSAC West Offensive Athlete of the Week after leading SRU to the win at IUP. The senior accounted for four touchdowns, including the game-winner with 12 seconds remaining. He went 6-of-8 for 63 yards on the game-winning drive. A year ago Long was the PSAC West and Super Region One Offensive Player of the Year and was a national finalist for the Harlen Hill Trophy. He became the fifth player in SRU history to top 5,000 career passing yards last week and currently ranks fifth in career yards passing with 5,028 passing yards. He also ranks fifth all-time at The Rock in total offense (5,151 yards).

▶ Slippery Rock possesses a strong one-two tandem at running back in seniors Chris D'Or and Idris Lawrence. Lawrence leads the way with 404 yards on 67 carries, a 6.0 yard average, with 2 TDs, while D'Or adds 361 yards on 72 rushes, a 5.0 yard average. He also has 2 TDs. D'Or has 2,220 career rushing yards and 3,330 career all-purpose yards. He ranks 18th in career rushing. Lawrence previously played at Notre Dame (Ohio) where he ran for 3,043 yards with 23 TDs in three seasons. He now has 3,462 career yards rushing, which is fourth among all active Division II rushers.

▶ The Rock has always been known for its high-powered offense but this year they can boast of a strong defense that currently ranks 23rd in Division II in scoring defense (15.8 ppg.) and 11th in total defense, allowing just 247.4 ypg. SRU is holding opponents to 93.2 ypg., good for 32nd in the country, and the pass defense is 21st nationally (194.2 ypg.).

▶ Teddy Gregory Jr., a redshirt freshman linebacker, is the team's leading tackler with 33 stops. Todd Hill adds 32 tackles, with 9 TFL and a team-high 4.5 sacks. He is a 5-foot-10, 240 lb. graduate student who previously played at Duquesne and Pittsburgh.
