FOLLOWING COLLEGE TENNIS

THE FALL SEASON – FOCUS ON INDIVIDUAL TOURNAMENTS

The first half of the college tennis season begins in mid-September and continues through early November. Individual events and tournaments are scheduled during this time frame, as student-athletes represent their university in selected singles and doubles contests.

Two of the three Grand Slam events also take place in the fall: the Riviera/ITA All-American (Pacific Palisades, Calif.) and the ITA National Indoor Championships held Nov. 8-11, 2012, at the USTA-Billie Jean King National Tennis Center in Flushing, N.Y. (hosted by Columbia University).

THE SPRING SEASON – FOCUS ON TEAM/DUAL MATCH EVENTS

While a handful of individual tournaments are still contested, the focus of the second half of the college tennis season, which begins in January, turns to dual match play.

A dual match is an event between two schools that features three doubles matches and six singles matches. The coaches from each school submits a lineup with its top players squaring off against each other at the No. 1 position, its next best player at the No. 2 position and so on through the No. 6 position. The same method applies for doubles.

Each school earns one team point by winning at least two of the three doubles matches and earns an additional point for every victory in singles. The winning school of the dual match captures the best of SEVEN team points. A final score might read: UF def. UX 4-3.

To make dual matches more "fan friendly," doubles matches are scored as a pro set. The winner of a pro set is the first pair to claim eight games, while leading by two games. A tiebreaker is implemented if the games are even at 8-all. The only time the pro set scoring is not utilized is during the three doubles Grand Slam events.

Singles matches always implement the traditional scoring method, with the winner claiming two of three sets for a victory. In a dual match, if the team victor already has been determined and an agreement was established between the both coaches, a singles match entering a third set might use a "super-tie-breaker" in place of a third set to establish the individual winner. The two acceptable methods of displaying that result: 1-6, 6-2, (10-8), or 1-6, 6-2, 1-0 (10-8).

USTA/ITA NATIONAL TEAM INDOOR CHAMPIONSHIPS

The fifth annual ITA Men's and Women's Kick-Off Weekend will take place Jan. 25-28, 2013 at select campus host sites. This year's Kick-Off Weekend Draft took place June 3-4 as teams selected which route they would take to get to the 2013 ITA National Team Indoor Championships.

The ITA Kick-Off Weekend features 15 women's host sites with four teams at each site vying to advance to the Team Indoor Championships. The 15 women's teams to win both of their matches will be invited to play in the ITA National Team Indoor Championships held Feb. 8-11, 2013, at the Boar's Head Sports Club in Charlottesville, Va. (hosted by the Univ. of Virginia).

The No. 1 team at each site will face the No. 4 team. The No. 2 team will face the No. 3 team. Two matches are guaranteed - the winners/losers will play the following day.

COLLEGIATE GRAND SLAM EVENTS

The Intercollegiate Tennis Association (ITA) sanctions the three legs of the collegiate singles and doubles Grand Slam events as well as the ITA National Team Indoor Championships and the NCAA Team Championships. The tournament legs in order contested: Riviera/ITA All-American; ITA National Indoor Championships; and NCAA Championships. From 1986-2001 there were four national events, but the ITA National Clay Court Championships is no longer played.

NATIONAL RANKINGS

In Division I, the ITA National Rankings are determined by a computerized system, using the ITA's average points-per-match formula. They are released 17 times during the season (pre-season, fall, and 14 times on a weekly basis in the spring and year-end). The first team ranking is revealed on January 3, 2013. The Division I top 75 teams, top 100 singles players and top 50 doubles teams receive an ITA ranking. The ITA Rankings are also used in selection of all ITA Grand Slam Championships as well as the USTA/ITA National Team Indoor Championships.

Division I Regional rankings are released twice a year (end of fall and year-end). The top 15 teams, top 30 singles players and top 15 doubles teams are ranked for men and women in each of the eight ITA regions. In August of 2009, the ITA realigned each region and made assignments for 12 new Regions. Florida is in the Southeast Region.

Intercollegiate Tennis Association

As the governing body of collegiate tennis the ITA promotes both the athletic and academic achievements of the collegiate tennis community. The ITA, which was founded in 1956 and is based in Skillman, N.J., administers numerous regional and national championships, the ITA Collegiate Summer Circuit presented by the USTA, and the Campbell/ITA College Tennis Rankings for men's and women's tennis at the NCAA Divisions I, II and III, NAIA and Junior College levels. The ITA also has a comprehensive awards program for players and coaches to honor excellence in academics, leadership and sportsmanship.

NCAA CHAMPIONSHIPS OVERVIEW

Three different events comprise the NCAA Championships: team, singles and doubles draws.

The top 64 teams in the nation, as determined by the NCAA Selection Committee, begin competition at 16 regional sites on May 11, 2013. The 16 winners of each regional will travel to Urbana, Ill., for the remainder of the tournament to compete for the NCAA title.

The singles field features the top 64 players, while the doubles draw contains the top 32 tandems, also determined and seeded by the NCAA Selection Committee.

NCAA FORMAT CHANGE BEGAN IN 2006

The 2013 NCAA Championships will continue to be held as a combined men's and women's event. The 2006 season marked the first time the men's and women's events were played simultaneously at the same location. The entire men's and women's team Championships beginning with the round of 16, as well as the 64-player singles and 32-team doubles draws for men and women are held at one venue.

Sites that have been determined for the NCAA Men's & Women's Tennis Championships:

2012-13 is 12th Year at UF;
17th overall

2011 ITA National Coach of the Year
2010 ITA Southeast Region Coach of the Year
2004, 2006 & 2010 SEC Coach of the Year

There hasn't been much the Florida women's tennis team hasn't accomplished. But Roland Thornqvist, who in 2012-13 enters his 12th year as head coach of the Gators, continues to find a way to raise the standard of success in Gainesville.

Thornqvist ended the 2011-12 campaign with a remarkable 351-81 head coaching record in 16 years, including a 276-31 mark at Florida. His 350th all-time win, as well as the 275th of his Gator tenure, was the 4-3 thriller in the 2012 NCAA Semifinals against Duke en route to the winning his third national championship.

The 2011-12 Gators capped their 27-1 record winning the 2012 NCAA Championship, earning the program's sixth national championship and the first time the team has won back-to-back titles - only the second team in NCAA Women's Tennis history to do so. Florida earned the No. 2 overall seed in the 64-team event for the second consecutive year after winning the Southeastern Tournament for the third straight season and netting an 11-0 record en route to claiming the league's regular-season crown.

The 2011-12 team was able to produce the program's 22nd undefeated home record (12-0) and extend its overall home winning streak to 107 - the longest run by an NCAA Division I women's team in any sport.

Individually, Thornqvist has been honored as the ITA National Coach of the Year (2011), the ITA Southeast Region Coach of the Year (2010 & 2012) and the Southeastern Conference Coach of the Year (2004, 2006 & 2010).

The team and individual accomplishments under Thornqvist's guidance continue to grow with every season.

In 11 years with Thornqvist on the sidelines, some of Florida's more significant highlights include three NCAA Team Championships (2003, 2011 & 2012), as well as eight SEC regular-season titles (2003, 2004, 2006, 2007, 2008, 2010, 2011 & 2012) and eight SEC Tournament crowns (2002, 2003, 2004, 2005, 2006, 2010, 2011 & 2012).

He has guided Florida to eight NCAA 'final four' appearances, with three culminating in titles and two as national runner-up (2002 & 2010).

Allie Will, who earned the No. 1 overall seed in the 2012 NCAA Singles & Doubles Championships reached the semifinals of the singles event, captured the 2011 Riviera/ITA All-American Singles Championship during the fall in addition to a runner-up finish with then-sophomore Sofie Oyen in the doubles draw of the national tournament. Joanna Mather, the lone senior on the 2011-12 roster, reached the finals of the 2011 USTA-ITA National Indoor Championships, while junior Lauren Embree and Mather won the consolation draw of the 2011 Riviera/ITA All-American Doubles Championships.

The 2010-11 season culminated with the program's fifth NCAA championship, as the squad defeated top-seeded Stanford, 4-3, after sophomore Lauren Embree provided the remarkable 5-7, 6-3, 7-6 (6) clinching singles win, rallying from down 4-0 in the third set. Embree's heroics were made possible after freshmen Olivia Janowicz and Alexandra Cercone won their respective singles matches in three sets and the Gators captured the doubles point to begin the match.

Thornqvist was recognized by his peers, who voted him the 2011 Intercollegiate Tennis Association (ITA) National Coach of the Year, the first such honor in his career.

Florida ended the 2010-11 season with a 31-1 record, marking the program's seventh 30-win campaign, and on a 21-match winning streak - a run tied for the 10th longest in school history.

Florida earned the No. 2 overall seed in the 64-team NCAA event after winning the SEC Tournament and netting an 11-0 record en route to claiming the league's regular-season crown.

Fairly typical accomplishments for one of the nation's best programs, however, Thornqvist's bunch did this without a senior on its roster. Joanna Mather was the only healthy junior in a lineup that also included three sophomores and three freshmen.

The 2011 squad also kept its focus in the classroom, where eight of the nine roster members were named to either the SEC Academic Honor Roll or the SEC Freshman Academic Honor Roll. As a team, the Gators combined for a 3.43 GPA - good for recognition to the 2011 ITA Team Academic All American honor.

The young Gators carried the program's tradition of success throughout the season, advancing to the final of the ITA National Team Indoor Championships. Sophomore Allie Will, who went on to be named the 2011 SEC Player of the Year, paired with freshman Sofie Oyen and won the USTA-ITA National Indoor Doubles Championship, as they became the third different Gator tandem to win the USTA-ITA National Indoor Championships doubles title, joining the teams of Nicole Arendt and Jillian Alexander, which won the 1991 crown, and Dawn Buth and Stephanie Nickitas, which captured the 1996 championship.

Nan, Maclaine, Roland and Whitney Thornqvist

Oyen and Will were the 18th and 19th different Gators to win an individual Grand Slam title, as they produced the 24th championship trophy in the illustrious history of the Florida program.

Thornqvist welcomed the No. 1-ranked recruiting class to the court for the 2009-10 season, which proved to be another exciting one in Gainesville.

Then-rookies Lauren Embree and Allie Will controlled the top two positions in the singles and doubles dual match lineup and helped Florida compile a 29-3 overall record, including a perfect 11-0 mark in Southeastern Conference action, as the Gators won the regular season and tournament titles.

UF marched into the 2010 NCAA Championships final match, where Marrit Boonstra, one of two seniors on the team, dropped a heartbreaking three-setter - 7-5 in the third - of the clinching match that Stanford took to win the title, 4-3.

Under Thornqvist's guidance Embree became the first freshman every voted the SEC Player of the Year, as Embree also garnered ITA National Rookie Player of the Year honors. Will earned recognition as the SEC Freshman of the Year, while Thornqvist was honored by his peers for the third time as the league's Coach of the Year.

For guiding such a young team that featured six underclassmen to the enormous success it did in 2009-10, Thornqvist earned the ITA Southeast Region Coach of the Year accolade.

There was not another team in the country during the 2008-09 season that played with more heart and got more passion and grit out of its team than the University of Florida. Simply knowing the details of what the Gators endured throughout the course of the grueling year would make it easy to use those things as an excuse and state that every program has a down year once in a while. The 2008-09 Gators refused to let adversity stand in their way, as they played with as much heart and Gator pride as any team that has ever suited up. In spite of everything, Florida still marched into the NCAA Championship round of 16, where it dropped a brilliant fight to the event's No. 2 seed.

The 2007-08 Florida women's tennis team survived early-season setbacks and mounted a valiant charge toward collecting championships, coming away with the program's 23rd Southeastern Conference regular-season title in the 29-year history of the event, while marching into the semi-finals of the NCAA Championships for the 19th time in the last 22 years, bowing out to eventual champion UCLA, 4-2, as the Gators were the only team to win a point against the Bruins during their six-match run. Injuries dwindled the Gators' senior trio to a just two, with only Whitney Benik earning a spot in the dual match lineup by season's end, as Florida compiled a 24-3 overall record, including an 11-0 mark in conference action to produce the 17th undefeated league ledger in school history.

The 2006-07 team faced some difficult personal, off-court adversity from a number of its players. Several Gators became unable to compete during a large portion of the dual match season, which significantly altered the singles' and doubles' lineups. While Thornqvist was able to patch together six semi-healthy players for singles, the doubles' pairings were blown apart. In spite of it all, the team still won a share of the SEC Regular Season and Eastern Division titles, with the only loss a 4-3 decision on the road at Georgia. The 2006-07 Gators, which featured three freshmen, three juniors and one senior, earned the No. 1 national ranking on March 6, 2007, eventually receiving the No. 4 seed in the NCAA Championships and the right to host a First & Second Round Regional. Florida marched into the quarterfinals, eventually falling to national runner-up UCLA in a thrilling 4-3 decision.

Prior to the 2005-06 season, Florida had won 14 of the previous 18 SEC Tournament championships, including each of the last four. Amazingly, not once during any of those title runs did the Gators sweep every opponent en route to the crown - until the 2005-06 season, when Florida did just that, winning its fifth straight conference postseason title. Florida battled through the SEC regular season and emerged with a perfect 11-0 record and the overall league champion, as Thornqvist was recognized as the SEC Coach of the Year. The 2005-06 Gators marched into the semifinals of the NCAA Championships, where their season ended to eventual champion Stanford. Florida capped its season with a 25-2 record and ranked No. 2 in the final national poll. The Gators received the No. 4 seed in the NCAA Championships, earning the right to host the first and second rounds. The team's 4-0 victory on May 19, 2006 against Baylor in the NCAA quarterfinals was his 200th career win, also his 125th with the Gators.

His fourth year as head coach at Florida might have been one of the best coaching seasons Thornqvist produced as a collegiate head coach. The 2004-05 season wasn't the typical Florida tennis campaign, but somehow the Gators found their way back into a familiar position of advancing to the semifinals of the NCAA Championships for the 17th time in the last 19 years, completing the season with a 22-3 record.

Sure, Florida also captured its fourth consecutive and 14th overall SEC title. The team finished tied for second in the SEC regular season standings, as the squad has finished either first or runner-up for the 26th straight time — every year in league history.

However, even before those events took place, the 2004-05 Gators were faced with significant setbacks. The team lost three starters from the previous season, including senior-to-be Alexis Gordon, who left the team for personal reasons one year removed after earning the No. 1 singles ranking in the country. Gordon's departure meant junior Jennifer Magley and UF's lone senior Zerene Reyes were forced higher in the lineup than expected. Combine that with three freshmen — the most on a Gator roster since the 1996-97 season — and Thornqvist with Associate Head Coach Dave Balogh had their work cut out for themselves.

Thornqvist completed his third year at UF guiding the 2004 Gators to a 23-1 overall record and a No. 3 final national ranking. Additionally, UF was named to the ITA All-Academic Team by posting higher than a 3.2 team grade point average during the year.

Despite annoying injuries throughout the season, the 2004 Gators successfully defended their SEC regular season and tournament titles. The squad extended its overall winning streak to 40 consecutive dual matches — the third-longest streak in program history. Thornqvist's accomplishments were recognized by his colleagues, who named him the SEC Coach of the Year. UF was listed at No. 1 in two rankings periods during the 2004 season and received the top seed in the NCAA Championships.

The 2003 season was a magical one for the Florida women's tennis program and for Thornqvist. The Gators captured their fourth overall NCAA championship with a thrilling 4-3 upset over top-seeded and two-time defending champion Stanford. In the process, Thornqvist became just the seventh different coach ever to win an NCAA women's tennis title. At age 33 (born March 3, 1970), he also became the second youngest ever to hoist the trophy. USC's Dave Borelli was the youngest, winning the title in 1983 when he was 32 (born Feb. 4, 1951).

While the national championship certainly was the highlight of the season, that was not the only accomplishment. Florida captured the 2003 SEC regular season title before winning the 2003 SEC Tournament crown. The Gators returned to the National Team Indoor Championships for the first time since 1999 and reached the final before losing a 4-3 battle to Duke. Florida received a program-record-tying eight individual bids into the NCAA Singles and Doubles Championships, including a program-high three doubles teams.

On June 22, 2001, the University of Florida Athletic Association and Athletics Director Jeremy Foley introduced Thornqvist as its new women's tennis coach. He took over the program from Andy Brandi, who resigned on May 29, 2001 after 17 successful seasons with the Florida program.

The Gators have not missed a beat under Thornqvist's direction.

During the 2002 season, his first with the Gators, Florida compiled a remarkable 24-2 overall record and finished with a No. 2 national ITA ranking. UF won the SEC Tournament title after entering the event as the No. 2 seed. The Gators were the No. 1 ranked team when the March 26, 2002 Omni Hotels Collegiate rankings were released, marking the first time Florida had been at the top spot since May 11, 1999, when the Gators were ranked No. 1 the entire season but lost to Stanford in the NCAA final to end the year ranked second. The Gators remained at the top spot for the next period before dropping one position after losing to Georgia on April 7. UF was awarded the No. 1 seed in the 64-team NCAA Tournament, and reached the NCAA Final before losing to host Stanford in the championship bout.

Individually in 2002, senior Jessica Lehnhoff flourished despite the coaching change. She received the No. 1 singles ranking in the April 17, April 24 and May 1st listings, becoming the first Gator to earn the nation's top ranking since Jill Craybas ended the 1996 season at the No. 1 spot. Lehnhoff became the first player in UF history to reach the semifinals of the NCAA Singles and NCAA Doubles Championships in the same year; reaching the final match of the singles tournament.

Florida accomplished all of this and more despite having just six players on its entire 2002 roster. When Thornqvist accepted the head coaching position at Florida on June 22, 2001, he inherited a Gator squad that had just four players. So his first task with assistant coach Balogh was to recruit two more athletes just to comprise a six-player roster. Thornqvist and Balogh were at the 'right place at the right time' when Alexis Gordon was searching for a school to attend and would be able to join the team during the Fall of 2001. Then Zerene Reyes, a native of Mexico City, Mexico, joined the squad in January — finally completing the six-player roster!

Thornqvist joined the Florida program with a five-year record of 75-50 after coaching at the University of North Carolina for the past three seasons (42-30) and at Kansas from 1997-98 (33-20). Each team advanced to the NCAA Championships under Thornqvist, with the 1998 Kansas team advancing to the Round of 16. In his premiere season at UNC in 1999, he led the Tar Heels to the NCAA Second Round in their first-ever NCAA appearance.

"Ever since I started playing tennis, Florida tennis has been THE program. To have the opportunity to lead the Florida women's team is just really a dream come true. Andy Brandi built a program that is respected and envied across the nation. I am honored to be following in his footsteps," Thornqvist said. "One thing that really attracted me was Jeremy Foley. I liked the way he operates and he is straight forward, very goal-oriented and driven and that is exactly how I see myself.

"Nobody has higher expectations than I do. It's always been that way," he continued. "The University of Florida has always had the best players in the country and when we go out to recruit we look for the same type of players. We will look for talented, hard-working, self-motivated individuals who want to learn and who want to succeed in the team and individual environments."

Thornqvist returned to his alma mater in June of 1998 to take a North Carolina team that posted a 1998 record of 5-17 to a record of 16-9 and its first-ever NCAA berth in 1999. The Tar Heels also recorded their first NCAA Tournament victory in 1999, taking a 5-4 win over Washington in the opening round. His Tar Heel teams also advanced to the NCAA Tournament in 2000 and 2001, reaching the second round again in 2001. The UNC team finished the 2001 season ranked No. 17 in the final Intercollegiate Tennis Association (ITA) poll — the highest final position in the history of the Tar Heel program.

In his first head coaching assignment at Kansas, Thornqvist led the Jayhawks to a second-place finish in the 1997 Big 12 Conference standings and a No. 1 regional ranking. The 1998 Jayhawk squad compiled a 18-6 record, won the NCAA Central Regional Championship at Brigham Young University and advanced to the NCAA round of 16 before losing to Georgia.

Prior to his tenure at KU, Thornqvist spent 1994-96 as the assistant men's tennis coach at UNC. Thornqvist also played professional tennis for one year after completing his collegiate eligibility, attaining a world ranking of No. 290 in singles.

Thornqvist established himself as one of the top players in the history of the Atlantic Coast Conference during his collegiate career. He was a three-time first-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference selection, the 1993 ACC Player of the Year, a 1992 and 1993 first-team All-American and a 1992 and 1993 NCAA Tournament quarterfinalist in singles. In 1992, he led the Tar Heels to the ACC Championship and to the quarterfinals of the NCAA Tournament. The Tar Heels also made the NCAA Tournament during his senior season, advancing to the round of 16. Thornqvist won the 1993 Rolex National Indoor Singles Championship as a senior. In both 1992 and 1993, he won the ITA's Rafael Osuna National Sportsmanship Award. He is the only college player in history to win that award twice. Thornqvist was the No. 4 ranked collegiate singles player in the country his senior year.

A native of Stockholm, Sweden, Thornqvist received his bachelor's degree in economics from UNC in 1996. He played for the Tar Heels from 1990-93, transferring from Elon College, where he played one year and won the NAIA singles and doubles championships as a freshman in 1990. He also led Elon to the NAIA team championship that year.

Thornqvist is married to Nan Thornqvist and they are the parents of Maclaine, who was born in November 1999, and Whitney, who was born in January 2001.

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH DAVE BALOGH (BAY-log)

2012-13 is his 13th year as a coach at UF

2002 & 2010 ITA National Assistant Coach of the Year
2002, 2006, 2010 & 2012 ITA South Region Assistant Coach of the Year

Dave Balogh (pronounced BAY-log), who in 2012-13 enters his 13th year on the Gator sidelines, is one of the most highly respected coaches on the collegiate circuit.

For his efforts and contributions toward the University of Florida women's tennis program, UF athletics director Jeremy Foley promoted Balogh to the position of Associate Head Coach in September 2003. He had worked with the Gators as an assistant coach for three years prior to this elevation.

Balogh has been recognized as the Intercollegiate National Assistant Coach of the Year twice (2002 & 2010) and the ITA South Region Assistant Coach of the Year four times (2002, 2006, 2010 & 2012).

"Dave is really an extension of me. He has the same philosophy in how to coach the team, how to recruit and how to create the atmosphere we want to have in our clubhouse," UF head coach Roland Thornqvist said. "Working with Dave makes everything fun because he's always positive and is a great guy. He has a tremendous knowledge of the game. The University of Florida and I are very fortunate to have him on our team. Dave is invaluable to me and this program."

During his 12-year tenure coaching at his alma mater, Balogh has helped Florida to a number of team and individual accomplishments. Working the last 11 of those years with Thornqvist, some of the more significant highlights include three NCAA Team Championships (2003, 2011 & 2012), as well as nine Southeastern Conference regular-season titles (2001, 2003, 2004, 2006, 2007, 2008, 2010, 2011 & 2012) and eight SEC Tournament crowns (2002, 2003, 2004, 2005, 2006, 2010, 2011 & 2012).

The 2011-12 Gators capped their 27-1 record winning the 2012 NCAA Championship, earning the program's sixth national championship and the first time the team has won back-to-back titles - only the second team in NCAA Women's Tennis history to do so. Florida earned the No. 2 overall seed in the 64-team event for the second consecutive year after winning the SEC Tournament for the third straight season and netting an 11-0 record en route to claiming the league's regular-season crown.

The 2011-12 team was able to produce the program's 22nd undefeated home record (12-0) and extend its overall home winning streak to 107 - the longest run by an NCAA Division I women's team in any sport.

Allie Will, who earned the No. 1 overall seed in the 2012 NCAA Singles & Doubles Championships reached the semi-finals of the singles event, captured the 2011 Riviera/ITA All-American Singles Championship during the fall in addition to a runner-up finish with then-sophomore Sofie Oyen in the doubles draw of the national tournament. Joanna Mather, the lone senior on the 2011-12 roster, reached the finals of the 2011 USTA-ITA National Indoor Championships, while junior Lauren Embree and Mather won the consolation draw of the 2011 Riviera/ITA All-American Doubles Championships.

The 2010-11 season culminated with the program's fifth NCAA championship, as the squad defeated top-seeded Stanford, 4-3, as sophomore Lauren Embree provided the remarkable 5-7, 6-3, 7-6 (6) clinching singles win, rallying from down 4-0 in the third set. Embree's heroics were made possible after freshmen Olivia Janowicz and Alex Cercone won their respective singles matches in three sets and the Gators captured the doubles point to being the match.

Florida ended the 2010-11 season with a 31-1 record, marking the program's seventh 30-win campaign, and on a 21-match winning streak - a run tied for the 10th longest in school history. Florida earned the No. 2 overall seed in the 64-team event after winning the SEC Tournament and netting an 11-0 record en route to claiming the league's regular-season crown.

Fairly typical accomplishments for one of the nation's best programs, however, the 2010-11 bunch did this without a senior on its roster. Joanna Mather was the only healthy junior in a lineup that also included three sophomores and three freshmen.

Balogh and Thornqvist welcomed the No. 1-ranked recruiting class to the court for the 2009-10 season, which proved to be another exciting one in Gainesville.

Then-rookies Lauren Embree and Allie Will controlled the top two positions in the singles and doubles dual match lineup and helped Florida compile a 29-3 overall record, including a perfect 11-0 mark in Southeastern Conference action, as the Gators won the regular season and tournament titles.

UF marched into the 2010 NCAA Championships final match, where Marrit Boonstra, one of two seniors on the team, dropped a heartbreaking three-setter - 7-5 in the third - of the clinching match that Stanford took to win the title, 4-3.

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH DAVE BALOGH

Embree became the first freshman ever voted the SEC Player of the Year, as Embree also garnered the ITA National Rookie Player of the Year honors. Will earned recognition as the SEC Freshman of the Year, while Balogh was honored by his peers for the third time as the ITA's Southeast Region Coach of the Year.

For guiding such a young team that featured six underclassmen to the enormous success it did in 2009-10, Balogh earned the ITA National Coach of the Year accolade – the second time in his career he was honored as such.

Balogh, who oversees the doubles teams, coached the Gators to a combined 65-8 dual match doubles record, as Florida won the doubles point 26 of 27 times during the 2007-08 season, en route to helping the team post a perfect 11-0 record in Southeastern Conference dual matches and a 24-3 overall mark.

The 2006-07 Gators were faced with some difficult personal, off-the-court adversity from a number of players. Several players became unable to compete during a large portion of the dual match season, which significantly altered the singles' and doubles' lineups. While Thornqvist and Balogh were able to patch together six semi-healthy players for singles, the doubles' pairings were blown apart. Balogh did an amazing job during a very trying stretch of finding the right chemistry to re-build the doubles lineups. One of those newly-formed teams - freshman Csilla Borsanyi and junior Diana Srebrovic - immediately went on a six-match win streak that included moving up to the No. 1 position and defeating four top-18-ranked opponents with the highest-ranked win coming against Kentucky's 11th-ranked Kim Coventry and Joelle Schwenk, 8-3, that clinched the doubles point and sparked a 4-3 dual match victory. Two days prior to win over the Wildcat pair was an 8-1 victory over Vanderbilt's 18th-ranked Amanda Taylor and Amanda Fish, helping UF earn the 4-3 team triumph and defeat the Commodores in Nashville for the first time since April 1, 2000. Those were just two of the matches the Gators won 4-3 during the season thanks in part to the team being able to win the doubles point.

In 2005-06, Balogh was recognized as the ITA South Region Assistant Coach of the Year, marking his second such honor at UF.

During his tenure at UF, Balogh has helped the Gators capture the 2003 NCAA championship, five Southeastern Conference regular-season titles and five SEC Tournament crowns, while compiling a 173-16 dual match record.

At the end of the 2001-02 season, the rest of the country acknowledged what the Gators already knew, as Balogh was recognized by his peers as the 2002 ITA National Assistant Coach of the Year, becoming the first Gator coach to receive such an honor.

A four-year letterwinner of the University of Florida men's tennis program, Balogh joined the Gator women's tennis team as an assistant coach on July 1, 2000 under former head coach Andy Brandi.

Balogh, who is a life-long native of Gainesville, played tennis for former men's coach Ian Duvenhage from 1993 to 1996, when the team ranked among the top 15 nationally all four years. The Gators captured the 1994 SEC championship during Balogh's tenure on the team.

Balogh was an assistant coach with the Florida State University women's tennis team for the dual match portion of the 2000 season. Prior to his four-month stint in Tallahassee, Balogh was an assistant at Vanderbilt, where the Commodores ended the 1999 season ranked 13th in the country.

From 1996 to 1998, he was the assistant head professional at DB Racquet Club in Gainesville, where he coached former Gator great Mark Merklein and worked with UF standout Jill Craybas. Balogh received an offer to work with tennis-great Jana Novotna, but was unable due to an elbow injury.

Balogh earned a bachelor's of science degree in recreation in 1996. As a student-athlete, Balogh received the 1996 Presidential Recognition Award in honor of his outstanding achievement and contributions to the University of Florida by then-President John Lombardi. That same year, he also received the Office of Student Life Achievement Award, given for his outstanding achievement in academics, athletics and community service.

Each August, Balogh organizes the Merrill Lynch Tennis Pro-Am held in Gainesville. The event benefits Big Brothers/Big Sisters and draws former Gator stars from various sports back to the Gainesville courts to participate.

Balogh has two sons, Cade and Colby.

2011-12 SEASON REVIEW

2012 NCAA Champions

2012 NCAA CHAMPIONS!

Florida had accomplished just about everything in the world of collegiate women's tennis entering the 2011-12 season. Everything except repeat as NCAA champions and the Gators did just that on May 22, when the squad defeated top-ranked and No. 1 seeded UCLA, 4-0, and captured the program's sixth national championship, as well as successfully defend it NCAA title.

Against the Bruins in the NCAA final, the Gators earned the doubles point - something they did in all except two dual matches during the year - and took the important 1-0 lead.

Then it was time for sophomore Alexandra Cercone to continue her impressive dual match run during NCAA singles action as she produced a dominating 6-2, 6-0 win and gave Florida a 2-0 lead. Cercone improved to 9-0 in her young career in dual match singles play at the NCAA Championships, which included the thrilling 5-7, 6-4, 6-3 that clinched the Gator's 4-3 semifinal victory against Duke less than 24 hours earlier.

Sophomore Sofie Oyen, who had been 0-3 in singles matches during the 2011 NCAA Championships, stepped up with her fourth win of the 2012 postseason and gave UF a 3-0 lead.

That again set the stage for the clinching heroics of junior Lauren Embree, who rallied in the third set of her 2011 singles matches and secured the Gator's 4-3 win against Stanford. While there wasn't quite the similar drama of the 2011 final, Embree rose to the occasion and polished off McCall Jones, 6-4, 6-0, and provided the clinching championship victory.

Lauren Embree reacts after clinching the NCAA Championship victory for the second consecutive season.

Embree, who is 12-0 in her singles career in NCAA Championship dual matches, was named the NCAA Championships Most Outstanding Player for the second consecutive year, while she and Cercone earned a spot on the NCAA All-Tournament Team.

Florida became only the second team in NCAA Women's Tennis history to earn back-to-back national championships.

For the Gators, the 2012 title was the sixth for the program, which also hoisted the trophy in 1992, 1996, 1998, 2003 and 2011.

Florida (27-1), which finished the season winning its 22nd consecutive match, earned the program's eighth all-time win against a No. 1-ranked team, including the second in an NCAA final.

The 2012 Championships marked the 25th time in the 31-year history of the event that the Gators played in the NCAA Round of 16, the 25th time in the quarterfinals, the 22nd time in the semifinals and the 13th time in the championship match.

During the team's march in the NCAA Championships toward the national title, the Gators defeated South Carolina State, 4-0, Washington State, 6-0, Michigan, 4-0, No. 11 Miami, 4-0, Duke, 4-3, and UCLA, 4-0.

While the national title certainly was the highlight of the year, the Gators also had several additional accomplishments.

Florida earned the No. 2 overall seed in the 64-team NCAA Championship event after winning the Southeastern Conference Tournament (the program's 18th of a possible 25) and netting an 11-0 record en route to claiming the league's regular-season crown (UF's 26th in the 33 years the SEC has sponsored the sport).

The Gator team captain each of the last two years and lone senior on the 2011-12 squad, Joanna Mather helped Florida to a 103-15 overall record during her four-year tenure, including an 87-4 mark during her final three seasons that included three SEC regular-season and tournament championships, as well as a pair of NCAA titles and one national runner-up finish.

UF AS THE NO. 2 SEED

Championships. Florida improved to 32-3 when playing as the No. 2 seed, winning NCAA titles in 1998, 2003, 2011 and 2012, while finishing as runner-up 1990.

FLORIDA AT THE NCAA CHAMPIONSHIPS - AT A GLANCE

- Florida is made its 30th appearance in the 31-year history of the NCAA Championships, missing only the 1986 event.
- The Gators boast a 94-24 all-time record in the NCAA Championships.
- The Gators have won NCAA team titles in 1992, 1996, 1998, 2003, 2011 & 2012
- Florida has advanced to at least the NCAA Semifinals 22 times in the last 26 years - including in 2012

- Since the NCAA expanded the field to 64 teams, Florida has been a perfect 14-0 in first-round matches. The Gators are 13-1 in the round of 32, 26-3 in round of 16 contests, 22-4 in the quarterfinals, 13-9 in the semifinals and 6-7 in the title match.

MATHER'S FINAL TEAM MATCH

Joanna Mather capped her dual match career in the NCAA final and left with some impressive records in team play:

- Career Singles Dual Matches: 65-13
- Career Doubles Dual Matches: 87-14

HOW THE GATORS GOT TO THE FINAL:

Gators Win 4-3 SF Thriller vs. Duke

Alexandra Cercone (a.k.a. "Ms. May" for her 8-0 record in NCAA singles dual matches) rallied for a three-set singles victory in the deciding match and Florida defeated third-seeded Duke, 4-3.

Cercone trailed 2-0 in the third set but regrouped to win the next three games and held for a 4-2 lead en route to the 3 hour and 14 minute win. Florida took the hard-fought doubles point, with Allie Will and Sofie Oyen defeating Clayton and Ester Goldfeld, 8-3. Duke claimed the win on court three, setting the stage for court two, where the veteran pair of Lauren Embree and Joanna Mather stepped up to earn the 9-8 (7-1) victory against Beatrice Capra and Rachel Kahan. Embree, Mather added singles wins to help the Gators capture the dual match.

Florida Outlasts Miami in NCAA QF

Florida advanced to the semifinals after outlasting Miami on the doubles court and then carrying that momentum onto the singles courts where the Gators earned a 4-0 victory and their third consecutive trip to the final four. After the teams split the doubles results on courts one and two, Alexandra Cercone and Caroline Hitimana clinched the doubles point with an 8-6 victory that lasted one hour and 46 minutes, highlighted by the 13th game, which proved to be a pivotal one for the Gators, who took turned away five break points and capitalized on their second game-point in the 18-point game for a 7-6 lead.

UF fed off the momentum and needed just one hour and 39 minutes to get singles wins from Cercone, Olivia Janowicz and Joanna Mather to advance to the NCAA Semifinals for the 22nd time in the last 26 years and produce the 900th win in program history.

Late Night Win in NCAA Round of 16

Florida battled past Michigan to win the doubles point and then swamped the Wolverines in singles en route to a 4-0 victory and advanced to the quarterfinals. The second-seeded Gators (24-1) won their 19th consecutive match and recorded the 899th victory in program history to reach the quarterfinals for the 26th time in the 31-year history of the event.

Florida needed a comeback win from the doubles pair of Lauren Embree and Joanna Mather to earn the doubles point and that Gators carried that momentum onto the singles courts where they won the first set on all six courts, with Embree, Olivia Janowicz and Sofie Oyen able to finish quickly and secure the team victory shortly before midnight.

New Face in NCAA Second Round

Florida and Washington State met for the first time and the Gators earned the 6-0 victory and punched their ticket to the NCAA Round of 16 for the eighth consecutive year. The Gators came out strong again on the doubles court, where their top two teams dominated 8-1 and 8-2 and captured the doubles point for the important 1-0 lead. UF then earned quick singles wins from Joanna Mather and Alexandra Cercone, before the matches on courts one, two and four all were playing match point at the same time and the Gators won that final point on all three to claim the 6-0 decision.

Familiar Foe in NCAA First Round

The Gators overwhelmed Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) champion South Carolina State, 4-0, in the first round for the third consecutive year.

EMBREE & MATHER STREAK ENDS AT 23

Lauren Embree & Joanna Mather won 23 consecutive doubles matches together until they dropped an 8-4 decision to Miami's No. 76th-ranked Lina Lileikite and Gabriela Mejia in the NCAA Team Quarterfinals.

The 23-match win streak was is the third longest in program history. After the run, the tandem's overall record stood at 52-8, which included a career 48-2 mark in dual match action that ranks second all-time in program history for a tandem in team competition (Jennifer Magley and Zerene Reyes were 66-8 from 2003-05).

MATHER MAKING MOST OF SENIOR SEASON

Joanna Mather, the lone senior on the 2011-12 squad, had the best year of her collegiate career.

Mather finished with a team-best 34 singles wins, also the most she has recorded in a season.

She also produced 217 combined singles (105) and doubles (112) wins, the ninth-most in program history. She was the 16th Gator to reach the 200-victory plateau.

ELITE GROUP

With her 6-4, 6-4 victory on court three during the SEC Tournament final, Joanna Mather won her 100th career singles and became only the seventh Gator to have ever won 100 singles and 100 doubles matches in their career (Nicole Arendt, Dawn Buth, Stephanie Nickitas, Jessica Lehnhoff, Nina Suvak & Zerene Reyes)

- Mather's CAREER Team HIGHLIGHTS: captain of the 2011 & 2012 NCAA Championship team ... 2010, 2011 & 2012 SEC Regular-Season Champions ... 2010, 2011 & 2012 SEC Tournament Champions ... HOME record during career: 54-0 ... helped the Gators extend their program-record overall home winning streak to 107 straight – the longest active home win streak of ANY NCAA Division I women's sports team (second overall to Ohio State men's tennis streak)

- Mather received her bachelor's degree in Management on May 5, 2012.

SENIOR SALUTE - MATHER'S RIGHT AT HOME!

Joanna Mather, the lone senior on the 2011-12 Gator squad, played her final home match on May 12 and helped Florida defeat Washington State in the NCAA Second Round in Gainesville, where she helped Florida compile a 54-0 record.

Mather joined an elite group of four-year players who completed their collegiate tenure having never lost a home dual match! The Florida senior classes of 1998, 2008, 2009 & 2010 never endured a home loss - which includes any postseason matches held at the Ring Tennis Complex. There weren't any seniors on the 2011 team, but if there had been they also would have finished their four-year careers with an unblemished home slate.

EMBREE IN RARE COMPANY IN SEC'S TOP AWARD

When Lauren Embree was voted the 2012 SEC Player of the Year, she became the second player in the 20-year history of the award to receive the SEC's top individual honor twice in a career, joining Gator great Jill Craybas, who was honored in 1995 and 1996. Embree also was voted the SEC Player of the Year in 2010, when she became the first ever freshman to collect the award.

A Gator has been named the SEC Women's Tennis Player of the Year eight times, beginning with Lisa Raymond earning the honor in 1993, the debut of the award. In addition to Embree, Raymond and Craybas, Jessica Lehnhoff received the Player of the Year recognition in 2002, Alexis Gordon in 2004 and current Gator junior Allie Will in 2011.

FOUR SELECTED FOR NCAA SINGLES, TWO DOUBLES TEAMS

Gators earning a spot in the NCAA Singles

Championships are junior Lauren Embree, senior Joanna Mather, sophomore Sofie Oyen and junior Allie Will.

Will advanced to the semifinals where she lost a tough 2-6, 6-4, 6-3, to eventual champion Nicole Gibbs (Stanford), who also knocked out Mather, 3-6, 6-4, 6-3, in the round of 32. Embree advanced to the round of 16, while pairing with Mather to reach the quarterfinals of the doubles draw. Oyen won her singles debut, but dropped her round of 32 match, while she and Will lost in the opening round of doubles.

NCAA SINGLES & DOUBLES SEEDINGS

Will was the No. 1 overall seed and received the SEC's singles automatic qualifier. She reached the round of 16 of the 2011 NCAA Singles Championships and used that momentum with a strong showing during the 2011 fall when she won the Riviera/ITA All-American Singles Championship and finished runner-up with Oyen on the doubles court in the prestigious national event. Oyen and Will earned the No. 1 overall seed.

Embree, who was seeded 9-16, advanced to the semifinals of the 2011 NCAA Singles Championships, where she retired due to injury. Mather made her second ever appearance in the NCAA Singles Championships. The Gator's lone senior reached the finals of the USTA-ITA National Indoor Singles Championships in November, after winning the Riviera/ITA All-American Consolation Doubles Championship with Embree.

GATORS AS THE NO. 1 SEED IN THE NCAA SINGLES & DOUBLES CHAMPIONSHIPS

Allie Will was the first Gator to be seeded No. 1 in singles and doubles at the NCAA individual championships. It is just the third time in program history at Gator has been the No. 1 overall seed in the singles event, with Lisa Raymond earning the top spot in the 1992 and 1993 tournaments. Raymond went on to win the singles title both years.

2011-12 SEASON REVIEW

On the doubles court, Oyen & Will's No. 1 seed marked the fifth time a Gator tandem has received the No. 1 overall seed, joining Dawn Buth & Stephanie Nickitas (1996, 1997, 1998) and Jill Hetherington & Cathy Goodrich (1987). Buth and Nickitas won the NCAA Doubles Championship in 1996 and 1998.

HIGHEST COMBINED SEEDING AT THE NCAA INDIVIDUAL CHAMPIONSHIPS

Until Allie Will did so during the 2011-12 season, no Gator had ever been the No. 1 seed in both the NCAA Singles and Doubles Championships during their career, never mind being the top seed in both during the same year.

Nicole Arendt was the No. 3 singles seed in 1991 and No. 2 doubles seed (with Jillian Alexander), while Jessica Lehnhoff was the No. 3 seed in both in 2002 (doubles with Lindsay Dawaf).

GAME ON! FINALLY!

19 days passed between Florida's 4-1 win against Georgia in the SEC Tournament final on April 22 and the Gators return to the court on May 11 versus South Carolina State in the first round of the NCAA Championships.

HAPPY TO HOST

UF has hosted first and second round matches every year since the NCAA Women's Championships expanded its field to 64 teams in 1999.

MATHER WINS 100TH DOUBLES MATCH

Pairing with Lauren Embree, Joanna Mather's 8-2 victory against LSU's Olivia Howlett and Yvette Vlaar on April 8 was her 100th career doubles win, making her the 13th different Gator to win 100 career doubles matches and the first since the 2007-08 season when seniors Whitney Benik and Lolita Frangulyan both netted the 100th of their respective careers.

WILL WINS 100TH SINGLES MATCH

On Sunday, March 25 against Ole Miss, junior Allie Will became the 22nd Gator to win 100th career singles matches, with the milestone victory a dominating 6-0, 6-1 decision against 72nd-ranked Caroline Rohde Moe. Nina Suvak (2004-07) was the last Gator to record 100 career singles wins, as she did so during her senior season and finished her four-year tenure with 105.

MORE ON WILL

Allie Will's career singles winning percentage is a staggering 89.3 percent (109-13), second only to Gator legend Lisa Raymond, who won 95.4 percent (84-4) during her two-her collegiate career. Right behind Will on the Gator's all-time chart is Lauren Embree, who sports a 87.5 winning percentage (91-13).

SEC REGULAR-SEASON STREAK

Florida has won 36 consecutive regular-season SEC matches, which includes a 11-0 record in 2011-12, a perfect 11-0 record in 2009-10 and 2010-11, as well as the final three matches of the 2008-09 campaign.

IMPRESSIVE!

Florida sports an impressive 178-1 all-time home record against SEC opponents.

FLORIDA VS. SEC TEAMS

Florida is an incredible 399-25 all-time against the SEC, including a 337-16 record in regular-season matches (11-0 in 2011-12).

HOME-SWEET-HOME

Florida boasts a remarkable 442-25 all-time home record when playing in Gainesville, including a 12-0 record in 2011-12.

107 AND COUNTING

Florida finished 12-0 at home during 2011-12 and extended its overall program-record home winning streak of 107, which includes 19 wins in postseason play (SEC and NCAA Tournament). The Gators set a new standard with their 6-1 victory over Mississippi State on March 29, 2009, passing the previous record of 60.

The last time the Gators fell at home was on May 15, 2004, in the second round of the NCAA Tournament to Miami (Fla.), 4-3.

PERFECTION AT HOME

Florida capped its home slate with a 12-0 record and produced the 22nd undefeated home record in program history.

112 AND COUNTING

Florida (10-0 at home in 2011-12) has won 112 consecutive regular-season home matches - not including SEC Tournament or NCAA Championship events. The current streak is the longest of its kind in program history, passing the 71 in a row compiled from 1994-2001.

The Gators last regular-season setback at Linder Stadium was on April 7, 2002, when Georgia defeated Florida, 4-3.

FLORIDA VS. IN-STATE OPPONENTS

Florida owns an impressive 193-33 record against in-state rivals and has reeled off 15 straight victories against Sunshine State opponents, with the most recent a 4-0 win against Miami on May 19, 2012 in the 2012 NCAA quarterfinals.

The Gators' last loss to an in-state foe was a 5-2 decision on Feb. 28, 2009 against Florida State in Tallahassee.

WILL AT NO. 1

Allie Will earned the No. 1 singles ranking in the Feb. 16 ITA national ratings and became the ninth different Gator since the 1988 season to earn the No. 1 singles ranking, joining Halle Cioffe, Nicole Arendt, Lisa Raymond, Jill Craybas, Jessica Lehnhoff, Alexis Gordon, Jennifer Magley and Diana Srebrovic.

DOUBLE NO. 1!

When the March 27 ITA national rankings were released, Allie Will and Sofie Oyen were the No. 1-ranked doubles team in the country. The Gator pair was ranked No. 1 three times during the 2010-11 season.

Will became only the second Gator ever to be ranked No. 1 in both singles and doubles in the same season, joining Nicole Arendt, who sat atop both charts during the 1990-91 season.

In a career, only Will, Arendt and Jessica Lehnhoff have been ranked No. 1 in both singles and doubles. Lehnhoff was ranked No. 1 in singles on April 17, 24 and May 1, 2002, while claiming the No. 1 doubles ranking in the 2000-01 final chart after winning the 2001 NCAA Doubles Championships with Whitney Laiho.

SEC TITLE ... BY THE NUMBERS

The Gators have captured the SEC regular-season title 26 times in the 33 years the league has sponsored women's tennis. Florida has won 24 of those 26 titles outright, sharing the crown in 1990 and 2007.

Florida captured its third consecutive SEC Regular-Season and Tournament Championships.

The 2012 championship was Florida's third consecutive season posting an undefeated league record (11-0), as well as the 21st time in program history.

SEC TOURNAMENT TALK

- The Gators have won 18 of the 25 SEC Tournament titles (1982, '90, '91, '92, '93, '95, '96, '97, '98, '00, '02, '03, '04, '05, '06, '10, '11 & '12). Georgia has claimed six crowns (1983, '94, 2001 & '07, '08, '09), while Ole Miss captured the 1999 tournament.

- Florida boasts a 66-7 all-time record in SEC Tournament action, with six of those losses coming against Georgia and the other to Ole Miss.

- Florida has been either the No. 1 or No. 2 seed in the SEC Tournament 23 times in the 25-year history of the event (including 2012). The two exceptions were in 2005, when the Gators entered the tournament with the No. 3 seed before winning the title, and in 2009, when the team fell in the semifinals as the No. 4 seed.

- Florida has advanced to the finals of the SEC Tournament in 23 of the 25 years the event has been played, capturing 16 titles.

- The 2006 title run was the first time the Gators swept every opponent en route to winning the crown.

- The Gators have won the SEC Tournament title in seven of the 10 years under head coach Roland Thornqvist, finishing runner-up in 2007 & 2008.

- The 2001 & 2009 events marked the only times the Gators failed to reach the title match, falling to Georgia in the semifinals both times.

SEC TITLE NO. 8 FOR THORNVIST

Florida's 7-0 victory against LSU on April 8 secured at least a share of its 25th Southeastern Conference regular-season championship and marked the eighth SEC championship in the 11-year tenure of head coach Roland Thornqvist.

DOUBLE THE SUCCESS

The 2012 sweep of the SEC regular-season and tournament titles was the 15th time Florida has won both championships in the same season.

TOPS IN TITLES

Florida's 2012 SEC regular-season championship is the program's 26th of a possible 33 SEC titles, as well as its third consecutive conference crown. The Gators have won more SEC women's championships than any other women's team at any school in any sport.

HITIMANA JOINS CENTURY CLUB

During the April 1 win at Alabama, junior Caroline Hitimana collected the 100th combined singles and doubles win of her career and became the 44th member of the Gator's 100-victory club.

The milestone win came on the doubles court, where Hitimana paired with Olivia Janowicz for an 8-5 decision against Taylor and Lindsey and Ebada.

CERCONE JOINS CENTURY CLUB

During the March 30 match at Auburn, Alexandra Cercone provided the finishes touches on Florida's 7-0 victory, as she rallied for a 4-6, 7-6 (1), 1-0 (10-6) over Jackie Kasler and earned her 100th combined singles and doubles victory. The Gator sophomore became the 43rd member of the Gator's 100-victory club, as she won her 57th match on the singles court, shortly after winning her 43rd on the doubles court against the Tigers.

QUITE A START BY EMBREE

Junior Lauren Embree did not lose a GAME in singles through the first two dual matches this year.

In the 7-0 team sweep against UCF on Feb. 1st, Embree defeated Genevieve Lorbergs 6-0, 6-0 for her fourth career double-bagel singles win after blanking Troy's Olfa Dhaoui in 45 minutes.

For Embree, the win against UCF also marked her 43rd straight dual match singles win, as she had not dropped a singles decision in team competition since Feb. 14, 2010 in the National Team Indoor Championships.

Both remarkable runs came to an end on Feb. 4 at Baylor, where Embree lost to Nina Secerbogovic, 3-6, 6-4, 7-5. The Gator junior entered that match with a 46-3 dual match singles record.

OPENING DAY SUCCESS

The Gators defeated Troy in their first dual match of 2012 and improved to 37-3 all-time in season-opening dual matches. UF has won 28 consecutive season-openers, with the last loss a 7-2 setback at Miami on Feb. 1, 1985.

FIRST WIN OF 2012 = THORNVIST'S 250TH AT UF

The Gators presented coach Roland Thornqvist with his 250th Florida victory with the team's season-opening 7-0 sweep against Troy (Jan. 25).

Thornqvist's UF and overall record at the time of the milestone win stood at 2011-12 dual match season with a 250-30 record in 11 seasons with the Gators and 325-80 in his 16-year career.

2011-12 SEASON REVIEW

FANTASTIC FALL SEASON

The Gators enjoyed one of their strongest fall seasons in years, highlighted by three appearances in finals of the two collegiate grand slam events, with Allie Will winning the Riviera/ITA All American Singles Championship. Joanna Mather reached the singles final of the USTA-ITA National Indoor Championships, while Sofie Oyen and Will played for the Riviera/ITA All American Doubles Championship and Mather and Lauren Embree won the consolation doubles crown at the Riviera/ITA All American Championships.

GATORS WIN TWO TITLES AT RIVIERA/ITA ALL-AMERICAN

Junior Allie Will captured the first collegiate singles grand slam title of her career, winning the 2011 Riviera/ITA All-American Championships held at the Riviera Tennis Club in Pacific Palisades, Calif.

The title was the second of two earned by the Gators on Sunday, as junior Lauren Embree and senior Joanna Mather, the nation's 12th-ranked doubles team, began the day dominating Virginia's ninth-ranked Hardenbergh and Viera, 8-0, to win the consolation doubles championship.

Will, the No. 2 seed in the national singles event, earned a 7-6 (4), 1-6, 6-3 victory against Arizona State's 11th-ranked Jacqueline Cako and became the first Gator to capture a national singles championship since Diana Srebrovic won the 2005 ITA National Indoor Championship.

The 2010 ITA National Indoor Doubles Champion, Will is the ninth Gator to win multiple collegiate grand slam titles and just the third to claim crowns on the singles and doubles courts, joining Jessica Lehnhoff (2001 NCAA Doubles Champion, 2001 Riviera All-American Singles Champion and 2001 Riviera All-American Doubles) and Nicole Arendt (1990 ROLEX Indoor Singles Champion, 1991 NCAA Doubles Champion and 1991 ROLEX Indoor Doubles Champion).

STEPHANIE NICKITAS INDUCTED INTO UF ATHLETICS HALL OF FAME

On April 6, Gator great Stephanie Nickitas was officially inducted into the UF Athletics Hall of Fame. She is the 12th member from the women's tennis program to enter the prestigious HOF, joining Judy Acker-Smith (inducted 1993), Nicole Arendt (inducted 2001), Jillian Alexander (inducted 2002), Andy Brandt (inducted 2006), Dawn Buth (inducted 2011), Jill Craybas (inducted 2008), Cissie Donigan (inducted 2006), Andrea Farley (inducted 2004), Jill Hetherington (inducted 1999), Lisa Raymond (inducted 2003) and Shaun Stafford (inducted 1999).

SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE: THE NATION'S TOP TENNIS CONFERENCE

The Southeastern Conference men's and women's tennis programs continue to be among the nation's leaders on the collegiate hardcourt.

Nine of the 12 schools earned a berth into the 2012 NCAA Tournament, with two advancing to the finals site and at least the round of 16, including Florida which captured the 2012 championship against Stanford, capturing its second consecutive and sixth overall NCAA Championship.

All eight of the SEC's national women's team titles have come in the last 18 years, with Florida's six (1992, 1996, 1998, 2003, 2011 and 2012) and Georgia's two (1994 and 2000).

SEC Women's Tennis By the Numbers....

- 8 NCAA team championships (1992, '94, '96, '98, 2000, '03, '11, '12)
- 9 NCAA runner-up teams (1987, '88, '89, '95, '97, '99, 2001, '02, '10)
- 20 straight years with a team in national semifinals (1987-2006)
- 7 NCAA singles titles (1984, '88, '92, '93, '94, '96, 2010)
- 5 NCAA doubles titles (1989, '91, '96, '97, 2001)
- 124 singles ITA All-Americans since 1990
- 142 doubles ITA All-Americans since 1990

The 1996 Gator squad was one of the most dominating teams in SEC and collegiate history, running through the league dual match season with a combined 76-1 singles record and a 26-1 doubles mark that included regular season and tournament action. UF also swept all nine SEC First Team honors. Not only did the 1996 team win the SEC regular-season and tournament titles, the Gators swept the NCAA team, singles and doubles championships, as well.

The 1984 team began a streak of winning five consecutive SEC championships.

The 2012 sweep of the SEC regular-season and tournament titles was the 15th time Florida has won both championships in the same season.

SEC AWARDS HISTORY

Prior to 1990, there was no distinction between singles and doubles All-SEC honors and only in 1987 and 1993 have the league coaches selected a first- and second-team All-SEC team. In 1994, the format for the award was changed again with the top player(s) at each position (based on record) earning All-SEC honors with the coaches also selecting an at-large squad. In 1995, the second team consisted of all doubles honorees (By position and at-large). The awards changed again in 2005, when the First Team selections were voted on by the league's coaches and the Second Team honorees were determined by the best record at each position. In 2006, the same selection format used in 2005 was followed, but there was no differentiation between singles and doubles awards. (u) indicates unanimous selection by the coaches.

THE HISTORY OF GATOR WOMEN'S TENNIS

1971-72

- The inaugural women's tennis program is comprised of an intercollegiate team and a competitive club squad. Players who did not make the first 10 positions were members of the club. Linda Hall Thornton was the team's first coach.

1972-73

- The inaugural varsity women's tennis team posts a 9-0 victory over Trenton State on Jan. 5, 1973 in its season opener to begin a winning tradition.
- Sue Whiddon, who had served as Flagler College's Athletics Director, coaches the team to a 5-3 record. Whiddon serves as a graduate coordinator and teacher in the department of Exercise and Sport Sciences at UF.

1973-74

- The team makes its first appearance in national competition, finishing 14th at the AIAW Championships.
- The Gainesville Sun nicknames UF's women's teams "Lady Gators."

1974-75

- Judy Acker becomes the first Florida player to win the state singles title.
- The Lady Gators end the season finishing seventh in the nation.
- Sue Whiddon opts to leave the coaching ranks to pursue her doctoral studies at Florida Atlantic University. She currently serves as a graduate coordinator and teacher in the department of Exercise and Sport Sciences at UF.

1975-76

- B.E. Palmer is selected to coach the team.
- Five of the nine players receive athletic scholarships for the first time ever.
- The Lady Gators finish the season in 12th place.
- Judy Acker is named to the first-ever women's All-American Tennis Team.

1976-77

- Former player Debbie Dunkin becomes the program's first assistant coach.
- Sherry Acker joins her sister Judy on the tennis team, and team-up to finish an impressive third place at the AIAW National Doubles Championships.

Debbie Dunkin (left) and UF's first All-American Judy Acker pose with the championship trophy for their 1976 state doubles title.

- The Lady Gators defeat powerful Rollins College 6-3 for the first time in school history.
- UF ends the year in fifth place, its highest AIAW national finish.

The 1971-72 Lady Gator tennis team

1977-78

- The Lady Gators claim a share of the FAIAW state title for the first time ever when they tie with Rollins.
- UF advances to the regional championships played in Oxford, Miss., and defeats Rollins in a playoff for the Region III tennis crown.
- UF finishes the year in fourth place, which is one spot above its national ranking the previous season.
- The Lady Gators are honored at their season-ending banquet for maintaining a 3.8 team grade point average.

1978-79

- Liz Broughton, who played at Rollins, becomes UF's third coach.
- The Lady Gators end the season with a sixth-place national finish.
- Junior Joyce Portman leads the team in overall singles victories with a 29-7 record.

1979-80

- The Lady Gators capture the inaugural SEC Championship.
- UF wins the FAIAW State championship.
- The Lady Gators win the AIAW Region Championships and advance to the National AIAW Tournament.
- LSU hosts the first Division I Championships under AIAW's new division structure which includes 24 teams, 64 singles and 32 doubles players. The Lady Gators end the season as national runners-up, their highest finish ever.
- Joyce Portman ends her senior year with a career dual match record of 51-10, the most wins in program history.

1980-81

- The Lady Gators win their second straight SEC Championship
- UF finishes in fourth place at the AIAW National Tournament.
- Coach Liz Broughton resigns her position at the end of the season to work on her doctorate.

1981-82

- Former Gator tennis player Steve Beeland is named the team's fourth head coach.
- Cissie Donigan returns as the only Lady Gator to achieve All-State, All Region and AIAW All-America honors.
- The Gators claim their third SEC title, defeating surprise finalist Ole Miss in the finals.
- The team finishes 10th at the inaugural NCAA Tennis Championship for women, losing 5-4 to South Carolina in Salt Lake City, Utah.

1982-83

- The Lady Gators lose four starters from last year, and have their top two spots filled by freshman Kathy Holton and transfer Julie Quamme.
- The team loses to Georgia 5-4 and settles for second place at the SEC Championships.
- UF falls to UCLA 7-2 in the first round of the NCAA Championships.

1983-84

- Suzie Fain is named the team's new assistant coach.
- The Gators claim their fourth SEC title.
- Kim Clingan and Jill Hetherington receive individual bids to compete in the NCAA Championships.
- UF finishes in seventh place at the NCAA Championships.
- Coach Beeland resigns to become head coach of UF's men's tennis program.

The 1978 Lady Gators claimed a share of the FAIAW state title for the first time in school history.

1984-85

- Andy Brandi becomes the fifth head coach of the Gator women's team.
- Jill Hetherington wins the Southeast Collegiate Tennis Championship.
- The Gators win the SEC team title, with Jill Hetherington capturing the No. 1 singles title before teaming with Jan Martin to win the No. 1 doubles title, as well.
- The Gators finish in seventh place at the NCAA Championships, falling 7-2 to Miami in the quarterfinals.

1985-86

- The Gators claim their third straight SEC title.
- Jill Hetherington and Tammy Whittington are named to the All-SEC team and Hetherington is also presented with the Sportsmanship Award.
- The Gators do not qualify for the NCAA Championships for the first time since the tournament began in 1982.

1986-87

- The Gators have an extremely strong lineup that year, including the addition of freshman sensation Shaun Stafford from Gainesville.
- The Gators record their most successful season ever, entering the SEC Championships with an undefeated 27-0 record, and the honor of being ranked No. 1 in the nation.
- Jill Hetherington is the first-ever SEC champion to achieve victories in both singles and doubles for four straight years.
- The Gators finish the year winning the SEC Championships and are ranked the nation's No. 2 team behind Stanford University. Shaun Stafford reaches the finals of the NCAA Singles Championships.

THE HISTORY OF GATOR WOMEN'S TENNIS

NORM SCHINDLER

Coach Andy Brandi congratulates Shaun Stafford in 1988 after she became the first Gator to win the NCAA Singles Championship.

1987-88

- UF competes in the first-ever National Indoor Championships, and wins the event by posting a victory over national rival Stanford.
- The new tennis complex is completed. It includes 14 tennis courts, a 1,000 seat stadium, and six lighted courts among others.
- The Lady Gators, who had never lost an SEC Championship under Andy Brandi, claim their fifth straight SEC crown.
- Lady Gators Shaun Stafford and Nicole Arendt are named to the United States National Team.
- Sophomore Shaun Stafford becomes the first Gator to win an individual NCAA tennis title when she defeats teammate Halle Cioffi in the first-ever singles final match-up between players from the same school. Stafford is also honored as the 1987 United States Olympic Committee's Female Athlete of the Year for tennis.
- Florida loses to Stanford in the finals of the NCAA team event.

1988-89

- Freshman Andrea Berger becomes the first Lady Gator to achieve 20 victories for the season.
- Florida loses in the SEC Tournament to Georgia.

DOROTHY ANDERSON SCHOLARSHIP

Neal Anderson, a former Gator running back and eight-year NFL veteran with the Chicago Bears who retired prior to the 1994 season, fully endowed a women's tennis scholarship at the University of Florida in October of 1991. The scholarship is named in memory of Anderson's mother, Dorothy, who passed away in 1987 after a long bout with Hodgkin's Disease. Anderson is the first professional athlete to fully endow a scholarship using a cash gift at Florida.

"The scholarship is named in memory of my mother," said Anderson, who was an NFL first-round pick in 1986 by the Chicago Bears. "She would be extremely proud to know about the scholarship and the opportunities it will give someone. My mother loved sports but she made it very clear from day one that school came first. She made sure that I never misunderstood my responsibility to receive a good education while in school."

"I think women's athletics is a great part of the University of Florida. I wanted to contribute to women's tennis for a combination of reasons but mostly because its an area that is still growing. It is a successful program and they need support. Football has always been — at all schools — a program that is taken care of first. I wanted to help out where it is most needed."

Anderson became involved with the tennis program while serving on the Lady Gator Boosters Association Committee. He attended four NCAA women's championships, which his alma mater played host to in 1989, 1990, 1999 and 2003.

Joanna Mather, who collected the award last year, is the 2012-13 recipient of the Dorothy Anderson Scholarship.

During a visit to the Varsity Courts, Neal Anderson took time out for a photograph of the first-ever recipients of the Dorothy Anderson Memorial Scholarship. (Left to Right): Former Coach Andy Brandi, Andrea Farley, Sue Rappenecker, Neal Anderson and Lisa Raymond.

Two-time Pro Bowl running back and first-round draft choice Neal Anderson is not only an avid tennis fan, but a gracious supporter of Gator Tennis. In 1990, the University of Florida graduate and SEC Academic Honor Roll selection fully endowed a scholarship in memory of his mother, Dorothy.

The Intercollegiate Tennis Association (ITA) sanctions the three legs of the collegiate singles and doubles Grand Slam events as well as the ITA National Team Indoor Championships and the NCAA Team Championships. The tournament legs in order contested: Riviera All-American; ITA/USTA National Indoor (formerly sponsored by ROLEX); and NCAA Championships. From 1986-2001, there were four national events, but the ITA National Clay Court Championships is no longer played.

NCAA Notes:

- Florida has reached the semifinals of the NCAA Championship 22 times in the last 26 years, including 13 trips to the NCAA final.
- In 1996, Florida became only the second team in NCAA women's tennis history to sweep the team, singles and doubles titles.
- Florida was the first of only two schools in NCAA women's tennis history to produce both the NCAA singles champion and finalist in the same year. Shaun Stafford defeated teammate Halle Cioffi in the finals of the 1988 championship.

2003 NCAA Team Championships

May 9-18 • Gainesville, Florida

First Round	d. Florida Atlantic 4-0
Second Round	d. Tulane 4-1
Round of 16	d. Arizona State 4-0
Quarterfinals	d. Vanderbilt 4-0
Semifinals	d. Duke 4-1
Final	d. Stanford 4-3

May 18, 2003 * Linder Stadium at Ring Tennis Complex Gainesville, Fla.

Every national championship is special, but the fourth one claimed by the University of Florida women's tennis team perhaps might be the one that Gator tennis fans cherish the most.

When junior Julie Rotondi raised her arms in the air for the final time and sprinted toward her exuberant teammates, it marked the first time in the illustrious 31-year history of the program that Gators had won the NCAA title on their home court.

Florida played host to the NCAA Championships for the fifth time in the 22-year history of the event and the 2003 squad was the third to reach the title match played in Gainesville. Each of the three times UF has advanced the final on their home court, Gators fans have responded. The 2003 championship match was no exception, as a spirited sellout crowd of 1,132 packed Linder Stadium at Ring Tennis Complex, giving the Gators a definite home court advantage and celebrated the national championship with the team.

The 2003 event was the 10th NCAA Championship ever hosted by UF and the women's tennis team became the second to win the title in front of their loyal Gator fans. The 1982 women's swimming & diving team was the only other Gator team to win the national championship in Gainesville.

UF's lone senior, Julia Scaringe, celebrated her 22nd birthday in style: playing her final collegiate team match on her home court and helping the Gators win the NCAA title.

Florida ended the year on a 20-match home winning streak, sporting an 18-0 record during the 2003 campaign.

While winning the NCAA title with a 4-3 upset of top-ranked and two-time defending champion Stanford clearly was the highlight of the 2003 season, it certainly wasn't the only accomplishment of the Gators.

Florida captured the 2003 SEC regular season title before winning the 2003 SEC Tournament crown. The Gators returned to the National Team Indoor Championships for the first time since 1999 and reached the final before losing a 4-3 battle to Duke. Florida received a program-record-tying eight individual bids into the NCAA Singles and Doubles Championships, including a program-high three doubles teams.

1998 Women's Tennis NCAA Champions
May 24, 1998 * Notre Dame, Ind.

Senior Dawn Buth and freshman Stephanie Hazlett rallied to win singles matches within moments of each other and capped Florida's 5-1 victory over Duke, which gave the Gators (27-0) their third NCAA Championship.

Florida also had undefeated teams when it won the 1992 and 1996 titles.

"This is overwhelming. That match was so closely contested. It went back and fourth, back and fourth. Dawn and Stephanie seemed to be in control of their matches and then the next it looked like they lost total momentum," UF coach Andy Brandi said. "Emotionally, this was one of the most grueling matches that I've been a part of in 14 years of coaching college tennis. It was amazing to see the fight and see them gut it out. There were brave when they needed to be brave. There were tough when it got to the tough times. I feel like all of this is a dream and it really hasn't sunk in."

Buth, who with fellow senior Bonnie Bleecker, guided UF to a 116-4 dual match record during their four-year careers, took a 4-1 lead in the third set against Vanessa Webb at the no. 1 position. Webb fought back and was serving for the match ahead 5-4. But Buth swept the next three games, twice on Webb's serve, and rallied for a 1-6, 6-3, 7-5 victory that gave UF a 4-1 lead.

"I couldn't have asked for a better way to end my career," Buth said. "I'm really proud of this team."

Stephanie Nickitas defeated Megan Miller 6-3, 6-2 at the no. 3 position to give Florida a 1-0 lead. Freshmen M.C. White and Whitney Laiho also won singles matches to set the stage for Buth's and Hazlett's heroics.

1996 Women's Tennis NCAA Champions

May 21, 1996 * Tallahassee, Fla.

Senior Lori Ann Freedman blasted a backhand winner down the line and gave the Gator women's tennis team its second NCAA Championship title, with a 5-2 victory over No. 2 Stanford.

Freedman paired with fellow senior Jill Craybas at the No. 3 doubles position and downed 60th-ranked Emily Burt and Beth Berris, 6-2, 7-6 (5), in the clinching match.

Six days following the team title, Craybas won the NCAA Singles title and the pair of Dawn Buth and Stephanie Nickitas won the NCAA Doubles crown, as Florida became only the second team in history to sweep the three NCAA titles (team, singles & doubles) and seal its place as one of the most dominating teams in collegiate history.

Head Coach Andy Brandi was recognized as the Wilson/ITA National Coach of the Year and the Southeastern Conference Coach of the Year, as she collected his 300th career win while guiding the Gators to a perfect 31-0 record.

Gator freshman Stephanie Nickitas, the lone rookie on the team, put Florida on the board early with a decisive 6-1, 6-1 victory over Amy Chiminello at the no. 6 singles position. Chiminello has lost only twice this season and both setbacks have been to Nickitas.

The team lead was short-lived, as Stanford charged back behind Julie Scott's 6-3, 6-2 victory over Bonnie Bleecker at the No. 5 slot. Craybas answered with a 6-3, 6-4 win over Ania Bleszynski at the No. 1 position. Moments later, Divya Merchant dropped a tough 7-6 (2), 6-3 decision at No. 3 to Sandra De Silva as the team score was knotted at 2-all. That's when the drama began, as No. 2 and No. 4 singles entered the third and decisive set.

Senior Lisa Pugliese dropped the first set at no. 4 to Kim Shasby after leading 5-3. However the veteran regained her composure and produced a 5-7, 6-1, 6-1 victory that lifted UF to a 3-2 lead in the team score.

Sophomore Dawn Buth, dubbed by some as the "Michael Chang" of women's college tennis, entered her 18th three-set match of the year after winning the first set but dropped the second to Katie Schlukebir. Buth slugged it out with Schlukebir and emerged with the 6-4, 4-6, 6-3 win - her 14th in three-set matches - and provided Florida a 4-2 advantage entering doubles play.

1992 NCAA Champions

In a season of fulfilled Florida dominance, the Gators found their third trip to the NCAA Finals would be a charm by defeating No. 3 Texas, 5-3. Sophomore Kristin Osmond depicted the team's aggressive character, saving two match points before pulling out a three-hour win at No. 5 singles.

Osmond then teamed with Erika Kuttler to win at No. 3 doubles and clinch the Gator's first NCAA Team Championship.

Florida completed the perfect season: 30-0 undefeated record, NCAA Champions, National Women's Indoor Team Championship, Southeastern Conference regular season and tournament championship. In addition, the Gators won each of the eight singles tournament in which they competed, including three collegiate grand slam titles by freshman Lisa Raymond.

Raymond became the first player in NCAA history, either male or female, to win three collegiate grand slam titles by claiming the NCAA Championship, National Clay Court and ROLEX National Indoor crowns. Raymond upset Georgia's top-seeded Shannan McCarthy in 63 minutes, 6-3, 6-3 for the NCAA crown. Raymond was unanimously chose the National Rookie of the Year and Tennis Magazine's Collegiate Player of the Year.

ACTIVE STREAKS (THRU 2011-12 SEASON)

- Florida has won 112 HOME consecutive regular-season (not including SEC Tournament or NCAA Championship) matches.

The Gators last regular-season setback at Linder Stadium was on April 7, 2002, when Georgia defeated Florida, 4-3.

The current streak is the longest of its kind in program history, recently passing the 71 in a row compiled from 1994-2001. The record-tying victory was a thrilling 4-3 upset win over then-No. 2 Georgia on March 13, while the record-breaker was a 5-2 upset against then-No. 15 Tennessee on March 15.

- Florida sports an overall program-record HOME 107-match win streak, including 19 wins in postseason play (SEC and NCAA Tournament). The Gators set a new standard with their 6-1 victory over Mississippi State on March 29, 2009. The previous record was the 60-match home winning streak that stretched from the 1993-94 season until May 23, 1999, when Stanford halted the run in the final of the NCAA Championship.

The last time the Gators fell at home came on May 15, 2004, in the second round of the NCAA Tournament to Miami (Fla.), 4-3.

ALFRED A. RING TENNIS COMPLEX

The Gator women's tennis program has always been the benefactor of one of the nation's top tennis facilities. Thanks to multiple generous contributions of the late Dr. Alfred A. Ring, the entire facility has undergone several upgrades to make it one of the best in the country.

The Alfred Ring Tennis Complex was completed during in January of 1999, following a $1.7 million renovation project. The focal point is a building adjacent to the courts that serves as home to the men's and women's teams.

The main building of the complex encompasses 5,620 square feet and includes coaches' offices for the men's and women's teams, as well as a training room and locker rooms for both players and coaches. There is also a conference room, a reception area and a 3,000 square-foot courtyard. The complex has a locker room for opposing teams, bringing the total building areas to 7,163 square feet.

The complex also features a 1,000-seat grandstand overlooking six main lighted courts, in addition to a second row of nine courts. The second row combines six outdoor courts and the three covered courts in the Ring Pavilion, giving Florida a total of 15 regulation courts. The courts, which are resurfaced every two years – most recently in the summer of 2012, are made of a hard court surface similar to the type of court found at the U.S. Open.

The grandstand is highlighted by a two-level, 15-seat press box and features six electronic scoreboards over each of the six courts, providing point-by-point updates on all six grandstand courts. Concessions and restrooms are conveniently located beneath the grandstand.

The attractive complex is surrounded by palm trees and a lush green landscape that easily makes it one of the most inviting tennis environments for both the spectator and the competitor. Even prior to the 1999 renovation, the Alfred Ring Complex received national attention for its splendor.

The NCAA selected the University of Florida as the host for the 1989, 1990, 1993, 1999 and 2003 NCAA Division I Women's Championships. The facility has played host to the NCAA Women's First & Second Round sub-regional each year since 1999, when the tournament field was expanded to 64 teams.

The Alfred A. Ring Complex also played host to a USTA Women's $10,000 event in January 2002.

CHARLES R. AND NANCY V. PERRY INDOOR TENNIS FACILITY

In December 2012, the lavish $1.5 million addition to the Alfred A. Ring Tennis Complex was finished and the University of Florida became one of just two universities in the state with indoor tennis capability.

Thanks to the generous contributions of Nancy Perry, The Charles R. and Nancy V. Perry Indoor Tennis Facility is a 22,800-square foot area that is ventilated and features three courts (with regulation space around them), state-of-the-art surfacing and lighting, plus a small area for fans to watch matches.

“We’ll be able to hit balls come rain or shine, which can only add to our development as a program and the development of our players,” UF women’s tennis head coach Roland Thornqvist said.

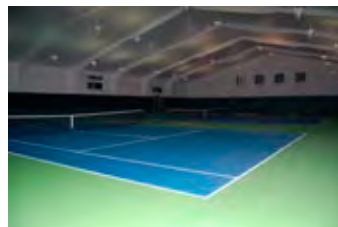

The Perry facility replaces the covered pavilion that was built nearly 20 years ago.

On Sept. 21, 2012, a few hundred people gathered for a ceremonial “topping off” of the Charles R. and Nancy V. Perry Indoor Tennis Facility, hosted by the University Athletic Association. The event served as a precursor to the actual grand opening in December 2012.
